FUGITIVE KILLER SHOT DOWN IN NORTH WISCONSIN WOODS

Bullets End Wide Hunt for Slayer Of Two Deputies

CABLE, Wis., June 29 (U.P.)—August Buelo, alias Ray Olson, 30, fugitive killer of two deputy sheriffs who had eluded a posse in the northern Wisconsin woods for 13 days, was shot and killed today at daybreak.

He was shot by a group of possmen.

The woodland search, one of the biggest manhunts ever witnessed in northern Wisconsin, began June 17 when Olson, fleeing arrest on a minor theft charge, shot and killed Carl (Cully) Johnson and Fred Scott, Hayward, Wis., tavernkeepers who had been deputized to arrest him.

A posse saw the two-gun desperado sneaking through the woods early today near the Victor Anderson resort 25 miles southwest of Ashland.

"Halt or we'll shoot," they commanded.

The killer quickened his pace, and a volley of shots crashed from the guns of the possmen, the majority expert marksmen. Buelo fell dead.

The fugitive killer was unharmed, gashed from hunger and peppered with mosquito and insect bites. His clothes were bedraggled and torn by his long flight through the north woods. Buelo and his men were seen in the distance through the trees, and the posse was seen early today taking a shot at the desperado. Buelo was shot in the chest, and the posse was seen early today taking a shot at the desperado.

Resting their cases with Buckner were William J. Gillespie, broker, and C. Wesley Turner, former millionaire planter.

John Stuart Hyde, Hollywood film extra and co-defendant, then was called to the stand to testify in his own defense and disavowal of the charge. Hyde, who is lame, was asked by the counsel, David Leventhal, to testify that he had no knowledge of the British expedition force in 1914.

"I object to fighting this last war," Hyde said, "I got one on our hands now."

John Minchin, Buckner's counsel, interrupted.

Felipe Buncamino, Philippine lawyer, then testified that he expected to testify for himself later.

Kansas Jury Continues in Cleanup Plan

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 29 (U.P.)—The county grand jury today indicted H. P. McElroy, Kansas City's first city manager who resigned last month during the cleanup that sent him to jail.

McElroy was charged with embezzlement. Named with him were J. J. Pryor, head of the National Engineering company which had many city contracts from the Pendergast machine, and John J. Rathbun, head of the Rathbun Engineering company. The latter was charged with receiving embezzled funds.

The indictments resulted from an investigation of a water leakage survey for which the city water department paid the Rathbun Engineering company $350,000 over a period of more than six years.

McElroy was connected with $500,000 monthly payments through testimony that he ordered them retained in 1935 after the water department had cut them off.

2 GRAND JURIES INVESTIGATING IN LOUISIANA FRAUD

BATON ROUGE, La., June 29 (U.P.)—A grand jury, an army of state investigators, WPA and PWA agents co-operated with Gov. Earl K. Long today in his political strength-through-honesty program while the ante for the capture of Dr. James Monroe Smith, fugitive former president of the state university, was raised to $2,750.

Another grand jury—called by United States Attorney Rene A. Voies in New Orleans to examine the works progress administration program—will join the search for political evil-doers tomorrow.

The East Baton Rouge parish grand jury, investigating the most current Louisiana scandal—Dr. Smith's financial dealings in the university—may not have a report for a week. Its list of witnesses was long and read like a politician's blue book.

LOSERS HIGH

BATON ROUGE, La., June 29 (U.P.)—Losses in the final weeks of market plunging approached $400,000 for Dr. James Monroe Smith, fugitive former president of Louisiana State university. It was disclosed today by the brokerage firm which handled his account.

Charles Penner, senior member of the firm, told reporters that his first estimate of $350,000 in losses by "Dr. Monroe" (Smith) account was only a recollection of the later figures indicated that the losses would be nearer $450,000.

Dr. Smith's account showed a balance of $700,000 remains of the $500,000 Smith was known to have borrowed under the university's name from three banks.

CORRIDOR VITAL, POLAND DECLARES

ODYNIA, Poland, June 29 (U.P.)—President Ignacy Moscicki in a speech to the nation said today that the province of Pomorze—the so-called Polish corridor—and Poland's seacoast, were fundamental bases of the nation's political and economic independence and were, in fact, of the same inestimable value to Poland as the sun and air.

