

ROOSEVELT SENDS THIRD APPEAL TO EUROPE WITHIN YEAR

GERMANY, POLES ARE SENT PLANS FOR NEGOTIATION

By HOBART C. MONTGOMERY
WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt, for the third time within a year, sent to Europe peace proposals today by direct appeal to European leaders.

Last night he dispatched personal messages to Adolf Hitler of Germany and President Ignacy Moscicki of Poland. Earlier he had appealed to King Victor Emmanuel of Italy.

Hitler and Moscicki had made specific suggestions of means by which a peaceful solution of the present crisis could be found. In the absence of other or more preferable alternatives, he said, Germany and Poland could submit to mediation by one of the republics of the western hemisphere. His appeal to the king of Italy was delivered through the American ambassador in Rome.

Those to Hitler and to President Moscicki went by cable directly from the White House.

Misses Britton, French, and it was noted that the President had not this time addressed King George of Great Britain and President Albert Lebrun of France, heads of the other two nations whose preparations for war are on a scale similar to those in Germany, Poland and Italy. It was recalled that the last time President Roosevelt appealed to Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain of Britain in behalf of peace, the Munich pact was concluded between Britain, France and Germany, with the resultant partition, and later the absorption of Czechoslovakia, by Germany.

In his appeal to King Victor Emmanuel, Mr. Roosevelt asked the Italian sovereign whose throne has been occupied by the promise of Premier Benito Mussolini, to use the good offices of his government to avert war.

Three Alternatives
In his appeals to Chancellor Hitler and President Moscicki, Mr. Roosevelt was more specific. He proposed three alternatives through which a peaceful solution of the present crisis should be sought.

These were:

1. That the governments of Poland and the government of the German reich might be made the subject of direct discussion between the governments of the United States and Germany.

2. Should this prove impossible or not feasible, a second avenue might be that of submission of the matter to arbitration.

3. A third method might be consultation through a disinterested third party, in which case it would be appropriate that the parties avail themselves of the services of one of the traditionally neutral states, as a disinterested mediator of the western hemisphere wholly removed from the area and issues of the present crisis.

Under the latter suggestion, Mr. Roosevelt did not intend to imply that he was offering his own mediation, or that any official of this government wanted the task.

To Moscicki, he sent sympathetic assurances lacking in the message to Hitler.

Wherever you find a Rotary club," he said, "you will find civic leaders."

Greatest Thrill
He asserted his greatest thrill at Washington during the last session of congress was visiting the historic monuments of men like Washington and Jefferson, "who in a few short years laid the foundation for our present democracy."

Other numbers appearing on the program were two vocal solos by Jake Jacobson, accompanied at the piano by Merlin Neffger, and the group singing led by Mr. Jacobson.

A trout dinner was served in the room to the 106 members and guests. Jess Eastman of Buhl headed the committee which furnished the fish. Most of the trout was caught in Clear lakes. This is the second dinner which has been served by the Buhl Rotary club since the first one being held in July, 1937, and at which time Rupert, Buhl and Twin Falls were guests of the local club.

During the afternoon golfers from the various towns represented played a round of golf on the course. Since the groups were playing in the morning, no scores were officially tabulated.

Death Closes Colorful Career of Buhl Pioneer

Called by Death
Buhl, Aug. 25 (Special)—A long and colorful career, crowded with pioneer achievements and including at least one feat which earned nationwide attention, was at an end today.

Death last night summoned James Henderson Shields, 91 years old, termed the oldest and longest resident of Buhl and ranked as one of the primary pioneer figures in both Buhl and Twin Falls.

Mr. Shields succumbed at about 7 p. m. at the home of his son, James Shields, Jr., a prominent Buhl leader.

Came in 1908
The aged pioneer, a familiar figure known affectionately as "Father" Shields to hundreds of Buhl residents, had come here in 1908 when there were only six buildings in the new town and a few scattered shacks in the sagebrush. Prior to that time he had taken a place as a pioneer of Twin Falls, settling there in 1906. He cleared the brush and farmed the D. S. Spencer place on Blue Lakes boulevard in Twin Falls.

In 1904 Mr. Shields had filed homestead rights on 80 acres six miles south of Buhl.

Air Enthusiast
Nationwide fame came to Mr. Shields and to his wife, "Mother" Shields, when they boarded an airplane in 1934 for a trip from Lake City to Los Angeles. The pair, ranked as the oldest couple ever to take a national airplane tour, they flew to California three times after 1934, since it was their custom to spend the winter at Glendale, Calif., with their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Amos.

