NEW ELECTRIC COOKERY

 The housewife's job is a burdensome one at best, one that's never finished. Spare time—time for other things that count—is the difference between "just a housekeeper" and a real homemaker. And that's what the new 1939 electric ranges give you. Time to be an understanding and helpful mother, time to be a companionable and intelligent wife, time to read and learn and play and keep up with the world. Cooking loses its place as the leading household drudgery. With the new electric ranges it becomes one of the simpler things to do. Complete meals in one operation—controls so accurate they're almost human—beauty in the kitchen, with a range designed to be "slicked up" in the shortest possible time—meals that save on the family budget. # CLASS B TOURNEY PLAY STARTS THURSDAY

Glenns Ferry and Tangle in Opening Contest

Eight south central Idaho Class B boys' teams were set today to do battle in the annual district tournament, opening at Shoshone at 2 p. m. Thursday with Carey and Glenns Ferry tangle in the opening contest.

The tournament, to be run on a double-elimination basis, puts all eight clubs in action the first day. In the second contest, at 8 p. m., Albion, surprise Mini-Cassia runner-up, takes on Kimberly, runner-up in the South Side sub-district.

At 8 p. m. at night, Hagerman, western runner-up, tackles Murtaugh, champion of the South Side, the final contest of the day, at 9 p. m. Shoshone, host team and champion of the North Side sub-district, battles Paul, Mini-Cassia champion.

A champion trophy, comparable with that given state high school champions, is to be awarded the winner of the district meet and is now on display in Shoshone.

HERE and THERE in the SPORTS WORLD

Special Awards
Special awards will also be given to first and second all-star teams as chosen by Mac Johnson of the Idaho Evening Times, and Twin Falls Daily, at this tournament. Minnesota same kind of special awards will be given the all-star clubs at the Class A meet.

Unusually hot pre-district
Unusually hot pre-district tournament play, Albion upset Heyburn for second place in the Mini-Cassia play-off last night at 2 p. m. by a score of 22-20. Paul had already won first place in that area by downing Albion in the morning by a 24-10 count.

Murtaugh Wins
At Murtaugh, the Murtaugh team entered the district meet by edging Kimberly in a low scoring contest, 12-12. Kimberly, however, also goes to Shoshone as the runner-up.

After losing the first game to Bellevue, Carey came back to take the last two games of a three-game series in the Wood River sub-district to annex that title by a 20-15 count.

Murtaugh 12, Kimberly 12
MURTAUGH, Feb. 28 (Special)—Murtaugh's high school cagers came through this Class B tournament without a defeat by edging Kimberly in the first game of the meet by a score of 12-12.

Bulldozers trailed throughout the game, but tied the score as the final whistle blew. In the last minute of the overtime period, Red East, Murtaugh guard, stepped up to the free throw line and dropped in the deciding point.

Earl was high point man for the winners who ate the same number Muray collected for the losers.

Outfielders won the right to represent this district at the district meet in Buhl March 16, 17 and 18 by winning over Murtaugh maidens in the finals by a 31-20 count.

The crown went to the Castelford team for the seventh year in a row. High scorers for the tournament were Presley of Castelford boys, who had 40 points in three games, and Savage of the Murtaugh girls, who had 38 points in three games.

Halley 26, Bellevue 18
HALLEY (Special)—Stagging a comeback after losing their first game against Bellevue, the Carey boys last night annexed the Wood River sub-district championship by downing Bellevue in the final contest by a 20-15 count.

In the first game of the tourney,
Bellevue was ahead 4-1 at the quarter, but trailed 7-6 at the half time. Carey retained the one-point advantage at the three-quarter mark, 11-10. Shoheti led and Maccham each collected six points for the winners, while Peterson led Bellevue with five.

Halley girls had already annexed the girls' division of this meet with a 24-4 victory over Carey maidens Saturday night.

Albion 22, Heyburn 20
BULLEY, Feb. 28 (Special)—Heyburn's great Glenn B. Bakertall team, hitting the shots in the Mini-Cassia round-robin tournament, was eliminated from the district tournament last night by a 22-20 tallying Albion team. The score was 22-20 and gave the Albion club second place for this sub-district meet.

