SOLOMON DECLARES NEUTRALITY LAW HANDICAPS U. S.

By RONALD VAN TINE
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (UP)—Sen. Key Pittman, D., of Ky., chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, declared today that the present neutrality law handicaps America in her determination to stay out of war.

Opening a nonpartisan senate debate on neutrality law revision, Pittman centered his attack on provisions of the present act which permit American ships to carry any goods except arms to the warring nations. He also urged repeal of the arms embargo, which he said was not a true symbol of American neutrality.

The danger to this nation lies not so much in the type of goods that it exports, but in the fact that American vessels are used for shipping," Pittman said.

Gallery Filled
The 200 gallery seats were filled and long lines of disappointed spectators extended down the stairways to the basement of the capitol. This tremendous throng had started gathering before the capitol was opened this morning. Admission to the senate gallery was by special card. Extra police were called to keep the crowd orderly and this force was augmented by federal bureau of investigation agents who recently were detailed to the building as extra precaution.

Because of his position as chairman of the foreign relations committee, Pittman got the lead-off position for the administration in the debate which is expected to last from three to six weeks.

Priming to answer him was the "lion of Idaho," Sen. William E. Borah, who 20 years ago helped lead another, and successful, battle against a President's foreign policy—the League of Nations fight against President Wilson.

No Cause for Fear
"There is no cause for fear that we will be drawn into the battle and widening conflict," Pittman said. "And yet, Mr. President, we do not want to see a peace-loving, democratic people have no right to refuse to take into consideration that such war, or a war that develops out of it, may not some day be brought to the gateway of our own country."

It seems to me that the strong and almost fanatical zeal of some of our senators in treating these particular goods (armaments) as distinct from goods from other countries of war and retaining them on the embargo list," he said, "is actuated, even unconsciously, by pride of party attitude."

"Even some distinguished senators contend that it is the symbol of neutrality. It is just another word that leads American people to believe that the repeal of the embargo list is the repeal of all neutrality legislation."

Rains Delay Start Of Beet Harvesting

A drenching rain, which Sunday swept over this section of Idaho, today had caused postponement for at least two days of the annual sugar beet harvest and had also caused bean threshing and other harvest operations to reach a standstill.

Officials of the bureau of entomology at Twin Falls reported nearly as much of rain was recorded during the storm which started about midnight Saturday and continued through most of Sunday, being especially heavy during the morning hours. The official precipitation was given at .90 of an inch.

Harry Klock, Idaho manager of the Hannaford Sugar company said this afternoon that the rain would postpone start of the sugar beet harvest to at least Wednesday. The harvest was to have started this morning.

Depends on Digging
Klock said that if digging of the beets could get underway Wednesday the three sugar factories in this section would get on schedule. The sugar factories are scheduled to start digging on Friday, the Bury factory on Saturday and the Twin Falls factory on Sunday.

If further rains are recorded this week, the harvest will be delayed.

MYSTERY CRAFT SENDS ENGLISH SHIP TO BOTTOM

LONDON, Oct. 2 (UP)—The admiralty warned all ships in the south Atlantic today to take precautions against attack by mysterious German sea raiders after the British steamship Clement had been sunk by an unidentified but heavily armed vessel.

The admiralty previously had warned all ships that Germany, in a radio broadcast, was threatening that Nazi U-boats would sink vessels on sight because the admiralty is now arming merchantmen.

Two Places Revived
Thus two of the most drastic phases of the World war fighting at sea were apparently being revived—quick, surprise attacks by submarines and hidden assaults on merchant men's raiders hiding along the sea lanes.

The admiralty understood the crew of the Clement, a 3,500-ton British liner, was landed safely at an unnamed port. Whether a warship or other type of armed vessel attacked the steamer was not officially disclosed. The German pocket type battleship, which had been reported as having been spotted, but was not sighted, was believed to have been the attacker.

May Be Merchant Vessel
Authorities pointed out that it had long been suspected that German merchantmen, especially coal and oil vessels, were carrying four six-inch guns secretly. Its hold even before the attack.

