Farmers Hear Soil Conservation Head Warn on Land Use

Issuing a blunt warning that farmers of the west had better start thinking about how long their land will last and what is going to happen to it, W. A. Rockie, Spokane, assistant regional USDA conservator, soil conservation service, this noon addressed directors and officers of the national farm land associations and federal land bank officials here in two-day convention.

Rockie spoke during a luncheon at the Methodist church marking close of the sessions which got underway yesterday morning with business meetings being held at the American Legion hall. Between 175 and 200 persons attended the conferences.

Leading discussions today were, aside from Rockie, R. B. Toetel, reviewing appraiser of the farm credit administration of Spokane, and Frank Reinhold, Washington, D. C., chief of the farm service section of the farm credit administration. Their talks were of technical nature.

Speakers yesterday included E. M. Ehrhardt, president of the federal land bank; Ward S. Newcomb, vice-president, and J. C. McCaustland, secretary. These officials lead the various discussions.

Opening his discussion, Rockie told of past policies of land development and the mistakes attendant to that development. He pointed out that this was followed by the "don't care" attitude of what is done with the land.

"As a result," the speaker said, "everything has been done except that which should have been done." He pointed out that at first the government gave away lands in 160 acre homesteads, then increased to 320 acres and from there to 640 acres and "also the forest homesteads set which let valleys in these areas go for homesteading. The railroad also sold some of their road building grant lands for farming at a relatively low price."

Series of Tragedies
"Out of most of these gifts of lands have come a series of tragedies to those who took them, especially in the case of homesteads taken since 1909. They have been nearly a 100 per cent failure, excepting on irrigation projects which include only a minor per cent of the land generally."

"Everybody promoted for more and more and bigger and bigger developments. Out of it has come a completely unjust condition of our farm and range lands and I might add our forest lands."

"We have seen areas where wind erosion has taken entire counties. There are miniature dust bowls here to the west as there is the large dust bowl in the middle west. In this particular section the wind has done a more spectacular job than anywhere. However, soil erosion has happened unless it was where many people were located."

"Since in the Twin Falls area, most of the people live in the valley and away from the hills, this soil washing has not been quite so much important. It has been a major cause, however, of making foothill ranges of much less value than they used to be."

"There are not yet many communities in the northwest which have gone into the mountains because of land difficulties. Some dry farm areas are just a relic of better conditions several decades ago. The result is that relatively few people are living in the northwest and it is a young country and hasn't been settled."

TEN INJURED AS POLICE END RIOT

LOS ANGELES, March 8 (U.P.)—At least 10 persons were injured and several hundred suffered the effects of the last night when police reserves broke up a riot outside the hall where Miss Allen O'Brien, a woman nurse with General Francisco's nationalist army, was speaking.

Riot calls brought out 70 police officers when fighting broke out between 250 pickets sympathetic to loyalist Spain and Loyalist high school students who were acting as a mob.

Pickets picked up tear gas bombs and hurled them back to police. Two children were injured by the gas. Most of the injured were pickets and were carried off by their comrades.

More than 1,000 persons heard the lecture in the Wilshire Hotel theater under auspices of the Catholic theater guild.

WORSE
WASHINGTON, March 8 (U.P.)—Joseph B. Benetton, Metropolitan opera star, told congress today that singing is worse than anything.

Benetton testified before a subcommittee of the House of Representatives on the subject of the establishment of a federal division of fine arts.

BEET ALLOTMENT TASK UNDERWAY

Members of the sugar beet acreage allotment committee were in session today at Burley allotting acreage for the Burley and Rupert districts of the Amalgamated Sugar company. It was announced here this afternoon by Reed Lewis, company agricultural superintendent.

Lewis said that all acreage has been signed for the Burley-Rupert district and because of this over-subscription it was necessary that the allotment committee meet and study the situation. Members of the committee include John S. Feldman, Twin Falls; Sam Roseman, Gooding; Davis Green, Rupert; and Ezra Bingham, Burley.

At the present time, Lewis announced, a total of 14,850 acres has been contracted in the Twin Falls district, served by the factory here. This amount was up to and including March 7.

A few acres are still available to growers, the official said, and company field men will continue contracting the balance of this week.

If necessary, Lewis announced, members of the allotment committee will meet on March 10 to study the future. That such a meeting here will be necessary, however, is viewed as improbable.

MOTHER ADMITS SMOOTHERING SON

MAHANOY CITY, Pa., March 8 (U.P.)—A mother who confessed she suffocated her three-year-old son because "he was on my nerves" was said to have confessed planning a similar fate for her three other children.

Alma Edinger, 35, remained in her prison cell after refusing an offer to be allowed to attend the funeral of her baby, Danny, under police guard. Her husband, Chas. W. WPA worker, attended the service.

Corporal C. D. Doyle of the Pennsylvania minor police, who disclosed Mrs. Edinger's earlier confession, said she told officers she also planned to kill her other children.

Boyle said Mrs. Edinger confessed she set for death a child who was in her hand over Danny's mouth and nostrils because he was a "nuisance" and his crying disturbed her.

Driver Critically Hurt as Bottle Truck Overturns

Unable to regain control of the big truck he was driving after it slipped into the borrow pit, Albert Huff, 30, Twin Falls, was in critical condition this afternoon at the county hospital after the giant vehicle overturned five and one-half miles east of the city on Addison avenue.

Attending surgeons said that Huff sustained severe internal injuries, in addition to loss of blood from deep lacerations of the wrists and hands, bruises and shock. It was understood he may also have sustained other hurts.

Huff was driving a big three-ton truck owned by the Twin Falls Coca Cola Bottling company. The machine was out for 24 feet before overturning with the driver's side down. The driver was returning to Twin Falls from the Eden-Paul district at 1 p. m. today after concluding a distributing trip for the firm, according to the state patrol officer who investigated.

