

MORGENTHAU PREDICTS "SLOW BUT STEADY" 1939 RECOVERY

Terms Recent Recession as 'Rest Period'

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (UP)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., told a special session of a congressional committee recently that business is in a "rest period," but predicted a "slow but steady" continuation of recovery during 1939. The United States resumed today.

He indicated disagreement with the "compensatory spending" theory of Federal Reserve Board Chairman E. A. Tamm, who said the recovery is being held back by the administration's slow work toward balancing the budget.

The committee asked Morgenthau about his knowledge of business conditions and the progress of recovery. He replied:

Hard Stage of Increase

"Ever since last December day, business has had a remarkable recovery, and has gone forward at a rapid rate. But right now, I would say, we seem to be in a sort of resting period. It is not so rapid as it was in the latter part of 1938, but it is not surprising that it seems to have reached when I would call it a 'rest period' as a whole is better at this particular time of the year than they were 12 months ago. D. Tex., of the senate military affairs committee, beginning consideration of a bill to end the sale of arms to France provided the same opportunity is made available to all.

Nye said the problem of exports of war equipment must be solved by legislation. He said he would introduce legislation restricting the sale of American-made airplanes and other war equipment.

"In the absence of any specific law," he said, "no objection can be made to the sale of planes to France provided the same opportunity is made available to all."

Bar association, and his affiliations also included the Elks lodge, of which he was charter member. Mr. Sweeney is survived by one son, Everett M. Sweeney, a graduate of the University of Michigan, junior member of the law firm, and now county prosecutor.

Also surviving are two granddaughters, Miss Jean Sweezy and Miss Anna Sweezy, both instructors in the Boise schools, and a grandson, Martin Sweezy, Twin Falls.

Granddaughters Coming
The granddaughters will arrive tomorrow from Boise to be present at the funeral services.

Mr. Sweeney's first wife, Mrs. Alice J. Slocum Sweezy, whom he married March 28, 1877, at Adel, Ia., died here in 1927. His second wife, Mrs. Geneva Lewis Sweezy, died in Twin Falls in 1933.

Known as one of Idaho's most loyal boosters, Mr. Sweeney once said of Idaho, especially the southern part of the state, "I do not desire to leave anyone to come here for a home."

Perhaps the reason that Mr. Sweeney meant so much to Idaho, his being called an "active man," friends pointed out.

FILING OPENS BUT NONE YET LISTED

Office of the city clerk today was open for acceptance of nominating petitions in connection with the coming city election but, at least through this afternoon, no petitions had been filed.

Candidates have until March 4 to bring in their petitions. City Clerk W. H. Eldridge said, and March 10 is the last day for filing acceptance.

The office of mayor, as well as two council positions, will be open in the April election. Mayor Lem A. Chapin has announced he will not seek a second term.

Police commissioner, has announced his candidacy to succeed himself while W. E. Taylor, parks commissioner, has announced he will run for mayor, has not as yet said whether he intends to run again.

Painter Eys Mavority
Announcing with Ritchey were Roy Painter for mayor and Lionel A. Dean for the other council post. At least one more ticket, and possibly two, will be in the field before the March 4 deadline for filing.

Each petition presented to the city clerk must contain the names of 25 signers, all of whom must be registered voters.

On April 1 absentee ballots and registrations close at 9 p. m. with the city election on April 4, the polls remaining open from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m. On April 7 the present city council meets at its first session.

If three men announce for mayor and none of the three receives a vote equal to the total of the other two, then the two highest must run again two weeks later in a run-off election.

The same circumstance holds true with the council positions, regardless of the number seeking the offices.

Seen Today

Local youngsters taking advantage of breezy weather to fly kites—with lot of older folks enviously wanting to take a crack at it. Mrs. M. M. Telling grocer store, weather around here is "sure fine" because he's "from up north around Moscow". Secretary to Boy Scout official hanging out her washing, in form of a handkerchief, in the executive office.

Three young boys in downtown alley, better known as beer bottles, with one finally getting all of them as he offers his co-workers seven cents. Male customer sticking head into grocery store and asking if any cranberries are available. Beaming faces at courtroom as approbation is granted final citizenship papers of applicants who had been at a little fearful over what federal examiner might spring at them in way of questions. And of all things, letter from the same man in Massachusetts who previously sent out material backing Dewey and Garner for 1940 presidential nominee, material using a U. S. and British Empire coat of arms—now making publicity on "Hoover 1940 Popular Committee" to nominate Herbert as a Republican along with an outstanding Democrat as running mate and thus set up and create a great American National party.

