G-Men Search for Wisconsin Killer Who May Be Mattson Kidnaper

HUNTED SLAYER ELUDES POLICE IN DENSE WOODS

By WILLIAM H. McCALL
HAYWARD, Wis., June 21 (UP)—Sheriff George Seehuetter announced today that the federal bureau of investigation would enter the search for Ray Olson, 30, fugitive killer of two deputies, to investigate the possibility that he might be the long sought kidnaper of Charles Mattson, 10, Tacoma, Wash. Seehuetter said he had asked for assistance from the FBI office at Milwaukee and had been advised that at least one G-man would come here. He emphasized that the possibility Olson might be the Mattson kidnaper was "purely speculative."

Olson closely resembled descriptions of the kidnaper, he said. "But there is nothing definite to connect him with the case, as I informed the federal agents in asking them to come here. However, we are not overlooking that angle. We want him for two killings here and that is enough for now."

Posse Hunts Snake River For Lost Hansen Boy, 16; Search Finds Youth's Hat Low Water Blocks Help By Boat Men

Hunting the body of 16-year-old Daniel Dale Wood, Hansen, a posse from Hansen, Twin Falls and Kimberly searched the waters of Snake river at the foot of towering canyon walls this afternoon.

The youth apparently drowned shortly after 6 p. m. yesterday approximately half a mile eastward of the Hansen bridge. Sheriff Art C. Parker said. The posse began searching for the lost youth shortly after nightfall last evening, hunted the canyon bottom for hours in darkness, and then resumed the search at 6 a. m. today.

Young Wood apparently fell into the river while separated from three companions with whom he had gone to the canyon bottom on an outdoor overnight expedition. The sheriff said.

The boy's hat was found at 8 a. m. today. The river victim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, Hansen. With him on the trip into the canyon were Harold Warren, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Warren, Hansen; Philip Husted, 16, and Merion Zuck, 16, both of Hansen.

Fully 20 volunteers were included in the posse which pushed the hunt for the Wood boy's body this afternoon after futile efforts last night and early today. A motorboat party riding in laid Drexler's craft was unable to get nearer than a mile from the spot at which the boy was last seen, the posse's commander said.

"The posse plans to let a boat down from the Hansen bridge with a winchman used by a fisherman for letting his own boat into the river," Parker said.

The boat had not been lowered from the high bridge structure by 11:30 a. m. but was to be sent down this afternoon. It will be equipped with ropes and hooks. If the searchers do not find the body, Parker said they will stretch a screen across the river at the "narrow."

The screen will be placed across all three spots at which the river now splits, because of low water, into a triple channel.

Deputy Warren W. Lowery was handling the operations this morning.

Young Wood and his companions left Hansen at mid-afternoon Tuesday, taking along some food but no equipment, according to reports.

BRITISH DEMAND RELEASE OF MAN IN NIPPON HANDS

LONDON, June 21 (UP)—Tokyo is offering to settle the Tientsin dispute as a local matter between Japan and Great Britain, thus giving Britain a "face-saving act" in the Orient and avoiding the issue to be settled by mutual negotiation, according to an official forecast circulated in diplomatic quarters tonight.

By JOHN E. MORRIS
TIENTSIN, China, June 21 (UP)—The United States entered the Tientsin blockade situation today with representations against Japanese interference with American citizens and property.

At the same time, Great Britain made a demand of ultimative nature for the immediate release of G. A. Smith, British importer, captured by Japanese pickets at the entrance to the blockaded British concession Saturday.

"Proper steps" by the British government were threatened as the alternative to release.

Troops landed at the British concessions had moved to a camp, Japan in a move to drive landed troops out, but had been unopposed by the Chinese, under the guns of a Japanese warship which established a "planning" side and turned out the Japanese army, Imperial Japanese army, Imperial Japanese army, Imperial Japanese army.

Significance was attached in diplomatic circles to the fact that the American representation was made, Consul General Caldwell and Admiral Harry E. Yarnall, who had visited the British consul general and British army headquarters.

Blockade Discussed
Yarnall and the consul general discussed the blockade with the British officials.

The United States yesterday had protested to Japan at Tokyo against bombardments of American missions in China and against the supplies at Kailuan, the foreign area of Amoy, which the Japanese navy is blockading.

Now, with Consul General Caldwell's representations, it was brought into the Tientsin situation, generally regarded with that as a Japanese attempt to seize control of all foreign areas in China.

AUTO INSURANCE CONTRACT GIVEN TO TWO FIRMS

City council members in special session this morning awarded the city automobile fleet insurance contract jointly to the J. E. White Real Estate company and the Irrigated Lands company.

The insurance was awarded with the stipulation that the two firms divide the contract.

