

POLE RESISTANCE ENDELS, SAY NAZI LEADERS Deny Nazi Capture of Warsaw

GERMANS PUSHED BACK FROM CITY, REPORT ASSERTS

By DAN CAMPBELL
LONDON, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The Polish embassy announced at 11 a. m. today (3 a. m. M.S.T.) that German reports of the fall of Warsaw were "absolutely false—an invention."

"Warsaw still is going all right," the embassy announced. "The Germans have been pushed back north of the city and at the moment the threat to the capital is less acute than it was yesterday."

(The German army high command had announced in Berlin that German troops "entered" Warsaw from the southwest at 11 p. m. and proceeded to the center of the city. It said it would "occupy" the city today.)

The embassy here said: "All radio stations in Warsaw are broadcasting without interruption. A number of people in the embassy at this moment are listening to Warsaw broadcasts. The Germans claim to have destroyed bridges over the Vistula river at Warsaw but the fact is no bridge has been struck. Yesterday 120,000 people were employed digging trenches, preparing defenses for defense of the capital. All shops were open yesterday and communications with the city were normal, as also was lighting."

Five Attacks
It was recalled that during the World war, German troops drove almost to the gates of Warsaw three times and were hurled back every time. The fifth attack, in August, 1914, a year after the war started, was successful.

The embassy announcement emphasized a flight of military planes from the city. It said that a series of attacks by a German plane in Warsaw were repulsed. The German plane was shot down by Polish anti-aircraft fire.

The announcer was speaking in Polish but with a thick German accent, and had been warning residents of Warsaw that the Germans were upon them. He had just finished saying that German troops were moving into Warsaw, that half the Polish army had surrendered and that Germans would take over the entire city today, when there came the explosion, exclamation and silence.

He had been on the air since 2 a. m., warning people of Warsaw to stay off the streets Saturday and "avoid the danger of bullets and shells."

The warnings had been interspersed with symphonic music.

Although the broadcast was on Warsaw, it was heard in Europe that it was originating elsewhere.

Won't Attack

BERLIN, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The German high command today denied reports that German troops had entered Warsaw from the southwest at 11 p. m. and proceeded to the center of the city. It said it would "occupy" the city today.

LATE FLASHES

—BERLIN, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The Germans have driven the Poles back across the Narew river and have reached Wyskow on the Bug river, 30 miles northeast of Warsaw, the high command asserted today.

BUDAPEST, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The Warsaw radio station tonight announced that the city was under heavy bombardment but that German troops had not entered.

"Warsaw will be defended to the last drop of blood," the radio announcer said.

BERLIN, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—Three French scouting planes were shot down by German anti-aircraft fire today, an army announcement said.

The scout planes shot down today were part of a French squadron which attempted to reconnoiter over German territory, the army said.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The French liner Ile de France, its position a mystery until it appeared off the harbor, docked today with 1,777 passengers—400 above normal capacity—after a voyage from Europe marked by frequent submarine scares.

GERMAN BOMBERS BURN POLISH TOWN; KILL 30

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE, Jr.
BUCHAREST, Rumania, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—On the road from Warsaw to the Rumanian border there is a little market town called Tomaszow, and today half of it is in ashes and 30 of its inhabitants lie dead.

The town and the dead—including the village doctor—are the victims of a German air raid against a village that seemed to be of no military value whatever.

I rode into Tomaszow five hours after the bombardment and saw what explosives and incendiary bombs can do to a market town built of wood and plaster.

The terror from the sky struck Thursday's day on which big two-motored German bombers thrust their attention to Poland's agricultural center.

Aside from the fact that Tomaszow lies across the wide road from Lemberg to Lublin, one of the best in Poland and unquestionably important in the transportation of troops, it has no military value.

But the Germans struck from the sky and when they winged away flames were leaping from the houses, 30 were dead and a score wounded. There was no hope for the seriously wounded, for the village doctor, the only man who could help them, lay dead, too.

Normally Tomaszow has 3,000 inhabitants, but the population had dwindled in the last few days because peasants have been streaming out of the village carrying their belongings in pishchaks. The biggest buildings in Tomaszow were the doomed Orthodox Greek churches. The rest of the town consisted of flimsy dwellings and one-room Jewish shops.

The Germans were able to penetrate into the town from the west.

WON'T BATTLE FRENCH

By FREDERICK C. OCHSNER
BERLIN, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—Field Marshal Hermann Goering, No. 2 Nazi, rallied the German people to war today with a speech in which he said, "We want nothing from the French. . . We will not attack them."

"If the French want to bleed for England, all right," he said. "We will not attack them."

