PATRIOTISM FLARES AS RED ARMY ROLLS FORWARD

RUSSIANS SHOOT DOWN 10 PLANES; TOWNS CAPTURED

By NORMAN B. DEUEL
MOSCOW, Sept. 18 (U.P.)—Russia claims sweeping advances by its red army along a 500-mile front in Poland today, and an accompanying "tremendous" upsurge of patriotic feeling in Russia.

A communique of the general staff of the red army claimed the occupation, against only feeble resistance, of 13 Polish towns, extending 40 miles or more into eastern Poland, and the downing of 10 Polish airplanes.

Government Supported

The official Tass news agency announced that as the result of a broadcast speech yesterday by Premier Joseph Stalin, explaining Russia's motives in marching into Poland after a German army had invaded it from the west, thousands flooded into Moscow supporting the government.

The first communique of the operation was described by Premier Molotov as a "great mission of emancipation," and issued in the name of the general staff of the red army.

Notes Issued

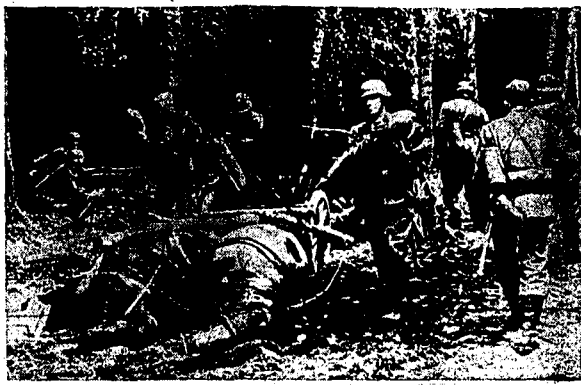

Russia prepared the diplomatic basis for its action in Poland by issuing three notes:

1. A note handed to the Polish ambassador yesterday morning asserting that Poland was internally insolvent, that in 16 days it had exhausted its financial resources, and that the Soviet Union was the only power that could help it.

2. A note delivered to all embassies and legations here denouncing the "rottenness" of the Polish state and denouncing the "rottenness" of the Polish state and denouncing the "rottenness" of the Polish state.

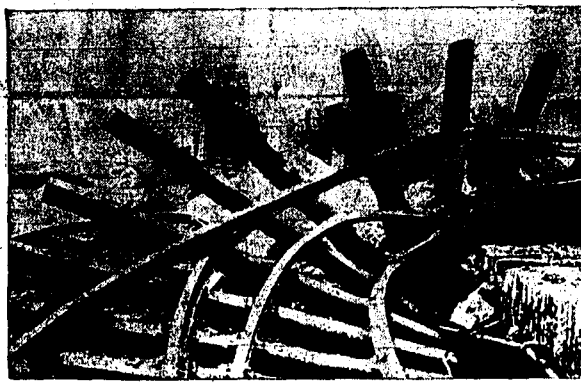

3. A covering note to the diplomatic corps saying that, in connection with note No. 2, the Soviet Union will pursue a policy of neutrality in relations between the Soviet Union and your country.

French Strengthen Army On West Front as Nazis Move Up Reinforcements

By RALPH HEINZEN

PARIS, Sept. 18 (U.P.)—French forces were strengthened in men and materiel on the western front today in answer to heavy German reinforcements.

The French high command communique said:

"All sectors on the front were quiet throughout the night. There was local activity in advance posts."

"There is nothing important to remark. Air activity was reduced on account of atmospheric conditions."

Lull in Fighting

It was understood there had been a lull in fighting for almost 30 hours.

This lull was regarded as a temporary interval in which the French were using tactics used since the start of the war and were preparing their next move against the German positions.

French sources said British propaganda tracts dropped over Germany had been found on German prisoners taken by the French.

It was said also the French high command was highly satisfied with French air force action since the war began.

10,000 See Rankin's Aerial Thrill Stunts

By O. A. KELKER

BURLEY, Sept. 18 (Special)—South Idahoans, some 10,000 of them, today flocked to their normal routine after coming here Sunday for the all-Idaho air meet to become a part of the greatest crowd ever to gather in this section.