The British office at Liverpool said the Clement carried 48 or 49 men, and no passengers.

"It was presumed they were saved but we have no information," the office said.

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 2 (UP)—British embassy officials said today that 13 survivors from the S.S. Clement, sunk by a German battleship, had been picked up by an unidentified Lloyd-Bradford ship, and would be landed at Bahia, probably tomorrow.

SEARCH ORDERED FOR NAZI CRAFT

LONDON, Oct. 2 (UP)—The admiralty today ordered a search for a German sea raider which sank the British steamship Clement off the Brazilian coast and which messages from Bahia described as a Nazi pocket battleship.

Thirteen of 48 or 49 officers and crew aboard the Clement, first victim of a sea raider since the spectacular German capture of the World War were reported rescued, but the fate of the other 35 or 36 was unknown.

The admiralty said that the attacking vessel, first believed to be a fast merchantman equipped with a heavy armament, was confirmed to be a one of the heavily armed Nazi pocket battleships. The presence of a German warship was confirmed it would mean that Admiral Scheer, one of Adolf Hitler's crack ships, had broken through British blockade and was on the high seas where it could strike at allied shipping.

The sinking of the Clement about 100 miles off the Brazilian coast, appeared to have been within the probable limits of the "safely zone" which the 21 American republics meeting at Havana City, Cuba, last week, announced the intention to establish as a deadline for halting recent sea activities.

Supreme Court Opens Sessions
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (UP)—The supreme court of the United States convened at noon today.

Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes announced the beginning of the court's 100th year of deliberations.

Today was a brief, routine session to be followed by a week of conferences preliminary to the first decision day, Oct. 8.

The court will hear applications for certiorari from 141 prisoners, most of their holders from a previous board decision.

Borah Shouts Defiance Of Neutrality Changes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (UP)—Sen. William E. Borah, R., Idaho, told the senate today that the European war will be brought "into our very midst" if congress grants President Roosevelt's request for repeal of the embargo on arms shipments to belligerents.

"Let's stay out of this war!" he shouted. "It is not our war!"

U. S. Refuses To Recognize Pole Capture

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 (UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull announced today that the United States would not recognize the capture of Poland. He said the United States would continue its diplomatic relations with the present Polish government which has been recognized in France.

The Polish ambassador here, Count Jerzy Potocki, still will be recognized by the United States, American ambassador to Poland, now in France, will continue his mission there.

Thus Poland becomes the second country which actually does not exist to be recognized by the United States. When the Nazis overtook Czechoslovakia last year the state department refused to acknowledge that regular new masters and the Czech minister, Vladimir Hutten, continues to maintain his location there.

Reduced Rate in Effect on Idaho Potatoes, Onions

BOISE, Oct. 2 (UP)—A reduction in railroad freight rates on potatoes and onions to Midwest and south west markets from Idaho points went into effect today and the potatoes and onions shipped by rail would effect a saving of $70.00 annually for Idaho shippers.

The interstate commerce commission refused to grant a suspension of the order reducing the rate, at a hearing in Washington, D. C., last week.

1 Killed, 2 Hurt In Hotel Blaze

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 2 (UP)—One person was killed and two were injured today when fire swept the Poshington hotel, a three-story brick structure in downtown Oklahoma City.

Charles Brown, a cook in a cafe at the hotel, was found dead in the ruins after the flames were extinguished.

Nazis Issue Ultimatum For Allies

BERLIN, Oct. 2 (UP)—Adolf Hitler has asked Benito Mussolini to make a "final" peace offer to Great Britain and France and intends, if it fails, to deliver a "peace ultimatum" to the Allies through the Nazi reichstag Friday or Saturday, it was reported today.

Count Galeazzo Ciano, Italian foreign minister, who came here at Hitler's invitation, left unexpectedly for Rome at noon today after a stay of only 12 hours. He had talked with Hitler and Joachim von Ribbentrop, Nazi foreign minister, last night and with Ribbentrop for an hour this morning.

An official source said official conversations had been continued last night.

