Pair Weds in Garden Setting at Ball Park

In a garden setting of surpassing loveliness, Miss Lilah Lingg, Pullman, Wash., and Ernest L. Bishop, Klamath Falls, Ore., second baseman on the Cowboys' baseball team, Twin Falls member of the Pioneer League, pledged nuptial vows last evening at 8 o'clock at the home plate, while 3,200 southern Idaho residents remained reverently silent.

The wedding at Jaycee park immediately preceded the Twin Falls-Salt Lake baseball game, and was carried out along the lines of traditional baseball marriages.

Ball Teams Participate

The bridal party entered the transformed baseball diamond at first base through a replica of a boxwood lane. Members of the Cowboys and Bees teams, wearing their baseball uniforms, formed an archway of crossed bats beneath which the attendants and the bride, on the arm of her father, James A. Lingg, Pullman, progressed to the wishing well at the pitcher's box, covered with lace vines.

There the bride paused briefly to greet Larry Daly, young Cowboy mascot, who remained at the well during the wedding ceremony, and proceeded under a summer loggia of arched in mission form which extended to home plate. The loggia was canopied with silver lace vines. She was met by the officiating minister, Rev. Mark C. Cronenberg, pastor of the Christian church; the bridegroom, and the best man, Clyde "Corky" Carlson, first baseman on the Cowboy team. The bridegroom and the best man were their baseball uniforms on.

Marriage vows were exchanged beneath a mission archway, the central arch bearing the insignia of the Cowboys and Bees teams, the two on either side, the insignia of Alpha Delta Pi sorority, with which the bride is affiliated. They became acquainted while students at Washington State college, Pullman.

Carrying out the Delta Upsilon custom, two giant urns on either side of the principal archway, one of gold and one blue, filled with yellow chrysanthemums and greenery. The chrysanthemums were the gift of the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company.

Heading the bridal procession were little Miss Catherine Beymer, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Beymer, as the flower girl, and Mrs. J. E. Spracher, as the ring bearer. The bride's bridesmaids were Mrs. Gwynn Parrott, Seattle, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Vivian Anderson, Twin Falls, who was bridesmaid.

Following the ceremony, W. W. Thompson, accompanied at the piano by Jay Spracher, sang "Because." A. E. Francis, well-known local violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Francis, played the traditional "Lohengrin" wedding march by Wagner, and the Mendelssohn wedding march, and also played softly during the reading of the ceremony.

Seated in Garden
The bride's mother, Mrs. Lingg; the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Bishop; the bride's brother-in-law, Gwynn Parrott, Seattle; Mrs. Albert Truett, Missoula, Mont., an aunt of the bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Zirkle, Klamath Falls, out-of-town guests, and other friends of the couple, were seated about the garden in gaily hued garden chairs and swings.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop left the baseball diamond under the arched bats of the two ball teams.

The audience remained standing until the bridal party left the field. High Place, business manager of the Cowboys, was among the first to kiss the bride.

The bride wore a white silk two-piece sports frock, returned with a green tulle scarf at the neck, and fastened down the front of the fitted jacket with alternating green and white bows. She carried an old-fashioned round bouquet of Jonquilla hills and tulipian rosebuds and admiring ferns.

Attendants
Mrs. Parrott wore a sports dress of yellow crepe with a matching close-fitting tunic, and Mrs. Anderson was tucked in a light blue two-piece powder blue suit with a light-colored trimmed belt, and an identical shawl. Their co-wives were tall and slender, and their hair was styled in a soft, wavy, and was blue hair ribbons. The ring bearer wore a dark double-breasted suit and carried a gold wicker basket. He carried the ring on a gold satin pillow, and the flower girl scattered petals from a gold wicker basket.

Small drifts of summer flowers, sinulas, marigolds and anemones, bird balls and sun dials; a lily pool and rock garden, beside which was a willow tree; quantities of garden furniture, urns and ornaments, combined to lend realism to the garden setting.

These Assisted
Arrangements for the wedding were in charge of Wilton Peck, who designed the setting.

Ably assisting Mr. Peck in arranging the garden were Ed Elbers and J. O. Clark, display men of the Idaho Department store; Mrs. B. N. Holt, Mrs. Roy Eaton, Mrs. Jack Carson and Ralph Benson.

