

Ultra-Modern X-Ray Device Puts County Hospital at Top of List

Table, Just Perfected, Offers New Facilities

The Twin Falls county general hospital today was declared to be the best equipped of any county hospital in the state. Announcement to this effect was made by hospital officials after completion of the installation yesterday of a combination radiographic and fluoroscopic tilt-type table in the X-ray rooms. The new equipment was installed under supervision of a representative of the General Electric X-Ray corporation, Chicago.

Main feature of the machine is the fact that with the table is a shock-proof X-ray tube which has a capacity of 100,000 volts, thus making it possible to do X-ray and fluoroscopy without high voltage shock to the patient or operator. It is easily operated by one person. It was perfected only six months ago and is the second of its kind to be installed in the state.

The apparatus permits horizontal and vertical X-ray or fluoroscopic work. It may also be operated in any intermediate position.

The new table is used with the present X-ray generator, purchased four years ago.

Valuable New Equipment at Hospital

Installation of a combination radiographic and fluoroscopic tilt-type table in the X-ray room at the county general hospital here today had made the local institution the best equipped county hospital in Idaho. The equipment, installation of which was completed yesterday, is shown above. Nurse Amy Stoddard, X-ray technician, is shown at the controls. By use of the new equipment physicians will now be able, conveniently, to set fractures while the patient is on the X-ray table. (Evening Times Photo)

WHEAT SUSTAINS STORM DAMAGES

Some wheat had been damaged today in the Kimberly-Hansen sector of Twin Falls county, a number of large trees uprooted, branches torn from other trees and loose equipment in ranch yards had been blown around as result of a brief but terrific wind accompanying heavy rain-fall late yesterday afternoon.

Telephone service was disrupted for a short time in a few rural sections.

Power Off

Power service was off for several hours in the farm area between Kimberly and Twin Falls in the vicinity of the county farm road. Power went off shortly after 5 p.m. when the intense rain and heavy wind struck with little warning. Linemen climbed dozens of poles to replace blown-out transmission fuses in the east end, as well as west and south of Twin Falls. About 40 miles fuses went out under the strain brought when lightning bolts hit lines.

Lightning struck the 4,600-volt transmission line running from Thousand Springs, branches torn and momentarily halting power along that route. The line was struck east of the city. Another bolt hit near Ramona street and burst out a transformer in South Park addition.

Other Bolts Hit

Other bolts struck lines east, south and west, according to M. E. Shottwell, service foreman for Idaho Power company.

Bulk of the service was restored by 7:30 p.m. Many ranch houses utilized candles as repair men hurried from point to point, restoring power as fast as possible.

Shottwell termed the thunderstorm in the east and area where it struck with full fury, the worst of the summer as far as power service is concerned.

Rain in Twin Falls itself, and as far out as the Pioneer league baseball park, was restricted, to decaying drizzle, a few miles away, however, it hit so heavily that ranchers in the fields were unable to find cover and were drenched to the skin. Lightning bolts frightened horses in the fields.

Some wheat was beaten down into the muddy fields, occasioning minor losses.

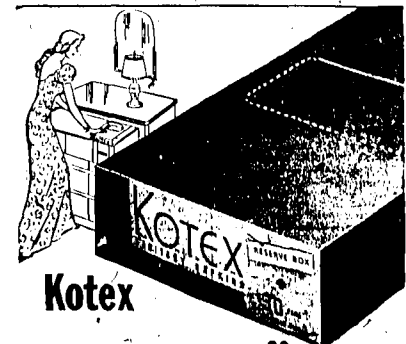

Canal company ditch riders said that laterals and canals were forced to carry heavy loads, and that streams of rain water filled low spots in some roads. No damage was recorded.

Highway District Given WPA Funds

Approval of a WPA project in the amount of $4,313 for improvement of grounds, buildings and facilities at the Twin Falls highway district plant southeast of the city was announced here this afternoon in a telegram received from Sen. D. Worth Clark.

Officials of the highway district said, when informed of the project approval, that the majority of the fund received would be spent on building construction.

Date on which work will start is not yet known.

CAMP HEAD GETS VALUED TRAINING

Training, which will be of value when she is director of the local Camp Fire Girls summer outing was received by Mrs. Albert Lewis, Dulhi, recently when she attended the national summer training course for adult leaders in the organization.

The course was given at Camp Swayokan, meaning "Sign of the Pine," a Lake Coeur d'Alene. Mrs. Edward Rogel, who will be music director at the district camp, also attended.

All Over U. S.

More than 100 guardians, counselors, council members and sponsors from all over the United States attended the course, which was not only inspirational but gave technical information about organization of a camp and teaching of crafts.

"It was the experience of a lifetime," said Mrs. Lewis.

Miss Eldora Demos, district field secretary, conducted the camp, and the staff included Miss Ruth Teichman and Miss Evelyn Kirby, national field secretaries, who taught music and handicraft.

Theodore A. Hooper, "Uncle Toby" to Camp Fire Girls, also attended. Chairman of the national camp committee, he is known as a writer, speaker, adventurer and psychologist.

Committee Members

Mrs. Lewis was a member of the committee which planned the annual fire, for which the "magic carpet" theme was used. She remained at the camp a day after the course as the guest of Miss Nora Garvin, director. The camp is considered outstanding in the entire country.

