GERMANY PUSHES MILITARY EXPANSION ON POLISH BORDER

NAZIS EXPECTED TO MAKE MOVES TOWARD DANZIG

By GEORGE KIDD
BERLIN, June 20 (U.P.)—Germany has started large-scale troop maneuvers throughout the country and was reliably reported today to be feverishly pushing its eastern frontiers along the Polish frontier.

The number of workers on the eastern frontiers was practically doubled recently by the drafting of new large numbers of German military engineers and labor front workers.

Well-informed Nazi sources expressed the view that two speeches made by Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels at Danzig during the week ended June 15, were but a new offensive for a settlement with Poland.

Climate Soon
These sources believed the climate will come sooner than expected. Although it was officially denied that there are any new troop concentrations at the Polish frontier, it was understood that Adolf Hitler and other government officials are making most of their attention to German-Polish relations.

Confidence
Germans denied that the maneuvers were adjusted to any political timetable. Observers recalled, however, that last year's maneuvers, whether by chance or otherwise, had brought the army to peak strength just before the Czechoslovak problem.

By coincidence, news of the maneuvers came at the same time as a prediction in responsible Nazi quarters that the return of Danzig to Germany was now a 100 per cent certainty. It was pointed out that the British-Japanese dispute in the far east might hasten this development.

LAST RITES FOR CAREY RESIDENT

CAREY, June 20 (Special)—Funeral services for Marion Condie, who had been ill since last fall, and died last Tuesday, were held this afternoon at the D.R.R. Church. Interment was in the new Carey cemetery, with the American Legion assisting with the grave service. Pallbearers were Elmo Howard, William Phillips, James Phillips, Mrs. B. Baird, Golden Phillips and John Burkhardt.

ABANDON FEARS, JURIST DECLARES

Justice Raymond L. Olvens, Idaho supreme court jurist, told members of the Twin Falls Buhl and Plier Kiwanis clubs that Kiwanians should devote themselves to constructive work and not close themselves in the dilemma of fear, when he addressed the groups extemporaneously in an inter-club meeting here last night.

The clubs met for dinner and a fellowship program at the Park hotel, where they joined simultaneously with Kiwanians all over the United States in observing All-Kiwanis night.

Judge Olvens, who is past governor of the Utah-Idaho Kiwanis district, chose as his topic, "Kiwanis Clothes."

"Kiwanis club members should clothe themselves in the talisments of peace, liberty and a spirit of freedom," he said. "If Americans will clothe themselves in the beauty of peace and liberty, that beauty will be reflected in the coming generations."

"We must fight the 'isms' of Europe," the speaker said. "Communism, Fascism and Nazism will be reflected in the character of Europe's coming generations."

"If we devote ourselves to constructive service work and do not close ourselves in the dilemma of fear, that idea will be transmitted to the minds of others," Olvens declared.

The speaker was introduced by O. P. Duvall, J. E. White was chairman of the program.

From 7 to 7:15 the group participated in the general program that was simultaneously the same at a thousand other Kiwanis club meetings throughout the United States.

At 7 the group observed a minute of silent fellowship, followed by the singing of "America" and "Save the King."

A message from the international committee was read by H. H. Hedstrom, past president, who also directed a ceremony of rededication of members.

On the program was a vocal solo by Jimmy Carlson, Buhl, accompanied at the piano by his mother; a short recitation by Eleanor Jameson, Plier; an accordion selection by Miss Florine Hunt, Buhl; and two piano numbers by Mrs. Juliet Hayden Boone, Twin Falls.

Full Program Listed For Church Gathering

Moving into the first full day of the 40th annual conference of south Idaho Christian churches held morning, afternoon and evening sessions at the Christian church in Twin Falls today in addition to the initial luncheon meeting of the conference.

Concluding today's gatherings will be the evening meeting at 7:30 p. m. with Ray M. Beauchamp, Twin Falls, presiding, Songs and devotion will open the program, and Paul De F. Mortimore, Pocatello member of the state board, will give an address on "Our Stewardship." Rev. H. O. Wilson, Portland, Ore., will give a convention address as the highlight of the evening.

Educational Meeting
Clarence Bergman was presiding this afternoon at the educational session. Devotional was in charge of the North West Christian college quartet, Eugene, Ore. K. E. Burke, president of that institution, offered an address after which report of the state Sunday school attendance contest was submitted.

