GREAT BRITAIN MAPS FINISH FIGHT AGAINST NAZIS

GERMAN RAIDER IS BLAMED FOR SINKING OF SHIP

By WALLACE CARROLL
LONDON, Oct. 26 (U.P.)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain disclosed today that the German pocket-battleship Deutschland is roving the Atlantic as a sea raider and declared that Great Britain is prepared to give the only possible reply to the Nazi challenge to a finish fight.

"That, indeed, is their decision, that can be but our reply and we are prepared to give it," the tall, gray-faced prime minister told the house of commons in disdainful comment on the speech of Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop at Danzig.

Chamberlain, after striking back at the Nazi charge that Britain plotted the war, disclosed:

1. That the 10,000-ton pocket-battleship Deutschland sank the British steamer Glengarry, whose crew was picked up by the American freighter City of Flint only to fall into German hands again when the American ship was taken as a prize.

2. That at least half a dozen Nazi bombing planes were shot down off the coast of Britain in the last week on Oct. 21.

3. He enumerated 19 or 11 German bombers downed in attacks on British convoys and Scottish naval bases.

4. That the allied counter-attack on Nazi submarines was successful enough to encourage belief that this menace to our trade would be overcome. At least one and possibly two U-boats were destroyed in the last week. Previously the allies had reported at least 20 submarines destroyed.

5. No Warning
6. That it seems now to have become a rule for merchant ships to be sunk without warning.

7. That the enemy loss in merchant ship tonnage in the last week was 33,000 tons as compared to loss of five British ships with total tonnage of 17,715.

8. That a number of German ships had been seized by British blockade squadrons, including the battleship Bismarck, a heavy cruiser, the Blücher, 1,375 tons; the Pleiades, 5,884 tons; the Buceya, 6,500 tons (Lloyds lists the Pleiades as being the Panamanian flag).

9. That Great Britain, France and Turkey are now discussing economic and financial aid to Turkey, particularly regarding war supplies, as a result of the "purely defensive" nature of the treaty between them. He described the treaty as the outstanding diplomatic event of the last week.

PENALTY SET ON FLYING U. S. FLAG

"I understand there is some opposition to adjourning at all," Sen. William E. Borah, R., Ind., argued that the penalties contained in Barkley's amendment were "too light." Sen. Warren R. Austin, R., Me., supported the provision because he said it could not be enforced "except by war."

Tobey said that he recently asked Secretary of State Cordell Hull what assurances had been asked of the British government that there would be no repetition of World War I instances in which the American flag was flown by British merchantmen.

Hull replied, he said, that the American flag has not been used by any foreign vessel in the present conflict, and that, therefore, no assurance had been required.

GERMANS GET RAW MATERIALS IN SOVIET TRADE PACT

NAZIS WILL SEND FARM MACHINES, NEW DISCOVERIES

BERLIN, Oct. 26 (AP)—German-Russian trade negotiations provide for Russian delivery to Germany of large quantities of vital raw materials in return for machinery and industrial equipment, it was announced today.

The announcement coincided with plans to welcome a Soviet trade delegation arriving today.

Trade negotiations, the announcement said, envisage a treaty under which Germany, in addition to delivering large quantities of all kinds of machinery and industrial equipment, will give Russia the benefit of her latest discoveries in the synthetic production of gasoline and rubber.

It was announced that during negotiations in Moscow during the last two weeks it was agreed that Russia would deliver to Germany large quantities of wheat, mineral oils, mineral oil products, timber, cotton, raw phosphate, flax, platinum, manganese and other ores.

While the Russian trade delegation which arrives in Berlin today negotiates regarding the delivery of Russian materials to Germany, a German delegation in Moscow will negotiate details of delivery of German products to Russia, the German announcement said.

Leap for a Life

Like a lurid poster advertising an old-time "Ten-Ten-Thirty" melodrama in this scene showing the thrilling mid-air rescue of a stage-struck girl who had threatened to jump from a New York hotel window. Blond Helen Kawalek, 16, ran away from her Bayonne, N. J., home to seek stage success in New York. Discouraged by failure, she stood on the second-story window ledge, declared she would leap. Fireman Richard Oliver tied a rope about him, jumped from the third floor window, grabbed her off the ledge and held her until both were lowered to the safety net held by his comrades. The girl was taken to a hospital for observation.

