JAPAN RISKS SHOWDOWN WITH ENGLAND, FRANCE IN EAST

Officials Welcome Their Majesties

Nipponese Set Blockade Of Port for Wednesday

Interests of U. S. Not Directly Hit

By ROBERT BELLAIRE
SHANGHAI, June 12 (UP)—Japanese authorities today risked a showdown with Great Britain and France in east Asia when they announced that the concessions of the two European powers in the great northern port city will be blockaded, beginning Wednesday.

The United States consulate-general in Tientsin was informed of the decision but American interests will be affected only indirectly, since the United States has no concession there.

American business interests largely are concentrated in the British concession, where there is a branch of the National City Bank of New York and offices of many American trading companies, including Standard Oil of New York, carpet weaving companies, fur dealers and general importing and exporting companies.

Refuse Demand
The Japanese action follows refusal of British concession authorities to deliver Chinese terrorists to the foreign area who are accused by the Japanese of attacks on Chinese who are "co-operating" with Japan.

Other developments included threats against the life of Sir Archibald Clark Kerr, British ambassador to China, causing authorities to guard the British embassy in Shanghai and the ambassador's home heavily. It was even reported the ambassador's food was being tampered with, to guard against poisoning.

Japanese sources reported that 20 high Japanese and Chinese officials were made ill at a dinner in the Japanese consulate at Nanking on Monday and it was being reported the wine served had been poisoned.

Involves U. S.
An incident involving the United States occurred at Chungking, the temporary Chinese capital, which was attacked by Japanese bombing planes, endangering American and Japanese mission workers and other foreigners.

Mrs. H. H. Liljebrand, of the American Methodist mission, was wounded by a bomb which landed near her home on the campus of Union university.

Military activity continued in central China. Chinese reported that their troops in a general offensive in southern Szechuan province had captured MacLinton and Pinglu, capturing 1,000 Japanese casualties. More than 100 Japanese were reported in ruins from Japanese bombardments.

The Chinese reported 2,000 Japanese casualties in the Shantung sector. Heavier fighting was reported in southern Szechuan.

America's Desire For Peace is Not Weakness, Says FDR

By FREDERICK A. STORM
United Press Staff Writer
WEST POINT, N. Y., June 12 (UP)—President Roosevelt told graduates of the United States Military academy today that America's desire for peace "must never be mistaken for weakness."

He explained his military expansion program, recalled the fate of countries that lacked adequate protection, and spoke of hopes for peace, mentioning the visit of King George of Great Britain to this country as an example of good will among nations.

"Recently," he said, "we have had the pleasure of a visit from King George VI, a courteous recognition of the cordiality and good will which prevails between the two great nations."

Significance
"It is significant lay in the fact that friendship could exist between the two countries since both were without fear. To achieve the result, strength is needed; strength which comes, not from arms alone, but from restraint, understanding and cooperation which in turn are the product of trained and disciplined minds."

He talked directly to several hundred youths who in a few weeks become second lieutenants in the army and his theme dealt with the value of an army in normal periods of peace, and its assistance to the civil population.

Mechanized Armies
"The machine age has laid its grip upon the world's armies," he said. "Technical developments have demanded the modernization of our military establishments, a program that has been prosecuted vigorously during the past six years. During recent months international political considerations have required greater emphasis upon the vitalization of our defense forces, for we have had dramatic illustrations of the state of unprepared nations."

"We seek peace by honorable and peaceful means, but we must be prepared to defend ourselves against those who would seek peace by force."

No U. S. Aggression
"With us," he said, "the army does not stand for aggression, domination, or conquest."

CZECH-GERMANY FRICTION GROWS

BERLIN, June 12 (UP)—New friction intensified between Germany and Poland today, as the result of a recent incident in which a German plane was shot down by Polish fighters.

The fatal shooting of a German plane by Polish fighters, which was reported by the German press, was a bitter anti-German article published in Poland, combined to cause serious friction.

