NAZIS, ITALY TO SIGN FORMAL MILITARY PACT NEXT WEEK

LEADERS OF TWO COUNTRIES WILL PROCLAIM UNITY

BERLIN, May 14 (AP)—Adolf Hitler and Count Galeazzo Ciano, Italian foreign minister, will make important speeches here next week on the occasion of the formal signing of a German-Italian military pact.

Hitler was expected to say that the armistice of Germany and Italy now constitute a single unit in support of German and Italian diplomatic programs.

It was reported in some quarters that the government would make some sort of declaration within the next few weeks directed against powers which have aligned themselves with Great Britain and France in what Germans say is an "encirclement" policy.

Mentioned as targets were Turkey and Poland, particularly, were mentioned as targets.

It was even rumored in some quarters Hitler might withdraw his diplomatic representatives from these countries.

Nazis were understood to be deeply angered over Turkey's entrance into the defensive treaty with Britain. It was reported Baron Franz von Papen, sent to Turkey as ambassador to back the pact, soon was called home. Nazi sources predicted the government would take some sort of retaliatory action against Turkey.

On German View

Ciano is expected to arrive Sunday and to spend three or four days here and at Munich. The German-Italian pact is to be signed, at a time to be selected, at Hitler's new chancellery.

It was reported peremptorily that some high Vatican official might visit Berlin next month, to pursue the pope's efforts to settle the differences between the "axis" powers and the British-French bloc.

Cardinal Maglione, papal secretary of state, might visit Berlin, Paris, London and Warsaw.

Hitler continued his inspection of the new Lüne line of fortifications on the French frontier.

"We are going to operate this office according to regulations of the federal government and we are not going to pay any attention to 'pressure' groups."

RELAXATION ASSURED ON 'BUSINESS DETERRENT' TAX

SOLON PRESENTS NEW PROPOSALS FOR ROOSEVELT

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON, May 16 (UP)—Relaxation of "business deterrent" taxes was practically assured today under a conservative Democratic program presented to the White House almost as an ultimatum. The plan would abandon the New Deal's undistributed corporation surplus tax.

Chairman Pat Harrison, D. Miss., of the senate finance committee is understood to have presented conservative proposals to President Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt did not commit himself but objected that the program would penalize small business. Differences between conservatives and the President are forcing congress rapidly to the brink of bitter dispute over relaxation of so-called "business deterrent" taxes.

Confers with President

Harrison was one of a group which conferred "two hours" on "taxes" at the White House yesterday. The President suggested another conference.

Approximately $1,700,000,000 of corporation and manufacturers' excise levies expire this year. The least the house can do on taxes is to pass a resolution extending these through 1940.

If administration pressure limits house action to such a resolution, Harrison is understood to have informed the President and Chairman Robert L. Doughton, D. N. C., of the house ways and means committee that the senate will do the proposed tax revising. It then would be a question whether the house would stand pat or give in to the senate.

Predicts Revision

Doughton left the White House conference predicting tax revision at this session, but in general terms. The President has said repeatedly that he would accept corporation tax revision provided it met two requirements:

Revised taxes must raise as much as existing levies.

Abandonment of the corporation surplus tax must be accompanied by some other safeguard against tax avoidance.

Harrison was understood to feel his plan meets those requirements. Mr. Roosevelt was said to have received it coolly.

The plan Harrison outlined was substantially as follows: Abandon the undistributed surplus tax, a maximum 2 1/2 per cent levy on accumulations of surplus by corporations earning more than $25,000 net annually.

Three-Year Carry-Over

Remove the $2,000 limitation upon charges of capital losses against capital gains for tax purposes. Permit corporations to carry over operating losses for three years to be charged for tax purposes against operating income which might develop in that period.

Substitute an 18 per cent corporation income tax for the present rate which is graduated from 15 to 19. This tax would be on corpo-

NEED FOR ADDED WATER REVEALED

BOISE, May 16 (UP)—Out of $2,400 families migrating into seven western states from the drought-stricken middle west, only 3,000 families were established on farms. R. F. Walter of Denver, chief engineer of the U. S. bureau of reclamation said today.

If all reclamation projects now under construction were completed and one family was placed on each 40 acres, there would still be 32,000 families without farms," Walter said. "This shows the further need for reclamation."

Walter said work would start soon on the $10,000,000 Twin Springs project 20 miles north of Arrowhead to give supplemental water for the Boise project. He said a survey of the Weiser river would start soon.