A local representative has attended the national training course for the past five years.

The local camp will be held July 30 to Aug. 13 at the Presbyterian camp grounds on the north fork of Wood river. The younger girls will attend the first week, which will be called "explorers' week." "Discoverers' week" will be the second, for older girls.

PERMUTIT....

is a definite aid for HEALTH

You instinctively associate health with cleanliness. But do you know that it is almost impossible to be really clean if you use hard water? It may look clear, but when it dries on your body it leaves "dirt" on your skin, in your pores, in your hair. Soap makes it worse. Because then it covers you with a film of gummy "soap curd" formed by union of the soap with lime that is in the hard water. That curd is what makes the annoying "ring" around your tub after you take a bath. A Permutit Water Softener in your home ends all this... helps you and your family maintain that personal cleanliness that is so vital to health.

Los Angeles, Rainiers in Close Battle

The Pacific Coast league passed the two-third mark this week and its anyone's guess when it will finish the season on top. The Angels were the early-season favorite, and they still lead the league but they've been in and out of first place so often they're beginning to look like corks.

Only Los Angeles, Seattle and San Francisco show more than 500 in the win-loss column, eight games separating the Seraphs from the Beas. The only clinch bet seems to be for Portland to take the cup cakes awarded annually for the last place team.

A glance at team averages released today shows the Angels, Rainiers and Beas also leading the league in batting, with Portland a surprising fourth. Los Angeles is hitting .203 as a team, Seattle .200 and San Francisco .289. Individually, Don Dileasandro of San Diego tops the loop with a mark of .377. Julio Bonetti of Los Angeles leads the pitchers with 12 victories and two defeats.

Ripper Collins of Los Angeles still leads in home runs, with 20, and runs batted in, 85. Joe White of Seattle has 28 stolen bases. Floyd Herman of Hollywood is credited with 36 two-base hits; George Archie of Seattle and Brooks Hildner of San Francisco each have 13 triples, while Charlie English of Los Angeles tops the sacrifice hitters with 22.

NEWSREEL MEN FILM AERIAL FISH-PLANT IN REDFISH LAKE

Pathé cameramen today recorded for history—and also for the movie-going public throughout the world—the planting of fish by air in Redfish lake located in the Stanley basin country.

Flying the plane, of which hundreds of feet of film were taken during the planting operations, was Laramie Stevens of Twin Falls. Stevens was piloting the plane owned by Lionel A. Dean, also of Twin Falls, which was especially equipped for the work.

The planting is being sponsored by the Frontier club, Jack Tingey, club official, and Dean left early this morning for the scene, traveling by automobile to the lake site. Stevens left the Twin Falls airport in Dean's plane at 10:30 a. m. today and flew directly to the Cape Horn airport, where the fish were loaded into the special 40-gallon tank which had been built into the front cockpit of the ship.

With cameras grinding away, Stevens skipped over the top of tall pines, came down to within 100 feet of the lake, dumped the fish, and then "pulled up" as he came on the cameramen, standing under other tall pines on the lake's edge.

Today's work was principally for the newsreels but next week Dean and Stevens will "take turns" as they fly back into the rugged mountains and stock lakes in a few minutes which would take days to stock by ordinary methods.

Redfish lake was chosen for the test hop and for newsreel filming because of its accessibility. It is already well stocked with fish. Aerial planting will be in more remote lakes.

In order to keep the fish alive during their aerial trip a special fan was installed on the plane. The fan in turn propelled a belt which causes the water in the tank to circulate, thus aerating the water.

Jan Kling, champion stock car automobile driver, yesterday afternoon thrilled more than 1,100 local citizens with an exhibition of safe driving practices, the "hard way" in a two-wheel long area on Sheehy street between Fourth and Sixth avenues east and north.

Traveling between 30 and 40 miles an hour the driver of the machine would make sharp, skidding turns to show the effectiveness of modern tires. He also ran the two wheels on one side of the car over a raised platform while traveling at a high rate of speed. The car did not turn over or slip sideways. Mrs. Henry Mills, wife of the Goodrich tire distributor for this section, was also among passengers carried.

100 British Fighting Planes Fly Over France

400 Men Take Part in Giant Mass Flight

By WALLACE CARROLL
LONDON, July 11 (AP)—Twelve royal air force squadrons, made up of more than 100 medium and heavy bombing planes, took off under sealed orders today for the first of a series of non-stop training flights to southern France and return.

It was believed to be the first time any nation had sent such a number of planes on a training flight to a foreign country in peace time.

This flight meant that the royal air force was getting to the business stage of its training. Britain had become too small.

400 Men in Crews
Planes took off from selected royal air force stations for various destinations in France. The first squadron passed over the British coast at 8:30 a. m. About 400 men were in the crews.

The planes, under an agreement just concluded between the British and French general staffs, will fly to the south of France, with full war time loads, and return to their bases in Great Britain.

Flights of the same distance, if made toward the east, would take the planes over Berlin, over the German ship yards and naval stations at Bremen and Hamburg, over the great Krupp munitions works and the rich Ruhr industrial area.

Training Plans
It has been reported that British planes would be sent for training purposes to other countries of the British Empire.

Military and air force quarters told of a plan to send British and French air units to Poland in training, and to bring Polish units to Britain and France.

In event of war, British and French planes could fly over Germany to Poland to refuel and return.
