Spokane Aviator, Lost 3 Days, Reports at Coeur d'Alene Governor Heads Aid Celebration

WALKS THROUGH MOUNTAIN SNOW AFTER SMASH-UP

COEUR D'ALENE, Ida., Feb. 15 (UP)—Using the compass of his wrecked plane to guide him, Roy Shreck, Spokane weather observation pilot, walked out of the wilderness of the Idaho panhandle to safety today, ending a three-day search by rescuers who had given him up for dead.

Shreck fought his way for miles through blizzards and treacherous snowdrifts while wearing his heavy winter gear. Flying out of the plane, he estimated he weighed 75 pounds. But he said if he had shed it he would have frozen to death.

Shreck said a crash landing on a heavily wooded mountainside blanketed with fog early Sunday morning. Trees demolished his yellow single-motored biplane but Shreck said he suffered only a "slight" back injury.

Suffering from cold and hunger he stumbled through drifts out of the mountains and finally reached the plane covered in snow. He named Hansen yesterday afternoon.

After getting his first food and rest in three days, Hansen brought the 36-year-old pilot to Coeur d'Alene today.

Giving the first word of his safety, Shreck telephoned his wife in Spokane, as soon as he reached Coeur d'Alene.

Missing Since Sunday He had been missing since shortly after midnight Sunday when he left Fells field on a routine observation flight. He radioed an hour later that a strong wind, forming in the plane, had blown him out of control.

Shreck said he crashed about 25 miles from Wolf Lodge, a small mountain station, which is about 25 miles northeast of Coeur d'Alene.

Bandits Get Big Haul in Florida Raid

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 15 (UP)—The Miami Daily News estimated that a bandit gang which terrorized guests and employees at the Blackstone hotel today escaped with between $150,000 and $200,000 in cash, gems and securities.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 15 (UP)—Police blocked all streets and highways leaving Miami Beach today to trap a gang of bandits who held up employees of the Blackstone hotel and fled with deposit boxes containing valuables of hotel guests.

Amount of the loot obtained by the gang, reportedly having numbered five or six men, was believed to have been considerable.

The bandits entered the hotel, located near the beach on one of the resort city's busiest streets, just before 5 a. m. Herding about 10 fleeing bandits out of the room, they systematically chose from the 100 deposit boxes in the hotel, Police Chief H. V. Youm said.

The deposit boxes had been assigned by the hotel to guests and only the box-holders knew the contents. The loot, however, was believed to have included jewelry.

The gang entered the hotel lobby through the garden, according to Alfred Stone, a Miami resident who carried guns and held handkerchiefs before their faces.

SPORTSMEN MAP PLANS FOR YEAR

Major objectives of the B club of Sportsmen were outlined at a regular monthly meeting held in the prostrate court here Monday night. The meeting was presided over by Lawrence Murphy, chairman.

Program for the coming year included planting of bass in the Salmon reservoir, investigation of alga for breeding ponds for blue gills, membership drive and a fishing party for Murrumbidgee lake some time in June or July.

The top project will be the planting of bass in the Salmon reservoir. Already funds are available to secure 700 of these species of fish. They will be planted as soon as the ice leaves the lake. The fish will be planted later as the membership of the B club increases. The bass are being secured from the Blue Lakes Bass farm.

Membership Drive

Membership drive for the club is under the direction of Roy Atwood, who reports that to date less than half of the area has been canvassed and that a huge membership can be enrolled in this work quite further along.

Investigation of ponds for breeding and holding blue gills will start Sunday when a committee consisting of officers and anyone else wishing to join the group will leave from the Gerrieh Sport shop at 10 a. m. While Murrumbidgee lake has been planted with crappie and bass by the state fish and game association for the past six years, with fishing plentiful, members in attendance at the meeting stated that the 87 large spawning sized blue gill planted in the lake three years ago and some built head by the B club none of this species had ever been caught.

Reproduction Probe

Sportsmen decided that 50 or more boats would take to the lake at one time. It would be determined if the fish reproduced. This will be taken care of when the outing is set by the chairman, takes place next summer and will determine the advisability of future plantings.

Future meetings of the organization will be held the first Monday evening in the month.

