PRESIDENT PLANNING NEW CAMPAIGN FOR AFL-CIO PEACE

MESSAGES WILL BE SENT TO TWO LABOR MEETINGS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (U.P.)—The administration appeared today to be planning a new campaign for peace between the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations on the grounds that there was no national unity.

President Roosevelt will lead the cause for peace. He said in his press conference yesterday, he would send a personal message to the AFL convention at Cincinnati Oct. 2. To a direct question he replied it would be a good guess that his message would mention peace. The CIO convention opens Oct. 10 in San Francisco and it, too, probably will receive a message from Mr. Roosevelt.

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins told reporters that the war emergency makes it "more necessary and more wise" that labor get together.

Clashing problems arising from the division in the ranks of labor, she said, are a good example of the need of both factions for representation on the new war resources board, set up to prepare for mobilization of American industry and labor in the event it becomes necessary.

"If you appoint a representative of both factions, she asked reporters, they will carry their fight into the board and possibly delay progress in the way of war preparation."

She said she would not, however, appoint only one representative from either the AFL or CIO and say that he truly represents all labor without bringing protests from the other group.

In keeping pace with modern research and diagnostic developments, this office has recently installed the RADIOCLAST instrument, without doubt the greatest discovery of science since the X-ray. Much has been written about it in recent magazine articles, some of which you may have read.

In making a diagnosis of your case, there will be no increasing quackery or exposure, and you will be told what your trouble is, where it is, how far advanced and what procedure is necessary for correction.

If you are sick and want to know the cause of your trouble, I invite you to attend this clinic. A nominal fee will be charged for a complete analysis of your case.

Owing to the time required for this examination, only a limited number of patients can be cared for during this clinic week. I suggest you call at my office, or phone, for an appointment, if you wish to take advantage of this special clinic service. AN EXPERT DIAGNOSTICIAN from the Research Laboratories will assist me in conducting this CLINIC.

Spokane Cowboys Bet on Cowboys; 1940 Changes May See Only Trio Left

Ernie Bishop Slated for Step Up to Parent Club

SPOKANE, Sept. 20 (Special).—Spokane crowds were betting today that the Twin Falls Cowboys will upset the Spokane Indians, their "parent" club, in the best three out of five game series opening at 8 p. m. PST time today. What's more, fully 50 per cent of an expected 5,000 to 7,000 will be rooting for the Class C Wranglers from Idaho to smite down their Class B rivals.

That was the "dope" unfolded today by no less an authority than Eddie Leishman, manager of the Spokane Indians.

The series is sponsored by the Spokane P-T-A, a milk fund benefit. There will be games tonight and Tuesday, but none on Friday because of a football game in Spokane. Since both clubs predict the five-game ambiglo will end at four games, that indicates Sunday night for the finale.

First two games only will be broadcast over KGJ, Spokane, at 1450 kilocycles starting at 8 p. m. (Mountain time).

Developments along the trading front (with nothing actually on as yet but plenty of talk in high quarters) showed these phases today:

1. Ernie Bishop, ace second today, is a certainty to start the 1940 season with Spokane instead of Twin Falls.

2. George Farrell, the boy the big league scouts are watching, will also start with Spokane if he doesn't make the grade at Seattle. The Coast league has sunk him, however, and George may stick in that high company.

3. Both the Spokane and Twin Falls teams will be completely rebuilt, with a nucleus of not over three players returning to each club.

4. Leishman announced that the first man drafted from Twin Falls by Spokane will be "Doc" Reid, the trainer.

5. Officials of the Spokane-Twin Falls setup will hold a meeting here in a few days to decide on a course of action with regard to the Cowboy players.

Budnick Starts
Manager Charles W. Budnick will start on the mound for Twin Falls tonight. Verne Reynolds will perform at shortstop. Joe Hagan will be in the field, and Steve Bogdanoff will return to his old stand in right field. That means the loss of the playing position of Bill DeCaro behind the bat; Leroy Carson at first; Bishop, second base; Farrell, third base; Falcon, center field.

Help Advertisers
The Cowanards took things easy today after spending most of yesterday in helping to advertise the benefit attraction. Hugh Pace, Owner Bill Ulrich, Secretary Monty Montgomery and other staff of the Chamber of Commerce banquet, at which guests included Marvin "Bud" Ward, Spokane, new U. S. amateur golf champion.

Later in the afternoon Farrell, Bogdanoff and this writer were interviewed over a Spokane radio station.

Last night both teams were guests at an ice skating rink where such stellar ball players as Farrell, Falcon and Budnick spent most of the time on the seat of their pants.

Rupert Wins 59-14 in Six-Man Game
RUPERT, Sept. 20 (Special).—Rupert's new six-man football team walked over a visiting squad from Acquia yesterday and walked away with the game by a 59 to 14 score.

The game came to an automatic end with another two minutes to go near close of the second half. Six-man football rules provide that the game shall automatically be stopped if either team piles up a 40-point margin in the second half.

Rupert was leading 33-0 midway in the game. Stars for the locals were Blach, Ooss, Anderson, Walker and Hunter. A total of 19 men was used in the game.

Before the contest, the Rupert squad had gone through two sessions in uniform.

Acquia scores were tallied by Ching and Monser. Paraling school six-man gridiron was scene of the game.

Acquia journeys to Hayburn Friday and Paul plays host to Rupert.
