WOMAN RESCUED FROM DESPERATE CONVICTS

Treasury Cuts Foreign Silver; Senate Would Boost Up U. S. Mark

New Deal Ready For Fight Over Monetary Plans

HYDE PARK, N. Y., June 27 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt said today that if Congress strips him of power to regulate the dollar, he will return control over money to Wall Street and international speculators.

WASHINGTON, June 27 (U.P.)—The treasury today reduced the price in pay for foreign silver from 43 cents to 40 cents an ounce.

The 43 cent-per-ounce rate had been in effect for more than a year.

The change in the price for foreign silver does not affect the present price of 64.64 cents per ounce paid for domestically produced silver.

The pending monetary bill, as revised by the senate, would stop purchases of foreign silver. The treasury will continue buying it, however, until when and if that bill becomes law.

The current price of 64.64 cents per ounce for domestic silver remains in effect under a treasury proclamation until midnight June 30. The senate bill would stop that price to 75.75 cents.

Unofficial sources said that the decrease in the treasury price for foreign silver was caused by a drop in world market prices. The senate action yesterday in voting to repeal the authority for American purchases of foreign silver was blamed for the silver market slump.

American purchases of foreign silver in May amounted to $4,640,000. Most of it came from Mexico, with Great Britain, Canada, Peru and Japan also furnishing considerable quantities.

SUSPENSE EXCHANGE
MEXICO CITY, June 27 (U.P.)—The Bank of Mexico today announced that the U. S. senate's repeal of foreign silver purchases, today announced it had temporarily suspended all foreign silver purchases.

Other banks here also adopted the attitude of the Bank of Mexico.

FIGHTS FOR POLICY
WASHINGTON, June 27 (U.P.)—With President Roosevelt's power to regulate the dollar already voided by the new deal today ready for a last-ditch fight for its major goal and silver policy in the house of representatives.

A strange and almost unbelievable coalition out-voted the administration at the senate yesterday. "A real filibuster" is threatened if the administration attempts to reverse the verdict in the house.

When the senate adjourned shortly before 7 p. m., it had passed and sent to the house for conference discussion a monetary policy bill which, if unchanged, would:

1. Continue the $100,000,000 stabilization fund in accordance with New Deal wishes.

2. Repeal the authority to devalue the dollar.

3. Limit the treasury price paid by the treasury for domestic silver from 64.64 to 75.75 cents an ounce.

4. Forbid further purchase of foreign silver.

Economy
Conservative Republicans who joined the so-called "silver money" bill in a combination to demand dollar devaluation and hike the domestic silver subsidy found an economy expansion of the favored American producer and that all purchasers of the metal for use in the arts or commercially will get it more cheaply.

Two Recover From Gas in Yellowstone
YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo., June 27 (U.P.)—Two men were recovering today from a near-fatal gasing in a 30-foot hole dug near "Overlook" at a test here for a bridge foundation.

A third was overcome in attempting to rescue Bill L. Nelson, 20, a gardener, who collapsed after rescuing Vaughn H. Riley, 21, Denver. Riley had been digging the test hole when Nelson was overcome.

Nelson was lowered into the hole and pulled out alive. Then he fainted. A third man, John Johnson, 19, of Jardine, pulled out Riley and then brought help from a nearby ranger station.

Brutal Johnson, a civilian conservation corps enrollee, attempted to aid Nelson, but was overcome and pulled out himself.

Riley then revived, returned to the hole and made a rope fast about Nelson before his again lost consciousness. Both were pulled out and given medical attention.

Hitch-Hike Killing Solved

Daniel M. Kent, scar-faced former Michigan state prison inmate, had admitted today to police that he shot and killed George Hall, above, Detroit oil promoter, near East Lansing, Mich., after Hall picked him up on the road. Miss Ruby Doty, left, Hall's companion, said the hitchhiker they picked up shot Hall in the back, and after disposing of the body made love to her. She told a story of being driven for miles over lonely country roads after the slaying. Promise of a "date" later in the day enabled her to escape. Miss Doty told police.

NEW YORK, June 27 (U.P.)—Pan American Airways will start a 22-hour passenger service tomorrow across the Atlantic ocean which Christopher Columbus took to span a half century months to span.

