

SOVIET RUSHES MORE TROOPS TO BATTLE

TEMPERATURE IN INTER-MOUNTAIN AREA PLUMMETS

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 28 (UP)—The intermountain west was battling today against the effects of a belated winter storm that sent mercury to new lows, tied up traffic in Utah and caused at least one death.

The heavy snowfall, which came out of the north yesterday, brought some assurance against drought conditions. Waterheads and ranges were coated with four to nine inches of snow.

After a brief respite from a cold snap, temperatures in Utah, Idaho and Montana fell to the lowest point of the season. Salt Lake City's minimum of zero was reached about 2:30 a. m. Thursday. Other low readings: Boise, 10 degrees below zero; Pocatello, three degrees below; Haver, nine degrees below. Butte was tied with Salt Lake in the area with 21 degrees below.

Mother Protects Daughter

The first victim of freezing was Mrs. Anetha Alvay, 71, of Escalante, Utah, who was caught in a snow storm Christmas day. Mrs. Alvay's frozen body was found on a remote mountain road between Teasdale and Escalante. Beneath her was a 4-month-old daughter, Phyllis Ann, who was sheltered from freezing temperatures by her dead mother. The body was found by a search party.

The death started the tragic close of the season for Mrs. Alvay, her husband, Fred, and daughter. The family had been in the area for several days, trying to find a way out. The car was stuck in the snow, and the family was running out of food.

TENNESSEE LIGHT COST IS LOWEST

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (UP)—The federal power commission reported today that average electric bills dropped sharply between 1935 and 1938 with the greatest percentage decline occurring in the Tennessee valley authority region.

Lowest average bill, the commission said, are now being paid in Tennessee, California and Washington. The commission noted it was making a factual presentation and no attempt has been made to explain or to evaluate any of the factors operating to cause differences in the level of electric bills.

Average bill for residential use of 100 kilowatt hours indicated: Utah $3.80; Idaho $3.85; Montana $4.64.

Great Toscanini Weeps as Eleanor Powell Dances

By PAUL HARRISON (NEA Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 28 (UP)—When the great Arturo Toscanini was in Movietown lately, he consented to walk the Metro lot. They gave him the triple-A, 21-gun, de luxe tour, which means he was flanked by studio heads, followed by a couple of spare linemen, and preceded by an advance guard to warn door-men and people on the sets.

It was made clear to everyone that this was to be a dignified occasion. The celebrated musician would not be wanting any autographs, nor would he expect to be addressed as "Tosky." He might not care for any conversation at all, nor any introductions. The schedule had been rigidly arranged for a maximum of 20 minutes on each set.

A few of the top stars, who ordinarily might expect some special attention from the maestro, were cautioned that they probably wouldn't get any. Toscanini, it was said, never makes any comment even when he is listening to the world's greatest singers or instrumentalists. If a performance was good, he'd give no sign; if it was a degree less than good, he'd probably just leave.

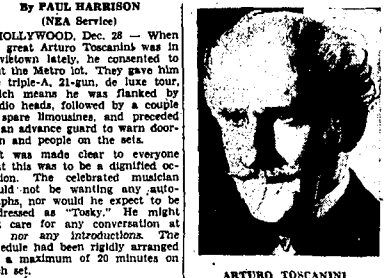

Eleanor Powell was one of those who were warned about Toscanini's coming. Easy-going, inclined to clowning, and accustomed to sprawling around on the set like

3 KILLERS MAKE PRISON GETAWAY

FLORHAM, N.J., Dec. 28 (UP)—Three men who had been in prison for years made a daring escape from the New Jersey State Prison today.

The escapees were identified as James J. Connelley, 34, of Newark; John P. Dwyer, 32, of Newark; and William J. Dwyer, 30, of Newark.

The three men were caught in a trap set by the prison authorities. They were found in a car, with a large amount of cash and other valuables.