GUARDSMEN ON DUTY AS MORE KENTUCKY MINES OPEN

NON-UNION PITTS READY TO START OPERATION TODAY

By WILLIAM LAWRENCE
HARLAN, Ky., May 16 (U.P.)—Brig. Gen. Elbert Carter today arranged to displace national guardsmen into a second Kentucky county as additional coal mines resumed operations on a non-union basis in Bell county, which adjoins Harlan county, to protect operations at the Kentucky Coal and Coke Co. and Southern Mining Co. mines at Insull. Both firms said they wished to resume operations. Their mines are in both Harlan and Bell counties.

Sheriff Martin Green of Bell county protested Carter's action but the national guard commander said an order extending his authority to the adjacent county would be signed by Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler at Frankfort.

17 Ready to Go
Guard units will be sent into operation today. This figure included six pits which opened up yesterday. No estimate was available on how many miners had returned to work. With the exception of the two mines that lie partly in Bell county, the 17 were the only ones that so far had definitely announced their desire to resume operations under present conditions.

National guard officers reported no violence in the county despite activity by United Mine Workers union pickets who are attempting to force the Harlan operators to sign a union shop contract similar to that which was agreed to by the Appalachian bituminous producers. The union said it hoped for early contracts with at least three Harlan mines.

"Threatening Attitude"
Carter said a "threatening attitude" had been observed at several unnamed localities in the county but that trouble had been averted thus far. He believed the present force of approximately 800 national guardsmen was sufficient to handle the situation, but said reinforcements would be brought in if needed.

Guard units were provided to all mines which asked protection except those two that extend into Bell county. The current crisis in Harlan was caused by refusal of the operators to accept the union shop agreement demanded by UMW President John L. Lewis. The Harlan operators were one of six groups which held out against the bituminous industry agreed to the union shop and resumed work under new individual contracts.

The only disturbance reported as non-union miners left shafts in scattered sections of the county last night was a fist fight at Tois. No one was injured and none was arrested.

PICTURES APLENTY FEATURE 1939 TWIN FALLS H. S. BOOK

"Coyote," Twin Falls high school yearbook, will be heard Friday of this week. Miss Gladys White, adviser to the staff, announced today. In one of the largest, if not the largest, sales in the history of the school, 530 students in a student body of 795 subscribed to buy the book.

Emphasis this year is on pictures, with art work of previous years omitted and with a minimum of printing. The edition has been enlarged to 82 full pages. In a change from recent years, no commercial advertising was sold in the book. Covers have been changed from an economy cover to a stiff embossed one in blue, school color. All printing is in blue on white background.

790 Individual Photos
Approximately 790 individual pictures in the four class groups are shown. Besides the yearbook, a special feature is pictures of the various classes in the different departments in the school in actual session, during school hours. Among those shown are the chemistry laboratory, bookkeeping department, home economics, typing, shop, agriculture work and biology class.

These pictures follow the activity theme of the annual. In faculty pictures this same theme is reflected. They portray members of the faculty at their desks or engaged in their work, replacing simple portraits used before.

Opening the book are the dedication, which will be a surprise, program written by Ivan Jacobs, and the pictures of the year.

Candid Snapshots
Inserted in the book to separate various divisions are pages of candid snapshots of high school interest. Following the faculty pictures will be pictures of student body officers and of senior class officers.

Pictures of the various officers and classes will not be definitely arranged except by the pages of candid shots. They will be distinguished, however, by different makeup and size of pictures.

KIMBERLY EARNS TOP BAND HONOR

KIMBERLY, May 16 (Special)—Achieving first division ranking for marching bands, Kimberly high school's crack bandmen were tops among south central Idaho entries at the 10th U. S. regional music festival in Pocatello, according to official rankings received today by Supt. L. A. Thomas.

Only two other Class C schools were rated first division, Lava Hot Springs and Helper, Utah. Kimberly was adjudged best of the three, and won the honor of representing Class C schools in the finals at the USBS stadium last Saturday night.

Among Best
The band was ranked among the best in the entire festival, which drew 5,000 students from Nevada, Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and Idaho.

The Kimberly group also won first division in sight reading, in which only three bands from the entire group played the first sight reading number perfectly. Mr. Thomas was informed.

Kimberly's orchestra won first division ranking in that competition. The band, in the playing division, won a second place rating. Paul Bower won first division in sousaphone solos.

Guitarists: glee club, clarinet quartet and woodwind quintet all earned second division.

One Drawback
"The regional festival was a very fine contest, very well executed except for one thing," Supt. Thomas said today. "Pocatello guaranteed to furnish rooms for all contestants, but in the last few days it fell down on its job. Boys had to stay in Pullman cars at their own expense."