FLINT LASHES AT CLARK'S REGIME

BOISE, Oct. 26 (AP)—The Idaho highway department will make sufficient savings to take up a shortage by June despite a budget of debt left by the previous administration and an unexpected loss of $300,000 from its funds, highway director H. R. Flint said today.

Flint struck back at former Gov. Barilla Clark who issued a statement recently in Idaho Falls asserting the present administration was running the state into debt with issuance of registered warrants.

"Gov. Clark's patronage-minded highway bureau let heavy contracts, well knowing that another administration would have to bear the expense," Flint said. "As a result, $668,541 of available funds for 1939 were obligated before Gov. Bottolfsen took office."

The unexpected $300,000 loss came from an attorney general's opinion ordering disbursement of that amount to counties for road use in addition to anticipated allotments.

Keep Your Red Cross Ready

This striking painting of a Red Cross nurse keeping the symbol of mercy flying is the keynote of the 1939 appeal for membership in the American Red Cross. Faced with the need for strengthening daily Red Cross services in 3,700 chapters, and with its chartered obligation to aid in some measure in meeting the distress of the men, women and children of refugees in war-torn countries across the sea, the Red Cross asks every man and woman in the nation, able to do so, to join as a member this year and support America's official voluntary relief agency. Ruthin Williams, a distinguished artist, is creator of this ideal conception of the nurse heroine.

Germany Applies Pressure to Halt Neutral Trading With Britain

NORTH COUNTRIES WARNED AGAINST HELPING ENGLAND

BY GEORGE KIDD

BERLIN, Oct. 26 (UP)—Germany exerting strong pressure on some neutral nations in an attempt to avenge its losses to Great Britain as an apparent preliminary to a possible submarine and airplane attack on the British navy and merchant marine, it was indicated today.

The authoritative Deutscher Dienst agency asserted last night: "It can be regarded as certain that Germany would not stand idly by if neutral countries increased their exports to Great Britain."

This was followed by the announcement that the Danish radio at Copenhagen that the German ambassador, Cecil von Reine-Pink, had warned Danish citizens to refrain from traveling in British or French ships. He warned also that Danish ships would be regarded as enemies if British or French ships escorted them. Similar warnings had been given other nations.

Would Break Blockade—It was reported Germany wanted to keep neutral states and particularly the Scandinavian ones, from doing any trading at all with Britain, at the same time staging an insidious attempt to break the British blockade.

The Deutscher Dienst agency in its announcement said Germany would regard any move by neutrals to submit to British high seas control of their shipping an infringement of international law. If Britain succeeded in enforcing its blockade demands on neutrals it would mean the end of all neutral trade, the agency said.

Britain Denounced

Indications that some report to Britain was coming soon, and in dramatic form were strengthened by the more vigorous denunciations of Britain in inspired Nazi publications.

Diplomatic circles speculated on the possibility that a conference between Adolf Hitler and high army officers yesterday concerned plans for a big attack against Britain.

The tendency to separate Britain and France in propaganda was not with increasing frequency. As denunciations of Britain increased in bitterness, the comments on France became more sugary.

NAVY VIEWED AS BULWARK OF U. S.

Calling attention to the Navy day banquet set for the Park hotel Friday evening, J. Edward Warner, commander of the local post of the American Legion, this afternoon pointed out that the modern navy dates from 1800 when there were ordered the first all-steel ships.

"Simultaneously circumstances were forcing America to become a great sea power," Warner said. "The years of continental exploitation had ended and the wilderness that had been the United States was transformed into a modern state. Trouble in Cuba at the end of the century and the demands of the Hawaiian island people for incorporation into our political situation forced the American people to look beyond their shores for the first time in that generation."

Born of Necessity—"Thus American sea power, was born of national necessity. But the formation of a concrete naval policy derived from national exigencies lagged behind the recognition of America's need for a navy."