Mr. Shields was born Oct. 18, 1847, at Colville, O., and his life span covered some of the most momentous events in American history. He came west and settled at Churey, Wyo., in the early 1880s. He rode the range for a number of years, and became associated in the cattle business in Wyoming.

Went in 1889
He married Miss Mary McConnell in Cheyenne July 11, 1889. Mrs. Shields preceded him in death April 28, 1937.

The family moved to Astoria, Wash., in 1904. In 1904 Mr. Shields filed on the 80 acres in the Buhl country, then returned to Astoria. He moved with his family to Twin Falls in 1906, as one of that city's earlier pioneers.

After moving to Buhl two years later, he cleared and farmed the D. S. Spencer place at the southeast corner of Buhl. While farming this he also cleared and operated—with the aid of his sons, James and Lucien, his own 80-acre place.

Few Buildings Then
When Mr. Shields came to Buhl the only buildings here were the Harris store, the Buhl Hardware company, the postoffice, Milner-Perrine Lumber company, the old Buhl store and the Marshall furniture store.

Mr. and Mrs. Shields moved into Buhl itself years ago, settling in the McCollum addition and caring for a small acreage of fruit and berries. Mr. Shields has been living with his sons in recent years.

Survivors include James Shields.

Cafe Management Shift Made Here
Charles P. Smith, Long Beach, Calif., today had taken over active management of the Blue Arrow cafe in Twin Falls. It was announced this afternoon.

Mr. Smith is a son of Mrs. F. C. Smith, also of Long Beach, who is owner of the building in which the cafe is located. Former operator was Joe Winchings of Reno, Nev.

The late F. C. Smith was a pioneer of this section and constructed the building in which the cafe is located in 1906. His son formerly resided here and first visited this area in 1904.

Smith announced that the cafe would be open for business at all hours of every day with the exception of 2 a. m. to 5 a. m.

POLISH ARMY REFUSES TO OBEY ORDER, NAZIS CLAIM

SOLDIERS EAGER TO ATTACK, SAYS GERMAN OFFICIAL

By FREDERICK C. OCHSNER

BERLIN, Aug. 25 (U.P.)—German officials asserted today that the Polish army was refusing to obey government orders and was eager to attack Germany.

Official quarters, awaiting Adolf Hitler's word for the showdown with Poland they regarded as certain and imminent, said they had not received President Roosevelt's peace appeal in refusing all comment.

Appeals for peace by Pope Pius and King Leopold of Belgium had brought no response.

Hitler spent hours last night in a war council with Field Marshal Hermann Goering, Nazi No. 2 who is commander in chief of the air force; Gen. Wilhelm Keitel, chief of the high command of armed forces; Gen. Walter Brauchitsch, commander in chief of the army; and Joseph Goebbels, foreign minister.

It was not until 12:40 a. m. today that this meeting adjourned, with the terse statement that there would be no official announcement.

Leads New Attack
Zwoelf Uhr Blatt, first of the afternoon papers, has a new attack on Poland. Blatzen across its first page was the headline:

"Advance on our initiative—Polish army refuses obedience to Warsaw!"

It was asserted Polish troops were eager to attack and that, in such circumstances, "it is highly probable the Polish army in blind faith in the western democracies will lose its nerves and advance upon Germany."

Diplomatic quarters at once attributed the attack, which they accepted as inspired, to the opening of a campaign intended to lay the blame on Poland for any rupture in European peace.

Political quarters, advised that the President had appealed to Hitler for peace, expressed the belief that Hitler would get the same reception from Hitler as he had his peace message of last April. No official answer was given, but that message, newspapers and Hitler in a speech to the Reichstag, gave the answer indirectly a rejection on the ground that the message was sent to the wrong address since Germany, it was held, then was not the peace disturber.

Suggested by Hitler
Nazi said that the first of the President's proposals in his new message—direct negotiations between Germany and Poland—had been suggested by Hitler repeatedly.

Pending word from Hitler, Nazis said that any new proposal for negotiations must come from Poland—provided it was not too late, and they seemed to think it was. Any settlement now, Nazis asserted, must be a 100 per cent German settlement.

POLISH ARMY AT FULL STRENGTH

WARSAW, Aug. 25 (U.P.)—Poland brought her army to full strength today while women joined men throughout the country in digging air raid shelters and trenches in parks and in the outskirts of towns.

