

NAZIS THREATEN POLAND FOR "ATROCITIES"

BATTLE AGAINST ENGLAND GROWS IN CHINA AREAS

SHANGHAI, Aug. 18 (AP)—A new and more dramatic turn in Japan's anti-British campaign was indicated today by a Japanese Domei news agency dispatch reporting that an "anti-British committee" at Kaifeng had announced a boycott of British goods and said that all British goods not sold before Sept. 30 would be confiscated.

Kaifeng is an important town on the Yellow river between Peiping and Hankow. Britons previously had evacuated it. For a time the American embassy feared Americans were in danger there but it now appeared that they had not been molested.

Threatening Letters
Several Britons residing in the blockaded British and French concessions at Tientsin received letters today threatening them with death and the property with destruction unless they immediately left China.

The letters were signed "China Patriotic Youth association."

Tientsin authorities, dispatches said, were not disposed to take the threats seriously.

Dane Killed
S. P. Krogh, a Danish employee of the Great Northern Telegraph company, was fatally wounded today by gunmen outside a home in the Amber road area of Shanghai.

Japanese accused Krogh a month ago of tearing down and trampling upon a flag of the Japanese-dominated central China regime at the Tientsin police station, near the international settlement boundary.

Krogh denied the charges but police of the international settlement, searching for his assassin, said they believed he had been killed in revenge.

All Set for Air Battle: Great Britain

Germany provides her own counter demonstration on the banks of the Po. This crew is armed with automatic rifles in addition to anti-aircraft machine guns.

SQUALUS RESTS IN NEW WATERS

WITH THE SQUALUS SALVAGE, the new location of the submarine Squalus is "almost ideal" for the continuance of salvage operations, divers reported today after exploring the submarine.

The 1,500-ton submarine, weighed down by an estimated 1,000 tons of water, was found to be resting on a soft mud bottom at a depth of 800 feet. It was only a slight list.

Salvagers began removing the nine huge pontoons used yesterday to lift the Squalus and to place it with a maze of hoistlines and other paraphernalia will be taken to Portsmouth navy yard pending the final report.

Rear-Admiral Cyrus W. Cole said he would inspect the new scene of salvage operations this afternoon.

He added, however, that "it does not anticipate another lift for a couple of weeks."

The Squalus rested four miles off the beach today after being towed five miles undersea to shallower water yesterday.

The Squalus is now six miles from the 240-foot depth in which she sank.

McNamee Lost To Ball Team Until Tuesday

The Twin Falls Cowboys will have to do without the services of Joe (Junior) McNamee until next Tuesday or Wednesday, Dr. H. L. Biowe, club physician, announced this afternoon.

McNamee was rushed to the hospital last night after he was hit in the head by a pitched ball during the fifth inning of a double-header with the Salt Lake City Bees here at Jaycee park last night.

The fast ball, pitched by Paul Pasovich of the Bees, caught McNamee "just above and behind the left ear," Dr. Biowe said. X-rays last night and additional ones taken this morning showed there was no fracture but that the brain was bruised. At the present time McNamee has "bad headache," the physician said.

"He will have to stay in the hospital three or four days for observation," Dr. Biowe said. "He wanted to get up today and go to Boise to play tonight but such a thing was not to be considered."

Dr. Biowe said that the player's condition was "good" with the exception of the severe headache.

Ford Motor Company Defies NLRB Ruling

DETROIT, Aug. 18 (AP)—The Ford Motor company notified the national labor relations board today it would not comply with an order which the board issued against it a week ago and charged that the right of free speech was being denied to Henry Ford.

In reply to the labor board which last week reaffirmed its earlier ruling that the company was guilty of violating the Wagner act, F. E. Martin, Ford vice-president, denied the company had discriminated against members of the United Automobile Workers union or otherwise intimidated them.

Martin's statement addressed to Frank Rowan, regional NLRB director, said the board's order directed against "statements or propaganda" issued by Henry Ford.

"It appears to be the purpose of the board to prevent Mr. Ford and the Ford Motor company from expressing any opinion which may displease or criticize any labor organization," Martin said.

"The right of free speech which is accorded to advocates of Communism or any other 'ism' is denied to Mr. Ford and the Ford Motor company."

Martin said the NLRB order was "justified by facts and was an invasion of the constitutional rights of free speech."

Inspired Newspapers Say Poles Have Lost Control Of Situation in Silesia

Germany's quarrel with Poland reached the stage today of a violent press campaign against Polish "atrocities" on Germans and Nazi warnings that settlement of the Danzig problem is now possible a matter of days.