In Borrow Pit
The state officer said that the truck indicated Huff's truck left the road and traveled in the borrow pit for 24 feet before overturning. After pulling from the borrow pit to the pavement, the truck slid 108 feet, finally overturning on its side. Huff's legs and arms were broken and his head was lacerated. Huff was taken to the hospital at 1:30 p. m. today.

Damage to the truck was not great, but $150 loss was taken by the Twin Falls Coca Cola Bottling company.

COURAGE
NEW YORK, March 8 (U.P.)—Violet Powell, 16, had faint courage. She wasn't afraid of a mouse.

When one ran into her classroom at Woodmont high school, and every other girl in the room jumped onto a chair or a desk, screaming, Miss Powell arose nonchalantly, picked up the mouse into a corner and picked it up.

The mouse bit her hand and escaped.

DEFENDANT SAYS SUPERIORS KNEW OF SPY ACTIONS

LOS ANGELES, March 8 (U.P.)—Harris Selich, a former naval intelligence agent accused of selling secrets to Russia, declared in defense today that his superiors knew of his actions and had even encouraged him to arrange a "swap" of information between American and Russian agencies.

The trade, however, was to leave the Russians on the short end, he testified. The naval intelligence was to exchange only such items as could be gleaned from newspapers for what the Russians knew about Japanese in this country, he said.

He is an American-born Russian, charged jointly with Mikhail Gornin, Soviet tourist agent, and Gornin's blond wife, Natasha, with peacetime espionage. Selich admitted handing over information from the confidential naval files to Gornin but insisted both he and Gornin were careful that it was data about the Japanese so as not to imperil United States defense.

Discussed Offer
The handsome, heavy-set defendant testified he discussed the Russian's offer with his colleagues and superiors and kept them informed. He described telling about Gornin's offer of money to a fellow agent, H. L. Stanley, and said Stanley commented:

"Sure, I can use some extra money. See what he will pay."

Then he said to Selich: "Gondy, J. J. Rochefort, head of the intelligence bureau about Gornin's added information in exchange. He said Rochefort replied:

"Sure, we'll exchange information with him, but we'll give him only information we can get from newspapers and magazines. Then we will see what information he has about the Japanese consulate."

Rochefort and Stanley testified previously of warning Selich against having a swap with Gornin. The "swap" of secret data, Selich testified, worked out to the extent that he was able to obtain from Gornin several items of information that the naval intelligence had requested. These included data about the Russian's interest in the Douglas aircraft plant and about three Soviet aviators who flew here from Moscow.

STATUS OF JAPAN ISLANDS SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, March 8 (U.P.)—Chairman David I. Walsh, D. Mass., of the senate naval affairs committee today agreed to ask Secretary of State Cordell Hull whether Japan had added by treaty obligations not to fortify mandated islands in the western Pacific.

The statement by Hull was requested by Sen. Hiram Johnson, R., Calif., after naval affairs committee discussed the proposed $2,000,000 harbor improvements at Guam, which American island located close to the Japanese mandated islands.

"I suggest," Johnson told Walsh, "that the secretary of state consider a $50,000,000 measure to authorize new U. S. naval bases, and that the committee consider a $50,000,000 measure to authorize new U. S. naval bases, and that the committee consider a $50,000,000 measure to authorize new U. S. naval bases."

Walsh agreed to submit the question to Hull.

The 1922 treaty has been kept and whether it is in effect and if its terms have been respected.

Consideration to Be Given on CIO Unification Plan

WASHINGTON, March 8 (U.P.)—Labor's peace negotiators indicated today that the American Federation of Labor has modified its unconditional rejection of a proposal by the Congress of Industrial Organizations to unify all labor under one organization.

The indication came as negotiators for the two organizations arranged to transfer their peace conference to New York. They announced jointly they would resume conferences there Friday night to consider the CIO plan to unite all American labor in a new "American Congress of Labor."

Harry C. Bates, chairman of the AFL's negotiating committee, read the joint announcement, which said the New York meeting also would consider "any other suggestions that may be laid before it."

Shortly after the CIO negotiators presented the proposal at the initial White House conference yesterday, the federation representatives flatly rejected it and asserted it was unworthy of serious consideration.

John Statement
Today's meeting was held at the labor department. The joint statement regarding it said:

"The conference made a preliminary canvass of its problems and met briefly with the secretary of labor, William C. Dawson, to discuss the proposals made yesterday by the CIO or to any other suggestions that may be laid before it."

President John L. Lewis of the CIO, personally heading his organization's peace committee, prefaced the second conference with a request that the AFL negotiators "intelligent analysis" to the CIO's plan for an American labor congress.

Termed "Special"
The CIO's plan calls for a new organization which would include all workers in the United States, including those in the independent railroad unions. It was denounced by AFL committee members as "fanciful" and proposed for "leading purposes."

Despite the unfavorable outlook, the return to the AFL committee, Daniel J. Tobin, treasurer, union president and leader of the AFL "peace bloc."

Tobin's presence raises the number of AFL negotiators to four, the others being Vice-President Harry C. Bates, chairman; Matthew Woll, and Thomas A. Rickett. CIO President John L. Lewis would not comment on reports he planned to add another man to his committee.

The AFL reaction to the CIO's proposal was not expected to smooth the difficult negotiations between the rival groups. The AFL negotiators, after conferring with President William C. Dawson, left home by telephone, accused the CIO of placing Mr. Roosevelt in a "difficult position" by using the White House as a sounding board for its proposal.

A majority of the seven who were not citizens had taken out their first papers. It was pointed out, however, that they either are a naturalized citizen or native born.