Gdynia, Poland's only port, lying at the Baltic end of Pomorze, and Danzig, lying at its edge, are of "incalculable worth" to Poland, the president said.

"By these harbors pass three-quarters of Poland's entire foreign trade," he said.

WASHINGTON, June 29 (U.P.)—The house today sent the $120,000,000 relief bill to conference with the senate.

By RONALD G. VAN KINE

WASHINGTON, June 29 (U.P.)—The senate, continuing its spree of boosting house appropriations, passed early today a $1,808,900,000 relief bill for the fiscal year 1940—$78,300,000 more than the amount approved by the house.

After more than 14 hours of continuous debate, the senate passed the bill at 1:08 a. m. EST, without a dissenting vote. But it sent it back to the house, hoping for final passage by tomorrow night, only after rejecting a house proposal to earmark $125,000,000 of the works progress administration funds for public works and adding more than two-score amendments.

Working against time in an effort to rush the bill to President Roosevelt for signature before midnight Friday, the senate disregarded appeals of administration leaders and loaded the bill with revisions that will require a conference with the house.

Major Leader Alben W. Barkley, D., Ky., appointed senate conferees immediately and expecting them to meet with house members soon after the house conference. Present relief funds will be $1,808,900,000, the senate's proposal would add $125,000,000 for the public works.

As approved by the senate, the bill calls for an additional $120,000,000 in new bonds, more than was spent for relief in the fiscal year ending tomorrow. Major senate appropriations are:

For WPA—$1,477,000,000. The house earmarked $125,000,000 of this fund for the public works administration, but the senate rejected the plan.

BOND-BURNING AT JULY 6TH CONCERT

The most "expensive" bonfire in the history of southern Idaho will blaze merrily at the city band concert intermission on Thursday, July 6.

The fire will be that in which the Twin Falls school district disposes of approximately $150,000 in paid-off school bonds and coupons, totaling all the way back to Aug. 1, 1905 when Twin Falls county was still a part of Cassia county.

Four in Charge

Selection of July 6 as date for the bond-burning, the announced by the four committee members, are C. E. McElain, William E. Nixon, S. D. Parnell and W. T. Sorenson.

Arrangements to hold the bond-burning in the 20-minute intermission between the first and second acts of the concert, will be handled through cooperation of Dr. Orrin Fuller, band director, and Daniel A. Dean, city park commissioner. G. E. Taylor, building supervisor for the school district, will arrange for a loudspeaker system. A small out-of-town band will be built directly in front of the bandstand and into it will go the one and one-third millions of dollars worth of bonds paid off through the years by various school boards.

McElain Will Speak

Committee member "fine ceremony" in arranging the unique event. Mr. McElain and Mr. Nixon will arrange the program for the 20-minute event, with Mr. McElain giving the brief talk. Homer M. Davis will preside, or if he is still absent from the city, Chairman George Ward of the school trustees will make the introductions.

Mr. Perrine and Mr. Sackett will be in charge of the burning of the bonds, tearing them and throwing them into the flames.

There will be $600,000 worth of bonds being burned, and approximately the same total in interest.

Mr. McElain is the only surviving member of the first school board for the district. All six are appointed by commissioners of the then-infant county.

Foreign Silver Decreased Again

WASHINGTON, June 29 (U.P.)—The treasury today reduced its price for foreign silver by one-half cent to 38 cents an ounce.

It was the third successive day that the treasury, following drops in world market prices for silver, had reduced its price.

Yesterday, the treasury cut its price from 42 cents per ounce to 40 cents. Yesterday, the price was cut to 38 cents.

Hunt for Mine

"Twenty years had passed, but I thought I could find the mine again. However, the shrobberry and trees had grown up and I was completely lost. I remembered the mine was on the south slope of a mountain and made of it was a wheelbarrow and pots and pans."

McClain said O'Connell spent a year looking for the mine before he died. The fact O'Connell returned to this territory voluntarily and was convinced the wheelbarrow and cooking California lost most of my money and then came back to Portland. There, I heard that my partner had not died.