Turning to Great Britain, Goering said:

"You declared war on us, Mr. Chamberlain, not we on you. We had the right to cross the border and extinguish a fire which threatened us. Do not mistake our offer of peace for weakness. We have a deep will to peace. It is greater and deeper in the spirit of the fighter. If it depended on my soldier's heart, we would be glad to show you how badly England can be beaten. But we do not want to unleash the horror of war over humanity."

Poland in One Week
Goering spoke to the workers of a large industrial plant in Berlin's suburbs.

At the same time Goering said that the German army would subdue Poland within a week and then send 70 divisions, totaling 1,050,000 men, from the eastern to the western front to help defend the Siegfried line.

Western provinces of Germany already have been occupied, he added, to clear the way for defense of the "west wall."

Most of Goering's speech was a repetition of what he said in a speech last week.

THUNDER of WAR

BERLIN, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The German ministry today issued a decree raising the enlistment of girls in the labor service to 10,000. Single girls from 17 to 25 not otherwise employed will be mobilized for agricultural labor service, the decree said.

PARIS, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—Masper reports from Poland today said that a battle was raging for possession of Warsaw. The military expert of Le Temps wrote that Germany's East Prussian army had reached the confidence of the Vistula and Bug rivers, 10 miles northwest of the capital. He added "It is clear that Polish troops are still in that region."

LONDON, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—A number of movie theaters in London, closed today because of the blackouts, reopened today. Business was slow.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—Radio-casts intercepted from London said today that 6,000 Slovak deserters had crossed into Hungary and had been detained by the Hungarian authorities.

ROME, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The Italian press announced today that Warsaw has fallen to Adolf Hitler and saw a virtual end to the Polish campaign.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The Netherlands today tested its munitions by firing a salvo of 100 shells to flood the country whenever necessary. The military command reported that the German army was in the heart of the country as a preparatory measure.

ROME, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—In his first editorial comment during this week of war, Virginia Gayda, editor of the authoritative Giornale d'Italia, wrote today: "Although Italy is not at present taking part in the conflict, she is not isolating herself from Europe. . . . She is continuing her political watchfulness, not forgetting her national and imperial interests."

BERLIN, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—German planes are dropping 800-pound bombs on Polish military objectives and are giving Polish troops no rest day or night as they attempt to withdraw before the German advance.

Carl Grunz, correspondent for the Nazi newspaper, the Voelkischer Beobachter, reported today.

Hyde Park, N. Y., Sept. 9 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt, occasionally spending a quiet week-end at his family home, considered plans today for a special session of congress which will be asked to repeal the neutrality law's arms embargo that has blocked further shipments of airplanes and military materials to Great Britain and France.

Seeking respite from the job of preserving United States neutrality, Mr. Roosevelt retired to almost complete seclusion.

He was in communication, however, with the state department, receiving latest reports from Europe, and with his White House aides who forwarded background information in connection with the special session which he will call.

Mr. Roosevelt visited with his 82-year-old mother, Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, today. She returned from Europe only a few days before war broke out.

Solon Says Neutral Law Is Inadequate
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 9 (U.P.)—Sen. Pat McCarran, of Nevada, today declared the present neutrality law is "adequate to keep us out of other nations' quarrels" but legislation was needed at a special session of congress to repeal the neutrality law's arms embargo that has blocked further shipments of airplanes and military materials to Great Britain and France.

He was in communication, however, with the state department, receiving latest reports from Europe, and with his White House aides who forwarded background information in connection with the special session which he will call.

Refugee Train Bombed
PARIS, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—The Paris correspondent of the Paris Express today reported that a German bomber and machine gunned a refugee train. The refugee train was halted two hours out of Warsaw by German bombers.

Nazis Claimed today that Adolf Hitler's armies have broken the backbone of Polish resistance against the German invasion.

Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering informed the German nation that the reich expected to crush Poland within a week, releasing more than 1,000,000 troops for service against Britain and France. He put up a case for Germany, however, by declaring that Germany would not attack France but would fight to the uttermost against invasion. A British spokesman rejected in advance any peace proposal on the basis of a Nazi victory over Poland.

Goering's statement was calculated to go down in the historical records to absolve Germany of the "war guilt" pinned on her by the Versailles treaty, which has ever been a thorn in the side of Germans.

Poland was putting up a desperate fight against the German invasion, but indications go far were that it was a losing one. Reports were that German troops have occupied about one-third of Poland, towards the west, which includes three-fourths of the country's industrial area and most of the fertile farm regions.

The British position was made plain by an authorized spokesman, who said Britain will not negotiate peace with Germany until the reich forces are withdrawn entirely from Polish soil.

The statement was in the nature of a reply to Goering, who advanced the trial balloon that Germany is willing to negotiate an "honorable" peace—presumably after Poland has been conquered.

