tomorrow's news

America's tomorrow depends on each of us — and millions like us. Will we walk with worry and be halted by headlines . . . or will we walk with faith and by our confidence write better news for tomorrow? Why shouldn't we in America take life in our youthful stride? Aren't we endowed with a wealth of resources—human as well as material? Aren't our human resources—vision, courage and enterprise—the real raw materials of this nation's greatness?

America invites us all to grasp the opportunities that surround us. And America yields to those who will not stand still—to those whose vision today becomes the news of tomorrow.

THE SPIANS SLATE MYSTERY DRAMA

KIMBERLY, March 15 (Special)—Rehearsals for this year's Little Theater production, "Three Taps at Twelve," started in earnest this week in preparation for the group's third annual presentation March 24. A mystery drama by Allen Saunders, the play has great prospects of being the biggest hit yet attempted by the local theater group.

Starred in the cast are Harvey Wood as Jameson Edwards, a sadistic, crafty, worldly-wise old man; Osbourne Mullins as Dick Edwards, nephew of Mr. Jameson and "would be" Sherlock Holmes; Dean Shipley as Dr. J. Frank Hull, big and blustering; Leroy Wilcox, also the director of the play, as Harrison Gage, plainly dominated by his wife.

Mrs. James Alastra as Martha Gage, handsome in a mannish way and with a mind of her own; Mabel Snow as Mrs. Jane Baker, a widow of the husband shopping stage; Bo Palmer as Edwin Dahlberg, with suggestion of the narcotic addict; Mrs. Kenneth Ridgeway as Cassandra, the beguine, and Ray Carter as Catfish Carruthers, burly and not too intelligent.

BELLEVUE

Mrs. Lillian Werry returned last week for Helper, Utah, where she was called by the serious illness of her son, Morris McBurney. Mr. McBurney, who has pneumonia, is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Lillian Werry returned last week from Eden, where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Saunders. Charles Cochran left Sunday for Salt Lake City on a brief business trip.

John Wurst suffered a paralytic stroke at his home. He was removed to the Halley hospital for treatment. Roy Griffin, teacher in Boise, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Griffin.

Mrs. Harriet Harr of Grand Junction, Colo., arrived Friday to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wheeler.

Members of the high school freshman class and their advisor, Harry O. Warr, enjoyed a party at the Coats residence Saturday. Games were played and they made candy.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Nelson entertained the Oscar Schaeffberger family at dinner to celebrate Mr. Schaeffberger's birthday.

Word was received last week by Mrs. Everett O. Donnell of the death of her cousin, Mrs. Perence Brice, the former Miss LaRue Calhoun, daughter of Albert Calhoun, former residents of Bellevue, Mrs. Brice died of pneumonia in Portland. One she is survived by her husband and five small children.

KIMBERLY

A new Camp Fire group has been formed in Kimberly. The following girls are members: Alena Norris, Winnie Tyler, Maxine Perkins, Bernice Rowe, Roberta Day, Jean Feldhusen, Louise Rathbun, Francis Doughty and Maxine Weaver. They have chosen the name "Flowers" for the group. Mrs. Kenneth Ridgeway is guardian of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Newman left last week for Bell, Calif., where they were called by the failing health of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bauning entertained the Fortnight Bridge club last week. Prizes were won by Mrs. O. M. Tucker and Willard Wood.

Mrs. Dee Elton returned this week from Idaho Falls, where she spent several days visiting relatives.

Bill Madden, Idaho Power company manager, attended an electrical appliances spring showing last week in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Ralph Pickett and children, Kenneth Falls, Or., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rice-maker.

Miss Jeannette Heidman, Alhambra, Calif., arrived Friday for a visit with the J. M. Macon family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hindwicks returned this week from Honolulu where they have spent the last three months visiting their daughter, Mrs. Reed Dettion and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Haley and family moved this week into the home formerly occupied by Glenn Magel.

Item for Adolf Hitler

In the midst of his latest maneuvering, which has now erased Czechoslovakia, Adolf Hitler must do well to take a day off, go to his Berchtesgaden retreat, and ponder what easy-tentured England seems slowly but surely pointing at.

The speech of Hore-Belisha, the British war minister, before the house of commons in which he outlined the British arms advance, is one of the frankest ever delivered on that subject.

Hore-Belisha quite frankly and flatly said that the British army is being trained and equipped for service on the European continent, and that the most careful plans for its transport and maintenance are already made.

This change in policy brings Britain back to pre-Haldane days, he said, and means that any adequate defense of Britain must begin far beyond the cliffs of Dover.

Hore-Belisha revealed that, even excluding India and Burma, Britain has a half million men under arms, almost 100,000 more than a year ago. In a volunteer army, built without conscription, that is a sizable increase.

And while he did not speak of obligations and alliances, the minister made it clear that they are all equipped and ready to defend France in any emergency that means that they would also be defending Britain.

France has already put the foot down quite firmly on surrendering to territorial demands from Mussolini. Even the countries of southeastern Europe seem to have stiffened their attitude toward German expansion.

The strongest cards a diplomat can hold in a 1939-1940 game of international showdown poker seem to be clubs. It is gradually becoming apparent that the British are gradually shaping a club that is not stuffed, and which carries a good stout spike in the end.

Perhaps the next British statesman to sit in on an international poker session will have a better hand than Chamberlain held in September, 1938. He must not yet hold all the trumps and aces, but one by one, some of the cards have begun to fall his way.

Perhaps Europe's best hope for peace would lie in a situation where all players were so sure the other fellow held strong cards that nobody would want to call them. Then, perhaps, they would give up poker and turn to ping-pong.

A Changing Balance?

It is not yet official, but one London paper has indicated that British airplane production is nearing the old war-time peak, and that within three months time Britain may be turning out more planes than any other country, Germany included.

Big factories have been given "carte blanche" orders—that is, orders to just go ahead and build as many planes as they can, as fast as they can. Several large factories are nearing completion, and at least two large factories recently completed large orders ahead of schedule. Several are producing planes at a rate which the Air Ministry had thought impossible.

If these things are true (they are not certain as yet) then a new face has been put on European politics. In September of last year it was widely felt that mass-production and organization of air fleets had changed the balance of power in Europe. It was the backwardness of the British and French in this field which left them with weak hands in the game Germany elected to play.

But competitive armament is a game that any country can play, given basic resources. Perhaps the next showdown may find stronger cards in British and French hands. In that case there can be no just complaint from those who have chosen the game.

Peek-a-Boo!

The greatest respect to civilization today is the things we are doing to the children.

If the world is a madhouse, full of insecurity, and want, and the fear of war, grown-up people have no one to blame but themselves. It is their world. If they did not personally make it the way it is, they at least are the only ones who can change it.

But children are innocent. It is not their fault that they die under bombs in China, that they starve in Spain, or that they are clapped into uniform in a dozen countries while they are yet babies.

Britain, which had none last September, is now providing gas-masks for children. Officials tell people that every effort must be made to accustom babies to the helmets.

They suggest that mothers play peek-a-boo with their babies through the mica windows.

Ten thousand years of human progress—so that mothers in 1939 may play peek-a-boo with their babies through the mica windows of a gas mask!

INCOME TAX BLUES

You've heard of men whose wives were great.
You've heard of men just dogged by fate.
You've heard of men with luck all bad.
And men whose lives are sadder and sad.
You've heard of men whose wives eloped.
And men who by the law are roped.
You've known of men who never came home.
And men whose hearts seem filled with bile.
You've heard of men whose stocks are flying.
And men who never get good crops.
You've heard of men whose fortunes fall.
And men who have no fun at all.
But none of these is half as dreary
As he who sighs a sigh most weary.
And none as sad as he who's sunk beyond redemption.
He forgot one July, big excitement.

UNCLE SAM DEALS TOO MUCH IN THEORIES!

Dear Pot Shots:
Leave it to Uncle Sam to argue about questions that have rocked the world from their beginning.

I wish dear old Uncle would drop in and explain it to my wife.

Dear Shots:
Speaking of that twinned at a local movie show giving the tin down on the machine that can talk like a human, I still can't see where the falling rates of all publicity is getting.

They say it is unique.