Mobilizations had ceased and it was assumed all of the first line reserves had been absorbed into the army, bringing it to a figure between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 men. These troops were dispersed facing the German frontiers, ready for any eventuality.

Men of all cities and towns, including Warsaw, appealed not only to men but to women to volunteer for the hard physical labor of digging air raid trenches, and at dawn women were using shovels and swinging picks alongside their men.

Families were storing food, encouraged by the newspapers.

Government officials denied emphatically the Polish army was out of hand or was planning any coup in Danzig. Officials said Danzig was quiet.

OUTING HELD FOR NEWSPAPER BOYS

With special awards presented to Arjel Green and Andy Anderson for outstanding results among city carriers of Times and News, fishing and motion pictures occupied the leading young salesmen at their summer outing yesterday.

The youngsters caught 50 or 60 fish at Blue Lake ranch. Two of them got "lost" from the main group and were found later fishing on Allie's creek, into which one of the pair had tumbled. That didn't stop him from fishing, however, and he pulled out—sneaking—and promptly tossed in his hook and line.

Luncheon, business meeting and movies in the afternoon wound up the meeting. The boys who had achieved the requirements necessary to "win" the outing were Bob McBride, Bob Harvey, Bob Meigs, Darrell Deagle, Rolly Johnson, Glen Jones, Dick York, Buddy Glib, Kenneth Hubbard, Fred Jennings, Andy Anderson, Bob Bush, Bob Blandford, Gene Hull, Ivan Jacobs, Don Greas, Arrel Green, Darwin Bell and Archie Webber.

DISPATCH CLAIMS GERMANS KILLED

BERLIN, Aug. 25 (U.P.)—The newspaper Nacht Ausgabe reports from Mersich Ostpruss today that eight Germans were shot dead and seven seriously wounded by Poles near Bielitz.

The dispatch asserted Polish police had arrested the Germans and a group of Czechs because of their "hostile attitude."

The prisoners were being transported by automobile, according to the newspaper, but they made a break when the party was forced to halt by bad roads.

Maerisch Ostpruss is former Czechoslovak territory taken over by Poland during last year's dismemberment of the little republic.

COWBOYS OPEN PILOT STAND HERE TONIGHT

Local Club Loses Final Game of Series to Ogden

Back in their own ballpark after a disastrous road tour that saw them drop five out of six games, the Twin Falls Cowboys take on the invading Boise Pilots at Jaycee field tonight. The game is set to start at 8:15 p. m., with Manager Charley Wry scheduled to take the mound for his club.

Last night the Cowboys dropped the final, and deciding, game of the series to the Ogden Reds in the Utah city—by a one-run margin—4-3. Joe Kinnaman, the new right-handed pitcher, made his debut on the mound for the Cowboys and under ordinary circumstances he would have won. The game was only the second for over a month in which the Twin Falls crew failed to score more than four runs.

Plays at Short.
Besides Kinnaman, the lineup last night saw George Holsher, the new infielder, make his debut at the shortstop berth. He played over half of the game there, with Verne Reynolds returning in the late innings to play the game.

Kinnaman scattered the nine hits made by Ogden, but Dave Lucas was on the mound for the Pilots and he won the game, 4-3, by winning the third game of the series, 6 to 5, from the Boise Pilots. The Cowboys dropped the rubber game of the series to the Ogden Reds, 4 to 3.

Clarence Beers, on the mound for Pocatello, scattered 11 hits to the Pilots. He made the best of the seven off six singles in the ninth, ended one run short.

At Ogden, Pete Hughes, Ogden pitcher, broke in a pitcher's duel between Bob Kinnaman, newcomer to the Cowboys roster, and Dave Lucas in the ninth frame. Hughes' homer followed knotting of the count by the Reds in the last of the sixth and the two teams went scoreless in the seventh and eighth.

Hughes Decides Game.
Then in the ninth Pete Hughes the slugging Ogden right fielder, pounced on the first ball pitched to him for a home run that ended the game right there.

The tilt saw the first appearance of Junior McNamee in the lineup since he was hit by a pitched ball in a game with Salt Lake City here Aug. 17. He pinch-hit for Holsher in the sixth inning, but failed to connect safely. Holsher and Reynolds each made an error at the shortstop berth, but Holsher took a shortstop double-play, Carlson to Holsher to Carlson.