Next year's regional goes to Grand Junction, Colo., the school which captured the best all-around record this year. Grand Junction won first division in every event it entered.

Student at Albion
Honored at Shower
BURLY, May 16 (Special)—Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Cecile Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Day, Albion, to Robert Lloyd, a student here at Albion State Normal school from Cramerton, N. C. Miss Day, Miller school teacher here, will be married shortly after the close of school.

The couple will be at home in northern Idaho next year where the bride will be teaching. Teaching and Mr. Lloyd will take further study at the University of Idaho at Moscow.

Miss Day was guest of honor last week at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Albert Anderson by about 35 members of the Business and Professional Women's club and Burlly teachers. The time was spent playing bridge with refreshments served at the close of the evening.

Bride-Elect Feted

JEROME, May 16 (Special)—To honor Miss Bernice Johnson, who plans to wed soon, Mrs. Ralph Shawyer and Miss Dorothy Wilson presided at a bridge shower of charming appointments at the Shawyer residence Thursday.

Bouquets of tulips were used as decoration and following a delectable four tables of bridge were enjoyed with prizes being received by Miss Frances Wimer and Miss Virginia Redford.

Ban Asked on Purchase Of Foreign Foodstuffs

WASHINGTON, May 16 (U.P.)—Chairman Key Pittman, D. Nev., of the senate foreign relations committee today urged that the senate approve legislation to prohibit purchase by the navy of foreign foodstuffs, including Argentine canned corn beef.

Pittman said the purchase of the Argentine product, defended by President Roosevelt on grounds it is cheaper and better than American canned corn beef, was a "very bad mistake," which "must be ended."

A senate appropriations subcommittee was scheduled to resume hearings on an amendment to the $75,400,000 naval supply bill to forbid purchases of foreign products by the navy. The amendment has been approved by the house. The committee has heard navy representatives urge the amendment be rejected. They pointed out that the Argentine product is nine cents a can, compared with the domestic price of 22 cents.

Restrictions Endorsed
Numerous senators and congressmen, however, have endorsed the proposed restrictions, contending the purchase of Argentine canned corn beef threatens the American farmer and cattle raiser with loss of revenue.

Government economists supported the President, estimating that Argentine canned corn beef is produced at about half the cost to the American producer.

Father of Car Crash Victim Named by Wife To Direct His Estate

The father of a Murtaugh rancher who died as result of an auto accident was nominated today as administrator of his estate by the widow of the accident victim.

Mrs. Matilda Mae Johnson, wife of the late Ira Martin Johnson, filed the petition in probate court. She asked that Francis L. Johnson, father of the accident victim, be named to handle the estate.

Mrs. Johnson and her son, 8, are heirs. The estate is valued at $7,000 and includes a 74-acre ranch in the Murtaugh section.

Ira Johnson died May 2 at the hospital from injuries suffered April 18 when his machine crashed off the highway near Murtaugh.

Judge C. A. Bailey set hearing for May 26. Attorney for the petitioner is E. M. Wolfe.

Common Sense About Constipation

A doctor would tell you that the best thing to do with constipation is get it as soon as you can. That way you don't have to endure it for days. Try to cure it after a week or so and you can avoid having it.

Chances are you won't have to look far for the cause if you see the signs. If you don't see the signs, most likely you don't get enough "bulk" and "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It means a kind of food that's contained in the body, but leaves a soft "bulk" mass in the intestines.

If this is what you lack, try crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast. It contains just the "bulk" you need.

Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and "Join the Regulars." Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek, Sold by every grocer.

Mrs. Lucy Stricker Feted Mother's Day

Mrs. Lucy Stricker, who came to the Gem state in 1879, and who is frequently referred to as "the first business woman of southern Idaho," was the inspiration for a charming event Sunday at her historic ranch home south of Hansen.

The affair was arranged by friends and relatives of Mrs. Stricker in honor of Mother's day and also to celebrate her 80th birthday. Included among the gifts presented to the honoree was a lovely candelabra, the gift of her family.

Twenty-three guests were seated at a long table in the spacious dining room. The menu included two birthday cakes baked by Mrs. Lucy Stricker, and Mrs. Howard Hill, Hansen.

