IDAHO HOUSE APPROVES SEVEN APPROPRIATION MEASURES

Filibuster Threat Voiced by Minidoka Solon for Schools

By WILLIAM McKEAMIN

BOISE, Feb. 24 (UP)—The Idaho legislature moved toward adjournment swiftly today and the house passed seven appropriation bills in spite of a filibuster threat from Rep. J. A. Handy, D., Minidoka county.

The house leadership lifted the appropriation bills to the top of the calendar after a brief Republican caucus and went to work on them. Rep. Handy arose to say:

"I'll make you read every appropriation bill from one end to the other if you don't do something about the public school fund shortage. I want a bill introduced here to appropriate more money for the public schools or I am going to start a filibuster."

"If you don't take care of this problem, the public school district levies will be tremendous and you know what the folks back home will say to that."

FEDERAL DEFICIT NEAR 40 BILLION

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UP)—The treasury deficit today is well into its third billion dollars for this fiscal year and the national debt is about to overtop $40,000,000,000.

The consensus is that President Roosevelt is reconciled to a record of eight successive deficit years when his second term expires. That conclusion is inescapable in view of administration promises that there will be no new tax bill at this session.

The alternative to budget balancing by a combination of new taxes and considerable economy would be a balance achieved by a tremendous and early business boom, accompanied by some reduction of federal expenditures.

Mr. Roosevelt wants this to be at least an $80,000,000,000 nation, he explained in his message to congress last Jan. 6. He wants the national income, the sum of taxable wealth, to produce annually about $80,000,000,000. On the basis of the latter figure, the budget almost would balance itself, assuming that the nation were accompanied by an expansion of private employment and a proportionate reduction in relief spending.

"If government activities are fully maintained," Mr. Roosevelt told congress last December, "there is need for relief, for agriculture, veterans' compensation and other items, there is good prospect of our becoming an economic power."

Government Reveals Cash Offer from Soviet Spies

RAIFORD, Fla., Feb. 24 (UP)—Franklin Pierce McCall, 21-year-old preacher's son, died in the electric chair today for the kidnap-slaying of James H. Cash, Jr., a south Florida yachtsman.

McCall died in the execution chamber of the state prison farm. His last hope of escaping the death penalty was shattered when the U. S. supreme court and the U. S. circuit court declined to intervene.

McCall, however, had seemed confident to the end that he would never pay with his life for the kidnapping of the Rev. Leslie Shepherd, prison chaplain.

Even during the last 15 minutes McCall was calm. He knew the 14 (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

Senate Expected to Uphold Guam Refusal

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UP)—Chairman David I. Walsh of the senate naval affairs committee predicted today that the senate would uphold the house's refusal to authorize harbor and airport developments on Guam—a project which relations' charged would extend the United States Pacific frontier to within 1,300 miles of Japan.

Walsh, whose committee will handle the $48,000,000 bill which authorizes 10 new Atlantic and Pacific harbors and air bases, said the committee would not support the plan. The White House implied, however, that the authorization to improve Guam's strategic value might be useful in seeking to make Japan more amenable to American diplomatic representations.

Defeat of the Guam proposal was interpreted as another defeat for the administration in the two-month-old 76th congress, although President Roosevelt did not directly support the plan. The White House implied, however, that the authorization to improve Guam's strategic value might be useful in seeking to make Japan more amenable to American diplomatic representations.

Agricultural Needs and Progress Charted Here By Three Top Speakers

Reed Cites Need of Big Production

With every available seat taken in the Orpheum theater, farmers of the Magic Valley crowded Twin Falls this morning to attend opening session of the second annual Farmers' Congress and hear Earle G. Reed, supervisor of agricultural and industrial development of the Union Pacific railroad, call for cooperation between agriculture, transportation and industry.

More than 800 farmers crowded the theater to hear Mr. Reed and also witness a series of nine special films of vital interest. Reed pointed out gravely that the present is a time of "greatest international strain" and claimed it is important "to develop and improve agricultural production" rather than "regimentation and control as 'putting agriculture back on its haunches.'"

Presiding was R. S. Tofflemire, publisher of the Idaho Evening Times and Twin Falls News. The Idaho publications, together with local implement dealers, were sponsors of the event which continued at Radisson 11 p. m. today.

Inspect Exhibit

While the theater was crowded and the program was being presented, there, other than the latest in farm machinery and implements which were on display on the 400th street, in all it is conservatively estimated that 1,200 were in the city for the morning opening.

Special films shown to those in the theater included "Irrigating Farm Crops," "Rain on the Plains," "Our Daily Bread," and "Operation of a Farm Nursery." All were department of agriculture films. Through the courtesy of the theater management, other films run were a Paramount pictorial titled "Glaciers Farming," a Vitaphone pictorial titled "Grass Growers," "Going Places with Lushen Thompson," a picture dealing with farm, "Children of the Muthy," showing farm operations of the descendants of the Bonny and Pictorial Island; (Continued on Page 1, Column 2)

Iddings Cites Research Help; Cline Maps 'Ads'

Two of Idaho's most prominent leaders in agricultural development and advertising this afternoon highlighted closing sessions of the second annual Farmer's Congress as they delivered addresses on points of vital interest to farm residents of the Magic Valley.

The speakers, E. J. Iddings, dean and director of the college of agriculture extension division at the University of Idaho, and Win Cline, president of the Cline Advertising agency of Boise, the firm handling the advertising of Idaho products over the nation, were heard at Radisson. Nearly 1,600 persons were present.