The most significant attack was contained in the Essen National Zeitung, personal organ of Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering, Nazi No. 2, which stated that "the Polish government is no longer in a position to control the situation in Upper Silesia."

The implication was that the reich will have to protect the German minority in the Polish province.

The inspired press, under screaming headlines, described also the "terrorism" against the German Danzig majority and indicated that it might be necessary for Germany to intervene.

No hint was given as to the nature of the "intervention."

Poland professed to be undaunted by the German attacks. The Polish press and political quarters declared Poland will fight if attacked, or if there is violence in Danzig.

There was every indication that Britain and France are determined to fight with Poland if Danzig is attacked by force. The danger of a general war thus depended on whether Germany maintains her adamant demand for the return of Danzig and the Polish corridor to her or whether she would compromise, and Poland holds to her steadfast refusal to surrender either.

Point was given to Britain's attitude when she started the final drafting of a binding military alliance with Poland, concluding the temporary guarantee given after the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia.

Then last March 31 Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain announced:

"In the event of any action which clearly threatens the independence and which the Polish government accordingly considered it vital to resist with their national forces, his majesty's government would themselves bound all support to the Polish government all support in their power."

EAST END CROWD SWELLS THROUGHS AT JEROME FAIR

JEROME, Aug. 18 (Special)—Spurred by a first-day offering that lured 2,000 persons to the night program, the Jerome county fair this afternoon started "east end day" for throngs from that section of the county.

Special feature tonight will be the championship "challenge" game between two of the ace girls' softball teams of Idaho. Pocahontas Amateurs, winner of the recent Jerome tournament, and Hazelton Lions. The game is set for 8 p. m. at the fairgrounds.

Today was the "side day," the public wedding which united Miss Marie Beddall and Edward Blaymires.

Last night's event was the music wedding which united Miss Marie Beddall and Edward Blaymires.

Second racing program of the fair was underway this afternoon, and the initial day's slate of specialty entertainment acts was repeated in front of the grandstand.

Sleight of hand, Piccadilly circus, which drew enthusiastic plaudits from more than 2,000 last night, will again be a highlight of the 8 p. m. program today.

REICH IMPLIES PLAN TO GIVE PROTECTION

PARIS, Aug. 18 (AP)—The French foreign office received information tonight of further German military preparations, including the landing of troops in East Prussia.

Troop movements on the Silesia frontier of Poland also were reported.

Men's Clothes For Fall Will Be Effeminate

NEW YORK, Aug. 18 (AP)—Men's clothes this fall will be downright effeminate, the hat style council said today.

The hat style council, which usually concerns itself chiefly with headgear, made a study of "the complete ensemble," because of what it said was "the new interest being shown by U. S. women in their men's clothes."

It started with hats and went "right on down to shoes," arriving at the conclusion that more thought had been "given to harmonious coloring in the assembling of men's clothes and accessories than ever before."

That was, for example, "Mr. America" is going in for blue-gray, dark green and even "medium light tan" hats with "two-tone ribbons" and "wide brims," the report says, "because they are flattering."

In suits and topsuits "coloring is being used more liberally than in the past," the council said. "The feminine motivation will be apparent, the report added, in a demand for lounge or figure clothing because their streamlining effects are flattering to the figure."

MAN, 31, HELD FOR SCALDING FRIEND

NEW YORK, Aug. 18 (AP)—James Hazzard, 31-year-old night club figure, was held on a charge of homicide today in connection with death-by-scalding of his friend, Thomas Muthers, 23, of Miami.

Muthers was found in a bathtub in Hazzard's apartment in New York City, a district in Queens, last Wednesday night. Hazzard was charged with the killing.

The police version of the case was that Muthers had been living with Hazzard for a few days and they had been drinking. About noon Wednesday Hazzard left the apartment and when he returned he found Muthers had fallen into the bathtub and been scalded by hot water.

Hazzard asked George Buckley, doorman at the apartment house, to help him get Muthers into the bathtub for a cold shower while he waited for the police. Buckley said he assisted Hazzard and then left the apartment under the impression the cold water tap had been turned on.

Police said the apartment was the address of Mrs. Dorothy Russell, Hazzard's daughter, of the famous beauty, Lillian Russell.

CHAMBER MOVES TO RETAIN F. S. A.

Opposing transfer of the Farm Security administration offices from Twin Falls to another location, the Chamber of Commerce today approved action to support efforts to keep the agency's headquarters in Twin Falls.