Leader Killed in Abortive Peru Revolt

MINISTER TRIES TO TAKE PALACE FROM BENAVIDES

By ALAN COOGAN
LIMA, Peru, Feb. 20 (U.P.)—Numerous civilian, military and police suspects were reported detained at the Panjilio penitentiary today as the government investigated a brief abortive revolt attempted early yesterday by Gen. Antonio Rodriguez, minister of interior and chief of the Fascist-like "Unión Revolucionaria" party.

One of those held was Gen. Cirilo Ortega, suspected of being Rodriguez's co-leader.

The revolt began at 100 buses with celebrating its annual carnival, which started yesterday, to which 100 much about politics. The only sign left of the revolt was the guard at the government palace, and the body of Gen. Rodriguez which reposed in a tomb.

Four Killed
Rodriguez and four others—a police officer, two civil guards and a Japanese truck driver—were killed in the revolt and eight were wounded, including three police officials who were in the conspiracy and five civil guards.

It was a strange revolt, apparently confined to a few persons in Rodriguez's party and executed with almost unneeded audacity.

President Oscar R. Benavides called from Callao around midnight to a vacation at Pisco. Gen. Rodriguez, the revolt leader, was one of the cabinet ministers who was at the desk to see him off. Rodriguez had him an affectionate farewell—and hastened back to Lima, to take his place as minister of government, or cabinet executive, during his absence.

JUDGE CONSIDERS WATER DISPUTE

GOODYING, Feb. 20 (Special)—A dispute which until Wednesday had been tied up in the department of reclamation at the statehouse, made its debut into district court here today and was abruptly ended Wednesday afternoon after both sides had entered stipulations.

The case, which involves water rights at Clear Lake in Gooding county, is that of the Idaho Power company and Oils E. and Mary E. Syster versus James Gooding, commissioner of reclamation for Idaho.

The city of Bull claiming prior water rights at Clear Lake had previously filed an application with the commissioner of reclamation for approximately 1,000 cubic feet of water and the application had been allowed. The application was contested and for the past two years has been tied up in the commissioner's office.

District Judge Doran H. Sutherland will now take the matter under advisement.

A council present for the Idaho Power company included Jess Hawley, Boise attorney; A. F. James, Gooding; and C. C. Tamm, Boise. For the Systers were R. W. Hudson, Wendell, and Bull was represented by Judge J. R. Bonville, Twin Falls, and J. H. Shershey, Bull.

POWER WORKERS GET NEW OUTFIT

Twenty-eight workers of the Idaho Power Company—13 of these in Twin Falls—stepped out today in brand new snappy uniforms.

The new uniforms, which will serve to identify the company employees wearing them, were distributed this morning to all interested meter readers and service men. It was announced by R. W. Carpenter, manager.

The uniforms, including trousers, jacket, shirt and cap, the latter being of the army officer type, are in a tawny-brown. Coveralls are available when doing "heavy work," according to Carpenter.

The new uniforms will not only set off the workers but will also serve as an identification to local housewives who in these days are more or less bothered by prowlers and transients. Carpenter said: "They are distinctive and the men like them."

WOMEN WANT BEAUTY! BY LOUISE HOLMES

CHAPTER VI

SUSIE'S eyes were a challenge and the fates must have heard. Else why did they bustle being to pull strings and paint a new backdrop for Susie? Why had they come to rearrange the middle of human personalities, even for the fates it takes a while to make the proper moves in the tricky game of life?

So Susie went on through the summer, adding public speaking courses and a new class. She might be called a busy body. She might be called a workaholic. She might be called a woman who would do anything to succeed. She might be called a woman who would do anything to succeed.

For two years Harker's went monthly more deeply into the red while waiting for Chicago shoppers to wake up to the idea of the new store was ultra-modern. The tide turned slowly. John Harker and his wife, who had been watching the store for two years, after five years of ceaseless effort, Harker had become the place to buy milk, cheese, butter, and other fresh products. Harker's was now a household name. Harker's was now a household name.

PERHAPS, in looking about for strings to pull, the fates decided on John Harker because they knew he was a step ahead of the game. They knew he was a step ahead of the game. They knew he was a step ahead of the game.

It was in the early fall, Susie had just passed her 32nd birthday, although, in her sagging maturity, it would have taken the family Bible to substantiate this fact. Her first step toward the first definite move. And even then no one could have seen that the move in any way concerned Susie. It was John Harker who was in the office of Harker's department store, Chicago. Harker's, in the

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

By BRUCE CATTON (Evening Times Washington Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20—Most people who go south in the winter like to get away from the cold. President Roosevelt, apparently does it to get away from the heat. Right now he is in another southern city. He called for the Caribbean for a 10-day or two weeks stay to watch the U. S. fleet's maneuvers and, possibly, to do a little fishing.

Now it just happens that the heat is on, politically, this winter. Congress has already given the President two sharp reuffs: First by paring down the relief appropriation, and second by refusing to confirm his appointment of Judge Roberts. More trouble is in prospect in the immediate future. Some observers are predicting the stormiest session of the whole Roosevelt administration.