Lubetkin, 22, was shot as he tried to cross the frontier into Germany without proper credentials. It was reported by Polish border guards, and was made to Poland at once, because Lubetkin was reported to be a German citizen. It was made known that Lubetkin was a German citizen, and was a member of the German government.

Later, however, it was said that Lubetkin was a Polish citizen, and was a member of the Polish government. The incident was reported by the German press, and was a bitter anti-German article published in Poland, combined to cause serious friction.

Newspapers sharply criticized the general attitude toward Germany and Poland. They alleged that Poland was trying to create incidents, and that Poland's armed forces were ready to attack Germany.

The incident was reported by the German press, and was a bitter anti-German article published in Poland, combined to cause serious friction.

House Group Agrees to Abandon Tax on Profits

WASHINGTON, June 12 (UP)—The House ways and means tax subcommittee today tentatively agreed to discontinue the undistributed profits tax and to substitute a flat 18 per cent levy on corporations.

The committee also tentatively approved virtually all the tax changes recommended by Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. to stimulate business recovery.

The treasury estimated that the changes probably would mean a loss of revenue to the government of $10,700,000 at the business level existing in 1939, a sum regarded as inconsequential compared with the yield of approximately $1,500,000,000 produced by other taxes in the past two years.

The action of the subcommittee, announced by Jere Cooper, D., Tenn., included:

1. Decision not to extend the undistributed profits tax, which expires Dec. 31, 1939. The tax plus present regular corporate taxes, ranges from 15 to 18 per cent.

Monarchs End 4-Day Visit In United States; Nearing Last of Journey in America

FLATIRON TAKES MAN FROM JAIL

By WEBB MILLER
ABOARD ROYAL PILOT TRAIN, EN ROUTE TO SHIRBRIDGE, Que., June 12 (UP)—King George and Queen Elizabeth rode along the great "unfettered frontier" today, returning for more plaudits from their Canadian subjects after a triumphant, four-day visit in the United States that was conceded everywhere to have been a master stroke of British statesmanship.

They were back on their steam-lined train which left Hyde Park, N. Y., at 11:30 (EST) last night, and shortly before 7 a. m., and which called for stops for three brief receptions in Quebec towns today, the first at Sherbrooke.

Hot Dog Gets Royalty O. K.
HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 12 (UP)—The hot dog has been endorsed. King George VI of Great Britain and Queen Elizabeth each ate one, accompanied by mustard, at Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's picnic yesterday.

No greater tribute could have been paid the American five-cent sandwich, which the king, who even had mother-in-law objections, had graced royal palates and been approved.

Both their majesties seemed a little bewildered about procedure, but plebeian guests reported they had passed only long enough to watch Mr. Roosevelt, who, according to the National Sausage Manufacturers' association pamphlet, professes the "overhand method" of delivery to the mouth, and followed suit. The king and queen weren't sure either, about the mustard application, but they dipped into it with royal delicacy.

That moment was a triumph for Mrs. Roosevelt, who had insisted from the first that hot dogs were fit for a king, while the President's wife, Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, had argued that they weren't.

Warm Receptions
The warmth of the reception in Washington, New York, Hyde Park and other towns on the way had dispelled those doubts and confirmed the wisdom, from the British Empire viewpoint, of the royal journey to America.

Today the king and queen headed into the last phase of that visit—their tour of the Canadian provinces in Canada before they sail on the liner Empress of Britain, from Halifax, for home, in three days they will visit New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia, the only three of the nine Canadian provinces they had not visit in crossing Canada to the Pacific and back before they entered the United States.

In addition to a brief stop at Sherbrooke, there were receptions (Continued on Page 2, Column 6)

Poor Weather Cuts '39 Crops in Idaho

BOISE, June 12 (UP)—Idaho's 1939 farm crop production will be from 15 to 18 per cent below last year, Agricultural Statistician Richard O. Klose of the U. S. bureau of agriculture predicted today.

Weather conditions were unfavorable for crop growth, he said.