Dean Iddings told the assembled farmers that agricultural research plays a vital role in farm advancement. Mr. Cline offered a thorough survey of Idaho advertising throughout the nation and outlined the present and potential benefits to farmers.

Pettygrove Unable to Come

Presiding at the session this afternoon was R. S. Tofflemire. Mr. Tofflemire read a telegram received at 1:30 p. m. from J. W. Pettygrove, Idaho's commissioner of agriculture, in which the state official announced he would be unable to attend the Congress because of pressing business. Pettygrove, a former Hanalei member, was to have been one of the principal speakers at the Congress.

Special displays lined walls of Radisson. They were examples of the kind of advertising being carried on throughout the nation by the Idaho Fruit and Vegetable Advertising commission. They showed scores of products of Idaho agriculture, including Idaho grown potatoes and other vegetables. Also displayed were newsworthy advertisements of the nation's leading newspapers, published in the greatest cities of America.

The first speaker, Dean Iddings, chose the subject "Agricultural Research and Its Importance to Idaho Farming."

He laying the foundation for the justification of experimental work in connection with farming, as well as its importance, Dean Iddings said that organization of agriculture, work on farm problems began with the enactment of the Hatch act, providing federal funds for the support of agricultural experiment stations by congress in 1887.

Notable Contributions

"Agricultural investigation has made many notable contributions to the progress of agriculture in the United States. One of the most recent and most spectacular is the development of a number of new hybrid corn plants," Dean Iddings said. "This corn has been so successful in producing more satisfactory crops of corn than the old type of corn that the use of hybrid corn has rapidly expanded in the corn belt, during the past five years."

SPUD 'AD' SLICED BUT PLAN SAVED

Emphatic protest of north and south state potato growers' associations today won "half a loaf" today.

The Idaho senate this morning passed the house bill reducing the 10 per cent advertising for advertising potatoes to one-half cent, from the former level of one cent, according to a telegram to J. P. Marshall from Carl L. DeLong, secretary of the Idaho fruit and vegetable advertising commission.

Next to Governor

The senate action completed legislative procedure. The bill goes to Governor C. A. Bottolfsen for signature.

The house will also act on the bill. The funds for advertising Idaho potatoes, apples, onions and prunes throughout America, Marshall said, are not to be cut, but the plan to have no advertising at all.

Strong efforts had been made by opponents of the program to secure complete abandonment of the act-up.

The one-half cent levy on the products, affected will take effect July 1. Mr. Marshall said "As a result, the present scope of the program will continue until that time."

Barry Helms

Marshall, prominent agent grower and a member of the advertising commission, declared:

"This measure, with the funds cut down after July 1, that we will just barely retain our markets. It won't give us a chance to regain our market share in the advertising of Idaho and other producing areas. But it is a step in the right direction." (Continued on Page 3, Column 3)

STUDY OF LEVY LAWS REQUESTED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UP)—Chairman Robert L. Doughton, D., H. C. of the house ways and means committee announced today he favored making the treasury department to cooperate immediately in a study of the tax laws to see what help can be given business.

Commenting on Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau's suggestion that such a study be made, Doughton said the nuisance taxes expiring at the end of June would "have to be renewed, but he did not favor seeking any additional revenue at present."

The ways and means committee has charge of all tax legislation.

"I am pleased by what Secretary Morgenthau said yesterday about his idea for a tax program. It states my own position exactly," Doughton said.

What we need and what we all want is business recovery. It is the only road to increased revenues which will halt the increase in the public debt. That is the President's position and I am heartily in accord with it."

INSULT

LONDON, Feb. 24 (UP)—George Bernard Shaw said today that Hollywood had given him an "insult" along with the award for his "Pygmalion" as the outstanding screen writer of the year.

"It is an insult for them to offer any honor," he said. "I am well known and honored by the King George VI for being the only king in England."

"Of course it's a good film. It's the only film, but it wouldn't have been if Hollywood had made it. They would have made it as a vulgar and silly thing and then they would have played it to a gallery or something to 'insult' for the films."

"They are the people who assume that a man is a well-known writer, who knows nothing about a film story, whereas I know all about it. That is my profession. It is in order to make a success, you've got to film a play as written."

Wallace Beery and Wife Plan Divorce

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 24 (UP)—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Beery said today they have reached a friendly agreement to end their 10-year marriage, and to share custody of their 10-year-old son, Wallace Jr., for the purpose of divorce on grounds of incompatibility.

The actor and Mrs. Arlene Beery, who was an actress in some of his pictures before he married her, said no other man or woman was involved. They estimated that the divorce would be granted in about 30 days and they had decided the harmonious court was divorce.

HOUSE SLASHES BUDGET REQUEST

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (UP)—The house appropriations committee cut slightly into President Roosevelt's budget request for the fifth consecutive time today in reporting a $730,671,000 bill to the senate. That was $27,929,138 less than the budget recommendation.

The appropriations committee will try to reach the floor of the 76th congress. In all five bills the committee has trimmed Mr. Roosevelt's figures, although in this case the reduction was less than two per cent.

Despite the cuts, the bill would cut two departments under the bill by $100,000,200 more than for the current fiscal year.

The appropriations committee has recommended a $730,671,000 bill to the senate office.