The airline's 41-ton Dixie Clipper, with 16 men and four women passengers aboard, will take off at 3 p. m. (EDT) from its Port Washington base on the first regularly scheduled service of its kind between the United States and Europe.

The four-engine flying boat, capable of carrying 14 persons, will fly to Marseilles, France, by way of the Azores and Lisbon, Portugal. The flight to Lisbon is scheduled to take 22 hours, and the complete trip of 4,600 miles to Marseilles will require 48 hours, including an overnight stop at Lisbon.

Meanwhile Pan American's Yankee Clipper, held at Seattle, N. B., since Sunday's silver market slump, will fly to Marseilles, France, by way of the Azores and Lisbon, Portugal. The flight to Lisbon is scheduled to take 22 hours, and the complete trip of 4,600 miles to Marseilles will require 48 hours, including an overnight stop at Lisbon.

7,094 Counterfeit Notes Accepted by Banks, Agent Says

SUN VALLEY, June 27 (Special)—Banks in the United States last year accepted as genuine 7,094 counterfeit notes representing a bank loss of $62,002, Julian T. Baber, of the United States secret service, Washington, D. C., told the Idaho Bankers association convention here today.

Urges "Rudy Portraits"
Mr. Baber urged the banker audience to study portraits on genuine notes as a safe guide in recognizing the strange and "unfriendly" faces on counterfeit.

Aids from bank losses, the losses sustained by the general public last year showed material reduction, when $118,141 in counterfeit notes were passed in against $54,787 in 1937. Although secret service agents seized $124,700 in counterfeit coins (Continued on Page 3, Column 1)

PWA Checkup Is Ordered in Louisiana Fund

WASHINGTON, June 27 (U.P.)—The public works administration today ordered a checkup on its $51,000,000 program in Louisiana to determine whether construction funds are being used in violation of the law.

PWA officials emphasized today that the investigation was not a formal inquiry, since no complaints of misapplication of funds or other irregularities have been received.

The checkup is being conducted by agents of the PWA division of investigation, headed by George H. Butler, expected a formal report shortly.

Bulk of Magic Valley Plans 3-Day Shutdown Next Week

With a majority of the Magic Valley communities "shutting up shop" for a three-day holiday July 2, 3 and 4, hundreds of clerks and employees will take to the "open spaces" the Evening Times learned in a survey today.

Contacting either the mayor or city clerk in each community, the Times learned that stores of only two communities will remain open Monday, July 3, while a third community has not yet reached a definite decision but will probably close, officials indicated.

Officially, the day that has been suspended for peace in the valley is the latter midday after further discussion. Probably closing will be the stores and business houses at Jerome.

JAPAN WIDENING NAVAL BLOCKADE OF ALIEN SHIPS

TIENSTIN, China, June 27 (U.P.)—Japan widened its naval blockade of foreign shipping in south China ports today, turned shipping away from Foochow and Wenchow, and refused a British request for free passage into Swatow.

The Japanese Domei news agency reported from Swatow today that the blockade of the ports was not necessary to strip persons in searching them.

General Hotta's announcement here was the first word since the beginning of the blockade. June 14 that Japan might compromise its dispute with the British.

Stripping Called Off
TIENSTIN, June 27 (U.P.)—Lieut. Gen. Masaharu Hotta, Japanese garrison commander, announced today that he had instructed sentries at entrances to the blockade of British ships that it was not necessary to strip persons in searching them.

General Hotta's announcement here was the first word since the beginning of the blockade. June 14 that Japan might compromise its dispute with the British.

Negotiations Open
It came as a surprise to London and Tokyo that negotiations were starting for a settlement, and as Great Britain talked more openly of repatriation, the Japanese government had been reluctant to British subjects here.

General Hotta, receiving 40 newspaper correspondents, told them that he had received no substantiation of allegations that British had been subjected to indignities. They had been told his announcement that he had issued new instructions to sentries.

Regrettable
He referred also to a protest by John R. Chalmers, American consul general, against inconvenience and loss of business caused to American shippers by the blockade. He said that some inconvenience to non-British foreigners was regrettable but unavoidable.

During his talk, General Hotta said the Japanese government had (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

EUROPE FACING 20 YEAR CRISIS

PARIS, June 27 (U.P.)—Premier Edouard Daladier told the chamber of deputies today that "the situation in Europe and the world today is the gravest since the war."