Garden furniture was loaned by Harry McGraw and Steven's Furniture store, and the piano by the Claude Brown Music company.

Garden ornaments were contributed by the following:

DR. C. R. FOX
DENTIST
Assistant of Office to
224 Fourth Avenue North

THEATRICAL UNION ROW BECOMES THREE-RING CIRCUS

ACTORS BLUNTLY REJECT PLAN BY LABOR LEADERS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 17 (UP)—The three-ring theatrical union row: Actors vs. actors vs. stagehands, was reopened today with new bitterness before the executive council of the American Federation of Labor.

The council's recommended plan of settlement had been rejected, and union leaders were calling each other names. The possibility of an actors' strike cropped up again, as well as a threatened mass walk-out from the A. F. of L. by the whole body of movie, radio, vaudeville, legitimate and concert stage, opera, circus and night club performers.

The stagehands' union, which had been considered eliminated from the fight yesterday along with the actors' threat, was back in it again. The situation was now where it started last week when plane and train loads of actors and movie stars came here to "remotivate," except that it seemed worse today because the A. F. of L. council's studied first effort to achieve peace had failed.

Peace Plan

The peace plan was this: That the Associated Actors and Artists of America, parent of the 11 actors' unions, relinquish one of them, the American Federation of Actors (right club—vaudeville—circus—branch) that it had expelled, along with its officers including Executive Secretary Ralph Whithead; and that the international alliance of theatrical stage employees, the stagehands' union, revoke the charter it had granted to the expelled AAAA unit.

Also, the plan provided that the AAAA would let the present AFA officers keep their jobs for 90 days, pending an election, during which time a 15-man committee composed of five AAAA members, two AFA members and three AFL representatives, would rule the AFA.

Program Rejected

Yesterday, the AAAA agreed to accept some of these recommendations but not all of them. Whithead, the AAAA decided, must go from his job. Furthermore, the AAAA demanded a majority of the suggested 15-man committee and it would not sanction any election in which Whithead could run for office again. One of the charges on which the AAAA expelled the AFA was that some union charity funds were to buy Whithead a new automobile. But William Green, AFL president, messaged the AAAA that it could not accept the council's recommendations "in part." It had to approve the whole plan, he said, "or we will be considered to further consider the controversy and take action." So the AAAA rejected the whole plan.

ITALIAN PAPERS LASH AT POLAND

ROME, Aug. 17 (UP)—Italian newspapers practically unanimously attacked the Polish attitude on the Danzig question today and some of them described Danzig as the most urgent problem of Europe at present.

Asserting that the Danzig problem had virtually reached the breaking point unless Poland was disposed to face "reality" and come to terms direct with Germany, editorialists took a gloomy view of the outlook.

RAIS BOTT FOR SLAP AT THANKSGIVING SHIRT

To the Editor:

I notice in your column the governor of the state's school of criticism against President Roosevelt's plan to change the date of Thanksgiving day this year from Nov. 30 up to Nov. 23. I also notice that the great opposition comes from political opponents to the administration, and from coaches of football teams, also that our own governor has taken a slap at the proposal by stating that football and business are the two things that he respects the sentiments and customs created nearly three quarters of a century ago.

I might say here that if he thinks all customs should be kept, he might trade off that automobile of his for a good old horse and buggy.

As far as football and business are concerned, he should turn back the pages of history to the football season of 1918 and see what the largest in history and business aided to the lowest level since the upturn in 1923. I wish to advise our governor of the fact that our state produces thousands of cars of foodstuffs, such as wheat, sugar, and meats of all kinds by farmers and growers of Idaho.

In the beginning of this custom, our forefathers thanked their thanks with great feasts and naturally to supply a feast you must have the products of our farmers. By setting up this date a week early this will increase the holiday season of festivities before Christmas practically 25 per cent, thereby saving our fall markets about a week early. We in the fruit business know what it means to furnish the great numbers of our people with their Thanksgiving supplies and to allow this later date to start our deal will be shortening our selling season just that much. So for the benefit of our farmers and growers of Idaho, our governor should change his views, even if it does have to agree with the President of a different political party.

