

SENATE PASSES BILL ON DOLLAR FARM U. S. SOFT COAL MINERS RETURN TO JOBS MONDAY

THREAT OF FUEL SHORTAGE ENDS FOR INDUSTRIES

NEW YORK, May 12 (U.P.)—The United Mine Workers of America today announced that the soft coal operators reached an accord today on a union shop contract which will permit resumption of mining Monday.

The accord will be formally ratified at 5 p. m. today by the union's policy committee and those operator members of the conference who agreed to accept the union shop.

NEW YORK, May 12 (U.P.)—John R. Steelman, government mediator in the national soft coal tieup, forecast today that "all or practically all" bituminous mines would resume operations on Monday under contract with the United Mine Workers of America.

The threat of a crippling fuel shortage which hung over the nation for six weeks (U.P.)—he said, and nearly 600,000 miners will return to work.

All indications were that the soft coal production suspension—lasting about 10 days in the case of the bituminous mines—was an end to the coal shortage. The coal shortage was the result of a strike by the United Mine Workers of America.

The proposed agreement, it was indicated, will renew for two years the wage-hour provisions of the 1937-38 agreement, which expired March 31. In addition, it was understood, the agreement will contain a "union shop" provision, which would require two sentences, added to the enabling clause, as follows:

Proposed Contract

"It is agreed that the United Mine Workers of America is recognized herein as the exclusive bargaining agent representing the employees of the parties of the first part. It is agreed that as a condition of employment all employees shall be members of the United Mine Workers of America, except in those exempted classifications of employment as provided in this contract."

Such a contract already has been proposed to operators in the 21 coal-producing states and union officials said they were assured of "100 per cent compliance," with mines reopening and 126,000 men returning to work by Monday.

11 Missing, 27 Rescued After Collision of Fishing Vessels

YARMOUTH N. S., May 12 (U.P.)—Two vessels near Nova Scotia today rescued 27 of 38 missing sailors and sank in a fog 100 miles northeast of Boston Wednesday morning.

The coastal steamer Keith Cann was coming into Yarmouth harbor with 20 survivors of the crash that sank the fishing schooner Isabelle Parker and Edith C. Rose. Almost simultaneously it was learned that a fishing vessel out of Presport had picked up seven other sailors early today and was proceeding to Meleghlin, from whence they will come her by bus.

The 27 saved from north Atlantic sea today increased to 38, the known survivors of the tragedy. Nine sailors already were returned to Yarmouth to help harvesting stories of being adrift in night clothing in open boats for 48 hours. These first rescued men indicated there were 48 fishermen aboard the two craft, that one of their number had died of a heart attack before the vessels sank. That left 47 crew members unaccounted for.

It was believed the missing men included the respective skippers of the scuttled fishing vessels, Neilson Capt. Albert Hines of the Edith C. Rose, nor Capt. George Goodwin of the Isabelle Parker was listed among the survivors.

The Keith Cann advised that eight aboard it were from the Edith C. Rose, including Capt. Hines' son, United States coast guard and Canadian government vessels were searching the sea area between Boston and Yarmouth for any other survivors.

The Parker sank within five minutes and managed to lower only two boats. The Rose stayed afloat for 20 minutes and got 100 survivors. In these 12 dories the crews of the two boats were picked up. Many of the men had to swim through the icy waters of the north Atlantic to reach them.

The men picked up by the Amistida were in two dories. They had a small compass and were rowing toward this port when the motor ship sighted them. They had rowed approximately 85 miles in 40 hours and were still going strong though they had had no food or water.

Frank Hubbard, engineer of the Parker, told this story of the last moments aboard the schooner:

Frank Hubbard

"I saw we were sinking fast. The whole forward part was under water and was smashed up. There was a lot of confusion and shouting, and the men lowered the boats. After all were off, I saw Capt. Hines put on a life belt. When he looked at me I said the same thing he got on one boat, and I got into another. I don't know where our skipper went, but he was in a boat all right. We rowed day and night. Thank God, we are here."

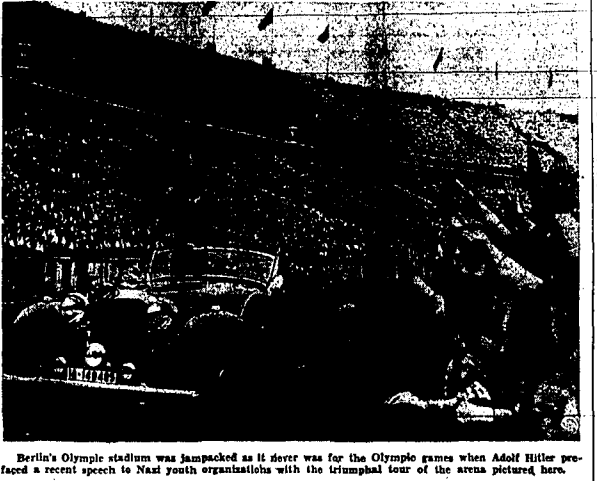

The Isabelle Parker, of Boston, was a 66-foot boat of 100 tons. The E. C. Rose, 146 gross tons and 107 feet long, operated out of Gloucester. Each ship normally carried a crew of 25.

NO '39 SETBACK IN BEET MIX-UP

Failure of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace to confer with a congressional delegation from Idaho relative to intensive marketing alternatives to intensive marketing alternatives which have been made to processors will not materially affect operations this year, but the decision is not changed, may go next year, officials of the Amalgamated Sugar company said here this afternoon.

This year, in the Twin Falls district, there are 14,228 contracted acres in production, the maximum amount allowed by the government. Last year, records show, contracted acreage came to 15,337.

An announcement was made recently from Washington that four processors in Utah and Idaho, including the Amalgamated company, would be compelled to carry over 45,681 bags of 1938 sugar during 1939. This ruling, under the sugar act of 1937, will seriously handicap Utah and Idaho sugar beet growers and may even result in a serious acreage curtailment next year unless the order is changed.

U. S. HOUSE MUST PONDER MEASURE FOR ACCEPTANCE

WASHINGTON, May 12 (U.P.)—The senate today put a record-breaking bill in President Roosevelt's budget by approving a $1,216,566,572 agricultural appropriation bill, carrying $338,000,000 in unbudgeted farm subsidies.

The bill was approved by a vote of 61 to 14.

Approval was given to the measure—the largest farm bill ever passed—shortly after Sen. William King, D. Utah, introduced a resolution designed to accomplish a 10 per cent cut in appropriations including that voted today. No immediate action was expected on the King proposal. Efforts to recommend the bill to committee to remove the unbudgeted items failed.

Go to Rome

The farm bill will send to the house and a conference to iron out Senate and house differences was expected. The house farm bill carried $253,111,613. The Senate increases were made despite the opposition of President Roosevelt, who demanded that congress provide new revenues to offset the additional cost of the extra subsidies.

An effort by Sen. John H. Bankhead, D. Ala., to suspend Senate rules and attach a rider to the bill providing for payment of two cents a pound to American producers of cotton sold abroad failed to muster the required two-thirds vote.

Unbudgeted items

$225,000,000 for price adjustment payments, and $133,000,000 for distribution of surplus cotton. Approximately $40,000,000 is made available for cotton production. President Roosevelt had indicated only $242,130,000 for such purposes for 1940; as compared with $15,270 during the current fiscal year.