Star of the meet was Tex Rankin, the "old master" of flying and holder of the international stunt title gained in competition with crack pilots from the great nations of the earth. Rankin whirled his little 100 horsepower Great Lakes plane through unbelievable maneuvers.

He accomplished with apparent ease a stunt which no other pilot can master, that being the upside down loop. Sunday he went 14 turns before the plane leveled out some 400 feet above the ground. His upside down flying 15 feet off the ground thrilled the thousands present as did his flaming gyrations, slow rolls, inverted and Cuban figure eights and aerial dashes.

In the dash his speed was so great that the wind striking the wire on the ship, sounded like a police car siren.

Rankin's performance was over a great majority of the 1,000 crowded into the grandstand along the edge of the flying field and also the 1,000 seated on their cars and along the grand fence did not leave.

REFUGEES HURRY ACROSS RUMANIA, SAIL TO FRANCE

By EDWARD W. BEATTIE, Jr.
CERNAAU, Rumania, Sept. 18 (U.P.)—Polish government leaders, abandoning their country to German and Russian invaders, were preparing to hurry across Rumania today to Constantia on the Black sea, where they would sail for France.

They had fled from Zaleski, in the southeast corner of Poland, just before it was bombed by German airplanes, while German troops pressed toward it from the northwest and Russians from the east.

German airplanes had pursued them all the way to the border and were expected to have bombed the village of Soutul on the Rumanian side, killing six persons.

The flight of Polish troops and civilians across the Rumanian border had clogged the two connecting roads for 12 miles back. An estimated 10,000 automobiles were jammed at the frontier in a mass of wagons, carts and pedestrian carrying bundles on their backs. The Polish troops were surrendering their arms to Rumanians and great piles of guns, ammunition and other equipment had accumulated beside the roads.

Although they had not appeared in public, President Ignacy Moscicki, foreign minister Josef Beck and other officials of Poland arrived here yesterday afternoon. They will leave today for Constantia, it was understood, they would establish a Polish government somewhere in western France.

Rumania's refugee law permitted them to enter the country but if they intended remaining for an indefinite time they would be compelled to live in a designated area and refrain from political activity.

Refugees said the Russians, who swept across the whole 500-mile Polish-Russian border yesterday, had already penetrated as much as 275 miles into Poland, and were at Kolenka, west of Soutul, mid north of Zaleski, in the southwest. This is the Polish Ukraine, whose natives the Russians had come to protect.

Some refugees reported the Russians they had met on the roads had indicated "no coming to fight the Germans," and others said the Russians addressed them as "Nazi Tovarichs."

There apparently had been no resistance by Polish troops in the southeast.

German air planes were reported to have crossed into Rumania and were being impounded.

A. J. Drexel Biddle, United States ambassador to Poland, was reported to have left here last night for Bucharest with several members of the embassy staff.

FOUR KILLED IN CRASH OF PLANE

YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 18 (U.P.)—An official inquiry was launched today into the death of four aerial sight-seers in a biplane crash.

Witnesses said the motor of the plane, a biplane, was heard to stall and the plane fell from an altitude of 1,000 feet to a nearby apple orchard.

The dead, all from this district, were Steve Busby, 30, pilot; J. W. Miller, 30, co-pilot; and Clyde McNeill, 21. All were trapped in the flaming wreckage.

Witnesses said the wreckage and remains of the plane were scattered over a wide area. The plane was a 1938 model, and was flying at an altitude of 1,000 feet when it crashed.

The crash occurred on the edge of the flying field and also the 1,000 seated on their cars and along the grand fence did not leave.

British Plane Carrier Sunk By Submarine

LONDON, Sept. 18 (U.P.)—The ministry of information announced today that the aircraft carrier Courageous had been sunk by an enemy submarine.

The ministry said: "The admiralty regret to announce that his majesty's ship Courageous has been lost by enemy submarine action."

The ministry said destroyers and merchant ships picked up survivors and were now returning to harbor.

The ministry added the submarine was believed to have been sunk by destroyers.

The Courageous was a 104,000-ton class of aircraft carrier, of 22,500 tons and a complement of 745 men and 400 royal air force crew.

