HOUSE APPROVES COMPROMISE RELIEF BILL GAS TAX FUNDS FOR COUNTY ROADS UPHOLD BY HIGH COURT Decision Clears Way to Revenue; Crisis Averted

By WILLIAM McKEENAMIN.
BOISE, June 30 (UP)—Constitutionality of the allocation to counties of $1,000,000 annually in state gasoline tax revenues for road building purposes was upheld today by the Idaho supreme court.

The decision eliminates a crisis in county financial affairs that state officials feared would precipitate a special legislative session. It cleared the way for immediate allocation of the funds.

Prosecutor Fred Kenneth O'Leary, Ada county prosecutor, and State Auditor Cal. V. Wright demanding the allocation. The supreme court sustained the alternative writ of mandamus, forcing Wright to turn over Ada county's share of the funds.

The allocation was made by the 1939 legislature to reimburse counties for loss of automobile license revenues caused by a blanket reduction of pleasure car fees to a flat fee.

The court reasons for the decision were:
1. The allocation applies to all counties alike and is not a local or special law.
2. The wording is not ambiguous or uncertain.
3. The allocation does not violate the state constitution providing a claim be presented by a county for its share of license revenues.

The constitution provides means for the payment of such claims. The court held that the state is not bound to pay such claims until the legislature has provided for their payment.

The court also held that the state is not bound to pay such claims until the legislature has provided for their payment.

THRONGS JAM POOL AS MERCURY REACHES 100

Phew!

Bathers thronged the municipal swimming pool today as the mercury held Twin Falls and south Idaho in a grip only slightly less uncomfortable this afternoon than yesterday's 100-degree heat.

The 100 mark Thursday afternoon was the high point of the year here, although the mercury had hovered in the 90s for several days.

The torrid wave continued today with slight abatement, and the official reading at the bureau of meteorology at 1:30 p. m. was 95 degrees.

Low temperature this morning, official records show, stood one degree above the low of yesterday, being 86 above.

The forecast calls for generally fair weather tonight, Saturday and Sunday with "slightly cooler" conditions tonight.

Other official readings today showed the temperature here at 12 noon to be 87 degrees.

Bill Powers, manager of the Harmon park municipal swimming pool, said that yesterday, during the 100 degree heat wave, the largest crowd of the season jammed the tank.

With the temperature threatening to reach the "high 90s" again today he predicted that the crowd would be "just as large."

JAPANESE BOMBS RAZE AMERICAN MISSION SCHOOL

TIENTSIN, June 30 (UP)—Japanese planes bombed and set fire to the American mission school at Foochow, dispatches said today.

The British gunboat Grashopper, from the bluejackets at the blockaded port to protect British property.

The Japanese planes flew over the mission, which displayed two big American flags as a signal to air planes, the dispatches said.

One bomb struck the west corner of the school and set fire to it. Most of the building was destroyed, it was said.

Dr. A. W. Billing and his wife, the only Americans at the school, were reported unharmed. It was believed they and others were taking shelter in dugouts.

The bombing was part of a heavy Japanese aerial bombardment of the center of Foochow. Other planes bombed inland ports and Chinghai, port of Ningpo on the coast.

American consulate general officials at Shanghai were understood to be drafting a protest to the Japanese against the bombing of the mission school.

Official advices at Hong Kong said that the 38 British bluejackets from the Grashopper were landed at request of the British consul.

A blanket Japanese blockade had been imposed at the port at Ningpo yesterday and Japanese had said they would not be responsible for safety of foreign property or warships.

OFFICIALS VIEW CRICKET HORDES

Bert Bolingbroke, county agent, today announced a policy of "watchful waiting" would be followed by the county.

A great number of crickets is concerned in the vicinity of the Salmon dam and nearby country.

The county agent made the announcement after he and a group of men had inspected the infested area yesterday.

In the party were Ben E. Potter and George H. Hart, county commissioners; I. C. Gooding, manager of the Twin Falls dam area; and Keith Evans, Boise, manager of the crickets control program for the state.

It was pointed out by the county agent that the crickets are pests are to be found throughout the Salmon dam area but that it was not likely they would reach the infested area.

There is just nothing to be done at the present time but we will be ready to act with proper control methods as soon as a "close up" view of the migration.

PROFITS TAX IS DEAD; FDR SIGNS

WASHINGTON, June 30 (UP)—The White House disclosed today that President Roosevelt yesterday signed the 1940 tax bill, terminating the levy on undistributed corporate profits and granting other tax concessions asked by business groups.

