'ROYAL TORTURE' JAUNT PRODUCES NO ILL EFFECTS

By WEBB MILLER

ABOARD ROYAL PILOT TRAIN.
EN ROUTE, June 5 (U.S.)—King George and Queen Elizabeth returned today to the rich commercial and industrial district of southeastern Ontario where they will be feted for three days before entering the United States.

The royal train carried them yesterday through sections of three provinces—Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario—and continued south-eastward during the night through the dense forest of the Ontario toward Sudbury, where they will make their only official stop today.

Loyal Follower Killed.
The entourage was saddened last night by news of the death of Michael Rymarchuk who was struck by the pilot train early yesterday near Portage La Prairie. He had seated himself on the rail to await the king and queen and fell asleep. He did not hear the train approaching. Those aboard did not learn of the accident until several hours after it happened. Rymarchuk died last night.

The royal couple made a brief stop last night at Sioux Lookout. At Sioux Lookout, the royal couple completed 5,544 miles of their 11,000-mile tour—more than half the distance of their 20-day trip. They have only 11 more days to go.

No Outward Effects.
"Royal torture," as it has been described, has not affected them, outwardly at least. They appear to be in excellent health and at all their appearances, public and private, they have shown little signs of fatigue or strain from their record-breaking tour.

Cooper May Top U. S. Open After Twelve Attempts
NEW YORK, June 5 (U.S.)—This may be Harry Cooper's year.

Twelve times, "Lefty" Harry has gone to the post in the national open championship and never won it. He came very close twice—in 1927 and 1936—but always someone else was a little better. Around the locker room they call him "Lefty No. 1 hard-luck guy."

One of the finest players in the world, he never has won a major national title.

Among Favorites.
But today Harry's name moved up among the favored entries for this year's battle, which opens Thursday over the Spring Hill course of the Philadelphia country club.

In a slugging for more than a year, Harry took the top of the game and $1,000 richer for winning the $3,000 Goodall round-robin tournament, which ended yesterday at the Fresh Meadows club in Flushing.

Found-It-Fault.
Harry hadn't won top prize in any tournament since he took the New Orleans open in February last year. Then, right before the Goodall started, he discovered he was hesitating slightly at the top of his backswing. He corrected that fault and walked off 14 of the country's best professionals with a burst of scoring.

On the new line which veteran book-maker Tom Watson of Philadelphia issued today, Ralph Guidahl, winner the last two years, was the even favorite again at 6 to 1. Cooper was the second place at 10 to 1 with Sammy Snead, Byron Nelson and Henry Picard.

Capital Splurges On Welcome Plan For Royal Couple
WASHINGTON, June 5 (U.S.)—The capital's biggest and best welcome is being prepared today for King George VI and Queen Elizabeth who arrive this week for a history-making visit.

Their majesties will cross the border from Canada at Niagara falls on the evening of June 7. They will spend the following two days in Washington, the third seeing New York City and the World's fair and wind it all up next Sunday with church and a Roosevelt hot dog picnic at Hyde Park.

The two days here are to be overlaid with the veneer of Washington's most glamorous social splurge. But the substance of the occasion is political—a bid by a great empire for closer friendship with a great republic.

American officialdom is nervous. "There is the great but brief responsibility for protecting the royal couple and the delicate task of judging popular reaction to the visitors—determining whether Anglo-American ties are stronger or weaker when the guests have gone."

Hole-in-One
BETHANY, Mo., June 5 (U.S.)—Rettitt H. L. McMillan scored a hole in one on a 146-yard hole last June 3. Today, a year later, he repeated the performance on a 143-yard hole.

"I just think I'll hit off next June 3," he said. "This thing can't go on forever."

Becomes Lucky
TOLEDO, O., June 5 (U.S.)—A 49-year-old man here is lucky that he is but a few feet from the law. When police found him in a car, he was in a fire alarm—but couldn't reach the box. He was arrested on a disorderly charge—but the false alarm penalty here is much greater.

WPA BID ACTION RAPPED AT QUIZ

WASHINGTON, June 5 (U.S.)—The house WPA investigating committee today heard a charge that New York WPA truck regulations had restricted bidding competition and cost the government $1,500,000 extra in that area.

The charge was made by Lancelot Armstrong, representative of the Bronx Trucking association. His statements were supported by Ralph W. Burton, committee investigator.

They said an order was issued, apparently by R. C. Smith, in charge of the division of equipment and inspection, that no trucks manufactured earlier than 1934 should be used.

On the Orchard Beach park project, they related, bids were called for 50 trucks. B. B. Manning a Vermont contractor, bid to supply 30 trucks at $23.20 a day each; Burlington Contracting Corp. $23.50 on fire; and County Bros., Inc. $23.85 on 16.

