500 PAY TRIBUTE TO GOODING MAN

GOODING, April 1 (Special)—Approximately 500 persons paid their final tribute to Rufus T. Longstreth, popular Gooding farmer, Grange man and county commissioner in services here. He was stricken in his car on the streets of Gooding last week by a sudden heart attack.

A pioneer in this community and personally acquainted with practically every resident in the county, he was paid a glowing tribute by his many friends both at the funeral and with beautiful floral tributes.

His death came as a complete surprise, since a touch of the flu was not believed serious. He was stricken about a week Thursday afternoon as he sat in his automobile on Main street.

Rufus Thomas Longstreth, 58, was born at Cameron, Mo., Jan. 28, 1881. He was the son of George Washington Longstreth and Nancy Scott Longstreth. He attended the public schools at Cameron and also Missouri Wesleyan college. But at an early age he left home to work in various states including Oklahoma, Colorado and California.

In 1905 he went to Longmont, Colo., where he worked for the Denver for several years. In 1909 he came to Idaho settling at Gooding, and in 1911 he started clearing the sagebrush from the place northwest of town where he has resided ever since.

On June 12, 1922, he was married to Margaret Thomas Rogers, who survives him. He is survived also by two brothers, James, of Brownell, Idaho, and Scott, of Longmont, Colo., and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Reynolds of New Plymouth, O.; Mrs. Minnie Peters of Cameron, Mo.; and Mrs. Hattie Hamel of Kildier, Mo.

Second Term
Mr. Longstreth was serving his second term as county commissioner. For many years he had been an active member of the Odd Fellows lodge, a member of the Grange, and he had gone through all the chairs in both orders.

Thompson's mortuary was in charge of funeral arrangements. Rites were held at the Methodist church in Gooding with Rev. Theo B. Mitzner in charge assisted by Rev. G. Coleman, minister of the Assembly of God church. A male quartet composed of Bert Boxer, B. M. Goodale, Eric Whippley and E. J. Willis sang several numbers.

Kids Explore Underground Lateral Pipe

It was great fun until neighborhood boys explored the lack of water in the eighth avenue lateral because the system of the Twin Falls Canal company had been drained for spring check. Several of them wearing hip boots belonging to their fathers and carrying flash lights, had made a trip into the pipe before neighbors noticed what was up. When they did notice it the police were called.

Several of the youths, it is understood, received "spankings" from their parents, who realized the danger to which the youths were exposing themselves.

Water in the canal system was due to be turned on either yesterday evening or today.

Lucky for Them
Fortunately for the children, police pointed out, it was not turned on yesterday. If water had entered the system at the time the children were "exploring" the lateral, which runs for some three blocks underground, they would probably have seen their exit blocked by rushing water and would have drowned.

Police issued a warning to "stay out" of the big pipe.

VOTERS RUSH TO REGISTER HERE

With deadline for registering for Tuesday's city election set for 9 p. m. today, registration workers this afternoon were being literally swamped by voters who waited until the "last minute" before signing the rolls.

Registration is being carried on at the city hall under the direction of City Clerk W. H. Eldridge. At noon today, official record showed 710 new registrations had been made.

Absentee ballots can be voted at the city hall until 9 p. m. today. It was pointed out, however, today 120 had been voted, including 94 in ward one and 58 in ward two. Election books will close promptly at 9 p. m. Eldridge said, according to law.

The polls will open Tuesday at 9 a. m. and remain open until 7 p. m. Voters residing in ward one will ballot in the Detweiler building while residents of ward two will vote at Lampa garage.

LOCAL JAYCEES OUT OF POLITICS

Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce, through its president, George Detweiler, this afternoon announced the organization was in no way interested in any candidate or group of candidates in the city election or any other election.

The announcement to this effect was made by Mr. Detweiler this morning. The statement, in full, follows:

The Junior Chamber of Commerce as an organization, is not in any way interested in any candidate or group of candidates in the city election or any other election.

The reason for this statement is the fact that certain individuals have, without knowledge or consent of the Junior Chamber, represented themselves as having authority to speak for the organization, and have given out information that the Junior Chamber was endorsing certain candidates.

"Our organization is not political in nature. Our primary purpose is for the betterment of the community, and we stand ready to cooperate with any duly elected official representative of the community. We merely want it known that our organization has not, and will not, endorse any candidate for any office."