So right at the height of everything, Mr. Roosevelt decides to take himself a little southern trip. And that looks like an odd thing for him to do. It can only be said that he has done the same thing before when the political gunfire got hot.

He took two deep-water cruises in 1936, despite the fact that it was not a utility holding company. Late in March he spent a couple of weeks in the waters around Florida and the Bahamas on the yacht Potomac. After a three-day cruise on the yacht Potomac, he spent a couple of weeks in the waters around Florida and the Bahamas on the yacht Potomac.

HAILEY

Mrs. Salling entertained 41 forestry service members at her home Valentine's Day. Chinese checkers were played. Gray Reynolds and Mrs. Hedley Board won prizes. The traveling prize went to Mrs. Gray Reynolds. Burley, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Wogensen, Oakley, were also guests. The big contest was a drawing to the Hailey Clinic hospital Feb. 13 for medical attention. Patricia and Mrs. Board were the winners. The Community Baptist choir and guests were entertained at the home of Mrs. Augusta Jackson. A Valentine box was featured.

The B. Y. F. U. held a Valentine party last week at the Baptist church in honor of an attendance contest. Miss Wilma Decker's group won.

The American Legion Auxiliary met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Abner Jackson. Mrs. E. Pagan was assistant hostess. Guests were Mrs. Sarah Cahoon, Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Clara S. Hailey.

Chapter A. P. E. O. Sisterhood met at the home of Mrs. Hailey Tuesday afternoon. The program was about the American Legion. Mrs. Pagan was president. Mrs. Myron Schaefer and Mrs. Charles Blum are visiting in Mountain Home and Boise this week.

Miss Larie Jensen has been appointed deputy for Lloyd Wilson, county assessor.

Mrs. and Mrs. Stanley Strimling motored to Twin Falls Wednesday on a business trip. They were accompanied by Elting Ford, also of Hailey.

Beginning Friday, Feb. 24, roller skating parties will be held in the opera house, according to Joseph W. Fuld.

Advice, Consent, Wisdom

How great a general principle lies behind the controversy that has been whipped up between Senator Glass and the President remains to be seen. The Constitution says, in naming the powers of the President:

"He shall nominate and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and counsels, judges of the Supreme Court, and all other officers of the United States whose appointments are not otherwise herein provided for, and which shall be established by law; but the Congress may by law vest the appointment of such inferior officers as they think proper in the President alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments."

That means simply, the President picks out the man he wants for the job, after senators have made their suggestions. If they don't like the nominee they may reject him.

In short, both the President and Senator Glass are entirely within their rights as defined by the Constitution. The President must listen to the advice of senators in making his nominations, but he need not heed it. He may nominate whom he pleases, for any reasons that seem to him good. And the Senate in turn may accept or reject the nomination for any reasons that seem good to the Senate.

So much for the rights of the situation. But what about the wisdom of it? Certainly the intent of the Constitution, or of any governmental instrument, is to get the best man for the job.

That is why the Senate is given power to advise, because it is presumed that no President can find without help men in every state fitted for jobs. That is why the Senate is given the power to reject, because an unscrupulous President might fill appointive offices with men of obvious unfitness.

In the Roberts case in Virginia, it is difficult to see how either the President or the Senate acted on the kind of high principles that ought to govern in high places.

Did President Roosevelt nominate Roberts simply to annoy Glass and to give influence to a party element in the state more friendly to himself than to Glass? Then he was wrong. Did Glass kill Roberts' confirmation simply out of pique because his man was not named, and without regard to the fitness of Roberts for the job? Then he, too, was wrong.

The solution of this bicker which the public has a right to expect is the nomination and confirmation of a judge tied to neither party faction, and of so obvious fitness that the senate will not dare reject him. The country has a right to expect that judicial appointments be placed and kept on that plane.

Is Death Penalty Dying?

It's been a long time since the country has been swept by any kind of a concerted campaign to abolish capital punishment.

Back in the old-fashioned days of the early 1900s, when human life was still considered to have value, there used to be periodic campaigns against the death penalty as barbarous.

But since the World war set up 8,000,000 white crosses and poppies grew atop them while Spain and China were killing their millions, somehow objections to ridding the world of some dangerous scoundrel by summary execution sounded weak and irrelevant.

But it is not that bad. A committee of 40 lawyers handed together to work for abolition of the death penalty in Massachusetts, found that today only six states retain the death penalty with no alternative: Massachusetts, Vermont, Connecticut, North Carolina, New Mexico, and Florida.

Gradually the apparently last ideal of a society that could maintain itself without the punitive ruthlessness of a Chinese warlord, has been making progress even without an active or recognized campaign. That is often the way of progress. Long campaigns yield nothing; the reformers tire and say "it is hopeless; nothing can be done!" And then, while they speak, the fruit they tried so long to pick drops in their lap, dead ripe at last.

