Caravan Prepares to Visit Boise to Urge Bridge Oke

Senate Voting Day Still Not Certain

BULLETIN
Last-minute word this afternoon from the Twin Falls bridge committee in Boise postponed the scheduled caravan of toll revenue boosters until probably Wednesday, merchants' bureau leaders said. Plans had been made for Tuesday, but those in charge said that arrangements listed for Tuesday will be carried over until Wednesday pending further word from Boise tomorrow morning.

Although time for third reading—and a senate vote—on the bill for state purchase of the Twin Falls-Jerome toll bridge was still not definitely certain today as between Tuesday and Wednesday, the merchants' bureau of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce was completing extensive arrangements this afternoon for a giant caravan to visit Boise Tuesday.

A dozen leaders in the bureau were contacting businessmen and farmers throughout the city and were mapping plans for a caravan that may total 100 motor cars carrying 500 persons.

It was indicated that despite the uncertainty as to day of the final vote, the caravan will proceed to Boise Tuesday. Several cars of farmers from the north side probably will accompany the group, since various Granges of that area are on record as favoring the free bridge.

Leaders who were arranging the caravan for Tuesday said this afternoon the group will not be in Boise "for the purpose of making a noisy demonstration. The 500 persons sought by the caravan committee will attend the senate proceedings in a quiet, orderly manner to show that this area of southern Idaho expects consideration in the free bridge matter, that its citizens are interested intensely, and that the entire region will be appreciative of senate help."

Feared by House
The Idaho house has already passed the bill, 33-22. The measure provides a toll bridge committee to handle the state transaction.

Following the house approval, the senate will consider the measure. The senate will consider the measure on Tuesday. The senate will consider the measure on Tuesday. The senate will consider the measure on Tuesday.

BLANDFORD TOPS NEW CITY TICKET

Although no formal petitions of nomination had been filed by noon today, the second "ticket" to announce intention to enter the city election race had been officially declared.

Secured
The ticket made the second to enter the race within this time slot on one week. The first to be announced consisted of Roy Painter, banker, for mayor; Carl E. Hickey, police commissioner; and Lionel A. Dean, prominent aviator and garage owner, for councilman.

It was understood unofficially today that one or two other tickets might be filed before the deadline at 8 p. m. next Saturday. At least one of the proposed additional tickets, however, might be abandoned.

After closing of the period for filing petitions of nomination on Saturday evening with City Clerk W. H. Blundell, candidates will have 10 more days, until 8 p. m. Friday, March 10, to appear in person for acceptance of nomination. If the nominees do not accept, they will be automatically out of the race.

FREIGHTERS RAM IN FOG OFF NEW JERSEY'S COAST

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (UP)—The Coast Guard reported shortly after 8 p. m. today that the freighter Lillian, damaged in a collision last night with the German freighter Wiegand, sank about 25 miles southwest of Manhattan.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27 (UP)—Capt. Frank Boyer and half his crew of 32 returned today to the freighter Lillian, abandoned last night after ramming the German freighter Wiegand off the New Jersey coast.

The Lillian still was afloat although her decks were awash. A small group of crew members remained on the ship, but the rest had been rescued by the Coast Guard.

Ploughing through a heavy fog off Barnegat light, near Cape May, N. J., last night, the Lillian rammed the Wiegand, 12 hours out of New York with a cargo of scrap iron for Japan. The Lillian was saved in the fog and the Wiegand was not.

As an abandoned freighter, the Lillian and her cargo of raw sugar would become the property of anyone getting aboard her under salvage laws.

A heavy sea was running and the fog was impenetrable. When the officers on the Wiegand first saw the Lillian, she was but a dozen feet away and it was impossible to turn out of her path.

She smashed against the iron-framed freighter and slid off. Instantly the Lillian's radio spoke out, not in alarm, but to announce she had been damaged.

Awaits Developments
The Wiegand's radio report said she was all right, and she dropped anchor to await developments about the Lillian. The operators chatted for several hours, but no word came from the Lillian.

Forty-five minutes later the Wiegand announced all of the Lillian's crew were safely aboard and she was turning back to New York. Not only to hand them but to have her hull inspected and repaired.

Several vessels which were heading for the scene, resumed their courses. The Lillian was a 3,642-ton vessel, owned by the A. H. Bull Steamship company. The Wiegand was a 500-ton German Lloyd.

Mr. Painter, in stepping out of the campaign, issued a statement, published in the Idaho Falls Times, announcing his withdrawal from the race.

Bottolfsen 'On Spot' as Solons Accept Measure

BOISE, Feb. 25 (UP)—An anti-picketing bill, center of a noisy labor controversy, was thrown squarely into the lap of Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen today when the senate voted 30 to 14 against reconsideration of the measure.

A packed gallery listened to a debate over the bill in which it was praised as a protection to American liberties and condemned as a vicious infringement on the rights of labor. Gov. P. ranks.

Sen. Tom Heath, Republican majority whip and state party chairman, moved for reconsideration of the bill to keep the bill off the governor's desk where the chief executive would have to commit himself on it.

If the governor signs the bill, he is sure to incur the animosity of many labor leaders who have fought it furiously. If he vetoes it, he may offend farm leaders and employers, many of them high in G. O. P. ranks.