(From Page One)
A statement this afternoon by his attorneys, W. Orr Chapman and Marshall Chapman, declared that "Mr. Hale is very happy because of this verdict. He feels he has been subjected to great injustice because if anyone had made an investigation of the records or had given him an opportunity to state his explanation, there never would have been a prosecution."
"The fact that the action was in the nature of a political prosecution, seeking a justification for his removal as county agent in the face of the overwhelming expression on the part of farmers of the county for his retention."
"Mr. Hale appreciates the fairness and intentions of the jury and particularly is gratified that after some 10 days of trial, the jury required such a brief time to exonerate him."

Relief Crisis in 8 Idaho Counties Throws Burden on State Funds

COURT FIGHT IS SEEN IN BATTLE FOR MORE MONEY

By WILLIAM McNEAMEN
BOISE, June 29 (AP)—A relief crisis in eight Idaho counties that has thrown a burden on state funds today promised a court fight on fundamental relief theory, and a new complication that may precipitate a special legislative session.

The eight counties, among them, Gem and Canyon counties, have discovered that their 2.5-mill levy is insufficient to meet current relief expenses and (appealed twice to the state for aid which was granted. A meeting is scheduled to be held in the capital with Gov. C. A. Bottel on July 1 to discuss the need for additional funds.

The state has been forced to cut 1,000 recipients of relief and may cut more off. If funds are not available, observers say, a special session may be required to raise the mill levy to meet the need. The federal government has a full load and has shown little inclination to aid to relief rolls.

The difficult question of who could be cut from relief rolls and who left on the list, the threat of a court suit. The suit would test the fundamental question, which is basic to all relief legislation, "Is a person entitled to relief or does he receive it as a pure gift of charity from the state?"

Some persons who are on relief rolls assert they are equally entitled to relief with some of those left on. The legal question would be raised: "Do all on direct relief have the same right to relief and do equally eligible persons have equal rights to relief?"

HITLER AWAITING OPPORTUNITY FOR NEW GERMAN THRU

NAZIS ASSEMBLE HUGE FORCE FOR NEXT BIG MOVE

Editor's Note: Following is the second of four dispatches by the foreign news editor of the United Press which has just completed a tour of the principal European capitals.

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign News Editor
Germany's striking power is greater than ever today and Adolf Hitler is merely waiting for places of Europe's political puzzle to fall into the most favorable position for a new Nazi thrust.

That does not mean that the Nazis intend to start a European war by crudely committing an act of aggression in defiance of the new British-led security front. Conventions with Germany and foreign powers in both official and unofficial positions of authority in Berlin leave no doubt that the Nazis are now confident they can achieve their next step—presumably against Danzig and the Polish corridor—without a major conflict.

Tough Decision
It is certain, however, that the decision which Hitler must make in regard to his next move will be far more difficult and that the risk of mistake in judgment leading to war will be far greater than in any similar situation arising since the Nazis came to power six years ago.

"Es kommt von heute auf morgen vorzukommen," is the way Berliners put it again and again. "It may come today or tomorrow."

They are certain that the next step will come at the first favorable moment; they are confident it will be in the direction of Poland and with the press, hammering the dread word "encirclement"—the people are more strongly united for the moment behind her further than at any time.

Huge Army
The Nazi striking power is vividly impressed on any visitor to Germany. Two different foreign experts who have been in the reich throughout Hitler's regime believe that as many as 1,800,000 men are actually under arms today.

That figure represents half a million more than at any previous time. In seeking to coordinate and draw together the threats of European events since Hitler destroyed Czechoslovakia, one important point must be kept in mind.

Desire Corridor
The Nazis never have and never intend to give up their desire for return to the reich of the entire Polish corridor and other former German areas of Poland.

The Poles fully realize the implications of the German attitude and that is why such a comparatively minor issue as Danzig now creates danger of a major war. It would be a mistake to assume that because Danzig is a predominantly German city that the question of its status can be easily solved.

Event Features Nuptial Satire

June sentiment, or at least the strange ways of Cupid, figured in the entertainment arranged for members of the Fidelity class of the Baptist church Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson. The affair was held out-of-doors on the spacious lawn.

Those present related incidents of their weddings or told how their courtship began.

Including the evening's diversions was a mock wedding.

Mrs. Robert Miller was in the role of pianist. Mrs. Ruth Stevens, the singer. Cecil Leonard represented the minister. Mrs. Ted Scott, the bridegroom, and Robert Miller, the bride, exchanged ceremonial "I do's."

Others who took part in the march to the altar were Ed Skinner, Howard, Mr. Killinger, bridesmaid; Mrs. Killinger, best man.