Turning to the future of the navy, Commander Warner said: "To the furtherance of our national policy, the navy stands committed. To the defense, preservation, and perpetuation of our national institutions and America's heritage, our navy is consecrated. National policy may change. That is the responsibility and prerogative of our Congress."

"But when once formulated, our national policy is buttressed and inviolable. The navy, for the navy is but the instrument of national policy, an instrument we must not let ourselves be misled by mere potentiality but ready, always, for active service."

Adds from tomorrow evening's program, a radio program will also highlight the day's observance in Twin Falls.

Officials Confer to Protect Big Oakley Pinenut Industry

OAKLEY, Ida., Oct. 26 (UP)—An appeal to save from destruction white vandals a $50,000 industry of gathering, roasting and selling pinenuts, carried on by Indians since prehistoric times, was made this week to the Idaho planning board.

J. D. Wood, executive secretary of the planning board, came here to confer with local officials on proposals to protect the unique industry.

The pinenut is a small nut that grows between the protrusions of a pinecone on a pine tree. It has a sweet meat with the flavor of pine that is considered a western delicacy.

The Indians reap a rich harvest of the nuts annually. They cure the nuts by roasting in secret fires.

The area is adjacent to the famed "City of Rocks," a crossroad of the Old California trail and a branch of the Old Oregon trail, where 300 emigrants were massacred at the Battle of Alamo creek in 1861.

The area is rich in Indian lore and western pioneer tradition.

Fourteen physicians, including doctors from Twin Falls area communities, Gooding and Jerome, were present. Heading the discussion was Dr. Krocher and also Dr. M. J. Fendler, president of the Twin Falls county hospital staff.

The group passed a resolution which resolved to carry out the control measures already instituted, as follows: 1—Keep the schools open. 2—Exclude children daily who show symptoms of illness. 3—Make public health nursing home calls on all absentee. 4—Keep febrile patients isolated at least three days after the temperature has subsided. 5—Limit physical exercise of all children and contacts as much as possible. 6—Discourage public gatherings and unnecessary traveling into neighboring communities.

MAJOR TEAMS STILL IN UNBEATEN CLASS

Cornell-Ohio State Clash Headlines Gridiron Activity

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (U.P.)—The ranks of football's unbeaten teams are thinning out and by end of the season it's a safe bet you'll be able to write the list of perfect-record eleven on the head of a pin.

Only 11 major teams—those who are on the so-called gridiron "big time"—have yet to suffer defeat. And eight teams in this same class—including some of the best in the land—are undefeated but tied.

The No. 1 fray of the week-end will be staged in Columbus, O., where unbeaten Ohio State takes on unbeaten Cornell. The betting favors Ohio State.

In New Orleans, unbeaten Mississippi, whose only major victim has been Louisiana State, faces a Tulane team that has been toughened by many hard scraps and which has a clean record except for a 14-1 tie with North Carolina. And in Philadelphia that same North Carolina, with only a tie against it, will test unbeaten Pennsylvania, which holds decisions over Yale and Harvard.

Tennessee Has Breather

Tennessee, No. 1 team of the country, has a day's rest against Mercer, Kentucky, still to be tested under heavy fire, has a breath against the University of Tennessee, which has been unbeaten but tied by Syracuse, shouldn't be in trouble against George Washington.

But the rest of the unbeaten brigade won't find this week-end one for relaxing.

Michigan goes against Yale, still a "mystery" team. Notre Dame takes on Carnegie Tech, which is, smarting under its first defeat of the year by N. Y. U.

Texas A. and M. plays Baylor in a Southwest conference game and contests in that sector are as unpredictable as a deck of cards. Oregon State takes Washington State in one of the Pacific northwest classics and Duquesne knocked off Pittsburgh last week, plays a tough Texas Tech team tomorrow night in Pittsburgh.

Tough Assignments

The remaining five teams in the unbeaten but tied class also have tough assignments this week-end.