GREAT BRITAIN QUIETLY MOBILIZING FORMIDABLE ARMY

THOUSANDS GET CALL TO COLORS UNDER NEW LAW

By FREDERICK KUH
LONDON, June 12 (U.P.)—Great Britain is quietly mobilizing a formidable army, it was disclosed today.

The war office, the admiralty and the air ministry began calling thousands of men to the colors under the recently enacted reserve and auxiliary act which makes possible rapid mobilization of reservists by a simple royal "order in council" instead of the previous formal proclamations.

First Group Called
The first group of balloon barrage troops was called up yesterday for one month's service, with the royal air force and other groups to follow.

Twenty-two thousand anti-aircraft men of the territorial army, in addition to some 1,000 balloon barrage men, took up "war stations" last night, manning anti-aircraft, searchlight and balloon barrage defenses.

"24 Hour Shift"
Thirty thousand territorial (national guard) men report for duty today so that, with the men serving for two weeks and being replaced by others later, anti-aircraft guns may be manned day and night.

The war office intends to call the first group of regular army reserves Thursday and another group Aug. 15. It was reported that from 60,000 to 100,000 of these men would be called for service during the summer.

Thousands Ready
Forty thousand to fifty thousand militiamen are to be called into the army July 15.

The admiralty plans to call up almost 4,000 men for anti-submarine and mine sweeping units, and the air ministry expects to call up more than 200,000 territorials who have had at least two weeks' training in the field.

CASSIA PREPARES TO FIGHT HOPPER

BOURLEY, June 12 (Special)—Grasshoppers promise to be quite serious in some areas in Cassia county this year, and a program of control has already begun whereby farmers located in areas showing infestation can secure poison by contacting the county agent, W. W. Palmer. A survey made last year indicated that quite large infestations would occur this year, particularly in the outlying sections or in areas where farms adjoin vacant, open lands which are usually very desirable for laying and hatching grounds.

Bait will be supplied at a cost of 25 cents a bag if the farmer brings a good bag in to receive the same. If he does not, an extra charge of nine cents will be made for the bag.

Bait Code
Materials are supplied free by the government but storage, hauling and mixing costs are to be borne by the farmer. Every Tuesday unless the same falls on a holiday, bait will be a mixing day at which time farmers can secure the mixed bait. Bait can be secured on other days, but two or three days notice should be given the county agent's office preceding the time that a farmer would like to secure the same. The office will also appreciate receiving word when a farmer expects to be in on Tuesday then the bait can be mixed preceding his arrival.

Producers should search at this time for infestations of small hoppers adjoining their green fields. Mr. Palmer said, Observations made by the agent to date are that very few have emerged into green fields, but are upon the edges of alfalfa, ditch banks and open spaces adjoining farm lands.

Small Now
Hoppers also at this time are quite small, not having developed wings and poisoning done now is very much more effective than later on when they have wings and have flown into fields. In searching for hoppers one should look in open areas, and particularly on south slopes and where land is quite firm in nature rather than cultivated.

A bait mixing station has been established at Hurley in the basement of Convey's warehouse. The county commissioner and the county agent are cooperating with Dr. W. E. Shull, state leader in grasshopper control for Idaho in the program this year.

Infestations should appear quite thick before farmers call for bait and poison should be used where considerable good can be done, Mr. Palmer advised.

BODY FOUND IN MISSOURI RIVER

TWIN FALLS, Mont., June 12 (U.P.)—The Missouri River today had given up the body of Marie Mikkelson, 16, who with a young man companion drowned more than a week ago.

Miss Mikkelson's body was found yesterday about four miles below the spot where that of Alex Tomaski, 20-year-old University of Southern California student and a resident of Sand Coulee, was found.

Tomaski's body was recovered last Monday the day after the couple drowned. A party searching along the banks of the river in a motor boat found the body of the girl.

Glenns Ferry Union Pacific Celebration Proves Big Hit

GLENN'S FERRY, June 12 (Special)—"Union Pacific days" in Glenn's Ferry was a success from every point of view. The affair was held in conjunction with the showing of the picture, "Union Pacific," which opened here Friday night for a four-night run.