The premier's statement came just before he read a decree closing parliament until the first week in November.

Daladier will rule by decree during the adjournment.

"Three million men are assembled on frontiers, not counting armaments," he said.

"Multitudes of factories are working feverishly. Even troop concentrations and maneuvers that have been announced are more important than normally."

Power Turned Off To Save Lineman

PITTSFIELD, Mass., June 27 (U.P.)—Electric power serving approximately 10,000 persons was cut off for 20 minutes today in an effort to save a lineman from electrocution.

When Floyd W. Gerard, 28, lineman for the Pittsfield Electric Company, fell from a high-voltage line, workers in the nearby power house threw the main switch. The cables carried 20,000 volts.

A ladder was raised to the cables and Gerard was brought to the ground and sped to hospital. There he was revived with an inhalator and doctors believed he would live.

Treaty of Versailles Will Be Officially Ignored On 20th Anniversary Tomorrow; World Re-Arms

By RALPH HIRSHEN
VERNALES, France, June 27 (U.P.)—Tomorrow is the 20th anniversary of the treaty of Versailles, but there will be no cheers for peace in the historic hall of mirrors in the palace of Bourbon kings.

Officially, the day that has been suspended for peace in the valley is the latter midday after further discussion. Probably closing will be the stores and business houses at Jerome.

New Governor

The Long family is back on top again in Louisiana. Earl K. Long, above, brother of the late Huey Long, became governor after resignation of Gov. Richard W. Leche.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 27 (U.P.)—A new governor, Earl K. Long, brother of the assassinated Huey P. Long, quoted from the Bible about honesty today while policemen scurried about the state hunting Dr. James Monroe Smith, fugitive former president of the state university who is charged with embezzling $100,000.

"Better a little with righteousness than great revenues without right," Gov. Long quoted.

He had been talking about Dr. Smith, who resigned and left town Sunday night about the same time investigators found evidence that he had plunged into the market, bought futures on 200,000 bushels of wheat and offered $100,000 worth of Louisiana State University bonds as collateral.

Gov. Long, lieutenant governor until last year, was sworn into the higher office after Gov. Richard W. Leche had resigned because of illness.

CRICKETS

Millions of Mormon crickets are now swarming over the area between the Snake and Colorado rivers, fishermen reported here today.

H. H. Froehlich, who returned with a party this afternoon, said the pests "covered the ground."

He added that at the present time they were traveling in sagebrush areas and had not yet reached any farming areas so far as was known.

Eye Witness Account Of Stripping Given By News Service Man

Editor's note: Following is an eye-witness account of the stripping of a British subject by Japanese at the entrance to the British concession in Tientsin.

By JOHN R. MORRIS
TIENSTIN, June 27 (U.P.)—A stocky Japanese sentry stopped the automobile bearing Earl K. Long, a Briton and myself, about 50 yards from the Wanchow Wilson street entrance through the Japanese barrier erected around the British concession. We were on our way out of the concession.

A small but new shack, built by the Japanese, flanked the barrier and served as a guard post. A long line of Chinese coolies, again dressed on them and they moved their feet restlessly in the mud.

"You walk," the sentry said, motioning toward the shack, "unless you have a special pass."

Having no special passes, we walked down the muddy alley, flanked by the sentry and the coolies who were being searched at the rate of about a dozen an hour.

A uniformed Japanese sat in a chair in the shack directing activities and enforcing the Japanese blockade of the concession.

We entered the shack and the Japanese examined my American identification card. He merely glanced at it and motioned me to go ahead. House, who was on route from his office in the concession to the Japanese sentry club, removed his hat as we entered the shack.

House was entered to the shack. He was ordered to remove his coat and to dump the contents of all of his pockets on the floor of the shack.

While he stood with his trousers pulled down, the policeman pulled out his shirt and looked it up even with his shoulders.

Then House was ordered on his way. He slipped his hat from his head and carried his socks, coat and hat through the door into the alley. There he stood in full view of everyone on Wanchow Wilson street.

Hostage Wounded As Guns Blaze at Barricaded Trio

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., June 27 (U.P.)—Prison guards in a blaze of gunfire today rescued a woman hostage seized by three Indiana state prison convicts in a desperate escape attempt.

The three convicts, their hostage and the warden's secretary were wounded in the shooting.