Reichstag Speech
Another well informed source said Hitler had asked Ciano whether he intended to make in a reichstag speech late this week, and asked that Mussolini present them to the allies as a peace offer.

It was reported that if the proposed Italian intervention failed, Hitler in his reichstag speech would warn the allies that if they elected to fight to a finish Germany would unleash its air force, in full fury.

It was forecast the first Nazi blow would be against the British navy. German leaders said they were most cautious in their public comment on Ciano's visit. For instance, the official news agency commented merely that the talks would be:

"Elaborate Work"
"A sober and serious examination of the situation and a mutual exchange of views and suggestions." The newspapers called this a historic week, in anticipation of the peace bid by a peace bid in press Great Britain and France to call off the war on its terms, recognizing the annihilation of Poland, and conceding Germany and its partner Russia exclusive rights of influence and exploitation in eastern Europe, where, as the semi-official diplomatic and political correspondence succinctly put it, "thanks to the wise influence of the two great powers the Balkans have become a stronghold of peace and quiet."

Whatever the outcome of Ciano's visit, it was expected that the positions of Germany and Italy as regards the immediate future of the Berlin-Rome axis in relation to the new Berlin-Moscow axis, after bringing a definition of Italy's role in the "final" peace effort and, assuming the effort fails in the first instance, that it is follow:

Nazi quarters forecast that if the Hitler plan succeeded, Mussolini would initiate a peace bid in Germany's behalf by the middle of this week, probably direct to Great Britain and France.

AFL OPENS 59TH ANNUAL MEETING

CINCINNATI, Oct. 2 (UP)—The American Federation of Labor opened its 59th annual convention today, beginning by a widening its reach with the CIO and a recommendation of its executive council that the United States should send a peace mission to the European war.

Five hundred and fifty delegates were in attendance for the convention which will continue for two weeks.

President Roosevelt was expected to send a personal message relating his plans for European peace. Delegates believed he would tell the convention that his plan for national unity was being carried out and that it was accomplished if labor's fight war continues and that he would urge the AFL and CIO to resume peacetime activities.

President William Green and the executive council's report, which included a recommendation that the CIO's recent announcement that it would enter the building union war as a "declaration of war."

History repeated itself as Borah spoke. This neutrality debate will touch the memories of the mid-1920s when the neutrality act was passed and older voters often saw the nation's role in the world and against the bill. Few veterans of the post-war foreign policy struggle remain in the senate, but those few will be heard.

"We will be regarded by the belligerent as an enemy, as in the (World) war. They will treat us such. To them the transfer of title will be a sham, a pretense."

He said he would carry out the parole to the transaction in court of law where relative legal rights are involved, but in the reality of war they will protect no one.

Borah remarked that Alfred E. Smith, who took a walk from the New Deal three years ago, had walked back last night in support of the administration's neutrality bill.

Whoops, Kids! Merchants Will Give Halloween Prizes in Window-Soaping

Get your soap ready, kids—soap of every description and color—for on this year's Halloween you're going to have an opportunity to go to town.

Realizing that the youngsters must have their fun and that they will be natural window soapers, the downtown store windows, the merchants of Twin Falls not only have decided to declare "open season" on their display windows on Halloween, but they are going to offer loads of prizes for the best window-soaping on Nov. 1.

Here's how it's going to work. The business men will mark off their windows in squares from 2 1/2 to 4 feet. Any youngster up to and including 14 years of age will be eligible to compete. There will be plenty of squares marked off so every youngster will have an opportunity to find one. Once he has selected his square, he needs only to wait for the blast of the whistle at 7 o'clock that evening. He will have until 9 o'clock to complete his drawing, at which time another blast of the whistle will bring the contest to an end and send the judges on their way to determine the winners.

There will be two general classifications for the window-soapers, comic and artistic, and prizes will be awarded in each division. The grand prize winner will receive $20.00 in cash and the first prize winner in each division will receive $2.50. A $1 prize will be awarded the second, third and fourth place winners in each classification. The 16 next best drawings will receive 50 cents each as honorable mention awards.