ARTURO TOSCANINI

ELEANOR POWELL

one of the chorus girls, she took a pinch in her dignity and prepared to behave like a prima ballerina. Luckily for this stuffy old Italian, he happened to be doing some ballet numbers, instead of hot-cha stuff, for "Broadway Melody."

Miss Powell herself told me what happened. For of course no observers were allowed to take along with the party. "They told me he'd stay just a few minutes," she said, "but he seemed interested and I danced four numbers for him. Then he said, 'Will you make for me the dance with the notes?'"

"I had introduced my pianist but he was so scared, with Toscanini on the set, that he couldn't move. So I danced without music, and all the time I could see Toscanini beating his chair with his fist."

"When I finished, he came over and kissed me all over my face, and he was crying! And he was gabbling half in English and half in Italian, but I could understand because my first little girl friend was Italian and later I learned some from an Italian voice teacher. He said, 'My child, never have I cried before except at music! But your feet are a symphony! And that you are a lady and can dance like this!'"

"When I thanked him in Italian, he kissed me again. By that time I was crying, too, and so was nearly everybody on the set. And when he was going out the door, followed by all that entourage from the front office, he came rushing back to tell me goodbye again. And he even asked me to dinner at his house."

Miss Powell reckons that that was the greatest thrill of her life, but she thinks it's strange how emotionally affected other people were. She remembers going to her dressing room to get some things to put on fresh makeup. When she came out, her stand-in rushed up to her and quavered, "Oh-h Eleanor, you were such-it was—and she began bawling, and Miss Powell cried again, and the chorus girls all started blowing their noses.

Dead Litter Streets After Turkey 'Quake

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Dec. 28 (UP)—Dead littered the streets of towns and homeless refugees sought shelter from intense cold and driving snow today after an earthquake which had devastated a wide area of eastern Turkey.

Disrupted communications made authentic casualty compilations impossible. But it seemed certain the death toll would be high in the thousands and that tens or scores of thousands of refugees were homeless. Fragmentary reports indicated the earthquake might prove to have been the most disastrous in Turkish records.

Reports of death, destruction and suffering came from towns over a total area of more than 25,000 square miles.

YOUNG GIRL, 18, FOUND MURDERED

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28 (UP)—The nude body of a 18-year-old young girl, with a large artificial red nose pinned beneath her, was found today in a vacant lot in the shadow of a towering gas company tank.

The girl had been stabbed six times and her body had slumped from the chin, past her left ear and across her forehead apparently in an attempt to disguise her and prevent identification.

She was partly scalped and her face was exposed.

Refugio Ramirez, a butcher, discovered the body after he was attracted to it by the frantic barking of his dog.

Ramirez lives in a shack across the fence from where the body was found.

Pollie said the rose found under the girl's right hip apparently had been ripped from her dress.

Near the body was a five-inch, yellow-gold butterfly brooch.

Were Wedding Ring

The girl wore a white gold wedding ring and a yellow gold diamond ring on her left hand. Another diamond ring was on the third finger of her right hand.

Pollie believed her slayer drove into the vacant lot with the girl in his car, tried to attack her, ripped off her clothing and stabbed her to death.

HIDDEN

NAMPA, Ida., Dec. 28 (UP)—Harley G. Shaddy, Nampa, hid the day's receipts from his gasoline station, $100 in currency and silver, in the fire box of a cook stove in his apartment—and now lies only $20 in melted silver left. A neighbor came in while he was out and started a fire in the stove.

DIES COMMITTEE RAPS ACTIONS OF U. S. NAZI AGENT

By JOHN R. BEAL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (UP)—The Dies committee charged today that Dr. Colin Ross, a registered Nazi propagandist, recently toured the United States in a special automobile equipped with motion picture camera and attempted to photograph "specialized industrial plants."

His activities, the committee charged, "appeared to come within the category of espionage."

The committee recommended that Ross, a German of Scottish descent, be prevented from ever again setting foot on American soil. He was in the United States as recently as March 17, when he sailed for Japan aboard the Japanese liner Asama Maru.