Dartmouth, held to a scoreless tie by Navy, takes on Harvard. Southern California, still the Pacific coast No. 1, plays against an early-season tie by Oregon faces California in an annual battle that frequently turns out to be one of those comparative strengths of the two circuits. Nebraska plays Kansas State in a Big Six battle. Oklahoma, unbeaten last year and tied in its own conference, takes on Oklahoma A. and M. in one of the hottest games in the Sooner state. And U.C.L.A., with a week of rest, faces an Oregon team which was knocked over by Gonzaga.

C. of I. Issues First Call For Hoop Men

CALDWELL, Oct. 26 (Special)—Three freshmen, three members of last year's strong freshman squad and six new men reported to Coach Clem Parberry last Tuesday night for the initial workout of the College of Idaho hoop team. Several more will probably be on as practice sessions continue while the close of the football season will bring more experienced performers to the ranks.

Two practices weekly will be held until a little later in the season when the number will be increased. Tuesday's workout consisted of basket shooting, fundamentals and exercises.

Lettermen answering the initial call were two strikers, Art Cline, forward, and Payette, and guard, center, Doug Anderson of Vesperia, and only three letter-winners in John De Cruz of Madras, D. There are no one-strike winners out for the squad at the present time.

Lettermen of last year's freshman squad are big center, Knudsen, Gus Henry, and forward, Fred Hulls and Bob Yost of Parma and Nolan respectively.

Out Jarvis, guard of Boise, formerly starred for the Boise Junior College Broncos, is expected to take over one of the regular guard jobs for the Coyotes. Other men reporting were Nyle Williams, a likely looking forward from Lewiston, forward, Bruce Bartlett, Greenleaf, Hvede Golf, Parma, and Roy Peterson, Emmert, while center, Bud Saunders came from Stamp.

Two one-strike winners who will aid the Coyotes when the football season is over are Rabbit Bennett, forward, and Vern McGowan, Boise guard, while fresh ahead from 1938 men performing on the gridiron are Kenny Moore, Ontario, guard, and Hans La Orue, Dietrich forward. Both are expected to make strong bids for varsity spots this year.

Not much is known about the fresh prospects on the football team although a pair of transfers, Wayne Smith of Dexter, Ia., and Ron Haglund of Portland, were letter winners at Oquendo college.

Very little is known about the discovery of all. The most common legend is that it was made by a Chinese emperor of about 2000 B. C.

Series Idea

LARRY MACPHAIL

MacPhail Asks Sixteen-Club World Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (U.P.)—Larry MacPhail, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, announced today he would propose a 16-club world series at the December major league meetings in Cincinnati.

MacPhail, whose night ball showmanship brought the Dodgers a balance on the profit side of the financial ledger, believes that the competition should not be confined to two clubs.

He contends the present world series idea between the two pennant winners in each league does not settle satisfactorily the question of comparative strengths of the two circuits. Particularly not when the American league has a standard outfit like the New York Yankees for four straight years.

In addition to the regular series, MacPhail wants seven additional clubs, with the clubs finishing second to meet each other and so on down the line, according to the final standings. Each game in the inter-league series would count equally and the league winning the most games would hold, for one year, a trophy emblematic of its supremacy.

Albion School Team Makes Great Record

ALBION, Oct. 26 (Special)—Nearing the end of their regular schedule, the Albion high school gridiron club today takes no back seat for the regular gridiron in south central Idaho competition.

The team from this school has a record of scoring 193 points in five games this year, against nothing for the opposition.

During that time the gridiron club has scored two victories over the Hagerman boys, downed Hagerman, and yesterday scored its second victory of the year over the Burley Jayvees—this time by a score of 43-0.

There were originally two more games on the local schedule, with Hagerman set for Nov. 3 and Kimberly Nov. 16. However, the tilt with the Bulldogs has been called off due to sickness in the Kimberly area.

Coach Delvin Waterman states his team averages 133 pounds in weight, slightly less than average for Class B teams. However, of the regulars, four are only ninth graders.

In yesterday's tilt the local club scored before the game was three minutes old when Edward Bell croaked into pay dirt after a Burley fumble. The scoring for the local club came by Steve Hewitt, and then Knudsen, each of whom collected three touchdowns.

