Netherlands Queen Declares State of Siege

As Firemen Battled Lumber Yard Flames in Bitter Cold

With fire hoses stretched from various hydrants to the blaze, local firemen and volunteers this morning had their hands full as a brisk, cold wind aided the flames which spread through the Twin Falls Lumber company building here. The fire started at 10:15 a. m. and it was 28 minutes before the "under control" sign was given. In the picture above, taken as the firemen started their work, regulars and volunteers can be seen shifting hoses to strategic positions. Smoke is drifting to the right from the structure, as the fire rages to the left and of the picture toward the roof. Volunteers had not yet started removal of store equipment before this picture was snapped. After this photo was taken, the fire was placed against the structure and firemen succeeded in the roof.

As the fire spreads through the structure, volunteers begin to remove stock from the main office of the lumber company. An entire showcase may be seen (right) on its way out. In the near center of the picture fireman Marvin Bond (pointing toward camera) can be seen hurrying for ladder equipment. A few minutes later Bond escaped serious injury as he slipped from a ladder placed against the second story window at the right, and hung suspended above the sidewalk after grasping a small cable on the sign, also shown in the picture. Humor was provided when Bond was drenched by a hose held by Victor Pratt, volunteer, who was unable to turn off the water. At the left of the above picture firemen can be seen adjusting hose before entering the smoke-filled interior of the structure. Damage to the building and stock was estimated "in the thousands of dollars." (Times Photo and Engraving)

SHIPMENTS SOAR IN MAGIC VALLEY

Magic Valley went to market during 1939 at an impressively increased level showing an aggregate gain of 8,167 carloads, according to a 12-month compilation compiled here today by B. F. Conello, traveling freight agent for the Utah Pacific railroad.

Total carloads forwarded from 15 major stations in south-central Idaho climbed to 20,877 as compared with 24,720 during 1939, Mr. Conello said.

Spuds, Livestock Lead

"The increase was general in all commodities," he pointed out, "particularly in potatoes and livestock." Hurley took top honors for total shipments forwarded in 1939 with 8,544 cars. The classic county went bolstered its aggregate with extra live shipping of sugar beets from farms to the factory. Twin Falls ranked second for the year with 6,975 carloads during 1939, the previous year, Hurley was leader with 4,870 cars compared with 4,061 for Twin Falls.

MURPHY SWORN TO COURT POST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (U.P.)—Frank Murphy of Michigan took the oath of office today as associate justice of the supreme court in a White House ceremony that symbolized the Roosevelt administration's achievement of a clear, five-man majority on the nation's high court.

The White House ceremony was without precedent. Supreme court justices customarily are sworn in privately by the chief justice.

Murphy took his oath in the second floor of the White House. Present were the President; members of his cabinet; justice Murphy; and James H. D. Cromwell, husband of the late Mrs. Duke, and new appointee as U. S. minister to Canada.

Supreme Court Justice Stanley F. Reed, Mr. Roosevelt's second appointee to the high court, administered the oath. He also swore in Robert H. Jackson of New York to succeed Murphy as attorney general.

Mr. Roosevelt injected a humorous note into the informal ceremony by referring both Murphy and Jackson as "my new boys."

Physicians Give up Hope for Recovery Of Idaho Senator

Nears Death After Fall

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (U.P.)—William Edgar Borah lay in a coma today, stricken with a brain hemorrhage which physicians said he had no hope of surviving.

The 74-year-old senator and statesman was close to death in his spacious apartment near the Rock Creek park bridle paths he loved so well.

At his bedside was his wife affectionately known to Washington as "Little Borah"—his constant companion, helpmeet and confident. Two nurses and a physician were in attendance, giving what aid medical science could devise but without hope of its effectiveness.

At brief intervals short bulletins were issued. The latest, given out a few minutes after 11 o'clock, said simply: "The senator is in a coma. His condition is unchanged."

He suffered the hemorrhage Tuesday, but only today did its seriousness become known.