Free Ticket, Too
And that's not all. Each youngster who participates in the contest and lives up to all the rules will receive a free ticket to the Orpheum theater for a special Halloween matinee which the merchants have arranged for Saturday morning, Nov. 4.

And here are the rules:

QUIET EASTERN FRONT LETS REDS SHIFT TROOPS WEST

RUSSIANS START PLANS TO KEEP TURKEY NEUTRAL

MOSCOW, Oct. 2 (UP)—The Red benchfront will have a free reign on the European front, it was stated today in connection with an announcement that elaborate maneuvers had been completed successfully by the second far eastern army.

With Soviet Russia negotiating with both Turkey and Latvia, the announcement said that the recently concluded armistice with Japan and the approaching winter conditions indicated quiet on the far eastern front.

The Soviet army has been estimated recently at between 2,500,000 and 2,600,000 men, with more than half that number in the west.

Two Developments

The announcement regarding the military situation coincided with two important diplomatic developments.

1—Negotiations with Turkey to ensure that country's neutrality in event of a British-French declaration of war on the Soviets and to prevent any attack on Russia through the Dardanelles. (Turkey also is concluding an alliance with Britain but it was uncertain whether either pact definitely would fix Turkey's position in event of war between Russia and the allies).

2—An invitation to the Latvian foreign minister, Vilhelms Munters, now en route to Moscow, to negotiate an agreement presumably along the line of the Estonian pact which gave Russia naval and air bases in the Baltic.

Carry Turkey Developments

The president of the supreme Soviet meanwhile appointed a new minister to Norway, M. Platonov. All newspapers printed on their front pages today official accounts of the conference last night between Foreign Minister Viacheslav Molotov and Turkish Foreign Minister Sukru Saracoglu. It was emphasized that Josef Stalin had attended the negotiations which lasted more than four hours.

850 Bushels An Acre for Onion Yield!

The owner of the land, Lem Chapin, of Twin Falls, today declared that a yield of 850 bushels of onions to the acre is "really nothing to brag about" but rather tends to show how productive land in this irrigated section can really become.

Fourteen acres of Mr. Chapin's 80-acre place five and one-half miles east on Addison Avenue produced onions this year, some of them weighing two pounds. Tenant of the place is Murphy Black.

"We were more than satisfied with the yield," Chapin said this afternoon. "We don't claim that it's a record for this section as we believe there are instances where production was heavier. We are of the opinion, however, that it tends to show just how productive irrigated soil of this area can be."

In addition to onions, the 80-acre place also produced contract beans, potatoes and alfalfa hay this year.

TRUCKMAN FACES HIT-RUN CHARGES

Charges of hit and run driving were filed late this afternoon against Russell May, route one, Twin Falls, who police allege was the driver of a truck which Saturday night struck a private automobile carrying four persons.

Although the private machine was demolished, the four occupants escaped injury. They were Harrison B. Rose, Jerome, driver; Nick Dwarshak, Jerome; Edith Mulkan and Alice McBride, both of Twin Falls.

The mishap, police records show, occurred on the truck lane opposite the Katz American apple dehydrating plant. A report show that May's truck crashed into the side of the private machine and knocked it from the pavement into a utility pole. After striking the pole the light coach spun around and came to rest against a guy line protector. The vehicle, police said, virtually "exploded" as a result of the crash.

Mays was arrested one mile south of Twin Falls and was returned to the local police station. This morning it was not known whether his case would be heard in police court or whether it would be turned over to the county for prosecution.

The mishap occurred at 10:30 p. m. Saturday.

ENGLAND WARNED TO PREPARE FOR 'LIGHTNING BLOW'

HITLER CLAIMED WILLING TO QUIT AS PEACE OFFER

By FREDERICK KUH
LONDON, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—Government officials, military leaders and newspaper editors today in warning the British people to get ready for a lightning blow from Germany.

In anticipation of a German peace bid this week, and a British and French rejection, the government sought to prepare not only the fighting forces but the people of the United Kingdom as a whole for anything that the Germans might try—and to reply to it.