Acceptance of the insurance policy covering city owned cars as offered by the J. E. White and Irrigated Lands companies was made after a motion picture of the city owned cars was shown.

Reason for stipulating that the commission be "split" is because both firms represent the same company.

Councilmen also pointed out that in the future it will be the practice to let the insurance bid to two companies each year in order to "pass the insurance around" and give "everyone a chance."

Following the session J. E. Roberts, one of the bidders for the contract, pointed out that the bid made by J. E. White, as regards the public liability clause from $25,000 to $50,000 and the property damage clause from $25,000 to $50,000.

Roberts, in making the statement, pointed out that these two articles were the only one on which a comparison could be based inasmuch as the report cannot be completed until the policies are issued.

NLRB APPROVES EMPLOYER ELECTIONS IN CHOICE OF UNIONS

CHANGES SOUGHT BY BUSINESSMEN IN WAGNER ACT

WASHINGTON, June 21 (U.P.)—Charles Fahy, counsel for the national labor relations board, said today that the board has definitely approved a change in its rules to permit employers to petition it to conduct bargaining elections among their workers.

The change has been sought by businessmen, who contended that sometimes they are not determined what labor union they should bargain with. Pending proposals to amend the Wagner act include provision for the board to recognize employer petitions.

Decision Revealed

Fahy revealed the board's decision at a house labor committee hearing on amendments sponsored by the American Federation of Labor.

Joseph P. Carey, AFL counsel, said to the committee, "You are not going to get any change in the regulations, to permit employer petitions, until after congress adjourns."

Fahy interrupted and said that the change had been approved by the board yesterday and was being drafted in legal form.

No Statement

He said he had not made any statement on the subject because the board chairman J. Warren Madden, who told the committee recently that a change would be made in the regulations to permit employers to petition the board to conduct bargaining elections, was communicating the decision to chairman Mary T. Norton, D. N. J.

Fahy's remarks indicated that the new regulation will go into operation soon.

Work Resumed

House and senate labor committees resumed work on proposals to amend the Wagner act today. The committee on the national labor relations board sought a $100,000 investigation of the administration. They planned to introduce a new resolution for an inquiry, replacing a similar resolution which Rep. C. Arthur Anderson, D. Mich., has pending before the house rules committee.

POSSE SEARCHES RIVER FOR YOUTH

blanets to what was planned as an overnight outing in the canyon. Parker said they found a hole in the rocks in the old river bed, and began fishing the specific fish camp.

Bought Crabs

Daniel left his friends to scout around for a possum in the canyon. He went to the river to the north side. He was a little late in the channel to make his observations. The other boys saw him coming about 10 p. m. and immediately went back into the camp hole to fix supper.

Posse Goes Down

When Daniel did not show up, the others started a search for him. Then, fearing nightfall, they climbed up to the canyon rim and reported the boy's absence at Hansen. The sheriff was notified at once and a posse was formed. It included Parker and two deputies, Constable El Greven of Kimberly and 12 or 15 volunteers from Hansen.

Using flashlights, the party split up and searched the canyon. Part of the group remained overnight; others returned to prepare for intensive hunt this morning.

The search resumed at 6 a. m. About 8 a. m. part of the searchers found young Wood's hat above where he was last seen. The spot, Parker said, is between the small lake below the Hansen bridge and the spot where the river narrows.

The sheriff estimated that the lad's body may not rise to the surface inside 10 days, although it might appear as soon as three or four days, depending on the temperature of the water.

It was understood the young victim was occasionally afflicted with a physical infirmity which might have caused him to fall into the river in event he had become frightened.

U.S. PROTESTS AT JAPANESE MOVES

Britain "ends its pro-Chinese policy."

The Swatow raid came as a complete surprise, following the blockade of the Tientsin concessions and Kiangsu, the foreign area of Amoy, 135 miles up the coast from Swatow.

Close in on Base
Obviously Japan, by occupying and blockading Swatow, intended to close an inlet for Chinese war supplies. Actually whether as part of a general policy or not, it means that the Japanese were closing in on Hong Kong, Great Britain's far eastern naval base.

Swatow is 180 miles above Hong Kong.

Reports from Swatow said that Japanese subjecting Chinese troops to a terrible rape and airplane bombardment and that several fires were started within the city. Foreigners were reported safe.

2 Arrested in In Exuberant Horsemanship

Two men who were assertedly doing some horse-training in the ranch yard of Joe Bennett, two and a half miles south of Twin Falls on U. S. 93, apparently were in for intoxication charges today.

The pair is Left Austin, 46, and Don Griffin, about 30.

Sheriff's officers said intoxication charges "probably will be filed" against the men, who were arrested Tuesday afternoon at Bennett's place. Officers asserted the pair was trying to make "high school horses" out of a couple of steeds owned by the mother of Griffin.