In the senate a prayer was offered for the recovery of the senator. The prayer was read by the chaplain, Rev. J. C. Gabel, said simply: "The senator is in a coma. His condition is unchanged."

SENATOR WILLIAM E. BORAH

SMALL COUNTRY READY TO FIGHT ON ALL FRONTS

By H. C. BUURMAN
THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Jan. 18 (U.P.)—Members of the Netherlands general staff said today that they had complete confidence in the military preparations they had made and were ready to defend the country against an attack by any side.

"We have complete confidence in the spirit of our army," they said.

The statement was made as Queen Wilhelmina by royal decree placed a wide area of the North sea coast under a state of siege. Some key coastal areas had been placed under a state of siege last November. By the new decree, the waters adjacent to the municipality of Calantsoog, on the north Holland province coast near the Heider naval base, and the waters along the coast of South Holland province, covering the Breda and Rotterdam areas, were put under the special status.

Defense Extension

Authoritative quarters said the decree was simply an extension of national defense measures.

In face of foreign reports that a German attack on France through the Netherlands and Belgium is possible, and with knowledge that special precautionary measures have been taken, the Dutch cabinet—senior reports show the same goes for the Belgians—are going about their regular life as usual, but watchfully and ready for an emergency.

The strongest proof of the calmness and resolution of the people that 1,000 German warplanes, the general staff with which I have talked here.

I asked regarding the opinion expressed by allied diplomatic agents that the Germans would be able to break through quite easily. To this, the reply was:

Nobody Nervous

"You have been in this building for some time now. Has anybody ever seen attack you as nervous or excited—which certainly would be the case if what you suggested were true? We are not frightened. But we are watchful."

The statement that the general staff has complete confidence in its preparations and was ready to defend the country, talked to several Netherlands, allied and neutral diplomats. They all expressed the belief that the situation of Holland and Belgium remained dangerous so long as more than 1,000 German warplanes concentrated on the lowland countries' borders.

Clearly all agreed if Holland and Belgium kept their nerves steady and their defenses in readiness, it was hard to see what advantages anyone could derive from the low countries. They said untold damage could be done and terrible suffering inflicted, but the loss was not the slightest chance of Germany breaking through, provided allied support was forthcoming as soon as possible.

Borah Represented Idaho for 33 Years

BOISE, Jan. 18 (U.P.)—Sen. William E. Borah, 74-year-old liberal Republican attorney, has represented Idaho for 33 years in the United States senate.

During that time Borah became recognized as one of the nation's greatest living authorities on the constitution and international affairs. He made a spectacular rise from an obscure farm boy to the position of elder statesman, orator and constitutional lawyer.

Borah was elected in 1936 to his sixth consecutive term. He carried the state by more votes than the plurality of President Roosevelt.

Borah was born June 29, 1865, at the farm home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Borah, near Ellettsville, Ind. He performed a military chore of a farm boy and attended public schools and the University of Kansas without any great promise of his later fame.

Borah attended the University of Kansas at Lawrence where he became a member of the Phi Kappa Phi society. He was elected editor of the Ellettsville newspaper in 1887 and went into the law office of a brother-in-law. He was admitted to practice before the Illinois bar and opened an office in Lyon.

He started for Seattle in 1890 and was defeated as a candidate for congress at that time. He stayed at Boise with his ready cash down to $10.70 and decided to stay. He was admitted to the Idaho bar, Feb. 17, 1891.

Borah supported Bryan in 1896 and was defeated as a candidate for congress at a free silver Republican. He again met defeat in 1902 in a campaign for a senate seat.

Borah won national fame as an orator when he prosecuted the Haywood, Meyer, Pettibone and Harry Orchard for the assassination of Mr. Frank Steiwerger in 1900. His prominence led to election to the senate in 1905.

Known as Liberal

Volting his mind regarding of party as other influences, Borah quickly became known as a liberal and individualist. He started quickly on the police which made his name famous.