Paul had previously won the first

SHOSHONE, Feb. 28 (Special)—This town today continued to hail the feats of the Shoshone Redskins—claiming the local club the greatest in the history of Idaho.

To back their claims the local citizenry pointed to the record of the Redskins in winning the Camas Outlaw tourney, the championship of the Snake Valley Outlaw league, and last—but not least—the crowning achievement of taking the state amateur title at Boise during the past week-end.

Last night the club was the special guest of honor at the annual Chamber of Commerce election banquet. Thirty members and guests turned out for the affair in the Boston cafe.

Spokes for the evening for the Redskins was Hal Wood, sports editor of the Idaho Evening Times from Twin Falls, who lauded the work of the Shoshone club during the 1938-39 season. He also presented the Redskins with a championship trophy for winning the Snake Valley Outlaw Cager league title. The trophy was accepted for the team by Robert Hadlock.

Activity Review
Following the tribute to the Redskins, the Chamber of Commerce heard annual reports from the following:

CITY LEAGUE
Tues., Feb. 28—National Laundry vs. Zip-Way (15).
Wed., March 1—Idaho Power vs. Del's (13).
Fri., March 3—Schlitz vs. Studebaker (15).

CITY LEAGUE
Tues., Feb. 28—Twin Falls Flour Mill vs. Twin Falls Lumber.
Wed., March 1—Ray's Texaco vs. Deweller's (15).
Thurs., March 2—Kimberly vs. Firestone (15).
Fri., March 3—Budweiser vs. Brookfield.

GOOD-NOT BORE
AVALON, Calif., Feb. 28 (UP)—Dixie Dean's pitching arm, the mystery of 1938, still was the number one item of comment in the Chicago Cubs' camp today. Dean's all night work arm got its first real workout yesterday although Manager Gabby Hartnett refused to let him hear down. Dix said, "I felt good and not sore."

CONFERENCE SET
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 28 (UP)—Manager Bill Terry scheduled another conference today with Pittsburgh Dick Cofman and his Yankees, who have refused to accept terms of the New York Giants.

Each of us breathes out enough carbon every hour, in the form of carbonic acid gas, to make a diamond of at least 100 carats.

Up in the air for a high one goes infielder Mike Green, who has reported at the Washington training camp at Orlando, Fla., where the only 1939 rookie would be a U. S. Senator, Green, a native of Montana, was recommended by Bucky Harris by Neil Burton E. Wheeler.

Skiers Plan for Amateur Meet Set for March 11
Plans for the amateur ski meet planned at Sun Valley March 11 will be the major business before the meeting of the Twin Falls Ski club here at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Hagerman hotel. Dr. Frank McAtee, president, announced today.

The amateur meet is being sponsored by the American Legion post at Ketchikan.

The Twin Falls club will arrange to select a team of three members to represent the organization at the March 11 competition.

Louis-Galento Match Looms For Title in Late June

Do 7 Years in Big Time Leave Wyatt a Rookie?

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 28 (UP)—When you've bounced around the American league for seven years and then come up to the National league, as you still a rookie? That's the problem confronting Whitlow Wyatt, the tall, partially bald Chickamauga, Ga., product who is trying to win a place on the Brooklyn Dodgers' pitching staff.

"I consider myself a rookie because I've still got to make good," confided Wyatt.

But everybody else around the Brooklyn club considers Wyatt a regular, including Manager Leo Durocher who says Wyatt is one of his "big five."

Wyatt's case is a most unusual one. He bounced around the American league for seven years with the Detroit Tigers, Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Indians. Sometimes it looked as though he might blossom into a star but always he faded. Then last year with Milwaukee he had one of the greatest years any major league pitcher ever experienced. Allan Rothman, Milwaukee manager, called Wyatt "the all-time greatest minor league pitcher" after he led the American association in almost every pitching department, winning 23, losing seven, and compiling an earned run average of 2.37.

Big Confab to Settle Date Set Wednesday

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 28 (UP)—Joe Louis will defend his heavyweight title against Tony Galento in a New York ball park next June, and if Promoter Mike Jacobs is planning no more than announcement of this fact, his rendezvous with the press tomorrow will be a three-star flop.

