Air Planes, Destroyers Ordered to Patrol U.S. Coast

NO CENSORSHIP SCHEDULED FOR PRESS OR RADIO

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt today ordered a patrol by destroyers, coast guard vessels and airplanes extending several hundred miles off the American coastline. The patrol is to gather information on any activities of belligerent vessels in a step to protect U. S. neutrality in the European war.

The patrol was begun immediately.

Two destroyers and two coast guard cutters have left their bases to scout the Atlantic Ocean off the northeastern American coast.

No Censorship

White House Secretary Stephen T. Early disclosed the President's order. He said that many of the 116 destroyers which have been laid up since the World war will be recommissioned and used for the work.

President Roosevelt does not contemplate any censorship of press or radio for the present, at least, Early also said.

Meanwhile the President is developing a far-reaching emergency defense program which will be ready to go into effect at any time.

His program is part of the "ever ready" policy which has been in effect since the beginning of the year.

The President is changing the neutrality laws to be accomplished under the new ready to go policy. The President is eager for a special session than has been anticipated.

Rodeo Chief Attraction Tonight as Fair Celebrates 'Twin Falls Day'

WEATHER HELPS CUT ATTENDANCE

FILER FAIRGROUNDS, Sept. 6 (Special)—Climax of Twin Falls day at the county fair will be the opening of the fair proper at 8 p. m. before expected record crowds, said Tom Parks, manager.

J. Amos of Buhl, in charge of ticket sales, said the crowd was drifting in slowly this morning, but that he was prepared to handle an expected rush of business following the noon hour when business establishments in Twin Falls were scheduled to close their doors at 1 p. m. At noon it was reported that the morning crowd was the smallest ever recorded on Twin Falls day.

Cold weather was believed to have kept many residents of Twin Falls away from the fairgrounds.

But regardless of the size of the crowd this morning, it is almost a certainty that grandstands will be packed to the rafters tonight for the first performance of the county fair rodeo. Persons in charge of the sale of reserved seat tickets for the rodeo said an unprecedented number had been sold and a long line was waiting at the ticket window.

For school children and bankers Twin Falls day at the fair was just another day. Neither took time off. No schools were dismissed in Twin Falls. The banks remained open until 3 p. m. regular closing time.

City Officials Close

City officials anticipated the spirit of the fair and the doors at 1 p. m., but county officials remained open, although many employees taking in the fair.

Buhl and west end will be observed at the fair tomorrow, with at least half of Buhl's stores reporting they would close, and others undecided.

Judging of livestock exhibits was first underway this afternoon.

Highlights of last night's program was the exhibition of marching and playing by the Twin Falls Boy Scouts and the Buhl band.

LATE FLASHES

LONDON, Portugal, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—The newspaper Diaria Noticias reported today that the American air liner, Yankee Clipper, had picked up at 3 p. m. yesterday an SOS from the British steamer Royal Scot, asking urgent aid because it had been torpedoed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Commander R. S. Lweld today directed inspectors of the bureau of marine inspection and navigation to be on the alert for submersibles and sabotage on any vessels leaving American ports.

LONDON, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Great Britain has notified the United States, France, Russia and Poland that she is denouncing the naval disarmament treaties which limited the size of warships and gun calibers. It was announced officially today.

BERLIN, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—The high command announced today that German troops, smashing forward on four fronts, were closing in on Warsaw and had captured the important city of Cracow in southern Poland.

BERLIN, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—The Berlin radio announced today that German troops were advancing rapidly upon Warsaw from the north.

FRENCH PLANES, TANKS ADVANCE

PARIS, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Unofficial dispatches reaching Paris today reported a French tank advance toward Saarbrücken and raids by 300 allied planes on the Rhineland industrial sector. These developments were not mentioned specifically in the war communications, which merely reported advances.

A dispatch from Luxembourg said the French forces, supported by tanks, had "penetrated" the German lines in the direction of Luxembourg, which is in the Saar basin on the left bank of the Moselle.

The Paris Midi reported that allied (presumably French and British) planes heavily bombed the German industrial area in the Rhineland, principally around Aachen. It was unmentioned here that 300 planes took part in the bombardments.

In London, it was disclosed that British airplanes had dropped 3,000,000 more propaganda pamphlets criticizing Adolf Hitler on the Ruhr district of Germany.