Among those present were the honoree and her sons, Roland and Bernard Stricker, and her daughter, Miss Gladys Stricker; Ray J. Nabbs, O. B. Crumrine, W. R. Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Van Hook and sons, Malvin and Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haynes and family, Miss Jean Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Barnes and daughter, Ruth, Miss Jean Brown, Tom Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hall and son, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill and son, Mr. Minnie and son, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Elison and daughter. The afternoon was spent playing bridge and enjoying pleasant day music, presented by Mrs. Stricker and Bernard Stricker.

Joining the party at the supper hour were Don McKittrick, Charlie Seaton Jack Rarick, Mrs. Stricker in remembrance mood, told of exciting pioneer days in southern Idaho, and a delightful finale to the occasion.

Division No. 8, Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church, will meet at the home of Mrs. A. R. Osterlander, 1402 Maple avenue, Thursday at 2:30 p. m.

Progress of Century Club Reviewed Today

Members and officers of the Twentieth Century club assembled this afternoon at the Idaho Power auditorium to review the accomplishments of the past year. Mrs. W. W. Thomas, retiring president, in her general summary as presiding officer, said, "The Twentieth Century club is a wide-awake group of women who feel it a privilege to contribute to the community, and are anxious to sponsor high ideals of citizenship and loyalty to our state and nation."

This statement was supported in the reports of the three department chairmen, and the chairmen of the 17 standing committees, all of which have functioned through which have functioned throughout the entire club year.

Impressive List

Outstandingly pertinent were the monthly luncheon programs, carrying on the "Americana" theme. These topics were discussed by guest speakers, and international relations topics by club members were featured at each meeting.

Mrs. H. L. Hogue gave the report of the Drama and Literature department, at which books and plays have been reviewed; Mrs. R. A. Bussell presented the report of the Home and Garden department, whose programs are concerned with interesting helps to home makers and gardeners; and Mrs. Lloyd E. Oaks reported on the activities of the Fine Arts department, which has fostered programs on music and art and kindred subjects.

Worthwhile Projects

Under the energetic leadership of Mrs. Thomas and members of the various committees, a number of projects were carried through to successful conclusions.

The Twentieth Century club in March launched the cancer control educational program in Twin Falls county, and invited 13 clubs to send representatives to an organization meeting.

In February, as a contribution to the cultural life of the community, the club sponsored the Rocky Mountain art exhibit, one of the most successful presented locally in recent years.

As an aftermath of the exhibit, the club assisted the high school in the purchase of a Colvin landscape, one of the exhibition pieces.

The club, in resolution form, in January expressed its interest in legislative affairs during the sessions of the state legislature, and among the recommendations to that law-making body, was the appropriation for improving facilities at Idaho's state hospitals, which measure passed.

Amateur Children

Quantities of clothing and toys for underprivileged children were presented as a December project; 200 members of the club contributed their time on the Community Chest and members also participated in the Red Cross drive in November.

In April, the club invited the presidents and all members of Federated clubs to be guests at a tea, when the Colvin League of the high school presented the program.

Early in the season, the group designated the American Legion auxiliary room as a place of meeting for the departments, taking the seasons out of the home.

MOTHERS FETED BY CLUB OF GIRLS

Norwegians to Celebrate with Indoor Picnic

May 17, Norwegian equivalent to the American Fourth of July, will be observed by Norwegians and all those of Norwegian descent and their families tomorrow at 7 o'clock at an indoor pot-luck picnic dinner at the Idaho Power company auditorium, sponsored by the Norsk group.

Approximately 75 residents of Twin Falls and surrounding towns are expected to attend the affair in celebration of the day on which Norway became a republic.

Norwegian cookery will be featured as much as possible in the picnic fare. All attending are asked to bring table service in addition to food.

The Norwegian national anthem, led by Mrs. Rommetvedt, will open the program. Each member of the Norsk group will present a song or give a reading, followed by a Norwegian song by the Buhl delegation.

Alex. Sande, who recently returned from Norway, will present an illustrated travelogue of his trip, and will exhibit souvenirs.

E. O. Jeppesen will direct the playing of a collection of Norwegian musical records, and Mrs. Breivik, Western president of the Norsk group, will present a song.

A Scandinavian picnic, which will be held June 25 at the Piler fairgrounds, will give a short talk.

The program will conclude with the group singing of "America" and the presentation of the American flag, under the leadership of Mrs. P. Camellid, Norwegian games, music and stunts will follow the program.

Mrs. A. C. Rutherford, Mrs. Arne Rommetvedt and Mr. Jeppesen are the committee on arrangements.

Flags of both America and Norway will be displayed, and floral arrangements will form a background.