Completing the cast were Mrs. Ada Leonard, mother; Mrs. Paul Anderson, father, and Ted Scott, best man.

Each character was dressed in suitable attire for the occasion. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Youthful Performers Acclaimed at Picnic

'SECURITY FRONT' MOVE IS SPEEDED

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—Great Britain and France, seeking to speed up "security front" negotiations with Russia because of alarming reports from the continent, have agreed to name Latvia, Estonia and Finland as countries whose independence is of vital interest to the security of Britain, France and Russia. It was said authoritatively today.

In addition to these countries, which Russia regards as vital in its own defense scheme, Britain and France propose to name Poland, Rumania, Turkey, Greece and Belgium as nations which form the basis of a point must be regarded as of vital interest.

New instructions, incorporating these proposals, reached Sir William Woods, British ambassador to Russia, and William Strang, chief of the central European department of the foreign office, at Moscow yesterday, it was learned.

It was understood that Seeds and Woods would delay presentation of the proposals pending suggestions from France for further alterations in the original British proposals. The French proposals were expected to be even more agreeable to Russia.

It was indicated that both Britain and France were receiving reports that German West forces, military or semi-military, were entering Denmark.

France was convinced that Adolf Hitler planned some action, possibly this week-end.

ANTI-AGGRESSION PACT DEADLOCKED

MOSCOW, June 29 (AP)—A. A. Zhdanov, secretary of the central executive committee of the Communist party, charged in the party newspaper Pravda today that negotiations on Russia's entry into an anti-aggression agreement were deadlocked because Britain and France did not want to agree to an equally fair treaty.

As Zhdanov made his charge, Russian dispatches said that Britain had sent to Moscow new proposals designed to approach much more closely Russia's idea of a fair agreement.

The Pravda article was a most unusual one. Zhdanov in addition to being secretary of the central committee, the supreme body in Russia, is head of the committee's propaganda department and is president of the foreign affairs commission in parliament. He is one of Josef Stalin's associates.

In making his charge, he said he was giving his personal opinion and that "this friends" did not agree with him.

Britain and France, he alleged, had piled up artificial difficulties to make it appear that serious differences existed between them and Russia on questions which, with good will and sincerity, should be easy to solve.

LEGAL BARRIERS IN BOYS' ARREST

SHOEHORNE, June 29 (Special)—Robert Terry, 18, and Alfred Bechard, 17, charged specifically under the Dyer act with stealing a car at Spokane and transporting it through Montana and to Shoshone, were arrested before U. S. Commissioner A. J. Heblston Monday afternoon and were bound over to the U. S. district court, each under $600 bail.

Lacking it, they were remanded to the custody of the U. S. marshal and Deputy John Glenn conveyed them to Boise.

SHOEHORNE, June 29 (Special)—When local officers picked up Robert Terry, Jr., and Alfred Bechard here last week they encountered several angles that make up a legal complication. They are arrested for violation of the Dyer act in transporting a stolen car into Idaho. The boys are minors, and one of them at least has served a term in a reformatory. Bechard is a French Canadian, and has been in this country but a short time, and the immigration and deportation laws apply to him.

Under a new federal juvenile delinquency law violation of the Dyer act is not specifically mentioned in the complaint.

Both Confess

Both the boys made confessions to Chief of Police Ben E. Weeks, Deputy Sheriff Lee Wilmer and Special Agent N. D. Aaga of the federal bureau of investigation. Originally four of them started at Spokane,

They Direct Drury Park Play

Play activity at Drury and Harmon parks this summer will be directed by a board composed of students elected to the various positions, under supervision of play directors. Pictured above are members of the Drury board. Front row (left to right) are Virginia Higgins, safety director; Frieda DeWald, sanitation director and Delores Jenkinson, equipment director. where the Idaho car belonging to E. F. Hill of Lewiston, Ida., was stolen. Three of the boys are in custody. Terry, Bechard and Archie Oratile, the latter being held in Spokane. The fourth member, Bob Cornell, was still at liberty at last accounts.

An odd incident lay in the fact that the two were arrested here before Spokane officers had bulletined the car theft. The two had excited suspicion and were watched all one day, and were caught after they had stolen gas from the local highway department, several women having also observed the theft. They were arrested by Officers Ben E. Weeks and Ward Slope of Shoshone, and Deputy Sheriff Lee Wilmer.

