GOP Chairman Asks Showdown on FDR, New Deal, 3rd Term

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (UP)—Chairman John D. M. Hamilton of the Republican national committee hoped today for nomination of President Roosevelt as a third-term candidate so that in a showdown at next November's election the Republican party can "finish off all three"—the New Deal, the President and the third term issue.

Opening the committee's meeting called to select a time and place for the G.O.P. nominating convention, Hamilton accused New Dealers of seeking to transplant the doctrine of European dictators to this country by boomer Mr. Roosevelt for another term.

The New Deal, he said, was "abandoned the American way" for European systems of planned economy.

Denouncing New Deal

He denounced the seven years of "New Deal debt, democracy and defeatism," and charged Mr. Roosevelt's administration had disregarded the constitution, attempted to subvert the judicial system, encouraged subversive elements "seeking the downfall of our American system."

Mr. Roosevelt's 1936 campaign statement, "We planned it that way," Hamilton said "is what he said today, he contended."

Employment totals 9,000,000. There are 4,000,000 young men under 18 who are idle. The good life have been denied.

Income is less than 1929.

Democrats for "their own sake," and asserted that they would have more men, able to handle the humanitarian crisis.

Emergency relief is needed. The date of a convention is still after the election. When the president is in power he will make decisions for the country. We do not know who will be the date of the party. We do not know who will be the date of the party.

One Feature of War That Hasn't Changed

Scientific advances in implements of war are a marvel of the age. But—as these British Indian troops in France are learning—the maleness of the old army mule remains steadfast as Gibraltar. The purple remnants of the Indian soldier at right would be understood by any mule-stealer in the world.

DIES COMMITTEE OPPOSES OFFERS OF RADIO PRIEST

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (UP)—Dies committee members indicated today they would oppose any more to a sum on Father Charles E. Coughlin as a witness.

They said privately they believed it would be a mistake to grant Coughlin a hearing. They believe an appearance would provide him with a national sounding board for views now confined to his radio speeches. They believe the committee has no evidence that would link Coughlin with the subject matter of the inquiry.

They also believe that Coughlin's appearance would encourage subversive activities.

Possibility of Coughlin as a witness was raised yesterday with the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Chairman Dies, D. T. D., who said the Detroit radio priest had asked the committee for a chance to testify.

He said he believed that Coughlin's appearance would encourage subversive activities.

House Votes Record Fund for U. S. Navy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (UP)—The house today passed a peace-time record-breaking $95,772,878 naval appropriation after striking out funds for harbor improvements at Guam. There was no record vote.

Dispute over proposed spending of $1,000,000 in 1941 as part of a $3,000,000 harbor improvement at Guam was virtually the only fight that developed over the bill. The measure had been cut $111,700,000 below President Roosevelt's budget estimates before it was put before the house.

It was the second time in two years that the house turned down a project to develop naval facilities at the island, which is only 1,800 miles from Japan.

In its latest action the house adopted an amendment by Rep. James P. Richards, D., R. O., striking out a $1,000,000 item in the naval appropriation bill for development of the Guam harbor. The vote was 229 to 114.

The funds were for beginning dredging coral from the harbor and building a breakwater, in order that commercial vessels could use the harbor at all seasons.

A year ago, the house defeated a proposal to authorize more extensive development of the harbor.

CHEERING THROUGH HEARS DEWEY AT BOISE GATHERING

BOISE, Feb. 16 (UP)—The New Deal administration has tried every scheme except use of the enterprise and entry of 100,000 persons to solve the nation's problems, Thomas E. Dewey, New York district attorney, told an audience of 1,200 Republicans last night.

The racket-busting aspirant to the presidency, entrained for Evansville, Ind., on a continuation of his western tour, a short time after the speech.

"Both Republicans and Democrats know that we have come to turn away from wild theories and go forward along the path we followed before the New Deal threw us off," Dewey said. "We must mix the government with officers who really are somebody and can give logical statements that are reliable."

Terms New Deal "Flopping"

Dewey reiterated his recent attack on the "flopping" New Deal. He said members of both parties agreed the New Deal was a "flop," failed in its pledges, left nine million unemployed and spent more than was spent by all the preceding administrations in the nation's history.