JOE-K. KOEHLER Lone Wolf Candidate FOR MAYOR

JOE-K. KOEHLER, lone wolf candidate for mayor, is a man who has no interest in easy money, but who is interested in making good promises good. As a candidate we feel that we do not have the moral right to make OUTRIGHT PROMISES, that if elected Mayor we WILL give Twin Falls a water supply, as we not MAKE any claim to occupy a title—but WE DO PROMISE. WILL USE EVERY RIGHT EFFORT to have an unblemished thorough investigation made of a complete hydraulic Engineer and Geologist to make a report on one of two different projects that we have in mind and have already been working on for the past two years, consulting with the powers that be in Washington, D. C. Which ever one of the projects appears to be the most feasible, we will go after tooth and nail, for we know that if we can present a practical, common sense food project, we will be supported by Government engineers that we can then go to the W. P. A. administrators and secure the necessary funds to carry on the work to a successful climax. This would mean PUTTING ADDITIONAL MEN TO WORK, which would mean—ADDED PROPERTY TO TWIN FALLS—as my one BIG AIM is, has and will be: MORE JOBS FOR TWIN FALLS. I WANT TO WORK! So, if you desire an ANIMATED ADMINISTRATION OF THE CITY OF TWIN FALLS, for the NEXT TWO YEARS—Register and then VOTE for Joe-K. Koehler for Mayor. Get the ideal Eh what!

BOMBING OUTRAGES TERRORIZE LONDON RESIDENTS

OFFICES, BANK BLASTED DURING NIGHT ACTIVITIES

LONDON, April 1 (Special)—Bomb planes terrorized the business district from midnight to dawn today. Five bombs exploded, one in front of a newspaper office, another in front of a bank. Two bombs were found before they exploded.

The terrorists were believed to have targeted the city as a punishment for its resistance to the German invasion. Flying squadrons of Scotland Yard men sighted the car but it escaped them.

A strong guard was placed on London bridge just before dawn because of reports it was to be blown up. Police made a minute search of the parapets, arches and roadways and of craft moored in the vicinity.

No casualties.

Another force rushed to the admiralty in Whitehall where two men were reported seen climbing a parapet in the rear of the building. No casualties had been reported in any of the explosions.

The disorders were by far the most serious since the outbreak of the Irish Republican war began a series of bombings in protest against the presence of British troops and officials in northern Ireland. Hereafter, the bombings will be mostly in outlying sections of the city.

At 12:40 a. m. the first of the night's bombs exploded in front of the News Chronicle and Star office on Fleet street, which is newspaper row. It smashed a plate glass and tore out a section of bricks.

The second bomb, two hours later, damaged a gown shop and beauty parlor in fashionable Park lane.

PARIS BLUEBEARD SEEKS RE-TRIAL

VERSAILLES, France, April 1 (Special)—Lawyers drafted an appeal today for Eugene Weidmann, German "Bluebeard," and Roger Millou, his accomplice, who were sentenced last night to the guillotine for murdering six persons, including the 22-year-old American dancer, Jean de Kovar.

The appeal must be filed within three days. The lawyers said it would be based on technical errors at the trial and it is believed both men might be saved because the death penalty is rarely imposed at Versailles. But if it were successful, both men would be beheaded in the public square, ending a horror case unparalleled since "Bluebeard" Henri Landry was brought to trial 20 years ago.

Weidmann confessed the murders in detail that shocked the jurors. He said he fascinated Miss de Kovar with his "amazing eyes" and throttled her by "putting my fingers around her pretty throat and pressing until she was dead."

All the murders were for the small sums of money the victims carried.

Contempt Denied Against Man, 71

Francis F. Smith, the aged husband of the case, testified he has no income except $15 monthly and that he had no money to pay the attorney's fees.

Ellis D. Smith, his wife, filed the suit for divorce.

5 Generations Mark Birthday Of Colorful Buhl Pioneer, 89

BULL, April 1 (Special)—To the Bennetts—five generations of them—April 1 is a date of unusual significance this year, because it is the 89th birthday of J. W. Bennett, resident of the Bull vicinity for the past 30 years.

The home of Mrs. R. L. Smith, in the Northwest district, will be the scene of a family reunion and anniversary dinner Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, their seven children, 16 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren will assemble. Mrs. Smith is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennett.

Came 20 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett came to Bull 20 years ago from Brule, Neb., where they had a farm. They had a period of seven miles south of Bull. They cleared the sagebrush and built a small home on the site, which is now occupied by the Senior school.