William Sletke, Caldwell, discussed "Our Laboratory School," and youth problems then took the spotlight. Lester Jones, Nampa, state vice-president, spoke on the young people's summer conference and Mrs. Milton W. Bower, Kimberly, outlined the Christian youth fellowship.

Editor Speaks
Glen McRae, St. Louis, editor of "The Front Rank," issued by the Christian board of publications, spoke on Christian education. Conference then occupied the convention group, with Mrs. Lester Jones heading the party by children's workers, William Sletke, Caldwell, directing the men's session, and Mrs. G. Z. Goza, the women's.

Alvin Kimbrell, president this morning, W. E. Harman, Twin Falls; J. Eric Carlson, St. Louis, and H. O. Wilson, Portland, offered the convention addresses. W. E. Clemens, St. Louis, made book announcements.

Convention committees were announced last night after Rev. Milton W. Bower, Kimberly, delivered the president's address to 150 south Idaho delegates. Rev. Bower stressed that "God's way" is the cure for unsettled world conditions.

Committees (which will present reports Thursday morning at the last business session) are:
Nominating—Rev. Herbert B. Jones, Nampa, chairman. Other members of the committee are Rev. J. D. Hardin of Buhl; Rev. H. E. Mower of Emmett; Ray Beauchamp of Twin Falls; and Rev. A. C. Cox of Kuna.

Future work and resolutions committee is Rev. Frank Purnell of Boise with Rev. Paul De F. Mortimore of Pocatello, Rev. Lester Jones of Nampa and Rev. Alvin Kimbrell of Burley.

Surprise check-up on motor car headlights was staged here last evening on Shoshone street in the city park area by a corps of state police officers under Lieut. Howard E. Carlson.

The test was staged under the 1936 Idaho safety statutes, and motorists whose lights were found inaccurately adjusted or inadequate for night driving were given five days to have corrections made.

Similar tests are planned for Buhl, Burley, Rupert, Shoshone, Jerome, Gooding and other south Idaho communities.

Man or Machine?
New Jersey voters go to the polls today to ballot on an amendment to the state constitution which raises a moral issue of wide interest and which may influence the future of horse racing throughout the United States.

The question is whether the state shall legalize pari-mutuel betting on horse races. Some of the biggest figures in the turf world are taking part behind the scenes.

Leading the fight for pari-mutuel betting is Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City. Head of the opposition is former state Senator Lester H. Clee, the Newark minister.

At present New Jersey has no legalized betting. As in almost every state, unlicensed bookies operate from cigar stores and poolrooms in the large cities. But the wealthy race track followers of New Jersey now must cross the Hudson to New York, the capital of American racing, to wager legally at the tracks.

New York has legal bookmakers at the race courses who pay the track a daily license fee. The state in turn taxes the track on its admissions of $2.50 a head. If New Jersey adopts pari-mutuels, New York will be forced to follow suit when the question comes up in November.

Pari-mutuel forces contend that their system will turn into the state treasury as taxes money which now goes into the pockets of unlicensed bookmakers. They also argue that pari-mutuel wagering permits the man with $2 to place a bet legally at a race track, whereas at tracks where legalized bookmakers operate the price of admission is prohibitive.

With a pari-mutuel system would come a state racing commission of probably three $5,000-a-year jobs and several hundred minor positions which politicians could dish out as patronage. New York might stand to gain $10,000,000 in taxes, New Jersey somewhat less.

But would either state gain? Pari-mutuel opponents answer that with a resounding "no" and then tell why: Pari-mutuels would increase the state's tax burden by turning plenty of dollar bills from the cash registers of stores to the betting windows at race tracks; the system would force evasion of the law because unlicensed bookmakers would continue to operate; pari-mutuels take 10 per cent from all wagers placed whereas legal bookmakers return 100 per cent; pari-mutuels would open betting to a large group which cannot afford to gamble.

Whatever the decision of New York and New Jersey voters, it is highly important to racing throughout the country. And the stewardship of those into whose control betting on races is entrusted may well kill or preserve the sport of kings.

Thank You, Mayor

Every champion of free speech and free assembly should give a silent vote of thanks to Mayor Frank Hague who says he is the "law" of Jersey City, N. J. That probably was the thought of many as they stood in that city's Journal square the other night and listened to the speakers at an American Civil Liberties union mass meeting which had been delayed for over a year.

The record of that group's first attempted gathering is history. The story is well known how Socialist Norman Thomas was bombarded with rotten eggs and forcibly ejected from the city by Hague's police.