Bringing an interesting announcement that has something to do with Louis and Galento, Promoter Mike yesterday invited reporters for exclusive right to Tony Galento, because his carding rule of promotion is to tie the challenger to an iron-bound contract before he gets a shot at the title. Galento's stock has dropped since his "comeback" from a siege of pneumonia last year, but he undoubtedly is the most colorful figure in the ring today and a good drawing card around New York. Elsewhere he is a question mark as an attraction. Fewer than 5,000 turned out to see him fight Feldman here.

Cowboys Sign Up Four More Diamond Stars

Four more ball players for the Twin Falls Cowboys were signed to contracts today, according to Hugh Pace, business manager of the club, who is here doing preliminary work in preparation for the opening of the season.

"And they're all good boys," Hugh says. "They come from semi-pro ranks, but have been playing in fast company and have bright futures ahead for them."

The outstanding number on the new list is Neil Sater, a six foot right-handed first baseman. Just a youngster, he held down the initial last year for Tom Yawkey's Everett, Ore., state championship semi-pro outfit—the team that stood out at the national semi-pro tournament in Wichita.

Sater is a graduate of Vancouver, Wash. high school, where he played on the school team. Later he played with the McAllin club of the Tri-City league.

Sater was signed by Howard Munk, chief scout for Owner Bill Ulrich of the Spokane Hawks and the Cowboys.

Another prospective star signed was Bryce Coward, Spokane semi-pro diamond in the rough. He is an 18-year-old infielder who bats from the right side of the plate. The last year Coward played in the Eastern Washington league and showed lots of promise. He is on the small side, however, weighing 135 pounds and reaching five feet, eight inches into the ozone.

Two other contracts were signed by Bernie de Viveron, Spokane manager, and will try out with the Twin Falls club. They are a pair of California youngsters—first ones to get a chance with the Cowboys. Number 1 is Frank Costa, an outfielder who hit the Redwood league of California with a batting average of .420. A powerful righter, this youth has played in several league games against Coast League teams and always came through with several bingles.

The other Californian is Finley, a 20-year-old center fielder from the Central Valley loop. Union is expected to become one of the catchers on the regular Cowboy lineup. He has been playing with fast semi-pro teams the last year.

Rupert Edges Jerome, 30-29
RUPERT, Feb. 28 (Special)—Rupert edged the season's series with Jerome here last night by edging the Tigers 30-29 in the last minute of play.

The local club trailed up to the end of the game and with only seconds of play remaining the score stood at 20-28 in favor of the invaders. Then Art Johnson, guard, tossed in a long one from the center of the floor to give the home club as thrilling a victory as they have secured all season.

Franky John Norton's invading team led for three quarters of the game. The count was 8-2 at the quarter, 12-10 at the half and 23-17 as the final frame opened.

Rupert was led in scoring by Gibson, towering center, who had 11 points. Kille Stille led Jerome with 11.

Rupert frust-sharp players really drilled the Jerome reserves by a 24-8 count.

DICKY RINGS
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 28 (UP)—Acceptance of contract terms by Yankee catcher Bill Dickey, a regular for 10 seasons, left unsigned today only Joe Miskog, Red Bell, Frank Crosetti, and Joe Gordon.

FIGHT RESULTS
NEW YORK (United Press)—NEW YORK—Paul Di Nello, 126, New York, stopped Armando Nicita, 131's, Chicago, (3).

NEWARK, N. J.—Irish Billy Reuschold, 128, Jersey City, defeated Red Cochran, 128, Elizabeth, N. J. (10).

BUFFALO—Jimmy Gilligan, 127, Buffalo, outpointed Jerry Archibald, 124, Painesville, N. J. (10).

COLUMBUS, O.—Floyd Gibson, 104, Columbus, outpointed Charley Belanger, 105, Canada, (10).

Mac Does a Little Practicing - For Horse Race Picking

By HEINLY McLENNON
ABOARD A S. GLENNING PACIFIC OCEAN, Feb. 28 (UP)—Having been away from sports and sports reporting for nearly three weeks I decided today that it was high time that I tried my hand at it again.

Knowing that I would be covering the Santa Anita handcap only four days from now, I was curious to learn if my trip to Hawaii had in any way affected my brilliant gift for picking winners. So, armed with a working press ticket of my own design, I attended the sports contests on the verandah deck and within an hour proved to myself that I am just as much at sea, at sea, as I am at sea on land.