The general expectation was that Germany would strike from the air certainly to attack the British fleet, probably to attack naval bases and key ports, and possibly to bomb industrial centers.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain was expected to address the house of commons tomorrow on the diplomatic situation, and particularly the apparently increasingly close partnership between Nazi Germany and Communist Russia.

Peace Rejection Looms
Chamberlain was tentatively expected also to reject in advance any bid to induce the allies to accept peace on the Stalin-Hitler terms.

All sorts of reports circulated as to the possibility of such a move. The most surprising was offered in today's Daily Mirror. This picture paper suggested that Hitler was planning to prepare what he considers his most clever diplomatic trick—an offer to abdicate.

The Daily Mirror suggested that in his speech to the Reichstag late this week, the great Führer would "play his trump card" and, in effect, say:

"They say we are fighting Hitlerism. Then I am prepared to go. I have created a greater Germany. Now I am ready to hand over my burden to Goering"—his recently named official heir.

Winston Churchill, in his 1914 post of first lord of the admiralty, now as then arch-enemy of German militarism, led the next-day speakers.

"Patriotic men and women, especially those who understand the high causes in human fortunes which are now at stake, must not only arise above fear, they must also arise against inconvenience and, perhaps most difficult of all, above boredom."

It may be that great oodles may be coming to us in this island from the air. We shall do our best to give a good account of ourselves."

Fighting Man
This injunction and this warning, however, did not reflect the true tone of Churchill's radio address. It was a vigorous, confident, eloquent speech by a man whom millions regard as a symbol of British fighting spirit.

As a key member of the war cabinet, Churchill's remarks as to Germany had some weight. "It was for Hitler to say when the war would begin, but it is not for him or for his successor to say when it will end. It began when he wanted it and it will end only when we are convinced that he has had enough."

This seemed to rule out definitely even consideration of any German peace bid on Hitler's terms. Further, King George by royal proclamation published today called up an estimated 300,000 men for army, navy and air force service.

One man was held under bond of $1,000 to answer to charges of burglary in the first degree and given preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace H. M. Hoffer Saturday morning and afternoon, court records show today.

Held to answer to the charge is Jeff Harris, 30, Negro who gives his home community as Hordelon, Ia. Released because of lack of sufficient evidence was Thomas P. Payne, 38, Trinity, Tex.

Law officers alleged that the two were involved in the theft of a purse from a Hansen dwelling the night of Sept. 22. When arrested, Harris is said to have told police they mistook the house for a hotel.

Among those testifying at the hearing were Bud Pelton and Lot Kelley, both of Hansen; Mrs. Robert Howell, Georgian Leichter, Marjorie Williams and St. Givens, Kimbrell constable, all testifying for the state; F. C. Kopp, August Nelson and Constable Oivens for the defense.

The case for the state was presented by Everett M. Swecley, county prosecuting attorney, while E. V. Larson handled the defense.

The charge against Harris will come before the district court.

245,000 Turkeys Raised in Idaho

BOISE, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—The 1939 Idaho turkey crop was estimated at 245,000 birds today, by the federal marketing service.

The crop is expected to be larger than those of 1937 and 1938 but about one-fifth smaller than the average production during the five years from 1931 through 1935.

Growers indicated they intend to market their turkeys later than last year. They expect to sell over half the crop during December this year compared with less than 40 per cent last year.

BRITISH PLANES FLY OVER BERLIN

LONDON, Oct. 2 (U.P.)—Royal air force planes have made a successful reconnaissance flight over Berlin and Potsdam, the air ministry announced today after disclosing an air battle between five British and 15 German aircraft over the Siegfried line.

The ministry's announcement indicated no effort was made to drop bombs on the flight over the German capital. This was in line with the allied aerial activities of recent weeks, in which bombardment of all except naval bases has been avoided.

The battle over the Siegfried line was described in detail. Only the British commander and his machine gunner returned after the 35-minute flight. Three British planes were shot down and one made a forced landing, but the eight men in the planes "were seen to escape by parachute."