"But the tell us that the administration is going to 'flop' Dewey said. 'May I point out the course of American diplomacy since the New Deal was elected? It has had two exceptions, by Henry Stimson, Frank Kellogg and Charles Evans Hughes, three great Republican secretaries of state.'

Both Unpopular

"The only exceptions were recognition of Russia and the reciprocal trade treaties. Both are unpopular now."

Present farm prices are 18 per cent below the 1929 level despite New Deal policies, Dewey said. The present unemployment situation was caused by the back-to-the-home movement, which brought about the present unemployment situation.

Dewey reasoned that if the unemployment problems were solved, farm prices would return to normal.

Finns Retreat as Russian Attacks Smash Defenses

HELSINKI, Feb. 16 (UP)—A war communique today announced the Red army offensive against the Mannerheim line had penetrated "at three points on the Karelian Isthmus."

The communique also said the Russian advances were made east of the Summa sector, which is on the railroad to Viipuri, and at two points between Moolanjanjärvi and Vuoksi.

At those points, according to the communique, the Russians succeeded in penetrating to Finnish positions despite heavy losses.

(In Moscow, an official communique said Red army had advanced toward the railroad station of Kanarsa, 12 1/2 miles from Viipuri, after pushing back the Finnish forces which were said to be abandoning arms and suffering grave losses as they retreated. The exact extent of the advance was not announced but presumably the Russians claimed several miles progress. Kanarsa lies about three miles north of Summa village.)

Greatest Fear

The Finnish communique said the greatest Red attack was between Hatjalampi Iles and Vuoksi, in the center of the Mannerheim line and Vuoksi, on the left flank of the line adjacent to Lake Ladoga.

About 800 Russian airplanes carried out raids over Finland yesterday, the communique said, and at least eight of them were shot down. Most of the shot-down planes were on the isthmus in support of the Russian offensive.

"Finnish planes, however, bombed the enemy camps and bases, successfully" and showed themselves breaking out after bombing the camps, the railroad in the main. Russian supply line was destroyed."

BLIZZARD'S TOLL NEARS 70 MARK

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 (UP)—The St. Valentine's day blizzard was estimated today to have taken almost 70 lives and to have caused several million dollars of damage.

Highways throughout most of the northeastern seaboard region were still blocked by snowdrifts. In some places were 16 feet deep. Small boats and cottages along the Long Island coast were destroyed.

In metropolitan New York, five persons had died from over-exposure to the cold. In other parts of the state, the streets were a sea of snow. A force of 30,000 sanitation department employees was still working on it. They had been fighting the use of water to flush the snow away, because of a shortage in the city's reservoir due to a drought.

New England's deaths numbered 28 and damage was $10,000,000. In Pennsylvania, mountainous rural areas where no roads had been cleared were still isolated. Thousands of automobiles were stranded on the highways. Shipping along the coast and around the peninsula of work airline service was expected to be impaired the rest of the week and highways traveled throughout the storm area was still inadvisable.

Poetry Slaps Shirt Lack on Men's Chests

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 16 (UP)—This resort city, playground for the movie stars, approves of briefly clothed women, but frowns at the sight of bare chested men.

Movie actor Charles Farrell and Ralph Bellamy, co-owners of the city's famous club, and a group of business men petitioned the city council for an ordinance prohibiting men from appearing on the streets with bare chests.

The petition said: "We like our girls to wear their shirts. We like our men to wear their shirts. We like our men to wear their shirts. We like our men to wear their shirts."

BOISE, Feb. 16 (UP)—Thomas E. Dewey, New York district attorney, had concluded his benign speech last night when Ralph Brintner, Boise attorney who acted as a foil, asked him to refuse to pass out.

JONES IN FAVOR OF FINNISH LOAN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (UP)—Federal Loan Administrator Jesse Jones told the house banking committee today he believes Finland will survive Russian aggression and will repay her debt.

Jones testified in support of the senate-approved bill to increase the credit fund of the Export-Import Bank by $100,000,000. Out of this money, the bank could lend Finland $20,000,000 for military purposes, in addition to the $100,000,000 already advanced.

Rep. Charles Gifford, R., Mass., asked if the loan would be a loan that did not have a good chance of being repaid. Gifford asked if it would not be a loan that would not be repaid.