The procedure is being followed over the entire United States and it is believed some 20,000 will be discharged from the rolls because they are not citizens of the country.

All WPA employees, both officials and workers are required to prove citizenship under the new law, which was passed by Congress.

EX-TRAIN ROBBER ARRESTED AGAIN
SAN FRANCISCO, March 8 (U.P.)—Roy Gardner, train robber and prison escape artist, recently released from Leavenworth penitentiary, was arrested today for allegedly sending obscene matter through the mails.

Deputy United States marshals said they took him in custody at the request of U. S. Attorney Carl G. Donough of Portland, Ore.

Donough notified local authorities Gardner had been indicted in Portland for mailing a "lewd and lascivious" letter in Medford, Ore., to Mrs. Ardith Roman, 504, Calif., newspaperwoman.

Gardner was freed from Leavenworth last June 17 after serving 17 years of a 25-year sentence. He was released because of good behavior. He escaped from prison officers four times before he was finally sent to Leavenworth.

HOUSE COMMITTEE LISTS $160,578,905 INTERIOR BILL

RECLAMATION IN WEST GETS HUGE APPROPRIATIONS

WASHINGTON, March 8 (AP).—The house appropriations committee today reported a $160,578,905 appropriation bill to finance activities of the interior department during the 1940 fiscal year.

Continuing its effort to economize, the committee reduced the bill by $25,188 below previous estimates. The report reflected that the seventh consecutive appropriation trimmed below budget figure by the committee, although none of the reductions have been large. "The measure still carries $148,191 more than was provided for interior department operations in the current fiscal year."

The committee allocated $10,000,000 of the requested $100,000,000 for construction of power lines at the Bonneville dam.

The bill provided the national bimonthly coal commission $2,000,000, a reduction of $600,000 from the budget estimate.

The report criticized some of U. S. housing authority salaries as "excessive," and the bill included a limitation preventing promotions to positions paying $4,000 or more a year.

FARMERS URGED TO PROTECT SOIL

Only hurt as a whole. A visit to some of the older sections of the country will bring the home "dry" home.

Poor for West
"But the lands of the west will be in the same condition as these older sections if we do not take steps of use to lengthen life of land use."

"For instance, let me point out that in northern Europe there have lived a conservative type of people and their land is still good, even after these hundreds of years. In southern Europe and in northern Africa most of the land is ruined."

"Lands in these latter two places were once as good as those now existing in our northwest states. During the last 10 years, in the Sahara desert of northern Africa, there have been disastrous ruins of cities the size of Salt Lake City and San Francisco, in areas which were once as good as those now existing in our northwest states. During the last 10 years, in the Sahara desert of northern Africa, there have been disastrous ruins of cities the size of Salt Lake City and San Francisco, in areas which were once as good as those now existing in our northwest states."

"Better Start Thinking"

"We had better start thinking about how long our land here will last and what is going to happen to it. By a change of methods and practices of farming we can still get good crops with much less damage to the soil. This can be done without hurting the revenue from the land and it will have to be done if we are to keep on farming it. We have seen what can happen to land where it is not properly cared for and we do not want it to happen here. It can be accomplished by the cooperative effort of all of us," Rockie concluded.

Boys Accused In Episode of Rock Tossing

The mystery as to just who threw the barrage of rocks through windows of at least six service stations and stores in the Curry, Piner and Clover areas was apparently solved today.

One 18-year-old youth and another youth not yet of legal age were placed in the county jail by sheriff's officers, who said that four other juveniles are also involved but are not in actual custody.

Hardly Held
The 18-year-old is Lloyd Elmer Hurdvick, youthful boxer of Piner. The other boy, Sheriff Art C. Parker said, are also from the Piner region. No charge had been filed by this afternoon against Hurdvick, and the matter in regard to the five juveniles will be handled by Probation Officer John A. Brown.

At least one of the minor youths, officers said, was a star football player for Piner high school last fall.

The rock-throwing episode brought damages of approximately $200 several weeks ago after a party of motorists drove past the places involved and threw missiles through the windows, according to officers. Places which suffered the damage—

—included the Curry area, Sheriff station at Piner, the station on the southwest corner of Piner, stores at Clover and Piner and the Duke Cheney station a mile and a half north of Piner.

Many of the incidents related had been told to her by the pioneers of the Black Creek and Hansen sections, including a number of relatives.

Illustrating her talk, she displayed numerous maps, including one which her husband, John E. Hayes, and her son, John, made a few years ago when they were studying early Idaho history as a hobby.

GIFT BOXES TO CHINESE 'KIDS' BRING THANKS

Acknowledgement of the Christmas gifts sent to China by local members of the Junior Red Cross has been received here.

The communication received from R. E. Gillette, director of the Junior Red Cross of Pacific branch, quoted the following letter from Dr. C. Y. Wu, director of the National Red Cross society of China, Hongkong:

"I have to acknowledge with thanks receipt of the consignment of 30 cases (222) cartons of toys via S. S. Bluebird. I beg to enclose your receipts together with our official receipt."

"The toys are very welcome to our refugee children and I assure you of their gratitude to the American Junior Red Cross and all the school children in America who contributed the wonderful articles I notice in the cartons. It makes me feel young again to use the marbles, toy cars, crayons, preserved fruit, etc."

"I have already distributed several hundred cartons to orphan and destitute children who have come into Hongkong from war-torn China. They have marked a quantity for our kiddies in the interior and will ship them as soon as the opportunity offers."

All grade schools of Twin Falls were donors of Christmas boxes, gifts from Junior Red Cross members.