Acting to best today's mid-point deadline on important "must" bills, Mr. Roosevelt also signed the state-judicial-commerce department appropriation bill for 1940 which carries a special $300,000 to finance a drive by G-men against foreign agents, and the appropriation to finance 1940 operations of the labor department.

Signs "Hot Oil" Act
The president also signed a bill extending for three years the "hot oil" act.

Signings of the tax bill prevents automatic expiration at midnight of "nuisance taxes" and the three-cent postal rate, which are continued for two years.

The bill will abolish the remnant of the undistributed corporate profits tax on next Jan. 1, substituting a 18 per cent income levy on corporations earning more than $25,000 annually.

The profits tax bitterly fought by business during its existence, was reduced drastically by last year's bill, which Mr. Roosevelt allowed to become law without his signature. The 1940 revenue bill proposes the final remnant of the tax.

Salient provisions of the tax bill: A flat 18 per cent income tax on corporations with incomes in excess of $25,000 per year; retention of current rates for corporations earning less than $25,000 annually.

Re-enactment for two years of "nuisance taxes" yielding $500,000 a year, and the three-cent postal rate.

Repeal of the $2,000 limitation on capital losses chargeable against ordinary income for corporations.

Individuals for corporations, individuals and partnerships after Jan. 1 to carry over their net balance in tax loss from one year to the next.

RESORTS AWAIT RECORD THROWS

Swimming and picnic resorts throughout the state are making final preparations today for what looks to be the largest July 4 holiday period in many years. Because of the triple holiday in most communities—and the fact that hot weather struck swiftly this week—spectators of the waterfalls and other places expect to entertain thousands of visitors.

Proprietors of such establishments as Banbury's, Nat-Soo-Pah, Thousand Springs park and similar outdoor drawing spots said today that "everything is ready for the biggest Fourth yet."

Meanwhile, at Ketchum and Hailey, resort and entertainment establishments were laying plans to top all previous Independence day records. The Hailey July 3-4 celebration is expected to lure thousands; Ban Valley and Ketchum celebrations will attract other throngs. Diversified entertainment of every type will await the visitors.

Your Health

By ALAN L. HART, M. D.

Consultant, Idaho Anti-Tuberculosis association and state division of public health

BOTULINISM

Strictly speaking botulism is a form of food poisoning. But it is so much more dangerous than the common food poisoning that it kills on the average of 65 per cent of its victims.

Cause

This deadly illness is caused by eating food contaminated with the germs of botulism. These germs are large microbes which live in the soil and are very resistant to antiseptics and heat. This is partly because they develop spores—little bodies appearing in the body of the germ which serve as a resting stage for the microbe and can be killed only by live steam under pressure.

These germs get on the food from the ground and are not destroyed by ordinary cooking or boiling.

Commercially canned foods, processed with steam under pressure, have caused very little botulism in the last 20 years. But home-canned food is not always sterilized in this way and is therefore much more likely to be contaminated. The products most often responsible for botulism in this country are, in the order of their frequency, string beans, corn, spinach, olives, asparagus.

Nearly all this very dangerous poisoning could be prevented by avoiding home-canned food. If these varieties. Certainly any canned food which has bubbled out of the jar or which shows any sign whatever of having spoiled should be thrown away. Even though it smells all right it may still contain the botulism poison. And it might not be thrown to the chickens unless you want them to die and are willing to take the trouble to destroy their bodies.

Prevention

All home-canned foods should be boiled for at least six minutes before serving. This will destroy any toxins already present in the food. Spores, although they resist destruction by boiling, are likely to pass out of the intestine before they have time to develop into the deadly, full-fledged germs. Surely this is a small price to pay for safety.

Symptoms

Symptoms develop about 18 to 24 hours after eating the poisonous food. The patient complains that he feels weak, is dizzy, has a headache, and is sick at his stomach. One after another he then develops double vision, difficulty in swallowing and in speaking, weak pulse, and difficulty breathing. After four to seven days he dies either from inability to breathe or from pneumonia.

Treatment

Once symptoms have appeared the outlook is very poor. The patient is given anti-botulism serum directly into the vein as quickly as possible. His stomach is washed out to remove any infected food still there. He may require oxygen because of his difficulty in breathing. Sometimes these patients are put into an "iron lung" such as those used in

Hens Snooty

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The University of California experimented for a year to ascertain if egg production could be increased by keeping the hens in cooled hen-houses. The answer was no. Only one thing was ascertained: the university reported, and this was that in the hot days, the hens were noticeably more comfortable in the cooled hen-houses.