When one of the horses galloped off, a deputy pulled out a gun but said he didn't aim it or shoot it. The horseman decided to come along peacefully. When he got to the sheriff's office here, his hands were wouldn't unlock. They had to be sawed off.

JURY SELECTION MOVING SLOWLY

With a special panel of veniremen rapidly nearing its end, the protracted task of securing a jury for the embezzlement trial of Harvey B. Hale moved slowly in district court today.

Thirteen members of the 16-man special panel appeared in court this morning after a one-day recess forced by rain of the panel members. Three of the 13 were excused. From the remaining 10, plus one who had been left from the original panel, six were drawn before the noon recess. That left five names still not drawn, defense and state each have two peremptory challenges remaining.

Extensive questioning of the prospective jurors by defense counsel marked this morning's session. Prosecutor Everett M. Sweley's queries were brief.

When a jury is finally selected—and the possibility of a second special panel loomed this afternoon—Mr. Hale will face the state's charges that he appropriated $850 from the Twin Falls county Livestock Marketing association. His attorneys are Chapman and Chapman.

Daily Trudge Of Mail Men Is 12.7 Miles

How far does one of Uncle Sam's mail carriers walk in Twin Falls each day?

And how much weight does he carry?

Surveys answering those questions surprised even the mail carriers themselves today, according to Twin Falls postal officials.

Each of the seven postmen who deliver mail to Twin Falls homes walks an average of 12.7 miles per day.

Those were the figures issued today by postmaster M. A. Strunk after compilation of statistics in a five-day count made April 10 to 14. Distance walked daily by the seven carriers totaled 89.3 miles. That produced 12.7 miles for each man. Total weight of mail delivered in the five days was 3,215 pounds. Average weight for the seven men on each day was 606 pounds, which meant 86 pounds each.

As for pieces of mail delivered daily, the total was 4,801 for the seven men and an average per day of 700 pieces per carrier. For the five days, the carriers delivered 24,315 pieces.

German Troops March Into Fortifications Opposite French Border

NAZI SOLDIERS ARE MOVING ON BOTH FRONTIERS

By RALPH HEINZEN
PARIS, June 21 (Special)—Germany is moving the first units of a force of approximately 100,000 men into its "line" fortifications opposite the French frontier, it was reported today.

In addition, it was said, the crack Nazi "Condor Legion" which fought in the Spanish civil war is to be installed at Barrebruck, in the frontier zone, for special training.

Line Completion Set
Until today, according to reports, only from 12,500 to 15,000 maintenance troops had been in the German fortifications. The entire line is to be completed at the end of this month, including repairs necessitated by recent floods which inundated a part of the system.

Recently additional infantry, armored cars, light tanks and motor-cycle machine gun units have arrived, ready to take over parts of the line, it was reported here.

Troops Move
Today, it was said, 50,000 to 60,000 men began moving in to take up their positions in the first lines and soon another 30,000 to 40,000 will be moved into the second line.

According to border reports, Germans have tightened the frontier control coincident with the troop movements, and motorized units now patrol the frontier. Travelers are subject to rigid surveillance, it was said.

Extend in East
Extension of the western frontier defenses comes simultaneously with reports that big German troop movements are in progress toward Germany's eastern frontier, chiefly in the region of Slovakia where Germany could strike at Polish Silesia.

As the result of reports of these German movements, it was understood, Poland has appealed to France and Great Britain to speed up deliveries of airplanes, artillery and munitions.

RESIDENT SIGNS FOR ARMY DUTY

Thomas A. Healy, Twin Falls, Idaho, resident at 252 Second avenue north, has been accepted to serve with the United States army at Ft. Lewis, Wash., with the ninth field artillery. It was announced this afternoon by Sgt. Frank Morris, officer in charge of the recruiting station at the city hall.

Morris said that Healy has left for Ft. Douglas, Mo., to complete final enlistment and will then be forwarded to the training camp.

He also made that several vacancies for service in the ninth corps are still exist.

Accompanying them were Mrs. Helen Henderson, Y.W.C.A. secretary for the Magic Valley district, and Mrs. Ruth Brown Johnson.

They planned to arrive late this afternoon at the lake camp in time for the first night "stunt night", for which the Twin Falls girls have prepared "The Seven Dwarfs at the Fair", following the general world's fair theme of the conference.