"My judgment is that lending this money will not decide the war," Jones said. "I do not believe the spirit of the Finnish people can be crushed."

"They may kill some of this generation, but the Finnish government will last a long time. They're an honorable people and they pay their debts."

Sweden Won't Let Foreign Troops Pass to Aid Finns

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 16 (UP)—Sweden cannot permit foreign troops going to Finland to pass through Swedish territory, a foreign office spokesman announced today after Prime Minister Per Albin Hansson said Sweden "in general" was not consenting with recent urgent appeals from Finland for assistance.

When asked what Sweden would do if the allies decided to send military aid to Finland, a spokesman for the Swedish government said it would not allow foreign troops from western powers over to receive permission to traverse Swedish territory.

The prime minister's statement, meanwhile, indicated Swedish aid for Finland would stop short of being military in nature. Swedish neutrality must be maintained. He confirmed that Finland had requested military aid as recently as Feb. 15.

The Finnish request, repeated several times, included a plan that

J. P. MORGAN COMPANY WILL BREAK UP TO AVOID TAXATION

HUGE AMERICAN FINANCIAL FIRM QUILTS EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, Feb. 16 (AP)—Wall Street believed today that J. P. Morgan and company partners would be able to reduce their income taxes by disbanding their private banking partnership and incorporating as a public institution, as they plan to do April 1.

The tax factor and the fact they will be able to do business as trustees under New York incorporation, were believed today to have inspired the decision that the great house of Morgan, a synonym for high finance for 80 years and with assets last Dec. 30 of $571,578,699, would no longer be an assembly of private stockholders.

The firm that has ridden every boom tide and weathered the storm of depression since the Civil war, and inspired the "money trust" congressional investigation under President Taft in 1912; acted as agent for the allied powers in the World war and survived the latest depression with only minor readjustments, may let the public participate in its own destiny under the new arrangement. It will be expected to sell its stock to the public, but no public offerings were planned immediately.

To Quit Exchange

In incorporating the firm must give up its brokerage business and stock exchange membership. The firm, eligible to serve as trustee, has a profitable phase of banking in investments.

In 1933, the senate banking and currency committee, in an investigation directed by Ferdinand Pecora as counsel, learned that not one of the 30 Morgan partners had paid a cent of federal income taxes for the previous two years. The investigation led to New Deal laws regulating banking, currency and stock exchange methods. The income tax question figured in the new incorporation plan as follows:

In years of prosperity, taxes on partnership income may reach the higher brackets, but under the corporate form, profits may be retained for a number of years. The taxes on the shareholders' tax, which are correspondingly lowered. It is the firm's plan to make the partners shareholders in the new corporation, their number of shares to depend on their investments in the old partnership. Morgan will remain president.

Morgan Partners

These are the Morgan partners and their capital participation:

The estate of J. P. Morgan, 40.4 per cent; J. P. Morgan, 21 per cent; R. C. Luffing, 6.1 per cent; J. C. Edgar, 2.9 per cent; J. A. Morgan, 2.2 per cent; A. M. Anderson, 1.9 per cent; George W. H. B. J. J. P. Davidson, 1.9 per cent; G. D. Dickson, 1.9 per cent; T. S. Lamont, 1.9 per cent.

That was the first time it was generally known that Morgan, whose father, J. Pierpont Morgan, founded the famous institution at 23 Wall street, was only the third largest stockholder.

GOP HEAD RAPS DEMOS' RESULTS

He promised, is ready to lead the country "out of the stifling air of depression and radicalism into the bright sunshine of economic recovery under a government amenable to truly American principles."

Hamilton gave several hints about Republican campaign tactics—the major one being that they would accuse Mr. Roosevelt of seeking to establish himself as a dictator if he runs for a third term. His address also revealed the G.O.P. will center its attack on New Deal "failures" and "eight years of shattered and broken promises." Predicting a Republican victory, Hamilton said, "The American people . . . want a responsible, stable leadership which will point the way toward clearing up the festering sore of unemployment, business stagnation, starvation income for farmers and the threatening specter of national bankruptcy from continued federal deficits."