In its final session of the year the supreme court held that a Jersey City ordinance under which permits for such mass meetings often had been denied was a violation of the freedom of speech and assembly.

Mayor Hague is really responsible—although unintentionally—for this great democratic victory. Had he not sought to suppress the meetings of groups which he termed "radical," the case never would have been taken to court.

And the year during which the so-called radicals were barred from the Hague domain meant nothing to them. Their cause was publicized a thousand-fold in every newspaper and over every radio in the land.

Barter with Athletes

During his six years as secretary of state, Cordell Hull has become known throughout the world for his "Yankee trading" policies.

But it now appears that if Mr. Hull is going to compete with the totalitarian governments he will have to change his ways.

Italy, in its barter quest for coffee, has found a source of supply in Brazil. But Brazil is demanding in return not olive oil or wine, but a football player.

That's the kind of twist future international trading takes, the United States will hold a full hand of athletes as well as natural resources.

And despite congress' disapproval, Mr. Roosevelt might not get that Argentine canned beef for the navy after all. He could just ship them an Annapolis full-

CONDON, Martin's butler-valet, pushed in by two cops without any pretense of tenderness.

"Who killed Martin?" asked Fenelon coldly.

"There's the killer," he howled.
"Don't lie to me," said the commissioner.
"You probably killed him."

After a few similar questions and incidents, Condon began to get wise.

"Why, Commissioner, I wasn't even in the joint when the Duke kicked in," he whined.

"Take him out," ordered Fenelon.

Still whining, Condon was led away, his mouth twisted in a snarl.

The commissioner turned to Jack.

"What motive would you have for killing Martin?"

Jack hesitated. If he mentioned Clem it would involve her. "I guess I guess I didn't know
I was doing it."

Fenelon smiled. "And you, Miss Shirley, what motive would you have for shooting Duke Martin?"

Clem, pushed back her chair with a weary hand. "I'm so fuddled I can't think. But I do know that neither Mary nor Jack did it. The Gazette was all wrong about that."

"Mr. Jack Burden," he said
nonchalantly.

Jack, hair rumpled, eyes bloodshot, and clothes wrinkled, burst into the room, clutching a rumpled copy of the Gazette.

"Then, what's true?" he shouted,
pointing to the headline. "I killed
Martin and I'm glad of it!"

Ladd and Fenelon exchanged glances. Mary's expression cleared as she realized what was happening.

"Well, aren't you going to do something about it?" demanded
Jack hysterically.

Fenelon gave him a quick look.
"Take it easy, boy," his voice was kind. "We'll have to have some proof of the crime."

"There was a commotion outside the door. It swung violently open.
Clem Shirley pushed past a protecting guard and came in."

"I heard that," he cried. "You can't arrest him. I did it. I committed the murder. I did it."

COWBOYS TREK TO SALT LAKE FOR SERIES

Twin Falls Loses To Lewiston 8-6; Stewart Injured

The Cowboys open a three-game series in Salt Lake against the Bees tonight, with Johnny Stefan holding down the mound assignment, and Jerry Soule scheduled for relief work if needed. The locals play at Salt Lake tonight, Wednesday and Thursday and then trek far to the north to meet the Lewiston Indians in a three-game duel before coming home again to open here against Ogden June 27.

Doc Puts Ban On Eddie for 4 More Weeks

Eddie Lehman, injured manager of the Twin Falls Cowboys, made a little call on the doc Monday afternoon, but he isn't particularly happy today over the visit. Eddie broke his foot when he slid into home in a recent game at Boise and as the "doc" put the injured player's foot in a cast he said, in effect, "Eddie, you've got to stay off the field. You won't play any ball for four weeks."

Well, the sawbones knocked the cast off yesterday, at Eddie's request, and he is now on his feet. Eddie Lehman, injured shortstop-manager, said he would probably be in the second cast for about two weeks, and he wouldn't be playing for three or four weeks.

Meanwhile, Vern Reynolds from Spokane is doing a fairly good job at filling Eddie's big shoes at shortstop.

The team started out in the second game in the second after three runs in the second after three or four weeks.

Mean while, Vern Reynolds from Spokane is doing a fairly good job at filling Eddie's big shoes at shortstop.

School District Orders Bus Safety Regulations

School leaders of Idaho adopted a safety code at Boise over the week-end—but the Twin Falls school district was a jump ahead of the conference, examination of bus contract specifications here revealed this afternoon.

