

Roosevelt Has Choice of Neutrality Law or Special Session

PRESIDENT MAY CALL CONGRESS TO MAKE CHANGE

By Lyle C. Wilson

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—President Roosevelt's neutrality alterations in event of general European war today are acceptance of an act which would forbid export of munitions to all belligerents or a special session of congress to revise its terms.

He will broadcast to the nation tomorrow night to ally popular opinion with his peace-protective program which he expects will be approved by congress.

The technicalities of the beginning of hostilities might have some bearing on Mr. Roosevelt's action. A formal declaration of war by one power against another practically would assure invocation of the neutrality act with its embargo provisions against the export of arms, ammunition or implements of war to either belligerent. Hostilities without formal declaration could be ignored.

The act was invoked against Italy and Ethiopia in 1935. An embargo was enforced in 1937 against Spanish civil war belligerents. But in the Chinese-Japanese war the neutrality act was not invoked to prevent munitions shipments. There has been no declaration there despite hard fighting.

No German Penetration
Invocation of the existing neutrality act in event of general European war probably would penalize Great Britain and France but not Germany. That is because British and French fleets normally would control seas with their large fleets and would be able to tap American resources of implements of war.

Strategists assume that Germany would not attempt to penetrate the seas from the sea, as in 1914-18.

That was the nub of controversy in congress last session when Mr. Roosevelt sought to revise the act by eliminating the embargo clause. Other safeguards to neutrality would have remained. But as the administration would change it, the act would have permitted any belligerent to obtain American arms, ammunition and implements of war on a cash and carry basis. The cash and carry provision of the existing act expired last spring and Mr. Roosevelt wanted to restore it.

OTTAWA, Sept. 2 (AP)—Canada presented a counterproposal to public affairs and radio broadcast today under the war measures act invoked on the grounds that "displeased" Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King already had announced that Canada was "standing at the side of Britain" in the crisis and had summoned parliament for Thursday.

The war measures proclamation, published in an extra edition of the Canada Gazette, instructed "our loving subjects to take notice and consider themselves accordingly."

The government already has taken charge of merchant shipping, put the navy, navy and air service on "active service," declared military zones around important waterways, passed a law enabling it to regulate prices and profits of war materials, and is expected to regulate the sale of food and speculative wheat trading if the emergency continues.

Idaho Tennis Aces Upset Dope in State Tournament

Packard and Walker Take First Matches

BOISE, Sept. 2 (U.P.)—Although experts don't concede them a chance in their own state open tournament, Idaho tennis aces pulled major upsets at Julia Davis park in early rounds, and were hoping to spill the dope bucket again today.

The upsets started when a pair of youths with tennis reputations continued strictly to Idaho uncorred some brilliant play in waiting the second-seeded favorites in straight sets. The giant-killers were Arthur Walker and Bob Packard, Twin Falls youths affiliated with the Kimberly tennis club.

Straight Sets.
Walker and Packard trimmed Dan Freed and Walker Wallace, Salt Lake City, 6-4, 6-4. Many observers had doubted Freed-Wallace for the doubles championship.

M. Slack and Cleo Stinson, Provo, pulled a surprise when they ousted Lloyd Hager and Irvin Parker, Portland, 6-3, 6-4.

Another doubtful Idaho ace, Ed Gary of Pocatello, heavily pulled a single upset of minor proportions against Al Davis, Portland, a seeded singles star. Davis had plenty of trouble before he finally edged Gary 10-8 and 6-3 in the second round. Gary, in the first round, conquered Fred Mehner, San Francisco, brother of 1938 Champion Frank Mehner, 6-1, 6-3.

Mehner Wins.
Frank Mehner, gunning to regain his crown against odds provided by presence of Jack Tibbels, Los Angeles, nationally-ranked star and former Canadian champion, swept through two early round duels. He overcame Ervin Talbot, Boise, 6-0, 6-0, and Frank Bell, Boise, 6-1, 6-2. That took Mehner into the third round today.

Tibbels drew byes through the early rounds.

Both Walker and Packard triumphed in initial round matches, but both faced terrific assignments today. Walker whaled Joe Bush, Boise, 6-0, 6-3. Tibbels had to meet Lloyd Hager, Portland, in the second round.

Tough for Bob.
Packard faced all even tougher assignment in opinion of A. G. DeWitt. He was to meet Dan Freed, Salt Lake City, 6-1, 6-1. Champion, Lewisston, Mont., 6-3, 6-2, but now must tangle with Dan Freed, veteran star from Salt Lake City.

Don Chapman, Boise, and Don Baird, Boise, were both eliminated. Chapman bowed to Merley Slack, Salt Lake City, 6-1, 6-1. Chapman defaulted to Dan Freed, Bob Sessions, Boise, defaulted to Cleo Stinson, Salt Lake City.

Irene Martin, Boise, 1938, women's champion, advanced easily in her drive to regain the crown. She trimmed Sarah Walker, Boise, 6-1, 6-2.

In first round doubles, Walker and Packard won a thriller from Dan Freed and Walker Wallace, Salt Lake City, 6-3, 6-2.

FRANCE VOTES HUGE CREDITS TO PAY FOR CONFLICT

DALADIER STATES NATION READY TO GIVE POLAND AID

By RALPH HEINZEN

PARIS, Sept. 2 (UP)—The French chamber of deputies today unanimously voted supplementary war credits totaling $1,500,000,000 after Premier Edouard Daladier had declared:

"Our duty is to finish with all violence for good."