MIAJA TAKES DRASTIC MEASURES TO CURB REBELLION

VETERAN LEADER RETAINS MADRID UNDER CONTROL

MADRID, March 8 (U.P.)—Gen. Jose Miaja's veteran republican troops smashed a Communist army rebellion in Madrid today and took drastic measures elsewhere against mutineers opposing the "peace-with-honor" program of the new republican defense council.

On the fourth day of rebellion and counter-rebellion within the hard-pressed republican regime, the government announced that Communist army units which rebelled in the Madrid sector had surrendered in the face of an ultimatum by Miaja, who became known as the "savior" of Madrid when he stopped the nationalist (Fascist) armies early in the war. Members of the defense council credited his quick action with having saved the city again this week from the Communists.

Communist-led units opposing the defense council's program for peace negotiations with nationalist Gen. Francisco Franco continued to defy the authority of the defense council in some sectors, however, including Ciudad Real, south of Toledo.

Life-and-Death Struggle

The uprising in Madrid was a life-and-death struggle for the defense council created by the overthrow of the Negrin republican cabinet headed by Miaja in an effort to eliminate Communist influence from the government preparatory to negotiating peace.

Republican airplanes bombed the counter-revolutionary unit. Artillery and machine guns also were used in the front line sectors on the outskirts of Madrid and in the center of the city, where several vain attempts to seize strategic points have been made in the last 48 hours.

Troops Made in City

Miaja's desperate position was illustrated by the fact that he suddenly ordered crack republican troops out of the front lines to oppose the Communist-led units in Madrid itself. At the same time, he gave the entrenched rebels until noon to surrender.

As the hour set for surrender drew near, Miaja's republican troops entered the city with bayonets fixed on their rifles and with hand grenades ready. Artillery and machine gun units were posted at the gates of Madrid and in other strategic points for use against the rebels.

Carabineros who had seen long service in the more than two and a half years of civil war took positions around all government buildings in Madrid. Military guards were redoubled inside the ministries. Street cars and subway transportation were curtailed.

Streets Deserted

The streets were deserted by civilians but picked troops with automatic arms patrolled the main avenues at 50-yard intervals. A bitterly cold wave swept the city but almost desolate city streets.

Suddenly the air alarm sirens began blaring at five minutes of noon—the hour set for surrender of the rebels—and two planes appeared over the city. At almost the same minute, the government advised the people by radio to remain calm and identified the two planes as republican craft loyal to the Miaja defense council.

A moment later it was announced that the Communists were surrendering in large numbers and that a white flag had been hoisted by their main unit entrenched in the outskirts of Madrid.

GOVERNOR SIGNS ADVERTISING ACT

BOISE, March 8 (U.P.)—The Idaho fruit and vegetable commission held a new lease on life today after Gov. C. H. Hoffman signed a bill creating it for another biennium.

The bill provided for a one-half cent per hundredweight tax on potatoes and onions compared to the former tax of one cent per hundredweight. Its purpose is to advertise and preserve the standard of Idaho potatoes throughout the nation.

The governor signed 18 other bills including:

- Appropriation of $200,000 for financing the Idaho school equalization fund; appropriating $10,000 for establishment of a five-man commission to supervise state insurance; provide compensation for occupational diseases; levy the ad valorem levy of $1,000,000 for public assistance; appropriate $15,000 for a university agricultural experimental station at Idaho Falls for industrial alcohol production.

Relieve the law enforcement department of the duty of collecting snowfall, motor fuels, mail and mine taxes and turn them over to the tax commissioner; providing for abandonment of railroad crossings where changes in highway were made; eliminating liability of non-paying guest in event of accident in a car.

Appropriating $10,000 for publication of constitutional amendment proposals; providing for fees for indexing annual statements of corporations; defining highway boundaries in Bonner county; appropriations for state departments and institutions.

ALL NEMATODES KILLED

ONTARIO, Pa., March 8 (U.P.)—The Washington Senators were 100 per cent under contract today. The only holdout, Buddy Myer, came to terms after a conference with Clark Griffith, Nat owner.

In Australia, fence posts exude the fragrance of raspberry jam. The odor comes from the tubers of the umbrella bush, which is used for the posts.

Needle Mystery Sticks Doctors

Medical men considered the possibility that the needle between the fingers of Mrs. Mary Torso, above, of Brooklyn, N. Y., may have passed from her body to the body of her baby Dolores before the child was born. Five months before Dolores came along Mrs. Torso sat on a needle from the bandaged spot on Dolores' back.

Americanism Concept Told by Prize Winner

To Miss Helet Barnard, Hansen, the privileges, hopes, ideals and loyalty of true Americans are all combined in the one word—Americanism.

Last night Miss Barnard read her prize winning paper on Americanism at a meeting held at the Elks lodge in Twin Falls to mark the end of the observance of Americanism week, sponsored by Elks lodges throughout the United States. Her essay was selected as the best of scores written in connection with a contest sponsored by the local Elks lodge. Carl Gibb, exalted ruler of the local lodge, presented Miss Barnard with $15, as first place winner.

Winner of second place was Miss Elma Heits, Twin Falls, who received $10, while third place went to Miss Ramona Bingham, Hansen, who received $5. Second and third place winners were present at the meeting here last night and were introduced by Mr. Gibb.

During the program several sections were played by members of the Twin Falls high school pep band under the direction of Harley B. Smith. W. W. Thomas sang a vocal solo accompanied by Mrs. O. P. Duval.

After the audience sang "America," Judge H. M. Holler, chairman of the local lodge, dismissed the meeting with prayer. Presiding during the meeting was F. C. Sheneberger, chairman of the week's observance.

Her Views

In her prize winning essay Miss Barnard said:

"In the lives of our great men we can see the constant struggle to attain these hopes and ideals. We cannot read of the lives, speeches, or works of men like Washington and Lincoln without a higher spirit of Americanism. The moral influence of these men on the citizens has been very great."