TAKES DEAN TO TASK FOR WPA STATEMENTS

To the Editor:

I have reference to an article which appeared in the Evening Times on Aug. 15, in which Lionel A. Dean, city councilman, is quoted as making certain statements referring to the WPA.

The statements in question were, "Federal rules will not allow the addition of extra men to the local payroll" in connection with requested resumption of the project at Shoshone falls.

I am wondering at the present where Mr. Dean received his authority to make such a statement as we are all aware our WPA rolls have been greatly reduced voluntarily through workers seeking private employment and there is no limitation placed on any project until such a time as the applications exceed the quota.

Mr. Dean is further quoted as saying "we couldn't put another man to work now, under the present WPA program, despite the appropriation for the Shoshone falls project. As much as we like to see the project completed the WPA will not allow us to put another man to work at the present time."

The local department of public assistance office has received no orders restricting certification. We also understand that men leaving for private employment will be re-assigned in a reasonable length of time. Consequently we are no reason why the Shoshone falls project, or any project, should be curtailed or suspended for the reasons stated by Mr. Dean.

or any project, should be curtailed

We feel that at this time Mr. Dean, through the columns of this paper, should clarify his remarks regarding the WPA situation and, if he so chooses, blame the authority for the statements he made.

DWORSNIAK BLAMES EVERY MISHAP ON FDR

Editor, Evening Times:

It seems his honor, Henry C. Dworsniak, is trying to blame President Roosevelt for every American catastrophe since the tea party of 1776.

Of course we ordinary citizens know there always has to be so much mud slung in politics on both sides before the simplest speech can be made.

Calling President Roosevelt a dictator and saying he was concentrating a war so he could enforce such powers is almost laughable. I'm sure if the President had wished such a thing to happen it could easily have been promoted during the sinking of our vessel in China. Nevertheless, it took more than a one-track mind to get us out of that, or a so-called "sane thinker."

If Mr. Dworsniak is worried about dictators he should concentrate on persons such as Harry Bridges or John L. Lewis who are a real menace to our country.

Incidentally, we who voted in the last election were led to believe if the Republicans were restored to the seats of honor in Idaho our taxes would be "slashed" (if I think the word was) but according to a report from the auditor's office not so long ago, taxes have increased approximately one-third.

Now, Mr. Dworsniak, instead of worrying about who is to be the next Democratic nominee for President, why not devote some of that sinner thinking to the state of Idaho?

Another example of the sinner thinking Republican organization is the game commission which is one big laugh.

If these, Mr. Dworsniak, are what you refer to as sane thinking, give me that beloved innard, Mr. Roosevelt, even in a third term.

BUHL RECREATION CLASSES REOPEN

BUHL, Aug. 17 (Special)—Miss Blanche Parent, Buhl recreation director, received a telegram Monday from the state recreation director, Willis Smith, at Boise giving approval of the recreation project and authorizing reopening of the Buhl project after it had been closed a week.

Buhl recreation helpers reported at their stations for work with their classes at 1 p. m.

Pance-Fleming announced plaster paria class work was to open today at Buhl city hall. The class has been doing work with different flower and dog plaques. Class is open to the public Tuesday and Thursday from 3 till 5 p. m.

Charles Jodlin is conducting classes in woodcraft at the city hall each afternoon between 2 and 5 p. m. Several of the class have made tables, radio tables and small household pieces of furniture. Mr. Jodlin recently organized a model airplane club and invites anyone interested to investigate.

Under direction of Mrs. Johansen, smaller children are receiving training in pottery work, paper mache and crepe paper work. Pieces of pottery have been molded, burned and painted with kalsomine. Mrs. Johansen conducts work with younger children every day, between 9 a. m. to noon, 2 to 5 p. m., and 6:30 to 8 p. m. at the F. H. Buhl school grounds.

Miss Parent, director of the girls' ball games, has announced a special treasure hunt to be held Friday at the F. H. Buhl school grounds. Prizes for winners will be awarded. Softball practice is being held each evening, directed by Miss Parent and Glen Palmer. All recreation ball games previously scheduled with other districts will be rescheduled this week and announced at the first convenient date, according to Miss Parent.

General tournament of all self-conducted games will be played next week at the F. H. grounds. First tournaments will be horseshoe, ballmitten, volleyball, girls' softball, ring toss, bean bag, suction dart, archery and both boys and girls' basketball.

