

LEADERS SOUND DEMOS ON KEEPING CONGRESS IN SESSION

NEUTRALITY LAW PROGRAM WOULD RETAIN SOLONS

By RONALD G. VAN TINE
WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—Senate Democratic leaders polled their membership today to determine if support President Roosevelt could muster if he attempts to keep congress in session until it acts on his neutrality program.
Although the adjournment has been in both senate and house, friends of the administration maintained a "no surrender" attitude on neutrality.
"We are not through by any means," said Majority Leader Albert W. Nye, D., Ky., who conferred with Mr. Roosevelt and Secretary of State Cordell Hull at the White House yesterday.
Barkley admitted that Democratic sentiment was being tested on three methods of reviving the administration program, but contended that "it is not known which, if any, of the plans will be offered." The three involved:
1—An attempt to reverse the 12-to-11 vote by which the senate foreign relations committee shelved all neutrality legislation a week ago. None of those who voted to postpone the issue until next session has indicated a change in sentiment.
2—A motion in the senate to discharge the committee from further consideration of the question, thus forcing a bill to the floor. Republicans as well as many administration supporters predicted that such a motion, if made, would be defeated.
3—An attempt to attach a neutrality bill satisfactory to the President as a "rider" to any suitable house-approved bill on the senate calendar. Such a move, while frowned upon by parliamentarians, would give the administration its best chance of victory, outside of a committee reversal.

New Nevada 'Gold Rush' On—Moneyed Men Stake Homestead Claims in Tax Paradise

By BILL BERRY
(NEA Service)
RENO, Nev.—Nevada is rapidly becoming the retreat of the rich, the sanctuary of the solvent.
Tax-tired tycoons, naturally drawn to a state that has no income tax, no inheritance tax, no sales tax, no gift tax, and a tax on intangibles which is not collected, are flocking to make Nevada their legal home. Newcomers from states where the tax-collector is tougher have brought nearly a half-billion dollars to this cyclone-cellar of capital.
This completes a cycle for Nevada. It first found fame when eager immigrants found the rich silver lodes, and those who entered the state penalties left it with bulging pockets. Then came the next immigrant wave, seeking freedom from income marriage taxes and taking advantage of Nevada's easy and pleasant facilities for divorce.
And now comes a third wave of men who have made money elsewhere, bringing back some measure of the wealth that once came out of the fabulous Comstock lode.
They are moneyed men.
This will show how the golden tide is running into Nevada: People with incomes above $5,000 a year fill out income tax form 1040. In 1937, Nevada had 600 such people. In 1937, she had 2,185. That means that at least 1,575 people who could not afford to live in their own state, or better incomes drawn to Nevada by its no income, inheritance, sales, gift, or intangible tax" program.
Nevada is nevertheless solvent, with a treasury surplus and a balanced budget.
How is it done? Nevada is in many respects unique. Its population has only recently crossed the 100,000 mark—it is the most thinly-populated of all states. There is almost no manufacturing, and since mining and ranching are the big industries.

A Rupert dairymen took second in the intermediate division, and Heyburn and Burley men topped the smaller herd classification.
Second Highest

Ten to 20 cows—Howard Gault, Burley; 857 pounds of milk, 35.5 fat; 14 grade Guernseys and Jerseys. Second, C. H. Hager, Rupert; 1,175 milk, 35.8 fat; 18 registered Holsteins, two dry.
Under 10 cows—Edwin Ames, Heyburn; 1,311 milk, 30.4 butterfat; six registered and grade Holsteins. Second, Grant Freer, Burley; 918 milk, 33.1 fat; four registered Guernseys, 454 cows.
Mr. Law's report showed 35 herds tested, including 454 cows of which 50 were dry. Total pounds of milk produced in the association reached 344,335; butterfat, 14,028.4. Average milk production was 156; butterfat, 31.0.