He was assisted in clearing the land and farming by his sons, Jacob, Ruby and Wilbur Bennett. Two years later the Bennetts bought and cleared an 80-acre farm west of Bull, which is at present being farmed by the son Jacob. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett moved to Bull in 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett are enjoying good health and Mr. Bennett is exceptionally proud of his age. Mrs. Bennett when asked if she cared to give her age, being a great-grandmother, replied, "Oh, I don't believe that is very important."

Mr. Bennett walks for exercise, cuts the hedges and chews for the hens at the Bennett home. He reads a great deal without the aid of glasses, and his daily reading, in addition to newspapers and magazines, is the Bible.

Read Bible 15 Times

He has read the Bible through at least 15 times and can quote a number of verses and give any references any one may care to request. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett are members of the Bull Baptist church.

Mr. Bennett has been a Grange member for the past 67 years, originally joining the Pleasant Ridge Grange in Iowa. He and his wife joined the Bull Grange soon after his organization.

The Bennetts' sons and daughters are Jacob and Wilbur Bennett, Bull; Ruby Bennett, Weiser; Mrs. Mary Perry, Bull; Mrs. Will Moden, Piler; Mrs. R. L. Smith, Bull; and Mrs. R. G. Doud, Piler.

Larry Leroy Bull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bull, who was born Dec. 14, 1878, and Robert Bull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bull, Bull, born Dec. 13, 1898, represent the fifth generation of the Bennett family.

Dale Perry, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perry, Bull, and great-grandson of Mr. Bennett.

UTAH TO HONOR WEST'S HEROES

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah—Plans for a $25,000 "This is the Place" monument to commemorate western explorers and pioneers has moved a step toward with a grant of $5,000 by the Utah legislature.

The first granite and bronze shaft will be raised at the spot where the Mormon pioneers first jumped the Salt Lake valley and heard their leader, Brigham Young, say "This is the right place, drive on."

A model of the shaft, as prepared by the Mormon Young descendant of Father Day, Salt Lake city president Brigham Young and noted sculptor, has for its central figure, Young, and the two companions, who were the figures of Orson Pratt and Erastus Snow, who entered the valley three days ahead of the Mormon party. The Denver party, which broke the trail over the Wasatch mountains for the Mormon emigrants and later met disaster in the Sierra Nevada mountains, will be depicted on the opposite side.

Leading figures in pioneer exploration, beginning with the arrival of Father Escalante on the shores of Utah lake in 1776, will be portrayed. Model already made.

On one face of the main shaft will be the figures of Orson Pratt and Erastus Snow, who entered the valley three days ahead of the Mormon party. The Denver party, which broke the trail over the Wasatch mountains for the Mormon emigrants and later met disaster in the Sierra Nevada mountains, will be depicted on the opposite side.

Dairy Herds Free Of Bangs Disease

JEROME, April 1 (Special)—Jerome county herds under test for Bangs disease are free from infection, states Dr. K. Walker, deputy federal veterinarian in charge of this work.

Of 395 herds under federal supervision, only 11 contained bacteria during the last test. Of 2,326 total cattle in the herds tested 20 were found to be reactors, showing an infected percentage of less than one per cent. These figures do not include 19 herds which are now accredited as free from Bangs disease.

"In the future, the difference between the approved value and the salvage obtained from the sale of reactors for beef. A maximum indemnity of $25 for grade animals and $50 for purebreds will apply as in the past," Walker explains.

Applications for new herds to come under the test will be taken only until May 1, according to instructions received from Dr. A. K. Kuttler, inspector in charge, Boise. The applications are available at the county extension office in Jerome. The indemnity is paid from federal and state funds.

Fire in Ceiling Threatens Cafe

HAILEY, April 1 (Special)—Friction of unslatted wires rubbing against the tin ceiling was given by investigators as the cause of fire which broke out at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday at the Lincoln cafe.

The blaze was discovered by M. E. Chaves, and an employee of the cafe who were on their way to work. It is believed that within a few minutes the entire interior would have been in flames.

The fire started in the ceiling in the rear of the cafe room, according to investigators. No material damage was done.

Changing Face of America

So vast is this great country, so endless its spaces of forest and plain and swarming cities that it is hard to comprehend it.

During the past few years changes have taken place in the mere physical aspect of the country that would have staggered anyone to whom they had been suggested, say, in 1921.

