Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary, demanded of Norwegian Minister Rich. Androsen that Norway return the Altmark as a belated vessel.

Lord Halifax, demanding intervention of the Altmark, asked Minister Rich to answer the following questions: "Firstly, in view of the known character of the Altmark..."

"Secondly, if Norwegian authorities had found some 300 to 400 British prisoners on board what action would they have taken? Would they have left the prisoners in the Altmark?"

"Thirdly, precisely why did Norway appear to consider the Altmark an 'innocent merchantman' when she had acted as an auxiliary to the Graf Spee and had been used as a prison ship for quite a long time?"

"Fourthly, if they considered her innocent merchantman, then why did they send Norwegian warships with her, or at any rate why were Norwegian warships undoubtedly in the vicinity of the Altmark? What reason did the warships for being there at all?"

"Fifthly, in the British contention the Altmark was armed with two 200-pound guns and four machine guns and carried an armed guard including naval men from the Graf Spee."

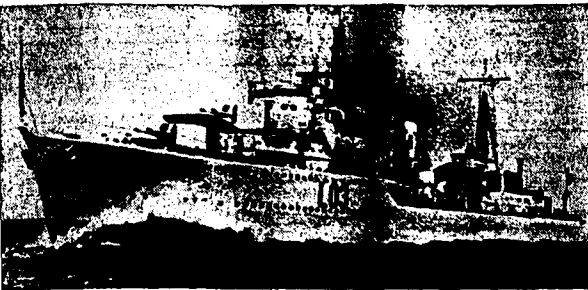

"Sixthly, the mid-west disturbance north to Illinois, eastern and southern Iowa and Wisconsin. Additional snow was forecast for western Iowa where a heavy snow storm took three lives and stranded hundreds."

18th Division of Russian Army Destroyed in Attack Northeast of Lake Ladoga

HELSINKI, Feb. 19 (U.P.)—A war communique announced today the Red army's 18th division had been annihilated northeast of Lake Ladoga, with 18,000 men killed or taken prisoner.

The results of the fighting northeast of the lake, which the Finns said ended with destruction of the 18th division, were announced as the Finnish high command threw fresh men, guns and airplanes into the battle to halt a Red army offensive against the Mannerheim line on the Karelian Isthmus.

Denying Russian claims that they were within a few miles of Viipuri, the Finns said they were confident the fresh forces would halt the offensive.

The communique, announcing results of the Red army drive northeast of the lake, indicated the Finns had ended any immediate possibility of the Red army completing a pincer movement around the lake, for an attack on the rear of the Mannerheim line in cooperation with the Red attacks launched their way along the Karelian Isthmus.

The Finnish communique said the Finns had captured a "strong point" held by the 18th division and taken body which included 50 tanks, 30 cannons, 10 tractors and 23 field kitchens.

It was the third—and possibly the fourth—Red army division that the Finns had reported wiped out. The most severe defeat they had previously suffered, according to Red communique, was the annihilation of the Russian 44th division on the Karelian Isthmus.

Today's communique also said that local fighting on the Mannerheim line, including the Red army offensive, died down yesterday. Messages today, however, indicated it had been renewed at some points.

The communique said that on Sunday the Red army's 18th division had been repulsed by Finns entrenched in new positions on the Isthmus.

Loss Estimated The Russians lost one battalion (approximately 900 or 1,000 men) and 100 tanks, the communique said. The communique said southwest of Salmankanta Isthmus, which dominated the Red army's winter campaign and which in the new defense line set up by the Finns, the defense line was 200 yards in length and captured 30 guns.

Finns are still holding Taipale, the left "anchor" of the Mannerheim line on the Isthmus. The Ladoga, the communique said, although a Russian attack began there at mid-day Sunday and in continuation.

Russian planes flew over Finland yesterday in the largest numbers since the fighting started, according to the communique, which would mean more than 600 craft. Of these, it was announced, 20 were shot down.

SOLON REJECTS PLEDGE OF VOTES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 (U.P.)—Sen. Wm. Donahoe, D., Ohio, today rejected a pledge of support for the executive vote at a third term.

Donahoe characterized the plan of the Ohio senator, provided the President was in the field. "I appreciate the honor tendered to me by the Ohio senator, provided the President was in the field."