The convicts had held the woman, Mrs. Ruth Joiner of Crawfordsville, Ind., a member of the Montgomery county welfare board, in the office of the prison physician for approximately two hours under threat to kill her unless they got "guns and freedom."

Wounds Labeled
Mrs. Joiner suffered a flesh wound in the left shoulder. Ed Wheeler, secretary to Warden Alfred Dowd, was shot in the leg. They and the three convicts were taken to a hospital.

Prison authorities identified the prisoners as:

Alphonse Skusewich, 30, serving life for armed robbery and murder.

Leroy Hunt, 34, serving 10 years for robbery. Hunt was shot through the abdomen.

Shooting Develops
The shooting occurred after prison authorities had summoned reinforcements from nearby state police barracks and spent a troubled two hours dickering with the bedeviled convicts while considering the use of tear gas to dislodge them from the physician's office.

Prison attaches clamped a strict censorship and excluded reporters from within the walls but Dowd, state welfare director, Thurman Gottschalk, 48, Indianapolis, in a long statement, called the riot:

"What it was?"

"We decided something had to be done to get Mrs. Joiner from these convicts. The only thing to do was shoot it out."

Gottschalk said the three convicts were "shot down."

Mrs. Joiner was seized by one of the convicts as she walked down a corridor on an inspection tour of the prison.

The convict grabbed her arm, snatched at her who attempted to stop him, and hustled her into the office of the physician.

The other two convicts joined him in the rush to the office.

Life Threatened
Guards said the convicts told them: "We've got a knife and we'll kill the woman unless we get out of here."

It was the first serious outbreak in the prison since Dowd became warden a year ago last April and began imposing strict regulations in answer to criticism which had been mounting steadily since 10 long-term prisoners were shot to death in the prison in 1933 and became the nucleus of the notorious John Dillinger gang.

DISPUTE CAUSED BY CLIENTS, NOT TRANSPORT FIRM

PORTLAND, Ore. June 27 (AP)—An interstate commerce commission hearing into proposed oil price reductions today became the battleground of two groups of petroleum producers, locked in a bitter-end battle for control of the inland empire distribution area.

Testimony of Montana and California oil interests introduced at the hearing late yesterday and today, confirmed earlier hints that the real cause of dispute is not the conflict of transport companies, but in the opposing interests of their clients.

C. E. Blaine and L. C. Monroe, testifying in behalf of the major California oil firms—Shell, Oilco, Standard, Signal, Tidewater, Associated, Union and General—declared no partisanship in the battle between truckers and rail firms on the Tidewater-Spokane route, but bitterly attacked the Montanans' attempt to achieve a lower west-bound rate from Curbank to the inland area. Blaine charged that such a rate "would render null and void" his principals' "great Columbia river transportation" and would represent "unfair and unwarranted competition."

Earlier, the Montana representatives had accused the major oil groups of attempting a "freeze out" in establishment of the Columbia distribution controls, and had sought the lower west-bound rate as "our only means of survival."

Burley Plans Street Oiling Program Announced for L. D. S. Choir's Concert

BURLEY, June 27 (Special)—A proposition whereby South street from Overland avenue to Highway number 30 via Cemetery could be oiled at a very reasonable cost with the Burley highway district and the city of Burley sharing the expenses was presented by Hyrum Lewis, L. A. Wright and Mr. Freymiller, representatives of the Burley highway district, at the city council meeting Monday evening at the courthouse. It was pointed out that this improvement would be of great advantage to the community since it would improve the road past the hospital and to the cemetery, and would give two good approaches to the cemetery, which would be of considerable importance during the winter. The council approved the motion.

Appointed as city engineer for Burley was James A. Higgins at a salary of $150 per month.

Building permits were granted to L. H. Richardson to remodel his business building on South Overland at a cost of $300; to E. T. Dayley to construct a new home on North Albion at a cost of $500; and to H. C. Calk to construct a new residence on North Hansen.

Van Every quipped he would.

NEW YORK—Joe Louis has nothing but contempt for Tony Galento's fistic ability, but having learned a good lesson the first time out against Max Schmeling, the champion at least credits the Jersey barker with being strong and tough and therefore dangerous until disposed of.

The squatty signor has been badly-hooded as having the length of Samson, but you haven't seen any of his rivals tossing Louis around have you?