Appointment of nine field deputies by Assessor George A. Childs was approved today by the board of county commissioners, reducing by one the number of field men who will handle assessing of real and personal property in Twin Falls county during 1940.

Capitala Changes

Mr. Childs said that Swartley was shifted from the Flie to the Twin Falls district; Colbert takes his place at Flie; Pease fills the position formerly held by Robert Hailer at Hailer; Martina takes the place of E. J. Colbert, who moved to Gardiner.

W. A. Glasgow, a field deputy last year, is now in government work.

FINNS GAIN ON 30-MILE FRONT

HEIKINEN, Finland, Jan. 18 (U.P.)—An official communique reported Finnish troops had advanced almost 30 miles against the Red army in the north sector of the north central front.

The advance occurred in the last few days, the communique said, in explaining officially to the first time persistent reports that Finnish troops had been successful in action against Red army reinforcements on the Baltic front, where the Russians reported attempting to start a new offensive.

Dispatches to Scandinavian newspapers had reported the Russian forces in the Baltic sector, totaling perhaps 40,000 men, were in retreat to the east. The Russian forces after suffering reverses due to extreme cold—more than 60 below zero—and Finnish counter-thrusts.

Russians Pushed Back

The communique said the Finnish advance recently in the Baltic sector of Finland totaled 30 kilometers (about 20 miles).

The communique also announced the Russian troops had been pushed back from the front to a line standing firm.

BROWDER'S TRIAL GETS UNDER WAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 18 (U.P.)—Earl Browder, Soviet spy and organizer of the Communist party in the United States, was breaking one of the nation's laws, a government witness testified today in a federal court in New York in a government fraud charge.

It is the government's contention that Browder, general secretary of the Communist party in the United States, lied in his application for a 1934 passport with which he traveled through Europe in 1935 and 1936, thus making himself liable to 10 years' imprisonment and a $4,000 fine.

James J. Hughes, assistant U. S. passport agent here and the prosecution's second witness, testified Browder wrote "none" in his application blank after the question "Do you have a passport?" was asked.

"... and must have" given the same reply to a verbal question as to whether he had ever obtained a passport before.

Every Allegiance

In making the application, Hughes testified, Browder swore allegiance to the United States and to the United States Constitution.

The 1934 passport, the government charged, was Browder's second passport. He had obtained under the name of James J. Hughes, a name he had applied for in the same form as a passport applicant.

OBSERVERS EXPECT FINNS TO HOLD OUT LONG TIME

SOVIET FAILS TO BREAK DEFENSIVE LINES ON BORDER

WRITE THE FINNISH ARMY, Jan. 18 (AP)—Neutral military observers expressed conviction today the Finns could hold the Russian army indefinitely provided they could obtain from their own sources credits and supplies, notably fast fighting planes, anti-tank and machine guns and gasoline.

To this end, the Finns against machine, the man seemed so far to have won. In seven weeks of desperate fighting in sub-zero cold which has reached 54 below in the last two days, the Finnish army, according to neutral observers, has forced the Russian army successfully with less machine power, fewer guns, fewer men and under an overwhelmingly superior rate of fire.

Today, according to observers, the Finns strategic position is far better than it was at the beginning of the start of the war and they are not seriously menaced at present at any point.

In charge in Twin Falls county will be Tom Alworth, who is handling arrangements for the annual dance which will be staged at Radioland Saturday, Jan. 27.

Special features and plans are underway in every county in the state to raise funds to combat this dreaded disease. Fifty per cent of the funds raised will be turned over and made available for activities in the counties in which they originate.

The "march of dimes" idea will be widely used this year and full particulars will be announced later, Alworth said.

Dude Ranch Business Booms To Aid Idaho Summer Income

BOISE, Jan. 18 (AP)—Dude ranching is fast becoming an important industry in Idaho and "dude wrangling" outfits have rapidly increased the size of their accommodations as well as increasing in number, the state Chamber of Commerce discloses.

Hunting and fishing facilities in Idaho's vast primitive area, one of the few untrammeled pieces of wilderness left in the United States, has become publicized recently through railroad and airline publicity.