This ship was 785 1/2 feet in length, it mounted sixteen 4.7-inch guns, four three-pounder guns and 11 smaller guns.

Carried 48 Planes
It carried 48 airplanes according to official ratings.

The ship was completed in 1936. Originally it was intended as a cruiser, with a view to operations in the Baltic.

The ship was altered in 1934 to an aircraft carrier and this work was completed in 1938.

It was the first sinking of a warship by a submarine—except for the sinking of the German liner, the Roon, in 1918.

About 1,200 Aboard
Officials said the Courageous had a full complement, including personnel of the fleet's air arm of about 1,200 officers and men, but there was a reduced complement of 1,000.

On Both Fronts

GERMANY: German high command says campaign in Poland "approaching a conclusion" with fall of Warsaw expected momentarily.

In Moscow, Russian high command says invading Soviet troops penetrated Poland 40 miles on 500-mile front, taking 13 towns and bringing down 10 Polish airplanes.

To Germany's credit in war at sea was added the submarine sinking of the British aircraft carrier Courageous, a 22,500-ton vessel with a normal complement of 1,216 officers and men.

British light economic war by published firms considered inimical under "trading with the enemy" act.

English Man-o-War Sunk by Submarine

BERLIN, Sept. 18 (U.P.)—An official news agency dispatch from Moscow tonight said German and Soviet troops had met at Brest-Litovsk, in Poland.

German and Soviet officers exchanged greetings, the Berlin radio reported.

Brest-Litovsk had been attacked and captured by the Germans operating far east in Poland, about 160 miles from the Russian frontier, although one Polish fort was said to be holding out.

This would indicate a remarkably swift advance by Russian mechanized forces which invaded Poland only Sunday morning.

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
United Press Foreign News Editor
Soviet Russia joined with Nazi Germany today for the fourth partitioning of Poland.

Shortly after a Nazi U-boat had struck a heavy blow at the British blockade of Germany by sinking the big airplane carrier Courageous, the two totalitarian governments announced that their troops—pressing swiftly toward a rendezvous in the heart of Poland—would avoid hostilities.

Terms Outlined
Then in both Berlin and Moscow, the outline of terms for redrawing the map of eastern Europe began to emerge.

A six-point plan based on the crushing of the Polish armies (although the Poles still fought on west of the Vistula) by the Nazi and Soviet military pincers was published on official suggestion in Berlin. It called for "reorganization" of the Polish people into corporate bodies.

Every type of merchandise was to be sold in the east. A new frontier line and the extent of Nazi and Soviet military operations by publishing a map on which "the line of exit for German troops" was drawn from a point on the east Prussian frontier toward Brest-Litovsk and Lwow to a point near the western boundary of Rumania.

Butter Bland
Best information was that a buffer state, presumably in central Poland and possibly including Warsaw, was envisaged in order to separate the German and Soviet frontiers, but it appeared that in any eventuality there would be a common frontier in the east Prussian sector.

Confronted by a series of stunning blows that practically ended—according to the Nazi high command—the war on the eastern front, Great Britain and France were expected to protest to Moscow but to avoid a declaration of war against the Soviets. The small nations of eastern Europe and especially Rumania, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania were directly adjacent to the Nazi-Soviet operations. They mobilized their frontier forces in obvious concern that they would be directly involved despite Russian and German statements that their neutrality would be observed.

Turkey Interested
Turkey, closely tied to the Soviets in the past, was described by Nazis as now more intensely interested in relations with Germany than with maintenance of the mutual aid agreements with Britain and France.

COWBOYS DEPART TO WAR SPOKANE CLUB

Cards Take Last Game of Season As Champs Romp

By HAL WOOD
Evening Times Sports Editor

A successful season completed, the Twin Falls Cowboys, managers, trainers and wives today were en route for Spokane, Wash., where the club will engage the Spokane Indians in its final series of the season.

The battles with the Indians will start on Wednesday evening and will be a best three-out-of-five—ending as soon as one team has captured three tilts.

The Cowboys wound up their season here Sunday afternoon before some 1,300 fans by losing 14-10—but taking the series 2-1 by virtue of a 16-10 triumph on Saturday night after the title-clinching game on Friday evening, 5-1.