Practical items in the bill included:

Extension service, $1,284,494; weather bureau, $7,181,370; bureau of entomology, $1,500,000; bureau of dairy industry, $721,425; bureau of plant industry, $252,344; forest service, $22,990,283; bureau of biological survey, $1,000,000; bureau of public roads, $191,000; soil conservation service, $450,560,000; farm tenant, $45,000,000.

The $191,000,000 appropriation for the bureau of public roads was $11,000,000 for the federal aid highway system; $25,000,000 for secondary or feeder roads; $40,000,000 for construction of new roads; $11,000,000 for public land highways.

Among the additions approved by the senate were $770,000 for weather bureau, $1,500,000 for entomology; flights; acquisition of lands for national forests, $3,000,000; tobacco inspection, $180,000; farm tenant act, $25,000,000 for farm roads and trails, $40,000,000.

Sen. Carter Glass, D. Va., sought repeal of the adjustment of $225,000,000 for price adjustment payments.

Indians Refuse Offer to Return Manhattan Area

NEW YORK, May 12 (U.P.)—The Indians have had their chance to take Manhattan Island back, and they don't want it.

"No!" they shouted. "No want him."

The offer was made symbolically as part of the Manhattan week celebration at the World's fair, since the Indians had been driven from the island by the Dutch in 1624.

They had been scheduled to make speeches praising the white father's development of the island, and pointing out that they were perfectly satisfied with the present owners. Instead, they shouted "No!" and refused to return the island.

Japan May Occupy International Settlement Area

BRITISH, MARINE QUARTERS WOULD BE TAKEN OVER

SHANGHAI, May 12 (U.P.)—A Japanese spokesman said today Japan might find it necessary to occupy the foreign area of Shanghai, including the American, marine and British and French army defense sectors, to combat alleged terrorism.

Announcing that Japanese navy men had entered the foreign settlement of Amoy, because of an alleged terrorist attack on the Chinese chairman of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, the spokesman said:

"It may be necessary to take similar action at Shanghai if a grave case of terrorism arises."

He said that, if such action was necessary, circumstances would determine whether the sectors assigned to the marines and the British and French troops should also be occupied.

"I prefer not to discuss such an unpleasant possibility," the spokesman said.

The spokesman said that a declaration by international settlement authorities that patriotic manifestations would not be tolerated among persons who sought the safety of the foreign quarter had been a step in the right direction.

Incident Bothered
"But the principal point is whether the declaration will be enforced," he said.

The Japanese entered the settlement at Amoy on the ground that a terrorist had wounded a Chinese chairman of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce.

The Japanese commander at Amoy said the Japanese were not concerned because of the incident. He alleged the settlement had not taken proper measures to prevent it.

Playmates Serve At Child Funeral

Four young boys were pallbearers and the same number of small girls were flower girls at funeral services this afternoon for Myrna Mae Davidson, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Davidson.

The child died Wednesday at the home of her parents. Services were held at the Christian church, Rev. Mark C. Cronenberg, officiating, as reported by Rev. H. J. Reynolds, Gooding.

Two appropriate numbers, "Love and Peace" and "Sweet Home," were sung by a trio, Mrs. Ronald Graves, Mrs. Frank Stucky and Mrs. M. Perry.

Pallbearers were Bobby Doolittle, Ted Turner, Howard Allen and George Goff. Flower girls were Thelma Phelps, five-year-old Maxine Haskins and Helen Neagy.

Interment was in Twin Falls cemetery, under the direction of the Drake and Reynolds funeral home.

8,489 LICENSES IN FOUR MONTHS

Passenger car licenses sold in Twin Falls county for the first four months of the year reached 8,489—a figure substantially above last year when there was no $5 fee flat.

Total license sales, with the $2.35-35.50 receipts and apportionment of those funds to highway districts, were shown today in figures announced by Assessor George Reynolds.

Children's death toll topped 40 in passenger car figures with 3,922. A considerable portion of that came in declining days of the month with the statutory deadline facing motorists.

Summary as drawn by Deputy Assessor George Reynolds and Ruth Benoit (figures include sales at both Twin Falls and Burley):

Passenger cars, 4,480; private trucks, 802; farm trucks, 915; commercial trucks, 123; dealers, 23; motorcycles, 20; private trailers, 1,078; commercial trailers, 10.

Monthly sale of passenger car licenses showed 30 to Jan. 7, inclusive, 387 for the remainder of that month after the $5 fee went into effect; 1,084 in February; 3,922 in March; 2,508 in April.

Apportionment of the $2,358.88 in money collected for licenses shows Twin Falls highway district receiving $2,920.50; Burley, $18,421.20; Fruitland, $17,000.00; Rock Creek, $1,103.25.

CHARGES CLAIM THEFT OF AUTO

Complaint of grand larceny in alleged theft of a motor car owned by a Twin Falls man had been signed today against Ivel Bell, Twin Falls.

Harold Kleinkopf signed the complaint, which was to be filed with Justice R. M. Heller this afternoon. The machine, asserted to have been stolen last Sunday, was a 1934 Chevrolet coach estimated at $1,500.

Hunt for the machine and the man driving it commenced simultaneously with the search for a temporarily escaped service station attendant involved in fatal shooting of Patrolman Craig T. Bracken—had caused unfounded belief that a third man was involved in the holdup and shooting.

Bell has been in county jail all week.

Accepts Position

Miss Esther Nielsen, a former student at Twin Falls Business university, has accepted a position with the L. M. Benton company here.

Marine Life Film

Yesterday an educational film on marine life, "Beach and Sea Animals," was shown to all Twin Falls junior high school students.

New Students

New students at the Twin Falls Business university are Miss Gladys Davis, Miss Imogene Alnoworth, Farrel Green, Miss Paloma Mathews, Miss Dorothy Miller, all of Twin Falls; Miss Grete Watson, Hazelton, and Miss Ida Kalbfleisch, and Miss Bernice Kalbfleisch, Piler.

At Lutheran Meet

Rev. M. H. Hagel, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church, has gone to Seattle and Tacoma, Wash., to address the Lutheran centennial mass meetings which will be held in the Twin Falls area Sunday and Sunday evening. Rev. H. C. Shute, Trinity Lutheran church, will occupy the local Lutheran pulpit Sunday morning.

Danny Williams' Condition Same

Although his condition is "about the same," a slight infection was noted today in the wound suffered by Danny Williams, 30, who with William Hale, 28, is charged with the murder of Craig T. Bracken, local policeman.

Williams, who comes from Nevada, is in the county general hospital under constant police guard. The youth, according to his companion Hale, pulled the trigger of the .38 Smith & Wesson pistol which shot and killed Bracken Sunday morning.

Williams was shot in the chest in the two-way fight which took place one mile west of Twin Falls. As Bracken entered the right front door of the stolen car he was shot in the chest by Hale. Bracken shot Hale in the head and then ran around the stolen car and shot Williams, who was attempting to escape, in the hip. The bullet entered the lower bowel.

Bracken failed to respond to blood transfusions and died early Sunday morning. He was buried yesterday in the Twin Falls cemetery.