SEES WOE FOR MAGIC VALLEY

Editor, Times:

Wow into the Magic Valley: That valley of fertile fields, for have not the scribbles written that the hills of the old serpent of Old have been heard in our fair land?

Poop on the sackcloth and ashes, of a poor man's liberty and personal rights are at an end.

The neck and lowly who seek only an opportunity to earn their money, and who, because there is not such opportunity, must submit to that humiliating governmental role, are to be denied their citizenship for three years after they receive their last dose. Nor is the stranger, who comes into our midst, seeking a home and employment, to be allowed citizenship for three years after he comes amongst us.

It is the voice of class hatred, Communism, Fascism, Nazism, and that great and terrible beast Dictatorship, that has spoken through the mouths of innocent and trusting members of the Twentieth Century club.

Who is he, this land that I have been so proud of, I must hide my face in shame for my nakedness. For the rule of the class has ceased to be the measuring rod of its judgment.

KIMBERLY SLATES SPEECH CONTEST

KIMBERLY, Feb. 15 (Special)—The American Legion tent of Kimberly will sponsor the third annual oratorical and essay contest in this community, according to an announcement made this week by Deane S. Shipley, post commander.

The post is cooperating with the high schools of the community in sponsoring for the third successive year, the American essay and oratorical contest. The state meet was held in Kimberly last year.

Those eligible to enter the contest must be bona fide high school students under 19 years of age on May 1, 1939. This eliminates post-graduates. A student may enter both contests, providing different subjects are used.

Suggested subjects deal with Americanism, patriotism and national problems. Complete rules and clarifications will be made to the instructors and students entering the contest so as to eliminate any misunderstanding.

It has not been determined what the awards will be for the district and state meets. The national awards will be a gold watch and all expenses to each contestant and a complete college education to the national winner.

The district winners will be named before March 29 and will compete in the state contest to be held in Boise.

You can't notice any odor from your plate or bridge—but others may! Dentists call this odor "denture breath" and it's serious. It comes from a mucous coating that collects on false plates and bridges. This scum is almost invisible—but it can make your breath so bad that friends shudder. It can breed decay-bacteria that infect your other teeth, actually hurt your health and spoil your pleasure.

Ordinary brushing often can't get this scum off plate or bridge—can't protect you against "denture breath."

But just try Polident! Polident not only cleans—it actually purifies plates and bridges without brushing. It gets every bit of scum, tarnish, stain and odor dissolved! It astringes and leaves your plate sweet and clean as new.

Your breath will be fresher, your mouth feel cleaner—and your plate last longer and look better. Polident is approved by dental authorities. Good Housekeeping and tens of thousands of delighted users. Long-lasting can cost only 30¢ at any drug store.

1939 Year of Reconciliation?

The year just passed was in many respects bitter and unsatisfactory. The "Year of the Dictatorships," some are calling it. Business in the United States, and in the world, dropped off from 1937. The world was filled with controversies and strife.

The two-and-a-half-year Spanish war, with its million dead, seems approaching the point where it started—that is, the point where the differences between Nationalist and Republican elements must be threshed out around a table.

That is the way with every war. It begins with a controversy. The thousands die and are shovelled into muddy graves. And then it has to be settled around a table, anyway.

The long-standing controversy between the TVA and the neighboring utility companies is in process of settlement. This fight between the new government agency and the privately-owned utilities has been going on for six years, and there are some who believe that it has had a major effect in holding back business advancement.

If there is any truth in that, the obstacle has been removed by the agreement of the TVA to buy the Tennessee Electric Power company for about $80,000,000. Here, as in all settlements, concessions were made by both parties, but apparently mostly by the government.

In any case there is reason to believe that the elimination of this long-fought controversy from the business picture brightens the outlook.

Steps are being taken to settle the controversy with Mexico over expropriation of oil properties owned by Americans there.

After nearly a year of bickering, both countries have found little advantage to themselves in this unhealed breach of normal relations. There is good reason to believe that pressure is piling up behind both governments which may lead to settlement.