Premier Edouard Daladier conferred with Vice-Premier Raymond Laval, Minister of War, Georges Bonnet, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and other officials.

TAX LIST SHOWS GAINS, SLASHES

Certification of 1939 levies by taxing units in Twin Falls county to date shows some increases and some reductions, according to County Auditor Walter C. Munger.

All independent and common school districts have certified their levies. The levies for the village have none and none of the village districts.

Needed at Once

Certification of the 1939 levy should be submitted to the board of county commissioners, by way of the county auditor, immediately in order to allow time for setting of figures in place to hand commencing by deadline the third Monday of this month, Deputy Auditor J. A. Parsons said this afternoon.

The board must approve all levies before they become official, according to Munger, and valuation and the levy set.

Four of the seven cities and villages in the county have submitted their levy certification, showing one increase, one reduction and two unchanged. As previously announced, Twin Falls levies increased to $2.00 per $100 assessed valuation, with the increase due entirely to library bonds and the shift by which water works receipts moved from the general fund into the waterworks special fund. Total last year was $2.75.

Division of the 1939 Twin Falls levies shows $1.50 for general fund, and $2.25 for others.

Buhl city levy declined sharply.

Germans Drive for Quick Polish Crush

By FREDERICK KUH
LONDON, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Military men here say Adolf Hitler's strategy in the European war is to drive his armies in a series of "all out" thrusts in the east, hoping to crush the Polish army before French-British pressure on the western front can become effective.

Thus far the success of the "lightning war" seems unquestioned, from information available from both sides on the eastern front, military authorities consider that the Poles have done extremely well in blocking the tempo of the German advance in the light of their strategic disadvantage at the beginning of the war.

It started with the German half encircling Poland from the Baltic to Slovakia.

No Collapse Indication

Present indications are that the German general staff's idea of smashing Polish resistance within two or three weeks seems destined to fail.

There has not been the slightest indication of collapse of the Polish army. On the contrary, they are carefully withdrawing their main forces within their neutrally strategic defense east of the Vistula and Bug rivers.

Advances Not Rapid

The German armies thrusting from the south and west are making a main effort to cut off the great industrial centers in the region of Cracow, but they have not made rapid progress as the German military leaders counted on before the war.

Meanwhile, the British, by throwing 800,000 propaganda leaflets over the German area where disaffection might be expected, are trying to sap German morale at home.

Wheat, Beans Soar Upward

Bull climaxed on the levels of the "war boom." Twin Falls prices of wheat climbed another five cents today to reach 50 cents.

Upward trend of great southern beans—bringing smiles to faces of ranchers throughout the Magic Valley—showed local dealers quipping $2.75 for No. 1 and $2.65 for No. 2. Yesterday's high was $2.40 and $2.30.

PROHIBITIVE ZONE

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Premier Mitchell C. Hepburn said today he would ask the federal government to create a prohibitive zone for air travel over the hydro-electric plants here.

SWISS BORDER CLOSED

ZURICH, Switzerland, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—French military authorities have closed the Franco-Swiss border from Basel to Geneva, the Swiss telegraph agency announced today.

Star Witness Gets Summons

NEW ULM, Minn., Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Stanley Morton, alias "Larry Doyle," sought as a key witness in the Harry Bridges deportation case, arrived at San Francisco, accepted a summons and agreed to testify.

Doyle, who admitted following labor leader Bridges for more than two years and making telephone records of his conversations, had been sought as a witness since the start of the deportation hearing several weeks ago.

He plans to be back at work here Monday morning.

It was revealed that the western labor leader, who has been in the United States since the deportation hearing was planned to begin about Oct. 1, while not definitely cancelled, it becoming increasingly uncertain.

Polish Leaders Flee Capital as Nazis Close in

Air Raid On British Soil Fails

By WEBB MILLER
LONDON, Sept. 6 (U.P.)—Nazi warplanes struck at England today but turned back before a blast of anti-aircraft fire and an aerial counter attack by royal air force fighting planes.

The ministry of information announced that the "enemy aircraft" did not penetrate our defenses at any point and no damage has been reported.

The air raid alarm sent Londoners and thousands of others scurrying underground at 6:42 a. m. As they ran for shelter the people could see the silver tubes of London's balloon barrage defenses hanging against a blue, windless sky.