Earlier this week a complaint filed by County Prosecutor Everett Sweeney with Probate Judge C. A. Bailey charged the two bandits with murder in the fatal slaying of the policeman. The complaint was signed by Howard Gillette, chief of police. Hale is in the county jail. The shot in the head resulted in only a deep flesh wound.

WILL HANDLE CASH FOR CAMP

J. H. Barker, Buhl, was named treasurer, and H. W. Herman, Buhl, purchasing agent, to handle local funds for the present WPA project, in connection with the improvement of the McCloskey Memorial health camp, it was announced by Mrs. Orr Thompson, following a meeting last week of the Twin Falls County Anti-Tuberculosis association at her home.

Personnel for the two seasons of the camp has been determined. Opening date for the "teen-age camp" for 1948, and the younger children's camp follows in July.

Matron Chosen
Mrs. Jessie D. Gordon, Burley, will be matron for the "teen-age camp" and Miss Rea Moyer, Castelford, play director. For the younger children's camp in July-August there will be three matrons instead of one superintendent. Mrs. Mabel Wilkerson, Elmwood school, and Mrs. Alberta Moore, Oakley, will be girls' matrons and Mrs. Jessie Gordon, Burley, will be boys' matron.

Play supervisors for the younger children's camp in July-August will be as follows: Miss Grace Hamilton, Piler; Miss Irene Scott, Hansen; Miss Barbara Prichard, Piler; Miss Grace Watson, Castelford, and Miss Neva Hardin, Twin Falls.

Cooks for both camps will be Mrs. Mabel Wilkerson, Elmwood school, and Mrs. Alberta Moore, Oakley. The Buhl camp committee includes Mrs. C. C. Shute, Burley, personnel; Mrs. J. C. Hamilton, children's applications; Mrs. L. P. Rynson, treasurer; food; Mrs. Louise McCloskey, buildings; and Mrs. B. A. Webber, publicity.

Members from Buhl, Castelford and Twin Falls were present to hear the report of Dr. Alan L. Hart, tuberculosis consultant for the Idaho Tuberculosis association and the department of public health, and to discuss improvements now underway at the camp.

Carl Glibb, representing the Elks lodge, met with the group to discuss the means of giving money and financial assistance to the McCloskey Memorial health camp.

Mrs. Chapman announced that the county had already secured six reservations for the "teen-age" group at the camp. Jerome made a presentation of a commendation for taking such prompt action in the cases.

At business sessions prior to the telephone executives' talk, K. L. Johnson, Union Pacific general agent, Boise, and Ross Crispino, traveling freight agent, reported that the railroad "will do its utmost" to help the O. of C. secure the livestock transit rate now being sought. The lower rates would mean a valuable feeder industry for Magic Valley ranchers.

J. H. Bland, chairman of the Legion decorations committee, spoke briefly and urged merchants to secure flags and patriotic decorations through the Legion.

Fuelling "Transit" Rate
At business sessions prior to the telephone executives' talk, K. L. The lower rates would mean a valuable feeder industry for Magic Valley ranchers.

6,000 Expected to Witness Mass Band Concert at UISB

POCATELLO, May 12 (Special).—One of the largest crowds in the history of Pocatello is anticipated for the huge mass band concert which will be the final event of the three-day national regional music festival which started here today. Well over 6,000 persons the Idaho Southern university stadium will seat are expected for the occasion, said Dean John R. Nichols, chairman of the stadium committee.

Yesterday's program included the following: Class B bands, Blackfoot, Shelley, Malad, Preston and Madison; class C bands, Pith, Victor; in the afternoon, more class C bands.

McMahon, Lava Hot Springs, American Falls, Downey and Driggs. Thursday also saw contests in boys' quartets, sousaphones, solo, cornet and baritone horn solo. Competition also took place in the trombone and French horn sections. Other contests will include vocal and instrumental work.

Added interest to the final event of the festival was made with the announcement that a team of performing Alaskan huskies would take part in the intermission ceremony on Saturday night.

The dogs, making a tour of the country with Earl Hammond, their instructor, will perform along with the special attraction of cowboy riding and drilling. Noted for their intelligence and stamina, the dogs will give a demonstration on the playing field of the stadium, carrying out the commands of their master as he calls out "start," "stop," "turn" and "reverse" as they pull an Alaskan dog sled mounted on wheels.

At the stadium Saturday evening the preliminary events will be announced with aerial bombs. The bands will make their grand entry at 7:30 p. m. at which time they will perform short marching demonstrations.

After this there will be a special musical number prepared by the University of Idaho, southern branch, music department under direction of Prof. Rudolph Goranson. Following this will be the cowboy drill by the riding academy and the demonstration by the dogs.

State Tariffs Ruin Business, Says Governor

DEARY, Ida., May 12 (UP)—Tariff walls between the states of the American union; economic boycotts and interstate strife are ruining the nation's business and prolonging hard times, Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen said today in a community address.

"This business of interstate competition, government against private business, has 26 of our states so scared they are actually operating under a tariff wall system.

"In effect, they have piled onto their neighbors an economic boycott which prevents easy trade and business relations between the states."

The governor pointed hopefully to a stirring in the grass roots of the country toward a common-sense way of dealing with problems.

"The change probably can't come about for several years. But there is nothing like the good old American brain to finally come to the rescue of the country."

He recommended "tax reduction, less government spending, balanced budget, higher farm prices."

Rail Companies Employed 1,284

CHICAGO, May 12 (AP)—The railroads of the nation cut another accident fatalities to 489 during 1938, the smallest total in 20 years, the national safety council announced today.

The report compared last year's 1,284 with 1,284 employees—deaths in 1933 and at least 1,000 for each year from 1923 to 1930, and estimated that 5,151 lives had been saved by the gradual reduction from the 1923 rate.

The council said injury cases also had declined to 13,014 during 1938, the lowest except for 1933, during the 15-year period.

Heartening Example

Best information from Mexico is that good progress has been made in settling the controversy over expropriation of American-owned oil properties. Donald Richberg, representing the American companies, has concluded another series of discussions with President Cardenas, this time rather quietly at Saltillo rather than in the capital. Official Mexican announcement is that progress was such that the chances are excellent for reaching an agreement.

If this advance information turns out to be correct, there will be good reason for both countries to rejoice.

With the world in a condition in which international dealings have no better basis than naked force or the threat of force, peaceable and reasonable settlement of this bitter controversy would be a shining example to the whole world.

It would show that, given genuine good-will and a determination to be reasonable and just, any international complication can be peaceably adjusted. The world needs an example like that right now.

When the settlement is made, as now seems probable, it will be on some such basis as this: Mexico will stand firm on the expropriation; the oil properties will be hers. Operation will be more or less turned back to the American former owners on some condition which will enable them to supervise the properties until they have taken out of them something approximating just compensation. Then, well, operation and all will gradually revert to Mexican hands, perhaps over a period of many years.

Neither side will be entirely satisfied by such a settlement. Certain stiff-necked Mexicans will always maintain that their government should have steered a perfectly straight course, taken their chances of disaster, and told the world to go climb a tree. Certain equally stiff-necked Americans will always maintain that the U. S. government should have sent in the marines at the first announcement.

But if settlement is really made on terms reasonably acceptable to both parties, it is probable that nine out of 10 people on both sides of the border will eventually be pleased.