DRASTIC HUNGARIAN DECREE DISSOLVES NAZI PARTY

GROUP'S HEADS SENT TO CAMP FOR PRISONERS

By GEORGE KALDOR
BUDAPEST, Hungary, Feb. 24 (AP)—A government decree today ordered the dissolution and prohibition of the Hungarian National Socialist (Nazi) party.
Police forced all National Socialist headquarters and confiscated all the party's possessions.
In the early hours police made surprise raids on party headquarters where they seized a series of raids on the homes of National Socialist leaders. It was reported 150 men had been arrested and it was said they would be sent to concentration camps.
Several of the Nazi leaders tried to defend their party headquarters, it was reported, and were overpowered and arrested.

Signs Post
While police were still conducting raids, Count Stephen Czaki, foreign minister, altered the German-Japanese (anti-Communist) agreement in the presence of the diplomatic envoys of the three countries. It had been announced several weeks ago that Hungary would subscribe to the agreement.
An official statement said the National Socialist or "Hungarian" party property seized would be turned over to charity organizations. The government explained its dissolution decree by saying action was necessary because the party had been "endangering public order."

European Sensation
The government's action was calculated to cause a European sensation because of the country's position in the new central-European European set-up following the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia.
But even more immediate political importance was the fact that, anticipating today's action, Colonel Hubay, Hungarian Nazi leader, fled the country and fled to Berlin. Hubay said that if, as he believed, the government was going to lead the country to Nazism, he would leave the country to join the German government.

It was known that the government's action was the result of an investigation into the party's activities. The party was founded in 1935 and had 14,000 members. It was reported that the party was active in the country's political life and was a major force in the government. The party was reported to be active in the country's political life and was a major force in the government.

Conceded Bombing
Many persons connected with the bombing of a government building in Budapest were reported to have been arrested. The government announced that it would be prosecuting the case. The government announced that it would be prosecuting the case.

Two supreme court justices turned down his appeal yesterday, closing the last avenue of escape from the chair.

DALADIER GIVEN CONFIDENCE VOTE

PARIS, Feb. 24 (AP)—The French chamber of deputies gave the government of Premier Edouard Daladier a vote of confidence today on a question equivalent to parliamentary approval of the June recognition of national unity.
The vote was 322 to 261.
Daladier announced that he planned to propose recognition of the French cabinet Monday. A small opposition group denounced the move as a vote of confidence on the question of recognition. The chamber rejected the demand.
Daladier said the government's decision was based on the latest information from London and from Gen. Louis Berard, French special envoy to Burgos.
The statement was made in reply to the question by the opposition group.
The group asked the government to explain its intentions, "concerning recognition of the Franco government while Italy and Germany occupy remain in Spain and without previous consultation with parliament."

ATTORNEY TELLS OF SECRET THEFT

description of a conversation in which Salch, while an employee of the bureau, allegedly conveyed to Lieut. Cdr. J. J. Rochford, chief of the intelligence unit, an offer by Gorin to buy Japanese secrets. Hanna said he was present during the conversations between Rochford and Salch.

"Salch told us," he testified, "that Gorin wanted some information and was willing to pay for it. Commander Rochford told Salch to have nothing whatever to do with Gorin and under no circumstances to give him any information."

Hanna said Rochford made a report of the conversation, and that he himself filed it in a safe. A copy was filed with the 11th naval district office at San Diego and, presumably, will be introduced later.

WELCOMERS

A lot of other guys are attending Congress in Washington, and not getting here of a lot of them. So you might as well attend this Congress and hear something constructive to help you grow more and better. You won't get more and better pieces unless the guys in the other Congress wake up.

Tear the top off a new tractor and mail it to us with a statement of not more than 50 words on how to do about making it up.

Agriculturally yours, Pot Shots (who hasn't mistaken a potato plant for a beet plant in high on it for three years now).

DID SOMEBODY DO THAT ON PURPOSE?

Pot O' Dear:

"Just one guess as to what farm machinery was parked in front of the Chamber of Commerce today for the Farmers' Congress."

You're right. The machine that sprays it.

And the III secretary of the C. of C. when pressed as to what implement it was, didn't know what the thing was for. She asked questions—and was her face red when she found out.

—Mel

WE'VE GNAVED ON SOME PRETTY HARD ONES!

Pot Shots:

I noticed an item in the morning paper to the effect that Mrs. S. and So "will break the birthday cake."

Are the cakes that hard in your neighborhood?

—Buddhify of Buhl

YOU SHOULD HAVE completed your wrestling with the Pot Shots Granum Crackers by now. So today we give you the answers. Tomorrow, if the board of advisors can't tear it self away from whatever it always has such a hard time tearing away from, we'll announce the winner.

1. False. The Magneto Line is 200 miles of fortifications facing Germany in France.
2. False. The Statue of Liberty holds a book representing the law in her left hand.
3. False. "Type lice" is a joking term used to lure novices into a bit of print-shop bonanza.
4. True. A blinnee is a box for a ship's compass.
5. False. Maverick is an abandoned calf.

1. Combustible is misplaced.
2. The secretary of state is not a member of the United States Council of National Defense.

Hai! Hannah handed Hugh hair.

Open a nut, turn out a kernel. Let your put look at it. Then you look at it. Then rat it. You have performed the contract.

"Ship Torpedo Report Called Hoax"—Headline.

"Wants Post Anti-Nazi Minus Pans"—Headline.

He was out in a limb.

ONLY HIS WIFE CAN LOCK KTC. OUT OF HIM!

This Being Farmers' Congress day (providing you print this on Friday and then look it up in the paper), it seems appropriate to ask you "What is a farmer?" And it seems equally appropriate to advise you "A farmer is a guy who takes the hell out of Mother Nature, bally, not plant, stink, stink, stink."