NORTH SIDE FARMERS OFFER HUNTERS HOSPITALITY THAT IS SELDOM SEEN IN U. S.; GREAT CAGE OUTFIT COMING

We've heard hunters from the cities cross farmers for posting "Not Hunting" signs—and we've heard farmers curse the hunters for disregarding those signs.

In most places in the nation there has always been, and probably always will be, a certain amount of dissension between the farmer and the hunter—because the farmer believes (and rightly) that he should have the right to protect his own land from being trampled on, his fence from being torn down. The sportsman believes (sometimes rightly) that he will do no damage to crops, fences, or anything else if the farmer will allow him to hunt.

Or this:—This argument could go on forever, and in some sections, it probably will. But not on the north side of the Snake river.

Hunting in the Jerome-Wendell-Gooding district recently we have run across some signs that go a long way toward settling the age-old argument. At several places we read this sign:—

"Hunters. Be a sportsman. Stay away from the buildings and stock while hunting on this land."

And this:—

"Hunters. Park your car in the yard and ask where the best hunting is in these fields."

"Warning. Please do not hunt on this land without first getting permission from the owner."

Those signs, to this department, appear very lenient and sensible. Any hunter should respect the farmer enough to follow that good advice. And if the hunter hasn't enough good sense to follow those orders, then he should NOT be permitted to roam the fields in search of pheasant that the farmer has probably unwittingly let all summer.

A letter from our old friend, Dick Hudson, Negro sports impresario, who annually tours the nation with such outstanding colored performers as Jesse Owens, Joe Louis and other top-ranking sports performers.

A couple of years ago Hudson came through this section with Owens in tow and did record-breaking business at stands throughout the region. This time he was a colored girl's club that packed 'em in round the country.

Now, writes Dick, he has something new in basketball:—

"I am making plans to bring two top club boys your way after Christmas. The first club is what I believe will be the biggest attraction for the fans I have ever booked. The club is named the Zulu Kings and features one native prince who is the real McCoy. The other players are from the old Savoy club, which was one of the top colored teams in this section."

"Not only will the fans see a good game, but to assure them of a lot of laughs, each player will be dressed in grass skirts and war paint. Included in the lineup will be Gumbo Gibbs—the best clown in the business."

"The other attraction is the Hottentot Athletic club. This team is the top colored A.U. team in the country. It has held the national colored championship for the past five years. They were at the Denver meet two years ago under the name of the Collegians and won three games, which gives you an idea of their strength."

This little story, regarding the failure of Zek Bonura to make good as a first baseman with the New York Giants, was fitting on our desk today—probably put there by some good Brooklyn fan:

"This is the story they tell about Bill Terry's final blow-off on Zek Bonura's fielding ability:—

"With the bases loaded in a close game, the Giants' first baseman fielded a ball cleanly. He held up his hand to signal the pitcher that he didn't need help on the play and ran over to touch first base without realizing that the ball had dropped out of his glove. Two runs scored on the play and the Giants lost the game."

College of Idaho Prepares for Boise Grid Game

CALDWELL, Oct. 26 (Special)—Back on their home lot after losing a hard fought game to the strong Linfield Wildcats at McMinnville Saturday, the Coyotes are now working in preparation for their traditional rival, the Boise Junior college. The game will be played at the Boise Junior college home field, the Hagerman field, Friday night.

The Linfield class was the local pay defense gave way as Hippie heaved a 52-yard pass to quarterback Beckley for one touchdown while the aerial route also paved the way for the third when Meyers went from the two-yard strip. The close of the Coyotes came to reaching pay dirt was when Rabbit Bennett sprinted 80 yards to score only to have the play called back by the officials as they ruled that the little ball had stepped out of bounds.

The first time the Coyotes and Boise Junior college have played was in 1937 when the locals won 18-0 after a hard battle. The Broncos were then led by Rabbit Bennett who is now sparking Coyote drives. A great game is expected between the Boise valley rivals as the Broncos have improved greatly since they lost to Albion Normal earlier in the season.

The starting lineup will probably be picked from among the following: Bob Petty and George Blankley or Arkansas Ralph Rogers, ends; Captain Buck Leeper, fullback; Barker, or Hank Schmidt, tackle; Ronnie Reese, Joe Smith or Cliff Starna, guards; Dennis Moore, center; Purcell Russell or Hal Brown, quarter; Bennett and Bob Huth or Vern McGowan, half; and Dutch Prince, fullback.