Mexico and the United States are facing certain problems in common. Certain influences from abroad strike both with a common impact. The sooner this and all other controversies are cleared away, the sooner the road is opened wider for better understanding between two peoples who in the nature of things should be friends.

The desirability of this friendship goes beyond the present policies of the present governments of either country.

Governments and administrations come and go, policies are proposed, tried, and discarded. But through it all remains the fact that there are two neighbor peoples, with only a river dividing them, with many common problems.

Whatever brings them closer together in genuine understanding and friendship is good.

Congratulations, Lewiston

If the people of south central Idaho could make a trip to Lewiston right now they couldn't help being just a wee bit envious.

Workmen are now applying the finishing touches to the new $750,000 interstate bridge over Snake river between Lewiston and Clarkston, and on Friday, May 26, there will be a big dedication celebration.

What would impress the people of this territory is the fact that Lewiston and Clarkston had a sizeable bridge across the river at that point, and the new structure parallels the other bridge very closely.

Most likely there are very good reasons why the state of Idaho should assist in making this new bridge possible at Lewiston, but from our experience in this section of the state we cannot understand how Lewiston avoided being made a state-wide target because it would even want such an improvement.

Unlike others who are quick to jump at the opportunity for an inter-sectional fight, however, we'll not even question Lewiston's right to have its new bridge. We'll go even further than that in expressing the belief that the bridge is probably justified in every respect.

To both Lewiston and Clarkston, our sincere felicitations. We can appreciate just how you'll feel when Friday, May 26, rolls around. And before too long we hope we will be receiving congratulations from north Idaho. We, too, have had a little bridge problem, which now looks as if it might work out satisfactorily.

No indeed, one doesn't—and if you don't believe me, pal, just look up Arlow Anderson, the Investors' Syndicate agent who hits this town from Boise.

Arlow and another gent were having breakfast at Lynn Stewart's emporium Thursday morning. They were discussing the case of one Lester M. Bonahan, Buffalo, N. Y., fellow who wrecked his car at the Jerome golf course curve. The paper said that Bonahan wasn't hurt although his machine turned over several times, and his chief regret was that he lost his hat.

Well, sir, Arlow quoth like thudly to his friend:

"That guy's just a plain d— fool. Getting out of a smashup like that and then worrying about his hat."

The slinger sitting next to Anderson on the other side tapped his shoulder:

"Take a look at me," said the slinger, "the man who had the accident!"

Whoop! Arlow's face went a deep purple.

But the new York chap was good natured about it, chuckled, and the upshot was the two of 'em made a have Thursday luncheon together.

SERIAL STORY

BORDER ADVENTURE

BY OREN ARNOLD

COPYRIGHT, 1938, NEWS SERVICE, INC.

Yesterday Betty had no chance to slip away, but she gave three white sheets on the floor and a signal. The others see that she was not alone and she still up. Barro is gone!

CHAPTER XXIII

WHEN 10 o'clock and then 11 o'clock and then 12 o'clock came, Betty Mary began to realize that she had acted foolishly when she had tied three sheets to scrubby trees hoping rescuers miles away would see them. Surely, if help were coming it would have come long since, she reasoned.

So despair engulfed her, there in the Barro kitchen. She had done more manual labor in the past 18 hours than she had done in a whole year before. She had washed countless pieces of china and silverware after leaving the laundry. She had peeled and chopped onions, had crushed dried peppers that stung her nostrils and eyes, had stirred a great vat of greasy chili that became appalling as fatigue assailed her.

But she didn't care. Just look up Arlow Anderson, the Investors' Syndicate agent who hits this town from Boise.

Arlow and another gent were having breakfast at Lynn Stewart's emporium Thursday morning. They were discussing the case of one Lester M. Bonahan, Buffalo, N. Y., fellow who wrecked his car at the Jerome golf course curve. The paper said that Bonahan wasn't hurt although his machine turned over several times, and his chief regret was that he lost his hat.

This last command was addressed to Betty Mary, who was standing nearby.

Instantly, she recoiled from touching a piece of raw beef weighing half as much as her. But she dared not refuse. The Mexican, who was standing by the canvas roof of the truck and turned with a hunk of raw meat to face Betty Mary. He saw at once that "Pasa-a-este" he suddenly hissed a low warning, then whispered, "Don't be alarmed, Betty Mary! Are you all right?"

"Oh!" Betty Mary screamed the exclamation. The man was Hope Kildare!

"Take this meat, woman!" he bawled at her, then, in Spanish, "You hear what that fellow says? What you think you are, the grand lady, huh?"

He leaned toward her managing to squeeze her wrist as she took the meat from his hand. By the force of will then she controlled herself, swallowing hard, and staring at him. But then she took her breath and went back to work.

When she came back for more of the beef a quick glance showed Hope that nobody from the house was observing them. Kitchen windows were closed, and the back door was locked. He slipped away, and guards followed out of hearing. Betty and Hope got no more chance to talk for the moment, however, because the bewildered old wood hauler shuffled up just then.

"If there any garbage or old trash, you can take it out, you hear?" he asked of them, in Spanish.

Hope had been gripping Betty Mary's arm, and she felt her response now, a tightening of her own muscles.

"Get the devil out of here and haul your wood, old man!" Hope ordered aloud. Then he whispered to Betty, "It's Sherry! You know?"

"Oh Sherry! I could—just kiss you!" She was whispering excitedly about to sob. "You—came like you, and Hope, are such—"

"Yeah, sure. But for Pete's sake, stop it!"

She forced herself to enter the act now, and spoke aloud in Spanish.

"I will see if you can have the trash. Somebody must haul it away."

SHE asked the cook about it and he told her irritably to do what she pleased with it. A pile of empty packing boxes, papers, and other trash was piled up in the kitchen.

"No," he answered. "No body knew."

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

By BRUCE CATTON
Evening Times Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 15.—One thing which makes argument over the neutrality law so heated is that the opposing forces have discovered a common idea about the immediate danger of war in Europe.

The group which endorses the European economic aid and wants to see the neutrality law modified thinks that a European war may come at any moment. Its attitude is best summed up, perhaps, by the testimony which Raymond Leslie Beall of the Foreign Policy Association gave the other day before the senate foreign relations committee.

FOR AND AGAINST

Briefly, Dr. Beall argued like this: The neutrality law hampers France and England more than it does Germany, hence makes their defeat in war more likely. Germany, he said, has a better chance to have big ideas. If they beat France and England, the day when they could pressure is brought that much nearer.

Hence, it is to our interest to support France and England more than Germany. The move we have made to date have almost certainly averted a general war in Europe.

The opposition argument is well presented by Frederick J. Libby, head of the National Council for the Prevention of War. It goes like this:

Neither Hitler nor Mussolini would fight, neither wants "world domination," and neither is likely to encroach on our preserves. They are fighting for certain concessions which will have to be made eventually. The only danger in the situation is that the United States will come to France and England and back, we may encourage them to fight.

So there you have it. Each side.

see the world situation in a completely different light. One side thinks that Roosevelt is helping to avert a world war, the other thinks he is only making it more likely.

Speaking of foreign affairs, for background to today's news go to the library and study the newspaper file for April 1919, just 19 years ago.

