CHAMBERLAIN SEEKS NEW ANGLO-GERMAN UNDERSTANDING

ACTION CAUSED BY REPORTS OF PENDING MOVES

By FREDERICK KUH.
LONDON, June 10 (AP)—Foreign embassies heard today that a sudden new bid for British-German understanding by Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain was actuated by information that new central European developments might be imminent.

There was no hint here of any impending trouble though Poland showed interest in a concentration of German Nazi storm troops in Danzig for a sports festival starting Monday, and a London newspaper had reported movements of troops to Czech cities near Poland.

Germany Admitted
Chamberlain and Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary, have made speeches within the last two days which combined admissions to Germany not to attempt any expansion and at the same time inviting Germany to settle pending problems peacefully.

Foreign Minister, Georges Bonnet, at a speech in Paris yesterday, assured Poland that France and Great Britain would support her against any attack.

Ambassador Sumner
The sudden summoning of Sir Eric Philips, ambassador to France, from Paris Thursday night, although primarily due to Russian security front negotiations, has been seen by some as a possible new central European development, foreign quarters suggested.

Speeches of British ministers have emphasized that Germany would be to blame if Britain's appeal for pacification of Europe failed to take an echo. This was believed the result of information that Germans were accepting Nazi changes of British "enlightenment" of Germany.

"Appeasement"
Even a hint of the reappearance of the "appeasement" theme in speeches seemed to have revived Russian suspicions of Britain's real motive.

Chamberlain, addressing a meeting at Birmingham last night, said he had been trying, first, to remove causes for war, and second, to build up the national strength so that if foreign problem elements were discussed no country could force Britain to accept terms "dishonorable or disastrous to our vital interests."

Style Parade for Annual Guest Day

BUFFALO, June 10 (Special)—Fairview Kensington entertained 40 guests at their annual guest day program Wednesday at the country home of Mrs. Harold Brown, Mrs. Ernest Voss and Mrs. Emil Hahn assisting.

Members answered roll call by introducing their guests. Mrs. Frank Bacon received high score for the handshaking contest conducted by the hostesses—ladies of the club in a pantomime. "Out of the Storm," was Mrs. Tom Dwyer. Mrs. Chester Nott, Mrs. Harold Peterson and Mrs. L. O. Watson. Club quartet, Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mrs. Frank Chandler, Mrs. Maurice Orendorff and Mrs. Glen DeVinny, sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and an encore, accompanied on the violin by Mrs. Harold Hamby.

Feature of the afternoon was the fashion parade, depicting styles of 60 years ago, styles of the gay 80's and the modern fashion trend. A large table in the dining room was covered with liquors brought by the club members. Games and shows were a cup and saucer, said to be 250 years old, displayed by Mrs. J. A. Clark. Mrs. Frank Bacon had a 200 year old Bible that had belonged to her ancestors. Other interesting "antiques" were very old purses and a number of old dishes, needle work and home appliances. Group song met with Mrs. L. O. Watson. A picnic lunch will be held at 1 p. m. All of special picnic guests are invited and should bring their own dinner.

Ree Men Meet

JEROME, June 10 (Special)—Members of the local Central district Ree association will meet for a business session and a picnic Sunday, June 11, at Bluehouse at the residence of J. J. Locke. The wives of the members are also invited.

Workers Painting Highway Bridges

Bridges on highway 39 spanning Rock creek and Dead Man's gulch between the Twin Falls county hospital are getting a coat of aluminum paint to protect steelwork from rust, reports W. DeHlin, Boise, state inspector supervising the project.

Charles Palmer Gray, contractor for the job, has a crew of seven men at work on the bridges which will probably be finished in about 10 more working days, said DeHlin. Only steelwork is being painted.

One of the spans was half-painted last fall, but poor weather forced the project to be postponed, said the state inspector.

Contract for the Rock creek bridge, $59,000 and $420.00 for the Dead Man's gulch structure, he said. Contracts were let by the bureau of highways in the department of public works.

City Council Paves Way for Prior Approval of All Major Purchases

Two Motions Placed on Docket; Koehler Raises Pool Chlorinator Issue

With both Mayor Joe K. E. R. Koehler and Councilman Lionel A. Dean introducing resolutions calling for full council action on major purchases by the city prior to adoption of any articles about certain price ranges, indications were today that one of the resolutions, or a combination of the two, would be adopted by that body at regular session next Monday.

The two resolutions were introduced at the session last night. Dean, acting in the city of W. H. H. before the mayor presented the other.

Chlorinator Started
Both resolutions were introduced as a result of a demand last Monday night by Mayor Koehler that major purchases be brought before the council for approval before final action is taken by any of the heads of the various departments. In making the demand the mayor asserted that such a procedure would save the city money in that bids could be asked on such major items. He particularly pointed out the purchase of a chlorinator by Dean for use at the city swimming pool. The mayor declared that the time when the chlorinator was purchased until he read it in the newspapers. The piece of machinery cost more than $1,300, and that the city was not authorized to purchase it without the approval of the city council. The mayor declared that he was sure the local business community would not criticize him for his action, inasmuch as it was set by precedent.

