REPORT RAPS 'FILTH' AT STATE PRISON

Early Appointment Looms to Fill Brandeis Court Post

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (U.P.)—Administration and congressional quarters today expected President Roosevelt to appoint a westerner to fill the supreme court seat vacated by Justice Louis Brandeis. There was no hint of White House plans.

Mr. Roosevelt was expected to fill the vacancy quickly. It will be his fourth appointment to the high court in the two years since he advanced his supreme court reorganization plan.

The 82-year-old Brandeis have no hint of his plans for the future in the brief note to Mr. Roosevelt in which he announced his retirement after 22 years on the bench. He was the oldest justice and exceeded in years of service only by Justice James C. McReynolds.

Brandeis' friends have suggested that if he retired he would devote his energies to aiding Jewish refugees from central Europe. The first Jew to sit on the high bench, Brandeis last year had been intensely interested in the Zionist movement.

Westerners Named
The list of persons most prominently mentioned as possibilities for his seat was headed by westerners. Among those names are those of Justice Harold Stephens of the U. S. court of appeals for the District of Columbia, a native of Utah, Ben Lewis B. Schwelbush, D. Wash., one of the New Deal staunchest advocates, Dean Wiley B. Rutledge, Jr., of the University of Iowa law school, Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson, and Judges Sam Branton and Joseph T. McHugh of the U. S. circuit bench.

Of these, the first three were regarded as having the best chance. Stephens was considered for the vacancy created by the death of Benjamin N. Cardozo which was filled this month with the appointment of Justice Felix Frankfurter.

One well-informed source said before the Frankfurter appointment, he understood Brandeis would retire soon and Mr. Roosevelt would name Stephens to the Cardozo vacancy and Frankfurter to the Brandeis seat.

Increasing the likelihood that a westerner would be named to the seat, is the fact that only one court (continued on Page 2, Column 3)

Jack Benny Trial Set for March 6

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (U.P.)—The trial of Jack Benny on embezzlement charges was put over until federal court until March 6.

It was the second postponement of the radio and screen comedian's hearing on charges that he embezzled $120,000 of French jewelry from this country for his wife, Mary Livingstone.

The case originally was set for Jan. 24 and was put over the first time to today.

$700,000,000 For Beauty!

Beautifully costs a pretty penny in America each year. More than $384,000,000 for cosmetics, another $10,000,000 for soap. For beauty services alone, facials, manicures, permanent waves, etc., between $100,000,000 and $200,000,000.

Somewhere in this vast figured sum, dear, unhappy Suzy, who longed for beauty with all her heart, Susan won it, too. But the victory came out to be something she had scarcely dreamed.

Her story is told in an absorbing new serial, truly a "woman's" serial, "Woman Want Beauty!" beginning

GOP Party Presents United Front, Fight At Lincoln Dinners

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 (U.P.)—The Republican party, admittedly moribund until last November, presented to the nation today what its leaders asserted was a "united front" infused with "a great spirit of fight for 1940."

Leaders looked back on last night's Lincoln day celebration here, one of the largest and most militant gatherings of Republicans in years, and predicted a return to power in the next presidential election after eight lean years.

Former President Herbert Hoover, who keynoteed the six-hour "unity through unity party" with the acceptance of the party platform, predicted a return to power in the next presidential election after eight lean years.

Still stimulated by the repeated and sustained bursts of applause and cheers with which nearly 2,000 white-tied and collared gowns and Republican men and women greeted his 2,000-word address, the party chief spoke of the "great spirit of fight for 1940."

Hamilton Johnson, party chairman, said: "I want to say to you that we have been through a long and hard fight, but we have won. We have won the right to govern the country for the next four years."

"There are men of varying degrees of viewpoint in our party, but they are all united in their belief that the party is the best hope of the country. That is the test of a Republican whether he believes in the party or not. That is the test of a Republican whether he believes in the party or not."

The directors of Republican strategy made no secret of the fact that the party's main objective was to keep plugging at New Deal "extraneous" expenditures which the Democratic party and that New Deal expenditures have not solved the problem of unemployment.

Mr. Hoover, his speech ended with a scathing reference to "pinkies" in the New Deal "new school of budgetary magic" and what he called the "philosophy of reaction in economic life."

"This is a party of men who believe in the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. It is a party of men who believe in the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

SOLONS ATTACK FDR OVER LACK OF COOPERATION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14 (U.P.)—Angry charges of "lack of cooperation" by President Roosevelt were voiced by Democratic congressmen at a secret caucus on party strategy today.

The caucus, it was learned, produced a general airing of complaints. A number of Democrats criticized the attitude of Mr. Roosevelt. House leaders complained about the handling of administration bills by Democratic committee chairmen.