Met in Spokane

In his confession, "made of my own free will," Terry states that the four met in Spokane June 18 and entered into a pact to go east, deciding the easiest way would be in a car. Archie rode around town a bicycle and located a Plymouth car. They drove to Coeur d'Alene, then to Mullin, where Archie and Cornell stole a set of Montana license plates off a Ford. They changed the plates before going into Montana, went to Missoula and took some gas. Then to Hamilton, where two of the boys again went scouting for gas.

Here they became separated and though Terry and Bechard remained there for five hours they concluded the other two had been arrested, so they went on to Salmon, Ida., where they said they stole some more gas and later stopped at a filling station between Salmon and Challis, where they traded a lot of fishing tackle that was in the car, for tires, tubes, patching material and cigarettes. Before reaching Challis, they said, they robbed a tractor of gas, went to Halley where they broke into a bakery and stole cookies, cakes and bread. The two then came on to Stihlone, where the police caught us after we had stolen some gas.

Denied at First

Special Agent Aaga came up from Pocatello and the youngsters were thoroughly quizzed, one of them denying everything for a time. Terry read his confession and made corrections in it. The Montana plates were taken off and the Idaho plates substituted at a spot in the country. The discarded Montana plates were later found by the officers.

Hill stated he was on his way to Shoshone to recover his car. In his statement Bechard said he drove the stolen car nearly all the way to Shoshone.

Officers communicated with federal agents in Montana and at Pocatello and Boise.

Warning Voiced Against Fire Menace on Wide Open Range

SHOEHORNE, June 29 (Special)—The suggestion has been advanced by stockmen, farmers and other observers in this area that extraordinary precautions should be taken to prevent fires on the wide open range of this and neighboring counties. They are easy to start and this period, a careless match or abandoned campfire will rapidly spread and the dry grass and sagebrush burn like so much powder. It is exceptionally inflammable and once started it is an extremely difficult task to suppress a desert fire as many will know.

Calls in Last Week

In past years wide areas have been burned off very near town. Within a week past the village fire department has been called to the west side of town to stop the encroachment of carelessly started brush fires which threatened town property.

It is cited that several fires of consequence have stripped a considerable area of brush and grass between Shoshone and Mountain Home. None has been recorded between here and Jerome this season though last summer several fires raged, running close to the town limit.

One local fire of considerable importance occurred last week eight miles north of town on the Richfield road. It was started by hot ashes from an engine, it is stated by authorities, and the blaze ran quickly through the dry grass, sagebrush, tumble weeds and willows—dry and green, consuming everything in its path.

Young Pheasants Killed

In this instance one of the deplorable conditions regarding a wild brush fire was brought to the front. On the west side of the river there abundant a considerable expense of covert consisting of dried weeds, willows and the like, with grassy openings through the long dense stack clear down to the green brush and river bank. For years it had been a remarkably effective haven for pheasants, ducks and quail, and even autos and other vehicles menaced on the riverbank. These sagebrush fires go fast and furious, and with a little wind, could readily take a town.

These nests, eggs and young were all wiped out by the blaze, which covered a considerable acreage.

This might occur at any point along the streams or in the open desert, and aside from the menace to game, other fatalities are claimed. On the desert, however, and tiny dramatic, numerous sagechickens are constantly threatened by fire.

This with heavy storms, winter weather, dry seasons and natural predatory animals and birds, creates further argument for protection to the prairie grouse, the closed season of two years having accomplished great benefit and increase.

Lack Information?

It has been cited by prominent stockmen here the past few days that the interior department does not seem to give the matter particular attention as it does to the upper forest levels. It was explained that the apparent neglect was doubtless due to lack of information and knowledge as to the great hazard and danger of the fiercely sweeping desert or prairie fires of this region.

A tiny flash will start a fire, and as has been stated, while thousands of trees are converted into matches it takes but one match to convert thousands of trees into ashes. And this goes across the open lands, sweeping the game sheep and livestock bands, destroying nesting places, manning farms and town property and even threatening highways at points.