BOISE, July 18 (Special)—Idaho range conditions on July 18 were considerably below average but were little changed from the first of the previous month. Preliminary tabulations by the weather bureau indicate that precipitation for June in north Idaho was about 125 per cent of normal, the southwest receiving less than 60 per cent and the southeast around 110 per cent.
Most high ranges have continued to produce good feed but much more rain is needed to insure feed for late summer and fall. Lower ranges have dried rapidly, especially in the southwest and south central areas. The showers received on the low ranges came too late to be of much benefit to present grass and were not heavy enough to start new growth.
Cattle and sheep are generally still in good shape, but are beginning to show the effects of short range feed in some localities. Early lambing has gone to market at considerably lighter weight than last year.

West Predict End
Barkley, refusing to predict the day of congressional adjournment, said a week might pass before the administration could decide whether to abandon its program or to try one of the three methods. Should neutrality be abandoned, he said, congress ought to be able to get out of Washington by Aug. 7 or 8.
Meanwhile, Republican sentiment was being sounded by minority leader Charles L. McNary, R., Ore., who may report his findings to Mr. Roosevelt at a proposed White House conference of senate Democratic and Republican leaders.
In the house, sentiment on neutrality appeared to remain divided along the lines of the vote which retained the controversial arms embargo in the administration's bill.

Shoshone's municipal plant for pumping clear fresh water for domestic purposes located in the lava north of town, Friday went dry because pumping apparatus had stopped and the flow diminished. Coupled with the heavy demand for drinking water during the hot days, the well failed to function, but the defect was remedied within a few hours.
Twenty-seven cars of lambs left Friday for eastern markets from the Hill City section. Monday other heavy shipments started from the Ketchum area.
Automobile mechanics of Shoshone met Wednesday in the Lincoln building and heard a talk on machinery and equipment by Mr. Brock, a specialist. The session related to technical affairs.
John Paick returned to Shoshone Friday, after having operated five machine shearing outfits, going as far north as Chinook, Mont., near the Canadian border.

Nevada thinks of everything! Then there is Byron L. Sheppard, former partner in the firm of Sherman and Sheppard, from 1916 to 1920 South American distributors for Ford. Sheppard sold out and became a Wall street operator. Sheppard came to Reno in 1931, bought a home, but it was not until very recently that his whereabouts and activities became generally known.
He had installed in his home a brokerage office for his own use, with the only direct stock-ticker market report in Nevada and a telephone connection with his brokers. He lived all those eight years in complete seclusion, allowing no visitors except the closest personal friends, opening the wire every morning at 8 a. m. (9 a. m. Eastern time) and carrying on his large market operations quite unobserved by Reno.

Business Girls Scan Democratic Objective

Handing on the inspiration of more efficient business life in a democracy, and a new ideal of program building, Miss Irene Lopez, president, and Miss Margaret Jones, vice-president, gave comprehensive accounts of the northwest conference of business and industrial girls, when they addressed members of Beta Gamma last evening at the Y. W. C. A. room.

They were local delegates to the conference of groups associated with the Y. W. C. A., held last week at Challenger inn, Sun Valley. Girls and adult leaders from Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Utah and Montana, numbering 48, spent a week of intensive study, ascertaining what part business and industrial girls play in the community and learning how to become effective in community, area, national and international affairs.

Program Objectives
Program objectives, evolved from resolutions passed following lectures and forum discussions, were outlined by Miss Lopez and Miss Jones as follows:
"To work for the preservation of democracy by studying anti-Semite movements in communities, and restrictions against academic freedom and discrimination against minority groups."
"To build programs for the better education of girls just out of school or without jobs, and to make them more worthy and more capable of handling jobs after they get them."

The business girls also passed a resolution to assist industrial girls, such as household employee and store clerks, in improving their working conditions.

Legislative Speeches
Theme of the conference was "Adventures in Citizenship in relation to all phases of life, local, national and international." Principal speaker was George F. Yantis, attorney and ex-legislator of Olympia, Wash. The local delegates quoted him as saying:

"Proper application of intelligence and character alone will save democracy. The road to democracy is hard; its fate depends upon the ability to meet the needs of the people, and the answer lies in the lifting of the mass of all hard-headed think-masses."

ing, though, the girls told the group. There were dramatics, music and leadership group sessions; bicycling, ice-skating, tennis, hiking and swimming. After a week spent in camps and shorts, the girls seemed relieved to get into dresses for the finale, an informal dinner party last Friday evening at the Ram, according to Miss Lopez.