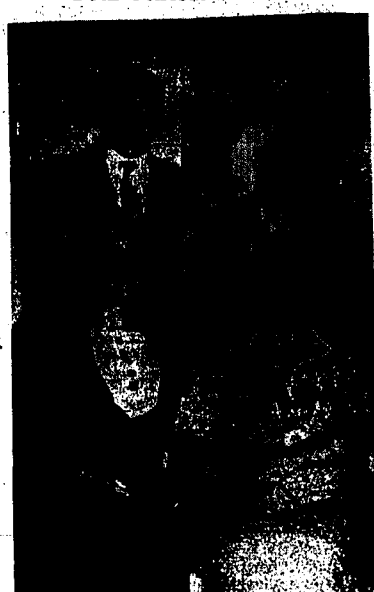

In the skit Dooley will be taken by Mary Jean Shipman, Sneezy by Alta Frazier, Dopey by Helen Thomas, Happy by Margene Crow, Sleepy by Catherine Hicks, Grumpy by Loreen Fuller and Bashful by Margaret Vazquez.

Director and author was Lillian Leubenstein, another Twin Falls delegate.

Mrs. Henderson, assisted by Loren Fuller, will direct music for the 130 girls from all parts of southern Idaho who ordinarily attend the camp.

Average cost of attending college for one year in the United States is $340 but costs vary greatly from college to college.

Actress Wins Her Fight for WPA Theater
WASHINGTON, June 21 (U.P.)—Tallulah Bankhead, glamorous actress daughter of Speaker William B. Bankhead, scored a "hit" in the role of lobbyist and appeared today to have won a partial victory in her fight for continuation of the federal theater project.

Chairman Alvin B. Adams, D.C., of the senate appropriations subcommittee considering the $1,735,000 relief bill for the next fiscal year, said he believed that house action, which abolished the project, could be compromised.

He suggested that theater projects might be continued with a provision that they have a local sponsor—a requirement made of other WPA art projects.

Adams volunteered this apparent willingness to make a concession, despite the fact that he was not one of the fortunate senators who received a big bug and a kiss from Miss Bankhead during her one-day stand here.

"SACRIFICE" BABY DIES OF WOUNDS
CHARLESTON, S.C., June 21 (U.P.)—A baby girl who was shot by her father as a "human sacrifice" to save his way to heaven, died today.

Clair Young, 36-year-old coal miner, said that "twice and violence" commented him into "sacrificing" his 19-month-old baby, Ada.

Young apparently had no regrets for shooting his youngest child, one of five, last July he had been committed to Torrence state hospital after suffering from a delusion that he had killed his daughter, but he was released from the hospital last October.

After shooting Ada as she toddled behind him into the kitchen of their home, Young attempted to take his own life. His mother, Mrs. Mary C. Young, 75, grabbed the gun from his hand.

More than 10 per cent of all workers in the United States are employed for domestic or personal service.

WASHINGTON, June 21 (U.P.)—For the first time in more than a year President Roosevelt had been asked point blank today whether he planned to run for reelection in 1940, and as on the earlier occasion, he advised his questioner to go and stand in the corner.

When the question was propounded at a press conference a "hush of expectancy" fell over the room but Mr. Roosevelt made no attempt to give a direct reply.

He jokingly remarked that when questions bearing on a third term were asked he made an awful mistake by not suggesting that those responsible stand in the corner. Columnists, he said, promptly seized upon that omission as significant.

Consequently he said he was repeating it.

He was asked whether he talked politics with Mayor Fiorello La Guardia of New York, who visited the executive offices Tuesday. Mr. Roosevelt replied that the hot season was approaching and politics was too weighty a subject.

Bridal Pair Honored At Evening Courtesy

With their seating arrangement at the table determined by the corsages which they drew from a specially arranged bouquet, 12 intimate friends of Miss Alice Perrine and her fiancé, Jack Phipps, attended a seven o'clock dinner given in honor of the bridal pair by Miss Agnes Stronk at her home last evening.

Placed at each place at the dinner table was a streamer leading to a silver cardboard flower basket in the center of the table, in which were favors and fortunes for the guests. Arranged on either side of the flower baskets were miniature silver brides.

The individual nut cups were decorated with small white bells, and at either end of the table were crystal vases filled with white roses.

Contract bridge was played after dinner with prizes going to Georgia McMaster and Bill Edwards.

An out of town guest at the dinner was Miss Mildred Smith, Washington, D. C.

The marriage of Miss Perrine and Mr. Phipps will be solemnized this week-end.

Bride-Elect Is Feted at Party

Honoring Miss Gertrude Seal, who will be married to Darrell J. Norton, Los Angeles, tomorrow evening, was the dinner party arranged for her last evening by her mother, Mrs. W. F. Seal.

An arrangement of garden flowers in a low bowl centered the long table at which guests were seated. Guests at the affair in addition to the bride-elect and members of the Seal family were Mrs. W. F. Seal, Dallas, Tex., a cousin of the bride-elect, who arrived here yesterday to attend the wedding, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bernard, her brother-in-law, Woody Bernard, Hansen, Mrs. Bernard is a sister of Miss Seal.

Mrs. Alice Adkins, godmother of the group, led in prayer.