For instance: it is usually said and believed that the common domain, or publicly owned lands, is exhausted and approaching a finish. Yet since 1933, the federal government has bought from private owners 26,000,000 acres of land costing around $218,000,000, an average of about $8 an acre.

That is an area larger than Massachusetts, New Jersey, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Delaware and Rhode Island combined. It is an area almost as large as all England, and about the size of the Czechoslovakian republic swallowed by Germany.

The public domain, in other words, which we thought about exhausted, has greatly increased, not decreased, in recent years.

Tremendous areas of the country have been turned back to forest. Last year the National Forest Service supervised planting of 140,000,000 trees, on 154,000 acres of land in 31 states.

This, mark you, is land previously cut over and deforested. And the total acreage does not include a great deal of forest planting done by states and private individuals. And it represents the work of only one year, while such work has spurred ahead tremendously year after year throughout the last decade.

The mid-western shelter-belt is becoming a reality today. It was a mere day-dream a few years ago, yet already there is reason to hope that it will be of definite service in holding back the creeping advance of the dust bowl.

All this, with areas like those around TVA, Bonneville, and a thousand smaller river projects, are actually changing the face of our country before our eyes, and changing it for the better.

We may have utmost faith that those millions of trees will represent national wealth in the future in the form of timber and lumber products, to say nothing of their effects on upholding the water table and preventing erosion. The land bought by the government may always be sold back to citizens should the time come when it is needed. The new lakes and dams have enriched the life of their neighborhoods.

We have spent a lot of money. But we also have something to show for it.

Cruel or Unusual?

The crusade against traffic deaths is going forward this year in earnest, spurred by the splendid results achieved last year.

To Scranton, Penn., goes the honor of the most ingenious plan thus far proposed in 1939.

The idea is to embarrass reckless drivers by marking their cars, painting a yellow ring on the hind end of the offender's car after the first offense, a red ring after the second, a blue one after the third, each to remain 30 days.

The legal department, reports the International Association of Police Chiefs, is studying the proposal. The constitution provides that "cruel or unusual punishments" may not be inflicted.

This one is certainly unusual. But is it cruel?

Possibly only a trial will tell.

A committee has gone to work selecting questions to be asked by 1940 census takers. A good beginner would be: "Are you as young as you look, lady?"

What's going on in the Ohio legislature? News dispatch says a "bare majority" voted for an anti-nudism bill.

The poorer speaker you are, says Dale Carnegie, the more room for improvement. Yes, and the more room in the hall.

A Baltimore magistrate ruled that an onion could be considered as salad. A decision which was not in odor.

Montana, in turning down a "quick divorce" bill, demonstrates that the state cares not a whit about seeing movie stars in person.

At the close of a Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce meeting, gunmen took up a "collection." That got the city's name in the news. So the bandits probably called it "an advertising appropriation."

Recovering from an illness, a Detroit patient found his death certificate had been signed in a mix-up. But what caused the relapse was discovery that relatives had already collected his insurance.

'MRS. DOC' BY TOM HORNER

SERIAL STORY
The characters and situations in this story are wholly fictional.

Yesterday Alan decided at last to tell his wife, Emily, that he had been to the hospital. Emily, he knew, would be surprised. He had been to the hospital, she would be surprised. He had been to the hospital, she would be surprised. He had been to the hospital, she would be surprised.

CHAPTER XIII
IF Emily had expected her husband to surprise her, she was not disappointed. "You're doing what?" he shouted over the wire. "I'm leaving Alan," she repeated. "I'll explain when you get here."

"But I can't leave the dam now, Emily. Things are in bad shape here. The water is rising."

"Please, Eric," the appeal in her voice could not be denied. "You are the only person I can turn to. I need you."

"Well," he said, "all right. I'll be there within an hour."

BUT it was almost two hours before she let him in the door. He was dripping. His clothes, his boots were mud splattered. There were dark circles under his eyes, as if he had not slept for nights. The moment he saw her all the love he had tried to hold back to him, claimed him again. She was so small, so helpless, so forlornly alone. Her eyes were red from weeping, but she managed a very smile as he took her hands. Eric wanted to enfold her in his arms, comfort her, tell her of his love. Instead he said:

"Just what is this all about? What's this about your leaving Alan?" He tried to make his voice sound stern, matter of fact.

"It's true," Emily answered, "am leaving. I'll go back to St. Louis, then to Reno. I can't go on here."