But, buddy, he can't seem to get his hands on it.

WOMEN WANT BEAUTY!

BY LOUISE HOLMES
COPYRIGHT, 1939, NEA SERVICE, INC.

Edna kept no maid. Ten years ago, when the depression struck, Jeff's father had been a wealthy man. Two years later, he had been reduced to a very low level. He was only a day on the street. Edna had been a great girl, it had been her idea to bring Suse for dinner. And it hadn't been idle curiosity, either. Edna had a cousin, that Suse would need a friend. Edna was like that. Accustomed to wealth and a life of luxury, she had accepted comparative poverty without a whimper. Edna was what Jeff privately called a real lady.

The door was on the latch and Jeff pushed it open. "Hi, Edna," he shouted. Suse, who had been climbing, went unceremoniously into the living room. It was a square room, uninteresting in architecture, but the furniture was a masterpiece of arrangement. Fine old pieces of furniture, lovely pictures, small tables, conveniently placed lamps, books, magazines, a radio, a dining room lay beyond. A voice came from a far door, coming Jeff.

"Coming, Jeff." With that the door swung open and Edna Bowman, a very young person considering her big nose, slender and graceful, came toward them. Her eyes were gleaming with hospitality. It did not change when she viewed Suse. And Suse, who had shrunk into herself, expanded again.

"This is Suse Lambert, Edna," Jeff said. "My mother's friend."

Edna took Suse's hand. "I'm so glad to know you," she said, not patronizingly but simply and sweet. "Lay off your hat, won't you? Perhaps you'd like to wash a bit after your trip."

Suse said, "Thank you," and started clumsily for the bathroom. As suddenly as that her self-consciousness vanished and she turned to Suse. "You're a life to you to ask me for dinner," she said with her wide smile. "I appreciate it—really I do."

"We are happy to have you," Edna cried. She led Suse to the kitchen and Jeff followed.

"WHAT do you think of her?" Jeff asked in a low tone.

Edna turned several pieces of chicken before she spoke. At last she said, "I can tell you better after dinner. At first I was actually sick. Now I'm not so sure. There's a sweetness about her."

Jeff said, "My mother thought she could say nothing worth listening to. She actually told me that when I was in the army. It was when Jeff remarked that a pert young thing had stopped him on his way to meet Suse and asked for a lift."

"I went right on with my nose in the air," he elaborated. "A smart guy doesn't pick up cues like that."

"Why not, Jeff?" Edna asked. "Seems to me, Jeff, you were only courteous."

"You don't know life, Edna," Jeff said. "For up to him, a wayman with his gun sticking out of his pocket, none of those curbside racketeers."

Suse said, "I thought the men did the picking up."

15 YEARS AGO

FEB. 24, 1924

The local post of the American Legion will hold their next meeting at the Elks hall. Several important matters will come up for discussion including new light on the adjusted compensation bill now before Congress. Capt. P. W. McRobert will be in charge.

Craig Kramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kramer, spent Sunday with his parents, returning to Pocatello tomorrow where he is playing with a dance orchestra. Kramer drove down Sunday morning with Kenneth Ayres, also a member of the jazz orchestra.

Saturday evening the Tri-O club met at the home of Mrs. Margaret Finch and initiated into the mysteries of their club the following: Mabel Ellen Fisher, Betty Clark, Margaret Butler and Evelyn Bond. The remainder of the evening was spent socially, and the hostess served refreshments.

The two events of last week of special interest in the pre-nomination campaign were the withdrawal of Senator La Follette and the collapse of the Blaine coalition, nominally directed against the so-called "third term" idea, but practically intended to be an electioneering move. The movement for the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt.

The resolution introduced into the house of representatives by Mr. Clayton of Texas, can hardly be said to represent a fear of the dangers of third terms in general, but rather a fear of the growing interest in the possible nomination of Mr. Roosevelt.

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

(By Bruce Catton)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24.—A good many of the troubles of WPA have come from its sheer size. Others have come from its newness and its lack of experience. It has been trying to do 800 things at once. The result of ordinary human mistakes.

That sort of thing still happens, whenever a sudden depression makes it necessary to expand a locality's work force. Engineers have to be bought, equipment must be bought, equipment must be bought.

Working for them are men from relief rolls. Many of these men feel a grievance against society. In many cases, they will do more than they were before. In addition, incentive to good performance which obtains in private industry, is lacking. There is precious little hope of promotion, not so much fear of discharge.

Put those factors together, and you are certain to get poor performances. One WPA crew may be welded into an efficient working unit; another one may indulge in idleness. Waste, poor planning, inefficient operation, or get out of control of its foreman and start shoving-leaving.

BOSS EDUCATION

WPA authorities are trying to remedy this by an educational program for foremen. For more than a year, classes for foremen have been given. These classes are held in 15 states.

Other failures of the human element have occurred farther up the line. For instance, the WPA program has to be flexible, as the number of men employed is forever rising or falling. In a given locality, the WPA supervisor may load up with too many non-flexible projects like construction jobs.

WPA's biggest trouble, however, has come from the very nature of the WPA itself. It is a government agency. That is to say, it is a government agency. That is to say, it is a government agency.

Again and again the people of the United States are asked to pass on the paternity of a child whose mother is known to be a prostitute. Physicians were compelled to say that there was no known method by which any really scientific light could be cast on the matter.