The first event in which I tried to pick a winner was a three-cranker sailing and whistling contest. The idea of this game is to pick a winner, then, after sailing without the use of the hands, and then while Yankee Doodle.

My selection, which I backed heavily, was a dining room neighbor of mine who I had seen work through a series of races without allowing his knife or fork to cool off. I felt superbly confident that one little sousa cracker was not enough to offset her much resistance, and right I was. The allowed her cracker a good half minute before any of her rivals did theirs. Then she let me down. She purred her lips and blew, but there was no sound. There she sat, puffing her lip up no Yankee Doodle was forthcoming.

I paid off and moved to the sack race for men where I figured I could get my money back. The contestants in this sport get into large canvas sacks which they hold around their waist, and while only means of locomotion is to jump and bound along the track in the final, five races were held. I was sure I had a "sleeper" in this race when I recognized a young Australian whom I knew owned a kangaroo farm.

At odds of 10 to 1 I looked like the surest thing since Man o' War. He was most impressive at the start. Breaking from near the tail he hopped like one of his own kangaroos and soon had a sizable lead. As he bounded along toward what seemed a certain victory he apparently stepped on his own foot. Dear's all because, with a cry of pain, he cranked in the dock. For a moment I thought he was going to have to be destroyed. A goodly number of the field piled on top of him, allowing a rank outpour from Minneapolis to come up flat on the outside and win.

My cousin in the other event fared no better than my first two picks. In the mixed doubles chop chop contest, in which girls using chop sticks feed their partners, I was not successful enough to pick a team where male members did not like chop sticks, and refused to open his mouth.

After the crash of the day, which did not produce a winner for me, I knew that I was in excellent shape and ready to pick the Santa Anita handcap. When I announced my choice in a few days you will have one horse that you can depend entirely on.

Dogs Love Peanuts, Beggar is Made And Not Born—That's North China!

By O. A. KELKER

Picture a country where dogs don't eat meat, but love peanuts, and where beggars are "made," not born. Such is north China, and, according to Mrs. Phil Davis of Twin Falls, western civilization as we know it has a long way to go before it makes any inroads there.

Five Years in Asia

Mrs. Davis is the former Hazel Coleman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Coleman, while her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Coleman. The couple returned here last night after spending five years in Asiatic waters, principally north China and Japan, for that period, has been stationed with the U. S. navy as a ship fitter on the U. S. S. Blackhawk. He has been in the navy 12 years and after a 30-day visit here, will return to San Francisco to be assigned to further duty. Under the navy setup he will return in eight years.

But getting back to north China and the peculiar practices observed there, the Davis couple has many interesting stories to tell. While in north China they usually stayed in Chefoo. From this city, until war broke out, it was possible to travel to remote inland sections.

Probably the two most unusual of their experiences were "meeting up" with dogs which never eat meat, but which will fight for all they are worth if a handful of peanuts is thrown into their midst, and the discovery that beggars are made, not born.

One of the most peculiar practices, the Davis couple found out, was the "manufacture" of beggars. For instance, although it is frowned upon, some parents put their sons into vases when they are just babies, leaving them there continuously until they reach the age of 18 or 20 years, then breaking away the vase from around them. As a result of being confined in the vase for that period of time, that is, all of their body but the head, they are horribly deformed—the legs and arms having followed the contours of the vase in their growth, thus encircling the body.

Beggars "Strike"

The beggars in that section, Mr. Davis told this reporter, have a guild and once in a while they strike. On one such occasion no funeral could be held because the beggars would not work, and they are the professional mourners.

In Chefoo both Mr. and Mrs. Davis were members of the China forum, a group of Americans and Americans there to learn more about China.

Another interesting thing about north China, the Davis in Twin Falls point out, is the fact that the residents are against being photographed, believing the camera to be an "evil eye."

During the five years the couple spent in that section of the world, approximately four months of each year was spent in Manchuria and five months in north China. The other months were spent in traveling from one place to another.

Long Travels

During the five years, Mr. Davis has traveled more than 30,000 miles by steamship, 21,000 of this being alone because when his husband moved from one place to another aboard the Blackhawk she would take another boat, women not being allowed to travel on navy vessels.