Home Comfort for Lawn Mower

Maybe it's laziness, but Mike Sheddson, Oregon university groundskeeper, claims that it's only efficient to cut grass with his "lawn richshaw," which travels at six miles an hour, rather than to walk along at half that speed. Mike designed the contraption himself so that he could cover the acres of athletic fields in his charge.

MOON "CLOSE-UP" LECTURE'S TOPIC

A close view of the scenery of the moon, as photographed by the 100-inch telescope of the Mount Wilson observatory will be subject of a lecture at the city park Friday at 8 p. m., according to arrangements announced by Mrs. Mary A. Brannin, supervisor of the local Camp Fire Girls unit.

Speaker will be Harry D. Johnson, astronomer of the Brown foundation. While the lecture has been planned especially for the Camp Fire Girls, the public is invited to attend.

Views of the lava plains, craters and mountains of the moon will be shown on a large out-door screen, much as they appear to the eye-piece of the telescope. A public address system will carry the words of the speaker.

Mr. Johnson lectures for schools and colleges in all parts of the country. He is guest astronomer lecturer for the Harris school, Miami, Fla.

All-Star Game Sends Elmer Layden To Worrying Early in Season

By HARRY GRAYSON (NEA Service Sports Editor)

EVANSTON.—Elmer Layden, the world champion worrier, has started earlier than usual.

On the day of a suicidal Notre Dame schedule — Purdue, Georgia Tech, Southern Methodist, Navy in Cleveland, Carnegie Tech in Pittsburgh, Army, Iowa at Iowa City, Northwestern and Southern California on successive Saturdays, the people made South's famous Thin Man their choice to coach the College All-Stars against the champion New York professional Giants at Soldier's field, Chicago, Aug. 30.

Layden looks over the all-star squad at Dwyer stadium here... 28 of the 49 captains of their respective varsities. A star-studded outfit including such big rah rah names as Davey O'Brien, Marshall Goldberg, Nicke Weiss, Bob MacLeod and Bill Oczanski.

But it is the lineemen who catch Layden's eye, especially the tackle, the 240-pound, 5' 11" Hale of Texas Christian and the six-foot four-inch Don Siegel of Michigan.

"I could use those two boys at school this fall," remarks the Thin Man, whose biggest headache is the loss of six of his seven first-string linemen — Bud Brown, Art Reider, Capt. Jim McGooldrick, Ed Longhi, Angie Bocu and Paul Kell.

Only captain-elect Johnny Kelly of 1938's first-flight Irish forward remains.

"But we still have Johnny O'Brien to substitute for Johnny Kelly," beams Layden. "Who asked what became of the Irish of Notre Dame?"

There are the reserves of last autumn, of course, Bud Kerr, George Raxas and Johnny O'Brien, ends; Tom Gallagher and Fred Harvey, tackles; Joe DeFranco, Johnny Gubrich, Pete Kelly and Chuck Ruffe, guards; and Johnny McIntyre and Al Moody, centers; and several sophomores are coming along, but a team can't lose six of seven linemen who proved best under fire and be quite the same.

New names to be watched at Notre Dame are Petruch, Paul Lilla, Jim Lilla, Johnny Madala, Hercules Berrelli, Ed Sullivan, Bob Hargrave, Steve Bagatta, Bernie Crummins, Jim Ford and Cliff Boney.

Petruch is an end from Minneapolis. Lilla is a tackle from North Delle, N. Y. Brute a tackle from Ohio, Madala a fullback from Louisville, Berrelli a guard from Hammond, Ind. Sullivan a guard from New York, and Boney a back from Evanston, Ill. Bagatta a back from North Bend, Crummins a back from Louisville, Ford a center, and Boney a tackle.

New law in Wright Layden will have use for these sophomores.

Notre Dame has only 20 days to get ready for Purdue and its 25 letter carriers. "After following engagements with Georgia Tech, Southern Methodist and Navy, comes a corking Carnegie Tech array that was great as a young team year ago. Army always is tough for Notre Dame and Iowa has Nite Kinnick and an ambitious new coach, Dr. Eddie Anderson.

Dr. Anderson is only one of a 115 band of sophomores augmenting a well-taught Northwestern aggregation.