Mrs. Leona Johnson, who was in charge of the program, chose the topic "Knowledge." In honor of Mrs. J. E. Drake, Mrs. Frank Monroe and Mrs. Roy Barnett, birthday prayer was led by Mrs. Cora Patton.

It's Done With Mirrors

This beautiful reflection of Dorothy Farrington is one of many alluring views at the California World's fair. You aren't seeing at Miss Farrington in the glass bathroom exhibit, however, but at her mirror-set jewelry. The bathroom—which you can't peer into because it isn't that kind of glass—is a feature of the display in the palace of homes and gardens, and visitors say it is a perfectly appointed room.

Rebekahs Admit Three Initiates

Sixty members and five visitors were present at the meeting of the Rebekah lodge last night when the new president, Mrs. Jessie Vance, made her official visit to the group. The meeting was the last of the lodge before it again resumes work in the fall.

Three new members, Pearl Strawn, Eva Mahken and Ruby Bandy, were initiated into the lodge. Mrs. Sigrid Smith, noble grand, presided over the meeting, and Mrs. Vance gave a very inspiring talk during the secret work of the order.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Patty Ella, chairman; Golda Chapman, Laura Felush, Millicent Ellis, Helen Valen and Zylha Stevens.

Feature of Party is Mock Wedding Service

Highlight of the pre-nuptial party given last evening at the home of Mrs. Otis Hall for Miss Alice McBride, bride of the month, was the mock wedding party which entered to the rhyming of a wedding march played on the piano.

A handful of vegetables comprised the bouquet of the mock bride and a huge ring, obtained from a set of harness, was used in the ring ceremony.

Miss McBride will be married to Guy Covington, Seattle, Wash., June 25 at the First Baptist church in Twin Falls.

Twenty-two intimate friends of the bride attended the party at the Hall home.

Games, arranged by Miss Doris Laylin, formed the evening's entertainment, feature of which was the mock wedding.

Mrs. Hall acted as the bride, and the part of the groom was taken by Mrs. Paul Strawn, with Mrs. Edith Wells, matron of honor; Miss Dorothy Strain, bridesmaid, and Miss Laylin, minister.

After the mock ceremony gifts were delivered to the bride in a small delivery wagon drawn into the room by two little friends of the bride.

Refreshments were served at the end of the evening at six tables, each of which were centered with bouquets of garden flowers and decorated in a color scheme of pink and white.

Favors were in the form of tiny dolls dressed as brides.

ANNUAL PLANNING HELD WPA DEFECT

ESTES PARK, Colo., June 21 (UP)—One of the most serious defects of work relief programs is the necessity of planning them from year to year, Col. F. C. Harrington, works progress administrator, believes. He recommended to the citizens conference on government management that WPA programs be arranged on a long-term basis.

This country, Harrington said in the address read by W. L. Nicholson, regional WPA director, may expect to have considerable labor surplus for some time to come. The best way of meeting this problem is through work program similar to the WPA, he said, and in the sake of efficiency a realistic and long-range view should be taken of the matter.

Project Deadline

Harrington pointed out that although the WPA has been continued from year to year, for four years, projects could not be approved unless they could be completed within the fiscal year.

J. Edgar Clark of the Mormon church, another of the speakers, contrasted the Mormon plan of self-help with the WPA and other relief agencies. He said a "planned and subsidized economy beats down initiative, wipes out industry, destroys standards and prostitutes the electorate."

Mormons Independent

"Mormons have cared for their own in the past and can do so now and in the future if relieved of the debauchery to character which follows a 'dole,' he believed."

The Mormon self-help plan, the church leader explained, is in pursuit of the goal of the belief that all matters that can be handled locally should be so handled. Caring for the needy is a responsibility of the church bishops and the church has always succeeded in doing it, he added.

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., June 21 (UP)—Engineer William Powell was bringing 100 workmen out of the Union Pacific coal mine No. 4 late yesterday on a train of 10 cars. The cars were drawn to the surface by a hoist.

As they neared the surface the miners noticed that Powell failed to slow down the cars as he usually did for an inside rail switch. As the train approached the end of the tipples without slowing the men began jumping. The cars, with only the engineer aboard, crashed through the end of the tipples and dropped to the ground, 40 feet below.

Physicians said Powell died of a heart attack, apparently as the cars started up the incline.

A New Testimonial

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: For a number of years I have been suffering with sour stomach, dizziness and headache. Constipation also caused me a great deal of daily trouble. Coupled with these afflictions, I found that my right arm was in such a condition that I could do very little work before it tired me so that I could not use it. During the fact I am over sixty years of age, I felt that I should enjoy better health and having read of Chan & Wing's Chinese Herbs, I decided to try them.