In HOLLYWOOD Today

(By United Press)

A Hollywood wedding on roller skates proved too much today for the British minister who married the duke and duchess of Windsor and then came to Hollywood. The Rev. H. Anderson Jardine had agreed to perform a ceremony last night for Gloria Brodine, 18, and Richard Morris, 25, but declined when he learned the couple planned to do the wedding march on roller skates while motion picture cameras filmed the performance.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Bobby Vernon, movie comedian and writer who died Wednesday of a heart attack. Actors and writers, including Preston Foster, Ralph Morgan and Monte Blue, will act as pallbearers.

The leading men and comedians polished up their throwing and batting today for the annual Hollywood charity baseball game July 15. Jean Hershoff, character actor and president of the motion picture relief fund, will lead a parade of 200 celebrities before the game starts.

The latest "Cinderella girl" to break into the movies is Betty Brown, 19-year-old University of Southern California co-ed, who made the grade to a movie part by winning a bet on. Miss Brown first was hired by Producer Sol Lesser to teach Lesser's six-year-old star, Irene Dore, to swing a baton. The red-haired co-ed made such a good impression Lesser decided to give her a movie part.

It'll Be Big Show—And Rupert Caravan Says So

It's going to be a big show at Rupert—and some 115 Minidoka county men and women invaded Twin Falls Thursday afternoon to proclaim the fact with plenty of music and noise.

The show will be the 10th annual Rupert rodeo, scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, July 3 and 4. And the boosters invaded Twin Falls—and other south central towns—in the form of a 28-car caravan.

Two Bands

The caravan included two pep bands, the Burley Eagles and Rupert municipal band. The 115 boosters—half of them women—were dolled up in cowboy and cowgirl outfits. They parked downtown and didn't spare any pains in proclaiming that the Rupert rodeo will offer the best in the way of buckaroo fun.

The caravan left Rupert at 9:30 a. m. Thursday, stopped briefly at north side town, swung over to Buhl, came through Piler to Twin Falls, then headed back for Burley and Rupert via south side communities.

Earl Wilmut is chairman of the committee, and other members are H. H. Judd, R. B. Turner and Henry Stanley.

A state police escort, plus a public address system, accompanied the booster caravan.

Committeemen said the rodeo itself will present a number of America's top riders and ropers, plus some of the outstanding trick performers and barbecue experts.

By PHIL R. CURRAN
SEATTLE, June 30 (AP)—A "jury" representing a cross-section of the nation's newspaper editors—22 delegates to the National Editorial association's annual convention—had come out of Alaska today to pronounce the federal government's Matanuska colony a current failure.

However, a good majority of the editors and publishers interviewed as they stepped off the gangplank of the S. S. Aleutian, predicted the administration's controversial resettlement project would be a success some time in the future. Under private ownership and operation.

Favors Venture
James Wright Brown, president and publisher of Editor and Publisher, the newspaper industry's leading trade magazine, voiced what appeared to be consensus of the group. Brown said, "I feel that Matanuska ultimately will become a private enterprise and that when it does, it will be a substantial success. The main trouble at the colony now seems to be the official change of too much interference with private enterprise."

ELECTRIC FENCE VOLTAGE IS SET

ITHACA, N. Y. — Tests conducted to determine how much of a "shock" from alternating current is needed and is safe in electric fences to turn back livestock without injury brought, according to Prof. H. W. Wiley, head of the department of agricultural engineering at Cornell, these conclusions:

All animals feel very small currents, but larger currents are required to definitely turn them. There must be high voltage to make the required current flow through dry footing. If the voltage is high enough, it is possible that current-limiting transformers that permit only small currents may be effective. Just what voltage and just current are needed are not individually and exactly known.

All animals tested indicated that they felt three milliamperes. Ten milliamperes definitely stopped Jersey heifers ten or eleven months old, but it took 16 or 20 milliamperes to stop full grown beef cattle.

Rotary Talk Given By Early Pioneer

Visiting Rotarians during the luncheon were Dr. Howard and Lee Kennedy, Shoshone, and two guests, W. J. H. Montgomery, Salt Lake City, and A. I. Royer, Idaho Falls.