STAMP-FOR-FOOD PLAN EXPANDED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace moved today to establish the food stamp plan begun three months ago on an experimental basis to a permanent government program for placing farm surplus in the hands of the nation's millions of needy.

Reports on reports of success of the plan in experimental cities, Wallace began setting up a nationwide organization to install and administer the program in 75 to 100 cities by next spring.

The stamp plan, hailed as a stimulus to private business as well as a partial solution of the relief and farm problems, had been approved by President Roosevelt.

Regional offices have been set up to handle expansion of the plan in western and middle western states. Jonathan Garst was named regional director for the west coast and Rocky Mountain states with headquarters in San Francisco. Paul H. Jordan was named to lead the mid-western office in Milwaukee. Wisconsin and eastern offices are expected to be established within the next few weeks.

Min Perkins, president of the industrial surplus commodities corporation, in charge of administering the plan, said expansion at first will be gradual. "Midwestern" growth might result in confusion and serious mistakes, he said.

NAZIS DEMAND POLAND STOP TERRORISM AGAINST GERMAN

PREDICT 'EARLY' SETTLEMENT FOR DANZIG DISPUTE

BERLIN, Aug. 18 (Special)—Well-informed Nazis say today that the dispute between Germany and Poland had now become serious and that settlement of the Danzig problem was no longer a matter of weeks but possibly of days.

They further indicated that unless Poland stopped alleged terrorism against minority Germans—described in screaming headlines by the inspired press—it might be necessary for Germany to intervene. The manner of intervention was not specified.

It was asserted more openly and more firmly that Germany now must have the Polish corridor, which is Poland's outlet to the sea, and that there must be no conferences or compromises.

Same Old Tone

Charges of terrorism against minority Germans began to take on the exact tone of those that preceded the Sudeten crisis a year ago. Nazis asserted that thousands of Germans were fleeing the "terror" as it had been alleged in Czechoslovakia.

"Polish terror against Germans continues without diminution," said the official news agency, which said that those Germans who have not been arrested have been compelled to hide in the woods or in other places to escape the hatred of the Poles. "The number of arrests swells hourly and already is well over 1,000."

The number of German minority fugitives from Poland, up to the beginning of August, reached 78,335, where they fled.

Nazi sources asserted refugees had been fleeing from Poland at the rate of 4,200 a week for the last two months.

The newspaper national Zeitung of Essen, personal organ of Field Marshal Hermann Goering, Nazi No. 2, said today:

"One does not negotiate with someone (Great Britain) whom a question does not concern, and who already has decided for better or worse on war if the question arises as a practical proposition."

Meanwhile, we assume that Britain has taken cognizance of the fact that the reich is determined, one way or another, to solve a question whose acute urgency is proved these very days by a brutal wave of attacks against minority Germans living in the Polish corridor."

The growing moment of the situation was emphasized by reports that the British and French ambassadors, in visits to the foreign office this week, had expressed the attitude of their governments in "positive terms."

Settled "peacefully" it was part of a puzzling situation that despite the hardening of the Nazi attitude, Nazis insisted that the German-Poland dispute could be settled peacefully. They added, however, that it must be settled Germany's way.

They said that any attempt by Poland or the western powers allied with it to persuade Adolf Hitler to accept a compromise Danzig settlement, providing for alteration of the free city's status over the next two or three years, would be rejected.

31 Schools Enroll Over Half of Idaho Students

BOISE, Aug. 18 (Special)—John W. Condie, state superintendent of public instruction, reported today that more than half of Idaho's high school pupils are enrolled in so-called "group one" schools—those ranging in enrollment from 300 to 2,000 students. There are 31 schools in the group with an average student body of 500.

Other high school students are in 155 institutions, arranged in five or groups.

In group two there are 30 schools averaging 100 pupils and ranging from 150 to 300. Group three has 16 schools with enrollments from 50 to 100 pupils and an average of 75. Group four has 27 schools ranging from 50 pupils down to 20 with an average of 35.

Largest 2,074 Pupils

In group five there are 15 sub-four-year schools, mainly offering two-year courses. In the sixth group of seven schools are private high schools, supported by various church organizations and accredited by the state.

Of the group one schools, the largest enrolled 2,074 pupils, the smallest 301. During the 1938-39 school year, 22 of the group showed increased enrollments, nine showed decreases. All schools include non-resident or tuition pupils which vary from 61 per cent in one school to six-tenths of one per cent in another. The average is 30 per cent.

Recitation classes average 27 in group one, ranging from an average of 25 in one school to 24. Of the 620 teachers in group one schools, 102 are "new," an average turnover of 16 per cent. Two schools have a turnover of 40 per cent, while four made no changes in their teachers.