HANSEN

The Hansen Boy Scouts held an interesting meeting at the Community church last week. A spelling bee was conducted by Elting Pettineter. The Mustang troop put on a short play, entitled "The Light-house," after which the committee of the house gave an excellent talk to the Scouts. The parents of the Scouts were guests for the evening.

The Hansen Community Council met at the church Thursday with vice president Mrs. Arthur Scott in charge. Seventeen members answered to roll call.

The choir of the Hansen Community church gave an organ recital for the ladies, and the members of the choir, Arthur Scott and Mrs. Charles Decker, were accompanied by Elting Pettineter.

The Family Doctor

BY DR. MORRIS FISHBEN

Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, Chicago, Ill.

We live in an environment in which electricity approaches us from every side. In most American homes there are some electrical devices such as radio, vacuum cleaners, lights and toasters, coffee percolators, flat irons, and innumerable other electrical gadgets.

It is humanly natural to have two poles of electrical current or touches one pole and the ground at the same time. This is the principle of the electrical circuit. It will not take him long to realize that this has happened. All of us have occasionally had this experience.

It is pointed out that one line of an ordinary 110-volt. house circuit can be touched by the hand and standing on a dry non-metallic floor. What is left on momentary contact is a slightly disagreeable tingling. If the hand is pressed to keep his finger in contact, he would soon be burned. This situation is multiplied tenfold when the hand touches the live wire, however, by the person who stands in a wet bathtub or who stands in a wet bathing suit on a wet floor and who touches a bare exposed object, such as the interior of an electric light socket or the chain of a trolley car.

Whereas the danger is not exceedingly great when one deals with the ordinary house current, it is multiplied tremendously when high-tension currents of thousands of volts are concerned. Under these circumstances the shock is sometimes sufficient to kill in a moment. The reaction is just like being struck by lightning.

The effects of electrical shock on the body consist of, and of less importance, the electric burn, and on the heart. The effects of the electric shock, particularly on the heart and muscles. The sudden powerful influence of an electric current on the body is manifested by spasms and rigidity of the muscles, including those of the heart, and the muscles of the heart.

The muscles of the heart may be thrown into rapid, sudden vibration. They may be excited to such a result the heart stops. The danger depends on the nature of the circuit with which one is connected. The first rule is to get the person concerned away from the current either by turning off the power or short-circuiting the line.

Medical attention should be secured at the earliest possible moment, and the first attention of the physician should be to the least and the breathing apparatus, these are fundamental to the continuation of life itself.

CARDINAL PACELLI IN FRONT RANK AS NEW CHURCH HEAD

Looms as Church Head

PRIEST OF MANY LETTERS LOOMS AS FUTURE POPE

By MILTON BRONNER (NEA Service)

ROME, Feb. 20.—Eugene Cardinal Pacelli, who will see the death of Pope Pius XI becomes interim spiritual ruler of the world's Catholics, has been named by the Vatican as successor to the late pope. Pacelli, who until the college of cardinals elects a new pope is world head of the Roman Catholic church, is believed by many to be a natural and probable successor to Pius. He will be 53 next March 2.

Among objections voiced to his becoming Pope is the state of his health. Pacelli has a weak chest and has had serious attacks in his mountainous retreats.

Cardinal Pacelli had had one of the most distinguished careers of any man in the Catholic college of cardinals. He was born in Rome March 2, 1876, and comes of a family which has long had close connections with the Vatican. His father, Filippo Pacelli, was dean of the consistorial chancery.

His brother, Francesco, played a considerable part in the negotiation of the Lateran treaties between the Vatican and Fascist Italy. For his services he was made a marquis and a councillor of the new Italian state.

War Time Diplomat
Eugenio Pacelli was ordained to the priesthood in 1899. After getting his degree of doctor of divinity and doctor of Canon law, he was assigned to Pope Leo XIII in 1900 for duties in the offices of the Papal secretariat of state. In 1906 he was made professor of diplomacy in the Academia dei Nobili. He had also served in the Sacred Congregation of Extraordinary Ecclesiastical Affairs, thus coming to the notice of the great Cardinal Gasparri, who for so many years conducted the foreign affairs of the Vatican.

Pope Pius X and, later, Pope Benedict XV, made Pacelli secretary of the Congregation. Later Pope Benedict XV made him his bishop in the great Basilica of St. Peter in 1917, in the midst of the World War, when he was made secretary of the Vatican. He worked hard to further the Pope's best effort to bring the warring powers together and to end the war. When the Germans lost the war and the Bolsheviks took power in Russia, Pacelli's life was in danger and he finally fled. But later he returned and secured a concordat between Russia and the Vatican. He was consecrated Archbishop of Bardonia and in 1920 was sent as first Papal Nuncio to the new German republic. In Berlin he worked so well that he secured a concordat between Russia and the Vatican.