Then gunfire broke out toward the east and south. The ministry said a fleet of Nazi planes heading for the naval center was met by a curtain of anti-aircraft fire that forced them to turn back.

Alarm Sounds

The air raid alarm sounded for Southend, at the mouth of the Thames river opposite Chatham, at 6:40 a. m. (1:40 a. m. EDT) but apparently no enemy raiders were able to cross the Thames.

The attacking planes appeared to have been headed for Chatham, which lies about 30 miles east of London on the south bank of the Thames. Presumably the enemy aircraft crossed a short distance north of the river from the direction of Belgium or Holland.

Gunfire and heavy earth shocks also were reported from the east and west of London, but no German planes were seen.

England Turns Back Invading Airplanes

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign News Editor
Two powerful Nazi armies drove toward Warsaw today with artillery, mechanized troops and airplanes.

The Polish capital was being evacuated and the government moved southeastward as a great battle developed on the banks of the Vistula.

France, fighting off two more air raids early this morning, reported her troops advancing against German forces in the Rhineland, presumably in the Moselle sector where Luxembourg reported cannonading was heard.

Great Britain opened a campaign against Nazi submarines in the North sea, the English channel and along the Atlantic coastal areas, reporting warships had attacked several U-boats. Three German ships were sunk and the British lost a merchant vessel—the Bosnia, which was shelled by a submarine.

Air Fleet Attacked Fails

Germany's air fleet failed in its first attack on England but on the Polish front Nazi armed forces claimed that they captured the city of Cracow and tightened a semi-circle of guns around Warsaw.

From Paris came unofficial reports that the French advance against Germany's Rhineland fortifications had moved forward toward Saarbrücken, and that 300 allied planes had bombed Nazi industrial sectors.

The German high command reported their mechanized troops had taken the industrial center of Cracow without serious resistance and pushed swiftly on for a distance of 30 miles. The advance past Cracow indicated the Germans were either trying to cut off the Polish government's retreat from Warsaw or to bring another supporting column up from the south to help in the direct attack on the beleaguered capital.

Army Smashes Forward

Still another Nazi army smashed forward to within 25 miles of Lodz, which is southwest of Warsaw, while the German army moving southward from East Prussia was only 31 miles from the Polish capital.

The Nazi air thrust at England was the most spectacular development of the fourth day of general warfare in Europe.

Twenty German bombers flashed across the North sea at dawn, heading up the Thames river toward the British naval dockyards at Chatham and the vast metropolitan area of London beyond.

County Fair "Babies"

Air raid sirens wailed in London and nearby areas. The silver balloon barrage defending London swung against a windless sky.

Then, along the coast, the first line of air defense opened up, and little airplane fighting craft charged the invading fleet. One German craft was believed downed. A British announcement said two British planes were disabled.

But the German fleet turned back and "did not penetrate our defenses at any point," the ministry of information announced.

The British government, which mysteriously held up news dispatches for several hours during the night, set up a ministry of economic warfare to stamp down a blockade on German supplies similar to the blockade that eventually won the World war. Officials predicted that the paralyzing effort would be complete within a few weeks.

Flame Bomb Berlet

Polish general staff announcements said that 30 Polish airplanes bombed Berlin, but the Nazi government insisted that no raiding planes had yet reached its capital.

French newspaper dispatches reported that the allied army had captured the German town of Metz, a strategic industrial sector, especially Rheims and Metz.

Italy indicated she would cling to her neutral stance as long as possible and her business was booming as a result of the war.

The swift drive by German mechanized troops, supported by armor, the heart of Poland expressed the determination of Adolf Hitler to "lightning" was in the night he might be seen with German troops with German troops.

Two of 18 Twin Falls county fair babies are held by Lydia M. Montgomery, of 348 South Park, Twin Falls. Robert Roberts of Blackfoot entered a new in the swimmer dike at the fair. The night before the fair opened he found 14 additional pigs in the pen. Two have been killed when visitors around the mother who stepped on her offspring. (Evening Times Photo)

NAZI TROOPS

GERMANS CLAIM NO AIR ATTACKS MADE ON BERLIN

By FREDERICK QUENNER
BERLIN, Sept. 6 (Special).—The war ministry announced today that German troops were sweeping into Poland and from four fronts, that "100 of thousands" of German troops were taken in the corridor and that three cities in the south were in flames after German air raids.