Two German planes were shot down. The squadron leader carried out his reconnaissance alone, fighting off 15 German planes, which finally gave up the battle after the British gunner, blazing away with 250 rounds of ammunition, sent two German planes plunging to earth.

G&W BLENDED WHISKY No. 106 PINT

THE Milder BLEND WITH THAT $13,000,000 FLAVOR!

Plenty of Smooth Authority—but G&W is So Different—So Satisfyingly Mild

DIFFERENT? Yes, in lots of ways. G & W Private Stock is made by time-tested natural processes brought up to the highest level of uniform perfection by modern scientific distilling. An extra (and expensive) distilling step—a SPECIAL "PURE-MEL-LING"—makes every drop smoother, mellower... FREE FROM AFTER-TASTE.

Packs plenty of smooth authority—but because the grain neutral spirits are high-distilled, lightness and especially "softness," this modern G & W blend is so mild it's even BABY ON YOUR BREAST! It costs more to make this milder G & W blend; but costs you no more to drink.

FESTIVAL CALLED BEST OF SERIES

KIMBERLY, Oct. 2 (Special)—Only bedraggled corn stalks wrapped around lamp posts remained today to signalize completion of what committee members termed the most successful Harvest festival in the series inaugurated three years ago.

Saturday's attractions drew throngs eclipsing the opening day, and the crowds were in merry-making mood under the stimulus of such unusual events as rolling pin throwing, jitterbug contest, husband calling, bicycle races and hog calling.

Nearly 3,000 persons watched the long and colorful parade Saturday morning, according to Ben Walton and Bill Madden, co-chairmen.

Some 1,500 persons were on hand when Lamorne Stevens dropped dodgers good for 30 awards by merchandise.

Kimberly won, 27-13, over Murtaugh in the six-man football game. Winners of the festival highlights:

Mrs. Ora Graves, Kimberly, husband calling champion.

Paul Whitted, Nampa, hog calling champion.

Don Keeley and Pauline Pollard, jitterbug champions.

Ray Stanley, champion speed cyclist.

Mrs. Henry hit the "dummy" the times in "effective" pool at 18 paces to win her rolling pin title. Julie Cunningham was second.

VACCINE REDUCES MOUNTAIN FEVER

Widespread use of Rocky mountain spotted fever vaccine is credited with a marked reduction of spotted fever cases and deaths in Idaho during the past 25 years. It was announced here this afternoon by Dr. O. H. Blitchoff, acting director of the district health unit.

Dr. Blitchoff made the announcement concerning spotted fever just before departing for Boise. He was called back to the state office for duty there and another successor as local director will be made in the immediate future. Dr. E. L. Berry, regular director, is taking an advanced course in public health at the University of Michigan.

The doctor pointed out that during the 1939 season 22 cases of the disease were noted in Idaho and seven persons died. This is against 388 cases in 1914 with 15 deaths.

During the past season, records show the cases and deaths, by counties, included the following: Twin Falls: one case and one death; Minidoka: no cases; Gooding, no cases; Lincoln: no cases.

"Rocky mountain spotted fever had been thought a separate disease for many years prior to the beginning of investigation into its cause and nature by the U. S. public health service in 1902," Dr. Blitchoff said. "Physicians in Montana, Idaho and Wyoming had treated many cases of the illness but due to limited laboratory facilities were unable to establish it as a definite disease."

"Some thought what they observed in their patients was possibly an unusual manifestation of a more commonplace ailment."

"The use of vaccine to prevent spotted fever infection from tick bites is now in common practice throughout the northwest. The success of this method in reducing the number of Rocky mountain spotted fever cases is clearly shown when the figures of 1939 are compared with those of 1914."

A meeting of the local grove of the S.F.W.C. will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Violet Sheppard. Miss Vera Allen and Claire Hogland, both from here, were married in Mountain Home Tuesday.

Sunday was home-coming day at the local Methodist church. A special program was given.

Bill Walker enrolled last week as a student at the southern branch of the university in Pocatello.