Issued Warnings

The Dies committee charged today that Ross was made public by Rep. H. Jerry Voorhis, D., Calif., chairman of a subcommittee investigating Nazi and Fascist propaganda. He said all six other members of the committee concurred in the findings.

The report said "officials extremely high in the government of the United States" have issued warnings and secret orders concerning Ross' activities, the expenses for which were paid in part by Nazi government agencies.

In a summarization of the findings of its own investigation, the committee asserted:

World Spy

That during the World War Ross was a German spy assigned at one time to special propaganda work in behalf of the Imperial German government and against the allies prior to the entrance of the United States into the war.

Ross is registered with the state department as a Nazi propagandist but has not reported in accordance with this after the City Clerk W. H. Eldridge in an annual report.

Montana Solon MAY GET CIO AID

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (UP)—Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, D., Mont., on basis of the best available information today appears likely to be re-elected in 1940 that John L. Lewis and his Congress of Industrial Organizations will have President Roosevelt in 1938.

The United Press was informed that CIO leaders, proceeding on the assumption Mr. Roosevelt will not seek a third term, have looked over the Democratic presidential aspirants and have concluded that Wheeler is the best of the lot—although they are not yet committed to his candidacy. Another and, from the CIO standpoint, better candidate may enter the race at a future date.

If Mr. Roosevelt decides to run the CIO must weigh the third term issue and Mr. Roosevelt's record against the promise of his Republican opponent.

NEW YEAR EVE Celebrations Will Hit High

By United Press

The United States will enter the 1940's with the same New Year eve hilarity as it embarked on the 1930's but the celebrations will differ in several essentials.

Liquor was illegal in 1920, bootleg prices were high. The black market had crashed a few months ago. High-priced night clubs were packed as usual but many parties had nothing but hope to spur their celebrations.

A rising stock market, legal liquor and a consequent reduction of prices and lower rates at night clubs will make this New Year eve a gay one. The hit will be off in New York City, as it will in Los Angeles and San Francisco and in Chicago, although somewhat extra-legally. In Detroit, Washington, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Kansas City, Milwaukee and Salt Lake City legal compilation will muzzle public hilarity.

Special Licenses

Special licenses can be obtained by New York hotels and night clubs extending the legal 4 a. m. closing law and managers of the leading spots there said reservations indicated a 10 to 15 per cent better business than a year ago. Prices (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

Russian Leaders Plan Assault on Karelian Front

By WEBB MILLER

WITH THE FINNISH ARMY AT THE KARELIAN Isthmus Front, Dec. 28 (UP)—Russian army chiefs apparently have decided to try to win the Finnish war by forcing a decision on the 60-mile Karelian Isthmus front, according to information which reached the Finns today.

Finnish reports are that more than 270,000 fresh Russian troops are to be brought from the interior of Russia and thrown into the fight. They Preparations, according to the Finnish reports, point to an attempt to break the Finnish left wing on the Mannerheim line. Belief is growing that the Russians, defeated in their hope of a "blitzkrieg" lightning war, have decided on one of attack in which they will hunt through troops already at the Finnish line, hoping to wear down resistance.

Transportation Difficulties

Assuming the Finnish reports to be correct, it would take some time to bring 270,000 men to this front from the interior of Russia. Scores of transport difficulties, hindrances to the Russian advance, would be further transport difficulties. For the isthmus front the Russians have but two railroad lines from Leningrad, and for the northern front only the Leningrad-Murmansk line.

Despite the expenditure of perhaps 1,000,000 shells and the hundreds of tanks and airplanes and thousands of air bombs, the Russians have not been able to make appreciable gains in the isthmus fighting which is entering its seventh week. The Mannerheim line has been critically threatened.

There are evidences already that the Russians are using some of their crack troops. Reliable reports are that at least one regiment of Cossacks took part in one attack. They demonstrated near the front according to Finnish reports, and advanced, afoot, their well trained horses following them at a distance to await their return—in vain, as regards many of them.