1. Because it takes like a human.

2. Because it doesn't hurt people, more or less, talk like humans.

SUSIE decided to take a chance. In Riverton she might pass unnoticed, or, if discovered, as a girl who had been deceived. If she looked the part, she could look like a girl who had been deceived. If she looked the part, she could look like a girl who had been deceived.

"It'll be fun to get back to the campus again," she said. "Sure everyone I used to know. My class is gone, of course, but I know plenty of fellows and girls now."

"Lots of fun," she agreed nervously.

"Were you ever at Riverton, Suzanne?" he asked.

"Oh, yes. I learned to sing at the university."

"He looked at her speculatively. "What if I never saw you there?"

"I worked my way through. Went to night and summer classes."

"What about your family? Couldn't they help you?"

"I don't think of them. They appeared to think nothing of her having been a follower. It was encouraging."

"My father is a farmer up state. He had plenty before the depression, but now he's struggling."

"I want you to meet my father. He's one of the best."

"I'd like to meet him. He's a real gentleman."

"Judged of a family, the setting for her downfall."

"The next morning, carrying a small, fitted case, she almost jumped into the car."

"With a joyous greeting he caught her hand and pulled her into the car."

"Never had Susan seen Jeff so exuberant. His eyes danced, his face was a big smile, he was slightly out of breath as he stepped from the car."

"Susan," he exploded. "I've got the sweetest news. Brinkley's regulations getting her home."

"His excitement communicated itself to Susan. "What is it?" he begged. "Tell me."

"He held out the telegram. "Look," he said.

"Susan's look. Dick had swung in through the revolving doors and she stood on tiptoe to wave at him."

"LIFE starts early tomorrow," he said. "I want to go to the office."

"Did she remember the Waffle Shop?" he asked. "I want to see you. Remember it?"

"Now was the time if ever."

"There's a girl who makes herself to be a 'What is it?' woman," Dick went on thoughtfully. "She's huge and terrible looking, but her waffles are something to write home about. Do you remember her?"

"Yes," she must tell him. If, and when, he learned the truth he would be shocked.

CHAPTER XXVII

"Hello, beautiful!" he shouted rushing up to her. "Hello, Jeff, what's the good word?"

"Telling Susan's bag, ignoring Jeff's salutation, Dick rushed her toward the door. Jeff, the boy draining from his face, pushed back his hat and watched them go."

"Susan," he said. "I was dreadfully rude to Jeff."

"That's all right," he returned. "Well, be nice to me and that'll make up for it."

"I wanted to tell you something," he said. "I shouldn't have wanted him like that. Wonder if I could call him from a filling station or somewhere."

"Not on my mind," Dick objected. "When I step out with a girl she doesn't get her time calling other guys."

"Susan laughed. Dick's difference in mood, on tiptoe, on eagerness, possessively attentive. Susan couldn't know that he had a stand at breakfast, that morning, that he had a family to attend to their own affairs and he would look after his father's."

"But she's nobody, Dick," his mother had warned.

"More power to her," Dick had returned. "Lots of the stars in Hollywood would eat her up. Dick had expanded, thinking of his own family to attend to their own affairs and he would look after his father's."

"You're not serious about this girl," his mother gasped.

"Dick pushed back his chair. "You're kidding. Tomorrow night I shall be with her. I'm Alfred and I want you to be decent to her. You, too, Hester," he added, with a sympathetic nod at his sister.

"Try going to see her. I'll send her to California," was all Hester said.

"That was that and Dick waited only for the romantic moment when Suzanne would melt into his arms. If Sue's offer from Mr. Brinkley had been a deciding factor, any man could carry away well along with them."

Junior High Ready for Operetta Presentation

"Captain of the Guard," an operetta in two acts, directed by Miss Sue Evans and Harley B. Smith, will be presented by Twin Falls Junior high school Friday, March 17, in the high school auditorium.

The setting is the court in front of the palace of the kingdom of Latoria, showing the castle and terraces, and the city business places. The stage setting is under the direction of Miss Helen Borden and Earl Peck. The time is the present.

The story concerns the love of the beautiful Princess Plavia of Latoria, played by Jennifer Werner, for a commoner, Andre, taken by Albert Holliman. Because of his affection for his daughter, the king, Norman Jonson, makes Andre captain of the guard.

King Goes Travelling

In the first act bankruptcy in the royal treasury, his daughter's unfortunate love and the impending visit of the Prince of Ostenstein, played by Jim Saviers, and his aide, the Baron von Dedowitz, Dick Britzer, all combine to force the king to travel. Through the contrivance of the queen, played by Nyle Tyler, and the duchess of Lowenthal, Jean Howard, Andre is cast into a dungeon.

Other characters are Junior McChlain as the chancellor, Bernice Hill and Norma Jean Dingel as the Countess Olga and the Countess Helga, ladies-in-waiting; Paul Jacobs as Alexis, a guard; Fred Norton as the inn keeper; Lillian Thompson as Sonya, his daughter; Bill Griffith as the hermit and Vernon Davidson as the trumpeter.

The Chorus

Colorful Costumes

Colorful costumes add much to the play's atmosphere. The costumes of the royalty and the costumes of the commoners, with dramatic military coats, and riding boots, in charge of costumes are Miss Ruth Johnson and Mrs. Pearl McKean, with the assistance of Miss Fleta of the home economics department.

Dances are in charge of Miss Margaret Egebert. Incidental music is handled by Grace Wegener, Theodore Becker and Steven Gilbert. Make-up will be applied by Miss Florence Rees and students in her classes.

Business manager is Lee Johnson, with student assistants Mary Stein, Donna Crosley, Ruby Kawai, Walter Hafer and Tommy McDonald. Stage crew is Larry Angus, Junior Stearns and Edna Smith.

The play was written by Roger Hoyt Williams, with lyrics by him, and music by Edwin S. Stock.

Junior high school orchestra, under the direction of J. T. Bainbridge, will play "March Militaire" by Schubert, a selection from the opera "Carmen" by Bizet, and a waltz, "Emerald Isle" by Serey between acts. Tickets are on sale at the junior high school office.

1939 FAIR BOARD RETAINS LEADERS

The same officers and the same secretary-manager will guide destinies of the Twin Falls county fair and rodeo this year, the fair board had decided today.

R. G. Wilson, Kimberly, was re-elected president of the board and Thomas Parks, Piler, was re-elected as board secretary and as manager of the 1939 fair.

Vance Naab, Hansen, was elected vice-president.

Call for Bids

Operation of the dining hall concession at the fair will be determined on competitive bids, the trustees decided. Chairman Wilson said this course was approved because numerous inquiries have been received from organizations and from individuals.

The bids will be received until Monday night, April 3, date of the next meeting. Bids are to be submitted to Mr. Parks.

R. K. Dillingham, Piler mayor, was received as a new member of the board, replacing Walter C. Musgrave, Piler, who resigned because of his election as county clerk-auditor-recorder.

San Eater's Alms

With the entertainment program exclusive of the rodeo, which is already signed, constituting a major problem still to be settled, Mr. Parks offered comparisons of the entertainment provided during the past four years. The April meeting probably will make final decision as to the type to be signed up.

Board members attending last night's session included: Wilson, Naylor, W. M. Gids of Buhl, Claude Decker and W. A. Van Engelen of Twin Falls, W. J. Sackett, Twin Falls, the other member, was unable to attend.

POULTRYMEN SEE MOTION PICTURE

Special motion pictures, and talks by three speakers, featured here last night as poultrymen from over this section met at Rauland for a meeting sponsored by the Vassar Produce company.

Presiding at the session, which was attended by more than 50 persons, was Ira Brooks, local company manager.

Speakers included Fern Moore, state poultry extension specialist who talked on housing and ventilation, Bert Dillingham, new county agent, who was introduced to the present and who also urged greater use of the agent's office; Charles Hicks, St. Louis, member of the poultry department of the Ralston-Purina company.

Aside from talking on breeding management and feeding, Mr. Hicks showed a film "Where Chick Life Begins."

Buhl Workers Alliance TELLS AIMS

Buhl local branch of the Workers Alliance of America wishes to express our intentions and aims to the public. So we may have a better understanding.