The specifications govern the contract awarded last week to Magel Automobile company and Warberg Brothers Coal and Transfer company. Safety provisions are stringent, both as to buses themselves and as to complete regulations for drivers of the school vehicles.

Concerning the machines themselves (none of which has run over 20,000 total miles and all of which are already in excellent condition) the contract specifications say:

Safety Paramount

"The contractor realizes that (as stated by the Idaho supreme court) a tremendous number of accidents arise from the use of motor vehicles, that it requires skill, experience and judgment to safely operate them and that their operation is fraught with potential hazard; and that this particular contract requires the transportation of a large number of children over many miles of rather heavily traveled highway; and that the contractor accordingly agrees that he enters into this contract with the full knowledge of such situation and that in all things connected herewith including the original equipment furnished, the maintenance thereof during the life of the contract and the operation thereof a high degree of care and responsibility is required of him and of his employees; . . . the safety of the children to be transported is paramount."

Specific safety provisions for Twin Falls school buses include:

Safe in All Ways

"All buses supplied or used by the contractor shall be at the beginning of the contract and at all times during the existence of the contract safe and adequate from every point of view and in good and safe condition."

"It is understood and agreed that the district, acting through its board of trustees and its designated employees, shall be the sole judge of the conditions set out in this paragraph; and that the contractor shall not have the right to use or connect with any bus which in the opinion of the district is not safe and adequate. And it is understood that the district may have any or all of the buses covered herein inspected and checked for their mechanical condition to ascertain their safety and adequateness by any person designated by it at any time."

Among the safety features which the district stipulates the school buses are to have are safety non-shatter glass, signs stating "Please Do Not Talk to the Driver," large mirror giving the driver complete vision of the whole interior, other mirrors for rear view vision, proper appliances for windshield and window wiping.

Driver Requirements

In addition to strict provisions as to mechanical safety features, the Twin Falls school board goes even further in outlining requirements which must be "rigidly followed" by the bus drivers.

The regulations covering the drivers are:

1. No driver may be less than 21 years of age.

2. The bus owner must "use every effort" to have "permanent drivers of mature judgment." Shifting of drivers, causing use of drivers not acquainted with the routes and the children, will not be permitted.

3. The district may request discharge of any driver for bona fide reasons.

No Drinking

4. Strict ruling against drinking of liquor "at any time or during any day" that a driver pilots a school bus. Immediate discharge is penalty.

5. No smoking by drivers while carrying children or while "in or around" school grounds.

6. Drivers must, at all times be personally neat and clean.

7. District to have the option of requiring all drivers "be at all times possessed of a health certificate."

8. Emphatic requirement that all drivers must not cross any railroad track while transporting children.

9. The coming to a full stop and sending out a monitor, designated by school officials, to scan the track both ways.

RESORT PROGRAM TOLD TO ROTARY

HAILEY, June 20 (Special)—Review of summer events to be held at Sun Valley was offered to Halley Rotary club at its meeting last week by lodge representatives.

The events, according to W. D. Tidgus, include the 320 singers of the famous L.B.B. choir July 22-23; Sun Valley rodeo Aug. 12 and 13; and night showing of the rodeo Aug. 13.

The Sun Valley trio, along with Gene Heaing and his accordion and Mary Ann Henney as additional vocalists, presented "I Cry for You."

Ladies Aid Group Elects President

CASLEFORD, June 20 (Special)—Mrs. Alvin Hastings was elected president of the Methodist Ladies Aid society for the coming year at a meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Harrison.

Other officers for the coming year are Mrs. Nellie Ulrich, first vice-president; Mrs. Roy Gager, second vice-president; Mrs. Darrell Phillips, third vice-president; Mrs. James Spencer, secretary; Mrs. Ed Conrad, treasurer and Mrs. J. J. Slick, reporter.

Mrs. Evelyn Prudek played two accordion solos, "Prayer Meeting Time in the Valley" and "Aloha Oe" and Mrs. Alvin Hastings gave a solo on the piano.

Refreshments were served by the ladies of the church. Mrs. Margaret

20 Rooms Added At Resort Lodge

HAILEY, June 20 (Special)—Interesting item for south Idahoans who keep an eye on Sun Valley's recreational resort is the fact that an addition of 20 new rooms will expand facilities at the lodge.

The new skating rink will offer another added feature, with the first ammonia freezing system in the world. Alongside of it will be the new dance floor where lunches and dinner will be served.