Teaching Experience

The average teaching experience in the group is eight years, but Condie said in one school the average was as high as 15 1/2 years. Teachers meet an average of 130 pupils daily in class recitations.

The property valuation per pupil in group one schools averages $2,048, on which a district levy of an average 18 1/4 mills produces a revenue of $37.88 per pupil. District debt averages $107 per enrolled pupil, with a range from $241 to $21. School building values average $200 per pupil.

Neighbor Dog Bites Playmate in Filer

FILER, Aug. 18 (Special)—Miss Lou Heller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Heller, Sunday was bitten severely by a bulldog while playing with the animal.

The dog, belonging to a neighbor, had been playing with the Heller children when suddenly the animal angrily jumped at Miss Heller, biting her in the face, grabbing her mouth and nose so tightly that it had to be choked in order to release it.

Miss Heller was rushed to a doctor for immediate medical attention. The dog was sent to Boise for inspection and possible rabies.

Pasadena Vacationists Greeted at Clever Tea

Invited to meet Mrs. H. D. Phillips and her daughter, Miss Eva Phillips, Pasadena, Calif., at a charmingly appointed tea one afternoon this week were 40 friends of Mrs. Hugh Phillips, and her mother, Mrs. Ella M. White.

Mrs. L. W. Polson conducted the devotion. Miss Lillian Laubenthal gave two vocal solos, accompanied by Miss Loren Fuller. "Bible sayings" were read by the members.

Yellow and orange autumn flowers decorated the parlors, and the tea table was centered with an autumn bouquet and appointed in color of pottery.

School Day Games Are Lawn Party Diversion

Three-deep, run-sheep-run, and various other outdoor games which occupied the after-school recreation hours of the members of the Junior Guild of the Church of the Brethren in days gone by, were played with youthful spirit by the group assembled last evening at the attractive country home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hempleman for a delightful lawn party.

Seventeen husbands of members, special guests of the evening, proved that they were still expert in playing the juvenile games scheduled by the committee on arrangements.

Talented Dance Exponent Will Conclude Visit

Miss Dorothy Marion Kirk, who has just completed an 18-month tour of England, Ireland, Scotland, Belgium and France, with the "Hollywood Coeds," being featured in acrobatic dancing, tumbling and tap, her specialties, has been enjoying a visit this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. 80-Year-Old Is Guest of Honor At 'Open House'

Yesterday was indeed "Dad's day" for L. A. Snyder, pioneer resident of Twin Falls since 1906, who celebrated his 80th birthday at an "open house" party at his home, 461 Fourth avenue east. Dozens of friends called during the afternoon and early evening to bid him "happy returns of the day." The party for "Dad" Snyder, as he is fondly called, was arranged by Rhoda M. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Snyder, Seattle, Wash., called him on long distance telephone; friends sent letters of birthday greetings from several states, and a number of local friends called during the afternoon and early evening to bid him "happy returns of the day." The party for "Dad" Snyder, as he is fondly called, was arranged by Rhoda M. Snyder.

Light refreshments were served during the informal reception hours. Included among those who called to extend felicitations were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pilgrim, Mrs. C. H. Stinson, Christ Rehnman, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Guest and Francis Guest, Mr. and Mrs. Winterholer, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Winterholer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Baker and daughter, Mrs. Alma Baker, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Edwards, Miss Doris Leight, Mrs. May Kaiser, Mrs. Anna Oaken, Mrs. Hazel Snyder, Mrs. Betty Brewer, Loe Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Norrick, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pyle, W. J. Kelly, Peter Nielsen, Miss Maxine Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schulte, Ronald and Anna Schulte, Mrs. Alma Brose, C. T. Hunt, Fred Stumpf, Miss Alice Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schneider and Mrs. Jeanie Gray.

England Starts Final Drafting of Polish Alliance

GERMAN DEMAND FOR CORRIDOR IS SPUR TO BRITAIN

LONDON, Aug. 18 (U.P.)—Great Britain's answer to German demands that Danzig and the Polish corridor must be surrendered was to begin the final drafting today of a military alliance with Poland, replacing the temporary guarantee of Czechoslovakia.

The drafting was started when Count Edward Raczkowski, ambassador, and Wladislaw Kutski, chief legal adviser to the Polish foreign office arrived here this morning and conferring at length with British legal experts.