We wish to help our people, buhl, man, farmer, and neighbor. No man or woman lives their life without help. We need one another's confidence and advice, and aim to be fair to all. We want to help any person or persons in need, if that person is eligible for help. Let it be known that any person that is disqualified by the commission by reason of his own shall get no help from the Alliance.

We are not looking for trouble. We are looking for honest people to help us in this battle for human need. We are all in need more or less. For jobs, better living conditions, housing and medical aid for our children. A better neighbor, a better community in which to live. If we expect cooperation we must give cooperation. We must be fair and honest in our discussion. We can expect criticism from some for lack of understanding. We want a respectable meeting as you can let your wife, daughter or sister.

This is not the Alliance battle, it is the people's battle. Help me and I will help you. We have confidence in our country's commission. We have confidence in our business men. Can we have confidence in our neighbors? If you believe in fighting for the sake of humanity, then meet us. We believe we have done a great deal of good in our efforts so far. At heart of direction, we promise to work for the benefit of all that is eligible. Honesty and fairness in our dealing.

We don't want any drinks to attend. If you have self control, we

KOENIG SELECTED BY YOUNG C. O. P.

Directors of the Young Republic club of Twin Falls county today had approved appointment of Harold Koenig, Hansen, as vice-president of the organization. He succeeds Bill Osterander, who resigned because of inability to devote the necessary time.

Selection of Koenig was announced by Elmer W. Jones, president, at an executive meeting of the directors and precinct representatives last night in the probate courtroom.

Koenig's step upward left a directorship vacancy which was filled by appointment of Weldon Jennings, Twin Falls.

Discussion of precinct organizations to keep the Young C. O. P. lines intact during the coming year featured other phases of the program. Next executive parley will be held at Buhl April 25.

Carelessness, inattention and thoughtlessness were attributed by North Dakota's safety engineers as being responsible for 84 per cent of the state's auto accidents.

DEADLINE NEARS ON INCOME LEVY

WASHINGTON, March 15 (AP)—Taxpayers engaged in a 11th hour rush today to meet the midnight deadline for filing income tax returns which were expected to increase the treasury's cash reserves by $500,000,000.

By midnight an estimated 6,000,000 individuals will have filed returns for the calendar year 1938 to internal revenue collectors. Less than 4,000,000 will pay taxes. The 2,000,000 non-payers will be exempt from tax by various deductions and credits.

While taxpayers were engrossed in their personal worry, cheering news for individuals came from the White House. President Roosevelt declared yesterday that the administration does not contemplate any changes in personal income tax rates. This alleviated earlier fears that the income tax base might be broadened.

EXTENDED GAME CONSERVATION PROGRAM MAPPED

SEATTLE EXPERT NAMED AS HEAD FISH CULTURIST

BOISE, March 15 (UPI)—The Idaho fish and game commission laid down a policy of extended game conservation today after announcing the appointment of Adolph Roth of Seattle to the post of fish culturist, replacing Fish Commissioner Claude Tucker.

Burkett Brax of Caldwell also was named to the post of game conservator. R. A. Smith was selected from duties as chief clerk. Most department employees were asked to sign an undated resignation to be placed in effect as soon as the department desires their release.

Warm Water Fishing
The department has decided to develop warm water and lake fish along with game fish, said Commissioner Chairman George H. Booth and Burke.
"We expect to have our warm lakes and reservoirs furnishing good fishing just as well as our mountain lakes and streams in the not too distant future."
"The saving and bringing back of our mountain trout, mountain sheep and sage hen are of equal importance and these too are going to have study, care and attention."
The commission appeared for cooperation from active sportsmen's associations.

JUNIOR CHAMBER ARRANGES DRIVE

Following the policy inaugurated last year, the Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce will stage a one-day drive for membership here Wednesday, March 22.

Dr. F. H. Howard was elected vice-president, and Ross B. Haddock, for several terms secretary, was re-elected as the official scribe.
Affiliation with the Idaho State Chamber was deferred for the time being. H. F. Wilmore personally commended the chamber for its efforts in advancing and underwriting the recent Class B basketball tournament. The club was likewise thanked for the trophies presented. It developed that the awestruck, ordered for the Redskins disappeared in a fire sustained by the manufacturing company and a check covering the cost was promised in a letter.
Other activities are being formulated by the body for the season ahead and finances were reported in good condition.

Vets Get Chance At CCC Sign-up

BOISE, March 15 (Special)—There will be an enrollment of World War and Spanish-American war veterans in the civil conservation corps in Idaho beginning April 1 and ending April 20, according to a statement just released by Homer Hudson, manager of the Veterans' administration. The Idaho quota for enrollment of veterans during the announced period is 33. Veterans selected must be unemployed and in need of employment. Veterans who have been discharged from the civilian conservation corps within the past six months will not be eligible for re-enrollment during this period. Veterans may be enrolled without regard to public relief requirements. Preference will, however, be given to veterans receiving aid from public relief agencies.

WHOOPING COUGH
Whooping cough kills even more Idaho children than measles does. In 1937 these two plagues of childhood killed exactly twice as many youngsters in this state as diphtheria and scarlet fever combined. In 1935 there were three times as many deaths as in 1937, and no one can tell when winter or spring will bring another epidemic. In the eastern part of the state Bunnock, Madison and Bonnellville counties lead in the death toll, and in the west Ada and Kootenai. And note well that nearly all the deaths are in babies.

Highly Contagious
The cause of whooping cough is thought to be a very small germ found in the sputum of the patient. Like measles, whooping cough is highly contagious; personal contact is not necessary for spread of the infection.

Complications
The most common dangerous complication is bronchopneumonia. It is the cause of most of the deaths; indeed half the babies die who develop pneumonia during the course of whooping cough. Inevitably vomiting causes great loss of weight and anoxia of the brain results from the persistent loss of the stomach secretions.

Treatment
There is no set method of vaccine or serum treatment for whooping cough. Mild cases, to be sure, require only to be kept quiet and watched for the onset of complications, but severe cases must be kept in bed under the care of a skillful doctor. There are drugs that will decrease the frequency of the attacks of coughing and make the sputum come up more easily. Steam inhalations are useful. Sometimes X-ray treatment helps. Small children must be fed carefully. Concentrated semi-solid food at short intervals may decrease the vomiting and help prevent too great loss of weight.

Prevention
Quarantine is still necessary to control whooping cough; parents must realize how dangerous this infection is for children under three and keep their babies away from other youngsters when whooping cough is abroad. Many physicians have good results from the use of vaccines and serum from patients who have recovered from the infection. This is certainly worth serious consideration during epidemics. (Next release on tuberculosis).

CANAL COMPANY NAMES GOODING

Members of the board of directors of the Twin Falls Canal company today had named I. G. Gooding, Twin Falls, as manager, succeeding the late John Iron, who died Jan. 9 after serving the company since it was first organized.
Gooding, who has more than 30 years service to the company, has been watermaster for the Twin Falls district for the past 22 years. Prior to that he was Castleford district watermaster. He assumes his post immediately, the board having appointed him to the position at executive session which ended here last evening.

The board also named Elmer Phillips for 14 years the Buhl-Castleford district watermaster, to succeed Gooding. Phillips was appointed to the post by Gooding in the near future.

Other appointments made yesterday included Miss Emma Wick, assistant secretary, and James A. Bothwell as company attorney. Board members present at yesterday's session were John Thomas, Madison, president; Peter Link, Hansen, J. F. Cordes, Twin Falls; N. V. Sharp, Filer; W. H. Hatfield, Buhl.

HOLLENBECK WILL CHANGE LOCATION

The Hollenbeck sales yards, located at the present time at Second street west and Third avenue west, will be changed either during early or mid-summer to a new location. It was announced this afternoon by W. J. Hollenbeck, owner.
Hollenbeck announced the yards would be moved to property in the industrial area of the city, located just behind the depot on the far side of the Union Pacific tracks. Consisting of nearly four acres, the land is now occupied by the Clyde Smith horse sale grounds. An announcement that it was purchased by Hollenbeck was made yesterday by Arthur B. Wilson, president of the Rock Creek Realty company.
"Moving to the new location will permit enlargement of the sales yards and will also permit us to serve the public in a more efficient manner," Hollenbeck said. "Until the move is made to the new location regular sales will be carried on at the present location. After the move to the new site the present property will be disposed of."