Dropped Last Series.
The defeat, plus Pocatello's one-run victory over Boise, left the Cowboys with a very small half-game margin.

In the last series against the Pilots, the Cowboys dropped three games in a row at the Boise Park—by scores of 15-3, 14-5 and 20-5. But with the hurling staff back in shape and the possibility that Junior McNamee may be back in the lineup as a regular, giving the team the cleanup punch badly lacking in the last two series, Manager Wry looks for the club to get back on its feet.

Shoshone and Buhl Clubs Meet Sunday
SHOSHONE, Aug. 25 (Special)—Far and away the largest baseball crowd of the season is expected here on Sunday when the Shoshone and Buhl baseball teams of the SC league tangle in what may be the deciding game of the play-offs.

Last Sunday the Buhl club took both ends of a double-header on their home lot. The series is scheduled to go three out of five and will decide the 1939 SC league Idaho league championship.

Mauro Duen, the ace catchup of the Buhl club, will be asked to pitch the opening game for Buhl. He hurled his way to two victories last Sunday—one in the opening game as a full-time pitcher, and one in the second tilt as a relief hurler. Jan Hansen, the former University of Idaho pitcher, will probably be on the mound for Manager E. W. McElbert's team in the opening game for the home club.

Final game is scheduled to get under way at 1 p. m.

Germany has 14,000 soccer clubs with 1,200,000 playing members, and it is not unusual to have 120,000 spectators at big games in this capital.

3,000 Head of Big Game Will Be Taken From Idaho Forests
BOISE, Aug. 25 (UP)—Idaho's big game hunting season will open this year with three special hunts in which 2,500 elk and 500 deer will be offered for the slaying to hunters on a special permit basis.

A five-day special hunt for the removal of 500 deer in a section of the Minidoka national forest in eastern Idaho will begin today, Oct. 5 to Oct. 9. Game Director Owen W. Morris announced today.

Applications for permits for the deer hunt must be made in writing to the fish and game department in Boise before 3 p. m. Sept. 22. The drawing will be held Sept. 22. Each hunter must secure a $3 fee with his application. Permits are not transferable.

The first hunt of the season will be for 1,000 elk in the Snake River preserve in northern Idaho, Sept. 1 to Oct. 4. Hunters must make application before Aug. 25 to the game department for permits.

A second hunt, for removal of 1,000 elk from the Selway preserve will be held Oct. 8 to Nov. 10 and application must be made for special hunting permits before Sept. 22 when a drawing will be held.

Hunters receiving special permits are allowed to shoot only one elk or deer each within the preserve during the specified period.

Morris said the purpose of the special hunts was to thin out herds and to provide a means of hunting and protect the animals from starvation.

Morris warned hunters they must make arrangements in advance for pack horses to carry out game and also carry a shovel, axe and bucket as a fire precaution.

Sportsmen Get Stern Decrees On Fire Peril

Because "extreme fire hazard" exists in the Sawtooth national forest, as well as the Challis and Salmon forests, strict fire precaution order became effective today for sportsmen and campers of southern Idaho.

The order was issued by C. N. Woods, regional forester at Ogden, under federal statute and regulations.

The decrees include precautions in connection with smoking, camp fires and equipment to assist in extinguishing blazes.

"There now exists extreme fire hazard on the Sawtooth, Challis and Salmon forests in Idaho," Mr. Woods said. "The forest cover is highly inflammable and emergency fire-fighting conditions exist. Big fires have occurred, costing the government considerable sums of money to suppress, and have caused large damage to timber and watershed."

Forests Threatened
"Smoking, building of camp fires and other acts of building fires threaten the safety of the afore-said national forests."

Because of these facts, the regional forester decreed these regulations:

"1. Smoking is hereby prohibited on any portion of the afore-said national forests except (a) while traveling on highways or double track roads; (b) in improved camps and at places of human habitation; (c) at any other place free from inflammable material, provided the smoker absolutely stops traveling while smoking and entirely extinguishes his tobacco before resuming travel. Smoking is prohibited elsewhere or under any other conditions on national forest lands."

"2. The building of camp fires is prohibited on any portion of the afore-said national forests, except in accordance with a written permit signed by a forest officer; provided, however, that camp fires may be built on improved or designated camps necessary in operating under the terms of their permits."

Some Exempt
"Those persons operating under national forest special-use, grazing and timber permits are exempted from the requirements of this order with reference to the building of camp fires and smoking under the terms of their permits."