The festivities started Friday evening with the members of the Old Glenn Club and auxiliaries marching to the opera house in a body and dressed in their costumes. Saturday the streets were filled with people in costumes and at 5 o'clock in the evening the parade, the principal feature of the event, was staged.

The parade formed at the Community hall and traveled through the business section to terminate at the speakers' stand on the railroad park near the depot. The procession was headed by horseback riders bearing the flag, followed by the American Legion colors and guard.

Next in line was a stage coach with visiting dignitaries, with members of the Old Glenn Club following. Next in line was a stage coach with visiting dignitaries, with members of the Old Glenn Club following.

Following the parade G. T. Mosgrove, president of the local Old Glenn Club, who sponsored the event, acted as master of ceremonies and introduced over the public address system Jim Collins, mayor of Glenn's Ferry, who welcomed the visitors to Glenn's Ferry, and presented Mr. Mosgrove the key to the city.

State Officials
Luke Williams, assistant to the commissioner of agriculture, and Harry Rayner, commissioner of law enforcement, representing the governor and state house officials at Boise, were introduced and addressed the gathering. Gov. C. A. J. Botolstein was forced to decline an invitation to be present because of the previous engagement.

Next to address the crowds were E. C. Manson of Salt Lake City, assistant general manager of the south central district of the Union Pacific; R. E. Titus and Lou Collins of Pocatello, superintendent and assistant superintendent of the Idaho division, respectively.

Following the introductions and talks, Mr. Mosgrove introduced F. T. Clark of Glenn's Ferry, who was present at the time the "golden spike" was driven at Promontory, Utah, in 1909. He was then 11 years old. He was a nephew of Fred Collins, a construction contractor on the new railroad, and carried the mail to and from the camp to a point on the Wells Fargo stage route. Mr. Clark was presented with a golden spike and re-enacted the historic event on a section of track laid before the stand.

Prizes were contributed by the business men of Glenn's Ferry for various outstanding costumes, namely, horseback riders, floats, etc. The judges were hard put to make a decision in the groups, but the most pronounced costume and impetuous was that of Bid. Griffith, local railroadman, who was almost a perfect likeness of Abraham Lincoln.

Kangaroo Court
The past three days saw a kangaroo court in session, with Justice of the Peace L. T. Dixon presiding and Marshals O. G. Haddock and John Willis as police. Many were the offenders in the judge's wrath and pay their fines for every charge found "in the book."

The "Union Pacific days" was climaxed by a dance at the Community hall, where confetti was the rule. The merchants of the city cooperated by providing window displays that were outstanding. Hundreds of relics of olden times were to be found everywhere. Many items on display date back for as much as 250 years.

OPEN HOUSE SET AT U. OF I. FARM

Dr. K. H. Klages, agronomy department head and chairman of today's activities reports that the departments of the college of agriculture will have attendants stationed at the various field plots and other points of interest to interpret the experimental activities.

"Everyone is invited to attend our experiment station open house" on June 23," Dr. Klages emphasized. "Experiments now being conducted on the farm with new varieties of grains and grasses and the achievements of the livestock herds should prove of considerable interest to all. Experiment station work is conducted under practical farming conditions so the results will apply to the various farming conditions of the state."

Last year several hundred visitors from the Inland Empire and Canada visited the campus for the day.

Entertainment will be given indoors in the event of rain. Families are invited to bring lunches and eat them on the campus during the lunch hour.

Oaks Extend Win Streak—Then Tumble

(By United Press)
Oakland ran its win streak to five straight when it dumped the Padres 4 to 2, in the 11-inning opener yesterday, but was turned back 5 to 3 in the closing game. The Oaks won six out of nine games against the Padres last week.

San Francisco took its series from Seattle, 4 to 3. The Rainiers polished off the Indians, in both Sunday games, 5 to 1 and 3 to 2. George Archaino cleaned the bases with an eighth-inning home run to win the opener from Bill Shores. Keith Praeger's error in the fourth inning of the second game was responsible for the Seattle run.