"We firmly believe our government to be the best that has ever been devised, and should be proud to bear the name of Americans. We should strive to reach a higher spirit of Americanism so that the government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Marlene Dietrich, German screen actress, passed an examination on the U. S. constitution in 10 minutes, and became eligible for American citizenship within 90 days.

William H. Jeffers, president of the Union Pacific, was here to appear in a short film which will be used to exploit the motion picture, "Union Pacific."

High-salaried motion picture writers had apparently won a year-long fight to be classed as "laborers." The 10 major studios, who insisted the scenarioists are "artists" and thus outside the Wagner act, finally capitulated and agreed to recognize the Screen Writers' Guild as sole bargaining agent.

Jackie Coogan's lawsuit against his parents over his movie earnings which has been in courts for almost a year, has been set over for trial another week to permit further out-of-court negotiations.

Ruth Donnelly, film comedienne, who composes tunes in her spare time, said a publisher had accepted her new "Let's Love, Let's Live and Let Live."

Gable, Lombard Await Break In Work for Chance to Marry

By FREDERICK C. OTTMAN

HOLLYWOOD, March 8 (U.P.)—Clark Gable knelt at the feet of a red-haired Englishwoman today, fingered a pair of sweeping sideburns, said "Scarlett, honey, my love," and wondered how long it would be before he could marry his bride Lombard.

It may be tomorrow. It may be next week, or next month. It all depends on the on-again-off-again progress of the movie "Gone with the Wind." He was at the studio today seeing the romantic part of Rhett Butler, romantically but obviously a little impatiently. Not far away, in her home, Miss Lombard was downright impatient and she said so.

"When Clark gets a few days off and I am not busy perhaps we will sneak away and have the ceremony performed," she said yesterday. "Not that his second wife, Mrs. Maria Gable, had been granted a final divorce decree in Las Vegas, Nev. But Gable No. 1 Hollywood leading man, only granted "No commitment" and turned again to hold the hand of Miss Vivien Leigh, English actress who has the part of Scarlett O'Hara, in the movie "epic of the Civil War."

Today Gable's ranch house in the San Fernando valley was being doled up to grant the every whim of even the most discriminating

RELIEF PERJURY GUILT ADMITTED

Sentence on charges of perjury in connection with $150 obtained in relief money by a 22-year-old youth who had $1,950 at the time, will be imposed at 10 a. m. Friday by District Judge J. W. Porter.

Vincent Brown, the accused youth, pleaded guilty Tuesday afternoon at arraignment in district court. He had previously pleaded guilty to the perjury accusation in probate court.

Young Brown, in the information filed against him in the upper tribunal and in the complaint filed in the probate court, signed a document Feb. 3 testifying he was sick or indigent and "would suffer" if not granted relief by the county commissioners. He signed the paper before Probate Judge C. A. Bailey. E. M. Quest, relief investigator for the commissioners, took action against Brown Feb. 13 after finding the youth had ample resources.

Brown is at liberty under cash bond of $250.

Prosecution of the case represents relief money by a 22-year-old youth who had $1,950 at the time, will be imposed at 10 a. m. Friday by District Judge J. W. Porter.

LEWIS REQUESTS THOROUGH STUDY

WASHINGTON, March 8 (U.P.)—President John L. Lewis of the Congress of Industrial Organizations today urged American Federation of Labor negotiators to give "intelligent analysis" to the CIO's plan to end labor's civil war by creating an American Congress of Labor embracing all unions.

The AFL rejected the plan yesterday.

It is our earnest hope that the distinguished representatives of the American Federation of Labor will give intelligent analysis to our proposals rather than to continue the attack on our motives," Lewis said.

ROOSEVELT BRANDS RUMOR OF RELIEF DEMAND 'COCKEYED'

PRESIDENT MAY NOT SEEK FULL APPROPRIATIONS

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, March 8 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt, who sharply reminded congress on Feb. 7 that he needed an additional $150,000,000 for unemployment relief, now says reports that he will insist on the appropriation are cockeyed.

Mr. Roosevelt surprised more than 300 reporters with that remark at yesterday's press conference, his congressional leaders confided this week that the President had intimated during their regular conference with him that he would reiterate his relief request in a message to congress scheduled to go forward next Monday.

Congressional members of the conservative economy group were planning to make the $150,000,000 appropriation a test vote of their effort to cut government costs. Mr. Roosevelt's position now, however, is that he will not insist until receiving further reports from WPA how much additional money will be needed.

May Ask Full Sum
His relief message might request any sum of money from $150,000,000 down he said. The consensus was that he will ask for additional funds, and probably the entire sum.

But business observers here are awaiting some word of further appeasement or rapprochement from the White House. Their first reaction to his denial that another big relief appropriation had been decided upon was that the President might contemplate at least that much cooperation with the economy group in congress.

If that is the case, the economy movement will have demonstrated unlooked for effectiveness. One month ago there was no doubt that Mr. Roosevelt's mind about the necessity for the full $150,000,000 relief appropriation he had asked congress to provide against unemployment needs during February, March, April, May and June. He objected to the $150,000,000 out imposed by congress and in a protesting message informed the legislators that:

"I would have withheld my approval of this legislation... And I would have immediately asked for a larger sum if it had been for the provision that there shall not be a reduction of more than five per cent of the number of employees on each of progress projects prior to April 1, 1939... I recommend to the congress immediate consideration of legislation providing an additional sum of $150,000,000 for the works progress administration to be available in the balance of the current fiscal year."

Mr. Roosevelt's remarks to newspapermen yesterday generally were regarded as conciliatory to business.