Oregon State Risks Record Against WSC

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26 (U.P.)—Oregon State, the only Pacific coast team with a perfect record, is saved by the schedule this Saturday from proving whether the power which brought four victories is enough to provide a chance at the conference title.

Lon Stinner's squad knocked off thoroughly-beaten Washington, 12-7, last week and is heavily favored to repeat Saturday against Washington State, another of the same caliber.

The rest of the conference digs in this week for heavy playing after a relaxing week of open dates or breather games.

California strikes its sternest test of the year at Berkeley against the revived Southern California Trojans.

U. C. L. A. has a tough customer in Oregon with the odds even and take your pick. U. C. L. A. bowled over Montana yesterday, 26-6, last week.

Oregon still ranks near the top in coast standings with a tie against U. S. C. and victories over California and Stanford but was smothered 12-7 by Gonzaga. If Coach Tex Oliver can rebuild the aerial attack which collapsed against Gonzaga, the Webbees are given a good chance to win.

Stanford, after resting last week and with a tie with U.C.L.A., the week before to bolster its hopes, goes against Washington. The Huskies from Seattle have yet to win a game this season.

Idaho and Montana meet in Moscow Saturday for a non-conference game.

In Samoa, a kiss is merely a snuff.

Vandals to Battle for "Little Brown Stein"

By BILL MCGOWAN

MOSCOW, Ida., Oct. 26 (U.P.)—The University of Idaho Vandals compete on the gridiron with the University of Montana Grizzlies for the "Little Brown Stein" before a Homcoming day crowd at Natic stadium Saturday.

Stung by a fury of activity in practice this week by their string of three straight losses, to Oregon State, Gonzaga and the University of Utah, the Vandals are determined to get back on the victory trail with a win over Montana. The Utes downed Idaho, 35 to 0 at Boise last week.

The Idaho gridders held the "little Brown Stein" by virtue of a win over the Grizzlies at Missoula last year before a Homcoming day crowd there. Now the Grizzlies are out to avenge that loss with an excellent chance to turn the trick.

The rebuilt Idaho backfield, greeted with the presence of sophomore halfback Rex Engkling, was worked heavily on pass defense to overcome a weakness displayed in the Gonzaga and Utah encounters. Coach Ted Bank stressed fundamentals of blocking and tackling to teach the team hard, straight football without the fancy flairs in an effort to offset the hard-charging Montana backs.

Scout reports of Montana plays formed the basis for workouts. The freshmen worked the plays against the Idaho team, but could make no headway through the line. They succeeded in completing passes with frequency for long gains, however.

Jack Donovan, senior guard, was chosen captain for the Montana game. Tony Kameliev, veteran guard, was expected back in the lineup.

Stanford, after resting last week and with a tie with U.C.L.A., the week before to bolster its hopes, goes against Washington. The Huskies from Seattle have yet to win a game this season.

Idaho and Montana meet in Moscow Saturday for a non-conference game.

Jones Leads Teammates To Pin Wins

Led by Rolly Jones, who posted a new season three-game record of 615, National Laundry took the out of four last night from Elks in the Commercial league bowling. Jones posted games of 189-223-233 to set his new mark.

The Elks took the first game, but lost the second and third and then dropped the total pins.

Top man for the losers was John Ford, who had a 532 total for three games. High single went to George Hoff, with a 169.

National Laundry hangs right in there with a tie for first place with Schlitz due to a three-out-of-four victory over the Elks. The Laundry club copied the first game by 24 pins—20 of which were handicaps.

Rolly Jones, with games of 189-223-233 set a new season record of 615, raising his own mark of 607. Rolly had five strikes in a row his middle game and wound up his last game with five in a row.

Spurtons Leichter was the only other Laundry bowler to go over the 300-mark, getting a 520.

John Ford was the best Elks bowler with a 532. George Hoff got top single with 189—that is, top for the Elks. George and John were the only Elks who topped the 500 mark. George got 514.