"All campers on national forest lands, except those special-use, grazing and timber permit holders, must have an axe of at least two pounds weight, and a water receptacle of one-quart capacity, which these are necessary in preventing the escape of camp fires and in completely extinguishing camp fires before they are abandoned."

"This order shall become effective Aug. 25, 1939, and shall continue in full force and effect until revoked by the regional forester."

Kinnaman Adds to WSC Players in Ranks of Pioneer

Bob Kinnaman, the new Cowboy hurler who lost a tough 4-3 decision to the Ogden Reds last night, is just what the WSC baseball player added to the ranks of the Pioneer League teams. It was revealed.

While Kinnaman was at Washington State college, Kinnaman had an teammates such established stars as Eric Bishop and Corky Carlson of the Twin Falls Red Hot Sox, and Mel Marlowe of Salt Lake City.

Kinnaman played four years of college ball under Coach Buck Bailey. He is 21 years of age, stands five feet, 11 inches and weighs 170 pounds. In his career with the Cougars he won 19 games and lost 15. He is one of the few residents of Idaho to be signed to a Pioneer League contract, having from the minor league of Kellogg in the northern part of the state.

George Holsher, the new infielder added to the club, was acquired by Scout Homer Hapgood, who covers the "business" for both the Cowboys and Spokane Indians. He is 20 years of age, weighs 185 pounds and stands five feet, 11 inches. He has a hitting and fielding record in the Oregon State League.

BASEBALL TONITE 8:15
TWIN FALLS COWBOYS vs. BOISE PILOTS

Another hazy importation, sort-of, may develop even greater than Seabiscuit or Kayak. May be Howard is just a name, but he is a name that has been born with a Midea touch. Yet, with minimum expense this San Francisco business man, single-handedly has organized the hand-picked division for three straight years and his horses—some a three-legged horse, some a one-legged horse, some a two-legged horse—have beaten almost every top-flight horse produced by the men who spend their lives improving the breed.

SPORT SQUIBS! by Hal Wood

BOISE PILOTS BECOME JUST ABOUT TOUGHEST CLUB IN LEAGUE . . . CREDIT BILL ULRICH FOR GIVING TWIN FALLS GREAT BASEBALL

The Pioneer league can thank its lucky stars that the first year of its existence was graced by a pennant race that enters the last four weeks of play with every club in the loop given a mathematical chance to win the flag.

If you'll look at the standings you will note that the last place Ogden team is just 14 1/2 games behind the first place Twin Falls Cowboys, and in the big leagues that much of a difference, or nearly as much, is fairly often noted between the first and third place teams.

The best part about the Pioneer league race is that the Boise club is in the cellar for so long now has taken on the appearance of an up-and-coming team and today can be rated one of the best teams in the circuit—and this advice from the lips of none other than Mr. High B. Pace, business manager of the Twin Falls Cowboys.

Pace states that Hadron Walker, Boise president, has banded together a group of experienced ball players who will make it tough for any team in the league for the rest of the season.

"When we were in Boise for the recent series, the Pilots were playing the best baseball in the loop," said Pace, "and don't discount the fact that with a few breaks they would have taken those three games from Pocatello that they lost by one run."

Which reminds us that Manager Andy Harrington's club has lost more games by a one-run margin than nearly all the other clubs in the circuit put together. They got a good taste of what was to follow when they lost five of their first six contests of the season by the single run margin.

"The Pilots move into Jaycee park tonight and the Cowboys will have to show a lot more than they have on the road during the past week to retain their spot at the head of the loop."

Which reminds us that the Twin Falls club has turned into the toughest home-team team to beat in the loop. The Cowboys have lost one—just one—game on the local lot since July 13. The club lost the last of a three-game series with Salt Lake City at that time. Then came three in a row over Lewiston, Boise and Ogden—all in the home lot. Returning here the Cowboys polished off Pocatello for three straight to go into the league lead, and then took two more from the Bees before finally losing the last game of a home stand 2-1 to Eddie Mulligan's outcast forest lands.

All told, the Cowboys have won 14 of the last 15 games played on the home lot—an average that would make a walk-away race of any league.

Despite setbacks on the current road trip, the Ulrich club must have a world of power when you stop to consider these facts: The team has had three different managers during the year and has continued to win under every one.

Of the original mound staff, only Kentucky Charley Wry and John Stefan are still around—but the team goes right on winning. Two of the best players in the league—Eddie Leishman (Manager No. 1) and Gus Schumacher (Manager No. 2)—were taken away, but the Twin Falls club continued to dominate play in the league.