Handled Primo
Smoky Joe handled ponderous Primo Carnera as though he were a baby.

Joe Jacobs says that Gene Tunney told him that Galento could win if he got rough and tough from the first bell.

Lays Plan

But the Brown Bomber has come a long way since that disastrous June night three years ago. He may not be so easy to detail again.

Galento Rough
Galento knows how to fight foul. His first whirl with Arturo Godoy at the New York Hippodrome two years back was one of the foulest on record.

Both violated every rule in the book. They struck low, were guilty of knocking, butting, back-handing, thumbing and heeling.

Louis Ready
It would be significant that Godoy won on both occasions were it not for the fact that Galento took a beating stopped three times and otherwise repelled 19 times.

Galento handlers are convinced that his only chance is to make his affair with Louis one of the good old plier six variety... to chuck the Marquis of Queensbury code out the window.

But Louis is ready for that, too. He asserts that any kind of war Galento elects to wage will be satisfactory to him.

Hand and Foot
When fireman Jim Flynn kept pouring palpable low punches at Jack Johnson, way out there in the wilds of Las Vegas many years ago, Lefty Arthur just kept knocking them and saying: "I trained for you, too, Jim."

Louis can't pick off punches as did Johnson, nor does he talk in the ring, but he is one of the fiercest and fastest swatters in the annals of the manly art of mauling mugs and his fists speak eloquently for him.

Louis is well equipped to be a fair shot in a general roughhouse himself.

Peak Prices Asked
Outside of the fact that Schmeling demonstrated that Louis chin isn't exactly made of concrete, Galento doesn't appear to have any more chance than St. Louis Brown.

Mike Jacobs told Max Baer after watching Galento work, the promoter will be lucky if he isn't strangled.

Mike Jacobs didn't want the match.

Public Clamored
The public clamored for a harder and What is inexcusable are the prices: $27.50, $10.00, $11.00.

Not only inexcusable, but foolish. The minimum $2.50 and $7.75 would have been plenty for this one.

But, then, Mike Jacobs doesn't chase his customers over the heads until they attend.

Maxie Waits for Purse; Moguls Probe Knockout

HOLLYWOOD, June 27 (U.P.)—Parents of money to Max Rosenberg and Al Ettore was held up today while the state athletic commission investigated Rosenberg's three-round knockout of Ettore last night.

Ettore's handlers tossed the towel in a number of times while the Fightable Fighter was going down five times before Maxie's punches.

Rosenberg, movie actor, night club owner and one-time light heavyweight champion, never appeared to close his eyes, yet Ettore went down in the second and fourth rounds in the third round.

Referee Charley Randolph, who kept kicking the towel out of the ring, finally counted Ettore out when he dropped by a hard right after one minute and 30 seconds of the third round.

Tony's Pilot Is Off Again—Bit Tetched?

By HARRY FERGUSON

NEW YORK, June 27 (U.P.)—Yusell-the-Muscle Jacobs, minister of propaganda and public enlightenment for Tony Galento, announced today that anybody who catches Joe Louis on the fly or the first bounce when he is knocked over the ropes tomorrow night will risk the full penalty of the law.

The propaganda minister said he would appear before the New York Board of Education to ask for a special statute making it a misdemeanor for any newspaperman in the working press section to assist Louis back into the ring.

"The reporters should not pick Louis up, they should not shove him back into the ring," said the propaganda minister. "They should just let him roll."

The Sun?

Yusell-the-Muscle was wearing a white tropical helmet when he delivered that ukase, but several of his listeners suspected that the sun had not through the helmet. For the odds continued to favor Louis at 6 to 1 and there seemed to be a general suspicion around town that if anybody was going to get belted over the ropes it would be Signor Galento.

The propaganda minister, propagandizing very fast indeed now that the fight is only two sundowns away, then came up with another idea. He said he would carry into the ring a set of scales, approved and sealed by the department of weights and measures of the city of New York, to use in weighing the gloves worn by the gladiators.

The Muscle is haunted by vague fears, he said, that Louis will get a light, thin set of gloves and that Galento will receive a pair of featherweights.

Meanwhile, there was silence—a very ominous silence—from the Joe Louis camp, and there was considerable speculation on whether the Brown Bomber had grown weary of his Yankee stadium, waiting for Joe Louis and Tony Galento to begin their fight for the world's heavyweight championship.