SIGNIFICANT MAY EVENTS EMPHASIZED

A mother's day program, and the custom of "changing the May baskets" reflected in the song hour, combined to make the recent meeting of the Woman's Council of the Christian church one of the most interesting sessions of the year.

Mrs. A. E. Gray was in charge of the program, the feature of which was a one-act play, "The Twentieth Century Lullaby," presented by a group of local high school dramatic students, under the direction of Miss Gladys Rees.

Billy Hughes played an accordion solo, Miss Stanley Goff presented a "Meditation of Mothers on Great Men," Mrs. U. N. Terry and James Reynolds sang "Nobody Knows."

Mrs. Mae Blake gave an inspirational address on "Highest Ideals of Motherhood," also the life of Frances Willard. Selections were presented by an accordion band, under the direction of Mrs. Edith Schroeder Jackson.

Mrs. C. C. Haynie gave the origin of May basket-hanging during the social hour. The room was beautifully decorated with baskets of spring flowers for the occasion.

Refreshments were distributed from a huge May basket. Sixty members and guests were present. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Gray's division.

Mrs. Walsted presided at the business session, when it was decided to let the contract for painting the church and parsonage, the work to be finished for the state convention to be held in Twin Falls the latter part of June.

The Morning After taking Carlier's Little Liver Pills

Auxiliary Presides at War Mothers' Party

Members of Twin Falls chapter, American War Mothers, including two Gold Star mothers, Mrs. Georgia Clarke and Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, were received by members of the American Legion Auxiliary yesterday afternoon at the American Legion Memorial hall.

The tea was one of the most charmingly arranged events in the annals of the local hostess group. Each year the War Mothers are the inspiration for a springtime tea. Mrs. C. D. Pryor, auxiliary president, welcomed the visitors. Mrs. E. S. Johnson was general chairman of arrangements.

Attracting Decorations

In a setting of garden-like beauty, a program of variety and interest was presented. Particularly effective was the tea table decorations, designed by Mrs. Metta Balch.

A Japanese arrangement of pink tulips in a low white bowl, was completed with two clever polka ducks. The tulips were banded high at one end of the container, and a single unstemmed tulip floated in the water.

Mrs. Pryor and Mrs. Emma Balch, president of the War Mothers, presided at the service.

Mrs. James Coleman arranged the floral decorations, a wealth of seasonal flowers, and Mrs. J. H. Neilson, Mrs. A. V. Williams and Mrs. R. V. Jones were in charge of the table.

Play Presented

A one-act play "American Beauty," having for its theme the idea that simplicity and sweetness will help a girl win out in life, was presented by pupils of Miss Florence Rees, high school dramatics instructor. The scene takes place in the hall of Fairdale school, an exclusive girls' school, the girls engaged in decorating the hall pending the arrival of Lady Ouida, who is coming to select the representative American girl.

Other numbers on the program, arranged by Mrs. Robert Helfrecht, were musical selections in the neighborhood of 1914, directed by Mrs. Marilyn Brisee; two solos, "None But the Lonely Heart" and "Wake Up, Sleep," by Mrs. L. A. Leichter; and two piano solos, "Romance" by Frank La Forge, and "Liebestreu" by Fritz Kreisler.

FILER

Mrs. William Powers left Thursday for a visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Snyder, Glenside, Pa. The Contract Bridge club members entertained their husbands with a no-hands dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Musgrave, Twin Falls, Thursday. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Lewis Hark, Henry Hochstadt, Mrs. Rupert Williamson and Mrs. Musgrave. Miss Isabelle Foreman entertained her L.T.E. club at a picnic Tuesday at the Filer fairgrounds. Eighty children attended games and contests were enjoyed with candy and ice cream cones being served later. The Loyal Temperance league has a membership at the present time of 101. There has been an average attendance of 70 during the eight meetings, with the largest attendance being 94, Miss Foreman stated. The Rebecca Kensington club met Thursday at the L.O.O.F. hall for a Mother's day party. Twenty-five members and 20 guests enjoyed magic tricks of R. K. Dillingham. Mrs. C. L. Gilliland entertained with several chorus numbers from the chorus which consists of girls of the seventh and eighth grades, also a mixed chorus from the eighth grade entertained both being accompanied at the piano by Mrs. O. L. Gilliland, Marion Hudson, Jr., student from the Washington grade school, who entertained with cartoon sketches which he drew free hand on a large blackboard. Miss Lola Creed sang, "Mother Blanche," accompanied by Mrs. O. L. Gilliland. After a short business meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Claude Brown, Mrs. J. W. Creed, and Mrs. V. A. Allison. A gift was presented to the oldest and youngest mothers present, Mrs. W. McDonald being the oldest, and Mrs. Killinger the youngest. White elephants were won by Mrs. Roy Hamilton, Mrs. Burns McKinley and Mrs. Minnie Orr. The Merry-Go-Round club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Kim McCaskey for a business luncheon. A beautifully decorated birthday cake cristered the table honoring Mrs. McCaskey and Mrs. E. O. Fitchner, whose birthdays appear in the month of May. Mrs. Mae Drake had charge of the program, singing a "Mother's day" theme. Honoring Miss Ruth Montgomery, who will become the bride of Lyle Abel Bunay, May 28, William Kibbee and Mrs. Ben Glasinger were hostesses to a miscellaneous shower Friday at the home of Mrs. Glasinger. More than 30 attended the shower. Gifts were brought in by a little group and bric-a-brac by the minister, who were tiny children dressed the part. Mrs. Kibbee played the wedding march. Word has been received that a son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corless, Bannock, Wash., former residents of Filer. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ramsey and daughter Janice left Friday morning to spend the week-end in Pocatello.