Plans were made for an inland Empire week-end convention at Boise in October, similar to one planned for the coastal cities, girls from Washington, Oregon, Utah and Idaho will be present.

Committee Meets
Members of the public affairs committee of the club met last evening at Wray's cafe for a dinner, preceding the meeting.

At the club session, plans were made for the next meeting Aug. 7, the girls to meet at 8:30 o'clock at the club rooms.

At the dinner meeting, all interested in public affairs were invited to attend. Miss Lopez led the discussion and members told which phases of public affairs most interested them.

PERMUTIT
IS A DEFINITE AID FOR Shaving

Many men think that their beards are tough. But the real trouble is not with the beards, but with the water. Beards must be properly softened. But they really can't be softened in hard water because of soap curd. Each hair gets coated with this curd. It is water proof. That is why the razor "pulls" ... why blades dull quickly. The remedy is simply to shave with soft water. Men who have a Permutit Water Softener in their homes know this. For them shaving is no longer a torture. Soft water rather takes the fight out of the stiffest beard. It makes skin more youthful. Soft water is quick, clean, easy, comfortable, and economical.

There's a Good Reason You're Constipated!

When there's something wrong with you, the first rule is: get at the cause. If you are constipated, don't fiddle around with makeshift remedies. Find out what's giving you the trouble!

Chances are it's simple if you eat only what most people do: meat, bread, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed and is bodyful (contains a "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement).

If that fits you, your ticket is a crisp crunchy breakfast cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran. It contains the "bulk" you need plus the great intestinal tonic, vitamin B.

Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and just watch the old world grow brighter! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek

TAKE THE COOK OUT OF COOKING These Warm July Days

★ With all its automatic controls, electric cooking reduces time spent in the kitchen to a minimum. Clock controls to turn the oven "on" and "off" at the proper time. Temperature controls that keep food from either burning or being under-done.

But even IN the kitchen, the electric range is a blessing in hot weather. Complete insulation keeps the heat ON the food—OFF the housewife.

And with low "Step Down" electric rates (they're among the nation's lowest) electric cooking costs surprisingly little. The additional electricity you use for cooking brings you down to a low "step" in the rate. It's easy to have. Down payments are modest, monthly terms convenient to meet. Ask about them.

It's July 18: Time for Annual Forecast of Parker Forehand grass and the ball bounces high and takes its time. This gives Parker ample opportunity to execute his mechanical forehand. If the Davis cup matches were on clay Parker would be our No. 1 player, because since Blitzy Grant passed his peak Frankie has been almost unbeatable on this type of surface. But on grass, where the ball skids swiftly and does not rise very high, his forehand has been more than inadequate.

Parker and his coach are entirely confident that this year's forehand will stand up on anything, be it grass, broken bottles, or linoleum. They believe that in the four big summer grass tournaments — Seabright, Newport, Southampton and Rye — he will earn himself a place on the cup team. These are the four tournaments that will decide the lineup of the American trophy defense. All the sharpshooters will be there, including Bobby Klags, Elwood Cooke, Don McNeill, Wayne Sabin, Gene Mako, Frank Shields and Sidney Wood. If Parker, with Beasley masterminding from the sidelines, can win his share of these tournaments, there will be nothing to do but tap him for the cup team.

The binoculars of the racing world will focus for a brief time on Hollywood park July 22.

Anyone having trouble spotting the track is advised to look for the cemetery in the north, a forest of oil wells to the east, a Japanese truck garden to the south, and the east end of the hamlet of Inglewood on the west.

One of the greatest college ball coaches in the game today is a former Twin Falls high school star, who over the years has made his name as a nationally famous coach at the University of California, today was en route to Los Angeles to make a special stand visit in this area visiting friends and relatives.