The 36 hours early, but I figure a man is foolish to run the risk of being late. Those who wait until tomorrow to start for the stadium will be in danger of being delayed by one thing or another and missing the entire bout.

Galento has proved in earlier fights that second count when he starts punching. Let a fellow make one too many stops at traffic lights, or dawdle over tying his shoes, and all he is liable to get for his money is a light for Joe's victim being carried away to the Polytechnic for a general repair job.

Both men are through with heavy work and it appeared that Louis will go past 40,000, which would mean a gate around $350,000.

It is unlikely that the crowd will go past 40,000, which would mean a gate around $350,000.

Hostak Ready For Krieger In Title Bout

SEATTLE, Wash., June 27 (U.P.)—Al Hostak, 23-year-old Seattle lumberjack, today was installed as an 8-to-6 choice to regain his middleweight title tonight from Solly Krieger of Brooklyn.

Experts believed Hostak's youth—Krieger is 28—his aggressive style and his punch would more than offset Krieger's experience. Hostak as a rule makes up with both fists working, but there were indications that he plans to box Krieger instead.

Hostak lost his 46-state title to Krieger last November. Only California and New York decline to recognize the fight as a championship.

In those states, Hostak's title is a light for Joe's victim being carried away to the Polytechnic for a general repair job.

Lewiston Blanks Twin Falls; Soule Pitches

Ogden Reds will arrive here today to furnish the opposition against the Cowboys tonight at Jaycee park as the cowpokes return to the home pasture to demonstrate some of that vim and vigor that drove the Twin Falls team to two victories at Lewiston but then let them down last night when the Indians won 7 to 0 shutout.

Jerry Soule, new Cowboy hurler secured from the leading Pocatello Cardinals, pitched last night for the Cowboys. Three runs were scored on him in six innings after he relieved Dave Stewart.

Soule will probably be in the bull pen for tonight's game. The battery for the Cowboys will probably be Bill Schuchel out on the hill, and Junior Melchame behind the plate.

The Indians peppered out 14 safe hits to win over the dormant Cowboys. Only extra base clouts were two doubles and a triple, both by Indians.

Wes Schumacher, "old man of baseball," got just half of his team's hits, Saturday night. Wes paced the Cowboys to a victory over the Lewiston outfit, with nine booming triples, only extra base hits of the game. Then he came back Sunday night and smashed out three home runs to force six men home, and give the Cowboys the night win over the Lewiston team.

Not total for the trip which took the Cowboys south to Salt Lake City for three games and then north to Lewiston for another three-game affair, was three won and three lost—that's batting .500. The Cowboys dropped their first two games to the Salt Lake Bees. After the second defeat, Mulligan's buzzers were in second place, ahead of the Cowboys. But that condition lasted only one night, and when the lasso slingers licked the Bees the next night, they regained their claim on second place.

When the locals moved to Lewiston, they won two straight to strengthen their second place position. Then the Indians turned the Cowboys back scoreless last night, and the Lewiston Cardinals, after their league lead to two full games.

Tonight the Cowboys will be back in the home corral for three games with the dormant Lewiston Reds, and then the latter part of the week three games with the Boise Pilots, where they again are the underdog.

Baseball Comes Into Its Own at Hailey Under Triumph Recreation Club

HAILEY, June 27 (Special)—Snyder Mine Co. and its miners, at the Hailey Triumph mine, have gone into baseball in a big way this year.

The Triumph Recreation club was organized a few weeks ago, by the employees of the company, and immediately prepared an extensive program of sports.

They received permission from the city of Hailey to take over the City Park, and race track, after which they at once proceeded to rebuild and paint the grandstand, build a new ball diamond for baseball and also improve the softball field.

The baseball field is nearly completed and is one of the finest in the state, fulfilling all regulations. It is 90 feet from home plate to back stop, and 50 feet from base lines to bleachers. The outfield is free from all obstructions, being 350 feet from home plate.

There are two baseball teams and a softball team. All are fully equipped with new uniforms.

The first team is made up of several good ball-players, gathered from all over the state. The employment of the Triumph mine, Freddie and Alfred Miller, two local boys, form a very effective battery, both having considerable experience in semi-professional ball in the east. Ed Lacy, one of southern Idaho's best all-around ball players, formerly coach at Rupert high school, present coach at the Franklin high school near Boise is well known over the state as an expert of 1. pitcher, and is at his best this year in the box.