Lorraine O'Jording left the first of last week for Eugene, Ore., where she will attend college this winter. An amateur contest will be held Friday, Oct. 12, in the local Four-square church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howarth arrived last week for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Paul Cline, and family. Mr. Howarth returned Sunday but Mrs. Howarth remained for a longer visit. Miss Wilma Howarth came Saturday from Twin Falls, where she is teaching for a short visit.

Throughout the northwest, the success of this method in reducing the number of Rocky mountain spotted fever cases is clearly shown when the figures of 1939 are compared with those of 1914."

Coast Conference Outfits At Meet Major Opponents

Huskies Take On UCLA At Seattle

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2 (UP)—Pacific coast conference football teams and the independents headed into the second week of tough schedules today with Oregon State, U. S. C. and U. C. L. A. holding a slight and shaky leadership over upstart-ridden ranks.

It was one of the stiffest opening weeks-end in history and today disillusioned experts who try to predict the outcome of football games were in full retreat.

Next week-end all eight conference schools will see action against May opponents.

Oregon, which proved itself a first-rate power by tying U. S. C. 7-7, met Stanford at Portland. Stanford took a 12-0 trouncing from Oregon State in its opener.

Washington, bruised 27-8 by Pittsburgh, meets U. C. L. A. at Seattle. The Bruins go off to a good start by trouncing Texas Christian, 6-0.

California, victim of an amazing 6-0 upset at the hands of little College of the Pacific, takes on St. Mary's at Berkeley in a game that annually draws more than 50,000.

St. Mary's took a lead among the independents by trouncing Gonzaga 19-0 Sunday at San Francisco.

Santa Clara, tied 7-7 by Utah in another surprise, draws Texas A. and M. in a Friday night game at San Francisco, while College of the Pacific will try to stay on the glory road against Loyola at Los Angeles.

Montana State meets University of San Francisco at Missoula. Texas Tech plays Gonzaga at Lubbock, and San Jose State meets Nevada.

Mac Lists How De-emphasis Program Hits Pittsburgh

By HENRY McLEMORE
NEW YORK, Oct. 2 (UP)—Monday's grid-iron:

Pittsburgh started its football de-emphasis program by sneaking out of town to the music of only five bands and flying 2,800 miles to completely de-emphasize its "natural" rival, University of Washington at Seattle. . . . These two teams were drawn together by such common bonds as steel and salmon, soot and salt air, the Monongahela river and Puget Sound, and Stogies and Redwoods.

The score was 27-8 and if Jimmie Phelan, Washington coach, is smart he will equip his scalp with a zipper.

The alumni, who had expected a national championship from the Huskies at the worst, will tear it off him any time now.

Best Coaching Job

Amos Alonzo Stagg, who learned football while in charge of Ingram on sports with Washington at Valley Forge, won the award for the best coaching job of the year in the first day of the season when his College of the Pacific team defeated the University of California in what—believe it or not—was the second of a double-header. . . . This oldest of all "grand old men" of any sport now becomes the logical successor to Harry Houdini, and next week will produce the Bremen between halves. . . . One can only look this far for Calumet, however, and no one will be able to produce Stab Allison. . . .

What has become of Cousin Morris McLeMORE? . . . I note he was not in the line-up when Vanderbilt overcame Rice. . . . This leads me to believe they've added spelling to the curriculum at Vanderbilt and he is out with scholastic difficulties.

"Suicide" Schedule

Fordham launched what its publicity department has been pleased to call a "suicide schedule" by defeating formidable Wayneburg 34-7. . . . Tulsa's Green Wave looked just that in barely beating Clemson college, 7-0. Chicago further solidified its position as an institution of higher learning by losing to Beloit, 6-0; and Illinois' Big 10 hopes were broken as Coach Bob Zuppke's district when Bradley Tech tied the Illini 0-0.

Isn't it time that Tennessee was broken up along with the Yankees? . . . The Volunteers haven't lost a game since Major Bob Neyland got there and asked for volunteers. . . . Holy Cross so disfigured Manhattan that even the Indians wouldn't take a job there. . . . It's a good thing that the climate is so bracing, because the university team of that state will need every aid in recuperating from Minnesota. . . . The score, 62-0.