More than "making the motions" when you change to OIL-PLATING

Dump Winter-fouled oil. Whatever you do, drain and refill now with something. But drain and refill with Conoco Germ Processed oil and then your engine's OIL-PLATED. Then it's got more than well fresh oil down in the crankcase. It's got another big plus all the way up... it's got fresh surfacing... OIL-PLATING. That comes from the actual union of this patented oil direct with inner engine surfaces. Conoco Germ Processed gives this oil so much "power of attraction" that it cannot drain down and leave engine parts bare, though your car stands by the hour or spends by the hour.
Never all Spring and Summer, with Germ Processed oil, can your engine suffer rapping "dry starts"... not with every square inch always clad in advance by drain-proof OIL-PLATING. It stays on! It helps the oil level to stay up. Your OIL-PLATED engine and Germ Processed oil will both be giving you plus mileage. Change today to Your Mileage Merchant, Continental Oil Company.

BOARD WINDS UP. SWITCH DISPUTE

Ending a prolonged dispute over switches in the high school electrical installation last summer, the Twin Falls board of school trustees today had ordered payment of the first $499 due to Vance Electric company, Salt Lake City.

The action was taken last night at the regular board meeting, a brief session because of the illness of Supt. Homer M. Davis, who was unable to attend.

Switch Satisfactory
Vote to pay the Vance concern came after Ralph Pink and S. H. Graves, the two trustees who had carried out investigation of the electrical set-up to find whether or not two switches had been omitted, recommended that the matter be closed by winding up the Vance contract.

Pink and Graves reported that the one large overhead switch installed by the Vance firm includes the function of the two smaller switches which had been in dispute.

Payment of the $499 had been previously held up because of apparent conflict with specifications. Graves and Pink reported, however, that the power experts found the present installation gives "absolute protection." They said that an additional plug-in for a light, on a separate line, has also been made to provide light to work with in event the main school line goes out.

To Attorney
The $100 warrant, which had been drawn several months ago and then held back, will be turned over to R. P. Parry, attorney for the district, with instructions to make final settlement as soon as Mr. Vance has cleared any outstanding bills.

Payroll for the instructional and other staffs of the system was approved last night, and bills totaling these amounts were granted: general fund, $1,086; building fund, $96; gym and playground fund, $1,544.07. Major item in the latter category was $1,281.73 to Structural Steel and Forge company, Salt Lake City, for steel to build the new Lincoln field grandstand. The company was granted the contract last month.

Action on reelection of teachers was deferred until a special meeting after Supt. Davis recuperates from his recent illness. Re-licensing of teachers will be done on the superintendent's recommendation, made from similar recommendations by principals of each of the five schools.

Board members were given copies of the 1938-39 form of the teacher contract. The trustees will study these and will take action at the next meeting. Major change concerns forfeiture clause in connection with failure to complete the school year under contract terms.

3 LANE SISTERS DIVIDE 'BREAKS'

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The Lane sisters, Rosemary, Priscilla and Lola, who are again working as a trio in a picture of American family life, have an agreement that is unusual in Hollywood.

The sisters have decided that they will rotate the advantages of camera position and lighting in each scene in which they appear as much as possible through photographic technique.

The sisters decided that this policy was best after they discovered that each appears to the best advantage when wearing some shade of blue. As it is impossible for the three to wear blue all the time, they agreed to rotate the favorable shade.

Vivacious, blond Priscilla does better in a shade of light blue, Lola, different from Rosemary's favorite shade, navy blue, while brunette Lola thinks that electric blue is her complementary shade.

This color scheme was worked out by the Lane girls when they last appeared together in "Four Daughters And Now That They are Reunited" for another family picture at Warner Bros., called "American Family," in which they are carrying the idea a few steps further.

In every shot that is filmed, one of the girls wears a frock, coat or accessories in blue. The other two take care that their colors will not clash with the blue, but will bring it out to best advantage.

If the scene is one in which Priscilla is supposed to be the center of attraction carrying on a conversation with Jeffrey Lynn, Rosemary and Lola wear the background shades.

When it comes time for Lola to cut a few scenes with Frank McHugh, or if Rosemary is in a scene with Claude Rains, the others wear the background shades.

It would be useless for any studio official to try to change the plan they have evolved to divide the "breaks," for the girls are determined that each shall receive equal advantages when all appear in a picture together.

PERRINE

A pleasant surprise was given Ted Thomas, Saturday, at his home in East Perrine, the occasion celebrating his 21st birthday. Twenty friends, neighbors and relatives attended the party. Chinese checkers and cards were played.

The Perrine club met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Allen last week. Bull call was answered by witty Irish jokes. Mrs. Anderson gave an interesting program on St. Patrick's day.

Charles Marshall has moved his writing outfit to one of his other famous north of Jerome.

Mrs. Margaret Griswold, Castleford, is visiting at the home of her brother, E. T. Thomas.

Will Wilkinson received word of the death of his brother Thursday, in Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Beck were visitors at the W. B. Wildman home, Friday.

Scarlett O'Hara

"Gone with the Wind's" Scarlett O'Hara as moviegoers will see her in costume for a scene from the film version of the novel. Vivien Leigh appears to have stepped from the very pages of Margaret Mitchell's book in this first picture of the English actress in character as Scarlett.

CHILD'S READING UNDER SCRUTINY

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—The average third grade child has a vocabulary of about 1,000 words, twice that necessary to carry on the normal affairs of life, but no one knows how much anguish the youngster must endure before he acquires that knowledge.

Dr. Emmett A. Betts, research professor of education in charge of the reading clinic at the Pennsylvania State college, says eye faults and lack of background, undetected by teachers pressing for results, may cause irreparable damage.

Reads Many Words
The average child, in the first grade reads some 18,000 words to acquire a reading vocabulary of 500 words. Dr. Betts says that at the end of the second grade he has read a total of 40,000 words, and at the end of the third grade he has read some 85,000 words to acquire a reading vocabulary of 1,700 words at the most.

Readers in the study at Penn State vary so greatly that the only three words common to all preprimers reviewed are "a," "the," and "mother." No words are common to the graded readers and all disagree upon the time words of varying degrees of difficulty should be introduced.

Program Sought
"One-quarter to one-third of all children in the United States fail to read in the first grade because they cannot keep up with the present reading program," Dr. Betts said. "The school of the future will not force children through the current regimented reading program. Tests will be used to determine whether a child is ready for reading. If children are not, substitutions of art, music and other subjects will be used to build up a background for reading."

"Another condemnation of the present reading program is the appalling increase in the incidence of eye difficulties from kindergarten through the sixth grade. This is caused by the present reading program. The school systems should drive harder on the reading program have the greatest number of reading difficulties among the pupils."

Speaks to Boys Club
Dick York spoke to a meeting of the Boys club of Twin Falls high school yesterday on his trip this winter to Florida.

A boy quartet, Kenneth Kuhl, Allen Dwyer, Jack Thomas and Perla Sweet sang two numbers, accompanied by Miss Eunice Dwyer.

SNOW AT HAILEY SHOWS DECLINES

Ketchum snow depth remained unchanged but Hailey showed a decline of three inches from last week, the report of F. S. Moore, Sawtooth national forest supervisor, showed today. The report lists snow averages as of Monday.

Depth at Ketchum was 24 inches Hailey had 17, compared with 21 inches a week before.

Slight Increase
Slight increases were registered further up in the Sawtooths, with Galena at 43 inches and Old Baldy stations at 31 to 32 inches.

Sawtooth valley, on the Salmon river watershed, showed some gains during the week. Williams ranch had 33 inches Monday and Stanley showed 28, as compared with 25 a week ago. Two weeks ago Williams ranch registered 32 inches.

Fairfield Less
Fairfield's snow depth declined three inches to 15. Mr. Moore reported Soldier Ranger station dropped from 40 to 24 inches.

Cumulative snowfall in the Hailey average since Oct. 1 advanced to 72.40 inches from 67.60 last week. It is now nearly at average which is 72.50 inches. It is well behind the 92.25 inches of a year ago.