Colorado Faces a Quandary

The state of Colorado has a "ham-and-egg" pension plan of sorts.

The state of Colorado is frankly in a mess. As a matter of fact, Colorado's plan is not half so generous as some others that have been kicking around the country lately.

Now O. Otto Moore, youthful, leather-junged messiah of the Colorado pension movement, has another idea, and apparently he will get enough endorsement signatures to get it before the electorate in the next elections.

After four years of the pension program, there are few official hairs in Colorado that haven't turned gray. Things had been bad enough, but after a recent decision by Denver Judge Stanley H. Johnson, state executives were ready to throw up their hands in complete despair.

Judge Johnson held that pensions could not be prorated, as had been done since the inception of the program because of lack of funds.

As a result of the pension plan, relief clients have been clipped down to allowances ranging between $5 and $7 a week—while pensioners have been getting actual grants of between $32 and $40 per month.

To further complicate matters, the pension amendment contained a proviso that 85 per cent of all liquor taxes and license revenue was to go into the pension fund.

Voters still in doubt about pensions should examine Colorado's puzzle and be warned. It could happen anywhere where a pension scheme is launched without sound financial footing.

Eventually, perhaps, the citizens of Colorado will back-track and begin building a workable pension system. This will have to be done soon. Hoping new mistakes on top of the old ones isn't going to help matters.

Everyone Loses in War

Undeluded in a world of propaganda, the Baptist, Congregational, Methodist, Presbyterian churches and the Church of Christ, Salvation Army and Society of Friends in South Australia recently issued a message, part of which said:

"No nation of today can win a war. Victory for the best that man can envisage cannot be finally won by the use of force; it must rather be an outcome of a constant readiness to employ all the resources of the human spirit to secure a full life of liberty and justice for all."

How true this statement is has been affirmed by the results of the last war. However the present engagements end, there will be no victory. That must come in the years to follow, when adjustments are made in a peaceful fashion.

Japan Knows the Answer

The Japanese appear concerned over growing "pressure" applied by the United States since the abrogation of the trade treaty. Japanese leaders pretend now to find themselves in the position of knowing nothing about the weird reasons the United States had for calling off formal trade agreements.

"What does the United States request from Japan for re-adjustment of relations?" asked the leader of one of Japan's major parties, recently.

"The security of the lives and property of American residents in China," replied Foreign Minister Hachiro Arata.

Japan will only call off her ruthless aggression unless she may have her treaty with the United States as simple as that.

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Demand for modification of the state-federal unemployment insurance pact, which almost certainly will be made before this congress adjourns.

Employees Protest Unemployment Tax The U. S. Chamber of Commerce has received many protests. A few samples:

A middle-western widow who runs a small manufacturing business established by her husband, employing about a dozen workers, wrote that at the end of the past year when she came to balance her books, she found that she had paid in unemployment tax just three times what she had let for herself as net profit.

CLAIM TAX PREVENTS EXPANSION Of the thousand-old members of the chamber who replied to a questionnaire asking if they were making capital investment in a new plant or in modernization this year, a large number said they were not—because the payroll tax was making it financially impossible.

Retiring Fire Chief Declares Antique Equipment Offers Peril to Twin Falls

The Pump That Failed

Fire Chief Fred Perry, who voluntarily leaves his post March 1 to return to farming near Eden, this afternoon made an appeal to citizens and city officials to "furnish the department with adequate equipment."

"The personnel of the department is the best which could be had," Perry said, "but just because we've been lucky and have never had a really bad fire there is no use in being unprepared if a serious blaze comes. A man can be a good firefighter but he must have equipment with which to lick it."

New Truck Vital
Most important item needed at the present time is a new truck, the retiring chief said.

"The two units now in service are both 19 years old, having been purchased in June of 1921. They have given good service but they are now so far behind the times that it is pitiful."

"For instance, both are equipped with only two-wheel brakes, and they have to operate in four-wheel traffic. When we get moving it would be unfortunate if someone cut in ahead of us."

"In addition, both units, because of their age, are much slower than the new type of truck. The old ones are slower starting and are slower to stop. In a fire, every moment counts. Extension ladders with the present trucks are only 20 feet in length, and to meet minimum requirements they should be longer."