"No communication was there were no air attacks on any part of German territory on Sept. 6."

The British government announced that Berlin had been subjected to an air raid at 8 a. m. today, Sept. 6.

General advances reported general advances into Poland from East Prussia on the north, the corridor on the northwest, from Silesia on the southwest and from the south.

It was announced that Bromberg, a city in the corridor, and Kielce, industrial center 60 miles south of Warsaw, had been occupied and that German troops were now in the corridor.

Germany previously had announced capture of 15,000 Polish troops in the corridor.

Western Front Quiet
The communiqué said that the western front was quiet.

The reports of major victories in Poland were interpreted, however, with complaints that Polish civilians had joined in widespread guerrilla fighting.

D. N. B., official German news agency, said the civilians had been "armed from the beginning and prepared for a 'private' war with individual German units," and other sources reported that guerrillas had been sent to Poland to stir up forces and that all civilian males capable of bearing arms were being rounded up in German-occupied areas and marched to city halls for detention.

There was little doubt felt here that the German army was fast driving Poland to submission, but even the most optimistic estimated it would take another four or five weeks to do it.

P. F. A. ENDORSES SCHOOL NURSING

JEROME, Sept. 6 (Special).—At the meeting of the executive board of the Jerome Parent-Teachers association Friday at the home of the president, Mrs. W. G. Phoenix, the members voted to favor the retention of the Jerome county public health nursing service.

It was announced that a meeting had been called by the board of county commissioners for Thursday, Sept. 14, at 2 p. m. in the new Jerome county courthouse in Jerome.

Other business of the board included plans for the teachers' reception at Washington grade school recreation hall, Thursday at 8 p. m.

Program, Mrs. J. T. Stille, chairman; Mrs. Sam Both Mrs. W. F. Wills and Mrs. M. F. Sheldon; directors, Mrs. Alois Hof, Mrs. J. L. Main Shoun and Mrs. A. L. Woodhead; refreshments, Mrs. C. E. LaPorter and Mrs. A. D. McMahon.

Members also decided to hold separate meetings for parents of children attending the training camp, a lot of costly experimenting and fumbling had to be done before the proper system was set up.

The contrast between 1918 and 1939 could be greater than the contrast in America's readiness to mobilize her industry for war. Today the most detailed plans exist and the most elaborate organizations are ready to spring into being—almost at the drop of a hat.

It was announced that for the room having the largest attendance of parents for any one meeting, a first prize of $1 would be given. Second prize will be a traveling picture.

TRIAL SEPT. 18 ON FRAUD CLAIM

BOISE, Sept. 6 (Special).—Trial of J. E. Bass and Joseph George Bass, brothers arrested recently in Oakland, Calif., and returned here to face charges of mail fraud conspiracy, today was set for Sept. 18 in federal district court.

The men allegedly misrepresented the value of the 100-Bixing company stock to Zita Heger of Twin Falls. They reportedly carried on "hot" sales of mail fraud operations throughout the west.

Taxpayers Given Until Dec. 23rd

JEROME, Sept. 6 (Special).—Earl P. Kennedy, Jerome county treasurer, announced this week that 387 taxpayers who have not paid their taxes have been mailed out from his office.

Taxpayers receiving such notices have until Dec. 23, 1939 to pay up the year before such tax debts will be issued. Before such date, Kennedy states that it will be necessary for the taxpayer to pay only the year of 1934. However, he said that only after the dead has been issued to the county, all taxes assessed against the property must be paid in order to redeem it.

The newly enacted tax law states that the person who pays the current year and the oldest year is entitled to interest of six per cent on the oldest year and eight per cent on the 1938 taxes and four per cent on any years prior to 1938. Kennedy said that this will enable many citizens to pay the back taxes on their property at this time. He further concluded that many taxpayers are taking advantage of this reduced interest rate before the 1939 taxes are assessed, as it will then be necessary to pay the first half of the current year's tax in order to be eligible for the reduced interest rates.

U. S. Set to Mobilize Industry At Moment Nation Goes to War

Second of four Cation stories on America's position in the current war crisis.