Oregonian Leads Gigantic Graze Spread in Idaho

SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 10.—The farm credit administrator announced today the Battle Sheep Co. had sold range grazing rights on 250,000 acres in Cwythe county, Idaho, to C. Vaughan of Baker, Ore. The acreage is one of the Pacific west's largest.

Vaughan also has leased 800-acre T ranch at Bruneau, the PCA said.

Vaughan indicated he would raise cattle on the new spread. He is associated with Vaughan and three sons.

Plans for Aviator Training Advance Step Nearer Start

Although the opening call for students under the government program which will result in the training of 10,000 college graduates as private pilots has not yet been made, it was a "step nearer" this afternoon as the Chamber of Commerce.

Applicants will not be interviewed, however until last minute information has been received from a government authority who is expected to visit here shortly after the first of the year. Milton Powell, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce aviation committee said. The Chamber is sponsoring the program in Twin Falls, this being the only Idaho city selected for the course.

This Gets 'Em

Ground Course Seen

Flight training for the 10 persons will not start until next spring but the ground course, which will be open to all who can pay the required fee, is to start in January. The date to be set later. The ground course here will be in all probability be limited to 30 persons because one instructor is required for every 10 persons registered and it is probable that only one local man will be able to cover the eight requirements of gaining an instructor's rating.

From this ground school class, 10 will be selected by competitive examination for the right to take the flight course. One in this number can be a woman.

Scores of questions are asked each applicant for the ground and flight course, a study of the blanks received here shows. The blanks are the same as used for college flight courses with the exception that non-college applicants, such as those who will fly here, will disregard questions that do not apply.

These Questions Asked

Among the questions which must be filled out by the applicants, when the registration starts sometime in January, are the following:

Name, including first, last and middle; place of birth and date of birth; all applicants must be between 18 and 25; whether married or single and if married how many children; citizenship, race and nationality; date and place of any previous medical examination for flying; any flying hours already gained; type of planes or gliders used; high school education and college education; reasons for taking this course; whether or not the applicant intends to take up flying at some future date; if not competing for the flight course, why not; and number of times the applicant has flown as a passenger in an airplane.

Minimum Height

So far as the physical requirements of the non-college applicants are concerned, all applicants must be no less than 64 inches tall and no more than 78 inches. Weight must not be less than 115 pounds and any weight above that must be proportionate to height.

Visions must be 20/20 in each eye, uncorrected. Strabismus (crossed eyes) disqualifies and defective color vision also disqualifies.

The applicant must be able to hear the whispered voice at 20 feet with each ear separately. Nose and throat must be within normal limits.

Hernia, nephritis, diabetes, tuberculosis or amputation of any limb or portion of limb disqualifies the applicant.

Await U. S. Official

It is contemplated here that registration for the ground course, which will cost in the neighborhood of $10, will be taken as soon as the government official visits in January. At that time announcement will be made as to where applicants for the ground course—those who take the ground course, however, do not have to compete for the flight course if they do not desire.

Members of the chamber aviation committee, in addition to Powell, are Lionel A. Dean and George DeWeller. Dean is a local commercial pilot.

AUTOS DAMAGED IN TWO CRASHES

Two automobile mishaps were investigated by local police yesterday afternoon and night, records at the station show today.

Yesterday afternoon a truck operated by Cyril K. Taylor, 112 Montrose street, and a Buick sedan operated by Carl K. Hawkins, 269 Ramo street, were involved in a crash at the intersection of Seventh avenue north and Shoshone streets.

Records show that the truck was struck near the center and then added over the curb and crashed against a power pole. The truck was damaged on both sides while the passenger car was damaged on the front end, the report shows. No personal injuries resulted.

Last night machines driven by Merion O. McVey, 245 Buchanan street, and Charles Hatfield, Buick, were slightly damaged in a crash at the intersection of Seventh avenue north and Shoshone streets.

The police report shows that Mr. Hatfield was turning his machine to the left and that McVey did not see the signal in time to avoid the crash.