Sun Valley, famed winter resort, has sought to publicize the dude ranch attractions of Idaho to outsiders in order to take care of help and tide over the summer season which formerly was dull. The result has been increasing publicity for the primitive area as an ideal spot to spend a summer vacation.

Idaho possesses nine dude ranches famed throughout the nation. Many other smaller outfits have sprung up, lured by tourist and vacation dollars.

The principal outfits include Boyl's ranch, on Loon creek, a tributary of the middle fork of the Salmon river; The Diamond Double L, in the Teton basin; the Elk creek ranch, 28 miles from West Yellowstone in the Bitter Root range; O.W. Whitmore ranch on Henry's lake; the Four 8

IMPROVEMENT TROPHY

BOISE, Jan. 18 (AP)—The Idaho works progress administration today received a trophy for the greatest improvement in the nation in safety during November, 1939.

Break Soviet Divisions

On five different fronts, according to Finnish communiques, the Finns have thrown their own divisions at places to their own front. They have broken three Russian divisions, normally from 16,000 to 18,000 men each, on the Karelian Isthmus. They have captured enormous quantities of war materials including several hundred guns of different calibers. They claim to the capture or destruction of about 400 tanks and the infliction of tens of thousands of casualties.

Summarized, here are some of the reasons offered why the Finns have been able to hold off the Russian machine:

- 1.—The Finns believe they are fighting for their lives, their homes, their religion and their liberty.
- 2.—The Finnish soldier has been trained for fighting in the difficult terrain of rigorous climate. Finnish observers say the Finnish soldier has a high standard of education, initiative and a high measure of physical fitness and endurance to the cold and fatigue which are vital factors in this war.
- 3.—With three-fourths of its area covered by thick forests, cut by comparatively few roads, and with about 10,000 lakes, many of which are connected to a canalized front, the country is ideally adapted to fight against a mechanized army.
- 4.—Field Marshal Baron Carl Gustav Mannerheim, the Finnish commander in chief, and many officers of the higher command fought the Finns in the war of independence over this same ground.
- 5.—The Finnish system of communications and transport is superior, observers say, to that of Russia. The Finnish railroad systems enable the Finns to achieve greater mobility, to concentrate bulker at a given point, and to move supplies faster. Nearly all Finns are skillful skiers. Few Russians can ski. Hence the Finns have superior mobility in the snow.
- 6.—Neutral observers say that the Finnish commanders have had longer and better training than the staff work of the Finns is better. There is a tendency to speculate on this in connection with the Russian army "purge" which caused the disappearance of many officers of the Russian high command.
- 7.—Finnish air command, both rifle and artillery, is held superior to that of the Russians. The Finns are famous for marksmanship.

ECCLES MAY RESIGN AS CHIEF OF FEDERAL RESERVE

FINANCIAL HEAD WOULD QUIT FOR SENATOR'S POST

By LYLEC WILSON
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (UP)—Chairman Mariner S. Eccles' term as head of the federal reserve board of governors expires Feb. 1 and reports today indicated he might either retire from office or continue on a month-by-month basis, probably the latter.

"President Roosevelt has not indicated whether he will ask Eccles to continue although it is assumed he will be urged to remain. The chairman is high in the councils of the big spending, heavy taxing, reduction of the federal debt, and the New Deal and often has won White House support for his policies.

Reports from back home—Utah—Eccles might opt home—William H. King, an anti-New Deal Democrat, this year for Democratic nomination. King has been most critical of the spending policy endorsed by Eccles, and often accused Eccles of being a substitute of the latter for the former would considerably strengthen New Deal philosophy in the senate.

Don't Race
Persons familiar with Utah politics doubt Eccles will be the unless prospects for success are considerably brighter than they now appear to be. Against Eccles candidates are the fact that under the direct primary laws it is possible to switch parties, that is for Republicans to go into the Democratic primary and vice versa.