But the gradual development of our knowledge of the so-called blood groups has made it possible to determine the paternity of a child with a considerable amount of importance. Of course, the anthropologist by studying the shape of the skull, the measurements of the body, the color of the eyes, the color of the hair, the color of the skin, the color of the teeth, is able to find evidence that is useful. However, even such evidence is not as certain as that provided by a study of the groups within the blood.

Briefly, the evidence now available indicates that in every human being there are in the red blood cells different combinations of certain substances called antigens. These antigens are inherited from the parents. The antigens are inherited from the parents. The antigens are inherited from the parents.

For instance, there are two substances which are called M and N. The authorities have found that M and N substances cannot appear in the blood of a person who is not a parent with type N. Now there are many other substances in the blood of a person who is not a parent with type N. Now there are many other substances in the blood of a person who is not a parent with type N.

Eighty Couples Attend Area-Wide J. C. Party

"Something doing every minute" might well have been the motto for the gala event last evening at Radioland, sponsored by the Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce, to which the Jaycees clubs of Rupert, Gooding, Jerome, Buhl and Burley were bidden. Eighty couples, Junior Chamber members, their wives and women guests, attended the frolic. Because of the popularity with which this first area-wide social party was received, similar events under the auspices of various other Junior Chamber groups of south central Idaho will be held in the future.

Guest-handling the guests upon their arrival at Radioland—the revel began at 8:30 o'clock last evening and continued until 1 o'clock this morning—were Paul Gilman, chairman; Leo Miller, Judson Clark, Jim Sinclair, Scott Smith, Jr., and Rich and Robertson, assisted by other members of the local host club. Music for dancing was provided by Ray Jennings' orchestra of Twin Falls and Kimberly. The orchestra is leaving next week for Hollywood to participate in a national radio audition.

The Radioland buffet was open throughout the evening for the accommodation of the guests, and a buffet supper was served at 11 o'clock.

Highlight of the entertainment came when Chick Crabtree announced the floor show. Ray Jennings, scored in a Rube dance, for which he was ludicrously costumed. Miss Valeria Grace received the play of the evening for her acrobatic number, and Jennings performed an eccentric dance and song to the accompaniment of "Alexander's Ragtime Band."

CHICAGO VISITOR

Mrs. Dingwall, whose guest for the past several weeks of her stay, Mrs. H. C. Galtier, returned today to her home in Illinois.

Guests were seated at a single table, centered with a low bowl of sweet peas in pastel hues. The place cards were harmonizing designs. Mrs. H. C. Galtier, who was the guest of honor, was seated next to Mrs. Dingwall, who received a great favor.

POST-EASTER BAZAAR SCHEDULED
Evening Guild of the Asenstol Episcopal church will sponsor a bazaar, to be held at the Asenstol church, on Wednesday evening, March 1st, at 8 o'clock. The bazaar will be held by the group during the Lenten season.

Miss Ina Wheeler was hostess. Mrs. W. H. Hickey was the evening program, presenting a question box on church terms, which was won by Mrs. Rosalie Stringfellow, and a game which was won by Mrs. Harry North.

The hostess served refreshments in the St. Patrick's hall.

PINOCCHIO CLUB MEETS FOR GAMES
Mrs. and Mrs. Lloyd Pettigrove were hosts to the Pinocchio club last evening. Mrs. and Mrs. John Velt were guests of the group.

At pinocchio Mrs. Velt and Ed Roberts won the honors. The contest favor was presented to Manfred Leibel.

Refreshments were served at quarter tables to Mr. and Mrs. John Berger, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Shaw, and Mrs. Velt.

FETHIAN SISTERS SPONSOR YOUNG GIRL
The adoption of a young girl as a ward of the group was the major project of the Fethian Sisters this year, according to plans made at a session last evening in the auxiliary room of the Legion Memorial hall.

Mrs. Deann Morrison, most excellent chief, presided at the business session. Arrangements were made for a benefit card party to be held March 10.

A program on the life of Washington was presented by Mrs. Helen Minnick and Mrs. Angie Iron, co-chairmen of the committee.

GAY APPOINTMENTS FAVORED AT LUNCHEON
Nourishment in crystal baskets were the bright centerpiece for the luncheon at which Mrs. Claudia Deibel entertained yesterday afternoon at her home on Kimberly road. Tallies were in a spring theme.

Guests were members of the Quil Vive club and Mrs. A. O. Carter. At contract, Mrs. Arthur Beckwith won club honors, and Mrs. Carter also received a prize.

Roller Skating Gains in Favor

When you say "skating" in southern Idaho, at least this immediate section, you're not meaning the kind that Sonya Henrie does. Ice skating is all very well for Sun Valleyites, but it's finding stiff competition hereabouts. The fad is growing by leaps and bounds and flops and spills.

The pleasure roller skating rink has been the scene of some of the liveliest parties this week many of them no-host affairs. Tuesday night was a record-breaker in attendance, and a large number chose to celebrate Washington's birthday by skating between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock.

Mission Groups Meet For Lenten Devotions

Women of almost a dozen local churches assembled at the Presbyterian church today for a service of Lenten devotion and meditation. Sponsored by the Women's Missionary Union of Twin Falls, the World Day of Prayer program was impressively carried out in keeping with the outline suggested by the World Missionary union, international and inter-denominational in scope.

Mrs. Van B. Wright, representing the church of the Brethren, directed the morning Quiet Hour, the Lenten meditation being interspersed with special musical selections and prayers. "Let us put our love into deeds," was the theme of Mrs. Wright's talk, in which she emphasized that it is essential to live the "prayer life" in order to divert love into good deeds.