Of the Chinese war, as much can not yet be said. But even here there have been "peace feelers." Despite all the unquiet and the wars and rumors of wars that have been giving the world the jitters during the past few months, it is just possible that 1939 instead of being the year of disaster might turn itself into the year of reconciliation and peace.

Our Literary Convicts

Inmates of federal prisons read from five to 10 times as many books as people who patronize public libraries.

About 75 per cent of all inmates of federal prisons and reformatories read an average of 70 books each last year, the Federal Bureau of Prisons has found.

At Alcatraz, where the inmates are presumably all four-minute eggs, 98 per cent of them averaged 102 books apiece.

At least a third of the books drawn in federal prisons are non-fiction, suggesting not merely the time-killing incident of a population which after all isn't going anywhere, but ambition.

What an improvement this is over the days when prisoners were locked up from dawn to dusk and back again day after day, year after year!

How many of these men have learned from the world of books during their enforced separation from the real world the things they need to turn them to useful lives? It would be useless to exaggerate. Probably most of them read from sheer boredom. But the high percentage of non-fiction subjects suggests that many are trying to prepare themselves to do better on their second trial.

No matter how small the percentage of men set on the right track by prison libraries, the result is worth more than the costs.

That heroine, who cheered the survivors of the Cavalier seaplane disaster as they clung to life preservers in the darkness, has a great future as a hostess. She could make a tea party cheerful.

The movement to keep tomatoes out of clam chowder will gain speed only if it is linked to a plan to put clams in.

In basketball 47 to 46 is a good close game. In congress, as concerns the relief appropriation reduction, it amounts to a stinging rebuke for the President.

A lady who knows little of politics believes this country is suffering from the Seven Year Itches.

ITEM IN WHICH CCC BOYS CHASE WILDCAT!

Pot Shots: While the boys out here at Rock Creek CCC camp were patiently awaiting supper, one of the inmates, Leonard Cooca, sped through the window of the barracks, which looked like a mountain wildcat. A few of the boys decided to go after it. They started to run towards the mountains just outside of camp, and before a few minutes passed, the entire camp, including the technical personnel, had joined in the chase, armed with stones, sticks and guns. The wildcat, gray in color, about three feet long, and with a long bushy tail and large head, saw the boys and instead of going up the mountain dashed toward camp. It ran through the line of men, just like a star football player making a sensational break in the field. The boys, naturally, dispersed as the cat came towards them, and the men with the guns were too far away at the time to contain their fear of hitting one of the boys. The run by the cat ended with the animal under the tool house floor and the whole camp surrounding the shed. A few of the boys even sacrificed supper, waiting for the cat to come out, but it never did. So, we surmise it escaped, at least the tool house clerk hopes so. —Anastasia

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

By BRUCE CATTON
(Evening Times Washington Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Congressman Edward Taylor, Colorado Democrat, figures he has the recipe for success in Washington. You get along all right, he says, if you are in congress ever since 1909. He is chairman of the powerful house appropriations committee, and he recalls that the job killed six of his predecessors. All much younger than he; anyway, they died while they held the office. But he's getting excepted. "I attribute my long service," he says, "to the fact that I never aspired to be great. I have never thought that I was elected because of my superior intellect. I have never tried to be an orator. My sole object is to be the most useful public servant Colorado ever sent to Washington."

In all his campaigns for congress, Mr. Taylor has never been opposed for his party's nomination. When election time comes he just stands on his wide, open days in Leadville, in the 1880's. The miners all congregated in saloons, and he started running for local offices back in the wide, open days in Leadville, in the 1880's. SAVING CONGRESS' LEGS

Congressmen as well as senators may be able to ride to work in the near future. Underground passages connect the capitol with the house and senate office buildings. They're the dirty little subway car—two of 'em, in fact—running to the senate building, but the house people have to wait for the subway car to get to the capitol, but it kept breaking down. Senators say this was because congressmen were too rough with their other explanation is that there were just naturally too many of them.

Anyhow, a recently introduced bill would have a moving sidewalk installed in the house passage, to save near and dear in congressional legislation. Senators say this was because congressmen were too rough with their other explanation is that there were just naturally too many of them.