By BRUCE CATTON
Evening Times Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—When the world war began (the first world war, that was), the United States was a rich industrial nation, but its industry was not geared to war.

It had a tremendous industrial machine, but the whole thing was unorganized—not geared to the single objective of winning the war. It could produce better, faster, but not according to plan.

And so when America did go to war, and found that its whole domestic life had to be run by a system as exact and inelastic as the military machine of the training camp, a lot of costly experimenting and fumbling had to be done before the proper system was set up.

'Big Sister' Movement Launched By High School Girls' League

"May I help you? Oh, that room is on the second floor."
"So your mother wants you to take Latin and you can't see why? In the first place, it helps you do much with your English grammar. And then later years, you're able to figure out a lot of words for yourself, without having to run to the dictionary every time you hear a new word. You'd be surprised how often your high school Latin turns out to be advantageous in years to come."
"Wouldn't you like to meet Helen? She has just moved into your neighborhood, and I'm sure it would be pleasant for both of you to have company on your way to lunch."

The New Order
Such conversations were typical yesterday and today at the Twin Falls high school as the "big sister" movement was inaugurated at the institution for the first time, under the sponsorship of the Girls' League, of which Mrs. Rose M. North, dean of girls, is adviser.
It is designed to help in the orientation of the new sophomore girls. Miss Helen Miller is sponsor of the senior girls' league, and Miss Josephine Throckmorton is sponsor of the sophomore unit. To familiarize the seniors with the plan, which is successfully carried out in numerous high schools and colleges throughout the country, the girls of the class of 1940 attended an assembly session yesterday, presided over by Miss Jane Douglas, Girls' League president.

Each high school girl has been assigned a "big sister," some girls in the senior class who will make her feel welcome at the school, who will help her not only with her studies, but also in solving the problems incident to the first weeks of high school life.
Each senior will make opportunities to talk over matters with her "little sister," and to help her in making both school and social adjustments. Thus will bonds of friendship be established between the older and younger girls of the school, and both groups will benefit, according to Mrs. North.

Movement Explained
Miss Louise Kregel, member of the Twin Falls high school senior class of 1935, and a graduate last spring from Western college, Oxford, O., described in detail how the "big sister" movement is carried out at her school.
Miss Douglas appointed Miss Mary Frances Baker, Miss Joyce Miller, Miss Joyce Kelley, Miss Irma Goodnight, Miss Ariene Porter and Miss Margaret Van Engelen in charge of the plan at the local school.

Domesticity Is Dramatized in Antique Display

Like a setting for a play of 100 or more years ago is the exhibit in the antique department at the Twin Falls county fair. Yesterday Mrs. Rupert Williamson described in detail the bedroom and living room, and today she tells of the dining room and kitchen furnishings.
The dining room suite is a treasure, more than 100 years old. The chairs are cushioned with red plush, and a matching sideboard supports many old-fashioned casters, plates, dishes, and a blue printed platter more than 200 years old. Old silverware that dates back to 1822 is in one of the drawers. Some handsome dinner napkins made in 1800 are on display.

Mother's Day Founder
Also displayed are some old water glasses, at least 90 years old, that were used at the wedding of Sophronia Catterall and William Brown in Virginia 65 years ago. The bridemaid at this wedding was the woman who founded Mother's Day.
A serving table that was owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler, who pioneered in Superior, Neb., later was given to their son, a pioneer in the Clover tract, is displayed, as is a set of Dresden china dishes, an old iron, and a wooden churn over 100 years old, which was used for milk churning, and a wooden bowl with the date 1872 all help to tell the kitchen story.

Complimentary Kitchen
The kitchen has a huge fireplace with glowing coals. Dinner must be about ready to serve for the food is cooking in the kitchen. A large skillet and a large skillet and a large skillet are ready for use. An old wooden chopping board, a wooden coffee grinder, an old iron, and a wooden bowl with the date 1872 all help to tell the kitchen story.

An old turkey red checked tablecloth, a large wooden bowl, a wooden churn over 100 years old, which was used for milk churning, and a wooden bowl with the date 1872 all help to tell the kitchen story.

SPORTS TO 5 FULL GAMES

Walters Pitches Reds to 3-1 Win Over Cards

NEW YORK, Sept. 4 (U.P.)—There was some justification today for believing that the Cincinnati Reds were within striking distance of their first pennant in 20 years.