Returning to Rome, he was made secretary to Cardinal Gasparri. He was created a cardinal in 1929. In 1930 he succeeded Cardinal Gasparri as secretary of state and succeeded Cardinal Merry del Val as archbishop of St. Peter's. In these posts he was brought into especially close touch with Pope Pius XI, who had an increasingly warm regard for him and entrusted him with many important missions of the Vatican.

Elloquent in Many Tongues
In October, 1924, he went to Buenos Aires, where he opened the great Eucharistic congress. Early in autumn he opened and addressed the first session of the International Congress of Catholic Linguists. He spoke for two hours in Latin in one of the most amazing linguistic feats ever witnessed. He started in Italian for the benefit of the Italian delegates; then to French to the French, Belgian and Swiss delegates; in Spanish to the delegates from Spain and the Portuguese to those from Portugal and Brazil; in English to those from the United States, Great Britain and the colonies and dominions of the British Empire; in German to those from Germany and Austria, and finally in Latin for the benefit of those from Poland, Hungary and various other lands. When the delegates were later received by the Pope, he smilingly observed he would not try to rival Pacelli's "Practical eloquence."

In October, 1924, Cardinal Pacelli paid a visit to the United States. It was widely rumored in America that he had come for the purpose of putting a question on Father Coughlin, who was making speeches violently attacking President Roosevelt. It was also said that he came to look over the ground and advise the Pope as to the naming of another American cardinal.
The fact is that he came to study at first hand the problems of the church in the United States. The only really public question he attended to was when the Washington newspaper correspondents entered his room. Upon his arrival back in the Vatican, a pleasant surprise awaited him. On the desk in his office he found an autographed portrait of the Pope, inscribed in "my dear cardinal."

His Honors Are Many
Cardinal Pacelli has been honored by degrees from many states and has also been awarded high honors. In 1930 the king of Rumania granted him the Grand Cross of the Order of King Carol I. In 1932 King Victor Emmanuel of Italy gave him the Collar of the Annunziata. This is the highest order in Italy, similar to the honor given Mussolini, and gives the holder the right to call the king "cousin."
Pacelli has many honors. He is not a man of whom many anecdotes are related. The following is probably the best and the most illuminating: "When I meet an ordinary man, I greet him with great respect. He says he is a saint. When I meet a great man, I greet him with great respect. He says he is a saint. When I meet a man who is not a saint, I greet him with great respect. He says he is a saint. But I want to find out."

Bellevue Seniors Score in Comedy

BELLEVUE, Feb. 20 (Special).—The senior class play, "Mountain Mumps," was given Thursday night at the Bellevue high school. A large attendance, considering the blocked roads, immediately after the performance pictures were taken of the entire play cast. The director, Miss Ruth Underdahl, was presented with a lovely gold cross by the senior class. A fitting climax to the last scene of the comedy was when "Tommy," a little Scotch terrier, marched across the stage with a mumps scarf tied around his head.

Rotarians Fete Honor Students

HAILEY, Feb. 20 (Special).—Once each month, the Hailey Rotary club entertains as luncheon guests, the Hailey high school students having the highest scholastic standing. Honor guests at last week's meeting were Miss Margaret Essling and Miss Betty Wilson. Joseph Fuld, vice president, presided in the absence of Frank Moore, president, who has been ill. Miss Arlene Alper's dancing troupe gave a program of tap dancing and singing.

BLAINE SCHOOLS SHOW PROGRESS

SHOSHONE, Feb. 20 (Special).—G. C. Sullivan, county superintendent of Blaine county schools, reports the schools have finished a year of work during the first semester of the school year 1938-39.

Supt. Sullivan made arrangements for exit of the Hailey grade boys and the same number at the Ketchikan grade school to take training in sailing at Sun Valley. These two plans will compete for honors in a contest to be held by the Sun Valley officials in charge of sailing the latter part of this month. Instructions to all these boys are given on Saturdays by the ski instructors of Sun Valley. Free of charge.

Several of the schools of the county are making preparations to celebrate Easter this year with operas. Among these are Hailey, Bellevue and Carey. Most of the schools celebrated Lincoln's birthday by reciting programs appropriate to the occasion. Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, the schools plan another patriotic program. The Ketchikan grade school, by the help of the American Legion Auxiliary, is sponsoring an Americanism program.

Those in charge of the above program and activities are: E. G. Foster, Hailey school superintendent; and Miss Lela Montgomery, principal of the grade school. Glenn Davidson, superintendent of the Bellevue schools; R. S. Robbins, superintendent of the Carey schools; and Leonard Bonham, principal of Ketchikan grade schools.