Eighty Couples Attend O. A. O. Holiday Dance

Sons and daughters home from college for the holidays, house guests and mid-winter vacationers mingled with members of the O.A.O. Dancing club at a brilliant program dance last evening at the Elks hall. High point of the occasion was the striking Christmas decor. The program dance, proclaimed one of the most successful in the annals of O.A.O., had as co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schwendman. Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Peavoy, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnson, Pocatello, were present in addition to the parents of the couple.

The bride wore a black street model trimmed in rainbow sequins in a floral pattern across the bodice and sleeves. A bridal supper was served to members of the wedding party and Mrs. Ruth Ballenger, grandmother of the bridegroom, and George Peterson, both of Twin Falls, at the Nelson home following the ceremony.

Scintillating Christmas Formal Attended by O. A. O. Dance Club

Paramount among the Christmas week celebrations was the program dance arranged last evening at the Elks hall by the O.A.O. Dancing club. Striking in design was the holiday decor, added for the occasion by the host committee, to supplement the holiday setting which has been installed since the beginning of the season.

Two large floor screens, representing giant Christmas greetings, resplendent with borders of silver and topped with the O.A.O. insignia that sparkled with diamond dust, were placed at vantage points, one at the east end of the floor and the other at the west end of the floor, flanking either side of the floor screen.

The special decor blended perfectly with the silver and white icebergs setting in which the O.A.O. orchestra played throughout the evening and was in interesting contrast to the interlacing streamers of red and green electric bulbs and silver side of the floor screen.

Iceberg ceiling festooned with lights, with Christmas trees, vibrant with lights, were situated on either side of the orchestra platform, one bearing crimson and the other chartreuse name cards. As designated intervals, the trees were "raided," the women drawing names for partners from "this" tree for one dance and the men drawing names from "there" tree for another specialty.

Guests of Club
Mingling with the members were a number of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Greif, who were married Christmas night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Peavoy, were among those present. Mrs. Greif was formerly Miss Alice Peavoy. They left today for their home in New York City.

Mrs. Muriel Pickett and Miss Dorothy Simpson, Salt Lake City, sisters of Mrs. A. S. Gilbert, were among the out-of-town guests. Miss Simpson's escort of the evening was Frank Feldman, nephew of Mrs. C. A. Robinson, who has made his home in Twin Falls, following his graduation from college in Los Angeles last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. James McMenemy, Boise, guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dilling, were also among the out-of-town present.

Also among the guests were Miss Margaret McAtee, here from Ogden, Utah, for a holiday visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. P. McAtee, and John Skellern, whose home is in Boise.

Miss Betty Peavoy, home from Princeton, Ore., for the holidays, and George Struque, Jr., were among the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Magel, at last evening's dance.

Miss Margaret Magel, who recently returned from Oakland, Calif., and James Sinclair, Jr., were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Magel, at last evening's dance.

Miss Ann Peavoy, who attends Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., and Ribot Walton, who is a student at the University of Missouri, Columbia, were among the representatives of the college set present.

Receiving congratulations today for the unusually successful event were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schwendman, co-chairmen, and their host committee, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Duval, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Walker.

ART OF BOWLING

Second of 28 articles on bowling.

By JOHNNY CRIMMINS

Anchor man of Detroit Goebels, A. R. C. five-man team champion. I start pupils off with shadow bowling.

Pls present a hazard to the beginner. They put him under pressure, so I simply let him roll the ball down a clear alley until he has acquired the knack of keeping it where it should be.

It is best to have your own ball. In fitting a ball to your hand, make certain that the second joints of the fingers are flush with the edge of the finger holes.

Holes should be neither too small nor too large. If too small, the thumb and fingers will stick in them, perhaps tear the skin. If too large, you are not able to hang onto the ball as you should. The ball will slip off without control. The holes should permit the thumb and fingers to slide out easily.

The two or three-fingered ball is a matter of personal preference. I use the two-fingered.

Picking up the ball is important. Do not insert the fingers in the holes in picking it up. Lift it by the sides with both hands and you run no risk of losing your fingers smashed by another ball rolling up in the rack.