Other Needs Too
"The department is away behind in many things beside trucks but these are the most serious things at the moment and one new one should be purchased as soon as possible," Perry said.

He recalled that the water pressure pump on truck No. 2 (the only unit having such a pump) failed at least twice during the Bichel school fire. This pump increases the water pressure from the fire hydrant, which is about 80 pounds pressure, to a pressure of between 100 and 200 pounds.

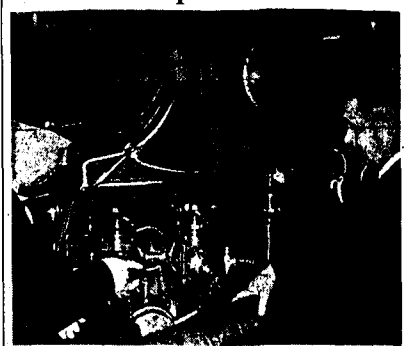

With the increased pressure made possible by the pump, five lines can be attached and will be powerful," Perry said. If this unit broke down, and it was a large fire, the four or five lines were needed, the "80 pounds pressure from the hydrant would not even shoot a stream of water across the street," the chief declared.

"The equipment of the local fire department has served its day and should be replaced. We have been lucky to date, but luck does not last always. Sooner or later we will get it and we had better be prepared."

Rotary Addressed
By Traffic Officer
JEROME, Feb. 16 (Special)—State traffic officer Earl Small of this area, gave a talk on safety at the meeting of the Jerome Rotary club Tuesday.

A collection was taken up among members to aid in the Finnish Relief fund.

Special guests present at the meeting were Dr. Howard, visiting Rotarians from the Shoshone club, F. W. Frank, Logan, Utah, a guest of Paul Rudy, and three Boy Scouts, Leland Tinkington, assistant Scoutmaster, Boyd Freeman and Walter Burdick, members of the troop sponsored by the Rotary organization here.

Fire Chief Fred Perry (left) points out the "pump that failed" to Commissioner Carl E. Richey. Weakness of this "one and only" water pressure pump on city fire equipment is just one of the reasons why new equipment is sorely needed, the chief said. (Times Photo and Engraving)

"Now that's what I call good coffee"

YOUR CONFIDENCE IN HILLS BROS. COFFEE will never be misplaced. Its uniform quality promises you an abundance of flavor and aroma.

The Contract Grind is guaranteed to give best results by any method of coffee-making if directions are followed. Hills Bros. Coffee should never be reground. Regrounding results in a loss of flavor and aroma and the coffee loses freshness faster.

IMPORTANT: Carefully observe timing for each method. Measure 2 level tablespoons of coffee to each cup of water. Vary water slightly for taste strength desired. Keep coffee-maker clean.

DRIP METHODS: 4 to 8 minutes preferred. If less than 3/2 capacity in coffee-maker, water will drip too fast during work hour.

GLASS VACUUM-MAKERS: Put coffee in bottom of vacuum boiler. The lid and water should be in contact 3 to 7 minutes.

PERCOLATOR: Start with cold or hot water. Percolate slowly 7 to 10 minutes after steady percolating starts, unless after steady percolating starts.

COFFEE: Pour boiling water on coffee in percolator. Let stand 3 to 5 minutes. Cover and steep for a total of 10 to 15 minutes.

ON THE SIDE OF EVERY CAN are directions for obtaining best results by any method of coffee-making. Write Hills Bros. Coffee, Inc., San Francisco for a free copy of "The Art of Coffee-Making."

Guests From Alaska Feted at Reception

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Leblanc de Nemours, here from Fairbanks, Alaska, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Parrott observed "open house" last evening at their home, 1002 Shoshone street east. Mrs. Leblanc de Nemours, their daughter, was formerly Miss Helen Parrott. They are in the states for an extended visit.

Ninety-five friends from Twin Falls, Kimberly and Buhl, called during the evening to meet Mr. Leblanc de Nemours and to welcome the return of Mrs. Leblanc de Nemours.

Mrs. B. H. Proctor, Kimberly; Mrs. D. L. Beamer, Mrs. E. B. Johnson and Mrs. O. P. Duval, presided in turn at the refreshment table during the two-hour reception, from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Miller Proctor, Kimberly, sister of Mrs. Leblanc de Nemours; Miss Cora Jensen and Miss Violet Adams.