The Reds won a highly important battle yesterday, battling 10 innings to beat the runner-up Cardinals, 3-1. That may easily turn out to be the decisive victory of the campaign. It increased their lead to five games—six on the all-important losing side.

With one out in the 10th, Freddy Boudary, ex-Cardinal, started the Reds' winning surge with a single to center. When King fumbled he raced to second. Frey was passed and Walters slipped a single to center, scoring Boudary and sending Frey to third. Werber forced Walters at second. Brown to S. Martin Frey scoring on the play.

The interborough battle between the Giants and Dodgers continued the half-game hold on fourth place by rattling the Phillies for a 6-0 victory.

Brooklyn stung the Bees 3-2, with Hugh Casey pitching a six-hitter. It was Casey's fifth straight and 11th of the year.

Battling to hold third place in the American league, the White Sox turned over the Indians 4-2, and now lead the tribe by three games.

The fifth-place Tigers moved within one game of the fourth-place Browns when they licked the Browns, 4-2. Hank Greenberg's 25th homer broke a 2-0 tie in the eighth to clinch the victory.

Stars Defeat Solons in Close Battle
(By United Press)
Hollywood needed out Sacramento 2 to 1 last night behind the four-hit pitching of Lou Tietz in the only Pacific Coast league game played. The other teams were traveling. Bill Cissell and Bill Brandt beat the two star aces, both of Johnny Hubbell in the fifth and seventh innings. Er Shertzer, who pitched the eighth frame for the Solons, gave up three hits but amply fielding prevented further scoring.

Statistics released today showed Dom Delandressano, San Diego's ace pitcher, gave up the Chicago Cubs next spring, still leading the hitters with a mark of 358.

Julio Bonetti of Los Angeles, also a pitcher, continued to lead the pitchers with 18 wins and five defeats.

Three Pairs to Hold Spotlight in Golf Meet
CHICAGO, Sept. 4 (U.P.)—When Willie Turnesa, defending champion, and 100 contenders start medal play Sept. 11 in the 43rd U. S. amateur golf championship at the Glenview North Shore club, these three pairings will command most attention: Johnny Goodman of Omaha, Neb., and C. Ross Bonville of London, Ont.; Gene Somerville of London, Ont. in the 1922 final, but Goodman won the 23 U. S. open over the same North Shore course, and took the amateur title in '37.

(2) Charlie Yates of Atlanta, Ga., and Dick Chapman of Greenwich, Conn. Yates, British amateur champion in '33, tied for the honors in the sectional qualifications in which 33 completed on Aug. 29. He shot 138. Chapman, who lost to Pat Abbott in the semi-finals last year, registered a 143 in the final to lead the New York district qualifiers. This was seven strokes better than his nearest rival.

(3) Pat Abbott of Pasadena, Calif., finalist last year, and John W. Fischer of Fort Thomas, Ky., champion in '30.

Chosen by Seattle Rainiers

Picked as their choice of the Twin Falls Cowboys, George Farrell, Stanford University graduate, will work out with the Seattle Rainiers in the spring of 1940 and attempt to break into the Coast league club.

Rainiers Pick Farrell From Cowboy Squad
George Farrell, the third-sacker who came to the Twin Falls Cowboys from Stanford university when Manager Eddie Leishman was having trouble filling that spot in spring training, today had been selected by the Seattle Rainiers as their pick of the Twin Falls team and he will report to the Coast league club in the spring.

Pulling some of the most unusual fielding plays of the league season, Farrell developed in the last two months as one of the best clutch hitters. While he missed a few easy ones, he also came through in the pinch with seemingly impossible plays to cut down rallies by the opposition. He was also a big factor in the great double-play combination of the Twin Falls infield that kept the local club at or near the top in that department from the start of the season.

The Rainiers get Farrell as payment for the use of Junior McNamee and Mike Blum during the season. They had their choice and took the fighting third-sacker over all other members on the club.

He will not report to the Coast league leaders until the 1940 spring when he may be tried out by the Rainiers, or farm out to a club in their classification than the Class C level. It is possible that if he doesn't make the grade with Seattle next year he may end up in Spokane where he would again play under Leishman, who is now managing the Indians of the Western International league.