Vital note to skiers: The new lift to be constructed to the top of Bald mountain will add about two months to the skiing season in Sun Valley.

Camera Club Movie Offer Wins Praise

Preview in Hollywood and other major metropolitan centers has won high praise for "Highlights and Shadows," sound film to be shown in Twin Falls June 27 under auspices of the Magic Valley Camera club, officers said today.

The general public may attend the movie showing free of charge, camera club leaders pointed out. The showing is scheduled for 8 p. m. June 27 at Idaho Power auditorium. The 16 mm film is of full feature length, and gives a complete record of the progress made in camera equipment and photography. It was produced by Eastman Kodak company.

EXPERT LINE-UP AT WATER MEET

Engineers and technical experts will surround the Twin Falls city councilmen and the mayor tonight as the municipal chiefs stage the first concerted move toward a new water source.

Mayor Joe Koehler, the councilmen, many members of the planning board and the corps of engineers will convene at the Regerson hotel banquet room at 8:30 p. m. The figure will be J. C. Stevens, Portland hydraulic and water engineer whose all of the buses covered herein inspected and checked for their mechanical condition to ascertain their safety and adequateness by any person designated by it at any time.

Among technical experts at tonight's session, in addition to Stevens, will be W. V. Leonard, Idaho state chemist; James Spifford, Idaho commissioner of reclamation; H. C. Senger, Idaho Power company chief engineer at Boise; Loyd and C. L. Smith, Twin Falls Canal company; John Griffiths, WPA engineer; Ples Wilson, city engineer; Lynn Crandall, Snake river watermaster from Idaho Falls; John E. Hayes, prominent Twin Falls civil engineer.

KIMBERLY MEET HEARS 2 TALKS

KIMBERLY, June 20 (Special)—Talks on two topics—electricity, especially as related to farming, and discussion of farm pests—highlighted the meeting of the Kimberly commercial club and representative farmers last week.

Ralph W. Carpenter, manager of the Idaho Power Twin Falls division, and D. T. Bollingbroke, county agent, addressed the group at the regular June session, held at the Melvin Gill home and attended by 30 persons.

Mr. Carpenter spoke of the advancement of the power industry, especially in rural electrification of south Idaho and this immediate district. He also discussed hazards of home-made electric fences, citing examples where lives were lost.

Mr. Bollingbroke based his talk on the alfalfa weevil, the potato beetle and the cricket. Adding to his talk, he showed living examples of the potato and alfalfa insects in various stages of larva and adulthood.

Walter Slaughter, Jr., president, was presiding officer at the meeting, which was preceded by a fried chicken dinner.

July session will be held only for members of acting committees, the August meet being the next regularly scheduled call.

Mine to Reopen

HAILEY, June 20 (Special)—Re-opening of the Boulder basin mine is scheduled soon. Maj. and Mrs. Barney Day and daughter, of Toronto, are expected back in Wood river shortly. Maj. Day is interested along with Jack Schultz in Boulder basin mine and they plan to re-open after a two-year period of vacancy.

It's Last! A Good OLD FASHIONED BREAD

Just Like Mother Used To Bake!

Another Winner Produced By the Bakers of BUTTER-KRUST

Remember the smell of fresh-baked bread, coming from your mother's oven? Big, plump loaves, browned to a "T," with a taste that was worth a million! Perhaps you are one of those who right this minute are wishing you could have a taste of this nearly-forgotten delicacy. If so, get ready. For here comes your opportunity!

The Bakers of BUTTER-KRUST, most popular bread in Magic Valley, now bring you the real old-timer—SID'S OLD FASHIONED BREAD—and it's bound to win a big demand among those whose tastes are still old fashioned enough to enjoy real eatin'.

It's a big 1½ pound loaf, baked from an old-fashioned formula and crowned with a crust you'll recognize immediately. There's nothing fancy about it, not even the plain brown wrapper that's as old-fashioned as the bread itself. It's just plain good, all the way through, and you'll like it—plenty!

Soak up your gravy? Sure! Break when it's toasted? Absolutely! Put it to any of the old-fashioned tests and you'll find it a dead-ringer.

If your taste hasn't grown fussy with the change in modern eating habits—if you still prefer bread like it was baked in the good old days—don't waste any time in trying a loaf of SID'S OLD FASHIONED BREAD.

You'll thank the bakers of BUTTER-KRUST for bringing back an old favorite.