An important part of a Japanese bride's trousseau is a "head-piece" known as a "thorn comb." It is a comb from an ancient Japanese belief that women were representatives of Satan, and had invisible horns.

Bird Steals Diamond; Kids Protect Her

The pet little diamond, watched by Jerome and Robert Pavlin, didn't know she was trespassing when she built nest on baseball diamond at Glendale, Ill., then laid three eggs. Children halted games, erected signs to assure bird's safety until the eggs had hatched.

Dispelling the Fog

By CHARLES MICHELSON
Director of Publicity, Democratic National Committee

It is marvelous to note the consistency with which the Republicans win elections a year or so before the election. Chairman John D. M. Hamilton of the Republican national committee has gone star-gazing and recently announced that the high vote cast by the Republicans in recent mayoralty and senatorial contests in Illinois unwittingly pointed to a spring for the middle west and the far west to the G. O. P. side—Incidentally, the Democratic candidates in both contests were elected by satisfactory majorities, but the Republican chairman adduced a proof of his triumph, prophecy the Gallup poll.

Remember?

Well, just about three years ago Chairman Hamilton, after analyzing the situation in the middle west, far west and in New York, forecast the election of Gov. Alfred M. Landon, of Kansas, as President by more than 300 electoral votes, with the probability that it would amount to more than 350. And he quoted as a corroborative basis for that prophecy, the Literary Digest poll, which never has been wrong.

At the same time, he said "We are conservative in presenting that four or five million Democrats will vote for Governor Landon this year." Just about then the booming voice of Senator Vandenberg told the people that a wide split "in Democratic ranks extending to high official would bring Republican victory in the presidential race." We had similar assurances of the inevitability of Governor Landon's election in the presidential race. G. O. P. cheer leader, Bertrand B. Shill, sometime G. O. P. House leader, and innumerable others, all of whom harped on the rift in the Democratic party as something that could not be healed and which would up the election for the governor of Kansas.

In fact, one distinguished writer on political subjects enthusiastically exclaimed that the Republicans could beat Franklin D. Roosevelt with a Chinaman. My favorite columnist, the always cautious Frank Kent, in 1934, devoted columns to the spoken and unspoken opposition of eminent Democrats to their candidate and told how they "privately contribute to the Republican campaign fund and vote for the Republican nominee."

And here he is again, in 1939, jubilating over the prospect of a Republican President and telling us "clearly the Democratic split cannot be closed. It isn't that kind of a split. It is much too wide and fundamental."

Recalling 1936 Of course, more than a year in advance of the conventions which will select the candidates these 1936 G. O. P. oracles are practically saying that any Republican can beat any Democrat. As one of them points out, the Democratic progressive will not vote for a conservative, and the conservative Democrats will not vote for a liberal, and the logic goes on: "Neither faction will be satisfied with a compromise candidate." All of these things are political absurdities. Party splits a year before the candidates are named seem ponderous and terrific—and 19 times out of 20 they disappear when the political bugles blow.

All the authorities quoted above were sure in '36 that the friends of Alfred Emanuel Smith would following would desert them. Yet in the ensuing election, when Calvin Coolidge won with 82 electoral votes. The fear that LaFollette would cut in heavily enough to throw the election into the house of representatives, which was frequently voiced in those days, was as chimerical as the present-day wishful thinking that disorder among the Democrats will be the deciding factor next year. Party allegiance is a stubborn fact. In almost any election, the candidates, good, bad or indifferent, get the normal vote of their party.