A six weeks' course of Chan & Wing's Chinese Herbs proved to me they were what I needed. Today I am well and happy. All the old conditions are gone. I work easily with either arm and life seems good again. I am happy to recommend Chan & Wing's Chinese Herbs to those who need them.

GEODETIC SURVEY MEASURES PEAKS

STANLEY, June 21 (Special)—Thirty members of the U. S. coast and geodetic survey are working out of this tiny village on a survey of mountains of this area. The crew is under the direction of Lieut. A. H. Stewart of the coast and geodetic survey.

The group will work out of here about one month, during which time heights of the surrounding peaks and other important features will be gathered. The real purpose of the crew is to establish points from which future crews can work in making maps of the country.

The first groups to go out on the work were sent to Mt. Snowy, which is about 10,877 feet, and Mt. Oso, about 9,000 feet higher, according to measurements taken during work done on the hills last summer and fall. The crews that worked this area last year were forced to quit about the first of November due to heavy snow.

Members of the geodetic survey have to pack into their respective points. While several men made the first journey to Mt. Oso, Harold Jensen, a Junction City, Ore., man was sent to the top of Mt. Snowy.

He packed in from the Pettit lakes ranch with four horses, accompanied by Lee Miller, Members making the trip to Mt.

PHILIPPINES BUY MORE FROM U. S.

WASHINGTON (U. S. P.)—United States sales to the Philippines in 1938 broke all records since 1920 and the islands advanced from twelfth to eighth place among United States customers.

Totaling $25,500,000, Philippine purchases of United States goods were second only to Japan's in the far east and were exceeded by only one Latin American country—Argentina, with total of barely $20,000,000, or more than that for the Commonwealth of the Philippines. But these were more than double the total for China.

Decline in Value

Philippine sales to the United States, however, showed a decline of 25 per cent in value, with the total of $24,244,000 the lowest since 1934.

Exclusive of the United Kingdom, the study showed, France, Germany and the Netherlands were the only European countries buying more from American goods than the Philippines, which supplied the history-making total of 25 per cent of the total imports in the United States.

Effect of War Apparent

The improved position of the United States in the Philippine market was largely ascribed to the Chinese-Japanese war, the effect of which in 1938 was to develop greatly the sale of Japanese cotton and rayon goods. Diversion of a large share of this trade, with few raw materials to cotton plant goods, benefited American exporters.

Continued mining activity in the islands was credited with maintaining virtually the same level of industrial machinery sales as in 1937, while increased building and construction, both private and public, accounted for increases in shipments of certain iron and steel products, electrical machinery and appliances.

Reduction in Philippine purchasing power resulting from lower agricultural prices was said to have been responsible for diminished demand for automotive products, but exports of petroleum products, pharmaceuticals, medical and paints maintained high levels comparable with 1937.

CUBA LEGISLATES AGAINST ALIENS

HAVANA (U. S. P.)—New and rigorous immigration legislation soon may be considered by the Cuban congress.

A bill has been presented in the chamber by Antonio Frumosa Diaz specifically prohibiting immigration into Cuba from Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Turkey, Rumania, Russia, China, Lithuania, Bulgaria, Germany, Jamaica, Haiti and Japan. The bill would prohibit the entry as immigrants into Cuba the natives of the foregoing named countries, even though they may have previously become citizens of "another friendly country."

The bill provides for the deportation of natives of the countries named, residing in Cuba, should it be found that they are engaged in activities other than those for which they were admitted under sworn statement upon their arrival, and it would declare illegal the exercise of all commerce and industry by such individuals in Cuba, unless the parties concerned could show that they have been engaged in such commerce and industry for at least three years.

Diaz, the author of the bill, has also presented to the chamber a petition for information to be solicited from the president on the following facts:

The exact number of individuals, specifying sex and age, who have come to Cuba during the last three years, of Lithuanian, Hungarian, Polish, Czechoslovak, Yugoslav, Bulgarian, German, Turkish, Rumanian and Russian nationality, and in general of all whose nationality is not Latin. The professions or trades claimed by these immigrants upon debarking, and the countries from which they declared themselves as having emigrated. The legal disposition that has covered the deportation of these immigrants, and whether it is in compliance with the 1917 immigration law, and the regulations for its enforcement.

POISON GAS HELD NO URBAN PERIL. SAN FRANCISCO (U. S. P.)—Civilian populations have little to fear from poison gas attacks from the skies, according to Sir William Alexander, brigadier-general in the English army, member of the house of commons, and head of one of the largest chemical plants in the world.

It is largely in the control of a chemical expert that Sir William endeavors to free the mind of the average citizen of the dangers of aerial warfare and especially from gas.

No poison has yet been devised, Sir William said, "that is lighter than air, it sinks to the earth and there it stays."

"What makes this even more advantageous is the fact, as has been demonstrated by experiments, that if a person of average height stands upright, he can walk about and keep his head above it."