DOESN'T DRINK, BUT SETS 'EM UP

Congressman Taylor does not drink and never has. But he figures he has bought more drinks than any teetotaler that ever lived. He started running for local offices back in the wide, open days in Leadville, in the 1880's. ONE-SIDED VISITING

If you have a town to shed, shed it for Mrs. Sheridan Downey, wife of the junior senator from California. She tries to make 35 calls before anybody can come to call on her.

Staking calls in official Washington is strictly an art. A senator's wife, for instance, calls on the wives of all senators senior to all his juniors. Seniority is determined by the date a senator took the oath of office. In the case of the junior senator, the date is the date he was elected to office.

Senator and Mrs. Downey checked up after they got here to see where they stood, and found that Senator Downey ranks No. 50 before Mrs. Downey can be at home to the wives of her husband's colleagues, she has to pay a call on every last one of them.

Named regular vice-commander was Jack Davidson of Burley while John F. Meyer, Buhl, was elected junior vice-commander, Robert E. O'Reilly, Buhl, was elected executive committee member.

Members also named E. L. Rayborn, Twin Falls, as general chairman of the state convention of the group which will be held here May 31. The local attorney will also serve as chaplain. Idaho's enrollment of the organization now totals 341.

Entertainment last night was furnished by leaders from the Twin Falls Recreation center. Auxiliary members provided refreshments.

Authentic Costuming Marks Final Act of Junior Class Offer

Authentic costuming will be a feature of the last act of the Twin Falls high school junior class play, "As You Like It on Skis," which will be given Thursday and Friday at Sun Valley. As a result only two boys and two girls will wear formal clothes in this scene in the Duchin room. Others will wear "sports" clothes or ski clothes.

Old comfortable moosehide bedroom slippers will be seen on the stage. Sile reports that they are very popular evening wear in Sun Valley.

In an act, one which takes place in Hollywood, the girls will wear attractive afternoon clothes and the boys California sports wear. In act two in Sun Valley ski clothes and sports clothes will be worn by both boys and girls.

This modern costuming of a Shakespearean play is very unusual, she emphasized.

TRIAL FEB. 28 ON ASSAULT CHARGE

SHOSHONE, Feb. 15 (Special)—Trial starting Feb. 28 had been decreed today for two Twin Falls men accused of slugging Frank Pimental, Elsie rancher who has had long hospital care as result of the assault.

The men are Lewis Smith and J. W. Crane. Appearing for district court arraignment Monday before Judge D. H. Sutphen, the two men entered not guilty pleas to accusation of assault with a deadly weapon, and Judge Sutphen fixed the trial date.

Ross Haddock, local attorney, was appointed by the court to represent the defendants.

Both Lewis and Crane are in the county jail under $2,000 bond.

RICHFIELD, Feb. 15 (Special)—Funeral services were scheduled for 2:30 p. m. today for Sherman Piper, 15-year-old basketball player and basketball player, who died at Twin Falls Monday night as result of an accidental bullet wound suffered here early that evening.

Services today were to be held in the high school gymnasium to accommodate the throng of friends expected to attend. L. D. B. church officials were to be in charge, with arrangements handled by the Burdette funeral home of Shoshone. Interment will be made in the Richfield cemetery.

Classmates and fellow-athletes were to be included among those paying tribute today.

The boy is survived by his father, S. J. Piper, his brothers, Carl and Lyle; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. John A. Piper; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson, all of Richfield.

Sherman was born July 29, 1923. He was in Richfield in addition to his student and basketball activities.

His government was soon deeply involved in the Czechoslovak crisis and although Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany and Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy upheld Hungary's rights to a slice of Czechoslovakia, they failed at the Munich conference, to draw up a new Czechoslovak-Hungarian boundary line. As a result, Hungary got nothing until she had massed troops on the Czechoslovak border and threatened an invasion, and there had been several bloody clashes on the frontier.

Britain Told to Recognize Rebels

Halifax Sees No Gains by Added Delay

LONDON, Feb. 15 (AP)—Vice-Minister Halifax, foreign secretary, has advised the government to recognize the Spanish nationalists speedily and unconditionally. It was understood today.

Lord Halifax has advised Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain that in his opinion there was nothing to be gained either by delaying recognition or by imposing conditions.