Musulas at Second

Dell West, a long lanky miler from Montana, is picking them out of the dirt at first base, with John

Kelly, music instructor in the Hailey schools, getting them from all angles at second.

Kevin Moore at third base, is one of the best ball players who ever performed in the Wood river country. He hails from Vancouver, B. C., where he plays professional hockey in the winter for the Vancouver Lions, and calls baseball a sideline.

Johnny Galloway, at shortstop, is the spark-plug of the team. He spent the training season with the Boise Pilots and played shortstop for the Boise Senators until he reported here recently.

Outfield

In the outfield are the Brown brothers, from Bellevue, also Gordon Rice who hails from either side of the plate and is good at it. Frank Thamson, from St. Mary's college, is as fast as any man in south Idaho. Myrl Croft as utility infielder was in an automobile accident a few weeks back and is still recuperating.

The second team is composed of local players and they have regular scheduled games with the teams of surrounding towns. They have several outstanding men who may, at any time, work the first string.

Grant Rooker is their manager. When the first team meets the powerful Shoshone Indians on July 3 and 4 at Hailey, they will have their first real test of the season.

Head Schedule

The club has a tentative schedule with mining teams in Nevada and Utah, and expect to be on the road in late July, and back home to entertain the out-of-state teams in August.

Ed Stanton, manager of the team, deserves credit for the success of the well-rounded recreational program offered the Hailey Triumph miners.

Game Birds Increase Near Shoshone

SHOSHONE, June 27 (Special)—Pheasants and sagehens are increasing in numbers in this area through efforts of sportsmen in liberating birds raised at the state game farm and by virtue of a closed season on sagehens during the last two years.

The Shoshone Rod and Gun club Friday liberated 100 mutant pheasants at selected locations north of Shoshone. The birds are black and are usually larger than the well-known Chinese pheasants. Most of the flocks were headed by Fred Gehrig, president of the club, and Joe Gerner, Lincoln county deputy game warden, distributed the birds.

Conditions this year have been ideal for pheasants and the birds are reported to be numerous. It is believed the average pair will hatch two batches of eggs this season, as the first brood is already making its appearance in large numbers.

"Mrs. J. A. B. of Jerome reports 7,000 pheasants in stock, and an additional 15,000 are expected in July.

Because of closed seasons during the past two years, sagehens in this region have shown a marked increase in numbers. Sportsmen have advocated continuation of the closed season for an additional two years. They assert that at the end of another two years they will again be plentiful as the Lincoln country is favorable territory for sagehens.

BRITAIN READY FOR EMERGENCY AT END OF SUMMER

NATIONAL GUARD TROOPERS TOLD TO BE PREPARED

By WALLACE CARROLL

LONDON, June 27 (U.P.)—The war office has notified the 400,000 officers and men of the territorial army to be prepared for a possible emergency at the end of this summer, it was learned today.

News of the notification came a day after an admiralty announcement that annual fleet maneuvers would be held a month earlier than usual, which means in effect that the great home fleet would be at emergency status in August.

Notices have been posted in territorial barracks throughout the country. It was learned, however, that troops—corresponding to the American national guard—to clear up all personal affairs before they report in August for their annual training period in camp.

The notices emphasized that the "territories" should pack their furniture and other belongings before they go to camp, as "in the event of an emergency" they will be given a maximum of one day to wind up their personal affairs.

Britain Ready
There have been various reports from the continent that something was going to happen in August when the crops are in, and when the German and Italian armies, on maneuvers, reach peak strength. The orders to the fleet and to the "territories" left Britons in no doubt that this time Great Britain was going to be ready.

It was made known today that the first batch of 34,000 recruits under the new conscription act will be notified Saturday to report for duty July 15.

A week earlier, July 8, the royal air force will hold the biggest maneuvers on record with 1,000 bombing and fighting planes taking part.

COUNCIL DECREES EXPANDED LIGHTS

City councilmen last night approved a 10-year contract with the Idaho Power company which will see the city's street illumination "stepped up" in the downtown and outlying districts.