Both Burton and Armstrong said that WPA previously had been getting five to seven ton trucks at $13 a day, and Armstrong asserted they were still available at that price.

Flint wishes to have it designated run through eastern Idaho, past Grants of the Moon and Boise and thence to Portland, Ore.

Jail Term for Saddle Theft

Sentence of three months in the county jail was meted out today to Charles Moyer, Brunsau, by Judge J. W. Porter in district court.

Moyer was found guilty last week by a district court jury on charges of petty larceny in theft of a saddle from Martin Miller, Castleford. The accused man had been charged with grand larceny, but the jury brought in a guilty verdict in the lesser count when the value of the saddle appeared questionable.

In addition to the three months in jail, Judge Porter ordered that Moyer must pay costs of the prosecution. The costs, totaling $354.40, were paid today by the convicted man's father-in-law.

Miss Elaine Dudley Weds at Home Rite

In their own home, 614 Fourth avenue west, Miss Margaret Elaine Dudley and John Duray Stephens, pledged nuptial vows at 10 o'clock this morning. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dudley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stephens. Rev. H. G. McCallister, pastor of the Methodist church, read the marriage service.

An elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 1082 Blue Lakes boulevard, following the ceremony, and the couple left later in the day on a wedding trip to San Francisco, where they will attend the Golden Gate International exposition, and to Berkeley and Los Angeles, where they will visit relatives.

Touch of Sentiment. As a token of sentiment, the bride carried a handsome Battenburg lace handkerchief, the gift of a great-aunt, Miss Lydia Hildreth, whom the couple will visit in Berkeley. The bride was groomed in a smart afternoon frock of Japonica pink lace, designed with a long pleated waistline and short puffed sleeves. Her flowers were white roses arranged in a shoulder corsage.

Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Caroline Dudley. The maid of honor was attired becomingly in a blue and white afternoon frock, fastened on princess lines, with which she wore a corsage of pink and white sweet peas, centered with a Tallinn rosebud.

In the role of best man was Al Nye, intimate friend of the bridegroom. Members of the wedding party took their stations before an improvised altar in front of a large window as Miss Elaine Beatty played the wedding march.

Peonies in baskets and greenery formed the effective background for the ceremony.

Charming Breakfast. Especially smart was the central decoration for the wedding breakfast table, which was covered with gleaming white damask, appointed in crystalware and centered with a double-tiered white and silver wedding cake.

Four miniature willow trees, cascading pastel-hued leaves, two on either side, flanked the cake, and two miniature bride couples tread bridal paths of minute pastel flowers, arranged beneath the trees. The nut cups were also in pastel, to blend with the theme of decoration.

Mrs. Stephens, a graduate of the Twin Falls high school, and the University of Idaho, Southern branch, has been teaching at the Curry school. She also attended Albion State Normal school.

Mr. Stephens, a former student at Princeton college, St. Louis, Mo., is manager of the Drury Park grocery.

Guests at Wedding. When Mrs. Stephens sat on her wedding trip she wore a gray wool suit with a print blouse and matching accessories.

SENATOR OFFERS RECOVERY PLANS

BYRACUSE, N. Y., June 8 (AP)—Sen. Charles McNary, D-Michigan, expounding the political and social philosophy on which he is expected to court the 1940 Republican presidential nomination, declared today that free enterprise released from "synthetic socialism" could lead America to the most recovery within six months.

Vanderberg delivered the commencement address at Syracuse university. In view of his nomination last week that he is a candidate for the 1940 nomination, the speech was viewed as an elaboration of the principles upon which he probably will base his campaign.

Condemning many policies of President Roosevelt's administration, Vanderberg called for restoration of "equilibrium" to "salvage the best of yesterday and temper it with the best of today and tomorrow."

"In my judgment," he said, "if free enterprise, under the American system, were given a legitimately fair chance—with all the frustrated and damned up energies of a gloomy decade—we should be out of this depression in six victorious months. And America's collegiate graduates of 1939 would confront real opportunities instead, too often, WPA has a career."

Without referring by name to Mr. Roosevelt, Vanderberg criticized policies and programs of the New Deal.

FDR Not Assured Of Adjournment
WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—Legislative leaders told President Roosevelt today that congressional adjournment by July 10 can not be definitely assured at this time.

Speaker William B. Bankhead told the President that everything possible was being done to speed congressional business but that it was not yet certain that the session could be brought to an end by July 15. His view was concurred in by other leaders.

It was believed that Mr. Roosevelt would likely slip away with his plan to leave Washington about June 15 for a journey to the San Francisco World's fair and Alaska.