To the contrary, the British ministry of information decided at a meeting today to base Britain's policy on the assumption that the war would last three years or more.

Edward W. Beattie, Jr., who has been reporting the news from Warsaw for the United Press, arrived in Bucharest and reported that the main Polish army had retreated to a strategic position east of the capital, on the advice of the British and French general staffs.

It was believed the Polish army would attempt a frontal attack on the Germans on a contracted front, in order to break the heart of the great city. But the Poles decided to go over a wide territory undefendable against the superior German forces.

Beattie reported that the Poles lost two to six army divisions, cut off in the province of Poznan, near the German frontier, and captured in the German eastward drive.

FINAL THROES POUR INTO FAIR

PILER FAIRBOUNDS, Sept. 9 (Special)—Overflow throngs of fair-goers were expected to jam the fairgrounds today for last glimpses at fair exhibits and for the Idaho championship Tin Liane derby and finals of the fair rodeo tonight.

At 1 p. m. fair officials said visitors were pouring into the grounds, but no official attendance figures were available. The crowd is expected to reach its afternoon peak for the Model T derby scheduled for 2 p. m., and the night peak for the finals of the rodeo which will start at 8 p. m.

18th Uncle Sam Fair
Featured event at the fair this morning was the auction of 4-H and F. F. A. livestock. Grand champion steer sold for $14, cents per pound to Harry Vogel, buyer for Vogel's market. The grand champion lamb was purchased by Van Engelen's at 20 cents per pound. Ray McKenney, Kimberly, was another good buyer at the auction, said Col. E. O. Walker of Piler, auctioneer.

Complete results were not available.

A 30-minute display of fireworks by the Elmer Elmer company will close the fair following the rodeo performance tonight. The display is scheduled for 10:30 p. m.

Pick Winners Tonight
One feature of the rodeo tonight will be the selection of best-dressed cowboy and cowgirl. Contestants for the title have been required to ride in the grand entry parade preceding the rodeo each night. Selection will be announced by judges tonight.

Free featured events on the midway continued to draw the crowds today. Last appearances at the fair this year were scheduled for Italian flapper and his trained dogs, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Zimmerman, horse-riding champions and Al and Kathleen Gray, trapeze artists.

Carnival attractions at the fair will also close when the crowd leaves following the fireworks tonight.

At Cars Stopped
The Tin Liane derby being held this afternoon, 21 stock model T cars will race a hundred miles, 200 times around the track, for $500 in cash awards and the Idaho state championship. Participants are all drivers who entered in similar derbies held in Idaho earlier in the summer. They include "District champions" from Lewiston, Boise, Piler, Pocatello and Blackfoot.

Capt. Jerry Edwards of "Cavalade of Thrills" fame will direct the race. The derby replaces the captain's show which has been held in front of the grandstand the past three days.

BELGIUM ENTERS BRITISH PROTEST

BRUSSELS, Sept. 9 (U.P.)—Belgium today strongly protested violation of her neutrality to Great Britain after Belgian planes forced a British bomber to land and after a Belgian plane crashed in an exchange of fire near Mons.

In a communique, the national defense department said:

"Three big bombers were chased last night by our air force. One Belgian bomber was forced to land. One other bomber was chased by two of our planes and was warned by signals to land. It opened fire, wrecking one Belgian plane and forcing the occupants of the Belgian plane to take to their parachutes."

This violation of our neutrality has provoked a strong protest from the Belgian government to the British government."

Local Trend Follows Nation On Foodstuffs—Prices Climb

Despite assurance of the federal government that ample food supplies are available in the United States and there is no reason for any sharp increase in the price of foodstuffs, prices for staple commodities in Twin Falls have risen sharply over prices of a week ago, a survey by the Evening Times revealed today.

Increases in prices have been attributed to the effect of the European war on the consumer, resulting in a "war scare."

Hand in hand with the price increase, the local grocery store reported a greater demand for sugar and flour. The "war scare" demand for sugar could be attributed to either (1) the canning season being at the peak, or (2) housewives laying in greater than usual supplies. Indications are that both factors are influencing purchases.

FRENCH TROOPS CAPTURE WARNDT FOREST IN GERMANY

NAZIS OFFER NO RESISTANCE FOR ADVANCING FOES

By RALPH BERRY
PARIS, Sept. 9 (AP)—French troops have captured the great Warndt forest in Germany in their advance from the Maginot line, the high command announced today.

French troops, driving into the Saar basin, had surrounded the city of Saarbrücken, reliable informants said, and now were within striking distance of Germany's great west wall.