The Versailles peace conference was on at that time. Italy was demanding World War led to the shape of territory across the Adriatic. The reparations committee was supporting the demand that Germany could properly be asked to pay. The Bolsheviks were in control in Hungary and also in Munich. Socialists and communists were fighting in Italian industrial cities.

Wednesday Wilson was premier of France. American aid in case of a new war with Germany, Japan was being sent out of her claims to the Chinese. A meat famine was reported in Berlin. The German delegation coming to Versailles to sign the treaty was nearly as the people.

And at the end of the month another war correspondent, writing about Wilson's death at the conference, closed his dispatch with these words:

"The world in a great peace that would stamp out militarism and end war has been fading from the minds of the people. The President has been preparing by influences that operated against anything in the way of heroic action."

It would have taken the seventh son of a seventh son to see 1919, back in those days.

PRESIDENT'S RECORDS (DISK FORM)

President Roosevelt is going to be the first to have his cabinet members of his cabinet.

To be "waxed" in the jargon of the radio business, is to make a speech which is received phonographically, so that it can be broadcast later when the speaker has gone on about other things.

Transcriptions have been made of many of the President's speeches, but never before has he spoken directly to the radio with any immediate broadcasting whiter.

Now, however, a series of disks, "United States Government Reports," will be prepared by the National emergency council. President Roosevelt will be interviewed by the Associated Press, head of the N.E.C., and the interview will be sent to 150 selected radio stations. They will be on the air at 10 o'clock and will be selected by the individual stations.

After that, Mr. Mellett will interview the cabinet members, and their disks will be released at weekly intervals. After then, probably, will come the heads of the various independent agencies.

NAZIS ANGRILY REFUSE TO DISCUSS DANZIG SITUATION

FREE CITY PAPER SAYS BERLIN TO SETTLE TROUBLE

BERLIN, May 12 (AP)—Inspired Nazi sources said angrily today that Germany would refuse to enter into any discussion with Great Britain concerning the status of Danzig.

The attitude was even more emphatic in Danzig itself, where the official Nazi newspaper organ said there was no possibility of any "mediation" being refused, but that there was no necessity for a plebiscite to determine Danzig's status because Berlin would determine it.

Nazi organs complained that the speech of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain, warning that Britain would fight if Polish independence were threatened by an attack on Danzig, and the declaration of policy made to the French chamber of deputies by Premier Edward Daladier did nothing to clear up European problems. Both Chamberlain and Daladier, it was held, merely defended an "encirclement" policy and big armaments programs.

The papers say Chamberlain "Out of the shamelessness to which Chamberlain and Daladier seem to have given themselves, emerges a dangerous, highly noteworthy venture to which we will accord the closest attention," said the Zwischung Blatt in a first page editorial.

Displaying the story over most of their first pages, the afternoon papers carried portions of the speeches by the British and French premiers, interspersed with frequent questions and exclamations in parentheses.

The national Zeitung of Essen, personal organ of Field Marshal Hermann Goering, said:

No Value in Discussion

"Approves of Danzig: We place no value in discussing this problem with Chamberlain. We do not need to because Danzig is purely a German city and the Danzig problem has no connection with the problem of Polish sovereignty."

"Should Britain, as indicated by Chamberlain's speech, want to interfere in this matter, it will be undisturbed in the conviction of its legal right and the power of its political position."

SENIORS HOPE TO ATTEND COLLEGE

MOSCOW, May 12 (Special)—Six out of every 10 high school seniors in this year's class hope to go to college, three plan to enter vocational schools, and one still doesn't know what he or she wants to do.

Out of a total of 8,650 seniors recently contacted in an annual intentions survey by the University of Idaho publications department, 3,546 or 68.6 per cent have collegiate aspirations. Of these, 2,812 or 79.3 per cent plan to secure their higher education in Idaho. The University of Idaho heads the list of institutional preferences with 1,237, followed by the southern branch with 715.

Business colleges and nursing training appeal most to the 2,307 seniors in the non-college group. Their preferences rank as follows: business college, 381; hospitals, 335; beauty schools, 100; aviation, 142; dental schools, 34; miscellaneous, 178; and no choice, 440.

Vocational choices of the seniors who want to go to college follow: education, 609; engineering, 407; agriculture, 207; forestry, 158; home economics, 153; nursing, 110; art and architecture, 102; physical education, 101; music, 98; journalism, 90; medicine, 82; aviation, 84; law, 66; pharmacy, 45; mining, 34; beauty, 14; dentistry, 11; veterinary science, 3; miscellaneous, 70; and no choice, 274.

Retail Volume for U. S. Shows Gain

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—Business sentiment was more cheerful this week, the retail trade expanded rather sharply, while wholesale volume was boosted by requests and advance purchases of fall merchandise. Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., said today.

Retail volume for the nation was estimated five to 10 per cent above a year ago.

Long-Time Resident Honored at Funeral

BOHLE, May 12 (Special)—Last rites for William P. Higgins, 64, for 15 years a resident of Buhl, were held Wednesday at the Buhl Catholic church with Father J. O. Dolan in charge of the service.

Pallbearers were Jim Crow, Harry B. Scholter, George Walery, Fred LaVella, John Wagner and Lud Klirke.

Mr. Higgins died at the Twin Falls county general hospital Sunday from the effects of pneumonia.

RESCUE

RUPERT, May 12 (Special)—Sixteen cows, four horses, an automobile and a barrel of gasoline might have gone up in smoke—not to mention a possible explosion—when flames hit the gasoline if it hadn't been for Paul OCO who spotted the fire.

The boys noticed fire at the Gottlieb Meyer ranch east of the Merrill hatches, Paul. They dashed in, threw the gasoline and then returned and saw the gasoline had not been for Paul OCO who spotted the fire.

The flames wrecked a barn and haystack.

PEACE OFFICERS JOIN WITH FRIENDS TO HONOR BRACKEN

With hundreds of friends filling the Presbyterian church for last rites and also attending brief graveside services last night, peace officers joined with friends to honor the late Craig T. Bracken, local police officer who was shot and killed early this week by a 20-year-old gunman.

Attending the rites were peace officers and friends from over this entire section of the state. They came from all walks of life to pay tribute to a man who, according to Rev. George L. Clark, died in line of duty while protecting the safety of the commonwealth as a peace officer. In a peculiar sense he laid his life down for you and me.

The minister, at the services in the church, said Bracken was born in Barnard, Kan., on Feb. 11, 1894. With his parents and other members of his family he came to Twin Falls in 1913 and in 1923 married Miss Pearl Anderson. To this union were born three children.

His mother, three brothers, his wife and three children, as well as other close relatives, survive.

"He came to the end of his earthly journey comparatively early," Rev. Clark said, "being but a little way beyond his 45th year."

"He had many friends, he was well known in this community by reason of his many contacts with the public. His sacrificial service calls for our deepest and lasting gratitude."

Served Country

"On an earlier day he went overseas in uniform to serve his country's flag and to defend her honored glory. Upon his return he took his place as a citizen to help bear the burdens of a common humanity. His marching days are over. His service period holds the final chapter. Out of the changeable into the realm of the changeless he moves on ahead of his fellows and from among those hiding in the shadow of his heart."