HORSES, MULES "SAVED"
WASHINGTON, June 8 (AP)—President Roosevelt today signed a bill that will permit the army to turn out war horses and mules to pasture instead of shooting them when they become too infirm to work.

AGED HITCHHIKER

COLLAPSES HERE

Found lying beside highway, 50 about 100 yards past the bridge over "dead man's gulch," Charles Haller, 67-year-old California resident, was in Twin Falls hospital this afternoon fighting a heart attack.

Mr. Haller, seen lying face down on the highway Sunday evening by a number of motorists, was at first believed to be dead. But Sheriff Art C. Parker and Deputy Warren W. Lowery, called to the highway scene by L. G. Prescott, found him moaning and showed him to the hospital.

Attendants there said the elderly man's condition this afternoon was "fair."

Haller suffered the heart attack while seeking to hitchhike from Twin Falls to Boise to visit a daughter, Sheriff Parker said. The man told officers he had just come from the San Francisco World's fair, and that he had arrived from Walla Walla by Sunday afternoon. He intended to hitchhike to visit Mrs. Mabel Conley daughter, whose husband is understood to be a mechanic at Boise. Officers, however, had been unable to contact her by early afternoon despite appeal to the Boise sheriff for assistance.

The 67-year-old hitchhiker was carrying a heavy baggage roll at the time he collapsed at the roadside, Sheriff Parker said.

HEARING SET ON DRIVING CHARGE

Fred Samuels, charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, was scheduled to appear before Municipal Judge J. O. Humphrey this afternoon.

Samuels was arrested at 3:25 a. m. today, police records show. He is being held in the city jail.

IDAHO POWER

"A PIONEER IN CITIZENSHIP AND SERVICE"

Back in 1916, south Idaho's electric service was in its infancy. A group of pioneers, realizing that this territory must have adequate electric service, founded the Idaho Power Company. They staked their savings on their faith in the future of the territory, and built for the needs of their neighbors of tomorrow.

Their faith has been justified. Today Idaho Power's customers enjoy electric rates among the lowest in the nation, service that is second to none in America. And electric service is still planned with the needs of tomorrow in mind.

Mr. Bob Burns Allows as How His Life Isn't Such a Hard One, Come to Think

By PAUL HARRISON
(NEA Service)

Bob Burns and the "Boss"

Bob Burns and the Missus. In the accompanying article Bob tells an Evening Times-NEA interviewer that when he gets to thinking how hard is the life of a movie star he takes another think—and decides he hasn't any troubles to speak of.

HOLLYWOOD—When you want to visit Mr. Bob Burns at home, you drive out to the upland district of Bel-Air, along a canyon road lined with the estates of the movie-great, turn in at an imposing gate and park by a well-stocked six-car garage.

You walk through a formal garden to the huge stone house, and in its air-conditioned interior you are met by the gentleman from Arkansas, who suggests going up to the check for a chat. So you go out through the patio, past the swimming pool and over shaded, velvety lawns up the hill to a room-and-hall log cabin which is finished in knotty pine and cost maybe $5,000.

In this latter setting, the pride of Van Burn stretched out in a deep chair and began—as he calls it—to "blab."

"I wanted to tell you," he said, "about how the other day I got to feelin' kinda sorry for myself. I've been workin' pretty steady, you see, what with the picture and the radio and all, and sometimes I would get home late in the evening—almost at dark."

A Tough Life

"Mornin', I'm supposed to be at the studio at 8:30, so I get up and start for Paramount and I'm in a steady stream of traffic. But I realized that I am just in the tail end of the traffic. Thousands of other folks have gone to work hours before I do. They have to punch a clock when they get there, and another line is that they have to work steady on their jobs."

"And at night, comin' home to a place like this, in another big line of traffic. But there's plenty behind me; they keep streamlinin' the hours. And I don't get to thinkin' about what I'm gettin' and what they're gettin', and how completely asappy and corny it is for me even to think I got to work."

"You know there has been a lot written about my 'struggles and hardships' and I figure it's about time something was done about it. One of the favorite stories is about how I worked on the radio for $750 a week and how I got in a habit of not on some other little local show for $3. Why, I even had a signet ring made with just the figures $750 on it, so it reminded me of those times."

"But the truth is, of course, that I just didn't know of any easier way to get the $750. And I didn't know, I guess, when I couldn't have gone out and got me a real job and made more money."

"But of all the thousands of folks who are tryin' to get along in this business, some of 'em are always gettin' a break, well, the minute they get in—and maybe they are only 18 and have been livin' with mama and papa all their lives—they start lookin' back to think of all the hard handiaps and tribulations that they had to fight their way through to get to be famous."