While waiting to take the introductory step in bowling, let the right of the ball rest in the palm of the left hand.

The main idea is to relieve the bowling hand of strain.

Ford's Market Drubs Mutual

Led by Corky Carlson, a Ford's Liberty Market handed Idaho Mutual a crushing defeat in two years of play, a sound trouncing at Blaine's alleys last night.

The winners took all three games and total pins for the evening. Carlson had a 278 series, but his 212 yielded to John Ford's 221 for high single. Walt Riegert had a 212 for second place and the low score for the group was turned in by Ray Frey with a nice 537.

For the losers, W. J. Johnson's 233 was tops and his 210 single high for one game.

These two teams will tangle on the alleys again on Sunday at 2:30 p. m., according to Manager Fred Blone.

Scores:

Team	Game 1	Game 2	Game 3	Total
Idaho Mutual	144	147	147	438
Wood	128	101	90	319
Johnson	128	128	128	384
W. J. Johnson	128	128	128	384

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 28 (U.P.)—Colorado and Southern California quipped overwhelmed once powerful Philadelphia teams before 5,500 in a basketball doubleheader at convention hall last night.

The Trojans downed Temple, 46-20, and Colorado crushed St. Joseph's, 40-20. The locals were clearly outclassed in both frays.

MOLINE, Ill., Dec. 28 (U.P.)—The University of Oregon basketball team swamped Augustana college 37-22 last night to complete its mid-west tour.

Kimberly Wins 2 Games From Aberdeen Club

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 (U.P.)—Another spectacular football season, jammed with upsets and thrills, has run its course, leaving the title open only to three major teams—Tennessee, Texas A. & M. and Cornell—with untarnished records.

Except for the New Year's day bowl games all the returns are in, but there still isn't enough conclusive evidence to award the national championship to any one team. The five chief contenders are Tennessee, unbeaten, untied and untied; Texas A. & M., undefeated in 10 games; Cornell, eastern champion, unbeaten and untied in eight games; U.S.C., unbeaten but tied by Oregon in its first game; and U.C.L.A. in its winless, and Tulane, tied by North Carolina.

The south had the bulk on the rest of the nation in high-class teams. Behind Tennessee and Tulane, two of the country's top five teams, the south offered Duke, which lost only to Pitt by one point; Clemson, with only a 7-0 loss to Tulane; Georgia Tech, which lost only to Notre Dame by one goal and Duke by the extra point; and North Carolina, which lost only to Duke and tied Tulane.

Professional football, showing nearly a 13 per cent increase in attendance over 1938 as against a one per cent drop for the colleges, entrenched itself among the major sports. The play-for-pay boys played to 1,313,611 persons, Green Bay, Wis., Packers were the national pro champions.

With one glaring exception the major teams played tough games right down the line from the opening Saturday until the windup. The exception was Tennessee, which missed a chance to tip the national title hands down because of its hand-picked schedule.

Whereas 1938 was notable for the outstanding success of teams under the forward pass, there was a swing back to the running game this year, featuring a new wave of field blocking. The three teams with perfect records, Tennessee, Texas A. & M. and Cornell, did their damage chiefly on the ground.

Notre Dame and Southern California, each playing to nearly 50,000 persons, were the biggest drawing cards. Blaine single attendance was 103,300 for the Southern California-U.C.L.A. game at Los Angeles, with 100,000 for the Army-Navy game at Philadelphia second highest.

Outstanding achievements of 1939:

Team of the year—Tennessee, which rolled up 212 points to its opponents' 6 and winning 10 games.

Player of the year—Nile Kinnick, Iowa's 60-minute halfback whose kicking, passing and running featured every Hawkeye game.

Captain of the year—Eddie Anderson, who in his first year at Iowa converted a one-game winner in 1938 to a one-game loser in 1939.

Oakley Downs Albion Quintet

OAKLEY, Dec. 28 (special)—Oakley Hornets last night stung the invading Albion Blue Devils to the tune of 37-21 in the top game of the six tilt series.