FILER

Star Social club members entertained their husbands to a no-host dinner Wednesday in the dining room of the Idaho Power building in Twin Falls. The remainder of the evening was spent playing pinocle, prizes being awarded to D. L. Beamer and L. W. Hawkins.

Rebekah lodge met in the I. O. O. F hall Tuesday. The warden and conductor were appointed to be team captains in a drive to raise money. Members of the Washington club and their husbands surprised Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sikes last week when they arrived in a group to celebrate their recent marriage. Pinocle and Chinese checkers were the diversions of the evening. The president, Mrs. Glen Davis, presented the honorees with a beautiful bouquet of snapdragons.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Hunt and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Driggs, Gooding, have returned from Ogden, where they attended the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hunt, former residents of this community.

Mr. Rupert Williamson and Mrs. Leah Short entertained with two tables of Chinese checkers at the apartment of Mrs. Short in Twin Falls Tuesday. Mrs. Clifford Johnson and Mrs. Annabel DeKloets won prizes.

Filer Masonic lodge held a regular meeting with degree work Tuesday at the Masonic hall. District Deputy Grand Master Ray Blunter, Twin Falls, and several other guests were present. Rev. Irwin S. Mote gave a talk on Lincoln. The refreshment committee was composed of Ethel Burn Pier, Luther Pierce and Horace Pierce.

ENGINEERS MEET BELLEVUE COUNCIL

BELLEVUE, Feb. 20 (Special).—H. W. Merrill, Twin Falls engineer, and John Griffith, same engineer for the WPA at their approval and Corvay Gillespie, city engineer, was authorized to complete final plans for publication.

Griffith consulted with the council and assured his full support in urging immediate acceptance by the WPA. It will probably take from 60 to 90 days for the plans to be approved. In the meantime plans will be completed and the necessary publications made so that Bellevue may go ahead with the bond election. According to Gillespie, any qualified voter residing within the city limits of Bellevue is eligible to vote in this election.

Plans and specifications will be ready for submission to the Boise office of the WPA within 10 days. It will be sent to the sanitary engineer for approval and then forwarded to Washington, D. C., for the approval of the WPA.

Advertising Department
GENTLEMEN:

Our advertising for the year 1938 in the Twin Falls News & Times was gratifying to us from the standpoint of producing some good advertisements that attracted side and favorable attention. These advertisements were the result of the splendid cooperation received from your department. This letter acknowledges our appreciation of the fine team work we enjoyed with your personnel. We believe that these outstanding qualities of an effective advertisement are:

1. LOCALIZED copy
2. PERSONALIZED copy
3. TIMELY copy

Because of the facilities which your department offered in the matter of material production of pictures and cuts as well as lay-outs, we believe we have been particularly successful with our ads in these three ways. We have been particularly successful with our ads in these three ways through your papers. In the Twin Falls area. We have been particularly successful with our ads in these three ways because of the facilities you have so generously put at our disposal, we hope to have an even more extensive advertising campaign for the year 1939. Very truly yours,
BUNTING TRACTOR CO.

Let your two daily newspapers help you solve your advertising problems!

Prime reason for the success of daily newspaper advertising in Magic Valley is the 80% coverage of all homes in that territory through the Twin Falls News and Idaho Evening Times — plus the care and attention given each advertisement by skilled hands. An attractive advertisement going into 85% of the homes of Magic Valley, or over 15,000 homes is the basis for a successful advertising campaign.

Split Widens in Ranks of Demo. Party

Conservatives Ask Removal Of "Radicals" Two Sets of Twins, Born on Same Day, Top Month's List

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—A public plea for "radicals" from party control and a report of "disgraceful" powers lodged in President Roosevelt by various emergency laws placed the New Deal under a cross fire of conservative attack today.

These developments coincided with unfavorable reports from abroad which may compel the President to cut short his sea-sickness cruise. He is observing Panama canal defense maneuvers aboard the cruiser Houston in the Caribbean sea. There were indications that he and his advisers feared a German-Italian territorial coup of some kind at the expense of French colonies.

Serious developments abroad would materially affect political conditions at home and probably quite much of the anti-New Deal activity developing now among Republicans and conservative Democrats. But pending some extraordinary international calamity, Democratic conservatives apparently were determined to retain control of their party to prevent either the renomination of Mr. Roosevelt in 1940 or the naming of a 100 per cent New Dealer to succeed him.

Two sets of twins born on the same day, featured the party's summary for the Twin Falls district during the month of January. J. O. Pumphrey, registrar of vital statistics, said today:

The twins included one set consisting of a boy and a girl and one set of twin girls. The boys and girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Hale, Twin Falls. The girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Whitney, Twin Falls. Both sets arrived Jan. 27.