SURGEONS PLAN INDIANA SESSION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—The American College of Surgeons will hold a six-state sectional meeting here March 22 through March 24. Distinguished surgeons from all parts of the country will address the sessions, which will be attended by the medical profession at large, hospital trustees, superintendents, nurses and other hospital department employees.

Indianapolis hospitals will hold operative and non-operative clinics for visiting surgeons while the meeting is in session. These will be supplemented by clinical assemblies, scientific sessions, medical motion pictures, and conferences on administrative and professional problems in hospitals.

A session which will be open to the public on the subject of "Preservation of Health" will close the meeting. Talks will be given on appendicitis, cancer, medicine and the public, medicine and the future, hospitals, and doctors.

Among the surgical problems to be demonstrated and discussed will be gall bladder surgery, evaluation of cancer treatment, hypertension and its surgical aspects, complications of pregnancy, pelvic ulcers, and eye, ear, nose and throat surgery.

Among the nationally prominent speakers will be Dr. Howard Naffziger of San Francisco, president of the American College of Surgeons; Dr. George Cline of Cleveland; Dr. Irving Abell of Louisville; Dr. Frank E. Astor of New York; Dr. Frederic W. Bancroft of New York, associate professor of clinical surgery, Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons; and Dr. George H. Gardner of Chicago, assistant professor of gynecology, Northwestern university medical school.

Guardians Honored at Historical Music Tea

Following the monthly business meeting of the Twin Falls Guardians' association of Camp Fire Monday in the recreation hall of the new agricultural building in Kimberly, members were guests of the Wiggata group of the Kimberly Camp Fire girls at a musical tea. Mrs. J. W. Barr and Mrs. Clyde Urban are guardians of the hostess group.

The program reflected the history of American music, and in illustration of various stages, solos, chorus numbers and piano and violin solos were presented.

Louise Barr conducted the program, assisted by Alice and Barbara Emerson, Regina Urban, Florence Bowman, Dorothy Chandler and Eleanor Parks.

A Dutch couple dance was given by members of the Dutch group, of which Mrs. Kenneth Ridgway is guardian. This dance was directed by Louise Barr as credit for her Torch Bearers rank group.

Later tea was served from an attractively appointed table, centered with a large bowl of lavender, pink, white and blue flowers.

The program was a division of the Camp Fire birthday project.

IDAHO POWER CO. STATER
One of the most recent parties at the pleasure skating rink was given by the Idaho Power company, their wives, husbands and friends.

Included in the group were Mrs. W. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pender, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. O. Woolley, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Olin, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Van Auden, Mr. and Mrs. George Buckley.

IRISH NUMBERS
For SOPHOMORE UNIT
Irish songs were the chief feature of a meeting of the sophomore unit of the Girls' league yesterday at the high school.

After a short business meeting presided over by the president, Miss Lawrence Fuller, a program was presented by Miss June Daniels, as master of ceremonies. She spoke in a broad Irish brogue.

Four songs were sung by an orchestra, accompanied by Miss Patricia Smith, "Daddy Boy," "Mother Mary," "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," and "A Little Bit of Heaven."

Girls in the octet were Miss Leona Rae Hughes, Miss Verne Lou Bowman, Miss Marjorie Leah, Miss Helen Thomas, Miss Mary Jean Shipman, Miss Betty Babcock, Miss LeDana Stokes and Miss Melba Holmes.

"St. Patrick's Birthday," a poem, was read by Miss Judy Jones. A Washington's day was given by Miss Betty Ruth Luke, Miss Mary Lou Glibb and Miss Helen Brown, accompanied by Miss Verne Simeas.

The group sang "My Wild Irish Rose" and "Take Me Back to Erin."

Marian Martin Pattern

DRESS-AND-TURBAN
Pattern 8991
Announce the arrival of spring by wearing a gay, printed tuben-dress and ensemble like Pattern 8991. It's smart, it's smart, it's smart outfit you could make for your self.

Very willowy and slender with that high neck, and But, shirred sleeves, fullness you've been reading about. Hence there are no waistline seams to worry about, the dress wraps up in no time. The sleeves, too, are quickly completed and add a flattering, broad-shouldered look. As for the little turban, it's simple to put together that you'll want to make at least two.

Pattern 8991 may be ordered only in mixed and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50, 52, 54, 56, 58, 60, 62, 64, 66, 68, 70, 72, 74, 76, 78, 80, 82, 84, 86, 88, 90, 92, 94, 96, 98, 100.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in pattern for the MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plain name, address, and city, state, and zip.

Gas Light Road Show Booked by Four-L Group

An old-fashioned road show will be given guest night by the Four-L club of the Y. W. C. A. Thursday evening at the Idaho Power company auditorium at 8 o'clock, with a magic show by R. K. Dillingham, Filer, dressed appropriately as a magician as the highlight. Each member is asked to bring as a guest a girl who is a prospective member.

Miss Geneva Pennington will be master of ceremonies. Before the main event of the evening, she will present Charlie McCarthy act with Wilda Small as Mortimer.

A "bicycle-for-two" eccentric dance will be given by Betty Hesse and Joyce Adams, boys and girls, the girl dressed in floppy dress and big hat and buttoned shoes, and the boy in checkered suit, bow tie and derby hat.

A "stale" quartet, Miss Anna Jo Johnson, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Charlotte Rutherford and Miss Catherine Jones, will sing.

Hot dogs and pop will be served by a committee headed by Miss Frances Griggs.

Next Tuesday a Mother-Daughter banquet will be jointly held by the secretary, Miss Ann Jo Johnson, and in return have received telegrams of greeting which will be read at the banquet.

Letters have been sent out by the secretary, Miss Ann Jo Johnson, and in return have received telegrams of greeting which will be read at the banquet.

Decorations will feature the colors of Y.W.C.A. blue and white, and of the Magic-Y, blue and gold.

Next Monday at a joint meeting of the Four-L and Magic-Y, Loyd Perry will speak on "Home Budgeting."

NEGRO MUSIC CONSIDERED BY GROUP
The American Negro's contribution to this nation's music, both from the standpoint of composition and performance, was the topic for an interesting discussion yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Mary-Maria class of the Baptist Sunday school.

The program, in charge of Mrs. Frank Munro, was presented following a pot-luck luncheon at the Baptist church.

Mrs. Cora Patton enumerated the accomplishments of Marian Anderson, and discussed the recent epic involving the resignation of the artist, P. P. Bliss, from a national organization.

Mrs. A. S. Martin spoke on Negro composers, and Mrs. Bernard Smith, Mrs. Arthur Gordon, accompanied by Mrs. Barnett, sang Negro melodies in illustration.

Mrs. B. N. Holt conducted the business session, and Mrs. Ethel Klotz directed the birthday ceremony in honor of Mrs. Maude Link.

Mrs. W. T. Turner, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Bernard Martin and Mrs. Gordon were guests. Mrs. Turner is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Martin.

A miniature harp posed on a base of green, surrounded by shamrock, was the article centerpiece for the single long table at which luncheon was served. Green catkins in vases were arranged at intervals the length of the table.

Mrs. Nellie Perotti, Mrs. Edwin Wells and Mrs. Link were hostesses.

RIVERVIEW CLUB ELECTS NEW STAFF
New officers of the Riverview Social club are Mrs. Thelma Lowe, president; Mrs. Mary White, vice-president; Mrs. Velma Fike, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Hazel Miller, reporter.

Meeting took place when Mrs. Virginia Doherty entertained the club at the Idaho Power company auditorium, assisted by Mrs. Frances Horner. Roll call responses were the revelation of secret spouses and secret activities.

Refreshments were served to 16 members and their guests, Miss L. H. Rosenbaum, Gladys Hines, Mrs. A. E. Francis and daughter, Virginia, Twin Falls.

COMMITTEES LISTED
By D. A. V. Auxiliary
Committees from the Women's auxiliary to work with the Disabled American Veterans in arranging details for the forthcoming state convention here, were announced last evening by Mrs. W. C. Stone, commander. The session was held at the American Legion Memorial hall.

Twin Falls D. A. V. and auxiliary will be convention hosts May 5 to 6 to chapters from Boise, Caldwell, Postville, Idaho Falls and Emmett.