Program committees for the months of July and August was named, including S. L. Thorpe, Ed McCleary and Dr. Small. Club will dispense with next week's meeting, since the date falls on the Fourth of July.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM LATEST BOOKS

AGASSIZ WONDERS ABOUT LEISURE
It is an exceedingly moody, human biography of the great 19th century scientist, and naturalist, Louis Agassiz, that Mabel L. Robinson has written in "Banner of the Mountain Tops" (Random House; $3). Here was a man who made a tremendous dent in American life. One of his first impressions of America as he came here from Switzerland is quoted briefly below.

He somehow got the impression that we as a people were always in a hurry about the business of living. And that impression from Louis Agassiz, whose own pace at times seems slightly swift, should give us pause! He traveled from Boston to visit Yale by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, a breathless trip to the man who had always depended upon his own legs and European transportation.

The rapidity of motion is frightful to those who are unused to it," he says, "but you adapt yourself to speed, and soon become, like all the rest of the world, impatient of the slightest delay. I well understand that an antipathy for this mode of travel is possible. There is something internal in the irresistible power of steam, carrying such heavy masses along with the swiftness of lightning. The habits growing out of continued contacts with railroads, and the influence they exert on a portion of the community, are far from agreeable until one is familiar with them."

"You would cry out in dismay did you see your baggage flung about pell-mell like logs of wood, trunks, suitcases, traveling bags, hatboxes, all at the same mill, and if here and there something goes to pieces no one is to wonder. Never mind! We go fast, we gain time—that is the essential thing."

It occurs to him, watching us race past him, to wonder what we know with the minutes we work so hard to gain. "What is wanting in all these men is neither skill nor know-

TRANSPORT FIRMS HIT BY HEARING

PORTLAND, Ore., June 30 (AP)—The ultimate consumer—the fellow who rolls his jolly into a service station and says "Fill 'er up"—may never know the difference, but the northwest petroleum rate case will have a far-reaching effect on rail, truck and barge tariff structures in this corner of the United States.

As the Interstate Commerce commission wound up its Portland hearings Wednesday on projected truck and railroad rates and petroleum products it became increasingly apparent that the ICC's ultimate decision—expected from Washington within six months—would serve as foundation for determining future rates.

But on the question of whether the general public would benefit from the competitive struggle there were as many answers as there were sides to the case.

Some observers underscored the fact that the battle between independent Montana oil producers and major California companies for business in the Spokane, Wash., area had resulted in a gasoline price war there that in some instances cut prices three cents or more. Others emphasized this was merely a temporary phase of the battle and that the retail price war was not widespread.

Enid Kenworthy Weds In California City

Of interest to her many Twin Falls friends will be word of the marriage of Miss Enid Kenworthy and Dr. Van Morris Graves Saturday, June 17, at 5:30 o'clock at the Wilshire wedding chapel in Los Angeles, with 75 friends and relatives of the couple in attendance. She carried a prayer book with a marker of salmon, sweet peas and satin streamers. A white rose corsage completed her wedding ensemble. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dunn before an altar banked with white stocks and salmon, gladdened with a large lighted candle at either side. White dahlias were in profusion throughout the reception room.

She was given in marriage by her father.

Sister Attends

Before the ceremony John Lambert sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly," and during the ceremony "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" was played softly on the organ.

France Confident Odds Are Against European Aggressor Nation

ATTITUDE IS TO 'GET DONE WITH' NEXT SHOWDOWN

(Editor's note: Following is the latest of four dispatches by the foreign news editor of the United Press who has just completed a visit to the principal European capitals.)

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign News Editor
France is trading along the road back from Munich, outwardly confident that from now on the odds will be against any aggressor in Europe and increasingly impatient to "get done with it."

But there are many conflicting factors in the French comeback that make it difficult if not impossible to judge its underlying strength until the showdown comes.

That the nation's attitude is a contradictory mixture of confidence (powerfully encouraged by governmental sources), unconcern and resignation to whatever comes is obvious even to the casual sightseer in Paris.

There is, for instance, the determination of the government to foster the idea that France and the newly-formed security front are now so strong that the totalitarian states will never dare risk a war. Yet only this week Premier Edouard Daladier sent out of his way to make public a declaration that the danger is greater than at any time since the World war and Paris became a center for hints of an early Nazi thrust at Danzig.

Air Raid Trenches
There are raid raid trenches in the public parks. But many Parisians insist they would not think of risking their lives under such thin layers of concrete and dirt if enemy planes appeared in the sky.