Albion coach-skipper Ed Allen, a 24-21 advantage at the intermission. High scoring honors for the Hornets went to Bud Oakley, guard, who collected 10 points.

For the Blue Devils, Engleking was top man with eight points.

Wilson Lake Ice Reported to Be In Perfect Shape

Ice skating on Wilson lake is now safe and the surface is in perfect shape, according to word received from Bert Havens of that sector.

Annually the place where skaters from this sector get in their winter sport, the Wilson lake is now reported to be frozen enough to accommodate the heaviest weight-bearing skater—including the fall.

Mr. Havens reports numerous telephone calls asking the condition of the ice from all over Twin Falls county. Recent cold weather has made the ice crystal clear and the surface as smooth as glass, he reports.

NO CHANCE SEEN ON EARLY PEACE PLAN IN EUROPE

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28 (Special)—President Roosevelt's Christmas appeal to three great religious faiths and selection of a personal representative to the Vatican were undertaken with full knowledge, was authorized today, that an immediate peace appeal might have been made to diminish hostilities.

Perhaps in 1940 a peace opportunity may come, it was suggested here, but rather late than early. Among persons qualified to discuss Mr. Roosevelt's Christmas letters to leaders of the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths there was quick challenge, however, to a suggestion that the action was mere gesture.

That suggestion came from two interesting sources. Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt in her Dec. 26 newspaper column wrote that she liked the Christmas letters very much, adding: "It is of course, but a gesture."

For Allied Victory

Ernest K. Lindley, likewise a columnist and one considered usually to be of the Roosevelt circle, developed the idea further yesterday. "But this, in the President's mind," he wrote, "is not the proper time for a direct peace move. The President is morally and emotionally committed to an allied victory, or at least against a Nazi victory. The British and French do not want peace now. At least their governments do not, and would be terribly embarrassed by a public effort by the President of the United States to bring peace."

Fleeting Gestures

"The President's letter to the Pope and his assignment of Mr. G. Taylor to Rome are pleasing gestures. The letters to Dr. George A. Buttrick (president of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America) and Dr. Cyrus Adler (president of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America) were just domestic trimming, purely for domestic political consumption."

One paragraph of Mr. Roosevelt's almost identical letters indicated the President does not consider an immediate peace effort appropriate. The paragraph read:

"In these moments, no spiritual leader, no civil leader, can move forward on a specific plan to terminate destruction and build anew. There is talk, probably loose talk."

Love Bomb?

Story of a romance which the state courts began with a kiss and ended with a bomb was told in Dallas, Tex., court by Mary Jo Miller, 26, school teacher from Oak Park, Ill. She testified against E. R. Wyatt, 36, her former sweetheart, who is charged with bombing his residence where she was visiting in July, 1938. Miss Miller says Wyatt forced his attentions on her after their love affair had broken up.

here of a non-political, religious alliance against Communism. But more directly to the point, if less spectacular, is the authoritative explanation that the appeal to religion and the selection of Taylor are in recognition that the basic difficulty in Europe is not economic or political but moral and philosophical. Administration spokesmen are convinced that the United States will not be outside the reconstruction movement in Europe when the time comes, and that there must be moral and philosophical reconstruction as well as otherwise.

The long haul nature of Mr. Roosevelt's objective is indicated by the fact Taylor has been told to take his time. He has been ill and if he requires a Florida vacation before departing for Rome, that will not interfere with the President's intentions in any way.

Specifically the nomination of a personal representative of the President to the Vatican was made for these reasons:

"To maintain a valuable channel of communication.
"To establish relations with a large group of persons having a moral axis similar to our own.
"To open an additional channel of information."

STANLEY MINING PROMOTER FINED

BOISE, Dec. 28 (UP)—Charles H. Lord, Detroit, Mich., and Stanley, Ida., mining operator, was fined $2,000 late yesterday in federal district court after he entered a plea of "nolo contendere" to two charges of violation of the federal securities and exchange act.

Lord used the mails to defraud when he formed a trust estate and sold securities in the Five Bars area of Stanley basin, the prosecution asserted.