Mrs. E. L. Rayburn, Mrs. B. C. Van Auden and Mrs. T. M. Knight were named as the committee on general arrangements, and Mrs. John Baisch, Jr., Mrs. John Yeller and Mrs. Jess Jennings as the program committee.

Following the business session, the D. A. V. joined the auxiliary for a program and refreshments. Contest prizes went to Mrs. Yeller, Mrs. Vernon Lawson, Clyde Williams and Robert O'Leary.

Mrs. O'Leary, hostess of the evening, served refreshments. Announcement was made that the social meeting of the auxiliary will be held March 21 at the home of Mrs. Doris Stradley. A pot-luck luncheon will be served at noon.

Thursdays at 8 o'clock, requested to bring sewing equipment.

FLORAL TRIM
Havings of spring were the bright centerpiece of daffodils which centered the quartet tables when Mrs. Henry Mahanen entertained at a dessert buffet luncheon yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. W. G. Thompson and Mrs. Charles Bruggeman were hostesses. Mrs. C. W. Parks will be hostess to the club March 28, it was announced.

MOCK CLUB DAY PROGRAM HILARIOUS
A husband's viewpoint of his wife's "pleasant social afternoon at the club," was humorously defined by husbands of the Maroon Women's club members when they gathered recently at the Piner Grange hall at dinner.

Oscar Kinas, as president, and Cecil Brown as secretary, called the "mock club meeting" to order. Neighborhood gossip formed the roll call responses of Audrey Reed, Ted Siler, Harold Hattline, Clyde Huffniss, Roy Kimberling and Carl Blay. Mrs. Brown presented two cards as a "leaving as his partner a metal doll."

Thirty couples attended the dinner, which was served at a banquet table ornate with shamrock, place cards and napkins in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Roses formed the centerpiece.

Harold Hattline was toastmaster and Ernest Ragland gave the address of welcome. Mrs. Hattline responded and Mrs. Margaret Lusk proposed a toast to the men.

Divisions were Chinese checkers and pinocle. Checkers players were awarded to Mrs. Edna Gulek and Mrs. Ruth Blais. Roy Kimberling and John Blais.

LOCAL MAN LEADS LEGION MUSIC AT JEROME
Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thomas were guests at the annual birthday banquet of the Jerome American Legion and auxiliary last evening at Jerome.

Mrs. Thomas directed the community singing, and also presented a vocal solo.

Mrs. W. H. Detweiler, national vice-president of the western district, American Legion auxiliary, and W. H. Detweiler, state representative and a Legionnaire, were speakers.

May be Sainted

Denis Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia, and George Cardinal Mundelein of Chicago, have petitioned the Catholic Church's Sacred College of Rites in Rome to approve the canonization of Mother Elizabeth Seton, above.

Distantly related to President Roosevelt, Mother Seton would be the first American-born saint.

Mrs. H. C. Schuriger acted as commentator and Mrs. Ronald Graves furnished music. To further emphasize the "Let Us Forget" program theme, appropriate songs were sung, with Everett A. Rice leading.

During the chapter session, an impressive memorial tribute was conducted for Mrs. O. E. Carlson, who died recently.

Mrs. Emma Clouchy, only chapter member of the Twin Falls chapter who still lives in Twin Falls, was accorded the honor of cutting the birthday cake during the refreshment period.

Thirty-two twinkling pink candles ornamented the white-frosted cake which reflected the last-mentioned theme. Lighted, princess lamps in silver candelabra, lent additional illumination to the refreshment table.

Pictures Recall Yesteryears of O. E. S. Officers

Gone are the rabbi drives of 1904, and gone, too, is the brick building that was the original Bickel school, but the spirit of unity which characterized our new community was revived last evening at a meeting of the Twin Falls chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at Masonic temple.

In celebration of the 32nd anniversary of the chapter, scenes of the early days in southern Idaho, including snapshots of Hollister, Amsterdam and Filer, in addition to local views, were thrown on a screen.

"Family Album" Photos
Likewise shown were enlarged pictures of past matrons, past patrons and charter members of Twin Falls chapter, founded March 7, 1907.

Wedding pictures, teen age views, taken in commemoration of birth-days, graduation days, or other significant events, introduced the honor guests.

Mrs. H. C. Schuriger acted as commentator and Mrs. Ronald Graves furnished music. To further emphasize the "Let Us Forget" program theme, appropriate songs were sung, with Everett A. Rice leading.

HITLER REVISES MAP OF EUROPE WITHOUT OPPOSITION

BATTLE RUMORS FAIL TO SPREAD DESPITE MOVES

Editor's Note—Hitler has written another important chapter in the history of world peace since Munich. The following dispatch tells how it fits into the intricate European pattern.

By JOE ALEX MORRIS

United Press Foreign News Editor
Adolf Hitler has now risen to such heights of power that he is able to revise the map of Central Europe on a scale unprecedented since Versailles without causing even a whispered fear of world conflict.

Developments of the last 24 hours bring that fact into bold relief as the morning and perhaps the most forbidding thing that has happened to the uncertain pattern of peace since Hitler's "big four" met at Munich in September.

It also is a guidepost for the future, because now that Hitler has revised the post-war republic of Czechoslovakia of the map, the troubled and kingdom of Hungary is next in his path—and beyond Hungary lies the Ukraine of Soviet Russia.

Would have been unbelievable eight months ago it would have been unbelievable that any man or nation could bring up and push through the Czechoslovak republic which the victorious World War allies erected as a middle Europe barricade against future wars.

It would have been fantastic to imagine that the president of a sovereign nation would rush to Berlin to ask Hitler what to do about the gray-green smokes of Germany could march unopposed into Prague; or that the hodge-podge of the old Austria-Hungary empire would be rebuilt—with all of its inner conflicts—overnight.

Yet Hitler has done it. He has done it in the space of a few months and the two great democratic victors in the World War—Great Britain and France—have been the other way.

The contrast between the threat of a European war that marked the end of the world's first international movement in the face of still more sweeping developments in the roots of the Munich settlement. At that time, both Britain and France surrounded central and eastern Europe to Hitler and asked him to keep his face turned east.

Period of Peace
There then appeared to be a period of peace and reconciliation aimed for that part of the continent. Germany needed time to catch her breath and absorb the shock of the great victory she had won. It was Italy's turn to seize some profits from the new dictatorship which was threatening Europe with a loaded pistol and the democratic front—Britain and France, with American encouragement—was aiming to meet that threat. Encouraged by these developments, the eastern European nations of Poland, Rumania, Hungary and Czechoslovakia began getting their courage back.

But Hitler had long ago started a revolution that he could not stop even if he desired. His real explanation had to keep on—or explode. Almost automatically—in fact, against Hitler's own desire to hold back for the time being the revolution—war spread across the international frontiers of middle Europe and eventually the fiercest had to strike it would be too late. His blow shattering the remains of the Czechoslovak republic had several purposes.

It cleared away a stubborn interference which the Czechs had offered in Bohemia, which Denmark Hitler's new-considered the key to dominance of Europe.

Stunning Example
It provided a stunning example for other eastern European nations, especially Hungary whose great intentions are fearful of Nazi state totalitarianism and whose army is creating the most serious danger of a war that would be a major war by its nature of the rulership of Czechoslovakia known as Carpatho-Ukraine.

How great is the danger of a conquest of Czechoslovakia will depend upon developments as Polish and Rumanian troops mass along their own frontiers. It is obvious that Hitler has every expectation of keeping the struggle localized, that Britain and France will go to great lengths to avoid being involved and that the Nazi military might will prevail in the end, having the highly military development of a special conflict.