Of the starting outfield only dependable Steve Bogdanoff is still there. But of the starting infield, Corky Carlson still holds down first base, Eric Bishop covets at the keystone seat and George Panch still knocks down those line drives at third. At least four men have been tried at the shortstop berth.

The best we can say is that Owner Bill Ulrich and his local business manager, Hugh Pace, have left no stone unturned in giving us a winning ball club. If a player left for the Pioneer league standard, he tarried in the Cowboy fold a very short while.

Whether the Twin Falls team finishes first or second in the league, all fans of this area will have to give credit to Mr. Ulrich. Because he gave south central Idaho fans a team of which they can be proud.

Dodgers Defeat Reds 4-2; Cardinals Lose

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 (UP)—The Dodgers are no laughing matter these days. The Cardinals found out and the Reds are learning too.

Before a capacity house of 34,162, last night in Ebbets field, Brooklyn won its fifth straight game by downing Cincinnati, 4-2. Tot Pressnell pitched a six-hit game.

Fortunately for the Reds, Lou Gehrig was better than the Phillies last night. 6-5. It was the fourth straight loss for the Cards and took considerable wind out of their pennant race. The Phillies took the lead in the eighth inning. Carl Reynolds and Rip Russell drove home all the runs as the Cubs beat the Houston Bees, 8-1.

Twin Falls Ed Goddard of Ogden, 4-3, belted the six-hit pitching of Max Butler.

Charley Keller led the Yankees to an 11-5 victory over the Browns. He drove in five runs with three hits, one of them a homer. It was the Yankees' fifth straight win and increased their lead to nine games.

The White Sox triumphed over the first loss 3-1, behind John Riggs' best hitting.

Cleveland won a twin bill from the Athletics, 10-2 and 17-2.

With Pittsburgh pitching an all-star for the Tigers beat the Senators, 4-1.

Great Britain, Poland Sign Mutual Assistance Pact

SPRING PLEDGES MADE FORMAL IN FINAL MOVEMENT

By WEBB MILLER
LONDON, Aug. 25 (U.P.)—Great Britain and Poland signed a mutual assistance pact today in the midst of the climactic phase of Europe's war of nerves.

With tension mounting to an almost unbearable pitch and with Nazi pressure against Poland increasing hourly as a result of numerous border clashes, British Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax and Polish Ambassador Count Edward Raczynski met at the foreign office and completed the formal alliance.

In effect, the pact made formal the pledges of defensive military support already given by Great Britain and France to Poland. But as a dramatic move in Europe's diplomatic struggle the sudden signing of the treaty was a counter-blow against the Nazi maneuvers, which included conclusion of a treaty with Soviet Russia.

"Force with Force"
It emphasized the British declaration that this government would support Poland with force.

The agreement consists of eight articles laying down the conditions under which the two countries would come to the assistance of each other and it replaces and gives formal effect to the provisional agreement reached during the visit of Polish Foreign Minister Josef Beck to London last spring.

The British foreign office issued a statement saying:

"It is a course of lively satisfaction to the British government that the Polish government has accepted the offer of assistance which it has made to Poland and that negotiations for the present agreement have been so speedily and satisfactorily concluded."

As the formal treaty with Poland was announced, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain went to Buckingham palace and informed King George of latest developments.

Climax Near
The climax, Londoners felt, was near. In Germany's dispute with Poland, possibly Sunday when Hitler was to deliver a speech at Tannenberg in East Prussia, possibly before.

British newspapers smashed the news of the President's appeal in extra editions.

The British government, armed now with extraordinary emergency powers, proceeded deliberately with its preparations for war.

The great home fleet, reinforced by the 133 ships of the fleet reserve, was ordered to be spread out to battle stations from the Orkney Islands north of Scotland to the coast of Norway and the Skagerrak, at the entrance to the Baltic.

Direct Movements
Admiralty orders flashed out over the radio, and movements of the British merchant marine ships were being commanded as far away as Australia.

Travelers reports were that the destroyers were escorted, later through the North Sea.

Crowds showed the national spirit. Crowds gathered in Whitehall late last night when parliament adjourned, and the early hours of the morning they sang "Rule, Britannia" as he entered his home.

HAZELTON
Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Boden, Knights Landing, Calif., are visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Pitt left Sunday for their home in Louisville. Mr. Pitt had been employed for several months at the Thornton drug store.