Effective Five Years
It was reported the treaty would be effective for five years and would be renewable, and it would include not only direct or indirect aggression against Poland but an unprejudiced guarantee of assistance by Britain if Poland under duress became the object of economic penetration by a foreign power.

British people, thronging vacation resorts or working quietly at home, seemed unaffected by what was called Europe's war of nerves, but the government quietly intensified efforts here and abroad to meet serious trouble in Europe within the next two weeks.

Official spokesmen and government supporters, even those who approved the Munich agreement on Czechoslovakia, said now that there could be no question of Britain backing down and deserting Poland. Daily displays of increased British air power, and maneuvers of British planes over British cities, had the effect not of causing alarm, but of increasing confidence among the people.

HOUSING SURVEY RESPONSE WIDE

At the present time not one city or village in Idaho has refused to cooperate in the matter of making a survey of inadequate housing conditions. It was announced here this afternoon by Thomas D. McDougall, field statistician of low cost housing for Idaho.

Surveys at the present time are underway in Nampa, Pocatello, Preston and Idaho Falls. McDougall said that the Twin Falls survey is expected to be completed in the immediate future. Blackfoot's survey was completed last week but detailed figures are not, as yet, available for publication. Surveys will get underway soon in Parma, Downey, McCall, Lava Hot Springs, Rigby, Rexburg, St. Anthony and Grace.

The surveys are being made with a view toward obtaining federal funds which would enable "slum" districts to be cleared and small, modern homes constructed.

Surveys completed at the present time show the following results, in each case the first figure being the number of pictures taken and reports filled out, the second figure the number of adults living in the inadequate homes, the third figure the number of children and the fourth figure the number of new dwellings needed:

Built: 215, 416, 224, 200; Burley: 265, 562, 423, 250; Rupert: 91, 180, 100, 90; Oakley: 38, 89, 83, 36; Kimberly: 120, 224, 154, 104; Gooding: 122, 265, 171, 120; Murfreesboro: 48, 48, 40; Harrison: 68, 114, 83, 60; Filer: 128, 207, 166, 120; Payette: 130, 265, 234, 186; New Pinesburg: 40, 72, 72, 50; Weiser: 150, 308, 278, 157; Emmett: 440, 802, 718, 440.

South central Idaho devotees of model aircraft and rubber-powered model airplanes were invited today to take part in a tournament Thursday at Boise.

The meet will be held at 3 p. m. Sunday at Boise's new airport, with youngsters and adults from various sections of Idaho taking part. It was understood that many businessmen in the Boise-Nampa area have taken up the model plane building as a hobby, and some of these will fly their own ships while others will have youngsters do the "piloting."

Dale Clark, Twin Falls, who won the state tournament for gas model planes held recently at Caldwell, indicated today that he will be unable to enter the Boise competition because he is engaged in construction of a new gas plane which won't be ready in time.

Each prize will be offered at the Boise event, which will include three divisions—large bore gas, small bore gas and rubber-power endurance.

Cobb Nears Eyston Mark in Speed Test

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah, Aug. 18 (U.P.)—Any possibility of Eyston's record being broken by John Cobb, would be to break the world land speed record today disappeared when Cobb announced he was through for the day after a test run that took him through the flying mile at 252.94 miles an hour.

This was only 4.56 m.p.h. under Capt. George Eyston's record of 257.5, set last year.

Neither Cobb nor Reid Ballion, designer of the Raiton Red Lion, would indicate definitely when the official record-shattering attempt would be made but observers believed it would come tomorrow at dawn.

Railton expressed himself satisfied with today's test but said there was a "slight bug" that had to be eliminated before the shot at the Eyston mark.

Eyston Mark
American Automobile association contest board rules require the record run be made twice, once from each end of the runway, both runs within a one-hour limit. Speeds of each of the runs are averaged for the official timing.

Eyston's record which he established last year with his Thunderbolt, hit 257.5 m.p.h. The British army officer's best time for the mile last year was 258.57 m.p.h. Cobb hit the return trip "still accelerating" and expressed confidence after his first trip that his Raiton Red Lion still had surplus speed to top Eyston's record.

Uses Entire Runway
Cobb used the entire 12 miles of the runway in today's trial, taking six miles to gain speed and using the last six to stop his turtle-shaped speedster. In last year's trial the British broker used a much shorter runway, making the complete trip in about nine miles.

Cobb held the world's record for one day at 350.3 m.p.h. He broke Eyston's former record of 245.49 m.p.h. The next day, Eyston returned to the flats to set up his present record, which stood after a mishap rendered the Thunderbolt useless for further attempts last year.

Eyston will not defend his speed record this year.