The few rainstorms of the early summer have done little more than moisten the surface of the soil. Open grazing land is as dry as straw and as combustible as a firecracker. Stock can be harnessed in at the remnants of a water hole deep can be huddled into an open place, cattle become bewildered and run wild, game conditions ruined by destruction of nesting places, eggs and young, water sources dried up for a time, and even autos and other vehicles menaced on the riverbank. These sagebrush fires go fast and furious, and with a little wind, could readily take a town.

Game and caution are to be observed during the dry season. A brush fire is not to be fooled with, range leaders warn.

Sportsmen Meet

SHOEHORNE, June 29 (Special)—The annual banquet of the Shoshone Rod and Gun club will be held Thursday night at the Boston cafe. Officials of the game department will attend, so it is indicated, as will other individuals who will speak on fish and game conditions generally.

Cowboys Send Southpaw to Mound for Decisive Battle With Reds

Tony Gets Within One Punch of Dethroning Louis

By HARRY FERGUSON
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, June 29 (U.P.)—Tony Galento, as game a guy as ever bled for a lost cause, chewed the bitter fruits of defeat today and passed his plate back for another helping of the same dish.

Still groggy from trip-hammer punches, barely able to mumble through the blanket of bandages on his face, his torn flesh held together by 23 clamps—the little barrel of a man said he wanted to fight Joe Louis again.

"Bring on dat bum Louis in September!"

That was the third whisper that came out of Orange, N. J., in the hours of today, and it came from the bruised lips of a first-class fighting man who was within one pull-and-punch of being heavyweight champion of the world last night in 11 minutes and 20 seconds of back-alley brawling. Plenty of people probably would pay to see Terrible Tony take another roundhouse swing at Louis' jaw, but it's a night that probably will be denied them forever.

Lou Nova Next
Louis, going his even, murderous way, was to fight in September, but he isn't interested in meeting a man who he already has pounded to pulp, so within the next few months he will get under way for a September bout pitting Louis against young Lou Nova.

It was short and sweet up there under the lights at Yankee stadium last night, but while it lasted it was something to see. Galento went down and got up, and then floor to belt Louis, he went down and got up and then to slug it out with Tony.

After the seventh round, Galento finally halted it after two minutes and 20 seconds of the fourth round when all 233 pounds of Galento was striking toward the floor in one red, raw

Tony Gets $44,000 To Soothe Wounds

NEW YORK, June 29 (U.P.)—Unofficial figures on the Louis-Galento fight:

Gross receipts $44,000.
Net receipts (estimated) $250,000.
Louis' share $100,000.
Galento's share $44,000.

meat of blood. There was no doubt about it—Tony was up. If he hadn't been hit, great "beet" would have commanded him to get up and swing another left hook.

Those who forced the fighting when the opening bell rang them out. Guess who landed the first teeth-rattling punch? None other than Tony.

It was a left hook, heart high, and it rocked Louis on his heels. Tony was fighting out of a crouch and if he only had been a little faster he could have followed up that first hook and slammed Louis' head into the canvas.

But, jacked as he was, Louis still was a superb craftsman. His left jab played a tattoo on Tony's face and then, about the time Galento's cause was lost, Louis pedaled out of danger.

Of Jack Blackburn talked to Louis between rounds and Joe came out under the lights at Yankee stadium, striking out seven and walking seven men. Walt Haggert gave up 11 hits. Red struck out only one man while walking one.

The Chiefs got two runs for two hits in the first frame, but the Power boys soon changed that and went into a 2 to 2 lead in the second inning and stayed in the lead the rest of the way out.

Extra base hits included a home run by D. Walle, for Power, Peterman for Idaho Power and Parker for the Chiefs both poked out triples, and doubles by Guttry and Wells for Power club, and by Adkins for the Chiefs.

Twin Falls Glass and Paint and Jerome Co-op will play tonight at the stadium park softball field for the last game of the season for this week. The contest is scheduled to open up at 7 p.m.

Best game scheduled in American league.

Tony was wide open for the kill now, and nobody was to judge Louis and say "Do get him." Joe slammed his man a few times and the crowd back into Tony's corner. A right and a left and another right and another left to the head and Tony's corner knew better.

His arms fell to his side. His head dropped. And then— as if this were one of those slow-motion pictures— Galento fell to fall.

Before Donovan caught him just before his forehead smacked the canvas.

"Humm-I Wonder"

Galento Escaped with His Life—But Once Even It Was Periled

By HENRY McLEMORE

NEW YORK, June 29 (U.P.)—Galento got out with his life, but there was one dreadful moment when it seemed to hang in the balance.