The vote that decides elections is the ten million or so of citizens with no strong party affiliations, or with party ties so tenuous that they are negligible when it comes to a decision on the principles for which each party stands. It is another safe bet that next year's election will be decided in the same way.

MAGNETIC POLES LURES SCIENCE

By William Ferguson

THE ionosphere is the uppermost layer of the earth's atmosphere. It is ionosphere attracts radio waves which reflects wireless wave and makes broadcasting possible.

It comes down to earth near the south magnetic pole. The ionosphere has made progress in this field of research but the establishment of a permanent station near the south magnetic pole would give them the one opportunity for close study of all the phenomena of the ionosphere.

It is reached by aviation or by sending up small balloons with scientific apparatus.

Sponsored by Mawson. The project for the permanent station, which is under consideration by the government and private interests, was prepared by Sir Douglas Mawson, Antarctic explorer.

His proposal is that a group of scientists would be landed there each summer by the south pole expedition. Mawson says that the commonwealth government has purchased.

Mawson said he probably would not be able to take the long trips that he did 30 years ago, but that it would be feasible to keep in training a group of young men from which sufficient personnel would be able each year to permit sending of a group to make the work continuous.

Young Scientist Preferred. "What I want to do," Mawson said in the proposal which he submitted to the commonwealth government, "is to coordinate the scientific work to be done there and of research into the ionosphere and the aurora, and we could thus have men highly trained for the work. Their work would greatly advance the knowledge of the ionosphere which is now being slowly advanced."

Mawson's project provides for the organization of an Antarctic expedition of the younger scientists who are devoting themselves to this kind of research and who are willing to give a year of their time, with little monetary consideration, to the study of the ionosphere at the only point on the

Likewise officials of the power company said trees, blowing against the wires, caused the most damage to lines. In some instances they snapped under the weight of the trees but repairs were made immediately.

City Eyes Federal Money for Airport; Annexation Move Protested

Dean Tells Mayor U. S. Approved Work Details; Petitions Rap Expansion

Status of the city owned airport and the ability of the municipality to obtain federal funds for its improvement, as well as the controversial subject of the annexation of a large area of land to the commonwealth, last night highlighted the regular-weekly session of the council.

The airport became a more or less argumentative subject after Mayor Joe K. E. Koehler submitted a resolution which, among other things, declared that plans for construction of the local field had not been approved by the civil aeronautics bureau of the department of commerce.

Cite U. S. Approval
Lionel A. Dean, councilman-at-large, informed the mayor that such plans had been approved "long ago" and that these plans called for construction of a class two field here, one which would permit the United Airlines planes which now pass near Twin Falls to land here.

In the resolution Mayor Koehler asserted that work now being done on the field had no assurance that it would be accepted by the government authorities. This caused Dean to specify that "very little" of work being done on the field is along the lines specified in the approved plans and that such work was being done "place at a time" as the money could be obtained.

"Plans for the local field were long ago approved by the department of commerce," Dean said. "So far as the work thus far done is concerned, I can state that it is all being accomplished by the city. The plans which the government official approved."

After a thorough discussion of the situation concerning the airport, the fact came out that what the mayor was really concerned with was that no federal money was being obtained for construction of the field. His resolution, which was tabled until next week, had asked that no further city funds be spent until federal grants were obtained. He declared, during the discussion, that it might be possible to obtain $20,000 or $25,000 to match the $40,000 which the city has available for airport work this year.

Dean agreed that the obtaining of federal funds greatly aid the project and said that "no one wants to see the field completed, and air-mail and passenger service come to Twin Falls any more than I do."

As the matter stands the mayor will investigate the possibility of securing such additional funds. He said that this step should be taken and work along this line will get underway immediately.

Oppose Annexation
After the airport discussion, the council had faced approximately 40 individual property owners who, almost in one voice, said they did not want to come into the city as was provided for in an ordinance introduced at a prior council session by Mayor Koehler. As a result of the protests registered last night, during which time two petitions against annexation to the city were placed on record with the council and others were announced as being forthcoming, the body postponed the second reading of the ordinance until next Monday evening at which time all protests, especially the petitions, will be heard and presented.

Brokers for the group, namely H. B. Long and J. J. Long, brothers, declared that their property would drop in value if they were annexed into the city. The mayor, on the other hand, pointed out that it would probably result in a more or less boom.