There are flamboyant patriotic posters in the shop windows urging people to "buy now." Yet the wife of an American businessman was told at fashionable Rue de la Paix shop last week that the only rule of buying recently came when a sudden heat wave forced the population to invest in summer clothes which normally would have been purchased earlier.

Capital Restraints
There is a reluctance of capital that fled abroad due to war fears, and there is an increasing attitude of defiance toward Italy. Armaments are being built at a faster and faster pace, the recent $300,000,000 arms loan was oversubscribed in four days and French experts are beginning to speculate optimistically on whether their army could break the supposedly impregnable German fortifications in the Rhineland.

Attempting to coordinate and understand what has happened since the Nazi dismemberment of Czechoslovakia is essential to emphasize that in the long run Paris looks to London for almost all final decisions just as Italy looks to Berlin.

Thus, there may be much beating of breasts and many strong statements from official sources that there will be "no more Munich" but ultimately France must gear her foreign program to that formulated in London.

HEARING SET FOR ACCUSED KILLERS

"Twice postponed, the arraignment of two ex-convicts for murder of Patrolman Craig Taylor-Bracken will be held in Probate court at 10 a. m. Wednesday, July 6.

That was the announcement by Prosecutor Everett M. Sweley. The former convicts are Dahlil Williams, 21, and William D. Hale, 30.

Arraignment had been postponed once because J. M. Lampert, Boise, attorney for Hale, was out of town. It was postponed again because Mr. Sweley was tied up with a district court trial.

Empanel conferred at the county jail yesterday with Hale. Negotiations for Williams' counsel are still underway, seeking W. L. Dunn, Twin Falls, and a lawyer from Ely, the accused "trigger yeller" home town.

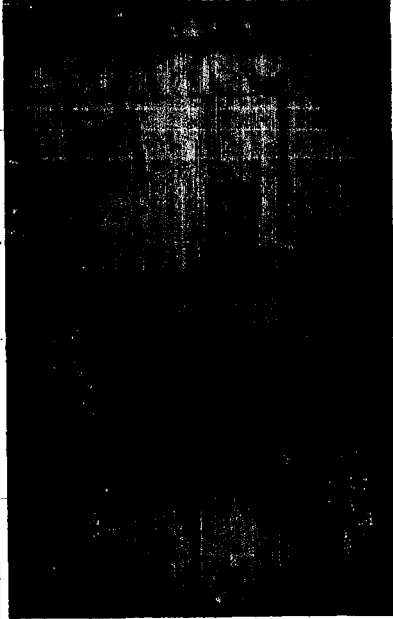

Both men face first degree murder charges. Patrolman Bracken was shot as he and Patrolmen Kenneth Barclay halted Williams and Hale showing hold-up of a service station on U. S. 30. Hale escaped but was captured the following day.

A Businessman—11 Years Old!

Louis Leiser, 11, who lives at 404 Blue Lakes boulevard north, is in business for himself. Above he is shown in the root beer stand which his father made for him. When he opened for business his first two customers proved to be Audrey Bell (left) five, and Freddie Bell three. The customers are children of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Bell of 350 Blue Lakes north. (Evening Times Photo.)

Businessman, 11 Years Old, Doing Nicely

When 11-year-old Louis Leiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Leiser, decided to open a root beer stand in his front yard he went in for it in a big way.

Not content with selling the usual "penny" drinks which are so often found at such stands, Louis set his "sights high" and went in for the five-cent variety.

The root beer the youngster sells is home made, as is his portable stand, constructed by his father and painted in white. The stand can be wheeled to any desired location and is complete with a roof and awning to protect the operator from the rays of the sun.

The stand is complete with a toy cash register and, as a sideline, candy and gum is sold.

"I don't expect to get rich," young Leiser told an Evening Times reporter, "but I expect to make enough anyway."

On the side the young businessman opined that the removal of the fall from the Twin Falls-Jerome bridge would aid his business as it would increase travel in front of his home.

OHIOAN GETS JAIL FOR THEFT HERE

Penitentiary sentence of one to five years—commuted to four months in county jail—had been decreed by District Judge J. W. Porter today for Jack Callahan, Cincinnati, O., on charges of stealing six numbering devices from the Idaho Times Publishing company.

Callahan yesterday entered a plea of guilty to charges of second degree burglary.

The Ohio pressman assertedly took the numbering devices when he paid a visit to the commercial printing department of the Times and News. Telephone call to Boise had newspapers and job shops there on the alert, and Callahan was apprehended as he allegedly tried to sell the numbering machines to Frank Burroughs, Boise publisher.