Communiqué No. 11, published by the high command, said today: "Sept. 9, 10:45 a. m. (2:45 a. m. MST): Land operations during last night saw action by our advance element. Most of the great Warndt forest west of Forbach fell into our hands. We found it filled with destruction and all sorts of traps. Our air force operated in full liaison with our land troops."

Military experts said that between the lines of this laconic communiqué was to be read the news of France's first big strategic victory.

It meant that the French had attacked into and bitten off the big German frontier salient which extended into France between Saarbrücken and Sarrelauten.

Experts believed the French were now in possession of a part of the Saar valley.

The French had gained eight miles in that sector.

The French took numerous villages including Carlsbrunn, which gives its name to the Carlsbrunn-Warndt forest; Lauterbach, Ludweiler, Gross Roseln and St. Nikolaus, all of which the Germans have evacuated.

Forest Filled Up
The forest, filled with buried mines and tank traps, was being mopped up this morning as new French lines were established on the wooded northern bank of the Saar.

By wiping out the Warndt forest salient, the French removed one of the principal obstacles between the frontier and the Saar river which, inside Germany, parallels the border between Saarbrücken and Trier.

Besides straightening out the French line, the advance gave the French access to easier ground.

Except for the Warndt forest, the territory between the frontier and the Saar river is dotted with valleys and small woods.

One-Mile Strip
The French now had occupied a one-mile strip between the frontier and the Saar river between Saarbrücken and the Roisel. The Saar skirts Sarrelauten and flows northward toward Trier. It is dotted with important railroads.

An authoritative commentator said this morning's communiqué that the French forces were gradually approaching the German west wall at various points but that French action had not yet reached the attacking phase from a technical viewpoint. He described the French operations as still in the concentration stage of establishing contact with the enemy.

LOST
WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—For five minutes today the proclamation by which President Roosevelt declared a state of limited emergency was combined.

It required the combined efforts of the executive, justice and state departments to find it.

While more than 100 correspondents fidgeted at a press conference, President Roosevelt searched his waste basket, his desk, his pockets and the brief case of Attorney General Frank Murphy looking for an official copy of the proclamation.

The President said it had been on his desk three minutes before and someone who had been conferring with him must have carried it away.

While correspondents waited tensely, an aide telephoned the state department and an official copy of the document was rushed to the President's desk.

SEEPAGE WATER MENACES CANAL

BURLEY, Sept. 9 (Special)—Protection of Burley Irrigation district water supply through the southside gravity canal where pondage of waste and seepage water is creating a dangerous situation, was the main topic of discussion at the district board of directors meeting here this week.

The waste and seepage water between the first lift pumping station and the wasteway has been causing concern and it was decided that unless this condition was remedied there would likely be a sluffing out of the entire bank and bottom of the canal at some period during the irrigation season and consequently the district would be without irrigation water for an extended period.

As a preliminary step it was decided to place a culvert under the canal with dragline and CCG forces to care for the seepage condition. Water will be turned out of the canal Nov. 3 to facilitate the installation.

This date of turning out the water is 20 days earlier than in 1938. Water will probably linger behind checks and lateral systems of the pumping canals for a week later than the above date. Farmers should note the date with view to filling ditches and getting pumps repaired.

Feeders and stockmen will do well to feed off best tops under the second and third lift canals where there is no rain water before canal water runs out, reserving feed until the drain ditches and the first lift canal until the last.

Water will be pumped into the H-12 lateral and the first lift canal from drains as long as weather conditions permit and there is sufficient demand for water for flocks to justify it.

U. S. S. R. ORDERS ADDED TROOPERS

MOSCOW, Sept. 9 (AP)—Russia has started calling an unknown number of reservists to the colors. It was disclosed today, and groups of both uniformed and non-uniformed men are enlisting at the white Russian station from which trains leave for the Polish frontier.

It was indicated that technicians, particularly chauffeurs who are reserve tank drivers, were being called. Some were merely registered, and sent back to their jobs; others were taken immediately into the army. Doctors and nurses also were registering.

The government also requisitioned some automobile plants and some horses.

Reservists were leaving Moscow as individuals in regular trains. It was believed that the government's calling up of troops might be merely a precautionary measure, but there seemed little room for doubt that it was concentrating troops on the western frontier.

Southern Idahoans who were attracted to the Idaho exhibit and "Idaho Day" while on Treasure Island those two days, included:

Twin Falls, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Johnson, Emily Patten and Joe Hill; Jerome, Thomas E. Macchia; (Cooding, Mary Ullrich and Frances Ullrich; Burley, Mr. and Mrs. John Harding; Abilene, Donna L. Cowley; Bush, Jack Zigler; Sun Valley, Virginia Schind, A. E. Johnson; Burley, Edna Bentley and Beulah Bentley; Kimberly, Mrs. W. M. Arnold.