Dean Says $300
Dean's resolution provided that "all contracts and purchases calling for an expenditure of $300 or more, except in case of emergency, shall be approved by the city council."

Koehler's resolution called for presentation of contracts or purchases to the city council in "cases of $500 and added."

Under that resolution it would be the duty of the city council to "approve or disapprove" any purchase of $500 or more, which was not authorized and approved by the mayor and the city council.

The mayor objected to Dean's resolution inasmuch as it contained the "emergency" clause.

"Under that resolution it would be the duty of the city council to approve or disapprove any purchase of $500 or more, which was not authorized and approved by the mayor and the city council."

After much discussion, during which Dean said that if Koehler's resolution was adopted, it would mean that the chlorinator purchased for the swimming pool would have to be returned, and the pool because of this closed, the matter was carried over until the next meeting, which is Monday night.

In introducing his resolution, Mayor Koehler made the following statement:

"Under section 49-3214, Idaho Code, the mayor, under the commission form of government, is given general supervision and oversight over all the departments of the city. In the exercise of this power I feel it is my duty to call the attention of this council to the people of Twin Falls to practices which might subject my administration to criticism and add to the burden of the taxpayers. For this reason, I urged last Monday evening that all purchases involving $500 or more be first authorized and approved at public meetings of this council, and that such purchases be made upon competitive bids."

Cities Johnston
"It will be remembered that Dunc Johnston, when mayor, was severely criticized by many people, including members of this council, for purchasing in the name of the city a large quantity of pipe without the purchase being first authorized and approved by the city council. On account of this criticism, the council, acting upon the advice of the city attorney to the effect that the purchase was illegal, refused payment of the claim presented by the pipe company, and similar action was taken upon this claim by Mayor Chapman and his council. Neither myself as mayor nor any individual member of this council has the least authority to bind the city to any purchase agreement without the mayor and council first authorizing and approving the same. Where a purchase is authorized and approved at a public meeting of the council and is then submitted to competitive bids, there cannot be any suspicion of politics, friendship or graft entering into such transactions. I desire my administration to be free from criticism of this nature. Where the light shines brightly there are no shadows."

Councilman Paul Taber and Carl Ritchey declared, after hearing Koehler's statement, that no bill had ever been presented before the council calling for payment of the pipe which the mayor mentioned. They declared that no such bill for the pipe was presented before Johnston's council or Chapman's council.

Toward the end of the session the mayor accused the other members of the council of "putting him on a spot" both before and after he was mayor.

"You haven't agreed with one thing which I have presented to you," Mayor Koehler said.

Taber Replies
This brought a declaration from Councilman Taber that the mayor doesn't give the other councilmen a "chance" to agree with anything because of his method of "flopping" things down on the table and expecting a decision "immediately" without any "thought on the matter."

Councilman last night also adopted.

ROUGH-RIDING COWBOYS IN RODEO HERE JUNE 24

More than 100 "rough riding" cowboys are expected to take part in the cowboy stampee which will be held in a newly constructed rodeo arena directly across Elizabeth boulevard from the front entrance to the new baseball park on Saturday and Sunday, June 24 and 25. It was announced this afternoon by Walt Hencock, sponsor of the event.

One thousand dollars is being offered in prizes and exhibitions, Hencock said, and participants will be coming from approximately 12 western states. Events will be held for both professional and amateur riders.

The famous Ed Moody string of bucking horses from Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, will appear at the show and the string will include "Stranger," a horse which has never been ridden. The string was at Sun Valley just last year during the rodeo there.

Workers are now busy constructing the rodeo arena and when this is completed erection of the grandstand will start. Hencock, himself a champion rider, said five acres of free automobile parking space will be provided for the event.

The show on Saturday, June 24, will start at 8 p. m. while Sunday there will be two shows, one at 2:30 p. m. and the other at 8 p. m.

Chinese Smuggle Silver Out Of China to Pay for Trucks

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10 (AP)—The story of how 400 tons of silver, valued at $6,500,000 was brought out of China through the perils of warfare and mountainous trails has been disclosed today only after the cargo was deposited safely in the U. S. mint for safekeeping.

The silver arrived this week aboard the American President liner President Garfield. It was consigned to the American Smelting and Refining Co. of New York, acting as fiscal agent for the U. S. government.

Pay for Trucks
It was understood the silver will be turned over to pay for trucks for the Chinese government purchased in America.

The silver, it was learned, was packed hastily in flimsy boxes at Canton just before the Japanese seizure of that city.

The silver then was transported on donkey back to mountains in north China. Cannon carried the cargo across rivers, and coolies packed it through gorges and across mountains.

Under Fire
The caravan doubled back to southern China, taking a purposely circuitous route into Indo-China to avoid Japanese raiding parties. The coolies under machine gun fire from airplanes a good part of the way.

They finally reached Saigon, where the silver was loaded aboard a small French steamer and transported to Manila, where the President Garfield picked it up.

The Garfield was chosen, it was said, because it was en route across the world and would not be crossing the Pacific ocean with the silver aboard. Three American passengers cancelled their passage at Manila, saying they were afraid the Garfield would be bombed.