Furthermore, there probably would be several Democratic candidates. Utah Press has informed, and the chances would favor re-nomination of King with strong bipartisan conservative support while the Utah vote would be scattered among Eccles and such others as might be available to receive them.

For those reasons, it is understood Eccles is reluctant to go into elective politics. The obstacle to acceptance of regular re-appointments is the fact that under Utah laws is a statutory prohibition against a resigned chairman engaging in private business or banking for two years after leaving office.

Would Resign
If Eccles took a full term re-appointment, it is understood he would be with the idea of resigning if the President elected November was unopposed, and if the spending and tax ideas. But the prohibition against re-entry into private business would be a considerable hardship because of the extensive nature of his banking and industrial connections. That problem might be worked out by a special request that congress lift the prohibition in Eccles' case.

It is understood if Eccles merely continued to serve on a month-to-month basis the prohibition against immediate entry into private business would not prevail against him. But there is some question how long a month-to-month service might be continued without raising a question whether a technicality was being taken advantage of to effect his semi-permanent retention in the guise of a wholly temporary employment.

Eccles came here on Jan. 29, 1924, as special assistant to the secretary of treasury to take charge of $100,000,000 borrowing program. He was promoted from there to the federal reserve board.

Bean Men Seek Easing of Food-Drug Law Imposing New Cost on Farmers

Emphatically asserting that Idaho bean farmers will suffer "great hardship and expense" because of the amended federal food and drug act, bean dealers of south central Idaho had joined forces today with the California association to seek assistance from Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace.

Western Bean Dealers, Inc., with headquarters at Twin Falls, is preparing to distribute 1,000 printed pamphlets as to effect of the food-drug law on food growers, according to H. L. Hogsett, secretary of the association. Declined to publicize the adverse effects of the new amendment was reached at a meeting of the dealers here this week.

May Ask Senate AID
Appeal to Idaho senators and congressmen is also being considered as part of the energetic move to secure remedial action.

Focal point of the damage to Idaho bean growers which may result at $200,000 this year is in the food-drug act amendment effective Jan. 1 ordering that each package shipped in interstate commerce must be marked to show actual net weight at the time of shipment.

Because of fluctuation in the weight of stored beans in warehouses, the actual net weight at time of shipping is frequently less than the weight originally marked on the 100-pound sacks, the dealer discussion emphasized. Secretary Hogsett explained today that in the past the bean dealer has marked the beans as invoiced on net weight.

Re-Scaling Needed
Under the amended act, each stored bag must be weighed and re-packed each bag before shipment will cause an expense that may reach $100,000.

In the last analysis, either the grower or the consumer must stand the expense.

The situation on this specific product should be given particular consideration and relief granted to the bean industry of Idaho as permitted by the act.

Considering total quantity of beans in storage in Idaho, and the larger portion owned by growers, re-packing each bag before shipment will cause an expense that may reach $100,000.

In the last analysis, either the grower or the consumer must stand the expense.

The situation on this specific product should be given particular consideration and relief granted to the bean industry of Idaho as permitted by the act.

Mrs. Raymond Henry, fourth district P. T. president, made three of her official visits last week to Twin Falls, Acapulco and Piler. The latter is a new organization in the district.

Eden P. T. A. will meet today at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium. A group lesson demonstration by Miss Frances Anderson will show how reading is taught in the first grade. The program chairman has announced it will be high school night, with students presenting a skit, readings and musical numbers. After which the reason "topic" discussion will be led by Mrs. George Lattimer. Lollypops will be given to the room which has the most points present.

SHOSHONE
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Christman, who have been visiting with their son E. E. Christman, left Wednesday for their home in Los Angeles. Claude Wilson repaired painful flesh wounds to the fingers of his right hand while repairing the motion picture projector at the local theater. As a result of the breakdown there were no pictures shown here Sunday.

P. T. A. held a regular meeting Monday night with about 25 members present. Professor H. F. Wilmoth gave a very informative talk on "School Finance," taking his subject generally touching lightly on finances in relation to the Shoshone schools.