"I am sure today we must maintain this policy. We always have a minimum of voluntary support for Finland. But I feel sure that active military intervention for Finland would mean not only war against Russia, but immediate involvement in a great war with other powers."

NAZIS PROMISE REVENGE FOR TAKING OF PRISONERS

GERMANS THINK LEAGUE SHOULD APPLY PENALTY

BERLIN, Feb. 19 (Special)—Great Britain's attack on the German steamer Altair obligates the League of Nations to impose penalties on Britain and take military action against her, the inspired German press said today.

Every agency of publicity, official and unofficial, testified to the rage of the government against the British.

It was a campaign of denunciation—as part of which full revenge was promised—such as had not been seen since the start of the war.

The assertion that the league ought to act against Britain was first made by the newspaper Montag as follows:

"Chamberlain and Churchill unilaterally have unilaterally attacked Norway which, to us British terms, according to League of Nations statute, obligates all member states to impose sanctions upon and take military action against England."

"Peak of Impudence"

Britain's rejection of a Norwegian protest against the attack on the Almark on the Norwegian coast was denounced as "the peak of impudence" in first page newspaper headlines.

"Such crude methods of trying to crush their consciences clear with lying protests and brazen threats of 'shoot nobody,' said the Zweifel Uhr Blatt."

The Plous Nord Herald, with its swindler's impudence, has the nerve to accuse that grossly insulted land (Norway) of not having properly maintained neutrality, said Voelkischer Beobachter, official Nazi newspaper organ.

Other newspapers said that the Almark attack was but part of a considered plan to "draw neutrals into the war."

"Severe Consequences"

In articles which covered entire pages, the newspapers denounced "murder by British pirates in Norway." The articles promised the "severest consequences for England." They asserted the Almark was "completely unarmed." Der Montag voiced suspicion that Almark attack was made only to sound world reaction on a neutrality violation, and to accustom the world to such attacks.

The Montag Post warned neutrals to beware of a British plot to transform the world into a single warring area.

An authorized source indicated Germany was awaiting further developments before deciding its course as to diplomatic exchanges with Norway.

Socialites Turn Salesgirls As Sun Valley Aids Finland

SUN VALLEY, Feb. 19 (Special)—The cream of the nation's socialites will act as salesgirls here Wednesday, Feb. 21, for the benefit of the Finnish relief fund.

They will wait on customers at the shop of Frederick Picard, noted Swiss designer, at an all-day sale, the entire profits of which will be donated to the fund as part of Sun Valley's bid to the relief campaign headed by former President Herbert Hoover.

The event will precede the "Eklers of Finland" dinner to be held here on Washington's birthday, also for the benefit of the fund, and it will be featured by free cocktails at noon and 5 p. m. In addition, there will be a sweepstakes with prizes to the person holding a ticket on the sale; it will be the most money.

Like Social Register

Among those who will be saying the customary "What is your pleasure, Madam?" behind counters of quaint colorful ski clothes are Mrs. John J. Astor, the former Tucker French, New York and West Palm Beach; Mrs. Elizabeth C. Young, Newport and New York; Mrs. W. Averell Harriman, wife of the chairman of the board of the Union Pacific railroad; Miss Cora Breitwieser, head of Hattie Carnegie, New York; Mrs. Frederick Spang, Chicago; Mrs. Elizabeth C. Young, editorial director of the American Home magazine; Mrs. Dolores Lane, St. Louis and Beverly Hills; Mrs. George F. Baker, Jr., New York; Miss Margie McKean, Beverly Farms, Mass.; Mrs. Lawrence Colledge, Hamilton Ridgeley, Vermilion, New York's No. 3 college girl of the current season, and Mrs. Christopher LaFarge of New York.

Men salesmen will include Ezzell Belmont, husband of Millicent Rogers, the oil heiress; Ski Instructor Hans Hauser and Fried Pfeiffer, head of the Sun Valley ski school.

Paris to Autograph

Dr. Max Barz, author of the hilarious "Belmont Op," this year's best selling ski book, will be on hand to autograph copies of his work.

Invitations to the sale, in the form of an original and hitherto unpublished poem by the noted author and poet Christopher LaFarge, were mailed today.

Unique feature of the "Eklers of Finland" dinner which will follow the all-day sale at Picard's will be "sit-down off" of two ski instructors—virile Hans Hauser and pretty blond Claria Heath.

