

ENGLISH MOBILIZE RESERVES TO BATTLE BOMBINGS

SCOTLAND YARD STARTS WORK ON SPECIAL SCHEME

LONDON, July 27 (U.P.)—Police reserves were mobilized all over England today to operate Scotland Yard's secret "Scheme D" after four bombings ascribed to Irish terrorists.

Special watch was made at ports on the west coast for Irish Republican army, who recently returned from the United States. It is believed they might seek to come to England to lead terrorist operations.

One man was killed and 40 persons were injured by bombs at King's Cross and Victoria railroad stations in London yesterday.

At Liverpool an explosion damaged the Mt. Pleasant post office and a wooden bridge was blown up at Maghull, in the Liverpool suburbs.

Public Angered

For the first time the British public began to show anger against the terrorists, who are ostensibly seeking to force Britain to evacuate all British soldiers and officials from northern Ireland.

Crowds at Victoria station shouted denunciations when a man was heard to say the terrorists were justified, and it was necessary for police to escort him from the scene.

In Hyde Park, a crowd called his attention to a soap box orator who mentioned the I. R. A.

There was an exhibition of anger even in the house of commons.

Market Weak For Cattle Sale Here

With more than 350 head of cattle sold, the local market proved to be slightly weaker yesterday than during the previous week although quality was good, according to M. M. Daniels, manager of the Twin Falls Livestock Commission company.

Price ranges at the sale Wednesday follow:

Steers, $6.35 to $7.50; heifers, $6.35 to $8.70; cows, $4.65 to $5.70; calves, $6 to $7.85; cutter cows, $3.75 to $4.65; canner cows, $2.70 to $3.45; bulls, $2 to $4.

Members were considering the new bill to give the police special powers to deal with terrorists when news was received of the Victoria station bombing.

Bill Passed

"Stop the talk and pass the bill!" members shouted. Labor party men withdrew their opposition—they had argued it might be widened to restrict other people than terrorists—and within five minutes, without a record vote, the bill was finally passed and sent to the house of lords.

It is feared the lords would pass it early next week and send it to King George for his assent.

STATE MEN SCAN VALUATION SLASH

Inquiry into legality of water right transfers which resulted in slicing the assessed valuation of the Hollister independent school district is underway by the state department of finance, according to school board members from the Salmon tract community.

The valuation reduction was from $200,000 down to approximately $100,000. The state finance division sent two of its agents to Hollister yesterday.

Because the reduced valuation, even with high taxes, is not raising enough funds to pay off a $30,000 loan to the Hollister district by the state endowment fund, a plan is now being pondered to sell to the rural high district at Hollister the school building constructed with the loan funds. The building is rented at present to the rural high. If the sale is made, a bond issue at low interest would be sought to pay off the remainder of the debt.

Six districts, including the Hollister independent, comprise the rural high district.

The levy for the independent area, because of valuation decline, was at the high level of 30 mills last year.

THE JAPANESE PONDER RETALIATORY ACTION AGAINST U. S.

DENUNCIATION OF TREATY SURPRISE TO JAPAN PEOPLE

TOKYO, July 27 (AP)—Foreign office officials were understood to be discussing the possibility of retaliatory action against the United States today as Japan's reply to the denunciation of the Japanese-American commercial treaty.

Taking the view that the denunciation by the United States was of political, not economic nature, officials were said to be studying the possibilities of retaliatory action against American interest in China.

The United States action came as a surprise and a shock to officials and the public alike.

Worry Over Far East

It was understood officials were more concerned with the American government's firmness regarding the entire situation in the far east than over the mere abrogation of commercial treaty which, they said, covered but a fraction of Japan's trade with the United States. Planners said the denunciation of the treaty was a surprise, since they had been led to believe everything was going smoothly.

Japanese people as a whole are unaware of the long sequence of American protests to Japan regarding conditions in China. Hence they were even more surprised and puzzled than were officials, since they had been led to believe everything was going smoothly.