A striking decorative note in the dining room was an illuminated Chinese amber figure, Quo Yin, a goddess.

The treasure, 1,000 years old, was a wedding gift to Mr. and Mrs. Leblanc de Nemours, and is an unusually rare carving.

Centering the refreshment table was a five-branched silver candelabra holding lighted tapers, placed on a mirror reflector, on which two long-stemmed red rose buds rested at either side.

Noted Americans Honored by Club

Closely appointed was the Valentine party for members of the Falls avenue club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Violet Beus.

Mrs. Francis Gergen and Mrs. Bertha Hansen were in charge of the program, theme of which was "The life and loves of some of the great Americans."

Mrs. Fannie Russell and Mrs. Margaret Owens won honors in the old-fashioned love song contest, music being arranged by Mrs. Abbie Hays.

Miss Gertrude Sampson reviewed the life of Abraham Lincoln, telling of the profound effect that his mother and his sweetheart, Ann Rutledge, had upon his life.

Mrs. Margaret Beus gave her impressions of Lindbergh as she remembered him when she met him at Wichita, Kan., when he was flying his Spirit of St. Louis, and then gave a review of the life of Anne and Charles Lindbergh, reading "The Spirit of St. Louis," "The Wind" and "North to the Orient."

Mrs. Hansen suggested that the names of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Edison be included in the list of noted Americans. Mrs. Owens described the Tournament of Roses and the Rose Bowl game she attended last January at Pasadena.

Business session was in charge of Mrs. Birdie Sackett. Mrs. E. H. Edwards, Mrs. Helen Sykes and Miss Marbeth Sykes were guests. Refreshments in the Valentine theme were served.

Red cupid and hearts were arranged throughout the home, and an old-fashioned Valentine box was a feature.

M'CALL SEEN AS TEAM TO BEAT AT GOODING

Loggers Win Over Elks; Play Under Way for 2nd Day

(Morning results on page two)
By HAL WOOD
Evening Times Sports Editor

GOODING, Feb. 16 (Special)—McCall Loggers, wearing a Payette Lakes uniform, today surveyed the field from the top of the pack in the 15th annual Gooding outlaw tournament and were installed by local fans as the team to beat for first money—despite the fact that they must be waded through a lot of tough opposition before they can claim the championship.

The Loggers pulled the upset of the tournament last night by beating the Burley Elks, defending champions, and annexing a close 29-23 victory in the best game of the tournament to date.

That game marked the second one-point victory in four games on the part of the Loggers, and assurance from officials of the meet that the one-point win went to see how close play would be close. The other one-point win was to the home Gooding Jaycees over the American Falls Moose.

Good Games Today

There were some very good games scheduled today—and another big game at 8 p. m. was expected for both afternoon and evening sessions. This morning at 8:30 a. m. Bliss met Burley Sport Shop and one point later followed by a game between Gooding Jaycees and Buhl Independents, both elimination games.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Gooding Jaycees 41, Bliss Town team 24.
American Falls 35, Burley Sport Shop 21.
Shoshone Town team 33, Gooding Jaycees 20.
Jerome Jaycees 33, Buhl Independents 24.
Burley Elks 47, Glenns Ferry Independents 23.
McCall Loggers 35, Sun Valley 21.
Boise Business University 46, Fairfield Town team 22.
Gooding Jaycees 22, American Falls 11.
Jerome Jaycees 28, Shoshone Town team 11.
Fletcher Oil All-Stars 57, Owyhee Indians 19.
McCall Loggers 29, Burley Elks 23.

There was a tie between the Boise area, ran into an unexpected set-up in the Owyhee Indians, who furnished lots of color to the entertainment—but very little in the way of basketball. The final score was 57-19 for the Boise team, which held a wide 19-9 lead at the half-time.

Shurdluff got 15 points for the winners and Carrares got 10 for Owyhee.

That final McCall-Burley Elks battle was a hum-dinger from start to finish with the Loggers pulling away to a wide 8-0 lead in the first minutes of play. The Loggers ran it to 10-2 a few minutes later, but after the Elks took back to 10-10. They tied the count at 12-12, but the Loggers got a gift shot to make it 13-12 at the half.