Los Angeles took its series from Hollywood, four games to three, by splitting a Sunday pair. Hollywood took the opener, 6 to 4, on the five-hit pitching of Blittner, which was featured by pinch-hitter Carpenter's home run for the Angels in the eighth. Chalmers Cissell got a triple, a double and single. Los Angeles won the second, 8 to 2.

Sacramento wound up the week in seventh place—leaving Portland in the cellar on the short end of a four to three series. The Cards took the opener, 6 to 4, and the night 1 to 0.

PROTEIN PREMIUM ISSUED ON WHEAT

Protein premium rates for wheat, issued by south Idaho farmers under the 1939 wheat loan program sponsored by the federal commodity credit corporation, were announced today by officials of the county agricultural conservation associations throughout this area.

Protein premiums for wheat on which the loan rate is based on Portland terminal rates will be one percent per bushel for wheat with from 13 to 13.9 per cent protein; one cent additional for each additional one-half per cent protein content.

Loan wheat based on terminal loan rates prevailing at Kansas City, Kan.; Kansas City, Mo.; or Omaha, Neb., will earn premiums of one cent per bushel between 13 and 13.9 per cent protein content; one cent additional for each one per cent additional protein.

South Idaho counties may use the Portland basic loan rate, or the rate of any of the midwest terminals, whichever proves most advantageous to the grower.

Run of Salmon Reported Near Stanley at Dam

The vanguard of the annual salmon run has reached Sunbeam dam on the main Salmon river, said Ray O. Stanley, who was visiting in Twin Falls today.

Two sockeyes were landed over the week-end, one a 10 pounder and the other tipping the scales at 14 pounds, said O. Stanley. The run is the earliest since about 1934 when the salmon started running the latter part of May, he said.

Fishing conditions on the Salmon are ideal with the water level low and the water clear, O. Stanley reported. "Trout fishing is ideal," he said. "They're taking flies."

At 75 and 77 cents per bushel respectively, have been raised one cent to 80 and 78 cents. Rates at Omaha on most other grades and subgrades have been raised one fourth cent.

STORAGE WATERS REMAIN STEADY

Little change in the amount of water stored in the three principal reservoirs serving this section, with the exception of the American falls unit, was noted today in the latest report of water conditions received from Lynn Randall, watermaster.

The report received today shows the American falls reservoir is now impounding 1,449,560 acre feet against 1,478,100 a week ago. Likewise Jackson lake shows a drop from 848,000 acre feet to 847,200 acre feet during the same period.

Lake Walcott, now impounding 88,800 acre feet of water is against the reading of 89,510 taken seven days ago.

Recent precipitation on the watershed which Randall lists includes 36 of an inch at Moran; 21 of an inch at Idaho Falls and 40 of an inch at Irwin.

Lloyd George Bait Chamberlain and Recalls Gladstone vs. Disraeli Clashes

BY MILTON BROWNER
(NPA Service)

LONDON—Neville Chamberlain, prime minister of Great Britain, is harried by many men in the house of commons, but his pet aversion and his chief verbal antagonist is former Premier David Lloyd George, the silver-haired, silver-tongued master of flouts, jeers and taunts.

It is one of the situations of the present session of parliament. Already old hands are saying there has been no duel like it since the great days of W. E. Gladstone and the famous Disraeli.

As with the Grand Old Man and Disraeli, the two present protagonists have both filed the premier-ship. As with the giants of the 19th century parliament, the present duel is rapidly turning into real rivalry.

Fly in Tying Ornament
There is small chance that Lloyd George ever again will be premier. Elected as a liberal from a Welsh constituency, Lloyd George constitutes a party all by himself, unless one includes his daughter and his son who are also M. P.'s. He has lost much of his enormous influence in the country. From the standpoint of the angry Chamberlain, he has merely a nuisance value.

Lloyd George, in the house of commons, has led the sharp criticism of Chamberlain's Munich pilgrimage to Hitler, the government's acquiescence in the German seizure of Czechoslovakia, and the slowness with which Britain has conducted negotiations for an alliance with Russia.