"Well, sir, I have been around here off and on for 10 years, and I have never seen anybody yet who was forced to do this work at the point of a gun."

Just Joe College

The Arkansas traveler stretched around and felt his hip, so steady hand. He looked at the hand for a minute and resumed: "I've just been through all the heaviest stuff in my picture—the toughest scenes and the dramatic parts that are supposed to give an actor the pitters. Those are the hard jobs, got me to rememberin' about how everybody here is supposed to get high blood pressure and ulcers of the stomach just worryin' about things."

"So I figured I must be in pretty awful shape and I had better go and have a doctor check up on me. The doctor checked me, and then he did it again because he was so surprised. My blood pressure was 123—just like a college boy."

"No I'm not gonna complain about what a sorry life I lead or at all about my think about my handiaps. I like Hollywood and I'm mighty grateful to it."

FDR AND GARNER FORCES PREVIEW DEMOCRAT STRATEGY

BOURBONS SPLIT OVER CANDIDATE FOR 1940 VOTE

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—The "Garner for President" and "draft Roosevelt" forces gave the voters today a preview of strategy for the 1940 Democratic national convention.

Week-end developments presented an organized boom for Vice-President John N. Garner to be a candidate for the Democratic nomination and a counter-move by a coalition of progressives of all parties seeking to draft President Roosevelt for a third term.

Some quarters interpreted the move of Garner backers as an answer to steadily developing pressure to make Mr. Roosevelt a candidate again. Spokesmen for the "draft Roosevelt" campaign labelled it a "stop Roosevelt" plan.

Party Split Charged

Both groups charged their opponents sought to split the Democratic party; both denied they would form a third party.

From Sunday statements there was, of course, absence of comment or action by the principals involved in the battle now brewing for control of the Democratic presidential convention next June. Garner was expected to maintain his accustomed silence; the President was not expected to give any hint of his intentions, at least until after his forthcoming trip to the Pacific coast and Alaska.

Significant, however, was the revelation by Garner backers that he would be a candidate for the nomination even though President Roosevelt seeks another term. Chairman E. B. Germany of the Texas State Democratic committee is organizing the Garner pre-convention campaign and has sent 30,000 letters to Democratic voters asking support for Garner.

Progressives Unite

Raymond M. Schwartz, publicist who has been acting as secretary in formation of a new coalition of progressives of all parties to organize a national "draft Roosevelt" campaign, issued a statement of the progressives' aims as a result of the move of Garner supporters.

He revealed that invitations for a progressive conference June 20 to 30 have been dispatched to 178 leading progressives in 35 states. He predicted 1,000 would attend.

Schwartz denied that the "draft Roosevelt" campaign anticipated formation of a third party, contending that "if there is going to be any third party, the Garner forces will have to start it." He insisted the coalition's strength would be drawn from all major parties; that most of it would come from the Democratic party and independents and progressives inside and outside its ranks.

Land Alive! Mr. Garner Will Omit Cigar for King, Queen!

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—The coming visit of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth promises politicians a sight they never expected to see—Vice-President John Nance Garner outside the senate chamber without a cigar.

Garner, who dislikes formal functions, feels that his greatest sacrifice will come when he lays aside his favorite brand of cigar and is forced to gesticulate with an empty hand.

Another crisis—still unsettled—arose when the what-you-shall-wear-and-what-to-do experts at the capitol heard that Garner had rebelled against fastening the bottom button of his morning coat—a decree of fashion.

"I ain't never fastened the bottom button of my coat," Garner was quoted as saying, "and I ain't gonna start now—even for the king and queen."

HOUSE INTRIGUES DEER

PAINEVILLE, O., (AP)—A Painesville couple had an unexpected visitor for breakfast here, sitting down to eat one morning. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sabo saw a small deer docilely peering through their porch window. Their small dog's barking scared it away.

DROP NOTED FOR FALLS RESERVOIR

Continued demand for irrigation water, today had resulted in a decrease of the amount stored in the American falls reservoir, a report by the Twin Falls Canal company from Lynn Crandall, watermaster, shows.

At the present time the great reservoir is impounding 1,505,900 acre feet against reading of 1,572,540 two weeks ago.

Lake Walcott also showed a drop in storage over the last two weeks, going from 95,790 acre feet to 94,490. Last available reading shows Jackson lake impounding 346,210 acre feet.

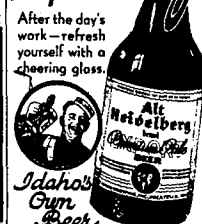

On the latest report Mr. Crandall added that the 1913 water rights above Blackfoot had been filled.