Merit System Set For State Public Welfare Workers

BOISE, May 12 (AP)—Merit system examinations for the department of public welfare will be proposed at a meeting of the state welfare board within a week, Emory Allen, welfare commissioner, said today.

Affon said the system, authorized by the 1929 legislature for the department would be in effect by September.

MARKETING DATA READY

PORTLAND, Ore., May 12 (Special)—Secretary of Commerce Harry I. Hopkins has announced that a handbook of marketing information covering every state, county and each of the 3,165 cities having a population of 2,500 or more will soon be available for distribution to businessmen. The studies are part of the commerce department's "aid to business" program. They bring together in one volume all the available significant county and city statistics bearing on the marketing of goods produced for use by American consumers. Secretary Hopkins described the handbook as "one of the most valuable collections of consumer information ever issued."

WEATHER BOOSTS FARM ACTIVITIES

Farming activities found favorable weather in Idaho and the south central region last week, although a whole weather was too dry for best growth, according to the USDA weather bureau summary received here today from Boise.

Despite the fact that much of the week seemed cold to south Idahoans, frost was reported only at some of the high elevations.

Early-Seeded Grains Good

Seeding of spring grains continues with considerable speed for the state as a whole, and early-seeded fields (as in the south central district) were in good condition.

Lack of moisture, the USDA survey shows, "was rather unfavorable for beets." Despite that fact, however, beet thinning is expected to reach peak soon.

Barley is generally in good condition, the summary points out; pastures and ranges are fair to good although some lower ranges are dry; planting of corn and potatoes was active and there are "moderately promising" except in spots where apricots were damaged by early frosts.

Summary by counties with only three Idaho Valley counties listed for the past week, shows:

Prepare for Beans, Spuds

Twin Falls—Small grains about all seeded; preparation of ground for beans, corn and potatoes underway. Beet thinning progressing; expected to reach peak soon.

Lincoln—Fairly good week but still dry and some drying winds; water being applied as fast as possible; too dry for spring grains and beets, some will have to be "watered up"; pastures, ranges and unirrigated meadows dry.

Camas—Winter wheat excellent; meadows, pastures and ranges good.

ELEVATOR BLAST LOSS $4,000,000

CHICAGO, May 12 (AP)—The charred remains of 3,000,000 bushels of grain smoldered on the edge of a steel Chicago grain today as a funeral pyre for eight men who perished in a $4,000,000 grain elevator explosion and fire.

Police and firemen were certain still smoldering embers prevented a search for bodies.

There was a possibility no bodies ever would be recovered. The eight missing men were believed to have been working high up in a 160-foot tall granary in which the explosion originated. Four others who had been working at ground level were hurt fighting the blaze.

The fire consumed 3,000,000 bushels of wheat, corn and soybeans and five huge wooden bins in which it was stored. The grain was valued at $2,500,000 and the buildings at $1,500,000.

At the church service a quartet composed of E. J. Coburn, P. W. Noble, V. E. Morgan and C. E. Greve sang "Abide With Me," and "Come Ye Disciples."

Salmon Student Wins Scholarship

MOBOW, May 12 (Special)—Jack W. McKinney, Salmon, one of the most promising journalism students the University of Idaho has turned out in recent years, has been selected from a large list of applicants to receive a $1,000 scholarship for the next year in Northwestern university's Medill school of Journalism.

The scholarship covers tuition for a year's work leading to a master's degree. McKinney is editor of the Idaho Argonaut, semi-weekly student newspaper, and was elected not long ago to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society. He will receive his degree June 8.

HOSPITAL SHIFTS TOUR TO SUNDAY

Observance of hospital day in Twin Falls will take place Sunday, May 14, it was announced today by H. G. Jopson, superintendent of the county general hospital.

Originally the observance here was set for today but a last minute change switched it to next Sunday. The change in dates follows the opportunity to inspect the local institution.

Tea on Lawn

The hospital here will be open to the public from 2 to 5 p. m. and tea will be served on the lawn during that time. At the same time two tennis courts, constructed from funds received through local and outside donations, will be dedicated.

The courts will be open for use of the general public but, because they were constructed for recreation among hospital staff employees, as such the employees will receive first recognition. The courts are of cement.

In announcing the Sunday observance of hospital day, Mr. Jopson said:

"Visit your hospital Sunday and see for yourself what a wonderful, efficient and sympathetic institution a hospital really is."

Those donating funds for construction of the two tennis courts, and the amount subscribed, follow:

Donations for construction of the courts, totaling $844.52, were as follows: Twin Falls county physicians, $220; Boise-Payette Lumber company, $25; Idaho Department store, $25; Kingsbury Drug store, $25; Diamond Hardware, $10; Independent Meat market, $10; Idaho Power company, $25; Troy Laundry, $50; Farland laundry, $10; Evening Times, $25; Twin Falls Coca Cola bottling company, $10; District Nurses association, $10; nurses of the district health unit, $15; firms outside of Twin Falls county, $115; Kingsberg hardware, $75.22; and advanced pipe totaling $70.33.

To a Woman, Every Day is "EXPOSITION" Day

No woman can resist this "Exposition" of facts about her figure. For the scales give her a frank opinion on how she looks in the world in general.

It's a brave woman who socks opinions about her coffee. She's wise when she realizes that the serving of coffee is the "Exposition" of the meal. And she's wiser still when she chooses Hills Bros. Coffee to exhibit in the cup. Its matchless, uniform flavor has been the delight of millions of women for sixty-one years. Again and again those who serve Hills Bros. # MURPHY DRIVES AHEAD WITH PURGE OF FEDERAL JUDICIAL

U. S. ATTORNEY PLANS TO CLEAN OUT ALL 'UNFIT'

WASHINGTON, May 12 (U.S. Attorney General Frank Murphy's campaign to purge the federal judiciary of politics, patronage and inefficiency has just begun, it was indicated today as the Justice department courts came under inquiry. Murphy has promised to remove "every unfit person."

Current but unconfirmed in Washington is a report that Thomas G. Corcoran is spending considerable time in the Justice department on a hunt for conditions which would be better corrected by the administration than discovered by its enemies.

Others to Move
Corcoran for some time has been charged to the Justice department as an assistant without pay. He remains on the payroll of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The United Press has been officially, but cautiously, informed that "quite a few judges still are to be moved out." Where or how they are to be moved has not been revealed, although the number has been estimated at six.

From Marshal Up
Murphy's house cleaning extends from the office of United States marshal up. The most spectacular development was resignation of Judge Martin Anton, of New York, a case in which District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey of New York county intervened in time to share in the ouster action.

Murphy holds that federal courts have slumped in public estimation. He excludes the supreme court from that indictment and he explained that it is for the sake of the few that the lower bench generally suffers.

BOOSTERS CHART IRRIGATION TOPIC

Irrigation projects will form one highlight of discussion at the May meeting of Southern Idaho, Inc., Monday night at Fred's cafe, Rupert, according to word issued by Ward C. Howard, Jerome, secretary of the booster organization.

The meeting is set for 7 p. m. Monday. Al Reading, Wendell, president, will be presiding officer.

The irrigation discussion will include lower Snake river projects, including some east of Twin Falls that are proposed with federal funds, and others west of here that require private capital. Minutaka extension project will also come up for comment.

Raindrops sometimes require an hour to reach the earth.