Angrily, not long ago, Chamberlain fared back to the further L. G. gets from the days of his own premiership, the more critical he becomes of other people.

The other day L. G. the wartime premier who galvanized Britain into its will to victory in the World War, accused Chamberlain about the negotiations with Russia. Enured the bitter colloquy:

L. G.: "It is vital that we should know what it is that is standing in the way."

Chamberlain: "It may be vital for the right honorable gentleman."

L. G.: "That is nonsense! It is vital for the country."

Chamberlain: "There may be those who are out just to damage the government or to make mischief."

The result of all this is that every time he enters a debate, Chamberlain is L. G.-conscious. L. G. is on his mind. When he looks at the opposition benches, the man he sees first of all is not Major Atlee, leader of the official opposition, but Old Silver-Tongue.

For instance, on another day when Russia was the subject of debate, a Communist member said some saucy things. At once:

L. G. shook his head in dissent.

Chamberlain: "The right honorable gentleman means it was not characteristic. He can be much more vehement even than he was this morning."

There was laughter at this parting shot by the prime minister, but it was not a laughing matter for Chamberlain himself. Lloyd George is an accomplished go-getter.

Visiting Publisher Sees Vast Irrigation Boom at Big Dam

Big things are stirring for Lind, Columbia basin as it did in many other lands. The new federal anti-speculation bill will guard against it. As Mr. Scottfield explained the statute, it provides that any landowner now holding the land must sell all but 40 acres for himself when water becomes available. The government probably will form a holding company, buy the land and sell it to settlers at a uniform price.

Lind, which hopes to become chief beneficiary of the boom, is located on two transcontinental railroads and at the junction of two national highways.

Women Chatter Mostly About Operations, Diet

By RUTH MILLETT
(New York Columnist)

NEW YORK—(N. Y. A. Service)—The general run of women's conversation could be lifted out of the old chatter class if they would only give up a few pet subjects.

Number one is health. An operation or an illness is interesting to just one person—the one who had it. And never did yourself that there are any exceptions to that rule.

Number two is sleep. Whether you sleep like a log or suffer from insomnia—keep it a secret.

Number three is the food fancies of your family. The fact that Junior won't eat vegetables or that your family are graduates of the University is an absorbing subject to you and your family—but to no one else.

Number four is your reducing diet. That is terribly important to you, of course, whether you really stick to a rigid diet, or whether you just think you do. But your diet isn't important to any of your friends.

Number five—your ancestors. The Holy have been big shots in their day, but this isn't their day.

Number six—your troubles. No body likes to be backed into a wall and made to listen to a tale of woe.

Child prodigies are really very rare.

Number seven is how smart your children are. People come a lot nearer believing that children are wonders if they arrive at that conclusion themselves than if it had been drilled into their ears.

Number eight—your faults. A lot of women make conversation out of pretended faults, which is not only boring to other people, but tiring.

For when a woman starts pointing out her defects, it just isn't considered good manners to say, "You're absolutely right. And why don't you do something about that?"

FARMERS REPAIR CRICKET FENCES

SUNDANCE, Wyo. (UP)—Creek county farmers, informed that the spring batch of Mormon crickets will surpass that of former years, and repairing and enlarging their "tin fences" that saved Sundance from the infestation three years ago.

Bureau of entomology agents at Sundance reported after a preliminary survey that a record number of the pests which have overrun Creek county by the millions since 1936, would be hatched this year. Farmers and townspeople, prepared for a desperate battle against the invaders, obtained every known preventive in an effort to save the county's entire area from invader.

Three years ago the fence of tin was conceived by desperate landowners. Approximately an inch wide and more than a mile long, the barrier proved the only effective method of stopping the pests.

As millions of the crickets pressed against the edge of the fence surrounding this small northeastern Wyoming town, they were killed by the thousands. Farmers, their wives, lawyers, doctors and city officials joined the dramatic fight, smashing thousands of the pests with the first handy weapon, they slew hundreds of thousands more with dust guns, which spell instant death to the crickets.