Plant at Glasgow. Sir William's chemical company in the Charles Tennant plants at Glasgow with international branches. Subsidiaries of the concern produce raw materials for propellants and high explosives.

During the early years of the World war, he saw service with the Black Watch highlanders and was decorated with the D.S.O. and three other medals for bravery. Later, he was placed in charge of British explosive factories and in 1917 was made controller of aircraft production.

As a member of the house of commons, Sir William was the only Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain made a noble personal sacrifice in "pocketing his pride" and leaving his title and British aristocrat should be ready for it.

Roosevelt's Act Praised. He declared that the humiliation of Chamberlain was the only thing that could have roused Britons to sanction needed peace-time conscription, and that President Roosevelt's war and international strategy was that of sending the United States fleet to the Pacific at a time when Japan was being asked to pledge 100 per cent support to the axis powers.

Super Scales Disclose That Comma Weighs Twice as Much as Period

PITTSBURGH, Mass. (U. S. P.)—The punch behind a mosquito's bite is the punch of a super-lightweight, an exclamation point is four times heavier than a period, and there are about 2,500,000 grains of sugar per pound.

Such irrelevant information has arrived from weight studies by Dr. E. F. Miller, general electric microscopist, with super-sensitive scales, a microchemical balance.

The throbbing sting of the mosquito bite results from a small object indeed, according to Dr. Miller's figures. The mosquito's stinger weighs only .000018 of a gram, or .0000007 of an ounce.

Punctuation is also a lightweight matter. Dr. Miller's measurements disclose that a period weighs only .0000001 of an ounce. This comma (,) is twice as heavy and an exclamation point weighs all of .0000003 of an ounce.

The sugar problem was one of simple arithmetic, basing the number of grains on the weight of one, which is .0000008 of an ounce. An eyelash, too, is delicate. Dr. Miller said one of his own tipped the scales at .0000017 of an ounce.

BRIDGE PURCHASE MOVE AFFIRMED

fraud, or any graft, anywhere along the line of the negotiations for the sale or purchase of this bridge, either now or in the past. I think a great injustice has been done by Mr. Masters in refusing to name those he thinks may have participated in some way in some graft or in accepting some compensation for appearing before this commission.

"His statements throw a cloud on a large number of people, which he does not desire to clarify, so that anyone can explain his position in the matter under all circumstances.

Mrs. Chairman (Gov. Bottolfsen), I move that we reaffirm the action taken at the last meeting for the purchase of this bridge at $402,000 and that the proceedings relative to the charges made by Mr. Masters be dismissed."

Prior to Hag's declaration, various witnesses had appeared before the commission during the afternoon session. The morning session was halted shortly after Mr. Masters and his attorney had "walked out" in a huff, after the commission had declined to hear his prepared statement at that time but rather had insisted that he personally answer questions put to him.

He answered some of the questions, especially denying certain newspaper stories which he said were not true but as to which the correspondents who wrote them said Masters was "not misquoted." To prove their assertions the newsmen had original copies of statements, which were typewritten, and which they said Masters had presented to them.

Read Over Objection
Masters' statement was finally read into the minutes of the meeting after a copy of it had been secured from a Twin Falls newspaperman who in turn had secured it from a Boise correspondent. The statement was read by Mr. Bennett, a member of the commission, at the request of Gov. Bottolfsen. A Boise newspaperman, however, objected to the reading, pointing out it was given to him as an advance release and had been given to the Twin Falls newspaperman because he was a clerk. The Boise correspondent was not aware that the Twin Falls writer would present it to the delegation from there. His objection was overruled, and the statement was read.

The statement alleged no specific instances of alleged graft in connection with the bridge purchase. Rather, it contained 10 main points as follows:

1. The Jerome county assessor set value of the bridge at $390,000 three years ago. Article seven of the state constitution provides that property shall be assessed at its cash value.

2. Corporation records of the bridge company should be examined to ascertain whether they have set up reserves to take care of depreciation for U. S. income tax department records.

3. The commission may be buying a "cheap" elephant in purchasing the bridge for $402,000 unless it complies with federal military specifications.

4. Atty.-Gen. J. W. Taylor says he believes there is "graft" in the deal. The commission should examine the corporation records to determine who owns the bonds and who will benefit by purchase of the bridge.

5. The bridge bonds have been offered for sale at 40 to 60 to 75 cents on the dollar. Why?

6. The bridge should be purchased by the state for $350,000 or less.

7. If condemnation proceedings were instituted, all questions of state public stock market regulations, log rolling legislation, undue influence which surrounds the proposed purchase would be eliminated.

8. Through negotiations, the state already has forced reductions of $100,000 in the bridge price and should take off another $100,000.