BOTTLES

Installation of a new milk bottle washer, only one of its kind in this section of Idaho, was announced this afternoon by officials of Young's dairy, with plant located on the Truck lane in Twin Falls.

The new washer, manufactured by the Bell company, and known as the "soaker type," is capable of completely sterilizing 1,200 bottles every hour. This process includes four different washings before the bottle is finally steam sterilized. Twenty bottles can be "fed" to the machine each minute and, when in full operation, there are 222 bottles in the machine at all times.

The machine was just installed and is now in operation at the plant.

LUCKY

It could have been serious—but it wasn't.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pruden, Twin Falls, sustained only bruises and minor lacerations Sunday morning as their auto overturned on the main Twin Falls canal three miles east of Hansen, according to Sheriff A. C. Parker.

The machine missed the bridge and landed on its side in the water at the edge of the canal. Mr. and Mrs. Pruden broke out a window and climbed from the machine, which had fully a foot of water inside.

Horatio H. Miller, Boise political writer, said he sent a telegram to his son telling him to go ahead after first calling police in a frantic search for the youth.

"I want to learn the new things in science besides just reading it out of the books," the boy wrote in a note to his parents. "It seems that the fair is practically the easiest way."

GOP TO OPPOSE REORGANIZATION

WASHINGTON, March 8 (U.P.)—House Republicans presented today a virtually solid front against the new government reorganization bill. A minority conference called by Republican leader Joseph W. Martin, Mass., apparently converted to the opposition ranks several Republican congressmen who had been inclined to support the compromise measure. Martin announced afterward that all but a few of his party members would oppose the bill in its present form.

"Our chief objection to the bill is its negative character," he said, referring to a provision which would permit presidential reorganization orders to take effect unless both houses disapproved them within 30 days. "This means that we would be abdication our power to the President because it would be almost impossible to get a concurrent resolution through within 30 days to block an objectionable order."

POPE MAY STAY OWN SECRETARY

VATICAN CITY, March 8 (AP)—Pope Pius XII may act as his own secretary of state during the first part of his reign because of the qualified world situation, a source close to the Vatican said today.

The statement was made after the Pope had received the four cardinal of greater Germany yesterday when the Vatican and the Nazi government.

Vatican circles would say nothing officially about the audacious. The source reports that in consulting the German cardinals, the new pope already was beginning to lay the basis for his own policy as regards church relations with the Nazis.

There had been some surprise because the new pope did not at once appoint a secretary of state. But the informant who suggested he might act as his own secretary for some time, said he believed the Pope thought the present world situation was too delicate to entrust all foreign problems to one not fully acquainted with the situation.

It was suggested also that there might be a surprise when a secretary of state was eventually named, and that either a foreigner or someone not in the college of cardinals might get the post.

STIMSON BACKS FOREIGN POLICY

NEW YORK, March 8 (AP)—Henry L. Stimson, secretary of state in former President Herbert Hoover's cabinet, endorsed President Roosevelt's foreign policy of cooperation with democratic nations against the dictatorships today in a letter to the New York Times.

He recommended naval co-operation with France and Great Britain if they are attacked by Germany, Italy and Japan.

However, he denounced some of Mr. Roosevelt's domestic policies, and in urging the strengthening of the national foreign policy he said national strength is not promoted by an extravagance which comes near to impairing our national credit. . . . by discouraging the business welfare of the country . . . by novel and hazardous experiments with the nation's finance . . . by appeals to class spirit.

PLAY OFFS OPENSTONIGHT CLASS A TOURNEY

Twin Falls Meets Rupert in 1st Of Four Contests

With most of the participants already in the city, play gets under way here tonight at 7 p. m. in the annual Class A basketball tournament—the winner of which will go to the state meet at Pocatello later this month.

Lineup for tonight is as follows:

- 7 p. m.—Twin Falls vs. Rupert.
- 8 p. m.—Jerome vs. Gooding.
- 9 p. m.—Buhl vs. Oakley.
- 10 p. m.—Piler vs. Burley.

Squads from all cities were generally reported to be in fine condition and for the first time in many years all eight clubs entered the meet with a fair chance of emerging as the champion.

Head Edge
However, Buhl, Twin Falls, Burley and Rupert are expected to lead the edge over the other four clubs and if any of the above named clubs capture the trophy it will be considerably less of a surprise.

But Jerome, Gooding, Oakley and Piler have looked good in losing to the other four clubs in the preliminary games and the breaks may be with them in the tournament play starts.

Four Bands
Only four bands will be allowed to play at any one session this year, to provide more seats for spectators. A capacity crowd is expected at every session. No day games will be played on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, but two will be staged Saturday and Sunday.

Tonight the bands participating will be from Twin Falls, Burley, Buhl and Piler. Thursday Oakley, Jerome, Gooding and Piler will furnish the music. Six teams will be in the running on Friday night, but schools will draw to see which team will have its band there. All high school athletes participating in the meet will undergo physical examination before the tournament starts, according to Ed Rogel, meet manager.

Running from scratch, he broke the tape going as fast as 4:15.5, a blistering performance on the flat armory boards. Most remarkable about his time was the fact that he ran the mile in 4:15.5, a blistering performance on the flat armory boards.

Title Play in 4-Ball Tourney

OSCAR, OASLES, Fla., March 8 (U.P.)—Sam Bland and Ralph Guidici met in the final round of the 4-ball tourney today in the 26-hole title round of the $5,000 international four-ball golf championship.

By HENRY McLEMORE
LOS ANGELES, March 8 (U.P.)—Putting the sports shot here and there:

"They don't make money much faster than the mint," says jockey Johnny Adams and Ralph Nevada on Santa Anita handicap horse. "In just a breath more than a minute they can make a thousand of it." Five thousand of it was for riding the winning ailer, and the other five was for the jockey who rode the ailer. The ailer was the jockey who rode the ailer.