INFORMAL PARTY
CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY
Mrs. S. P. Vanits was the inspiration for a delightfully informal party one evening this week at her home, 330 Third avenue north. The occasion was in honor of her birthday.

Chinese checkers occupied the group during the evening, and the refreshments featured a birthday cake, decorated in pink and white and lighted with candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudolph, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conover, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Vanits were present.

FORWARD MEMBER
Wrapping and packing gifts distracted from interest in the bridge game when members of the Monarch club met this week at the home of Mrs. W. G. Brown.

Mrs. Ewald Schwartz, formerly a club member, now living in Huntington Park, Calif., will be the recipient of the "pink and blue shadow" gifts.

Notes written on the backs of the talies written on the games, were also included in the box. Mrs. Jack Cannon, Mrs. Bill Thomas and Mrs. Ralph Bacon won honors.

The refreshment table was especially attractive, having as a centerpiece a white pottery bowl of flowers, flanked by lighted yellow tapers in white pottery holders.

HOOVER RAPS DICTATORS FOR 'INTOLERANT IDEOLOGIES'

PREDICTS FIGHT FOR LIBERTY BY BONDED PEOPLE

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 23 (AP)—President Herbert C. Hoover placed the "intolerant ideologies" of dictator nations along with war, famine, pestilence and death, as the "five horrors" trampling the world, in a speech last night urging support of the Presbyterian church's drive for a $100,000 college fund.

"The fumes from these witches' cauldrons of new ideologies are today drugging our democracies with illusions of economic security," the former head of the nation told 700 churchmen, gathered here for a luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria, a $100,000 portion of the fund raising campaign.

"Social complications," Hoover added to intolerance, as a problem of the modern world, "social complications," which, he said, resulted from Americans in carrying the "moral relations" in the village shop to mass production industries, the replacement of men in industry by women, and the grant of "legal personality" to corporations, while leaving them "the normal of machine tools."

"Even in the two-thirds of the world which has been trampled by the five horrors, many of the people have at some time experienced the elements of human liberty," Hoover said, "and once that has entered the human soul it will not die. That is, if the light of hope be maintained somewhere in the world."

Individual Respect
"After all, the constructive power of civilization in our democracies is not founded on power over matter. It is founded on the advance of truth, beauty and human brotherhood. It is founded upon respect for individual men."

"The answer to our default is clearly before us," he said. "That is the failure of men to maintain and develop moral standards and spiritual inspirations in pace with their increase in knowledge and power."

BLAME

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 24 (AP)—High heels and afternoon blouses are blamed for homesickness in many cases.

Dr. R. A. Ramaker of Missoula, Mont., told the Minnesota Dental convention that dental abnormalities in babies at birth, which affect their appearance, are caused "to a great extent by changing pelvis in the modern woman."

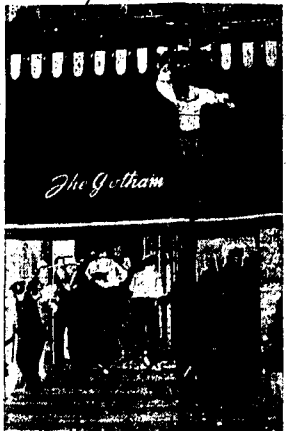

High heels, which shift body weight forward, and adding to the bridge tables all afternoon cause the change in the pelvis, Dr. Ramaker explained. He advocated exercise—not for the sake of health—in comfortable clothes.

TOEVS OUTLINES DATA FOR FLAX

JEROME, Feb. 24 (Special)—Depth of seeding, types of seed bed, date of planting and type of irrigation are the chief features to be considered in producing flax, according to John L. Toevs, of Aberdeen, who addressed a Lions-Parsons meeting held at Hazelton last week.

Toevs, superintendent of the university experiment station located at Aberdeen, reviewed experiments carried on for various crops grown in the irrigated sections. Results of the work with flax indicated that early planting is essential to high yields. Starting plantings on April 20, and making successive seedings until May 25 showed that the earliest plantings gave the greatest yield with a continued decrease in returns for all later plantings.

Mr. Toevs warned farmers that shallow seeding is essential for success in growing flax and that deep seeding will result in poor stands and weak plants. A well packed seed bed with moisture near the surface, he said, will insure germination and good stands in plantings on the substation from 40 to 60 pounds of seed have been used per acre.

"Flax does well as a nurse crop but is a poor competitor with weeds. Machinery used in the production of wheat will be satisfactory for flax and no special equipment is necessary," said Mr. Toevs.

Because flax is a shallow rooted, frequent light irrigations are necessary at longer intervals. Blends in the variety best fitted to conditions in the state.

The program, which was in charge of E. W. Heman of Hazelton, also included a talk on 4-H club work by Earl R. Stansell, Burley, district 4-H club agent of south central Idaho.

Typist Outworks Man With Spade In Energy Tests

CLEVELAND, Feb. 24 (AP)—The average typist, by actual scientific tests, does more work than a ditch-digger, according to Frank M. Slough, Cleveland patent attorney.

"When the effort required to strike a typewriter key is multiplied by the thousands of key-depressions, per day," said Slough, "the total effort actually is greater than that required in eight hours of ditch digging."

Slough said that a young Cleveland man had invented a revolutionary electrical typewriter, "simpler, cheaper to manufacture, easier to operate—with interchangeable type-face, and many other advantages."