HAILEY

A number of Wood River Junior Chamber of Commerce members were to attend the state Jaycee meeting at Boise today, and others will go Saturday for the second day of the convention, according to Pete Bonin, Wood River Jaycee president.

Joe Boyer of Salt Lake City was arrested by Officer Tomlinson and arraigned before Judge Geo. A. McLeod. He was fined $25 and costs for reckless driving.

Mrs. Anna Coates of Richfield had a baby girl at the Hailey Clinic hospital May 8.

Mrs. Iva Brisbane, Hailey, entered the hospital on May 5 and Mrs. L. G. Cochran, Bellevue, entered May 9, suffering from a stroke.

Halley residents will greatly miss S. Z. Thayer and family when they leave for Cambridge, Idaho, where he was transferred. He has been local manager of the West Coast Power Co. in Hailey for the past four years.

Clyde Bret of Hailey was committed to the state hospital at Blackfoot by District Judge D. H. Sutphen. The court found him addicted to the use of drinks and stimulants.

Halley Rotarians and their wives attended the district convention at Idaho Falls: Frank Moore, president of the Halley Rotary, and Mrs. Moore; Mrs. Joseph Fuld, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Schaefer; Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Goodwin.

The Altar and Rosary society will hold its regular monthly meeting next Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock in the Hailey parish house. Important business will be taken up at this meeting, and it is hoped that a large attendance of members will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Van Guilder and daughter of San Valley, left Monday for New York. They will be gone about three weeks.

Last Rites Honor Mrs. Lawrence

HAGERMAN, May 12 (Special)—Funeral services for Mrs. Edward Lawrence were held Sunday at the Hagerman L. D. S. church with Bishop Emerson Pugmire officiating, assisted by James A. Allen.

A quartet, Mrs. Joseph Haycock, Mrs. Emerson Boyer, Keith Collier and Pete Duncan sang "Behold 'Tis Evening," "I Have Read of a Beautiful City" and "Rock of Ages."

Palbearers were Charles Skinner, John Stark, Fred Conklin, Parley Watson, Parley Penfold and Henry Clark.

Interment was in the L. O. O. F. cemetery, Hagerman.

Mrs. Edward Lawrence, 69, was born in Gardner, Ill., Sept. 13, 1869. She was married Sept. 2, 1888, to Edward E. Coles at Gardner.

Following the death of her husband in 1906 she moved to Wendell in 1910. She was married to Edward Lawrence of Wendell in 1919. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence moved to Hagerman in 1920 where she resided until the time of her death which occurred in the Gooding hospital May 4.

Surviving, besides her husband, are two daughters and one son, Mrs.

Erna Wright, Cummings, N. D.; Mrs. Martha McCleod, Tuttle, and Elbert A. Coles, Blumark, N. D. Also surviving are 17 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Jerome Camp Fire Group Names Staff

JEROME, May 12 (Special)—At the meeting of the Camp Fire group Aowika, Monday at the Lincoln school, an election of officers was held and Peggy Hard was elected president for the year. Other officers named include vice-president, Joyce Cooke; secretary, Edna Burger; treasurer, Edith Davis; and scribe, Clara Lou Meuser.

Plans were laid and arrangements are being made for a booth at the fair this summer. Leah Nicholson was admitted as a member and the rank of trailseekers was taken by Josephine Conklin and Sylvia Wagonmott.

Mrs. Verle Sullivan will be in charge of the group during the summer months in the absence of the leader, Miss Edna Hoffine.

...and then see if you can truthfully say:

"There's no difference between gasolines"

To all honest doubters: we ask only this—Fill your tank with the new SKY CHIEF gasoline and do two things:

First, while the engine is idling, throttle it way down. You'll notice immediately—engine throb has quieted. Vibration is hard to detect. There's a new smoothness in your engine.

Now take it out on the open road. Run it up the steepest hill. There you'll discover its amazing anti-knock qualities. For the first time in your life you seem to be coasting uphill! The action of SKY CHIEF in your car is hard to describe. It is like the smooth even flow of flying.

After you have done these two things with this great new luxury gasoline, then see if you don't honestly think that there is a difference between gasolines—and plenty!

SKY CHIEF costs no more than other premium gasolines and is made for motorists who want the best. Sold side by side with the dependable, popular-priced Texaco Fire-Chief.

FACTS (FOR THE TECHNICALLY MINDED)

VOLATILITY: SKY CHIEF combines an instant and sustained volatility which gives record quick-starting and acceleration... without tendency to vapor lock.
ANTI-KNOCK: Its extremely high antiknock quality permits a higher peak of efficiency and power without need of plug.
ECONOMY: Because you get more work from a given amount of gasoline, there's a distinct saving. SKY CHIEF shortens miles, stretches gallons, flattens bills.

BUILDING BOOMS FOR HONG KONG

HONG KONG (AP)—Despite the uncertainty of Hong Kong's future there is no slackening of the building boom which has been in progress since the first months of Chinese-Japanese hostilities.

New houses are being erected over the colony. In some cases filling gaps long vacant to the regret of residents who had come to regard those as "slums."

Large numbers of the more well-to-do refugees from North China and the interior have decided to make their homes in Hong Kong displaying a tenacious confidence in the colony as a repository for investment.

Banks Cut Rates All banks, foreign and Chinese, tell the same story on increasing influx of life deposits, some banks even being compelled to cut their interest rates to a minimum and to make a charge for "working" current accounts. A procedure unprecedented in Hong Kong. They all say, too, that the bulk of investments is going into real estate, investors apparently taking the line that buildings are destructible, but the only danger to land is taxation or confiscation. The former is not without its compensations; the latter is considered extremely unlikely.

The keen demand for dwellings persists and the government has had to intervene to prevent rent profiteering.

This demand, however, is not viewed favorably. It has developed a feverish race to complete buildings in time before the boom wanes and some new records for construction have been created. It has also added to the colony's already heavy defense expenditures.

Military authorities, for some time past, have been concerned with the question of accommodation for units and families of the Hong Kong garrison for whom no military housing is available. The number of these leases has been increased in proportion to the increased strength of the British garrison since the outbreak of hostilities in China.

Army Rentals Skyrocket A military officer concerned with the question of accommodation said that such rentals, in most cases have increased by more than 100 per cent, from the additional burden for the already heavily laden British taxpayer.

There is growing resentment among the solid British community against this "opportunistic" building; they say the true interests of the colony call for steady development instead of "speculative boom construction."

The aim is to prevent overcrowding, a problem which appears unworkable with the increasing Japanese incursions in northern and central China.

But there are an increasing number of organized appeals to the government to check speculation, appear which accept over-crowding as a natural permanent state of affairs but which insist on a better house being forced upon the dweller.

AMATEUR DRAMA USES NEW STAGE

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Trouping, the dream of every stage amateur, has come true for a play cast of the Portland city theater, and in streamlined proportions at that.

The local cast will appear before the Confederacy of Community theaters meeting in Washington, May 11-13, with an "intimate" set play without scenery, with the audience ringing the "stage" on all sides like a boxing match.

Five men and four women including Director Mary Morphy board Union Pacific's streamliner "City of Portland" May 7 to take Rachel Cornbert when Ladies Meet, a sophisticated comedy, to Washington.