McCall Loggers were extended for the first five minutes of play by the Sun Valley team, but they took things easy while piling up a 24-9 lead at the half and finally emerging with a 29-23 victory. The winners were led by McCall with 18 points, while Brooks got 11 for the Sun Valley club.

Soberly and quietly, directed by Chief Doc Eagle, found the Fairfield Town team not too tough and pulled through with a 46-22 triumph. Half-time count was 31-11 as the Boiseans took turns in the scoring. Dick got 13 and Bowers and Lacey 12 each for the winners while Pond topped Fairfield with six.

Close Game

The night session got away to a good start with that Gooding Jaycees vs. American Falls battle which resulted in a 22-21 victory for the home club. Gooding got away to a good start and piled up a 12-3 lead in the first 12 minutes of play. But at the half the Moose had started to climb and the count was 14-7 at the intermission. They kept up the work until they finally knuckled out at 21-21 when M. Meadows connected for a basket. However, in the last minute of play Don Johnson scored a free throw to give the game away for the home club. However the Jaycees with eight points, while Aguirre and D. Meadows each got six for American Falls.

Close Play in Gooding Tourney

Best game of the first day in the Gooding outlaw tournament was the final tilt on the evening's program between the McCall Loggers and the Burley Elks—won by the Loggers, 29-23. Here's part of the last minute action in that tilt as Fred Judvine of Burley, one of the offset players in the tourney in point of score, keeps the ball away from Gordon of McCall Payette Lakes team. A second later Judvine whirled and sank a long toss to bring the count 28-29—just one point short of a tie as the final gong sounded.

IT'S LIKE OLD-HOME WEEK AT GOODING AS VETERAN CAGE PERFORMERS RETURN FOR 15TH ANNUAL OUTLAW TOURNAMENT

GOODING, Feb. 16—Born and heard at the 15th annual Gooding Outlaw basketball tournament. Just like old-home week here. While some part of this annual cage meet in Idaho there are teams coming to the fore, there are several clubs (and with the same players) that have been on the ground for the opening whistle from 10 to 12 years—and some even longer than that.

Of the outstanding quintets along this line is the American Falls Moose (or Danisters). Outside of the home Gooding and the neighboring Jerome clubs, the American Falls club has been on the floor for the opening day longer than any team in the meet—having participated in all 15 of the tourneys. The three clubs have never missed a tourney—and that's some record while they stop to consider that basketball (like most other sports) often ebbs in enthusiasm in most cities.

However, the Danisters continue to be represented at the tournament and have won more than their share of trophies. The team that took the floor that night to lose a one-point decision to the flooding Jaycees and first five minutes of play in the meet—having participated in all 15 of the tourneys. The three clubs have never missed a tourney—and that's some record while they stop to consider that basketball (like most other sports) often ebbs in enthusiasm in most cities.

However, Brier doesn't hold the record. Top men for tourneys are Late Lyons, manager of the flooding Jaycees, and first five minutes of play in the meet—having participated in all 15 of the tourneys. The three clubs have never missed a tourney—and that's some record while they stop to consider that basketball (like most other sports) often ebbs in enthusiasm in most cities.

Mac Says Dean's Parents Were Guilty of Understatement in Giving Him Nickname

By HERVEY MALKINOR
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14 (U.P.)—James Herman Dean, whose parents were guilty of understatement when they nicknamed him "Daisy," is being criticized these days for refusing a $10,000 salary offer from F. K. Wrigley, owner of the Chicago Cubs.
 To the criticism seems unjust. In the first place, Daisy had been accustomed to being paid more than that for doing nothing. In the last two years his arm has been so good that they have named it a star. He has been about as much help to the Cubs as a pair of brass knuckles would have been to little Lord Faversham. But he was paid $20,000 last year and even more the year before. He probably figures, and I think correctly, that if his arm is a dead arm it is worth $20,000 a full dead arm should be worth at least $20,000. And he has shown nothing during the winter to discredit the general belief that his pitching arm is ready for a blue suit, a black bow tie, and a simple ceremony.
 That's that. Now, in the second place Dean needs more than $10,000 for his suit consultant alias. And he must have one. No one man could think up all the alphas he does by himself in one year. Now everyone has had a table lamp chase him around the room for some time, but he has had one catch up with him and bite him in his back, or picking him up. That set him back for a full year.