There are a good many shopping days between now and the next time the Santa Anita jockeys will be making a killing in the betting ring. The jockeys will be making a killing in the betting ring.

Kimberly Boxers Edge Pocatello, 3 to 2

KIMBERLY, March 8 (Special)—With over 1,000 spectators packing the high school gymnasium, the largest crowd ever to witness a boxing card here, Coach Louis Denison's Kimberly Bulldogs boxers last night edged the invading team from Pocatello by a 3-2 count in a high school card here last night.

While the crowd got more than its money's worth in the five regular bouts and five exhibition matches, star performers from both clubs were unable to participate in the matches. Dick Dickerson, Idaho junior Golden Gloves champion, had to be used in an exhibition bout with another Pocatello boxer, because of injuries to Ferris Freeston, husky Kimberly ace.

Three other Kimberly stars were out of action due to illness or poor condition, while Coach Jimmy O'Brien arrived on the scene with four of his first-string team absent due to illness.

Results of the five regular bouts: Eugene Morgan, 123, Kimberly, won with a second round technical knockout over Morris Davis, 123, Pocatello, in a slugfest.

Earl Bell, 135, Pocatello, scored a technical knockout in the third round over John Norris, 135, Kimberly, in a slugfest.

Bob Scott, 120, Kimberly, took a close decision over Ray McBeth, 120, Pocatello, winning on aggressiveness.

Clare Rudine, 105, Pocatello, defeated Albert Henry, 105, Kimberly, in a slugfest.

Eddie Quenell, 122, Kimberly, won an easy decision over Carl Brown, 122, Pocatello.

Five no decision exhibition matches that filled in the card follow:

Wilbur Butler, 120, Kimberly, vs. Kenneth Hughes, 96, Kimberly.

Sun Valley Prepares For Open Ski Meet

SUN VALLEY, March 8 (Special)—The third annual Sun Valley International Open ski tournament and competition for the Harriman cup will be held at Sun Valley, March 24, 25 and 26. This year, run concurrently with it, will be the first United States national four-way championship, a title which will be awarded to the amateur placing highest in combined cross-country, downhill, slalom and jump.

In the international, ski teachers and coaches are allowed to compete on the same basis as amateurs.

The Harriman cup is awarded for the highest combined score in downhill and slalom. Three wins gives permanent possession of this cup. Dick Durand of Dartmouth college won the cup twice and will be seeking his third win.

The cross-country race will probably be run in upper Wood River valley where there is side and varied terrain, the downhill race on the new Bald mountain course, and the slalom race on Bald mountain, designated by Walter Prager, Swiss ski coach at Dartmouth, as "the most perfect slalom course I have ever seen."

This year the women's event is expected to be the most brilliant ever staged outside of Europe. Alvin enclosed are Marian Mackay, Betty Woolsey, Hannah Locke, Nancy Reynolds, Harriet Jackson, Ann Cook, Yvonne Blossom and Margaret Jennings, from the United States; and four Swiss women champions—Nini van Arx-Zogg, Erna Sturt, Gräzi Schaad and Barbara Baur.

Hostak Wants Krieger Match
SEATTLE, Wash., March 8 (U.P.)—Al Hostak today demanded a rematch with the Chicago fighter, who took a 10-round unanimous decision last November, and Johnny Erbe, a battered Chicago fighter was convinced that Hostak was a better chance of making more points.

"It's all plain, common sense that any fighter who knows how to figure could see through it," he added. "Look at your statistics. The average number of hits that are made in a boxing game is 12. Hostak has made 12 hits in 12 rounds. It stands to reason that a team that takes more shots than its opponents has a better chance of making more points."

HOPKINS EXPECTS BUSINESS GAINS

WASHINGTON, March 8 (UP)—Secretary of Commerce Harry L. Hopkins said today that he has begun to put his government-business cooperation program into action.

He predicted national income would be $48,000,000,000 to $49,000,000,000 higher this year than in 1938.

"I have been working to carry it out to effect all the points I made in my Feb. 20th speech," Hopkins said.

These points include tax adjustments, aid to railroads, settlement of the utilities dispute and labor peace.

He disclosed he has had a number of discussions with undersecretary of the treasury John W. Hayes concerning changes in the tax laws which might help business.

"I can say that Johnny Hayes and I have a substantial meeting of minds," the secretary added.

Hansen, it is known, favors substitution of a single flat corporate tax for the existing forms of corporate taxes, such as the undistributed profits tax, excess profits tax, and the capital gains levy.

SANTA FE RAIL PRESIDENT DIES

CHICAGO, March 8 (UP)—Samuel T. Bledsoe, president of the Atchafalaya and Santa Fe railroad, died today at 71 after two months' illness.

Bledsoe's first connection with the Santa Fe was made in 1893 when he was named attorney for the Santa Fe and Santa Fe & Rio Grande, Okla., which then was Indian Territory. Bledsoe had come to Arizona from Texas, where he was graduated from the university at Austin in 1890. He previously had taught school at Sherman, Tex.

Bledsoe's territory was admitted to the union as a state in 1908. Bledsoe and his partner, J. R. Cottingham, were named general attorneys for Oklahoma for the Santa Fe. He located in Oklahoma City, and two years later he was called to Chicago as a assistant general manager for the road's entire system. Bledsoe became general counsel for the road in 1915 and three years later was given a place on the board of directors. In 1921 he was made chairman of the board of directors, a place that had been vacated by J. W. Stewart and in 1923, when William H. Sturges resigned as president, Bledsoe was chosen to replace him.

CHINA MAY TRY STATE MEDICINE

CHUNGKING, China (AP)—A group of young Chinese and American doctors in western China is preparing a medical reform program for China's 400,000,000.