Joe, Bicycle Bob May Sign Today For Detroit Fray

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP)—Negotiations for Joe Louis to make his first home town title defense—in Detroit against Bicycle Bob Pastor—next September are expected to be completed by Promoter Mike Jacobs late today, leaving young Lou Nova holding the sack.

Nova was promised a September title shot, but Louis' close call with Tony Galento Wednesday night has changed the picture and the champion's brain trust has decided it will be safer and additionally remunerative first to fight Pastor and postpone the Nova danger for another year.

Factor out of a title shot, Nova probably will sign to meet Galento here in August.

The Louis-Pastor match is signed, it is probably will be for 20 rounds in Briggs stadium during the week of Sept. 17-23. The Detroit Tigers will leave their home park after playing the Chicago White Sox on Sept. 29, and will not return until Sept. 29.

Leon managers, John Hoxworth and Julian Black have tried to persuade Jacobs to swing one of the big heavyweight fights to Detroit for more than a year. They believe that Pastor is the logical opponent, because he made an impression showing in outpointing Burley on Ties last month. Jacobs said he thought the Louis-Pastor bout would draw more money in Detroit than a Louis-Nova one in New York this autumn.

Jacobs, however, may run into a hitch on signing Nova to meet Galento in August. Nova's manager, Ray Caplan, was bitter and vowed he would not sign for Galento unless both Louis and Pastor signed contracts agreeing to defend the title in October against the Nova-Galento winner.

Seattle Wins On Passed Ball In 15th Inning

(By United Press) The Seattle Rainiers are back within a half-game of the league-leading Angels today as the result of a passed ball. Grubbs, Ramonito again, let one get through his legs in the 15th inning last night and Dick Gyselman came galloping home with the run that gave Seattle a 5 to 5 victory over the Soles.

The Los Angeles Angels were whitewashed, 4 to 0, by Bill Fleming and Hollywood. Fleming was mentioned first because he permitted the Bertha off only three hits.

Portland landed on Joe Gamble in the third and fourth innings to score all their runs and emerge with a 4 to 3 win over San Diego. Oakland routed the Sox with a wild pitch hitting rally that beat San Francisco, 2 to 1.

Chubby Hurler Very Brave, Hogties Yanks

NEW YORK, June 30 (AP)—Emil (Dutch) Leonard, a chubby Belgian who throws a knuckle ball without using his knuckles, today qualified as one of the bravest men in sports.

Unmindful of the murderous Yankee bats, which had rattled off 23 runs and 43 hits in two games Wednesday, Leonard stepped out on the hill at Griffith stadium in Washington yesterday and showed his knuckler right down the throat of the world champions.

Giving up only seven hits and blanking the Yanks for 11 consecutive innings, Leonard hurled the Senators to a 2-1 triumph and became the first American league pitcher to hog-tie the champs twice this season. He previously had beaten the Yanks, 3-1, April 2, letting them down with six hits.

Yesterday's game went 12 innings with Buddy Lewis' single to center putting over the winning tally.

The Yanks came back in the nightcap and slapped Ken Chase for a 7-0 triumph in six innings (called by darkness). Alcy Donald let the Senators have only three hits.

With Connie Mack confined to his hotel by a stomach disorder, the Athletics beat the Red Sox, 8-5. The Browns and White Sox broke even, St. Louis laying down a 10-0 hit barrage to take the opener, 9-3, and Chicago taking the nightcap, 7-5. Bob Harris gave up six hits in the opener.

Danny MacFayden, making his first start in 11 days, cooled off the Giants and the Beas won an 8-3 victory. Al Simmons got him out of his only serious jam in the second. Simmons charged into the world, Del Kunkel, Salt Lake City, in a title match as the featured event of a July 3 wrestling card here.

Eddie Gladly Throws His Crutches Away

Eddie Lehmann, injured Cub pitcher, is having an easier time at getting around these days since the "doc" took a cast off his right leg and then took Eddie's crutches and threw them away.

The cast has been off for a couple of days and he is all but counting the minutes until he can be back at this old job at short-notice.

Another week or 10 days, and fans will see Eddie at his post again.

Coast Post Seen For Investigator

SPOKANE, Wash., June 30 (AP)—Mike Peacock, football coach at Loyola university, Los Angeles, had accepted today that Edwin N. Auerhahn might replace Herb Davis in December as football coach of the Pacific coast conference.