Fane, accompanied by his wife, former queen, two boys, and took a side trip to Sun Valley, took a bus on his way to Berkeley, Calif., where he will spend a week with his daughter and son-in-law.

While coaching at Twin Falls, Fane put out the greatest basketball machines in the history of the state, defeating other state champions by such lopsided scores as 100 to 4 and 65 to 0, was in the early 1920's.

In the past several years Fane has coached several of the great majors, including Team Canada of the Athletics and the Bruins of the Bruins.

One of our Twin Falls farmers wants to find out for himself which tire is the best. The Pennsylvania that Pratt sells or a tire from a mail order house. So he bought two new tires the same day. A Pennsylvania and a mail order tire.

Both fires are boosted almost to the sky by the sellers of both fires but time will tell, and of course Pratt is satisfied that the Pennsylvania fires will win out in the long run. Of course a lot of people already know what mail order fires are and they feel they would like to buy something better. A lot of people have stuck with mail order houses for years just on account of the guarantee they put on fires. But

Now since the Pratt Sales Co. are putting on just as strong a guarantee it relieves the tire purchaser of any anxiety about the tire adjustment as we do our own adjustment right here and the fact of it is we get so few Pennsylvania tire bark that it makes it a pleasure to sell Pennsylvania tires. That's why hundreds and hundreds of them are turning to Pennsylvania. We put on tires so fast down here that

McNUTT WILL CONTINUE CAMPAIGN FOR PRESIDENCY

RUMORS REPORT HOOSIER HOLDS BACKING OF FDR

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—The campaign to give Paul V. McNutt the 1940 Democratic presidential nomination will continue undisturbed by his appointment to high New Deal office. It may be said today on the best of authority that McNutt's friends, The tall Hoosier will have no public part in the active and aggressive McNutt-for-President movement.
But eastern campaign headquarters are to be established for the man who already is being described as a "captive candidate."
An eastern operating base probably is several months off. But the fact that it is to be set up coincides with all other evidence that McNutt has a green light for the campaign being conducted for him. McNutt is under no restraint whatever in his presidential campaign, the United Press was informed, except with respect to his own actions. In his new capacity as federal security administrator, McNutt is off now on a brief speaking trip.

Washington Amazed
Political Washington still is not agreed on the significance of McNutt's New Deal appointment. It is learned with amazement that Mr. Roosevelt saw no political significance in the Indiana stateman's new job.
The term "captive candidate" as applied to McNutt is designed to suggest that he is being taken up in or over and that, henceforth, McNutt's political future depends entirely on the New Deal. That may be true but some people believe it does not greatly alter the situation prevailing before the appointment. McNutt, they say, easily may be in a stronger position now than previously.

Supports Third Term
He has committed himself to support Mr. Roosevelt if the President seeks another term. All the evidence except Mr. Roosevelt's statement that there was no politics in suggesting that the White House does not look unkindly on McNutt's presidential campaign. Some persons feel that the President is giving McNutt a run and might get behind his candidacy if he made a good preliminary showing and evinced some New Dealish sympathies. If McNutt has come closer to obtaining New Deal support for 1940, he has gained something worth while.
But among hard-headed and conservative and southern statesmen in congress are those who insist that Mr. Roosevelt, himself, will end McNutt's political career by seeking a third term nomination and that he will get it. Whether he would be elected is a subject on which there is sure disagreement.

RABBIT NORTH SIDE JAIL

Weather conditions may call for rabbit drives, which occur frequently in this district, with heavy casualties, but sometimes the weather creates a balance.
It rained heavily at Geater, near Detroit, the other night, and a rain there is one of the best. When the shower started Signal Supervisor Truax and Pisk Collins sought shelter in a coal shed.
The door had hardly moved when a wet and bedraggled jackrabbit nosed in with the men. It was not modest, aside from being hunched at a balance.

SON INDICTED IN KILLING MOTHER

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., July 18 (AP)—The man who revealed after 14 years that he was the cause of his mother's death by fire was in Burlington county jail today without bail—indicted for murder yesterday by the county grand jury.
He is Charles W. Quigley, 30, arrested by an Idaho state policeman, Dr. Barlow, at Malta, Idaho, and lodged in Burlington, Ind. jail before he was indicted. But he was released, he told the Idaho officers, to ease his conscience.