With two minutes gone in the fourth round Galento was against the ropes, unconscious. His head rolled helplessly, his hands were down.

Louis fired both barrels at him. Then fired again. He was reloading for another broadside of leather at the blood-lustiest when Referee Arthur Donovan called him off.

Might Have Killed Him
Had another volley come from the crowd's mouth of his shoulders, had he driven home again with his 200 pounds of harnessed bell, Galento, as tough as he is, might not have been able to withstand it.

"It was stopped just in time," Dr. William Walker of the boxing commission said, "it wouldn't have done for Joe to throw another punch."

A tough campaigner, Barney Ross, said: "It made my flesh crawl, that finish. Nobody who ever lived could stand much more of a beating like that. As it is, Galento won't be right for weeks. A beating around the head like Joe gave him isn't something you get over with a night's sleep."

Never Hit Harder
Louis never hit any of his victims with more viciousness than he did Galento in those closing moments. Angered by the knock-down he suffered from a left hook to the jaw and a sweeping right under the heart in the third round, Joe brought all his guns into action, he said to himself.

"That was as hard as I ever hit anybody," the champion drew as he sat on his dressing room table. "I was glad to see that Donovan stopped it. That Galento ain't a game guy."

There is no denying that, Tony proved he is a game as he is wise. He waded into the champion from the sound of the first bell and for the first round carried the fight.

The second round after a savage beating and was strong enough in the third to floor his opponent. He answered the bell for the fourth fresh enough, but the first punch in that round settled his punch in. As he started to throw a right, Louis snaked in close and pulled the trigger on his left hand. The hook landed with explosive force, and the flesh on Tony's right cheek gave way as though he had been slugged with a blackjack.

There was the crack of leather against flesh. Again and again. You wanted to turn your head.

Then Donovan saw enough, and Louis had made his seventh successful defense of his world's championship.

An amazing champion, Louis. In seven defenses he has had to fight 64 minutes and 58 seconds of the 15 scheduled minutes.

More than half of this time was used in 15 full rounds against Tony Figg.

He will be next. And after Nova someone else and then someone else still, finally, the years on Louis down.

Wicks Resigns
Umpire Post; New Man Due

Umpire Wicks, one of the "home" umpires in the Pioneer league, gave up his last Pioneer league game last night at Joyce park.

Wicks resigned last week. He is coach at Idaho Southern university at Pocatello.

His umpire was to have arrived from San Francisco to finish up the Ogden-Twin Falls series here, but early today it was not known whether the Californian would arrive in time for the game. In that event, another umpire, probably from Pocatello, would be used tonight.

Withdrawal of Wicks leaves Bob Jackson, also Pocatello, the only home umpire in the league. Jackson worked back of the plate at last night's game.

BUSY
Bluebell pitcher in the Pioneer league, from the standpoint of innings pitched, is Charley Wyr, veteran of the Twin Falls Cowboys.

Official league statistics through June 22 show that Wyr has pitched 90 innings. His nearest rivals are Damon Hayes, Lewistown Indian, at 84 1/3 innings, and Owens, Pocatello Cardinal, at 84 1/3 innings.

Bill Schubei was second-highest on the Cowboy roster, showing 70 innings pitched.

YANKS GO WILD IN DAY GAMES AFTER NIGHT LOSS

By GEORGE KIRKREY
NEW YORK, June 25 (AP)—Night baseball today was under serious indictment by the New York Yankees. Beaten on Monday night under the lights, the Yanks came back in the daylight yesterday to slug the Athletics to defeat twice, 23-2 and 10-0. The same club that could make only four hits off a pitcher (Henry Fippen) who had never before won an American league game collected 33 runs, 43 hits for a total of 77 bases and created two all-time major league records and one American league mark in the bargain.

By hitting eight runs in the first game, the Yanks smashed the record of seven set by Detroit in 1888 and equaled six times.

By adding five more homers in the nightcap, the Yanks set a new mark of 13 homers in two consecutive games, breaking the old record of 11 which they made in 1938.

By making in the first game 27 hits which totaled 33 bases, they set a new American league mark, surpassing the old figure of 30 which the Yanks set in 1932.