Howard Jones has not changed his strategy at University of Southern California. He is still saving Diego Nave until it is too late. . . . I suggest Howard start giving this for Calumet, however, and no one will be able to produce Stab Allison. . . .

This is Claud Pratt speaking. I have over 3 thousand pounds of half inch machine bolts 5 inches long. We bought these in a job lot and we probably got enough of these bolts to bolt the whole country up. They are threaded from one end to the other and there's two washers on each bolt. They can be cut off. Now we know that these will be mighty handy bolts for farmers to use in various ways. As long as they last we'll sell you 20 pounds of them for a dollar and we'd like to limit so that each farmer wouldn't be allowed to buy over $3 worth of these bolts. If you wanted more than $3 worth you'd have to have your neighbor come buy them for you. In that way we can sell them faster by putting the limit on them. Someone has said that Claud Pratt is the

We bought 300 kegs of odd sized nails sometime ago and sold them out for $1.75 a keg. You might find some of these odd sized nails still in stock. One time I bought several ton of end wrenches and sold these high priced wrenches out for 15c a pound. We don't buy everything that comes along like vacant lots and old sewing machines and worn out stenographers . . . if they offer us something we don't want we always direct them down to Harry Morgan.

We have shotgun shells and rifle bullets. Our Pennsylvania Tires are going out faster than ever. I dread to see Saturday come as people pile in here so fast. I sure like my new bicycle. I'd like it better if it didn't attract so much attention... a black dog took after me, and I'd have kicked at him but I was afraid I'd lose my balance and splatter out so I just hollered "Get off!" THIS CURIOUS WORLD

HUNTERS URGED TO AVERT FIRES

COOSEN, Oct. 2 (Special)—Concern over fire dangers that continue to haunt over most central Idaho forests and cautionary warnings to anxious hunters on the eve of the big game season that opens October 5 in several counties were expressed by G. N. Woods, regional forester, Bismarck.

The youth fork of the Salmon river fire of last week which spread to 400 acres the first afternoon, and increasing numbers of fires on the Weiser, Idaho, Payette and Boise forests have caused supervisors and rangers growing concern, Mr. Woods said. "Unlucky weather conditions improve soon with lower temperatures and higher humidity or the forests get soaked by good rains, the invasion of the forests by the hunters' army will bring added hazards."

Urges Extra Care
Urging extra precautions, foresters believe the bugaboo of late fall man-caused timber fires can be eliminated if: Every hunter becomes a self-appointed fire guardian of the forests, observing the simple rules of—

1. Putting out completely all camp fires.
2. Squelching the last sparks in matches, cigarette and cigar butts, and pipe heels that so frequently are tossed carelessly into the forest tinder box and quickly build up into scorching infernos.

Rain Benefit Gone
Current reports show that benefits of early September rains have mostly vanished in central Idaho especially in the lower altitudes, and October is approached by forest fire organizations with nearly a full complement of fire guards and lookouts on duty. Many stations once vacated are being reoccupied in the face of the new dry spell.

To make the coming days of the big game season smokeless and fire free, forest rangers say it is only necessary for every hunter to be fire-minded, cooperative, fully and play the part of a good woodsman.

Buhl Guardsmen Want Enlistments

BUHL, Oct. 2 (Special)—Telegraphic instructions were received here this week from the adjutant general of Idaho, Gen. M. G. McDonald, ordering the Buhl company D to sign 24 more men at once. The unit may attain full war strength.

Single men over 18 years of age and physically fit will be accepted for enlistment. This increase will give company D one more staff sergeant and two additional corporals.

The range firing will continue on the range starting at 7 a. m. Wednesday, Oct. 4. An inventory of enlisted equipment issued to the Buhl organization will be taken Wednesday. In the evening, Major Howard W. Clark, engineer instructor for the state of Idaho who will take the inventory, will also make an inspection of men for which an extra drill has been called.

JAPAN GETS DOMESTIC COURTS

The domestic disputes arbitration section of the Osaka district court has been organized in compliance with a law passed at the recent Diet session.