The contract approval was given last night as the council met at the city hall. Representing the Idaho Power company, and discussing the new setup which has been under consideration of the governing body for some time, was R. W. Carpenter, manager.

A former contract, which was not to expire until 1942, was superseded by the new order which enabled the city to obtain the benefit of lower rates, at the same time receiving better service and more light. The increase in cost of better lighting for the city will be approximately $500 annually.

Time Extended

Councilmen also approved the application of A. D. Boller, contractor on the library building job, for an extension of time in which to complete the structure. The structure will now be completed Sept. 20.

Reason for the delay was failure of some of the necessary materials to arrive and also a fault caused by frost in the ground at the time the construction started. The extension of time now must be approved by the PWA.

Councilmen also discussed placing of a cover over the new storage reservoir which is under construction on city owned property near the filter plant. It was pointed out that such an item would be impossible to construct until next spring and that the main object at the present time would be to complete the structure itself and have it ready for use before the first frosts. It is a WPA project. Bids for $5,000 worth of steel for use in the structure will be called before July 1.

Fireworks

Members of the governing body also passed an ordinance which, when it takes effect next year, will prohibit sale or use of fireworks of any nature within the city limits except during the period July 2 to July 6. The ordinance becomes effective in 10 days.

Next meeting of the council will be Friday at 7:30 p. m. The council will not meet next Monday as that date has been declared a legal holiday within Twin Falls.

FISHER TO HEAD EDEN'S SCHOOLS

Harold E. Fisher, instructor in the Twin Falls school system for the past four years, last night was selected as superintendent of the Eden school system of the city.

Fisher, a son of Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Fisher of Twin Falls, has been in the local system for four years, three of them as biology instructor at the senior high school and one year at the junior high.

He is a graduate of the school here and also the Gooding college. He has taken advanced training at the University of Idaho, the University of Oregon and the University of California and, at the present time, is working for his master's degree. Mr. Fisher and his wife will move to Eden before opening of the school term.

Fisher was named to the post last night as the school board met in executive session at Eden. He succeeds A. E. Gish, who resigned to accept the superintendency at Mountain Home. Gish had served at Eden for three years.

Funeral Rites for Child at Jerome

JEROME, June 27.—Funeral services for Kenneth Kenison, 10-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kenison of Jerome, were conducted from the Wiley funeral home Saturday afternoon, the Rev. Earle C. Miller, pastor of the Christian church, officiating. Burial was in the Jerome cemetery.

Mrs. Miller and Miss Dorothy Heffer sang two numbers, "Jewels" and "Bavaria Like a Shepherd Leadeth."

WARNING

Mayor Joe K. Koehler, after approval of the city council, today has issued a warning that the use of fireworks of any nature in the downtown area of the city would not be tolerated.

The warning was issued after many persons had reported to police instances in which they were burned when fireworks exploded under or near them. In one case the skin on a woman's leg was burnt in several places.

The pointed warning follows: "That the firing of fireworks, torpedoes or fireworks of any description is a fire hazard, and that no person or persons will be permitted to fire any such fireworks or fireworks within the fire limits of the city of Twin Falls as prescribed by law."

Scouters Confer; Thieves Ransack Parked Machines

While Boy Scout executives of several counties were in session at the home of J. J. Lockie Thursday night, thieves ransacked two cars standing in front of the house. From one of the cars a surveyor's level was taken and material is missing from another car. No trace has as yet been found of the thief. The level belonged to Mr. Burdick of Jerome.

The Scout meeting was held for the purpose of arranging for the annual camp, and it was decided this year to send the 150 boys to Camp Baumgartner, near Hole, July 6. Ned Mabbutt will accompany the boys again this year as commissary.

Isn't This Why You Are Constipated?

What do you eat for breakfast? Coffee, toast, maybe some eggs? What do you eat for lunch and dinner? Bread, meat, potatoes? No wonder you're constipated; you probably don't eat enough "bulk" and "bulk" doesn't mean the amount you eat. It means the kind of food that forms a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines. It's this mass that helps a bowel movement.

The common sense thing to do is to eat a natural laxative food. Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast may give you just the "bulk" you need. And it gives you, in addition, Nature's great intestinal tonic, vitamin B<sub>1</sub>. All-Bran is not a drug, not a medicine. Eat it every day, drink plenty of water, and you will be brighter for you! All-Bran is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.