"France accepts the supreme sacrifice if necessary."

This is the first time so many spiritual and powerful forces in the world have come forth to save peace."

Daladier said that France stood ready to assist in any effort to fighting in Poland ceased but he said that if hostilities continued France and Britain would continue to fulfill their commitments to Poland.

Beds Join in Applause
Even the Communists joined in applause for Daladier.

He referred to President Roosevelt's efforts in behalf of peace, bringing more cheers from the deputies.

Daladier's declaration to the chamber, which had rejected proposals to convene secretly, followed a speech by Vice-Premier Edouard Herriot, who asserted that the fate of France is a new threat of German aggression.

Daladier made it clear that France and Britain are ready to go to Poland's aid.

He said that if hostilities ceased he said that France and Britain cannot stand by and watch the destruction of a friendly people. This is not a German-Polish fight but another step, on German aggression.

Daladier, as Herriot, reviewed the fate of Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Actions Count
"It is Hitler's act that count, not his words," Daladier said. "Poland is the victim of most unjust aggression."

In paying the way for Daladier's speech, Herriot attacked the non-aggression pact signed last month by Germany and Soviet Russia.

The government which placed at the head of its program a fight against aggression, has just signed with a specialist in aggression a pact which assures the reproduction of every right-minded person," Herriot said.

Daladier said that the British and French ambassadors to Berlin told Foreign Secretary Ribbentrop that Hitler's speech before the Reichstag was a declaration of war.

He said that the British and French governments are ready to attack Poland.

BORAH OPPOSES NEUTRAL CHANGE

POLAND SPRING, Me., Sept. 2 (UP)—American soldiers would follow American guns into the trenches if the arms embargo provisions of the neutrality act were repealed, Sen. William E. Borah, R., Ida., asserted today.

Discussing the European crisis at his vacation retreat here, the ranking minority member of the senate foreign relations committee said:

"We cannot enter the struggle in this way and stay out in it. If we could furnish arms to one side, as has been proposed, we would be in it through all the consequences of war. We would have taken part in it and we would go through it."

He said that the demands of that side called on him to send our boys into the slaughter of Europe to save "democracy."

This impressive exhibit by the Burley Grange won first prize in the community displays at the current Cassia county fair and Oregon Trail stamper.

BEDSPREAD, SPINNING WHEEL WIN IN ANTIQUES DIVISION

BURLEY, Sept. 2 (Special)—Unusually among the displays at Cassia county fair this year was the large number of interesting antiques, one of the power features for the fair. First prize went to Mrs. Rose Youmans, who entered a hand-spun, dyed, woven and designed bedspread in blue and white, made about 100 years ago by her grandparents. Second prize was awarded to Mrs. Wesley Sizemore for an old-fashioned 90-year-old spinning wheel which was the property of her maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Rebecca Ann Sizemore, who was born in Kentucky, Dec. 8, 1808, and died in 1885. Other items of interest were a hand-made cradle entered by Mrs. J. K. McBride.

An attractive fish-shaped vase, a wedding gift in 1883 to Mr. and Mrs. J. Jones in Wales, claimed considerable comment. One of the owners lived to be 100 years of age, and the other to be 95 years. Mrs. John Ernest, 18-year-old daughter of the owners.

Many old quilts were entered in the display, and also a baby shirt made 62 years ago. The woman making it is now 83 years old. She made it for her first-born son, who now lives in Burley and is 62 years old.

Big Excursion Will Come to Lodge Resort

SUN VALLEY, Sept. 2 (Special)—Sun Valley lodge, the de luxe summer sports center of the west, will be the destination of a friendly, long and longest excursion picnic party when 500 prominent business men and their families charter two special Union Pacific luxury trains at Chicago for a gay cross country tour and a week of whirlwind sports in Idaho's Swatow country beginning Monday morning, Sept. 4, and ending at midnight Saturday, Sept. 9.

Chicago will furnish 122 members of the party; New York, 21; Omaha, 17; Cleveland, 10; Kansas City, 8; Detroit, 7; and Pittsburgh, 6. Practically all business leaders represented are connected with the manufacturing of railroad equipment.

Second Annual Trip
This is the second annual expedition of the same group, the first of which was the group's first, currently successful sports carnival at Sun Valley during the week following Labor day in 1938. At that time, 181 persons took part; this time the roll has jumped 25 per cent.

The week's sports, partly scheduled but for the most part entirely up to the individuals, include, in the gamut from taking saddle excursions into the surrounding mountain wilderness, the wildest in the west, to ice skating on the Sun Valley summer ice plaza, an open-to-the-sky skating rink 60 feet wide by 120 feet long. In between are bridge path riding, golf, trout fishing, skeet and trap shooting, horseback riding, tennis, archery and animated social activities in the dining terraces provided by Sun Valley Village. The banquet centered for opportunity and convenience of the swank lodge and the rambling, informal Challenge Inn, old world style.

Trophies in practically every activity there is a final tournament during the last two days of the week, where even dead-eye horseshoe pitchers are awarded lavish trophies purchased out of a "kitty" made up of a voluntary assessment per head on the entire group.

The special trains, arriving at 8 a. m. Monday at Ketchikan, will be met by a band of young cowboys, exhorting stage coaches and carriages of the past era of Idaho history. The send-off Saturday night is planned to be much the same, but late may decree otherwise. Last year the wives in the party staged a "send-off" in the hotel dining room at the final dinner and refused to leave for the waiting trains. The trains departed two hours late as a result.