Mrs. Ruth Murphy left Monday for Spokane, Wash., where she will visit a sister, Mrs. Marie Clark, and then on to Twisp, Wash., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Fred Floyd.

Paul Snyder is erecting a residence on his lot, just west of the tractor-ages.

Mrs. Mary Tiller and Mrs. Helen Hill, Hooper, Colo., sisters of George Wylie and Rev. and Mrs. Paul Wylie, Kansas City, Kan., were week-end visitors at the George Wylie home. Mrs. Tiller had not seen her brother for 24 years.

ROY HALEY TOPS CONTEST FOR 4-H

BUHL, Aug. 25 (Special)—Roy Haley, Castleford, last year's winner, was again awarded the grand champion dairy showman title in boys' titling and showing competition at Buhl's third annual 4-H Achievement day.

The achievement event was awarded by 10 girls' clubs including two clubs from Twin Falls, one from Berger and one from Murtaugh. Five boys clubs of Buhl were entered in the judging.

Miss Margaret Hill of Twin Falls, home demonstration agent, was present and issued judging sheets to the girls' clubs. She described judging points in judging articles and later gave in detail reasons for placing certain articles in first, second and third places. No formal awards were made by the girls' exhibits which were placed merely for the purpose of practice judging. Stock Parade Arranged for County's Fair

A livestock parade Sept. 6 and 7 will be one of the many features of this year's Twin Falls county fair and rodeo. It was announced this afternoon by officials in charge of program arrangements.

The fair opens Sept. 6 with admissions free on that day. It continues through Sept. 6, 7, 8 and 9. Other special attractions will include the cavalcade of stunts on Sept. 6, 7 and 8. This features 21 acts and a two-hour "cavalcade of stunts" featuring the original death driver, Capt. Jerry Edwards.

On Sept. 9 at 1:30 p. m. in the state-wide "the battle royal" will be held on cash prizes and $500 in merchandise.

Day and night midway attractions feature Monte Young. Young was rated high man of the first team and third high of the entire contest. He was followed by Charley Wilson and Virgil Franzen.

Plane Thrills On Slate for Burley Event

Planes streaking across the Burley airport in upside down positions, cutting crazy patterns in the air, roaring in "smoking heli" and landing at high speeds, and delayed parachute jumps are a few of the thrills promised residents of the Magic Valley when the air show which will be presented at Burley Sept. 16 and 17 by Tex Rankin and his troupe.

The show will feature Rankin, undefeated aerial acrobatic champion of the world, in some of the most difficult air maneuvers ever presented. He is the originator of many of the stunts he displays and, in most cases, is the only man able to perform them.

40 Visiting Planes
Aside from the stunt planes being brought by Rankin there is expected to be a visiting planes present to add color to the show, which will be staged each afternoon.

During the two and one-half hour show Rankin will duplicate many of the stunts which have thrilled millions of motion picture enthusiasts in such spectacular pictures as "The Virginian," "Wings of War," "Test Pilot" and "Sky Giant."

His latest effort was "Only Angels Have Wings," in which he duels for all the flying world supposed to have been done by Richard Barthelmess.

Rankin has mastered 126 different air maneuvers and has selected 30 of this number to present at the all-Idaho show at Burley. Outstanding among these will be the flaming gyger, the square loop, the hesitation roll and the famous inverted flat spin. Rankin is the only man in the world who is purposely doing such a spin. In closing each afternoon's performance, Rankin comes down for a "fall spin" landing in front of the grandstand.

Another outstanding performer with the troupe is "Pete" Humphreys, who flies "Greatest Lightning." The Humphreys plane is only 12 feet long and has a wing spread of 19 feet. It is purposely doing such a spin. In closing each afternoon's performance, Rankin comes down for a "fall spin" landing in front of the grandstand.

George Bommer, America's youngest transport pilot, is featured in a comedy act of "how not to fly an airplane." Bud McCafferty, one of the nation's youngest and outstanding acrobatic performers, climbs to 5,000 feet, shuts off his motor and then spins, loops and spirals his plane to a landing.

Several other outstanding performers will be seen during the two-day show. Young, who was rated high man of the first team and third high of the entire contest, will be followed by Charley Wilson and Virgil Franzen.

Mervin Jagels of the second team was second high man from Buhl and high man of all the second team. He was followed by Lee Brager and Phil Blumman.