"What happened, Emily? Why this sudden decision? Don't rush into anything you'll regret later."

"I know what I'm doing—and I won't regret it, Eric. Alan turned down the chance to go with me. He said he was staying in Summer. Well—I'm not!" Emily's eyes were shining.

"He's wrong even since I came here. You saw only a little of it, while you were here—it's been like that for a year—"

"Self-pity welled up in Emily. She tried to understand while she poured out her story of that hateful year—a year of loneliness and discontent. Try as he would, Eric could not understand. Eric found himself admitting that Emily's decision was not without justification. He let her talk on and on, and when he was alone, he was left with his reward.

"He knows," he told himself that.

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

By BRUCE CATTON
Evening Times Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON, April 1.—Senator Gerald P. Nye has been campaigning vigorously all winter to keep Americans out of the war, but he got into a little of a predicament when he called on a peace salesman instead, and he insists there is a big difference.

"I don't judge too hastily," Eric advised. "If the thought that you—that some other man was in love with you—made him accept the offer, maybe the threat of a divorce will make him change his mind."

"You don't know Alan?" Emily said. "He's made up his mind and nothing will ever change him. After I told him I was leaving, there was still time to catch the midnight train to Reno. But he went to the hospital. No, Eric, if our marriage is to go on, I'll have to be the one to give Alan news of my going."

"Yes, Emily was right. If there was to be any surrender, she must make it. Alan was staying in Summer, with or without Emily."

And if Emily did not surrender, she did get her divorce. Could he even hope? Eric put the selfish thought from his mind. His dream, his future had no place here. First he must make every effort to save Alan's home."

That Galahad spirit must be contagious, he thought, smiling. But it was not being Galahad that made him want to stay. It was his love for Emily, all in his power to hold Emily and Alan together. If the break did come, Emily must be thoroughly satisfied that what was decided there would be no returning. Only when she was certain of that, only when she was sure that all her love would be hers, would she turn to Eric. Right now she regarded him as her best friend, a friend who sympathized, who understood, who could play the role in which she had cast him; that was the role he must accept, for a time at least.

HE hardly noticed when Emily left the room. He never the doorbell, he was engrossed in his thoughts. Then he heard Dr. Farrell's voice, echoing through the house, Farrell here, too? What brought him?

Farrell greeted him without warmth. Eric could see that the doctor did not welcome his presence. He was a little tired, a little weary. He was a physician, now suddenly grown old, turned to Emily.

"My God, Emily," he asked, "how did you come to Alan?"

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

THE WORD MALARIA COMES FROM MAL, ARIZ, MEANING "BAD AIR." BEFORE MOSQUITOES WERE FOUND TO BE CARRYING THIS FEVER, MAN THOUGHT IT WAS CAUSED BY BAD AIR ARISING FROM MARSHES.

ANSWER: In the English method of numeration there are a million millions in a billion... 1,000,000,000,000. In the United States, a billion is only a thousand millions... 1,000,000,000.

RUMANIA NEXT ON GREAT BRITAIN'S 'STOP HITLER' LIST

POWERFUL BLOG FORMS TO HALT NAZI ADVANCES

LONDON, April 1 (Special).—Rumania is the next Great Britain's "stop Hitler" list, it was understood today.

It was understood that discreet negotiations already have been started by Britain, France, Poland and Rumania with the idea of including Rumania in a quadruple alliance which would have Russia as a silent partner and might be extended to include Turkey if it too to other powers.

Further, both Britain and France, encouraged by their first apparent successes in organizing a continental anti-aggression bloc, planned serious steps to effect German economic encirclement in eastern Europe by concluding agreements of their own with the nations concerned.

Before he made his historic statement of policy in the house of commons yesterday, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain promised there would be a full dress debate Monday.

Solid in Support

All parties seemed solid in their support of him today, and the opinion was that he was assured a triumph such as he has not known before.

Col. Josef Beck, Polish foreign minister, leaves Warsaw tomorrow for an official visit to London and to start talks there Tuesday morning.

Chamberlain's unequivocal pledge to go to Poland's aid if she is forced to defend herself against attack holds good pending negotiations to solidify an agreement backed by military clauses for aid against Nazi aggression.