Peacock, former coach at Gonzaga university, Spokane, made the prediction while waiting here after attending the coast conference meeting at Timberline Lodge, Ore. Later he left to return to Los Angeles.

Atherton has been employed by the conference to investigate athletic activities at member institutions. His voluminous report on six schools was turned in to faculty representatives at the conference meeting.

Frank Falconi, Spokane infielder, was added to the roster last night and handled second base in place of Ernie Bishop, who sustained a wrenched back the night before in avoiding collision with Verne Reynolds, shortstop, as both went after the same fly ball.

New Umpire Works First Game Here

Abe Schrimpler, an Oklahoma Indian, umpired his first Pioneer league game last night when he succeeded Guy Wick, athletic director at Idaho Southern university, whose resignation became effective following the second game of the Ogden-Twin Falls series here.

Schrimpler was recommended by Pioneer league officials after umpiring several baseball games in south-east Idaho in the Yellowstone and Snake river leagues.

Wry Will Pitch As Cowpokes Try To Extend Wins

Boise's Pilots come to town today to face the rarin' Twin Falls Cowboys in Jaycee park for the first dual of a slated four-game series after the Cowpokes just finished taking two of three from the Ogden Reds. One of the four Boise tilts will be a postponed tilt.

Charley Wry, right-hander, will be pushing them over from the hill for the Cowpokes.

Ernie Bishop, Twin Falls second sacker, may not be in the lineup tonight because of a wrenched back sustained the night before last. Heat treatments were being applied to the wrenched this afternoon.

If Bishop isn't in the game, Frank Falconi, latest addition to the team from Spokane, will probably hold down second. Joe McNamie will be in the field and DeCarlo will catch his 10th straight game. If the regular second baseman is back in the play, fans will get their first peek at Falconi playing centerfield, his regular position.

Twin Falls used two pitchers last night to down Ogden 14 to 10 as the Cowpokes finished strong after letting up enough to enable the Reds to tie the count up at 3-3. Johnny Stefan started the game and left with the score still in favor of the Cowpokes, but (Stefan) bel got credit for the win after he won the game following the tie score.

Two Twin Falls errors in the 10th and frame gave Ogden its first run, but the lasso runners came right back. Junior McMahon singled and Steve Bogdanoff followed suit, singled to center and filled the bases for the first time in 18 at-bats. The Cowpokes' third inning scoring, McMahon and Bogdanoff, the runners advanced on a passed ball and Corky Carlson walked the bases.

Wes Schumacher's smoldering homer over the right field barrier.

Ogden tallied one in the third on a walk, a single and an error before the Cowpokes came back with the last hit of the frame to take two more tallies on Bogdanoff's single. Stefan's double and Carlson's one-bagger followed, but the Cowpokes won in the first half of the fourth when he struck out two men while running for home and backed them up.

Larry Serpa's single, Pete Hughes' single and a walk tossed to Dave Davis tilted the bases in the fifth. Serpa scored on an attempted double play at second and first. Hughes came in on Rosenlund's single and then Serpa's little boy, Al, unsanctioned a homer over the right field fence to carry Navarro and Rosenlund home. Stanley West singled and then Schubeit took over mounded duties with two men down and one on to go ahead and win himself a bull game.

Pitcher Hits

Schubeit's double and a single by Schumacher were good for one run in the last of the fifth. Ogden (Al) tallied twice in the sixth on three hits and a walk, but the game was tied up. Falconi's run in the seventh inning was the only one as the Cowpokes won the game 14 to 10.

Just to clinch the deal, the Cowpokes won the game 14 to 10.

BRITISH LEADERS WARN NAZI HEAD

LONDON, June 30 (AP)—The government of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain today led a campaign of official declarations and newspaper comment warning Germany against future aggressive expansion in Europe.

Speeches and editorials called for a firm stand against aggression and asserted in strong terms that Britain is now rearmed and ready, if necessary, to fight.

Britain Determined
The official-led campaign appeared to be designed to convince the Nazis that Britain was determined to accept any war-like Nazi challenge and thus to ward off the possibility of an explosion at Danzig, although the British are not committed to protect Danzig unless the Poles choose to go to her aid first.

An unconfirmed report circulated in parliamentary quarters that the government intended to widen the conscription plan, now confined to men of 20 years of age.

First Ready
Reports indicated that the fleet was ready for action. The air force, expanded in recent months beyond all hopes of the most optimistic government leaders, made ready for the biggest maneuvers in history July 8.