When the Vandenberg resolution was introduced in the American senate, favoring denunciation of the treaty, officials assured the people it was merely a domestic political move and it was unlikely the United States would abrogate the treaty.

Must Show Consistency

Now it was forecast that officials in order to show consistency, would assure the people that Japan had been fully protecting American interests in China and therefore the American action was an unwelcome and a surprise.

Evening newspapers spread the treaty abrogation across their first pages today—accompanying it with comments belittling its effect.

During their recent anti-British campaign in China, the Japanese had sought at all times to be particularly conciliatory to the United States, hoping to isolate Great Britain.

Failure of their plan, and evidence that the United States was determined to take a strong stand in defense of its rights, came as a surprise.

News of the treaty abrogation arrived as a heavy military spokesman announced that Japan was organizing a new fleet "intended to make secure Japan's command of the western Pacific."

MILLIONS LOST IN EAST DROUGHT

NEW YORK, July 27 (AP)—Unless three to four inches of rain falls in the eastern drought area in the next week, farmers will lose tens of millions of dollars, agricultural experts estimated today.

The loss already was in the millions after 27 days of the record-breaking drought and weather officials saw no general relief in sight for the six New England states, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

From Maine to Atlantic City, drought had baked fields dry, reduced forests to tinder, dried up streams, lowered reservoirs, and millions of dollars' worth of crops and livestock were threatened with water shortages, though the larger cities, including New York City, had supplies expected to last 90 to 150 days.

Planners, police, and farmers sought forests and fields for fire, which already had taken a heavy toll.

Agricultural authorities estimated the New York state potato crop had been 60 per cent lost and that the New Jersey crop was 40 per cent lost.

BET MEN GIVEN $221,673 TOTAL

Nearly a quarter of a million dollars came into Twin Falls county to sugar beet growers as government payments on their 1938 beet crop. It was received this afternoon by Walter Reese, Caudwell, head of the county agricultural conservation committee.

The growers received payments totaling $221,673.68 for their 1938 crop. Reese announced after completion of county-wide figures.

Idaho Got 2 Millions

The entire Idaho total as of June 30, close of the fiscal year, was $2,085,218.24 to beet men according to word received by Reese from Clifford J. Vaughn, chairman of the state AAA committee.

These payments were made on 1,122,221 tons of beets grown for extraction of sugar. Government payments made up 29.4 per cent of the total payment farmers of the state have received to date from their 1938 sugar beet crops.

Child labor provisions and fair and reasonable wage rates have been met by all producers. The sugar beet growers carried out a total of 125,959 acres of soil conservation practices, Vaughn said.

Soil Practices

These soil conserving practices constitute protective covering of adopted perennial or biennial legumes, adapted perennial grasses, or mixtures of such legumes and grasses, maintained until after July 1, 1938; adapted perennial or biennial legumes, adapted perennial grasses, or mixtures of such legumes and grasses seeded in 1938; green manure crops seeded and maintained until after Dec. 31, 1938; a good growth and a good stand of a green manure crop plowed under in 1938; application of specified amount of animal manure; and application of commercial fertilizer of the specified value.

With only two of 6,044 sugar beet growers in the state not complying, the participation in the program is 99.67 per cent. Practically all have been completed up to July 1.

LIQUIDATION FOR WHEAT CHANGES

Arrangements to liquidate wheat loans under the 1932 federal program will offer growers two alternatives this year. It was announced today by Walter Reese, Caudwell, chairman of the county agricultural conservation association.

There will be:

1. Pay off the loan on the basis on which it was made, amount of loan plus interest and charges.
2. Deliver the loan wheat to the Commodity Credit corporation.

"When the time for liquidation of the loan comes," said Chairman Reese, "all 1938 loan wheat will be delivered to the Commodity Credit corporation, unless the producer wishes to pay off the note in full and assume the charges."

The program for liquidation last year, he explained, was intended to benefit growers of high grade wheat. But for the current year, the protein premiums have been added to the loan value.