The heart of the new program is preventive medicine and education of the masses. Realizing that China finances never permit adequate hospitalization, surgical care and medical treatment for even a small proportion of the population, the group has attacked the problem from a new point of view.

Several experimental clinics have been established, and it was found that for three Chinese coppers (15 cents) a month a patient, the clinic could examine, advise, Chinese for minor ailments. This, of course, made no provision for hospitalization or surgical care.

Sub-clinics Planned. If the plan proves successful, sub-clinics will be established in various sections of each city. When diagnosis or treatment is impossible at these sub-clinics, the patients will be sent to one of the central clinics where better facilities are available. The government will be asked to subsidize all the clinics with money for drugs and dressings, as well as equipment.

"Our theory is that present-day physicians in China, as well as the rest of the world, operate on the wrong theory," an American doctor said. "When his livelihood is dependent on taking care of sick people, his whole attitude is toward the patient after he becomes ill and then restore the patient to health. That is the only way he can protect himself economically."

"Our theory is that by removing the physician from economic dependence on the illness of his patients, he will strive to keep them well by preventive medicine rather than to cure them after illness strikes."

"China can never hope to build enough hospitals and to provide enough doctors for any co-operative scheme of hospitalization and surgical care. The equipment for one hospital is too expensive even for many large cities."

Schools to be Used. "So by concentrating on preventive medicine, training young students to go into the field and teach the peasant health and sanitation measures, and by teaching all young people in the schools to simple rules of health, we hope to reduce China's enormous mortality and sick rate."

Such measures, he added, would be particularly effective in combating the great scourges of China—cholera, dysentery, smallpox, syphilis and malaria.

Most of the physicians were optimistic concerning the willingness of Chinese surgeons and physicians to subordinate their desires for personal profit to the good of the state. "Naturally, all of them would make more money from private practice," one said. "In the medical schools, however, they are being instilled with patriotic fervor and will not quickly die down. If this is continued even after the war is ended, it will not be hard to obtain physicians and nurses for such work, especially among the young graduates."

PUPILS ASSEMBLE ELEPHANT FOSSIL

ALVA, Okla. (AP)—A professor and students at Northwestern State Teachers college are assembling the most important fossil discovery in this part of Oklahoma in several years—that of a million-year-old elephant.

At the same time workers at site of the Great Salt Plains dam near Cherokee are on the watch for more fossils.

Dr. T. C. Carter, head of the natural science department of the college, supervised removal of bones of the prehistoric animal from the dam site and is in charge of the assembly work at the school.

Dr. Carter said it is the belief of geologists that a prehistoric sea once covered the Great Salt Plains of northwestern Oklahoma and that bluffs arising to the east of the plains formed the bones of the huge lake. The inland sea, it is believed, was fed by what is now the Salt Fork river. Finally the sea bank of the lake gave way, allowing the waters to pass on to the east, forming the remainder of the Salt Fork river and draining the salt sea.

Workers excavating at the site of the dam, which will form a huge lake on the Salt Plains, found parts of two elephant tusks, nearly six feet long, and shoulder and skull bones.

The bones were brought in Dr. Carter for identification. He went to the diggings with two students, Donald King and Bill Oxy, to aid in the removal.

The tusk bones measure from 10 to 12 inches in diameter at the base ends, indicating the probable original length of the tusk to be from 10 to 12 feet.

The skeleton was found between six and eight feet under the surface, but, judging from the original level of the earth before the tusk bluffs near the dam site were graded down, Dr. Carter said.

Neutrality Acts Worry Congressional Leaders

WASHINGTON, March 3 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt's criticism of the neutrality law thrust before congress today the question of effectiveness of measures designed to preserve neutrality in an increasingly turbulent world.

Mr. Roosevelt's critical appraisal of application of the neutrality act at a press conference and similar criticism on the senate floor by Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley, D., Ky., suggested that the administration is subjecting the controversial law to new and unfriendly analysis.

The question of neutrality is likely to be reviewed in the senate soon in connection with a resolution to write a mandatory war-referendum amendment into the constitution.

The amendment, sponsored by 12 senators of varied political leanings, would permit a declaration of war only after a national referendum.

Congressional Action Looks

Mr. Roosevelt, in criticizing both the war referendum resolution and the neutrality act, said he planned to ask no major legislation from the present session of congress other than that already requested. In both house and senate, however, several bills are pending for modification of the neutrality statute, and a general debate on the issue in connection with the war referendum might open the way for congressional action.

U.S. Government Strays Far, Says Gooding Lawyer

Originally intended to be a republic or a constitutional form of government, the government of the United States has "strayed far afield" and "if it doesn't get back it will go the way of all democracies," W. C. Bissell, prominent attorney of Gooding and an authority on constitutional law, said here in an interview with the Evening Times last night.

Views of Mr. Bissell were sought in connection with the observation of American week, which ended last night and which was sponsored over the nation by the Elks lodge.

Set Up Republic

"The American people, led by Washington and Franklin, had no intention of ever establishing a democracy," Bissell said. "Rather they intended, and did establish, a republic, thereby to avoid the pitfalls into which democracies have fallen in the past and into which the United States seems to be falling at this time."

"Making anything safe for democracy is not Americanism as I see it. Americanism is to establish a government which would be safe for its life from autocracy and democracy."

Constitutional Form

"Americanism is the adherence to a rigid and restricted constitutional government. Our forefathers wanted it that way and it is what they did establish and maintained for some 70 years."

"The world had been afflicted for more than 10,000 years with democracy. Our fathers intended to be a constitutional form of government but we have strayed far afield. And I can say that if we don't get back we will go the way of all so-called democracies before us," Bissell said.