"The handsome ladies who will bid for him when they get him, or what the gentlemen will do with the fair Claria is a question which can't be answered."

Heads Committees

According to W. P. Rogers, general manager of Sun Valley, the dinner committee will consist of prominent guests and it will be headed by Mrs. Doreen White, New York. Mrs. Wolfe has been active in Finnish relief work in the east and is now making final preparations for the east-west women's aid meet to be held here in the early part of March.

Dinner at a 95 top will be held in the dining room of Sun Valley Hotel, in the East Sun Valley's quaint beerstube, and in the Cafe Continental in picturesque Challengier Inn. There's no cost of the gross proceeds of the dinner, plus all voluntary contributions and the funds from the auction, will go to the fund.

In addition to this, Mr. Picard, proprietor of the Swiss shop in the lodge, and Jack Lane of the Sun Valley general store, will donate their net profits on all goods sold on Feb. 22 to the fund.

COWBOY CHIEFS MAP PLANS FOR 1940 PLAY

Pace Arrives to Arrange Signing Of Lease on Park

By HAL WOOD
Evening Times Sports Editor

Herding the approaching of spring in a manner which no robin could do, Hugh Pace, business manager of the Twin Falls Cowboys, arrived in the city today to map initial plans for the local entry in the Pioneer league circuit for the 1940 season.

Full of prophecies and a program for the club to follow during the current campaign, the portly head of Bill Ulrich interests here, was on route from the annual schedule meeting at Salt Lake City where the fire works flew thick and fast—and where no schedule was adopted.

He was here to arrange for the signing of the lease from the city for the ball park.

Poining to the coming season, Pace was brimful of ideas for the Cowboy park and team. Among these was the suggestion that all of the bleacher units of the Jaycees park would be incorporated into the grandstand and the building of a high fence at the entrance of the grandstand out to the ticket office.

League Ruling

On top of that, Pace stated that a league ruling was passed at the Salt Lake sessions making it mandatory that every park have both grass fields and outfields—doing away with the dust of last season.

Mr. Pace was generally pleased with the local situation, despite the fact that he found the whole ball park torn up as usual, and works toward the planting of one of the finest lawns in the Snake valley area.

"My only worry now is that it will be in shape to use by the opening day of the season," said the business manager.

He was elated by the acquisition of Frank Tobin as manager of the Cowboys for the 1940 season.

Five Tie for Lead in Texas Tourney

HOUSTON, Tex., Feb. 18 (AP)—Four professional golf stars were bracketed with amateur Harry Todd of Dallas, Tex., in a five-way tie for the lead today in the western open golf championship.

Par for the River Oaks country club course had yet to be equaled as Craig Wood of Mammoth, N. C.; Jim Dandrea, Houston, Bud Williamson, Fort Wayne, Ind., and Todd, scored the first 18 holes yesterday in 72, one over the regulation figure.

The difficult course, swept all day by a stiff, high north wind, was slowed by rains which has caused two postponements of the tourney, scheduled to end yesterday.

Defending champion and pre-tournament favorite Byron Nelson of Dallas, Tex., slipped six strokes back of the leaders. He ended a 36-78.

Third place held 14 pros with 79, including Sam Snead, who was hit by a stiff, high north wind, a comeback after a stage of illness.

Utah Weather Spoils Ski Runs on Ecker

PAINE, Utah, Feb. 18 (AP)—A blizzard of snow and sleet, which kept the ski runs on Ecker hill here from being made today, spoiled the skiing conditions at the Paine Ski Club. The snow and sleet was reported as a result of a low pressure system moving over the state.

All skiers who had been out on the new lift-off and on the old lift-off, were held at the ski club until the snow and sleet cleared off the old lift-off.

Frank Smith, Steamboat Springs, Colo., suffered minor bruise and cuts from a spill Sunday, but was released from a Salt Lake City hospital late yesterday.

Beaver Cagers Go to Hawaii

COORVILLE, Ore., Feb. 18 (AP)—The Oregon State college basketball team will go to Hawaii for a series of games in March and April, under the leadership of Coach Allyn Stinson, and enter the national championship.

The Beaver faculty has granted the team permission to make the trip, according to the midland.

The Beavers have previously clinched the Pacific Coast conference, while they are ahead of the southern division.

First bout is scheduled to start at 8 p. m.