As millions died, additional hordes pressed in from the rear to take their place at the only effective barrier man has been able to erect against the pests. After days of almost ceaseless warfare, exhausted Creek county residents were victorious.

Many farmers have purchased their own tin fence this year to take their place at the only effective barrier man has been able to erect against the pests. After days of almost ceaseless warfare, exhausted Creek county residents were victorious.

Several crews already had started work in an effort to kill off a large part of the insects as they hatch. Hundreds of pounds of poison, being applied in every known hatchling locality in the county, officials said.

The real fight, however, as in previous years, was expected to start in August, when the crickets start their annual march across fields, leaving barren ground in their wake.

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. suggested that 1939 presidential candidates present themselves to the public through the movies. His plan was for all presidential aspirants to have feature-length biographical films made, and get such actors as Paul Muni and Spencer Tracy to act in the candidates' roles. ## Peavey-Carpenter Rites Held At Charming Home Ceremony

In the presence of 40 guests, Miss Dorothy Louise Carpenter and Thomas Cummings Peavey pledged nuptial vows at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at a charmingly arranged wedding. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Carpenter, 214 Ninth avenue north.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Peavey, pioneer residents of Twin Falls. Rev. G. L. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was the officiating clergyman. During the reading of the marriage service, the bride and groom stood before an improvised altar arranged in the west end of the living room.

Gowned in White
Fashioned on classic princess lines was the wedding gown of white chiffon and lace. The fitted bodice, styled with a sweetheart neckline, and the puffed sleeves were made entirely of rows of narrow lace, and the skirt flowed in soft folds to the floor.

Her finger-tip wedding veil was held in place with a white chiffon and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

As a token of sentiment, she wore a necklace of pearls which had belonged to the bridegroom's grandmother.

Nuptial music was furnished by two cousins of the bride, Miss Edith Hazeltine, who played the wedding march, and also the accompaniment for the solo, "At Dawning," and "Love Came Calling," sung by Mrs. Laura Plaster. Both are residents of New Plymouth.

Wedding Attendants
To Mrs. Harold Hartley, American Falls, and Miss Edith Slater, Hazelton, were assigned the roles of matron of honor and bridesmaid.

Frank Peavey, who came from North Platte, Neb., for the wedding, was his brother's best man.

Diminutive Betty Ann Peavey and John Peavey, niece and nephew of the bridegroom, completed the bridal party at flower girl and ring bearer. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Peavey, Jr.

The matron of honor wore a floor-length gown of Swiss embroidery, organza-in-white and green, and the maid of honor was frocked in a floor-length bouffant gown of light blue tulle.

Identical bouquets of pink roses and white daisies were carried by the attendants.

Floral Background
Specially effective was the background for the wedding. Pink and white peonies and greenery entwined white lattice-work, and on either side of the improvised altar were tall vases of blue delphinium. Garden flowers were grouped throughout the rooms.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carpenter wore an afternoon gown of dusky rose and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Peavey was gowned in a black and white afternoon dress and also wore gardenias.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered decorated wedding cake banked with honeysuckle, which she cut in traditional fashion. Arrangements of roses and asyrincentered the three other tables at which the guests were seated.

On Wedding Trip
Following a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Peavey will be at home after June 18 at 1531 Poplar avenue. Mrs. Peavey's going-away ensemble was of blue printed silk and chiffon, redingote-style, with which she wore white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Idaho, where she was affiliated with Alpha Psi sorority.

For the past year she has been an instructor at Springfield.

Mr. Peavey attended Armour Institute, Chicago, and is a member of the Delta Chi Delta fraternity. He is associated with the Peavey-Tabor Insurance company here.

Buffet Supper
On the eve of their marriage, the bridal pair was honored at a rehearsal supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peavey, parents of the bridegroom.

Sixteen guests were present. Lighted tapers suffused a soft glow over the buffet table which was covered with a Cluny lace cloth, and centered with bride's roses.