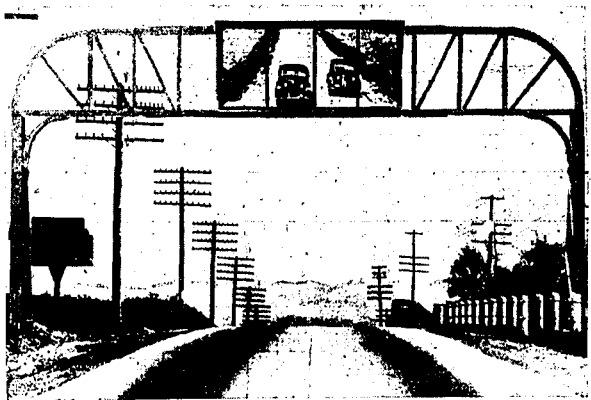

As part of Britain's own contribution, Chamberlain is expected next week to announce further defense measures including the institution of a military supply.

Plans Resistance

Chamberlain followed up his house of commons statement with a message, read last night, to the annual meeting of the Edgemoor division of the Conservative party, association, which he represents in commons. He wrote:

"We are passing through difficult times but I trust we shall presently see an improvement in the situation. Our desire still is to remove any legitimate causes for aggression wherever they may exist. But any attempt at world domination would have to be resisted by this country along with others, as it always has been in the past."

Reflecting a Drive for Highway Safety

Tested on a steep incline near Hartford, Conn., this new safety device enables motorists ascending a hill to see what's coming up on the other side. Built of seven-inch triangular bars of glass laid in parallel over the face of a mirror, it has a visibility ranging up to about 2,000 feet.

Light Opera Cast Wins Enthusiastic Applause

By MARGARET ELSWORTH

Entire cast of "Pirates of Penzance," light opera presented last night in the high school auditorium by the Twin Falls high school chorus classes under the direction of Miss Parnice Ewer, received a curtain call by an enthusiastic audience, which had thoroughly enjoyed the performance.

Frequent applause showed that the audience thought the interpretation of the clever comedy and delightful music of Gilbert and Sullivan made the production, first opera to be given at the high school, as enjoyable as anything ever staged there.

Cast in Singing

Singing, both of choruses and of leads, was done with the ease which shows excellent training. Songs were well interpreted in action by the entire cast.

Youngest, smallest and loveliest of Major-Gen. Stanley's 40 beautiful daughters, Jean Pierce as Mabel, who volunteered to relieve Frederick's loneliness, sang several solos beautifully. Climax of the opera before the final curtain went down on the happy ending was her singing.

Allen Duval, who portrayed Frederick, slave of duty, who was forced to leave the lovely Mabel when he discovered the unusual paradox that he had been appointed to the pirates until his 21st birthday, which would not come until 1990, because he was born on the extra day in leap year.

Pirate King Scores

Dashing, swarthy pirate king, Moe Pearson, towered over the band of fierce but tender-hearted pirates.

KIMBERLY PLANS FOR RECREATION

KIMBERLY, April 1 (Special).—A three-man committee had been named today to sponsor the WPA recreation program here this summer with an eye toward a comprehensive physical education schedule.

The recreational move—taken by the school board, village trustees and Commercial club—is in line with Kimberly's long-range plans for the finest all-around athletic program in the state. One phase of that program will be a new athletic field on the seven and a half acres of land near the high school.

Title to District

Funds to buy the land were voted at a special election. Title to the area went formally to the school district Friday.

The three-man recreational committee is headed by R. H. Denton, with Harold O. Rowe and Ralph Metcalf as associate members.

This group will chart the summer activities and will recommend recreational supervisors under the WPA set-up. Two or three men and one or two women will compose the staff.

Facilities for the recreation this summer include the four brand-new high school tennis courts, the one municipal court and the village park, plus the seven and one-half acres now acquired by the school district.

School Nets

The tennis courts at the school now have two steel nets and one more may be added, thus providing nets impervious to weather. Eight sets of horseshoes have been purchased by the student body for use by students and by the general program this summer.

The athletic field plans now tentatively drawn for the new tract include a football field, baseball diamond, track and possibly several holes of golf.

Future developments of recreation for girl students in the Kimberly schools will be provided for by the decision of the school board to employ future women teachers who can also instruct in some phase of physical training.

KILLER LYNCHED BY FLORIDA MOB

PANAMA CITY, Fla., April 1 (Special).—A mob of about 50 men, some armed with shotguns and pistols, gathered in front of the county jail here today and shot to death on a country road near here.