Bufs Retain Advantage in Big Seven Loop

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 18 (AP)—Colorado's once-beaten Buffalo Bulls retained their position at the top of the Big Seven basketball race today after defeating Colorado State 52 to 34 Saturday night at Fort Collins.

Utah State turned back Utah University, 36 to 29, on the Utah floor in the only game played Friday night, but was in turn defeated by Brigham Young Saturday night at Provo 42 to 43. The other game played Saturday night saw Denver university defeat Wyoming, 48 to 33.

Scores 18 Points

Jack Harvey, veteran Colorado forward, sank 18 points to lead his team to victory. Colorado State never overcame an eight-point lead the Bufs held at half time.

BYU's Cougars broke up the hopes of the northern part of the conference when they handed the Utah Aggies their second loss of the season. Taking an early lead, the Cougars played out in front of the more-experienced Slayers throughout the game.

Two Rallies

Two rallies, one early and one late in the game, brought Utah State to within one point of BYU, but long shots by Center Len Allen and Guard Don Oberie kept the Provo team out of danger. The loss left the Aggies still in second place, but gave them one more loss than Colorado.

Denver coasted in its easy win over Wyoming, which plumped the Cowboys into the cellar. The free-scoring contest gave the Pioneer, including Gus Hagan, a fair chance to fatten their scoring counts.

Meris lopped in 15 points.

Bruins Will Take on Oakley Here Tuesday

Nearing the end of their pre-tournament season, the Twin Falls Bruins tackle the speedy Oakley Hornets on the local court on Tuesday night in the second to last game of the scheduled year on the local court.

The contest will be one of the big tests for Coach John Platt's Bruins, because the Hornets, along with the Burley Bobcats, are figured by outsiders as the pre-tournament favorites to capture the district crown, now held by the Bull Indians.

Saturday night the Twin Falls team lost to the Boise Braves by a score of 23-27, after defeating the Nampa Bulldogs at Nampa on Friday by a count of 30-18.

The tilt in the capital city on Saturday found the Bruins falling all the way through and inability to connect on free throws cost them 18 points. At the half the Twin Falls team trailed 21-17. The Twin Falls team rallied in the second half to outscore their rivals, but they could not quite overcome the early advantage.

High scoring honors for the game went to Gardner of the winning quintet, while Thomas, Davison and Farnum each got seven for the Twin Falls club.

Burley Quint Retains Crown With 44-39 Title Fray Victory

Gooding, Feb. 19 (Special)—Outside of a few exhibition games that will be staged with touring cage clubs, and possibly the entrance of a few teams from this sector in the state A.U. meet at Boise, outlaw basketball season for 1940 came to close here Saturday night before the biggest throng in history at the junior high school gymnasium.

A record crowd of 1,200 jammed every inch of the standing and sitting room as the Burley Elks came through the hard way to capture the crown for the second consecutive year. The final score of the championship game was 44-39 with the victims in the title fray being the Gooding Jaycees.

The home club that reached the finals for the first time in 15 years of the tournament.

The championship contest was a thriller from the opening whistle to the final buzzer. The fact that the Elks were in front all the way and the closest the Jaycees could get after the first few minutes of play was the five-point advantage that showed on the scorebook as the game ended. In between, the Burley club, defending the title, held advantage as big as 11 points.

Johnson Outstanding

Outstanding man on the floor was Don Johnson, the former University of Idaho flash, who captured for the Gooding quintet. Taking nothing except short shots, the winning-around-the-basket, besides playing on nine field goals and five free throws. He was practically unstopable under the basket, besides playing a great floor game.

The Elks moved into an early advantage, with every man on the first team in the line-up scoring at least one field goal. At the half the count was 21-11 for the ultimate winner.

Johnson outstanding half the Jaycees outscore the Elks, but just about every time that Gooding would connect, one of the Elks stars would connect. The Elks stars were able to retain the advantage for Burley. However, after the count came to 44-39, Don Johnson went for a one-man scoring spree and ran it to 39 before the game ended. Johnson made the last 10 points in a row for the Elks.

For the Elks, high point man was Ernie Crater, with 18 points. He led off with an outstanding floor game by leading his team to victory.