Purpose of the leaders in calling the caucus was to attempt to stiffen the house Democratic organization in order to meet more effectively the enlarged and closely-coordinated Republican minority.

Criticism of the President, it was reported, was led by Rep. Eugene E. Cox, D. Ga., leader of Democratic conservatives and a critic of many administration measures.

Cox was reported to have complained that there was "not enough consultation between the White House and Democratic members of this house." He said that if the President would take the Democrats more completely into his confidence, cooperation would be easier to which he is entitled.

Other members agreed that house difficulties this session could be attributed to lack of cooperation between the legislative and executive branches.

Rep. Jennings Randolph, D. W. Va., a New Dealer, was said to have protested the President's message to congress asking for an additional $100,000,000 for relief funds, immediately after congress cut the work program appropriation by $150,000,000.

He said that it was a difficult matter to cooperate with the executive under such conditions.

One member said that leaders criticized failure of the appropriations committee to report and handle the relief and independent offices appropriation bills so that record votes could be taken.

They pointed out that on two crucial tests in which the administration was beaten—the $100,000,000 for relief funds and the $150,000,000 for work program—Republican opposition was a record vote could not be obtained in the house. This presidential session, it was said, the administration was "regarding their stand if they desired."

LEAGUE ASKS FOR REDUCED BUDGET

Representing the Twin Falls County League, A. J. Neumann, Twin Falls, presented to the board of county commissioners today that no department under the 1939 county budget should be increased.

Neumann, the only taxpayer appearing before the board this morning, pointed to increases in all but two departments under the tentative budget, which has not yet been adopted. The board has until Friday to take any action on the budget, which may be reduced but not increased.

Neumann pointed to the need in this year, as in past years, for a reduction in the budget. He said that the board should consider the needs of the county and the needs of the taxpayers.

SHOSHONE CRACKS COUNTERFEIT RING

SHOSHONE, Feb. 14 (Specials)—Two men were in county jail today and another was being held by the sheriff's office after being arrested in a motor car allegedly used in the ring.

The asserted counterfeit ring, Sheriff George Brown said, had been making $10 and $20 bills in their room at the McCall hotel, Sheriff Brown and Police Officer Ben E. Weeks, in arresting the accused men and smashing the ring, confiscated complete counterfeiting equipment, "pressed" bills, and other materials in a motor car allegedly used in the ring.

These men are believed to have been in the ring for the silver. The man who filed and made good his escape is allegedly an ex-convict known by officers as Nielsen. He had registered at the hotel, they said, as W. M. Napier.

Charges against the pair now in jail were awaiting today the arrival of a treasury agent from Boise. The agent was to take possession of the men's property.

$25,000 Urged to Help Elimination Of Bad Condition

BOISE, Feb. 14 (U.P.)—Expenditure of approximately $25,000 to eliminate "filthy" and dangerous conditions in the state penitentiary was urged today by a joint committee of the house and senate today.

Poor ventilation, lack of toilet facilities and plumbing, overworked guards, unsatisfactory locking devices on cell blocks, condemned buildings still in use and lack of quarters for the criminally insane were pointed out in the report.

Due to inadequate sewage and poor ventilation, we can imagine the stench which arises during the summer months from the No. 1 cell house," the committee reported.

"We find the plumbing throughout the penitentiary extremely old and there are a great number of leaks in the pipes."

The report praised prison officials for their work in teaching inmates trades and manufacturing trades to reduce labor expense.

"There is no place in the institution to keep the criminally insane. It is necessary to place them in solitary confinement to prevent their disturbing other prisoners," the legislators reported.

The only place where the criminally insane can be held is known as the 'dungeon' which is a low-bellied building without windows and with only a slight space at the bottom of the door for light and ventilation.

Extremely Unhealthy
"This building contains several small cells which are dark, damp, ill-ventilated and extremely unhealthy. There is nothing in this room except an opening into the corridor, and the cells are crowded to lie on the cement floor for any rest and sleep he may get."

They recommended repairs to the cells, building of one, the digging of a well to produce drinking water, installation of more equipment for handicapped prisoners, provision for criminally insane in an institution other than the penitentiary, reduction from 12 to 8 hours of inmate workday, and addition of 10 more guards; sale of the Eagle Island farm and purchase of new farmland; installation of a unified bookkeeping system.

Expense High
"The expense of American government for 1938 was more than the combined income from all the extractive industries including agriculture, mining and lumbering."

STEEL CONTRACT VOTED FOR FIELD

Contract for purchase of more than 38,000 pounds of steel needed in construction of the new grandstand at Lincoln field had been awarded today by the Twin Falls board of school trustees.

The structural steel and forge company, Salt Lake City, received the contract on a total bid of $10,222.82.