The 35-year-old defendant, was fined by Judge O. C. Cavanah after he withdrew defense in federal district court here. The fines were decreed on each of two different counts recited in the indictment returned at Moscow last autumn by a federal grand jury.

Lord was accused by the government of taking in $171,000 over five years by the alleged illegal sale of mine stocks. His accounting covered all of that amount except $60,000. Lord admitted he took that money by way of $1,000 personal expenses per month.

The government prosecuted under its powers in connection with use of the mails and interstate telegraph communications to defraud.

Apology by Mayor Ends Chief's 'Firing' Incident

The "firing of Chief of Police Howard Gillette" incident apparently was officially closed today after Mayor Joe Koehler, at the start of the council session last night, apologized for his actions of last Monday night.

It was last Monday night when Mayor Koehler ordered that Chief Gillette be "fired" immediately. Under the law, however, the chief cannot be discharged unless three of the five members of the council vote to have the order carried out.

As the council session started last night, observers said that Mayor Koehler remarked:

"Before we do anything else, I want to apologize for my actions last Monday night."

The apology was accepted by other members of the council and the meeting got underway.

It is understood that Mayor Koehler, last Monday, not only "fired" Chief Gillette but also played the council in general.

However, the "incident" is apparently closed, observers said.

Several persons were present at the session last night "just to see the fireworks" but none developed. Some had expressed the opinion that the mayor would again bring the Gillette matter before the council but such a step was not taken.

State officers said here that check-up is being maintained every night—on various roads at various times—to halt and "ticket" drivers whose machines have defective headlights, rear lights or truck clearance lighting.

SAGGING REVENUE HITS STATE CASH

BOISE, Dec. 28 (UP)—A drop of nearly $2,500,000 in the cash balance of the Idaho general fund was attributed today to sagging revenues by Truman Jolner, assistant director of public accounts, in a report to Gov. C. A. Bottelien.

Jolner said the cash balance on Jan. 1, 1939, was $880,115 compared with an overdraft, Dec. 1, 1939, of $1,943,424. The ad valorem levy of the Idaho general fund was expected to relieve a large part of the shortage, Jolner said.

The expenses payable from uncollected ad valorem taxes included $500,000 for transfer to public schools from the general fund, and transfer to public assistance of $1,823,768.

12 Growers Study Feeding of Lambs

JEROME, Dec. 28 (Special)—Use of various Idaho crops and by-products in feeding lambs was theme of a recent tour of lamb feeders in the Hazelton area.

Twelve farmers visited feed lots in the district to discuss with E. P. Rinehart, extension animal husbandman, various feeding methods. They visited the Guy Hunter and C. E. Wilson farms where cattle are being fed; the M. W. McCauley, Kenneth Lavens, Howard Bird and Marvin Laughlin farms where lambs are in winter lots. Rinehart also assisted Ivan Esperson in picking a show flock from his pure-bred Lincoln sheep which will be exhibited at the Ogden livestock show early in January.

Luvina Bates Is Honored at Rites

BURLEY, Dec. 28 (Special)—Friends and relatives gathered at the Oakley L. D. S. church Saturday to pay final tribute to Mrs. Luvina Bates, pioneer of that section, who died last week following a short illness. A grandson, Bishop Clifford Tolman, Murtaugh, officiated at the service.

President George Severe, Oakley, offered the opening prayer, and speakers were Hyrum Pickett, Murtaugh; Charles Haight, Jr., William T. Harper and Joseph F. Payne. John Martin sang "A Perfect Day," Mr. and Mrs. Payne sang "Sun of My Soul," and Bishop Tolman sang "The Holy City." Prayers were offered by J. V. Haight and a son-in-law, William Robinson, who dedicated the grave.

Burial was made in the Oakley cemetery under direction of the Payne mortuary. Pallbearers were great-grandsons of the deceased. Mrs. Bates was the mother-in-law of Dr. John O. Love, Burley dentist, who was buried Sunday.