The homers were divided this way: First game—DiMaggio 2, Dahlgren 2, Dickey, Beltrik, Gordon, Henrich, Total, 6. Second game—Jordan 2, Croust, DiMaggio, Dahlgren.

Behind such slugging the Yankee pitchers had a picnic. Monte Pearson was the opener, giving up seven hits and Lefty Gomez grabbed the second, yielding three.

"It was a good day," Giants moved into second place by scoring their fifth straight victory, 7-1, over the Phillies.

Dixie Dean, making his first start in St. Louis since the Cardinals traded him to the Cubs, was a complete top mow, hitting the first lining, but Chicago came to win, 3-4.

After their 23-inning marathon of the day before, Brooklyn returned to normal and beat the Bees, 6-1, in regulation time.

Indians Knock Loudly at Cowboy Door

(By United Press)
The Lewiston Indians, who last week-end were holding down fourth place, Wednesday stood in third position, knocking loudly on the door of the Twin Falls Cowboys who hold a one-man advantage in second spot.

The sudden rise of the Indians came after Lou Garland, former major league pitcher, look over manager duties at the northern Idaho camp. Victories in a doubleheader with the Salt Lake Bees Wednesday and the three-game set at Lewiston and dropped the Bees under the 500 mark in the percentage column.

The Indians won the first 3-2 to after an extra inning in a scheduled seven-inning contest and came back in the nightcap for an 8-4 victory.

The Boise Pilots handed the league-leading Pocatello Cardinals a 6 to 3 setback at Boise. The loss trimmed the Redbirds' lead to two games over the Cowboys who gained a 10 to 9 game at the hands of the Ogden Reds.

No Seeding at All-Southern Idaho Net Meet

Because the entry list is indefinite for the all-southern Idaho tennis tournament at Kimberly July 3-4, there will be no seeding of top players, Chairman Buell Warner announced today.

Earlier, the plan had been to seed the four highest-ranking men in order to make sure all did not compete in the same bracket.

Warner announced that the tournament will open at 7:30 a. m. Sunday, July 2, with drawing for opponents and brackets. Women players will have no seeding at the courts until after 10 a. m. play that day will be from daylight to dusk. Monday will see only a few matches, but July 4 will witness the featured late-round duels and titular finals.

Kimberly fire department is now working on the tennis courts for ground improvement.

The tournament, first in an annual series, is under U.S.T.T. rules. Since Kimberly is a member of the Intermountain Tennis association, trophies will be given Saturday and will be on display at the Brunswick, Warner said.

Angels Win for 2nd in Row to Boost Coast Lead

(By United Press)
The Los Angeles Angels made it two in a row Wednesday night and increased their coast league leadership to a game and a half over Seattle by trouncing Hollywood 7 to 0.

Pay Thomas held the Stars to four hits while his mate tapped Van Bittner for 12, Seattle meanwhile lost to Sacramento, 12 to 7.

Portland won from San Diego, 8 to 5, by bunching 10 hits of Howard Craghead in the fourth and sixth innings.

The San Francisco Seals beat Oakland, 10 to 5.

'Live' Balls to Be Topic at Pioneer Parley

"Live" balls used in the Pioneer league will be one of the principal topics for discussion at a forthcoming meeting of managers of the league at Pocatello, it was reported here today.

The present ball used has a spring center, or what is known as a "live" center, which permits longer hits and consequently more home runs.

"You can hunt a home run with these balls," said Hugh Pace, Cowboy business manager.

Shot Drops Fish

EPSON, N. Y. July 3 (AP)—Carl Reed took a pot-shot at a hawk and "brought down" a fish. The hawk rising from Suncook river with a fish in its talons. The bird escaped, but in its flight dropped a two-pound, 21-inch pickerel.

Low Named To Play at Cooperstown

The Cowboys will be watching Walter Lowe, Boise, Idaho, baseball manager who is leading the Pioneer league in home runs, when Boise plays here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Wall has been selected to play in a game commemorating the 100th anniversary of baseball at Cooperstown July 9. He will leave for Cooperstown July 8. He was named as the outstanding player in the Pioneer league and will represent 1939's baby professional league National association day in the New York town.

Lowe has been credited with 28 homers. He will join players of 43 other minor leagues in the celebration of baseball's 100th birthday in a game to be played on the original site where Gen. Abner Doubleday laid out the first baseball diamond.