January lists show 20 girls and 20 boys. Registrar Pumphrey's records show, when previously unaccounted births for December are included, however, the girls have the edge by 21 to 21.

Summary by dates:

Jan. 1—Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Naylor, Hansen, girl.

Jan. 3—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Alworth, Filer, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Routh, Twin Falls, boy.

Jan. 7—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Kohntopp, Filer, boy.

Jan. 9—Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hurst, Filer, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kivin, Twin Falls, boy.

Jan. 10—Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. Hastings, Kimberly, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Cleveland, Bull, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford O. Knepe, Twin Falls, boy.

Jan. 12—Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Williams, Twin Falls, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Seiber, Twin Falls, boy.

Controversy in Open Former Rep. John J. O'Connor of New York only conservative Democrat Mr. Roosevelt succeeded in defeating in the 1938 elections, brought the controversy into the open today with a letter carried on the radio and Democrats to unite in "pushing the radicals out of control of our party."

He said Republicans would win a 1940 election otherwise. He made the statement in a letter to Rep. Patrick D. Droney, D. Va., chairman of the congressional elections committee.

"If drastic steps are not taken by sensible Democrats," he wrote, "the result in 1940 is a foregone conclusion because we are right back where we started from in 1932. Prior to that, the average voters, and especially the small business man, believed the Republican party to be the party of the people. It is now in the backwash of the Hoover administration."

Added Victim

"Someone must boldly speak out even at the danger of becoming an additional victim of the purge," he said. "I believe the party was liberal but that the radical party was wrapped by the radicals, only a shade off red." O'Connor said he was a member of the party and had been elected to the office in the backwash of the Hoover administration.

He said he had been elected to the office in the backwash of the Hoover administration.

Jan. 15—Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Larsen, Kimberly, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Peterson, Kimberly, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Brigham O. Price, Twin Falls, boy; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Ciavrus, Vermon, Jackson, girl.

Jan. 19—Mr. and Mrs. Heber Jones, Jarbridge, Nev., girl; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Vernon, Jackson, girl.

Jan. 21—Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon M. Pulver, Bull, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Kuhn, Twin Falls, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Peter O. Tesar, Bull, boy.

Jan. 23—Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Meyer, Eden, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Squires, Bull, girl; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jellison, Twin Falls, girl.

Jan. 25—Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Pippit, Kimberly, girl.

Jan. 26—Dr. and Mrs. James W. Creed, Filer, boy; Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Groves, Twin Falls, boy.

Jan. 27—Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth C. Moore, Hagerman, boy.

Jan. 29—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Banning, Kimberly, boy.

Included in the report were these previously unreported births:

TAILOR CONCERN UNDERWAY HERE

It is the factory branch of Bert Tailors, located at 115 Main avenue east. H. N. Thorne, manager, comes from Salt Lake City, has been in the business for 15 years and has managed some of the largest tailoring stores in Utah, Montana and Idaho. His wife and two children were to arrive here today or Tuesday.

Dick Herbert, Twin Falls, is assistant to Mr. Thorne.

Patrons have 750 woolen samples to use in selection of suit material, according to the manager. He said the firm stresses economy prices and service by which customers secure ideal fit by seeing and trying on their garments before acceptance.

In HOLLYWOOD Today

By United Press

Doris Kenyon Laaker, former screen actress, said she and Albert H. Laaker, advertising executive, had separated and that she is going to Nevada for a divorce. They were married last fall. She is the widow of Milton Sills, once one of Hollywood's most popular male stars.

Geraldine Sprackles, sugar heiress and recent divorcee, was expected to recover within three weeks from burns suffered when her negligee caught fire. She was burned on the arms and back when a match, with which she intended to light a cigarette, ignited the sheer material of her gown. Her housekeeper smothered the flames by rolling her in a rug.

Friends of Constance Talmadge, thrice-wedded former screen star, reported she would marry Walter Giblin, wealthy broker, within two weeks in New York.

Freddie Bartholomew and his "Aunt Clara" reached two important decisions—Freddie is going to spend six months in military school this summer, while Miss Milliecent Bartholomew will apply for her first American citizenship papers.

BABY'S SLAYER GIVEN REPRIEVE

that he was tricked into a confession of the crime by G-men.

Stole Baby

Last May 28, McCall stole into the home of Cash, farmer and storekeeper of Princeton, at night and stole the baby from his crib. He stuffed handkerchiefs into the baby's mouth and carried him to his home, where he discovered he was dead. He insisted he had not killed him deliberately. Disposing of the body in a thicket, he returned to the scene to see that the parents got the first of three ransom notes which he ultimately was to send.

He had once roomed in the Cash home, and the Cashes thought him a "nice boy." He comforted the parents, searched with the police, and in the next few days, sent two more ransom notes, demanding, like the first, $10,000 in small bills on penalty of the baby, which already was dead, being killed.