Alarming reports from the continent—that Germany was calling up reservists; that German Nazis and army men were filtering into Danzig to join a new "free corps" that would be the basis of a defense force if and when the Danzigers proclaimed their independence and their desire to join Germany; reports from Warsaw that the city might be "freed" by the Danzigers—had brought a sudden and dramatic change in the British attitude toward the European situation.

Winston Churchill, disident conservative leader, who often says that government leaders would like to start a series of unimpeachable grave statements with a warning to Adolf Hitler that British patience was nearing exhaustion.

Next came a speech by Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary, warning Germany that Britain was now ready for war.

This was followed by a speech by Gen. Sir Walter Kirke, new inspector general of the Home Forces, a war-time post which he will take up tomorrow—to the officers' training corps at Cheltenham.

Britain Has Army
"Britain now has an army with which to go to war, before she actually goes to war (in reference to the 1914 unpreparedness)," he said. "It is as well, perhaps, because we can not expect a modern enemy to observe the civility of the middle ages and give us time to get our team on the field."

This rearmament has been forced on us by bitter experience of the futility of arguing with an armed burglar.

Next, and most important of all, was a speech by Arthur Greenwood, Labor leader, to the India League. "I hear rumors about war breaking out tomorrow."

There was a rumor—dismissed generally as "wishful thinking"—that President Roosevelt was planning some kind of pronouncement aligning the United States with Great Britain and France in the present situation.

DANZIG ARMING, POLAND CHARGES
WARSAW, June 30 (AP)—Poland asserted officially today, in face of Nazi denial, that Danzig was organizing a "free corps" and newspapers said that anti-aircraft guns had been mounted in the territory within the last few days.

A government communique on the Danzig situation caused some surprise in diplomatic quarters because of its firmness.

Issued in the early hours of this morning, it said that organization of "free corps" units "has been established beyond doubt and can easily be observed notwithstanding Nazi denial."

Both in Danzig and Germany it had been denied that a free corps was being formed—according to reports—with the aid of German Nazis. Until today's communique, there had been only unofficial reports of the corps.

Fast Work by Firemen Ends Blaze in Hay

Fourteen minutes from the time the alarm was telephoned, the Kimberly volunteer fire department had a stream of water directed on a flaming haystack in the Earl O'Harrow ranch south of Twin Falls Wednesday evening.

Swift work by the Kimberly department, Mr. O'Harrow said today, saved 75 per cent of the 18 to 20-ton stack although the hay was entirely enveloped in flames when the fire-fighters arrived.

The fire broke out at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, and is believed to have been caused by a child playing with matches.

"Party" Testimony Brings Tears

$3 FEE SET FOR VACATION CAMP

Nominal charge of $3 per person—including meals and registration—had been fixed today as the only cost at the south central Idaho women's vacation camp at Easley hot springs in August.

The fee was set at a meeting of the camp committee with Miss Margaret Hill, district home demonstration agent, Mrs. R. J. Evans, Twin Falls, committee chairman, presided.

Nine of the 12 ladies from north and south sides attended the party.

Of the $3 total fee, one-half may be paid in the form of garden produce for use in the camp kitchen, the committee decided.

Tentative committees were set up for registration, food, guest tents, hostess work and other activities. Completion of the committee list is expected within three or four days.

"Contact chairman" in each community of south central Idaho will be selected, it was decided, since the vacation camp is open to all women of the entire area.

Pay scale for the camp cook was chosen, and it was decided to use older 4-H girls and 4-H leaders who were former club members as the staff for serving in the dining hall. These will be named from various communities.

HALIFAX SPEECH HIT BY ITALIAN

ROME, June 30 (AP)—Viscount Halifax, British foreign secretary, has dealt a death blow to hopes of political negotiations to settle the European problems, Virginia Gayda said editorially today in the semi-official newspaper, Giornale d'Italia.

Gayda referred to the speech of Lord Halifax in which the foreign secretary warned Germany that Britain is ready for war.

He denounced the British and French "encirclement" of Germany, which he said is leading Europe into war.

French Ministers Consider Defense
PARIS, June 30 (AP)—Premier Edouard Daladier today summoned the cabinet to meet, as a formal council of ministers under President Albert Lebrun, at 10 a.m. tomorrow to consider the Danzig and other European problems, and financial matters pertaining to the national defense.

It was reported that a new issue of treasury bonds might be approved. Diplomatic sources reported before the cabinet summons that Germany planned to call additional army reservists in July.