Brown, a former employee of Van Kleeck, a wealthy hardware dealer, was found sprawling in a rural clearing five miles north of here with one bullet hole in the back of his neck.

According to Fire Chief J. H. Alexander, several cars pulled up in front of the county jail some time between 2 and 4 o'clock this morning. Four masked men entered the building, overpowered the lone guard, and took Brown from his cell.

Brown was convicted of having murdered Van Kleeck when the hardware dealer left his store on the night of Jan. 16. The jury, after deliberating 20 minutes, returned the verdict with a recommendation of mercy.

Brown, a white man, had been in Panama City about six months. He came here from North Carolina.

LOGAN NAMED AS LIQUOR MANAGER

Scheduled to take over his duties as soon as a check of the books in the local store is completed, Robert K. Logan, for many years a music dealer in this city, today had been named manager of the state liquor store.

Logan will succeed Claude M. Gales, who has served as manager less than two weeks, having succeeded Albert Frazier, manager since the local store first opened.

Gales, it was explained, will be unable to hold the position of manager because of a law which requires each office be filled by an individual having resided in the community for at least two years. Gales will be employed, however, as a clerk.

POLITICAL CARBS AROUSE DENIALS

Distributed cards, bearing names of three candidates — none members of the same "tickets" — today had brought denials from all three men named that there had been any split in existing election tickets or that any authority had been given for issuance of the cards.

The cards, distributed yesterday afternoon, carried the names of Joe Koehler for mayor, Dan Cavanaugh and A. S. Henson for councilmen.

Koehler is running as an independent while Cavanaugh and Henson are members of two separate tickets.

Today all three men had denied they had authorized distribution of the cards. They also declared there had been no split in existing setups and that the three named had not formed a new ticket.

Another Girl on Idaho Pilot List

GOODING, April 1 (Special).—Miss Elaine Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hunt, today had joined the ranks of Idaho's fliers.

NEW STUDEBAKER ON DISPLAY HERE

Temped one of the most revolutionary motor car developments in years, Studebaker's new "Champion" went on display today at Twin Falls Motor company and at McVey's.

Delivered prices in Twin Falls, with nothing more to pay, range from $734 to $924 according to J. T. (Ted) Davis, Studebaker representative here.

The Champion, brand-new in structure and design, "is built for economy performance throughout," Davis said. It is a six cylinder machine utilizing new-type strong but lighter steel that lessens the overall weight. Economy of performance, according to Davis, is asserted to be unequalled among full-sized autos.

The new Studebaker comes in two lines—Custom and de Luxe. Each line has three models. Complete purchase price range delivered in Twin Falls is: Custom—Coupe $784, Club sedan $824, cruising sedan $854. De Luxe—Coupe $844, Club sedan $884, cruising sedan $924.

Overdrive, climaticizer and automatic hill holder are available on all models, Davis said.

High walls and windowless ground floors are the rule in Albanian homes.

STAGE SET FOR EGG HUNT HERE

Twin Falls' annual Easter egg hunt, sponsored jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the Twin Falls Recreation association, will be held Saturday, April 8 at 9 a. m. It was announced here today.

The hunt will be staged on grounds of the high school and the court house, according to Miss Vernis Richards, recreation director, who will be in charge.

It is planned to place the eggs in "secret places" early on the day of the hunt, with strict supervision being provided in order that youngsters cannot go over the area before the hunt gets underway. Last year some 2,000 participated in the event.

The Chamber of Commerce will purchase 1,000 large candy eggs, and each will be wrapped in colored tissue paper.

All youngsters in the city are eligible to join in the hunt.

CATERPILLAR CONSISTENTLY CUTS COSTS

The C.C.C.

NOTE: This is one of a series of "ads" that show what "Caterpillar" does for communities locally on projects of community interest.

CAMP ON HOCK CREEK builds a scenic road up the famous Hock Creek Canyon into the colorful Bluebonnet Basin... making a shorter route to summer outing spots for Twin Falls residents. The removal of hard shale rock taken from "cuts" calls for equipment built of toughest material available. "It is on such jobs as this," says C. H. Itanage, superintendent of construction, "that we put our 'CATS' to work."

Now, just what does this mean to the Farmer on the Twin Falls tract? Simply this: If "Caterpillar" products and allied equipment stand up under adverse conditions such as their, how much longer would they ably serve you on your farm?

We have the answer for you—no drop in at 146 2nd Avenue South, Twin Falls, and we will be glad to discuss your needs.