H. B. Long declared that there is "no one on relief" on any of the five-acre plots surrounding the city while within the corporate limits "you have plenty on relief." He is a produce man.

His brother, J. J. Long, who has charge of distribution of commodities for the department of public assistance under the relief act, likewise stated that if outside residents wanted to come in they would do so on their own accord.

Will Circulate Petitions
As a result of the discussion plans were made to circulate petitions among the property owners in order that all protests against the annexation might be lodged with the council next Monday night. Mayor Koehler pointed out that, when he introduced the proposed annexation ordinance, he made provision for hearing of those in opposition to the move.

The mayor pointed out the advantages of coming into the city, such as fire and police protection, adequate sewage disposal and reduced fire insurance rates. He also pointed out that, should citizens within the city protest, the council would have to refuse outside delivery of city water for domestic purposes.

Regarding the aspect of fire protection, H. B. Long said that should a fire result the Kimberly mutual department could be called to extinguish the blaze.

The two petitions against the annexation move, filed last night, were signed by property owners in the Prospect subdivision and the Snyder tract.

APPROVAL GIVEN ON CASH 'DRAFT'

WASHINGTON, May 16 (U.S.)—The senate military affairs committee recommended today that the federal government prepare to draft capital on the same basis as men in event of a war.

That proposal was made in a committee report on a capital contribution bill sponsored by Sen. Josh Lee, D. Okla. The committee has approved the bill, 12 to two.

It is inconceivable that a government be able to raise an army by compulsion and depend upon voluntary subscription to support that army," Lee asserted in the majority report.

Sen. H. Styles Bridges, R. N. H., is drafting a minority report in which he said he would denounce the bill as "the most dangerous piece of legislation before congress."

The Lee bill provides for a "wealth census" at the outbreak of a war. On the basis of it, citizens would be required to purchase 50-year government bonds bearing one per cent interest. A person with a net worth between $1,000 and $10,000 would be required to devote five per cent of bond purchases and the percentage would be graduated upward to 75 per cent for citizens worth $100,000 or more.

GUERNSEY DEALS COMPLETED HERE

Three transactions involving registered Guernsey cattle have been completed by Twin Falls and Hansen residents, according to records of the American Guernsey Cattle club, Peterborough, N. H.

Rep. G. H. Mayer, D. Shoshone county, state legislator, recently suggested the secession.

Straight also attacked a proposal made in the editorial columns of north Idaho newspapers suggesting Boise had "stolen" the state capital from Lewiston in north Idaho.

"Such arguments at this late date seem like giving Manhattan Island back to the Indians again for $25 and a bottle of whisky," Straight said.

Maxie Rosenbloom, heavyweight prizefighter who has become a movie comedian, was made the official "dodo boy" of a society at the University of Southern California.

Slapsie-Maxie was elected by the Alpha Delta girls, they said, on the basis that he "is the only actor in the film industry with whom we positively would not wish to be stranded on a desert island."

Linda Winters, actress "discovery" of Charlie Chaplin, and Richard Colling, pianist, will be married within a day or two.

Miss Winters, whose real name is Dorothy Conzberger, met Chaplin at Carmel, Calif., where he was vacationing and was persuaded by the comedian to make a film test. She was awarded a contract with Columbia studio.

A deal of the $200,000 heart balm suit Mildred O'Bryen brought against Sidney B. Factor, son of the late makeup artist, Max Factor, indicated a settlement was reached. The suit, in which Miss O'Bryen charged that Factor went back on a promise to marry her, was due for trial yesterday.

YOUR DAILY NEWSPAPERS ARE YOUR BEST ADVERTISING MEDIA BECAUSE

Can Bring Your Message Before So

Many Buyers at Such Low Cost

Because the Times and News can guarantee every advertiser a circulation of 15,320 reader homes to give an 85% coverage of Magic Valley, a 95% coverage of Twin Falls County and a 99% coverage of the City of Twin Falls, the cost to reach each reader is ridiculously low.

Combine this low cost of advertising with the reader interest your daily newspapers hold for every subscriber, and you have a combination that can't be beat.

That's the reason newspaper advertising has built scores of big businesses from one-time small advertisers. That's the reason successful merchants have consistently stayed with newspapers, instead of frittering away their advertising budget through the "hit-and-miss" mediums. That's the reason all advertisers, large or small, cannot afford to spend their money for any form of specialized advertising until they have first made thorough use of the basic, most effective and least expensive medium of advertising—the newspapers, whose audience is no mystery, whose acceptability cannot be questioned, and whose distribution figures are authentic and guaranteed.