SOLON PREDICTS RAIL LEGISLATION

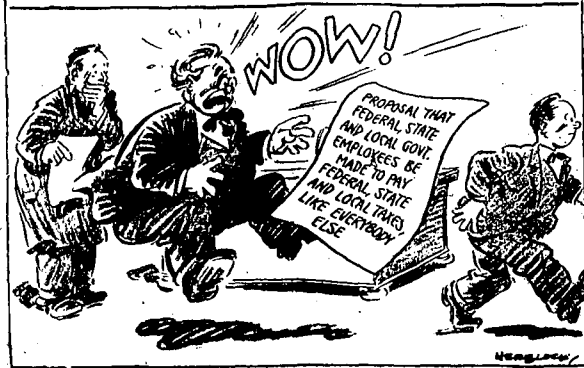

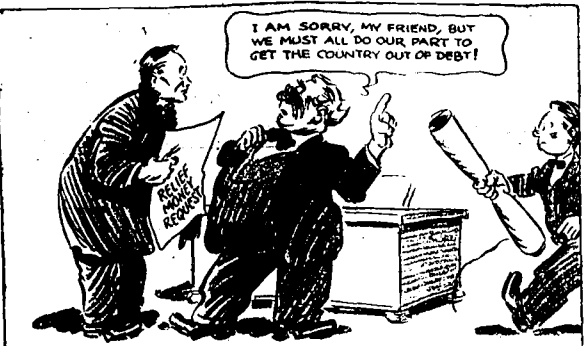

WASHINGTON, March 15 (U.P.)—Burton K. Wheeler, D. Mont., today after a conference with President Roosevelt, announced that he hoped to introduce a bill to set up a reorganization committee and establish a formula to expedite reorganization of railroads in distressed areas.

"I told the President we were making progress and that we expected to get most of the different groups together," he said. "Also that there was a prospect for railroad legislation at this session of congress."

William O. Dickinson, head of the American Locomotive works, told President Roosevelt at another White House conference that solutions of the railroad problem was a key to national recovery.

Wheeler said railroad legislation probably would be in the form of several bills.

$60,000 ADDED TO BEET FUNDS

Second shipment of federal beet checks on last year's beet harvest in this county arrived here today and totaled approximately $60,000, it was announced by Secretary Ray W. Lamson of the soil conservation service.

The group of checks totaled 100 first batch of checks arrived Monday and included 233 which aggregated $101,000.

Lamson estimated that about $60,000 more is still to come to pay up beet growers the benefits earned by the beet crop in the county under the sugar beet allotment act.

Beet growers whose checks have been received will be notified by mail and should not come to the secretary's office until thus notified, the secretary said.

Part convenience of Buhl and Caldwell teachers whose checks have arrived, Chairman Walter Heise, Caldwell head of the county committee, will be on hand at the Buhl hall Friday. West and ranchers who receive mail notification may collect their money at that time.

He had never married. Only known survivor is a sister, living in Germany.

TWO DENY GUILT IN ROBBERY CASE

Two men accused of robbing a Nevada of $10 here Jan. 31 entered not guilty pleas in district court today.

They are Claude Williams and Lewis Hendrix. They denied guilt after the court had appointed J. W. Potter as their attorney. E. M. Rayburn, Prier, was appointed to represent DON I. Thouton, accused of the crime.

Trials will be fixed by Judge J. W. Potter after settlement of trial times for prior cases.

Two other defendants in criminal cases for the March term were to come before the court this afternoon after their cases were continued from this morning's session.

Harry Ensey, accused of forgery, was given counsel with appointment of Harry Potter as his attorney. E. M. Rayburn, Prier, was appointed to represent DON I. Thouton, accused of the crime.

Ensey is charged with "uttering a fictitious" check for $42.50, marked for post office work, and passed to Mrs. M. C. Larnell, Clerk of Court. He is accused of robbing a check for which the state claims he knew he did not enough.

35,000 IDAHOANS PAY INCOME TAX

BOISE, March 15 (U.P.)—Idaho taxpayers joined in state and federal tax today with a deadline for filing returns set for midnight and heavy jail sentences or fines threatening those who fail to comply.

Approximately 35,000 state returns and 22,000 federal returns including corporation income taxes are expected to be filed before the deadline. Those taxpayers, state income tax bureau director said, were running down those of last year for filing returns.

State tax offices will be open until 9 p. m. federal until midnight. The state penalty for willful failure to file returns on time is a $300 fine and six months imprisonment or both. The federal penalty for failure to file is a $10,000 fine or up to 10 years in the penitentiary.

WHOLESALE GAS PRICE ADVANCES

Three of the major gasoline distributing plants serving Twin Falls and this area today had passed on to the retailer a one mill increase in price. Others, although they had not done so at this afternoon were expected to follow suit in the immediate future.

Survey today showed the Sinclair Oil company, the Continental Oil company and the Standard Oil company had boosted wholesale price of gasoline one-tenth of a cent, or a rate of 10 cents per hundred gallons. Officials of several other firms announced they had not as yet raised their wholesale price but might do so soon. Among those firms contacted were the Shell Oil company, the Texas company, the Westcott Oil company and the Fletcher Oil company.

At the same time owners or several local retail stations contacted this morning expressed the opinion that gasoline in Twin Falls might go up half a cent to the automist in the near future. Generally, this would mean that first grade gasoline would sell for 24 cents and second grade gas for 22 cents.

Approval Predicted On South American Ship Construction

WASHINGTON, March 15 (U.P.)—Representatives of the state, war and navy departments today urged the senate foreign relations committee to approve a resolution authorizing government construction of warships and military armaments for Latin-American nations.

The acting secretary of state, Sumner Welles, the acting secretary of the navy, Admiral William Leahy, and Maj. Gen. George C. Marshall, deputy chief of staff, appeared before the committee in executive session and urged approval of the measure.

Sen. James E. Murray, D. Mont., told reporters that there was virtually no committee opposition to the proposal which envisages the broadest program of military and naval cooperation with Latin America ever projected.

Administration spokesmen said it would strengthen the bonds of military and naval understanding with Latin America and facilitate a stronger "united front" against any European totalitarian aggression.

Colorado's Elk Mount to 20,000

DENVER, March 15 (U.P.)—More than 20,000 elk, the greatest number since 1890, roam the slopes of the Rocky mountains in Colorado, despite the fact they have been the targets for hunters during to consecutive open seasons, the U. S. forest service reported.

The present elk population in 14 national forests in the state, which have an estimated 25 per cent of the total number, has been estimated at 20,000 head. A. D. Mof, director of the regional office of the forest service here, would be considered.

He said the figure represented an increase of 455 per cent since 1914. The computation was based on a study conducted by the division of wildlife and range management of the federal service.

Hunting Season Closed

Mof said the most important factor in increasing the number of elk in the state was in closing the hunting season and providing protection for 10 years when it was apparent the herds were diminishing.

Even then, he said, conservation of the animals was not started until four forests in the state were totally devoid of elk, and so few remained in the other four that rigid protection precautions were necessary.

Remnants of the remaining herds and animals obtained from northern hunting areas were introduced into the elkless forests, and all hunting was barred for several years. Feed was provided during the winters when deep snow covered the mountains and every precaution was taken to eliminate disease.

First elk placed was made in 1912

Mof said, when 23 head were released in the San Juan forest in southwestern Colorado. During the following year 16 were placed in the Holy Cross forest to supplement an almost equal number of native animals. Twenty-eight animals were released in Roosevelt forest to create the nucleus of the herd now found in the region of Estes park.

The action produced such success, forest officials reported, that in 1927 a hunting ban again would be placed upon the Colorado elk herd.

DAVE GALE OF ALL-AMERICAN CAGE TEAM

5 Seniors Picked on All-Stars

By JERRY BRONFIELD (NEA Service)

We give you, then gentlemen, the All-America basketball team of 1939—the cream of the nation's collegiate basketball talent and their supporting staff, based on recommendations by coaches and sports writers from every section of the country.

Although there's bound to be a dissenting vote here and there, a close perusal of the records indicates it would be pretty hard to name a team that would be any more worthy. All-America means that the five seniors who make up the honor quintet.

Most difficult task was selecting the center for the mythical line. Any one of three or four candidates might have played in the pivotal post without much criticism, but the job finally went to Laddie Gale, Delmar of Illinois.

Delmar, a six-foot, two-inch hunk from Lincoln, Ill., wound up second in the Big Ten scoring race with 151 points. He has sparked the Illini for two years, has reached the heights in this campaign.

Plenty of speed and smart fast for his size, Delmar is a snappy rebounder and what marked him most was his aggressiveness. It was said of Delmar that he spent more time on the floor than any man in the Big Ten.