ELIMINATION LILY DER. WAIN CLASS B MEETS

Galento Still Belows for Louis Match After Set-Up Victory

Quintets Follow Form in Most Sub-Districts

(Results of morning games will be found on Page 2).

With play at the stage where nearly all losers are eliminated, four south central Idaho Class B sub-district tournaments today were well into the second-to-last day, with finals set for Saturday night in all but one division.

Of the four tournaments, only one distinct upset occurred—A. Haidley, where Bellevue boys came through to down a favored Carey quintet. Otherwise scores were running quite true to form.

Winners and runners-up from the South Side, Western and Mini-Cassia sub-districts go to the district meet at Shoshone, while just the winner from the Wood River area is eligible, along with the North Side champion already determined—Shoshone.

The South Side district championships will be played on Monday night. All games last night were postponed when a transformer blew out and left the town in darkness.

Seabiscuit Out Of $100,000 Coast Special

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 24 (AP)—Just one good gallop short of the all-time record, Seabiscuit was officially declared out of the $100,000 coast special today to be tested for a possible comeback late this summer. The fifth running of the $100,000 classic was thrown wide open.

Owner Charles S. Howard informed Santa Anita officials that his great six-year-old had recovered from a lameness incurred a week ago, but that he could not gamble on a possible best bet in the horse were forced into further training now.

Cow's Thousands

The scratch of the Biscuit, originally a prohibitive 3-1 favorite to win the big prize he lost by a nose to Rosemont in 1937 and Kinsland in 1938, threw the race open to some 20 contenders and lost thousands of persons thousands of dollars in winter book sales.

"I could not take a chance of breaking down so noble a horse as Seabiscuit," Howard said, "but he is pulling up lame to a sound and is in good condition. But there exists the possibility that he will continue to hurt him might be ruined forever."

Both trainer Tom Smith and I are confident Seabiscuit will resume training after a rest. We will send him to my farm, Ridgewood Ranch, near San Francisco, then bring him back for the $100,000 Hollywood Gold Cup at Hollywood park late in the summer."

Seabiscuit, pulled up with a strained suspensory ligament in his left foreleg Feb. 14 when Neil McCarthy's Today set a new track record for a mile in three hours and 54 seconds, was pronounced sound but lame after several false starts he was pronounced sound but lame after several false starts he was pronounced sound but lame after several false starts.

Three close games featured play in the City League with the first two from Twin Falls Lumber company. The first game was decided by five points and the last one by two. Both Rogers had a 508 three-run homer and a high single of 200. O. T. Clark topped the winners with a 508 three-run homer.

Red Head Aces Play at Rupert Tonight

RUPERT, Feb. 24 (Special)—The world's greatest feminine basketball team comes to Rupert tonight to battle the Murtaugh Savages, popular ace south Idaho cage quintet.

The two teams will meet here, moving on to Twin Falls Saturday night, where they play the final game of a three-game series on the Twin Falls gymnasium floor.

Last night the Red Heads demonstrated their ability to more than match masculine club by downing the Savages by a score of 41-38. The Savages were state amateur champions last year.

Led by Kay Kirkpatrick, their star forward, the feminine team was in the lead from the opening quarter. The count was 11-7 at the half time, 23-19 at the end of the first half, and 32-28 at the end of the second half.

Abe Feldman Counted Out After Three Stanzas in Miami

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 24 (AP)—Tony Galento, whose freakish fighting has been exploited almost to the limit, pointed proudly today to his knockout over Abe Feldman and belated another challenge to heavyweight champion Joe Louis.

But that was a matter for Promoter Mike Jacobs to decide, and Mike was one of the disappointing crowd of 8,432 in Burdine stadium last night which saw Galento in action. He was as unimpressed as the other 8,431, Tony still will be the bubbling challenges through his beer this time next year.

Although "Honest Abe" offered little resistance, Tony failed to finish "daddy" in one round. The third round had begun and Feldman had been on the floor six times before referee Dave Miller of Chicago decided the thing had lasted long enough.

The fight could have ended in the first round when Tony Jack-knifed Feldman with a right to the stomach, then had showed him the canvas. But Abe got up and weathered Galento's slugish attack for the remainder of the stanza.

Knocked Down in First

The fight between Galento and Feldman was a disappointment to many who were banking on a restoration of the prize fight to its former glory. Galento, who had been knocked out by Tony Jack-knifed Feldman with a right to the stomach, then had showed him the canvas. But Abe got up and weathered Galento's slugish attack for the remainder of the stanza.

Mac, the Gourmet, Attends a 'Luau', Which is Saying Quite a Mouthful

By HENRY McLEMORE

Several mouthfuls, because luau is Hawaiian for feast and when an islander sits down to eat the preceding banquets free to eat he plays no favorites.

I was asked to a luau yesterday and sat at a table with a big dining room only slightly smaller than the Yankee stadium and surrounded by approximately the same number of guests as the members in the American League, each of whom was in charge of a specific dish.

If an islander had said and allowed me to do as I pleased, I would have been a mouthful of the appetizers and the main courses.

German Government Decreases Drastic Tax Increases

Levy on Iron Out Existing Inequalities

BERLIN, Feb. 24 (AP)—Drastic tax increases hitting rich and middle class alike, were decreed by the government today, apparently part of the four-year plan.

An official communique accompanying the law said that some of the increases were designed as such measures to iron out existing inequalities between rich and poor, and that others were measures to "simplify taxes."