Asked if she minded following her husband all over that section of the world, Mrs. Davis said: "I really enjoy it."

While in Twin Falls Mr. and Mrs. Davis are staying at 751 Second avenue east.

"People might not recognize us, though," said Mrs. Davis. "After five years where it's really hot, so hot, and must look like a couple of icicles here."

JEWS DENOUNCE BRITISH PROGRAM

LONDON, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—A British government proposal for a Palestinian state was denounced by Jews today as a violation of British obligations as a mandatory power and a repudiation of the famous Balfour declaration which approved the principle of a Jewish homeland in Palestine.

Foreseeing an Arab-dominated state under British control and the collapse of the Jewish dream of a Palestinian homeland, Jewish delegates to the current Palestine conference decided to reject any invitation to a government luncheon today as a sign of their anger.

Jews said it would be like attending a function at which a betrayer was host.

Separate Plan

The government, it was understood, intended to submit separately to Arab delegates and Jewish delegates a plan under which, for a time, there would be a local Palestine legislature, with Jews and Arabs sharing the government under British administration. This interim government, it was said, would be succeeded by a Palestine state linked by alliance with Great Britain.

Assurances from the British government that Jewish minorities in Palestine would be safeguarded was accepted by Jews only as a tacit notice that the state would be dominated by the Arabs.

American Jews Bitter

To emphasize the plight of the Jews, a United Press dispatch from Bucharest reported that 1,000 Jewish emigrants, forced by Romanian police to disembark from a Greek steamer at Constanta because their tickets were not in order, were being sent on a ship flying the Polish flag. The steamship then sailed without permission of the port captain. It was said, and police authorities of all ports where it might try to land passengers.

American Jews attending the conference here were a bitter group at the British plan that it was understood they talked of leaving London immediately, their conference, but they were expected at least to await the outcome of negotiations today among Jewish delegates.

Hokum Specialist Finally Finds His Strawstack Needle

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—Jim Moran sent to the Smithsonian institution today a needle he had spent a week looking for and finally found in a haystack.

His search convinced him, he said, it wasn't so hard to find a needle in a haystack as some believe.

Moran, who is attempting to revive the "fine old art" of high-grade hokum, arranged for the needle's preservation "for posterity," and then headed for Florida to a corner in a skating rink with a block of real glacier ice. Part of the cost of that trip will be defrayed with the $50 he received from the sale of straw from his haystack.

The super-specialist in the hokum business dropped the needle into a haystack on a parking lot here a week ago. He found the needle last night "near the bottom and slightly to the left of center" of the haystack while using the method of needle-hunting.

Send Fair Band

MANILA, P. I., (U.P.)—The Philippine army band, 110 men and band conductor represented the Philippine Commonwealth at the grand opening of the Golden Gate exposition in San Francisco. The band, Lieut. Col. Walter H. Lovin, predicted "our band will be second in none."

The average tax on gasoline is 5.25 cents, or 40 per cent of the retail price.

HINES PREPARES TO APPEAL CASE

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (U.P.)—James J. Hines, Tammany's toughest and most powerful district leader, prepared his appeal from a jury verdict branding him a political fixer of a gang of criminals today while his prosecutor was being boomed as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in 1940.

New York Republicans, who also elected District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, the 37-year-old racket-buster, governor last year, were jubilant over his success in convicting Hines, who has been in New York for years, was "too well wired to ever be convicted."

His attorneys said privately that New York's 37 votes in the 1940 nominating convention almost certainly would be pledged to Dewey.

Hines conferred with his attorney, Lloyd Paul Stryker, and it was indicated that Hines was determined to fight the conviction through every court. His attitude had changed from that of Saturday night when the jury came in after only seven hours with a verdict finding him guilty on all 13 counts of conspiring with a "bunch of crooks" and the Dutch Schultz lottery mob. He had appeared a beaten old man then, holding back his tears by supreme effort. Today, despite his 63 years, he was pugnacious, in keeping with his character as the two-faced, ex-blacksmith political boss of a very poor and tough district.

Free on $20,000 bail pending his sentencing on March 13—he could get as much as 27 years—Hines seemed confident of a new trial. Stryker explained his client was "a broke," said he didn't know where the money for the appeal would come from, but predicted Hines would not spend even one day in jail.