 A few months ago Daisy, or his minister charge d'habits, thought of wisdom teeth as an excuse, which were the last type of teeth that anyone suspected Daisy of having. Even Daisy. He had them and he felt better in his life. He said his arm felt as good as new. The dentist told him Daisy now had the world opened for Daisy when he had his wisdom teeth pulled. To hear him tell it Daisy now has the world wide and seek, and the horses.
 At present, Daisy is in Hot Springs, Ark., where he is a lecturer and lecturer in a baseball school. Those who have sat in on his lectures say he is a combination of William Lyon Phelps, Nicholas Murray Butler, and Elton's five-foot shill. Daisy, it is understood, is doing research work, which is another reason why he needs more than Wrigley has offered him. He spends hours each day in the report, is working toward the perfection of a complete "nothing" ball. He became interested in this line of research following the game he pitched against the Yankees in the world series two years ago.

 Perfect "nothing" ball would be one so slow that by the time it got to the plate the game would be called on account of darkness. It would have so little on it in the way of spin or curve that the batter would become so engrossed in counting the stitches and the hand writing of President Ford Frick that he would neglect to swing.
 In the third place, but not least, I had better say in the fourth place, being as that is where the Cubs finished last year? Wrigley could establish a definite precedent by offering a worker only what he is worth.

 Scores were a little better in the match between Sego Milk and Zip-Way.
 Al Kircher, anchor man for Sego Milk was (with the aid of the handpick) responsible for winning the second and third games for his team. He struck out both times to win the second by 29 pins and the third by seven.
 Mr. Ray, with 857, led both teams. He had an even 200 in his middle game. Rolly Horning's 206 took high single for these two teams. Tonight's game between the Elks and Sego Milk will be Rolly's last game as he starts his own league in the near future. The Elks' high score was 456. Al Westergren and George Paulson also topped the 800-mark.
 Orlis' 190 was the best single, but 208 is still top for high single this week in the Commercial league.
 Wilson's Rize continues its winning ways by taking three out of four from the Twin Falls League. However, there was not a 500 score for the winners. Roy Weller was just two points short of that mark. Wilson's best single was a 188—410 by Weller.
 The only 500 total of the night in the City league was turned in by Mike Ricks—a 322. Another honor went to Rize when he posted the high single of 190—had nothing out Weller by a single pin.
 Free bowling next week for Oregonians. The Transacting Walk Dix takes the weekly prize in the City league for top single with a 210 score.
 Sego Milk wind up this week's team play tonight.

THE PAYOFF

by HARRY GRAYSON
 (NEA Sports Editor)
NEW YORK—The Arturo Godoy fight proved what a few of us have been claiming all along.
 Joe Louis is nothing more than the best of a very bad lot.
 Louis might be able to knock over the Statue of Liberty or the Empire State building, but he's a loogan against a moving target.
 Tommy Farr made that plain as early as August, 1937, when the Irishman struck around for 18 heats.
 And now we have Godoy, a flop against the rank and file new two-year-old, repeating the performance.
 Had Farr or Godoy been able to dent a piling with a mallet he would have won the world heavyweight championship.
 Some of the Johnny-Come-Latelys and boys are criticizing Tommy Shortell, the judge who gave Godoy 10 rounds, Louis two and called three others even.
 Pretty Sorry Defense
 This against the identical voice of the referee, Arthur Donovan, and the one-eyed John Henry Lewis, who credited Louis with 10 rounds, were forced to chalk up four for Godoy and ruled one even.
 Shortell, the old lightweight, happens to be the man who devised the New York scoring system. He was for four years box instructor at the New York Racquet and Tennis club.
 They can't say Godoy ran, as was the charge, that Bob Factor is his first trip with Louis. O'ody crouched, but what is a fellow supposed to do? Stand and let Louis box him?
 As Shortell says, if a couple of fellows who had never seen Louis walked into the Garden and heard he had just watched him box 10 rounds they would have been terribly disappointed and wondered