The Sunday afternoon tilt was pretty much of a farce as far as the game was concerned but a lot of fun for the ball players—and about half the fans.

Wry Starts
Manager Charley Wry started on the mound for the Cowboys and couldn't do much to help in winning the Cards out. They scored four runs on four hits in the first frame and added two more in each of the second and third frames. The support was rather ragged, however, with the ball players all hitting down straight into the hands of Frank Falconi behind the bat. Bill DeCarlo on first—and Mike Budnick in the outfield.

However, the team could hit and the slugging grew loud as the game progressed. Wry stepped off the mound at the start of the fourth and Steve Bogdanoff, the utility man took over. He hurled fairly good ball, allowing an unearned run in the fourth and putting the visitors down in order in the fifth. But he was touched for three runs and four hits in the sixth, so George Farrell took over and hurled fairly good ball for the eighth and ninth frames.

Cowboys Go To Work
Meanwhile, the Cowboys were going to work on Lefty Sandi, Cardinal hurler. They collected two runners in the fourth and two in the sixth. They then pounded him out of the box in the seventh when they pushed across four runs and he was replaced by Frank Nelson.

In scoring their 14 runs, the Cardinals got 22 hits, including four hits each for Tom Roberts, the slugger, and George Farrell, the utility man. They collected three base bingles to bring his total for the season to 300—topping the league, but just one ahead of the slugging Cardinal manager who, incidentally, got his 50th home run of the season on Sunday night.

Collect 16 Hits
Twin Falls collected 16 hits, including three out of five for Bill DeCarlo and Steve Bogdanoff. George Farrell got two-for-four, including a double and home run. There were many strikes and the Cowboys for taking the Cards, derided many of the home lowers yelled because the Twin Falls team made such a walk-away of the Cards Saturday night—the Puncers holding a 15-2 advantage going into the final frame.

Home Runs
In this game Frank Kendall kept the Cardinals well under control until that last inning. The only runs scored off him were home runs—one by Burnett in the seventh and another by "Pony" Beers, Card hurler, in the eighth.

But the Cowboys were going to town. They scored twice in the second on two walks and a hit, four times in the fourth on a hit, four off and Al Latture singled and Corky Carlson walked to fill the bases and then catcher Ken Myers parked the first ball pitched to him out of the park.

The Cardinals used three pitchers trying to stem the tide of runs but the newly-crowned champions just couldn't be stopped. In the sixth they added two more and counted four times in each of the seventh and eighth.

The Cardinals rallied in the ninth to score eight off Kendall's offerings, the big clout being Roberto's final home run of the season. Yarnie Reynolds and Larrue led the Cowboy attack with three hits each, while Roberto got the same number for the Cardinals.

Strike for the final two games:
Strike for the final two games: Cardinals 14, Cowboys 10. Cardinals 14, Cowboys 10. Cardinals 14, Cowboys 10.

BOB PACKARD RETAINS CITY TENNIS TITLE

Cocky Bobby Riggs Achieves No. 1 Ranking in Tennis World

By HENRY MOLEMORE
NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (UP)—Bobby Riggs, the cocky little Chicagoan with the Charlie Chaplin walk, today had achieved the goal of every tennis player—No. 1 in world ranking.

He gained undisputed claim to that high post yesterday when he routed Wally Van Horn, Los Angeles youngster, in straight sets in the final round of the national championship. He had staked out his claim to ranking as No. 1 in June with a victory in the all-England championship at Wimbledon, and his win at Forest Hills gave him the title.

Real Champion
Riggs was every inch a champion in turning back Van Horn, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4. He had all the shots and, what is more important, he had the knowledge of how best to employ them against the younger, less experienced player.

His opponent, a 21-year-old, was a hitting Californian who had swept aside Elwood Cook, Wayne Sabn and John Bromwich in a sensational march to the final.

Riggs had Van Horn's game pegged to a "T" before he took the court, and never let him get started. "I'd never missed up his shots or capitalized on an opponent's every weakness better than Riggs yesterday. He kept the youngster guessing all the way. He fed him speed and then slow-balled him. He pulled him in with short shots and plinned him to the baseline with deep drives. He used flat drives and drives with spin. He kept him overreacting to the run, never allowing him to get set and utilize his terrific power."