Contrast from Past It will be a far cry from the "Curse you Jack Dutton" days of the drama when troupers jumped from town to town in one-night stands, sometimes just ahead of the sheriff.

Technique of the "intimate" play, comparatively new, has been developed largely by western community theaters.

An editor stage magazine was so interested when he saw one of Portland's productions that he invited the group to take a play to Washington.

The Portland theater will present the only guest production at the convention.

Inspired by "Little Eva" The non-scenery play stems from the simple source of elocution performance, Morphy said. Some director saw an elocutionist doing "Little Eva" in the middle of a drawing room and wondered what a play couldn't be produced virtually in the audience's laps also.

Glen Hughes, head of the dramatic department at the University of Washington, was credited with pioneering such performances in the west. His Penthouse Players planned a national reputation with plays in a circular room, the audience sitting in a ring which formed the stage.

"Props" are used and costumes, but no scenery except perhaps a stylized tree, a chair to represent a stairway, etc.

Director Morphy, following Hughes' lead, adapts scenes to the space possible on the "stage," pursues the plot faithfully, and leaves the set to the ability of the actors and the imagination of the audience.

CRATERS OF MOON OPENING SUCCESS

SHOSHONE, May 12 (Special)—According to reports of committees of the local Chamber of Commerce and other returning delegations from various parts of Idaho, Sunday's formal opening for the season of Craters of the Moon was largely attended and a day of good weather was pleasantly spent in that spectacular section of the state.

A large crowd participated and several bands headed delegations from several towns. The principal address was made by Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen, and several others likewise spoke to the throng. It proved an ideal day for the outing and the roads were in good condition.

Shoshone's business men attended in good number and provided transportation for the local high school band.

England, Turkey Sign Long-Term Security Agreement

TWO COUNTRIES TO GIVE MUTUAL AID ON ATTACKS

By FREDERICK KUN
LONDON, May 12 (Special)—Great Britain and Turkey have agreed to conclude a definite long-term agreement in the interests of their national security. Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain announced today in the house of commons.

The agreement was understood to provide for mutual cooperation in the eastern Mediterranean. Turkey would aid Britain in case of an attack on Egypt, Palestine or Russia. Britain would come to Turkey's assistance if the latter were attacked.

The accord definitely brings Turkey into the European anti-aggression front which Britain and France are building up, and it was believed such an arrangement would be made shortly with Russia to make the bloc complete.

Negotiations Continue
Chamberlain said negotiations with Turkey are continuing and that they show an "identity of view."

Pending completion of a definitive agreement, Chamberlain added, the two nations have agreed to cooperate effectively to meet each other all possible assistance in the event of aggression leading to war in the Mediterranean.

France also was on the verge of a similar understanding with Turkey. Regarding the British-Turkish understanding, Chamberlain said:

"It has been agreed that the two countries will conclude a definitive, long-term agreement of a defensive character in the interests of their national security."

"Pending completion of a definitive agreement, his majesty's government and the Turkish government have declared that in event of an act of aggression leading to war in the Mediterranean, they would be prepared to cooperate effectively to meet each other all the aid and assistance in their power."

Payette Driver Awaits Trial in Killing of Two

An amended complaint was filed and Christensen's bail was set at $2,000.

Pianos Offered in U. S. Contest
Natlwide competition intended to stimulate inclusion of musical training in the education of children offers three pianos and 135 cash prizes, according to Paul E. Anderson, Twin Falls piano and music dealer.

The contest, sponsored by W. W. Kimball company, Chicago, calls for 50-word letters on the topic, "Why I Want a Piano for My Child." Top awards will be a deluxe artist-also grand piano; a console with tone chamber, and a studio upright.

The competition is coincident with music week. It is co-sponsored here by Mr. Anderson.

Laundry, Cleaners Meeting Postponed
Laundrymen and dry cleaners of southern Idaho will convene in Twin Falls next October instead of May 25-27, George Sandholts, convention chairman, said today.

The two groups which were to have held their combined annual sessions were Southern Idaho Laundry Owners' association and Southern Idaho Dry Cleaners' association.

Burley Man Gets Syrup from Spuds; Face Powder is One of By-Products!

BURLEY, May 12 (Special)—When is a potato not a potato? When it's corn syrup just like the kind you've always used in your home.

Orrville Gano, Burley inventor who perfected the process whereby potato shreds are manufactured, has now invented and made application for patents on another potato product, this time syrup.

The syrup can be made cheaply, according to Mr. Gano, and has as its by-products face powder, an insulating material for houses similar to cork, and a stock food high in protein value.

"Dextrine or white syrup for wholesale trade is the first product," remarked the Gano company inventor, "and this will be followed with the amber table syrup, which tastes exactly like the corn syrup and can be made in various flavors."

Last fall, Mr. Gano received a patent on machinery used to produce potato shreds. These shreds can be made into mashed potatoes at a moment's notice and are now being manufactured on a large scale here by the Rogers Brothers Food company, which has leased the Potato corporation, G. W. Sternke is manager.

STORAGE WATER INCREASE NOTED

All three principal reservoirs serving this section of Idaho today showed increases in storage over a week ago, it was shown today in a report received from Lynn Grandall, watermaster, by the Twin Falls Canal company.

The report shows Jackson lake, at the present time, is impounding 661,240 acre feet against 612,370 a week ago and 466,330 a year ago. It also reports water impounded at American falls reservoir totals 712,870 acre feet against 1,702,240 a week ago and 1,706,150 a year ago. Likewise Lake Walcott shows 55,430 acre feet today against 94,490 a week ago and 89,600 a year ago.

Precipitation on the watershed during the past week included 1.8 of an inch at Ashton. Snow depths listed include Lewis lake divide, 56 inches; Togwotee pass, 46 inches, and none at the Snake river station.

Mother's Day Marks Heavy Gift Buying
Mother's Day has become one of the United States outstanding buying days. And in view of this fact, the Twin Falls popular furniture store, has stocked one of the most complete selections of Mother's Day gifts in Twin Falls. Particular attention has been given gifts which help beautify the home—a place that is close to Mother's heart. For in her home is reflected all the warmth and generosity of her fine nature. And so Sweet's stock features such things as hand-some mirrors, wall shelves, occasional chairs, club chairs, writing desks, all types of lamps—all things which will help Mother to be more proud than ever of her home. Be sure to make your selection early at Sweet's. Adv.

Track Meet
After the dancing, the school adjourned to Lincoln field to see junior high team compete in the track meet. In light, medium and heavy-weight divisions.

Lawrence Landin, Austin Wallace, S. B. Jackson and Bernard Martin supervised the track meet. At 1 p. m. the school annual picnic was held, with each home room and its teacher planning lunch and games.

Friday Nighters Outing
JEROME, May 12 (Special)—The last meeting of the Friday Nighters will be held tonight. A pot-luck picnic and steak fry will be held at Shoshone falls. All who wish to attend will be the Presbyterian church at 7 p. m. sharp. Transportation will be furnished.

Golden West Coffee
The coffee plant is an evergreen shrub, bearing fruit twice a year. The ripe fruit has a bright red color and resembles the canning cherry. The outer covering is a tough hull; under this is a pulpy material, within which are found the green coffee beans, each covered with a thin parchment.