Sen. Heath sought a compromise through amendment but neither side of the controversy would accept the peace offer.

Bona Fide Strike
The measure would prohibit picketing of a place of business by any employee who had not been "continuously employed for a period of 30 days prior to the date of the picketing act."

It would ban picketing not done in support of a bona fide strike. A "bona fide" strike was defined in the bill as one engaging the support of a majority of all workers in a particular industrial unit.

All those had been crushed by the cascading snow which tumbled down a steep canyon wall after a sharp "comb" at the top of a ridge had been loosened by a blizzard.

GOP SAYS NEW YORK, IDAHO HOLD BALANCE OF POWER

REPUBLICANS SEE EDGE FOR DEMOS FOR 23 STATES

By Lyle C. Wilson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27 (U.P.)—Claiming 21 industrial and agricultural states as "now unquestionably Republican," G. O. P. statisticians today published an analysis of election returns to support their contention that the New Deal-Democratic unit is broken from coast to coast.

The Republican national committee claimed 221 electoral votes among the 21 states listed, conceded 23 states, including the solid south, with 236 electoral votes to the Democrats and listed four balance of power states as on close to the border line.

These estimates of political strength were as of last November's general election. The four balance of power states were New York and Idaho, classed as border line, and Illinois and Montana, rated by the G. O. P. as Democratic on the basis of November returns but by margins so small as to make them debatable. New York and Idaho together have 51 electoral votes. Illinois and Montana cast 33. On the basis of the Republican claim of 221 electoral votes, the G. O. P. would gain only 45 to control the 1940 electoral college and regain the White House.

Publication of the analysis coincided with rapid developments in the New Deal breathing spell policy to accelerate business recovery. Democratic disagreement on procedure to meet the situation created by last November's political reverses and lagging business activity extends with considerable vigor into President Roosevelt's cabinet. Some weeks of indecision have been followed in the past 10 days with a tangle of official statements calculated to be reassuring to business. Republicans generally assay these developments since last November's election as further improving their position at the expense of New Deal-Democratic forces. They based their expectation of winning the presidency next year on that judgment. Conservative Democrats, however, believe the party can be aided by nominating a "safe" 1940 ticket which still could enjoy Mr. Roosevelt's support.

SIGNUP OPENS IN RANGE PROGRAM

BURLEY, Feb. 27 (Special).—Ranch operators who are interested in the 1939 range conservation program may sign applications to conserve with such program on that day.

County Agricultural Conservation offices at any time now, states W. W. Palmer, secretary.

The range program for this year is quite similar to last year's in that the allowance which can be earned for a ranching unit is determined by multiplying the range land by three cents per acre plus 75 cents per animal-unit carrying capacity of each range pasture land. Also, if there is mountain meadow land normally cut for livestock hay an allowance is made of 35 cents per acre for such land.

Major Practices
The major practices which can be earned out by the producer to earn his allowance are:
Natural reseedling by deferred grazing on 25 per cent of the range and normally pastured; artificial reseedling and sodding; contour listing, furrowing or sub-soiling; contour ridging; the construction of earthen concrete or rubble masonry dams; digging of well; development of natural watering places such as springs and creeks; the planting of forest and windbreak trees and the establishment of fire guards.

The range program does not apply to land directly under the control of the U. S. forest service or the Taylor-Wallace Participate.

Since the institution of the program in 1936 a few range operators have yearly participated in the program in Coconino county.

Interested ranchers may secure information on the program preceding coming to the county office, if they so desire, by contacting their community committees.

The department of public works in New Brunswick has announced it will keep at least 1,015 miles of main highway open to automobile traffic throughout the winter. Last year, owing to midwest, the department was able to keep open about 2,000 miles.

Chapin Urges Big Group on Bridge Jaunt

United demonstration of sentiment in this area of south Idaho in favor of a toll-free bridge was called for today in a proclamation issued Sunday by Mayor Lem A. Chapin.

Mayor Chapin issued his proclamation at request of the merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce as the state bill to purchase the Twin Falls-Jerome intercounty bridge moved up into the Idaho senate. It was passed 33-21 by the house.

The proclamation said in part: "Inasmuch as Twin Falls, south central Idaho, the Four States Highway association are cooperating with us in an attempt to do away with this obstruction which is the only toll bridge on U. S. 20."

"With the proposal already endorsed by our house of representatives, the very least we can do is to turn out an mass demonstration to the state administration and members of the senate that this section of Idaho expects just recognition."

The states of Nevada and Montana and the Four States Highway association are cooperating with us in an attempt to do away with this obstruction which is the only toll bridge on U. S. 20."

HAS BABY A NASTY COLD?

Relieve the misery As Most Mothers Do Rub baby's back, chest, and throat with Vicks VapoRub and tuck him deep into bed. What a comfort to know that VapoRub goes to work right away to relieve the misery of his cold without "dosing"—without risk of stomach upset. And what a comfort to know that long after you sleep comes, VapoRub will still be working—two ways at once—direct through the skin into the poisons, and direct to the irritated air-passages with its medicated vapors. You'll find that often by morning the worst of the cold is over.