During the season Farrell hit a respectable .317 on 142 hits in 454 trips to the plate. He drove in over 80 runs and 34 home runs, two triples and 10 home runs.

Junior McNamee Ends Play; Goes to Seattle
Joe (Junior) McNamee, hero of many a Twin Falls and south Idaho baseball fan, today packed his suitcase and headed for his home town of Seattle.

The husky Twin Falls catcher and outfielder, injured a month ago by a batter ball, and then hurt again two weeks later when he crashed into the outfield while chasing a home run ball, is through with baseball for the season and the chances are that he will never see Twin Falls again as a player, but that he wouldn't like to come back.

Just Too Good
But the 19-year-old hero is just too good for Class C league baseball and the chances are that he will stick with Seattle in the 1940 season—at least as a reserve catcher. He is the property of the Rainiers and they loaned him out to Twin Falls for the year to gain experience.

As he packed his bags, Junior was reluctant to leave.

Coaches, School Heads Meet Here Saturday

Coaches and school heads from nearly every school of any size in south central Idaho will convene here on Saturday afternoon, it has been announced today by Harold Robey, Jerome, secretary of the South Central Idaho Athletic association.

The officials will gather in room 201 of the Twin Falls high school at 2:30 p. m., with members of both Class A and Class B schools in attendance at the general meeting, which will be presided over by Supt. J. J. Buchholz of Glenns Ferry, president of the association.

At the meeting schedules will be drawn up for the season and arrangements will be made to conduct training schools for officials. Three groups of officials will be elected: Association, Class A and Class B.

Schedule Drafting
Drafting of schedules appears to be a complicated job this year as at least seven leagues are expected to be in competition. The Big-Six, of which Twin Falls is the only member from this area, has completed its schedule-drafting, however, and that will take no time.

However, the loop that was the Big Six last year, and which will now be renamed the Big Seven, with Burley dropping from the big school competition, will again make a schedule for the third consecutive year.

In the new Big Seven will be Burley, Buhl, Piller, Jerome, Rupert, Gooding and Caldwell. Buhl won championship last year.

Next in line will be the Little Four—which may be increased to the "Little Five" if rumors that Kimberly will sponsor an 11-man team this year materialize. Teams in the league are Glenns Ferry, Wendell, Shoshone and Halley.

Class B League
In the Class B league, for which no championship has been awarded the past year, 10 or 12 teams will compete. These include Declo, Fairfield, Hagerman, Albion, Dietrich, Twin Falls, Gooding, Jaycees, Jant River, Richfield, Burley, Jayvees, and possibly Rupert and Jerome Jayvees.

In the two-division six-man league last year were 11 teams. In the southern section were Kimberly (champion), Hansen, Castledale, Eden, Murrah, Hagerman, Acquia. In the northern division were King Hill, Brunau, Grandview and Hamman.

A new league has been formed at Rupert, and this loop will include teams from Rupert, Paul, Acquia and Hayburn to compete in a six-man loop.

POPE WILL ISSUE ANOTHER APPEAL

VATICAN CITY, Sept. 6 (UP)—A high Vatican authority has confirmed that Pope Pius XII is contemplating a new appeal for humanitarian warfare.

It was understood that he is working on a speech, with the collaboration of his secretary of state, Luigi Cardinal Maglione, in which he will ask the faithful to pray that the belligerents may forbid bombing of open cities and chemical warfare, and treat prisoners humanely.

It was expected that the Pope would address his appeal to the world on the occasion of the presentation, probably before the end of the week, of ambassadorial credentials by Adrien-Nicéphore, new Belgian envoy.

ENGLAND STARTS DRIVE ON 'SUBS'

LONDON, Sept. 6 (UP)—British warships have started a submarine hunt in an attempt to clear the North sea, the English channel and the European Atlantic of German U-boats. It was disclosed today.

The ministry of information announced that British warships had attacked German submarines at several places in the initial phase of the hunt.

It was made known that three German ships which might have been converted into armed commerce raiders had been destroyed somewhere in the Atlantic and that the safety of their crews had been provided for.

The information ministry admitted that several British merchantmen had been attacked or sunk by German submarines.

A Danish fishing boat was reported sunk by a German mine, presumably in the Baltic.