The bids called for 30,338 pounds and an alternate supply of 8,332 pounds with a possibility of minor changes.

As expected, the board selected the principals of the five schools in the city system. Re-named to their posts for next year were Mrs. Ethel H. Gray, Nickel, Miss Beulah Way, Lincoln, Mrs. Nora J. Pritchard, Washington, Mrs. Vera C. O'Leary, junior high, and Edward Rogel, senior high school.

Brief fireworks flared over the long-argued matter of two switches installed on high school electrical installation last summer. Concensus of board opinion, offered vigorously by several members, was that if the specifications called for the switches, they should be installed. Architect Andrew McQuaker, however, advised the board that "the installation has not suffered—it's a good one."

Payment Withheld
The board had previously withheld final payment to Vance Electrical company, Salt Lake City, pending settlement of the matter. An apparent loophole in the specifications was pointed out in a letter from Vance's attorney to H. H. Parry, school counselor, and Parry in a message to McQuaker that was read to the board, suggested that the architect re-examine the specifications. Parry indicated he was inclined to advise payment to Vance if the grounds on which the board had acted were found to be uncertain.

The matter was tabled to await further information.

Approver Davis Booklet
The board voted acceptance of Supt. Homer M. Davis' comprehensive booklet on school policies after approving insertion of a suggestion by S. H. Graves emphasizing that this system offers "American schools for American youth," and that teaching of democracy as showing the fallacy of "isms" is to be a part of the program.

The building fund, which started at $350,000, is now at $1,158,744, Supt. Davis reported. From that sum the board subtracted $429,474 additional last night in authorization of bills. The trustees also approved payment of $4,355.38 from the general fund for other bills, $10,000 from the sinking fund to retire old bonds; $2 from the gym and playground fund; $300 from the interest fund.

CONTRACT GIVEN GROWERS' FAVOR

The way was cleared today for Twin Falls county beet growers to sign their 1939 beet contracts.

The state association, meeting at Pocatello Monday, approved the contract described as "practically the same" as last year's except for minor changes to benefit growers, according to Carl Leonard, Piler, Jack D. Claborn, Kimberly, and Vera Leigh, Butte. All three attended the session. Leonard is president and Claborn secretary-treasurer of the county association and are directors of the state group.

Leonard said that the 1939 contract as accepted will mean more cash returns than the preliminary document offered several weeks ago. At Pocatello the state leaders conferred with Amalgamated and Utah-Idaho sugar executives.

Sign-up in this area will be started this week by Amalgamated field men.

SOCIAL SECURITY MANAGER VISITS

Charles H. Cannon, manager of the Pocatello field office of the social security board, will be in Twin Falls Wednesday at the Idaho state employment service.

While here, the office manager will assist local residents who wish to make changes or corrections in the records they originally filled out to get an old-age insurance account card number. He will also aid those wishing to file claims for lump-sum payments under the federal old-age insurance provisions of the social security act.

Cannon will also arrange duplicate account card numbers for those persons whose cards have been lost, destroyed or so badly worn out they cannot be read.

Agent Ranks High

JEFFREY, Feb. 12 (Special)—Herald Hooker, insurance agent, has again scored high for selling policies on life insurance according to word he recently received from his company. He ranks third among all other agents in the eight areas of the intermountain division for the year in selling the most number of policies on life.

Hooker has been awarded a number of prizes and trips for his outstanding work in this line.

Reciprocal Trade Agreements Told
The Lima conference and reciprocity treaties were discussed at a meeting of the study group of the Women's Republican club Tuesday afternoon in the Idaho Power company auditorium. Mrs. E. M. Swenson presided in the absence of the president, Miss Izella McCoy.
Mrs. H. E. Hammerquist discussed the reciprocity program from its inception in 1892 to the present time. She made reference particularly to the reciprocity trade agreement of 1934, extending extra-duties to treaty-making powers to the executive branch of the government.
Mr. L. H. Brown outlined the purposes and accomplishments of the Lima conference. Both subjects were discussed by the group, and Mrs. C. H. Kregel led a discussion on the relations existing between the Americas. She also spoke briefly on tribute to Lincoln, his ideals and patriotism.
An attractively appointed tea was served by a group of club members from the Flair district, with Mrs. O. J. Childs as chairman. Mrs. L. H. Brown presided.
The next meeting of the group will be held Feb. 27.

Divide Town
NAN JOBE, Calif., 028-J2—The city council here got into the eyes when it started in to investigate complaints relative to the speed of the fire department. A house-to-house canvass seemed to reveal the consensus that for the people who owned the house that was on fire the department did not move fast enough. But for the people who had to get out of the way of the trucks it moved too fast.