Southern California comes to Notre Bend with Ambing Ambly "Pittie" Al. It is one place and (Candy Layden) and all the rest. Under Layden weighs 160 at the start of a season. He is not fat, but he is likely to establish a new low by Nov. 20.

Long Rest Set For Stock at Fair's Rodeo

Rodeo stock for the Twin Falls county fair's annual buckaroo classic will be well fed and rarin' to go by September, Tom Parks, fair manager, said today.

Three cardinals of the stock are now grazing at the fairgrounds and the animals will be kept right there until time of the rodeo.

"This stock has been used at the Portola, Calif., roundup and will be allowed to rest until our own fair," Mr. Parks said.

Another car of the stock will come next week, and three additional cardinals are slated to pull in from Evanston, Wyo., a week before the Twin Falls county fair.

Harry Rowell, Hayward, Calif., is again providing the livestock for the rodeo. Rowell came in yesterday with the first shipment of stock. He said the broncos, bulls and calves for the fair will rank on a par with the toughest in the country.

The fair board will chart final plans for the agricultural sections of the 1939 event at a meeting Monday with divisional superintendents.

Plans for the Idaho state championship "lin lizz" derby, booked for Sept. 9, last day of the fair, are moving ahead rapidly. Mr. Parks was told by A. Franklin, representative of Capt. Jerry Edwards, promoter of the derby and producer of a big thrill show scheduled for the fair.

Schubel, Wry Top Hurlers

There may be some better pitchers in the loop than Charley Wry and Bill Schubel of the Twin Falls Cowboys—but the records fail to show it.

According to official averages released today by Ernie Sitter, league statistician, the two Twin Falls hurlers lead the league by a margin.

Nazis Open Denunciation Campaign Against Poland

NEW AND BITTER BLASTS FIRED IN MORNING PAPERS

BERLIN, Aug. 17 (UP)—Nazis opened a new, bitter campaign of denunciation against Poland today and in doing so asserted that Germany must have the Polish corridor as well as Danzig.

In editorials whose identical phrasing seemed to indicate official inspiration, newspapers said there could be no compromise over either Danzig or the corridor.

So bitter were newspapers in their editorials that observers were reminded of the campaign against Czechoslovakia just a year ago.

Allegations of "atrocities" against Germans in Poland were based chiefly on arrests in Polish Silesia.

"Hundreds Arrested"

"Hundreds of Germans arrested; frightful wave of terror over east Upper Silesia," heralded the Morgen Post.

"Germans dragged into interior of Poland as forced laborers; Polish mass hunt of Germans in east Upper Silesia; Hundreds arrested," headlined Voelkischer Beobachter, official newspaper organ of the Nazi party.

Sought to Flee

Newspapers generally carried dispatches asserting that between 350 and 400 Germans had been arrested in the last three days. Some said that between 800 and 1,000 Germans were in prison, including all officials of the minority "young German" party.

A statement was published also that 450 men, women and children aged from 11 to 80 years had been arrested for attempting to cross the frontier "to flee from indescribable Polish terror." These people were alleged to have been put in a jail meant for 100 people.

They're Handling Reins for Idaho Legion

Direction of the Idaho department, American Legion, was in the hands of this official staff today following the annual election at close of the state convention in Twin Falls yesterday. Above, the staff takes a first look at its job for 1939-40. Rear row, left to right, Wallace E. Jellison, Jerome, vice-commander; P. J. Whyte, Coeur d'Alene, sergeant-at-arms; Rev. A. A. Howard, Soda Springs, chaplain. Seated, left to right, O. C. Wilson, Bonanza Ferry, national committeeman; Commander C. Homer Hudson, Boise, and Lester F. Albert, once more re-elected department adjutant. He has held the adjutant's post for 20 years. Below, a close-up of Mr. Hudson, new chief of Idaho's Legionnaires. (Evening Times Photos)

Hudelson Takes Helm of Legion

By O. A. KELKER

Homer Hudelson, manager of the Veterans' administration at Boise for 18 years and once an infantry captain in the 31st division, today had been elected, by acclamation, commander of the Idaho department of the American Legion.