The program consisted of a quiz contest and two musical numbers.

Here's Mirror 136 Years Old

It was a wedding gift of 1804—when the United States was just an infant nation and Napoleon was emperor on the continent of Europe.

It is a mirror, known to be 136 years old and supposed to be even older than that.

The mirror, now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Dean, Twin Falls, is owned by Mrs. Dean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo H. Duesel, Phoenix, Ariz. The Duesels, now visiting in Twin Falls, came west in 1911 and settled at Phoenix. Their daughter came to Twin Falls in 1928 and the antique mirror has been here ever since.

The mirror was given to Mr. Duesel's grandmother, Mrs. George Lattimer, in 1804. It is 22 by 16 inches and is of hand-carved 18th century design. It has done a lot of traveling in its day.

Engineering Board Meets January 19
BOISE, Jan. 18 (UP)—A special meeting of the state board of engineering examiners was called today for Jan. 19 by Secretary R. J. Briggs.

The board will pass on applicants for engineer and surveyor licenses who appeared at the October examinations.

The annual meeting of the Idaho Society of Engineers will be held in Boise, Jan. 20, Briggs said.

The ratio of male births does not increase during times of war.

Ripe Old Age for This Mirror

Life span of the mirror shown above has covered most of the momentous events in the history of the United States—because the mirror is definitely known to be 136 years old and may possibly be more antique than that. Pictured with the mirror are Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo H. Duesel, visiting in Twin Falls with their daughter. The mirror was given to Mr. Duesel's grandmother as a wedding present. U. S. WILL PROBE LOUISIANA VOTING

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 18 (UP)—The United States district attorney's office today investigated Tuesday's state Democratic primary, claiming federal jurisdiction in the case because tally sheets are delivered to the state capital, Baton Rouge, by mail.

The primary resulted in the nearest thing to a defeat for the late Huey Long's political machine in the last 14 years—machine candidates, headed by Gov. Earl K. Long, the "Kingfish" brother, a candidate for renomination, failed to get a majority of votes cast and were forced into a run-off primary Feb. 20 with leaders among five opposition groups.

Federal action in a strictly state election, believed here to be rare if not unprecedented, was based on the same use-of-mail grounds on which the government has intervened to strike at Louisiana's wholesale fraud and corruption. Several of the high Long machine leaders have been indicted and some convicted, on charges of misusing the mails in communicating with one another relative to public office frauds.

Incomplete returns from 1,143 of the state's 1,704 precincts gave: Gov. Earl K. Long, 168,581; Sam Houston Jones, 148,478; Charles A. Starn, 107,712; State Senator and former Governor James A. Noe, 84,218; James H. Morrison, attorney, 78,247; and Vincent J. Scher, Louisiana businessman, 7,844.

IDAHO GETS $46,106 FEDERAL WILDLIFE AID

Congress Boosts U. S. Funds for Bird Protection

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 (Special)—President Roosevelt's budget for 1941 included an increase of $1,000,000 over the previous $1,500,000 budget allotment for federal-aid-to-wildlife projects under the Pittman-Robertson federal aid to wildlife restoration act. This brings the 1941 total to $2,500,000.

According to a report issued by the national wildlife federation, Idaho now has a total of $46,106 available from these federal funds which come from the earmarked 10 per cent excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition.

Under the provisions of the act, the federal government provides 75 per cent of the cost of projects approved by the bureau of biological survey, the state putting up 25 per cent. Funds are allocated on the basis of area of the state and the number of hunting licenses issued.

The projects undertaken so far include purchase and long-term improvement of the Snake River pool to produce aquatic foods for waterfowl; transplanting surplus beavers, antelope, deer and game birds, and similar types of development were included in 11 projects.

Investigations and game surveys were begun in several states under 72 separate projects. These studies cover general field surveys of wildlife populations and natural conditions, and specific investigations dealing with pheasants, quail, deer, mountain sheep, beavers and other fur-bearing animals.