Confesses Crime

A week after the baby was stolen, the father paid the ransom. G-men suspected McCall because he was so helpful. Questioned, he convinced them he was innocent and they turned him loose. But, checking back over his stories, they found discrepancies and arrested him a second time. This time he confessed and took them to the place where the body and the ransom money were hidden.

Gooding Grange Releases Play

GOODING, Feb. 20 (Special)—The Gooding Grange will present its annual play March 3 at the junior high school auditorium with "Balls and Nuts" by Jay Tobias, chosen for this year's production. Mrs. Joe Keyser is directing the play.

In the cast will be Edith Varth as Miss Benita Bolt; Annie Bryan as Lattie Spinks; the maid who kills Frances Brunnett as Rebecca Bolt, manager of the Bolt sanitarium for mental hygiene; Virginia Beyers as a patient who is a friend of Lattie; Kenneth Daniels, as Twink Starr; Benita's fiancée who has a change of gender; Ralph Faulkner as Dr. Hippocrates Joy, a psychiatrist.

Joel Brummett as Henry Goober, the porter who is afraid of lunatics; Gabr Beyers as Phineas Plunkett, a lawyer with a humility complex; Florence Bateman as Miss Prueella Figg, a patient with claustrophobia; Rufus Longstreth as Caldwell Chippy, a patient who is afraid of the doctor; Evelyn Moore as Mrs. Gerlie Glossop, a patient who fears contamination; Irving Brown as her darling child; and Bill Bryan as Jack Gordon, a young interne.

Grange Disfavors Bridge Purchase

EDEEN, Feb. 20 (Special)—Eden Grange met Wednesday with Roy Grubbs, master of the grange, presiding. The grange went on record as opposing the state buying the Twin Falls-Jerome bridge. The grange also voted that the point be taken up advertising and in following up the grade.

Frank Ball had charge of the program. Roll call was answered by each one naming some historic person born in February. Partners for the evening were found by a clever Valentine game.

VIGOROUS C. OF C. UNIT FOR HAWLEY

HAILEY, Feb. 20 (Special)—Through the aggressiveness of Stanley Stinchfield, president of the Hailey Chamber of Commerce, that unit has reorganized. A meeting was held at the court house, with 35 Hailey business men and women present. Membership fees were set at the former rate of $10 for a business house and $5 for an individual. A definite program for the year will be outlined at an early date.

The main efforts of the C. of C. group will be to attract more people to the Wood River valley and to see that any benefits of any member will eventually be to the mutual advantage of the whole community.

GLENN'S FERRY

A special feature of the regular business meeting of the Commercial club tonight will be the showing of several reels of pictures by the Idaho Power company. They will include a set dealing with "Recreation and Power Development in Idaho." Gem state scenes and a comedy reel. Several business matters will be taken up following the 6:30 luncheon.

Mrs. Charles Stout was hostess to the B. B. F. club last week. Prizes for the dessert bridge went to Mrs. D. W. Martin, high Mrs. H. J. Wilson, second; and Mrs. Chris Glorjning, consolation. The luncheon featured the George Washington motif.

Mrs. Frank Byrum, who has been visiting in the Charlie Walker home for the next week, accompanied Mr. Walker and son to Boise for the day on Tuesday.

NEW ACCUSATION NAMES FUGITIVE

BIOSHOP, Feb. 20 (Special)—It never rains but it pours.

The old adage applied with emphasis today to Norman Nielson, now being sought by southern Idaho officers in connection with a "counterfeit" plot that blew up into an alleged bunco racket.

A local hotel has sworn out a warrant for Nielson, charging he evaded his bill there.

Nielson disappeared during a recent flare-up alleged counterfeiting of $10 and $20 bills, which had developed, and two other prisoners were released, together with loaded machine equipment and guns to which they admitted ownership. Other matters, such as threat payments to the press, elements contacts and other instruments associated with the production of spurious money, and share genuine currency, were retained by Sheriff Brown—but photos for the actual production were not in evidence.

Nielson registered at W. W. Nappie and immediately after the blowing of the so-called counterfeiting effort, which was twisted into an angle as "bunco game" on the part of one of the parties, he being connected with good contact by state and local officers.

FOR CHILDREN'S SNIFLES

SPARE your child from the misery of sniffing, sneezing and blowing (due to colds) by doing one simple thing. Insert a little Mentholatum in his nostrils. This soothing ointment will check sniffing and sneezing. It will help open his nostrils, enabling him to breathe more freely. It will rub Mentholatum on his chest, back, and neck, and relieve the coughing, sore throats, and other troubles. Mentholatum will circulate through the breathing passages as a further aid in clearing up mucus and other irritating matter. You'll be glad to see how much better he feels.