Nor was it chumminess that put him there. It was sheer drive and fight.

Pressing closely was Dar Hutchins. The slender pivot man of Bradley Tech's famous five was the chief reason why the Perulians topped up on such big-time contests as Oregon, Pitt, Nebraska, C. C. N. Y., Duquesne and others.

Consideration, too, must be given to Bob Smith, a sophomore from Illinois.

Immediately deserving a spot on anybody's honor team is Irving Toroff, all-foot forward from Long Beach University, California.

York City, Toroff was the bright spark of the Blackbirds' drive to an undefeated season in 38-39.

Just as Long Island was the class of the east, so was Toroff the class of the seaboard's individual players.

His 106 points for the season make him the best scorer in the country, but he has few peers as a floor man.

One-hand Shot Paired with Toroff is Laddie Gale, four-foot, four-inch forward from Oregon State.

Gale, whose home town is Portland, probably is the best one-hand shooter in the country. Smooth as silk action he is a highly reminiscent of Hank Luisetti, former Stanford star, who had no equal at setting up the offense.

As it was, however, he barely topped out, Ohio State's brilliant Jimmy Hall, leading the nation's Big Ten, who was the hardest man to stop in the Midwest.

Plenty of votes poured in for Rayford's Pete Cressy, and the name was true for lanky Chet Jaworski, forward from Illinois State, scoring nearly all his points in the paint.

Two guards who could shoot. No one could want a better brace of guards than Jim Wilcoxson of Colorado and Pete Andre of Indiana.

Wilcoxson, six feet three, comes from Coffeyville, Mo., and two years has been a unanimous All-Rocky Mountain selection. This season he hit his peak. Not only does he control the rebound but averaged 11 points a game which is quite a good thing.

Andre was the moustache of Branch McCracken's otherwise all-sophomore squad, which wound up second in the Big Ten. From Jeffersonville, this 200-pound six-footer was the standard backcourtman of his league. He was a great ball handler, a good feeder, and remarkable never himself, with an average just a little under 10 a game.

Up-Point Average With a scoring average of 10.6, the highest-scoring guard in the nation, with a 15-point average, but he didn't quite have the all-around skill of Wilcoxson and Andre. Just a little below their level was Bernie Oppen, Kentucky's sophomore.

Just offshoot any coach in the country would be more than satisfied with any five men from the entire group.

Yanks Again Hold Edge In Prospects

By HARRY FERGUSON United Press Sports Editor TAMPA, Fla., March 15 (UP)—

There doesn't seem to be a Matheson or Cobb backing behind the palm trees down here, but two weeks of spring baseball training have shown that there are 11 rookies in the American league who have the stuff to make them the stars of tomorrow. As usual, the New York Yankees have the best and the most.

The following, at this stage, seem to be the cream of the 1939 crop: Jim Tabor, third baseman for the Boston Red Sox—he played 19 games for Boston last season, is 22 years old and weighs 180 pounds.

Power Hitter Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox outfielder—a power hitter and the 1938 batting champion of the American association. He is 21 years old.

Overlapper, Cleveland second baseman—he is the son of Ray Grimes, the former major leaguer. Comes up from Milwaukee.

Frank Croucher, Detroit shortstop—comes everybody at Lakeland by the way he goes far and wide and comes up with ground balls.

Fred Hutchinson, Detroit pitcher—six feet, two inches, 165 pounds, 200 pounds. Only 19 years old, he seems to be a cool customer who will not let his youth fluster him.

Joe Gallagher, New York Yankees' outfielder—a giant standing six feet, two inches and weighing 210. He hit 313 last year at Kansas City.

Best Chance Charlie Keller, New York Yankees' outfielder—probably has the best chance of any of them to develop into a truly great ball player.

Buddy Rosar, New York Yankees' catcher—busted a career run on his first game in his first exhibition game of the season. His biggest handicap is that he has to compete with Bill Dickey.

Bill Lillard, Philadelphia Athletics' shortstop—up from San Francisco where he hit .355. Barely 21 years old, he may be the cornerstones around which the Athletics will build another great team.

NEW Tax Post is Coordinating Job, Defenbach Finds

The newly-created post of tax commissioner is actually not a new switch but is a correlation of some functions of at least four different state departments. Byron Defenbach, named as the commissioner, said here today.

Mr. Defenbach, former state treasurer and widely noted for his Idaho historical books, was appointed Sunday by Gov. C. E. Bottelstein. He was in Twin Falls prior to attendance at the annual meeting of the Jerome Cooperative Creamery to take over the state auditor's post.

Defenbach, where he was to submit the auditor's report. Mr. Defenbach is a C. P. A.

"I am winding up my private business first before assuming the tax commissioner's post," he said. "The job is coordinating the functions previously carried out by the department of law enforcement, department of finance, state auditor and state treasurer."

"The personnel already handling these matters will come over to the commissioner's office, along with the records and books. But as I know, there are no vacancies in these offices at this time and the commissioner will have no positions to award at present."

Defenbach, as tax chief, will also take over from the state auditor the duties as secretary of the state board of equalization.

He indicated belief that although the duties of the agencies will be unified, "there shouldn't be any more office space actually needed." Headquarters have not yet been assigned at Boise.

RUNAWAY GIRL IS AMAZED AT HUNT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15 (UP)—Amazed because her mark had been a kidnap hunt, part little Hebe Blake, 14, waited in juvenile detention home today for her father, Superior judge Samuel Blake, to take her home to Los Angeles.

WASHINGTON, March 15 (UP)—President Roosevelt today told the people of the United States that he had signed a bill to create a new federal agency, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, to investigate and prevent fraud.

The average ten gallon can only holds about a gallon and a half. It is a 7 1/2 with a 7 1/2 inch crown (average), a 7 1/2 inch can holds approximately 1 1/2 gallon.

TEN-DAY RECESS ON LABOR MEET

NEW YORK, March 15 (UP)—A deadlock on jurisdictional questions, it was reported today, forced the 10-day recess in peace negotiations between the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

It was reported without confirmation that the federation's executive council would be called into special session to take action on some CIO suggestions before the union sessions resume March 24 in Washington.

The AFL committee asked during negotiations whether this meant return of their old charter or acceptance of the extended jurisdiction these unions have taken since labor split in 1936.

Inability to obtain a definitive answer to this question was said to be holding up the negotiations and the recess was taken at the request of the federation's committee.

Shamrock, Tex., Grows Beards for St. Patrick

(By NEA Service)
SHAMROCK, Tex.—The "jolly" Irish are sprouting in the little town of Shamrock, Tex., as the Shamrock club grows up the community's biggest holiday, March 17.
Shure, and every able-bodied male is growing one. Translated, the "jolly grow" is that typical beard fringe which bristles from the chin-point, beneath the clay pipe of an Irish cartoon character.
When St. Patrick's day comes to Shamrock town, most of the men go to work with a beard. The beard is growing on the men's faces, and the beard is growing on the men's faces, and the beard is growing on the men's faces.
A non-profit undertaking, the Shamrock club is expected to draw more than 20,000 visitors this year, surpassing previous records. Shamrock lives up to its name the year round, although the percentage of real Irish in the town is scarcely larger than average. Descendants of other races have become so saturated with the Irish spirit that they practically consider themselves "The Irish."
The high school athletic organizations are known as "The Irish." The school's girl drum corps is named "The Shamrockettes." The school colors are green and white.
And the song? You guessed it—"My Wild Irish Rose."

MURTAUGH

Mrs. William Kleinkopf, assisted by Mrs. Howard Kleinkopf and Mrs. Glenn Bassire, was hostess for the Shamrock Ladies Aid. Devotional was led by Mrs. C. A. Bassire, and Mrs. E. W. Moorman read a paper on "South Sea Islands." During business meeting, conducted by Mrs. George Hartley, plans were made for an Irish stew supper March 17 in the community church at 8 p. m. The group also decided to make tea towels during meetings.

Here's a tip for all clubs and organizations that want to tell their members of both regular and special meetings—use a little display ad in the Times and News and you're sure of a good turnout. It's so easy to forget a meeting, but a small ad will attract the attention of the absent minded members and remind them at the last minute. Try it for your organization.