One to Watch
Van Horn, understandably nervous before his first big crowd, slowly went to pieces. His timing was the first thing to go, and his confidence soon followed. The youngster need not feel ashamed, however. He made the tournament with his three mighty victories over higher ranked players, and he showed enough stroke equipment to cause the critics to look him as the man who'll be champion of the world within two years.

Let him work at his game during the winter—his backhand needs revision—and next summer will find him a terror. He has the flair for the game, the touch, and he has the power. A few refinements here and there and even Riggs couldn't be sure of stopping him.

Still Amateur
Riggs says he has no thought of turning professional—that he will play in a few California tournaments, visit his family out there, and then return to his work with an advertising company in Chicago. "I'd like to bet, however, that a fat guarantee from the pros wouldn't break down his amateur resistance."

Alice Marble is no superwoman of the courts. That was proved by her narrow 6-4, 8-10, 8-4 victory over the veteran Helen Jacobs in the women's final.

An exhibition game using the same rules in vogue when Amner Doubleday invented baseball, preceded the Ogden-Salt Lake doubleheader at Salt Lake Sunday and was witnessed by 3500 fans.

Ray Alvie, first baseman and acting manager of the Bees, was presented with a trophy as the most popular player.

Marvin (Bud) Ward, 28-year-old ex-catcher from Spokane, Wash., who won the 5,000th game of the season, called his pouter "Madam X." He picked out the pouter from a crowd of odds and ends in Tommy Armour's pro shop the day before the tourney started.

Hitchcock Stars
Led by Tommy Hitchcock, the Greenlee polo team beat Cecil Smith's Texas Rangers at Westbury, N. Y., 14 to 11. Greenlee will play next Saturday, and will play for the national open Sunday.

Every member of the San Francisco state football team was clipped in to charter a plane that will enable Guy Swannick, guard, to play against University of Nevada in Reno next Saturday, and return to Frisco in time to safeguard his job at a night club.

Comedians Beat Leading Men in Screw Contest
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18 (UP)—The comedians were thinking up new gags today before the screw of 21-11 by which they beat the leading men in their annual charity baseball game before 13,000 fans in Beale stadium.

The crowd agreed the score was about right. The Pannymen deserted to win Hollywood's insane version of what the good old American game should be, since it featured more comedy than baseball.

The game ended in the fourth when the crowd refused to be restrained longer and swarmed onto the field to collect autographs.

The Pannymen used all the props they could lay hands on. One bat was so big it took Andy Devlin and Billy Gilbert (total 800 pounds) to swing it. There were exploding bats, wackies, exploding balls, black balls, shine balls and nothing balls.

The Detroit Tigers' dynamite was going through his last springing session of four rounds today at the Northville, Mich., track, determined to score a quick knockout over Pastor, who had from him for 10 rounds two years ago at Madison Square Garden.

Nips Art Walker In Blistering Titular Battle

After teetering on the brink of defeat in a blistering three-set title match, youthful Bob Packard, U.I.S.B. sophomore, had retained his Twin Falls city tennis championship today.

Packard successfully defended the crown he won last year but did it only by the narrowest of margins against Art Walker, south Idaho and Boise champion, who twice drove to within two solitary points of downing Packard and annexing the title in the third set.

After overtime third set of Sunday's final duel, Packard finally won 6-3, 4-6, 10-8.

The titular final in men's singles, in which advance game ranking Packard as favorite was knocked out in all brackets, as follows (several crowns in Junior boy and girl play previously determined):

Men's singles—Bob Packard.
Women's singles—Josephine Fox.

Men's doubles—Packard and Walker.
Women's doubles—Miss Fox and Mrs. Margarette Wiley.

Junior boys' singles—Glenn Gibb.
Junior boys' doubles—Gibb and Alan Duval.

Junior girls—Ann Streifus.
Girls' singles—Laura Lee Henderson.

Boys' singles—Oliver Balmer.
Boys' doubles—Balmer and Gene Colan.