Brush Fire at Mountain Home Under Control

MOUNTAIN HOME, July 27 (AP)—Only a few smoldering embers were left today of a fire that has been burning intermittently on the prairie north of here. Grazing division officials said they believed the blaze was definitely out this time, but recalled that every afternoon since Sunday, when the fire started, winds have started the flames on new paths of destruction.

Seven other grass fires were reported in southwestern Idaho yesterday evening and more than 1,000 CCC enrollees and farmers battled most of the night to extinguish them. District Grader James O. Beck said his office was investigating reports at least one of the fires was of incendiary origin.

Conditions in both the Payette and Boise national forests were reported extremely hazardous by forestry officials, who said their moisture meters which measure fire danger had readings of minus 100, near the all-time record low.

After both men pleaded guilty, Justice of Peace R. W. Adams gave them each sentences of 30 days for stealing the car and 90 days for setting the fires, which burned over a wide area near Eagle before they were controlled.

STOCKS FIRM AS TRADE DECLINES

TRADE DECLINES

NEW YORK, July 27 (UPI)—A firm rebound developed on the stock market late Tuesday after early irregularity. Volume fell off from the recent pace.

Now closing times a majority of issues registered advance trading from fractions to more than a point.

Japanese bonds dropped and silk broke sharply on Secretary Hall's denunciation of the United States commercial treaty with Japan.

Grains were strong again with gains ranging in more than a cent in wheat, corn and rye. Copper held steady.

Selective buying went ahead in stocks from the outset. As a result several issues were lifted to new highs for the year. The day's action was the day the general list met better demand and the leaders made good recoveries.

Several of the utilities were carried to new tops, including Detroit Edison at 124 1/2, up 3, and Commonwealth Edison 31, up 1/2, and the utility average hovered around the highest level of the year.

How Jones closing stock averages: Industrial 144.51, up 0.69; rail 30.08, up 0.13; utility 26.80, unchanged.

Stock sale approximated 820,000 shares compared with 800,000 shares yesterday. Cash stock sale were 150,000 shares against 135,000 Wednesday.

Troop 11: Richard Lowder, merit badges in animal industry and farm

Troop 20: Charles McDonald, merit badges in camping, signaling and surveying; Theodore McDonald,

Troop 21: Keith Fillmore in book-binding, firemanship and personal health; Jerry Clayton in firemanship and personal health; Don Worthington in swimming; Harvey Thornton, advanced to second class.

Examiners were L. L. Lowder, Dr. Weeks, W. C. Roberts, Clair White-

County's Got $37,000--So

What to Do?

Healthy Checks

One check, representing the county's part in the first such payment—held up since last April pending court test—totals $16,724.16. The other check, forming the second payment, aggregates $20,005.12.

The "rub" came in the fact that the state itself doesn't seem sure just how the auditor in each county should disburse the funds to the highway districts destined to receive them. Atty.-Gen. J. W. Taylor issued a ruling; the state board of examiners, evidently not too sure what the ruling meant, took action on at least one claim in a manner further confusing Idaho's 44 counties.

- So Twin Falls county will mark time until the confusion is cleared up.

None to County

Since the county itself has no road or bridge bonds, the entire $37,000 will go to the highway districts. Whether every claim from each highway district must go before the state board of examiners, however, was uncertain today.

Ada county, with $23,708 and $29,033, led the state in amount of gas tax money granted it under the 1930 law which recompenses counties and highway districts for revenues lost under the flat $3 auto license.

Canada, $4,972 and $6,216; Jerome, $3,820 and $4,786; Minidoka, $3,760 and $4,712; Gooding, $3,672 and $4,590; Blaine, $2,416 and $3,020; Lincoln, $1,504 and $1,881; Camas, $590 and $737.

Japan Gold Imports

WASHINGTON, July 27 (U)—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., said today he will study the future status of imports of Japanese gold, silver and merchandise in the light of allegations of the U. S.-Japanese 1911 commercial treaty.

Morgenthau said he had not given any previous thought to the question of heavy Japanese gold shipments to the U. S.

ments to the United States but inasmuch as the question has now been raised as to the status of Japanese imports to the United States, he said he would study the matter.