Under the new law, the average middle class German will pay approximately $40 a year more in income taxes. Higher income tax brackets would be hit much harder.

$40 Boost

The increases are imposed mostly by revision of earnings and reductions, such as those allowed in the maid servant tax and the church tax.

As an example, however, it was estimated that an average middle class German who earns 400 marks a month ($11.11) will pay an additional 100 marks ($4.44) a year additional in income tax and that in the instance of the higher brackets the increase would reach 1,000 to 2,000 marks ($44.44 to $88.88).

In the case of the above cited example, there is an "average" class man who has been childless for five years. The increase is automatically added if such man adopts a child or undertakes to sustain one otherwise unprovided for.

Important Change

One important change of the law raises the special tax of 10 per cent hitherto imposed on members of boards of directors to 20 per cent. The reduction made in allowances might put many taxpayers in upper income brackets, and thus subject them automatically to higher direct taxes.

These changes followed immediately upon a decree issued yesterday by the Reich Marshal Hermann Goerring, dictator of the four-year plan of economic self-sufficiency, requiring all German Jews to surrender by March 7 all gold, platinum, silver, jewelry and pearls in their possession.

OLSON MAY ASK BILLINGS PARDON

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24 (AP)—Gov. Culbert Olson said today he was "willing" to apply to the California supreme court for approval to pardon Warren K. Billings despite the state advisory board's refusal to make such an application.

The board's refusal, decided upon last night by a 3 to 2 vote, apparently left Billings' sole hope for pardon in Olson's hands. When he pardoned Tom Mooney, last month Olson said he would like to pardon Billings also but he was powerless to do so because Billings was a time-offender.

The pardon board merely voted on the question of recommending a pardon to the state supreme court. It too was powerless to grant a pardon.

The board's decision that in the case of a man twice convicted of a felony, the high court must first recommend a pardon before the governor can grant it.

Advised of the board's action, Olson said he was "willing to submit an application to the court if that is Billings' only recourse and if his lawyers want me to do so."

George Davis, Billings' attorney, indicated he would appeal to the governor immediately. He said that neither he nor Billings had been given an opportunity to be heard by the board, which, he said, had acted unconstitutionally.

PROBE SET FOR YOUTH'S DEATH

ST. ANTHONY, Ida., Feb. 24 (AP)—An inquest will be held today into the death of John Thomas, 16, Eskimo Indian boy from Nome, Alaska, whose frozen body was found upon a freight car near Wilford siding after he escaped Wednesday from the Idaho industrial school.

Supt. E. P. Newby of the industrial school said he believed the youth still does a "crazy" job and struck his head while attempting to board a freight car to continue his escape. A bruise was found behind his ear.

Robert Thomas, 15, who escaped with Thomas, was captured last Wednesday in the Rexburg railroad station.

William Flint of St. Anthony told Sheriff E. C. Hill he was halted by two boys he believed were the industrial school escapees Thursday but refused to give them a ride in his automobile. The boys were believed to have been in a box car near St. Anthony and stolen candy.

ANTI-PICKET BILL STILL TROUBLES

HOUSE, Feb. 24 (AP)—The anti-picketing bill still threatened Idaho labor leaders today in spite of an unsuccessful attempt by Sen. Tom Heath, Republican party whip, to have it thrown into the committee of the whole for amendment.

Health objected to the bill, which requires a majority of all employees of all classes agree to a strike before it can be called, as "too drastic," and proposed it be amended so that the employees of one particular craft might strike.

The Republican state chairman said the bill would strike a hard blow at organized labor, and his opposition was taken to indicate the party leaders and the administration opposed the measure.

The senate adjourned for the day suddenly yesterday before action could be taken on the measure. Before it adjourned, the senate approved an appropriation of $1,500 for a museum at Cour d'Alene and approved a house bill to permit mentally ill persons to enter state mental hospitals voluntarily for treatment.

Gov. C. A. Bolin announced he was planning establishment of a tax equalization commission of at least 12 members to study revision of the state tax and present a plan to the 1941 legislature.

CONVICTION FOR MURDER UPHELD

BOISE, Feb. 24 (AP)—Paul (Red) Boyatt must stay in the Idaho state prison but his minimum sentence will be 10 years instead of 20, according to a ruling of the Idaho supreme court last yesterday.

The court affirmed the conviction of Boyatt in a Halsey murder case involving death of a prominent Hollywood movie technician employed during Sun Valley filming of Claude Rains' picture, "I Met Him in Paris."

BILL MAY BRING MURTAUGH CASH

The trial court in Blaine county was directed to rule the minimum to 10 years. Maximum which had been ordered by Judge D. H. Sulphum was 20 years.

Boyatt was convicted of shooting his sister to death Aug. 12, 1937, in "Bobby's Place," dance hall, beer parlor and rooming house run by the wife of Boyatt. The two men were quarreled over Sister's attentions to Barbara Boyatt.

Boyatt has been in prison since his conviction in a sensational trial that won nationwide prominence.

Justice Edwin M. Holden wrote opinion and his colleagues all concurred. Justice William M. Morgan, however, dissented from the order to reduce the minimum sentence. In Justice Holden's opinion, the court that the court examined the record "with the greatest care," scanned the court's instruction to the jury as well as those by Boyatt's counsel and refused by the court, but find no error was committed necessitating a reversal.

Jury Urged Leniency

The reduction in minimum sentence was ordered because the jury recommended leniency.

Justice Morgan's dissent from that recommendation pointed out that the trial judge was "in a better position than we are" to determine the penalty.
