JAYCEES AT BUHL SELECT OFFICERS

BUHL, Feb. 10 (Special).—An enthusiastic meeting with every chair occupied, marked the Buhl Jaycees' February meeting Tuesday night, which was also the election of officers for 1939. Hal Wallington was elected president, succeeding Harold Packer. Harley Crippen and Gene Thomey were elected vice-presidents. Bernard Starr, secretary. John Barker, treasurer, and three directors chosen were Jay Rugg, Glenn Buckendorf, and Walt Lyon. Frank Rettig, former state president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, gave a short talk before the group, telling of accomplishments that had been made, projects which were under consideration by the state organization, and stated the benefits which come from membership in the state organization. Rettig stated that the 11 clubs in the state with more than a thousand members were bound together to form a voice that will be heard, and would work together to build a bigger and better Idaho.

Buhl invited The Buhl club was invited to join the state and national organizations.

J. Butler, Salt Lake, president of the Salt Lake Jaycees in 1934, was also a guest at the meeting and spoke briefly on the things which were being accomplished in Utah.

President Packer enumerated the achievements made during the 1938 year, which had been undertaken. Major ones were the Buhl athletic field and ball park, seeding of park and installing underground water system. Twin Falls County fair booster banquet and Buhl day parade and caravan, anti-spyglass campaign, and the incorporation of the Buhl club. He stated that the membership of the Buhl club was 103.

Here's What Happened When 5 Tons of Dynamite Blasted

CCC CAMP, ROCK CREEK, Feb. 10 (Special).—Just what happens when 10,000 pounds of dynamite are exploded at one time? The result surprised a lot of the persons watching the huge blast was touched off by ROCK CREEK CCC camp employees Tuesday afternoon. Plenty of surprise was registered by spectators who had thought there would be a loud boom and a cloud of dirt and rocks thrown high into the air.

Slight Mumble Instead, there was a slight rumble and the entire mass of earth and rocks seemed to lift from position and move across the canyon on the route to Porcupine Springs. The big mass dropped on the other side. The blast was the latest blow in construction of the canyon road from Rock Creek into the Mililouka national forest.

The entire project was carried out by CCC employees who comprise the blasting crew under direction of C. H. Ramage, project superintendent. The work aimed at removing approximately 5,000 tons of rock and earth on one of the bad bends in the road, was so well planned and executed that there was not one accident reported and the blast went off on the first and only push of the plunger into the battery, setting off the electric wires which were set with the dynamite.

These Saw Blast Among the people who witnessed this blast were the following: Mr. Ramage, Oakley L. Barnard, assistant Supt.; Chapman E. Wilson, Pocatello district chaplain, and a few employees who happened to be lucky enough to be near enough to the blast when it was set. The

Rock Creek CCC Camp

It seems that the use of pick and shovel was the only education a man gets in the CCC. Lieut. Anthony Quesada, second in command at the Rock Creek camp, is giving a practical lesson in journalism to interested enrollees. Method is to give real assignments, correct and cut them in class, and send them to newspapers. The men are taking the course. They are L. Aaronson, Richard Lanning, Albert Anderson, Angelo Guechura, Earl Lamphere, Charles Freedman. All are either taking correspondence courses in journalism or are on the staff of the camp newspaper. Camp items in the Evening Times are being reported by this class.

BUHL

Mrs. L. G. Lacy and Mrs. Packer entertained members and two guests of the McCollum Social club Wednesday at home during the dinner hour. Introducing the following numbers: Noble Schrock, trombone solo; Harriet Holmes, clarinet solo; John Johnson, trumpet solo; Mrs. John Eby played the accompaniment for the instrumental numbers. Harold Packer sang a vocal solo, accompanied by Mrs. John Eby. The highlight of the musical entertainment was the Jaycee quartet, composed of J. C. Anderson, Martin Neff, Harold Packer, James Wright, and "Bus" Loney, who sang "Home On The Range." and "The Martins and the Cows." "Bus" Loney played the accompaniment on the guitar.

GOP Celebrates Lincoln Day as Democrats Split Ranks

REPUBLICANS SEE BEST CHANCE TO REGISTER GAINS

BY LYLE C. WILSON
 WASHINGTON, Feb. 10 (AP)—The politically rejuvenated Republican party was ready today for a week-end of Lincoln day celebration of November election successes and the prospect of another Democratic purge.
 Republican leaders believe their political future was better today than at any time since the 1928 election which put Herbert C. Hoover in the White House.
 The critics and anti-Republican estimate of today's political situation was that President Roosevelt and conservative Democratic politicians are likely to damage their party materially in a contest for control of the 1940 national convention. Q. P. Jones, judged the first month of the new congress to have demonstrated that the New Deal has lost control of both house and senate.
 Purge Intrigue
 Most of all Republicans were intrigued by the possibility of the change made this week by Sen. Carter Glass, D. Va., that Mr. Roosevelt was party to a plan to defeat Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D. Va., in next year's Democratic primary in Virginia.
 The administration's 1938 attempt to defeat conservative senators was a notable failure. That experience divided the party and left many second-guessing.
 Results of the November election are variously interpreted. Mr. Roosevelt has told critics he believed Democratic reversals largely should be attributed to local issues. Some of his fellow Democrats do not agree with him.
 Lincoln Day Dinner
 Neither do Democrats agree with the Republican summary of current political conditions. But it is remarkable that some Democrats are alarmed and see the party future almost as do Republicans. They hope all parties in the present uproar within Democratic ranks will be in better temper when congress meets again next January.
 Lincoln day dinners will begin in a scattering of communities tomorrow night. But the big broadcast will be from New York City this evening. Mr. Hoover will preside and there will be an exhibition of new Democratic campaign materials.
 Some of whom certainly are in the running for 1940. They include: District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, Gov. Raymond Baldwin, Cite for Gov. Leverett Saltonstall, Mass.; Gov. Julius P. Hill, Wis.; Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald, Mich.; and Gov. Ralph Carr, Colo.