After only a brief rest following their terrific singles battle, Packard and Walker stepped back onto the courts at Harmon park to win the doubles crown. They conquered Dr. Harry Alban and Buell Warner 6-4, 2-6, 8-3. The champions outclassed Alban and Warner in the first and third sets, but were clearly outplayed in the second.

The Alban-Warner team had reached the doubles final only a few minutes before by winning a long semi-final "walking match" against Lester Hintz and Wayne Munick, 2-6, 6-1, 9-7.

Champion Dethroned
In the women's singles final, Josephine Fox dethroned the 1938 champion, Ann Streifus, in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4. Miss Fox, abandoning her usual ball-slammng tactics except for occasional bursts at the net, played a conservative game to let Miss Streifus make the bulk of the errors. The victor's net play, however, was not as accurate as her usual to let Miss Streifus make the bulk of the errors.

Earlier, Miss Fox had teamed with her sister, Mrs. Wiley, to edge Hazel Terry and Mrs. Helen Holton for the women's doubles crown, 6-2, 4-6, 8-4. The battle was closely fought throughout. With the score deadlocked at one set each and the third at 4-4, the Fox-Wiley combination broke through service to annex the final two games.

Lowly St. Louis Browns Shellack Mighty Yanks; Reds Hold Lead

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (UP)—The New York Yankees were something less than terrific in their first start since clinching the American league pennant.

They lost twice yesterday to the lowly St. Louis Browns, 6-4 and 3-1. In 18 previous starts they had lost only once to the Browns.

Their two top-notch pitchers, Red Ruffing and Lefty Gomez, were on the mound and they didn't have a team of second-stringers behind them.

Ex-Yankees Star
Ex-Yankees played important roles in the twin St. Louis triumphs. Don Heffner's two singles and sacrifice drove in three runs in the eighth and Joe Gallagher, his homer and single.

The Reds moved nearer the National league pennant when they held their 3½-game advantage by dividing a double-header with the Boston Bees. Despite six errors the Reds won the opener 6-5, when Harry Craft doubled home the winning tally with two out in the seventh. Pat Farringer, although allowed a hit, struck it out to win his 22nd victory. The Bees snapped a six-game losing streak in winning the second game.

Giants Help Out
The New York Giants helped the Reds' cause when they divided two with the Cubs. Lefty Grove conquered Morton Cooper in a pitcher's battle to win the opener, 2-1. The Cards won the nightcap, 2-1, when Fiddler Bill McGehee pitched a four-hitter.

Brooklyn became a definite contender for third place when the Chicago Cubs downed two, 10-4 and 3-2. The Dodgers slapped four Cub pitchers, who hurled the yellow ball 12 hits, to win it out to win his 13th game. Luke Hamlin outpitched Claude Passeau to give the Dodgers victory in the second game of the doubleheader.

Debut Spotted
Big John's debut was spotted when the Pirates made eight errors, and the $70,000 southpaw lost his first major league start to the first inning. The Pirates grabbed the afterpiece, 10-1.

In the American, the third-place white Sox held their half-game lead over the Indians by breaking even with the Red Sox. Lefty Lee won the first game, 6-1. The Red Sox grabbed the nightcap, 11-2.

The Indians made five errors to help Al Bob Feller in his quest of victory No. 22. The Athletics took a 4-2 victory over the Indians when the second game, 18-5.

Hank Greenberg's homer in the fifth gave Detroit a 3-2 victory over Washington.

Louis Ranked 6-1 Favorite Over Pastor
DETROIT, Sept. 18 (UP)—In "excellent condition," Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis today became a 6-1 favorite over "Bicycle Boy" Pastor in their return match at Briggs stadium Wednesday night.

Dr. Cleaver Anna, the Bomber's personal physician, and Dr. B. W. Clark of the boxing commission agreed that Jolting Joe had recovered completely from his cold of last week and he was in shape to deliver a kayo rather than occupy a hospital cot.

The Detroit dynamite was going through his last springing session of four rounds today at the Northville, Mich., track, determined to score a quick knockout over Pastor, who had from him for 10 rounds two years ago at Madison Square Garden.