Fact that Hudelson was certain to gain the coveted honor was announced in the Evening Times last night after an unofficial poll of the delegates showed the new leader would probably be unopposed for the position. After the veterans' administration director was nominated by Oscar W. Worthine, Boise. It was moved immediately that further nominations close.

Long Active

The new commander, who succeeds J. D. (Cy) Price, Malad, has been active in the Legion since it was first organized. He is a former commander of the John Reegan post at Boise.

Elected first vice-commander was Wallace E. Jellison, Jerome, while P. J. Whyte, Coeur d'Alene, was elected sergeant-at-arms. Rev. J. A. Howard, Soda Springs, chaplain. Re-elected historian was Mrs. Alta Wardwell Donovan, Boise. The balance of the officers carry over until 1940.

National convention delegates elected were William Mulrooney, Kellogg; Harry W. Christy, Lewiston; Clyde E. Rowland, Caldwell; Frank Elabrook, Nampa; Neil R. Pritch, Payette; J. D. Price, Malad; Mrs. Donovan, Boise; L. G. Nelson, Boise; and A. W. Shepard, Pocatello. Commander Hudelson is also a delegate.

TOWNSEND AGENT VISIONS TRIUMPH

With a throng of 300 from five communities in attendance, Col. Ralph Townsend, speaker from the Townsend legislative bureau, Washington, D. C., forecast here Tuesday night that the Townsend bill will become law "in another 24 months."

Col. Townsend, addressing the Townsendites at L.O.O.P. hall, assured them that the movement "has made rapid progress."

He outlined fundamentals of the recovery plan and said: "More clubs than ever are now being organized by the 'trust' barons. In many larger communities, as many as 50 clubs have been organized in a week."

Need for the Townsend recovery plan, he asserted, is "far from dead." Music was provided by Mrs. Conner's orchestra. The auxiliary served punch and water.

FIGHTERS CHECK BLAZE IN FOREST

MEGALL, Minn., Aug. 17 (UP)—Forest department experts and 300 fire fighters today succeeded in checking the advance of a blaze that burned over 3,500 acres of Douglas fir in the vicinity of Big Creek, 112 miles northeast of here.

Heavy threat, supervisor of the Idaho national forest, pointed out, was that the fire would be under complete control late today.

Meanwhile, a brush fire southwest of Murphy in twelve counties leaped five miles and spread in several directions, increasing its area to 8,000 acres. Approximately 250 men fought the fire.

TRAIN WRECKER HUNT CONTINUES

RENO, Nev., Aug. 17 (UP)—Spurred by a $5,000 reward offered for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons who wrecked the steam locomotive at San Francisco near Carlin, Nev., last Saturday, federal and state authorities continued their so far fruitless search today.

Scores of transcripts were questioned through the west but peace officers admitted they were handicapped by absence of a motive for the alleged sabotage.

A transient was detained in San Jose, Calif., while his fingerprints were checked after he attacked Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cramer, operators of a service station, with a water hose. On his clothing authorities found a Rock era sweat shirt which was the same as the one worn by the wrecked locomotive.

Meanwhile the death toll in the accident rose to 34 with the death in the Elko hospital of George S. Sells, Negro mailer.

William M. Jeffers, president of the Union Pacific railroad, said jointly operated the train with the Southern Pacific and the Chicago & Northwestern, reiterated the tragedy was a clear case of sabotage.

He said a new steam locomotive to replace the City of San Francisco will be placed in operation Aug. 23.

BOOST NEARS IN PRICES FOR GAS

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 17 (UP)—The multi-billion dollar petroleum industry, threatened with a complete stop by a six-state strike against oil 70 per cent of the crude production, was expected to increase retail gasoline prices.

Independent refiners, hardest hit by the 15-day crude production moratorium declared by Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, Kansas and New Mexico, had announced they could no longer afford to retail their product at present prices in the face of rapidly dwindling crude stocks.

The shutdown, now encompassing most of the mid-continent area where oil production rivals consumption as a resource and livelihood for state governments and populations, was designed to force the refiners to restore a general crude price averaging 20 per cent. It was hoped, by the six states actively participating and the several others partially supporting them with production curtailment, that it would so vitally affect the refiners supply that they would be forced to increase in gasoline prices immediately following the parallel strike action begun at an oil compact meeting in Oklahoma City Tuesday and joined today by Louisiana and Arkansas.