9. Constitutional of the bridge purchase act may be questionable.

Citizen Now

declared in his statement that if such proceedings were started "undue influence which surrounds the proposed purchase would be eliminated." Chapman's testimony showed that such steps had already been taken.

J. J. Byer, state bridge engineer, pointed out during his testimony that an April 1, 1933 appraisal placed value of the bridge at $413,875 with a depreciated 1938 value of $475,230, not including cost of approaches, necessary house, etc.

Called It "Fair Price"
William Bunce, Filer, testified that he had no conversation with Mr. Masters regarding the bridge without witnesses. He said that Masters, in 1933, told him before witnesses that a price of $447,000 for the bridge was "a fair price."

H. R. Flint, highway director, also spoke of the various appraisals which have been made.

In concluding the hearing, Gov. Bottolfsen, who had presided throughout, said:

"I might say that the toll bridge committee has been called into special session on this occasion for the purpose of hearing charges that there is graft and we are very anxious if anyone has any information on the subject to present to us. I think we went into this matter very exhaustively as to the price of the bridge, and the appraised value and all other conditions leading to the sale. Of course, in the final analysis, we are very anxious that this matter of graft be cleared up."

The governor then adjourned the session, subject to call, probably next week.

FREE POISON BAIT
BOISE, June 21 (U.P.)—Free poison bait to destroy insect pests including crickets and grasshoppers is being supplied to farmers of Idaho by the U. S. department of agriculture, extension division experts announced. A recent upsurge of locusts increased the funds for fighting the insect invasions.

Witnesses appearing before the commission during the afternoon session included Jay Rosenberg, reporter for a Boise paper, who said that he had not misquoted Masters in a story in which the former official is alleged to have declared that "persons or groups of persons are getting a cut on that bridge."

The reporter produced the original statement which he said was handed over by Masters, who, he said, was full with records of the session.

Bridge Chief Testifies
Bruce O. Bloria, Seattle, president of the bridge company, testified that charges of graft, insofar as his company was concerned, were not true. He also added that any contention that someone had bought up all the bridge bonds with an idea of making a "cleaning" was false inasmuch as any purchase of any bond which would be made would be immediately communicated to him. He said only one person, R. E. Shepherd of Jerome, held a bridge bond in this section. The bond was for $1,000 and was purchased when the bridge was first constructed.

CAMP GIRLS TO OFFER PROGRAM

BUILT, June 21 (Special).—Mrs. Jessie D. Gordon, superintendent of the Buhl McCluskey health camp, has requested all parents of children in the older girls' camp not to visit again until the closing day when the girls will have a program for their parents.

One girl in the camp gained nine pounds during the past week, according to the weight chart and the second weighing made Monday by the nurse, Mrs. Harry Wilson.

Mrs. Emma Clouche, a member of the Twin Falls D. A. R., was the guest speaker at the camp this afternoon. Mrs. Clouche talked on the work of the D. A. R. in the southern states where educational facilities are poor.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McGlasson, Twin Falls, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander, Lex, visited the camp over the week-end. Other visitors Sunday were Mrs. Ruth Rose and Miss May King, Caldwell, and several parents from this county.

Mrs. Allison Porter, known to many of her friends in the west and Twin Falls as Kathleen Hyde, conducted the Sunday morning church services at the camp. Mrs. Porter said some of her experiences while working with the Chinese foreign mission in Seattle, Miss Artha Moore directed the morning song service with Mrs. O. Howard accompanying her.

Mrs. Jack Beckwith arrived Sunday from Albion to start her work as head cook at the camp. Miss Meyer and Miss Beckwith have reported that the girls have started camp books and are keeping a diary of each day's highlights. They are making plaster of Paris plaques this week.

NEWARK, N. J., June 21 (U.P.)—Sidney A. Portel's whole career was ruined today—the stork had crossed him up.

He had been certain of one thing in the world: That his mathematical formula could predict every time the sex of unborn babies. He had predicted the sex of 60 children, so he said.

And so, last March 7, he announced, without hesitation, that his son would be born to his wife, he named the son Howard A. Portel. When the boy was born he was going to supply his line of work and become a professional sex predictor.

At 1:30 p. m. yesterday, Mrs. Portel gave birth to a girl.

It was a blow to Portel. "That's impossible," he shouted at the hospital information desk. "There must be some mistake."

Nurses convinced him that there wasn't.

A little nonplussed, he changed Howard's name to Hazel.

GLENN'S FERRY
W. A. Campbell went to Vale, Ore., Friday and Saturday.

Miss Louise Leaverton, a student at Albion State Normal school; Miss Frances Stinger, a student at Moscow, and Miss Helen Robertson, a student at the southern branch at Postville, are home for vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barstow returned Thursday from a visit of relatives in eastern points. They drove in a new car from Detroit.