Fishermen in Jerome Honor
Their Mayor
 JEROME, Feb. 10 (Special)—Practically every member was present at the home of Lou M. Zug, Thursday evening when the Never-Fail Fishermen's guild honored him on his 30th birthday.
 Due to the fact that Mayor Zug is also a full-time member of the guild, which is an exclusive order, he was presented with a handsome leather model of a fish, fittingly acknowledged his proficiency in spinning fish yarn.
 Zug has recently been acclaimed the world's champion in his line.
 The King Fish of the guild, M. A. Bishop, was presented with a handsome supply of fishing tackle, which had been sent him by a non-resident member from eastern Oregon. A lengthy discussion ensued after presentations had been made and between Zug, editor of the local paper, was reinstated as a member and was permitted to sign the membership roll. Zug has been on probation for the guild for the past year and a half.
 Cards were enjoyed during the evening and a buffet lunch was served.

Road Ice Fades
 Most of the ice on the Hagerman valley highway westward has now disappeared, State Traffic Officer Howard E. Carlson said today. Motorists had been urged yesterday to use chains from the top of Salmon grade through the valley.
 A bright sun Thursday melted the bulk of the ice, the officer said reports showed less than 100 additional hazards on the highway.

On The Cook's Day Out

Joan Blondell—Mrs. Dick Powell in real life—likes to take an early drive to market on cook's day out to choose delicacies which, when whipped into shape, and whisked into the oven and out again, make Dick's mouth water, and small Norman's, too, for that matter. Ellen of course, is too small for anything but strained vegetables, and things like that. Here's one of the creations which entice Joan to a master's degree in cookery.

JOAN'S CHOC-AL-BARS

2 egg whites
1 square chocolate
2 1/2 cup almonds, blanched and chopped
3 1/4 cup powdered sugar

Beat egg whites until stiff and add sugar gradually, while beating constantly. Fold in chocolate which has been somewhat cooled—and half the nuts. Spread mixture 1 inch thick in buttered and shallow pan. Sprinkle with remaining nuts and bake 40 minutes in slow oven, 300 degrees. Cut in finger shapes while warm.

AIR RESERVE IS OBJECT OF CLUB

Fliers over the Magic valley today were invited to join the Airplane Pilots league, organized in New York City for the purpose of securing from the federal government a plan whereby licensed pilots could participate in a civil air reserve. It was announced by Vic Kelley, Hazelton, president of the Idaho Pilots association.

Objective of the organization, a non-profit group, is a civilian air reserve that will be of real benefit to aviation and to represent the pilots of America in all matters affecting their activities and responsibilities.

The Private Aviation Aid Association, according to information by Kelley, wants "more consideration for private aviation. It wants sensible regulations and aims to assist the American people with the stimulation of our air defense and the problems concerning the development and encouragement of private flying.

Nurse Gives Lesson
In First Aid Course

BULL, Feb. 10 (Special)—Mrs. Mary Wilson, west end school nurse, gave the third of a series of first aid lessons to the rural teachers Wednesday evening at the Public school house.
 "Frequent use of stock resulting in additional complications, foreign bodies in the eye, snake bites, insect wounds and new and internal bleeding" were about the subjects of the lesson. A round table discussion followed and Mrs. Wilson answered a number of questions asked by the teachers.

BOARD TAKES NO HOSPITAL ACTION

No formal discussion and no action has been taken by the Twin Falls county board of commissioners in regard to enlargement of the county hospital under a legislative proposal by both houses of the legislature. Members of the board said today.
 The legislation would permit counties to call an election for a special levy to be used in hospital enlargement. Two-thirds vote of taxpayers would be necessary.
 Want No More Tax
 Although facilities at the hospital here are considered highly inadequate as to space, the commissioners appeared to be in no mood to seek additional tax funds for enlarging the plant. Built 20 years ago originally as an indigent hospital, the $175,000 structure now is too small because of the large number of indigent and pauper patients.
 The bill empowering the commissioners to call an election to decide on a levy to increase the hospital fund, introduced by Rep. H. Chris Reineke, Twin Falls, funds totaling $35,000 were set aside last year by the former board for possible use in hospital expansion. The money is still in the poor fund but the type of enlargement necessary, would run considerably above that total and a vote on an added tax probably would meet with energetic resistance.
 No Official Consideration
 Thus far, Commissioners George R. Hart, C. B. Linsey and Tom E. Potter have not officially considered the matter, according to Mr. Reineke. Hospital operation cost to the county is increased annually by private patients unable or unwilling to pay their bills promptly.
 Any reasonable purchase offer for the hospital would probably be accepted by the board, according to unofficial opinion among the members. The county then could erect a smaller hospital restricted entirely to indigents, the present, because of the crowded condition, a maternity ward has been established at the county farm for indigent mothers requiring surgery for delivery.

Highway Makes Few

Kire, of this district, were released, to be replaced later. Several other changes may be made within the next few days, it is stated. In other parts of the district, Claude Morris, inspector, Miller Miller and Emory Sears, Gooding, were laid off; L. V. Schubert and O. H. Condit, Jerome, were also released, without replacements at the present time.
 ROBINS ARRIVES
 SHOSHONE, Feb. 10 (Special)—Better it or not, the first robin were here on Feb. 8, although they appear a little skeptical regarding the snow-free area and wintry-looking quarters. Doubtless old residents or early tenants, it has been noticed that a pair of yellow-rumped, or flickers, has remained in a secluded spot near the county building throughout the entire winter.