This seemed a departure from the usual viewpoint.

The French government decided yesterday to send Gen. Louis Berthot, special envoy, on a second visit to the nationalists to lay the foundation for diplomatic relations.

But both the French and British governments to date had withheld formal recognition because they were trying to damage the nationalist position before the nationalists as a means of persuading them to give the loyalist government conditions for an expected early surrender, and also because they wanted recognition to be accompanied by a firm pledge that Italian and German troops would leave Spain soon.

Gay Carnival At Ketchum Next Sunday

KETCHUM, Feb. 15 (AP)—The main street will become the roaring boom days of the Ketchum next Sunday, Feb. 19.

That's the date for the first annual Ketchum carnival, according to announcement, sponsored by the Ketchum Boosters club under Otto Reeve as general chairman.

Chairman Reeve said today: "The once little ghost town of Ketchum has taken on new life and ambitions, and the best available talent in this section has been secured for this carnival. Committees are busily working around our streets arranging their various events. We promise a day of splendor and excitement."

And here's the program outlined by Mr. Reeve, all to take place in the center of the main thoroughfare and all free to the public:

Dog races—five events (Grand parade, Intermittent band concerts, Bob-sled races, Ski-skiing races, Log splitting and log sawing contests, Free beef barbecue to climax the program.

The year 1939 marks the 300th anniversary of the Baptist church in America.

BOARD WILL SELL LAND TO GRANGE

KIMBERLY, Feb. 15 (Special)—Commendation for the policies of Supt. L. A. Thomas, voting of an appropriation to help in the heavy uniform drive, and action toward sale of school district lots to Kimberly Grange for a Grange hall featured Monday night's session of the school board.

The trustees voted an appropriation to the Band-Parents organization toward uniforms. W. A. Colner, board member; Supt. Thomas and Bert Christanson, band director, were designated to serve with others selected by the parents' group as a committee to pick the type of uniforms and arrange purchase.

Referred to Committee

The matter of selling lots to the Grange was referred to the building and grounds committee consisting of Mr. Colner and J. L. Shepard. The Grange last year purchased the old farm-shop building, and now plans to move this to a new site at headquarters for the Kimberly

Grange activities. A Grange committee conferred with the board. Mrs. Jessie M. Husted was re-elected as elementary principal. She has served for the past two years.

The commendation for Supt. Thomas praised his "educational policies and leadership," and the board assured him of its continued support.

In Seventh Year

Thomas is now completing his seventh year as superintendent and has one more year on his contract, which extends through the 1939-40 school year.

Trustees received the bonds and coupons for $3,500, voted recently to buy a seven and a half acre playground space, and board officers signed and returned these to the state department of public investment. The bonds will be amortized at $500 annually for seven years.

MOTORIST FINED AFTER ACCIDENT

After asserting informing officers that another man was driving, Earl W. Adriel, 31, was taken before Justice G. E. Denton at Coaling Tuesday and was fined $25 and costs on a charge of reckless driving, according to report here today by the state highway patrolmen.

The Buick man's driver license was suspended for 60 days. He paid the fine and costs and was released.

Adriel was arrested as a result of an accident Sunday morning when his motor car skidded from the highway, broke off a telephone pole, crashed through a fence and landed on its side in a canal. Gibbs told officers that Boyd Gibbs was driving the car, but investigation failed to uncover anyone of that name living in the Buick area.

The accident occurred about six and a half miles west of Hagerman. The car, a coupe, was only slightly damaged in spite of its precarious adventure and the driver sustained only minor bruises.

Atkile Broken in Fall On Proctor Mountain

BUILI, Feb. 15 (Special)—Ed Van Ostrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Van Ostrom, broke his right ankle Sunday when skiing at Sun Valley. One ski was caught in the soft snow and the other pointed up-hill, causing young Ostrom to fall about 150 yards from the top of Proctor mountain.

He was taken to Ketchum where a doctor treated the injury and pronounced two bones broken at the ankle. He was returned to his home in Buili by Johnny Parker and Roe Popplewell.

Since his graduation from the Buili high school he has been employed with the Buili Auto-company on Broadway.