The grand jury indicted him for substituting gasoline for kerosene causing an explosion and fire which burned a Monroeville, N. J., tenant farmhouse and killed Mrs. Dorothy Quigley. Her death had been termed accidental for 14 years until the son confessed.

INSURANCE VOTED DESPITE PROTEST

Declaring members of the city council, because of action in connection with the awarding of the city fire insurance contract, "cannot be held responsible for the protest" and therefore the "reins of government should be taken out of their hands." 14 local citizens today and protested awarding of the contract to J. E. White, Twin Falls.
The protest was not directed at Mr. White personally nor at the company he represents, but rather at the members of the council who "ignored said lowest bid and in violation of both moral and business ethics, purchased said insurance service at a price of $4674.76 higher than the lowest submitted."
Two citizens.
The protest was given to the council last night during regular session in the form of two petitions, one signed by six residents and the other by eight.
The petitions, which were identical, protested the awarding of the insurance contract on the following grounds:
1-To pay said premium would be a waste of the people's money.
2-To pay said premium is unreasonable, unjust, unnecessary, unfair and unwarranted.
3-That the same insurance can be purchased for $464.76 less.

The council has taken an insurance policy under the circumstances in this case would be purposely squandering the people's money and to squander the public funds would be malfeasance in office.
The petitions continued by adding:
"Officials who willfully and purposely waste the people's money cannot be trusted with public affairs and the reins of government should be taken out of their hands."
Council Awards Contract
After the petitions were read to them by City Clerk W. H. Eldridge, members of the council passed the motion allowing the bills and thus the insurance contract was awarded to Mr. White and the company he represents. Total premium was $1148.87.
In awarding the contract members of the city's governing body pointed out the "small number" of protests received of their action. The 14 signers of the petitions follow:
A. S. Henson, George Duhler, W. W. Parish, V. R. Lawson, P. B. Johnston, A. T. Rent, C. E. Davidson, W. G. Goff, George Chisler, A. Chuparas, R. E. Webster, J. W. Bishop, K. E. Medford and L. T. Moore.
Council members last night also approved the annual audit report of H. C. Edmunds and company which showed city records to be in very good shape.

Postmen Busy

Postmen of Miami, Fla., recently were laden with checks totaling $2,000,000 for 100,000 customers of the Florida Light and Power company. The firm was making refunds after losing a long court battle over rates.
His books "were in excellent condition." Likewise Charles McElwain, city treasurer, properly maintained his records, and Municipal Judge J. O. Pumphrey's records were "neatly kept and complete."
The members of the city council, according to the audit report, are keeping expenditures within the amount appropriated for all purposes.
City Clerk Eldridge read a letter from Mayor John M. Wallace of Salt Lake City in which he thanked city officials here for the part they played in making the recent visit of 100 Salt Lake businessmen successful. The letter was addressed to Mayor Joe-K Koehler but because he is visiting on the Pacific coast it was read by the clerk.

Mediation Reported On Danzig Question

BERLIN, July 18 (AP)—Persistent reports were circulated today that some form of "mediation" was in progress between Germany and Great Britain on the Danzig problem.
No direct negotiations between Germany and Poland were believed to have been established, nor was there any reliable indication of an active "mediator." Some observers believed it might be Premier Benito Mussolini, and others that the Pope had taken the initiative.

Traffic Lane Held By State Officers

SHOSHONE, July 18 (Special)—Squads in four state traffic cars, operated a traffic lane on south Main street Wednesday. Most of the district men in the state service were under the direction of Lieut. Carlson of the department of law enforcement, and were assisted by other enforcement and local officers.

Checking was mostly concerned with lights and chauffeurs' licenses and few violations were reported.
As this community is located directly on two lanes leading in and out of highway 93 and state highway 24, officers of the department state that it would be necessary for a more complete check to station all exits, as it was evident to all observers that many cars slipped by the busy traffic men.