Play Three Other Games

To reach the finals the Burley quintet played three games during the day. In the morning they eliminated Boise Business University, and at 1 p. m. edged American University, 34-31, counting their victory against Bull in the semi-final tilt of the evening and Shandy Hogan, on behalf of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsored the tournament. Middle Bear made the presentation of awards and cash at the conclusion of the final game. Burley received $100 for first prize, Gooding Jaycees got $80 for second and the Twin Independents $25 for third.

All-Star Squad

On the 10-man all-star squad were Vernon Gooding, Roger Burley, Kerpa, Buhl, Peterson, Jerome, Dog Kagle, Boise Business University, Aguirre, American Falls, McConnell, Callahan, Edgington, Burley.

Popularity makes OLD GRAND-DAD Head of the Bourbon Family

Since the day it was first distilled, Old Grand-Dad has always stood for supreme whiskey quality. So naturally this choice Kentucky bourbon costs a little more than ordinary whiskey. But it must be worth the difference, or a great many Old Grand-Dad drinkers wouldn't have made it the largest-selling U. S. A. brand in the broad Kentucky straight bourbon whiskey.

$50,000 Santa Anita Derby Will Attract Record Field of Horses

By HENRY McLEMORE
ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 19 (AP)—The biggest charge of men and horses since General Pickett's order "Come on boys," is likely to take place here Thursday when the starter rings the ball for the sixth running of the $50,000 Santa Anita derby.

There were 123 three-year olds originally named for this race and one-eighth scramble. Up until today not a single owner for a married one, for that matter has scratched a single horse for a married one for that matter. Of course, 123 won't go but the chances are that only 93 will, and this will set some sort of a record for a stake of this importance. Probably the only thing that will keep the other 30 eligibles in the barn is the scarcity of jockeys.

There is no such thing as an outstanding favorite for this race. In fact there is no such thing as a favorite. A man might just as well try to plot his course way in the ocean as to attempt to distinguish between one or another of these distinctly undistinguished thoroughbreds.

To be quite truthful about the matter, and being as this race is to be run at Washington's birth day the truth is in order, the field is such a low caliber that anything that arrives on the track on time and with a saddle and a jockey, any jockey, has more than a fighting chance.

The closest approach to a favorite is the team of three entries of the Milky Way farm. Mrs. Ethel V. Mars was not content to place her chances on a single horse and entered three separate horses—Tough Hombre, Galahad and Chatted.

Northwest approach to a favorite is the team of three entries of the Milky Way farm. Mrs. Ethel V. Mars was not content to place her chances on a single horse and entered three separate horses—Tough Hombre, Galahad and Chatted.

Of any emergency, between them they can run on a fast track, a heavy track or a street car track. The derby is scheduled to be run late Thursday afternoon, but with such a ponderous field it may not get off until sometime Friday morning. There are only 15 stalls in the electric gate at Santa Anita and already the horses are drawing straws for room mates. It has been suggested the track officials install upper berths in the gate.

It has also been suggested, by the same far seeing pioneers who thought up the berth control, so to speak, that traffic officers be stationed at the turns with additional stop and go signals at the half mile pole. This race will probably mark the first occasion on which more people will be routed onto the track than into the grandstands.

If only two dollars is bet on each horse, it is figured the Santa Anita tote handle for the derby day will exceed that of Churchill Downs on Kentucky derby day of 1929. For myself, I'm hoping all 123 eligibles also become starters. It would be something to tell your grandchildren about.

The Public Forum

"INGRATES" STRIKE AT HAND THAT HELPED THEM
Editor, Evening Times:
The article appearing in "Forum" Feb. 14 by Mr. McNeil contains the most suggestions and several misconceptions.

The spies and un-American agents operating in this country have not been listed up as suggested, but to accuse congress and the President of fostering this sort of thing is libelous.

The country would have been turned into chaos, with revolt, starvation, bankruptcy and panic prevailing had not a New Deal been introduced. Every act of congress under Roosevelt was passed for the purpose of helping business lift a little so that they could help decrease the unemployment. The WPA was never intended to be a permanent solution of the unemployment problem, but it has provided a living for about 12 million unemployed who would otherwise have been in breadlines.

The big business boys have never answered the President's question: What is the solution of this unemployment question? Is business going to absorb the unemployed labor by increased pay and shorter hours or are they ready to experiment to take care of them by taxation and permit the industrial autocrats to monopolize the means of a living of 132 millions of people?

This country is the largest exporting country in the world. In order to export our goods we need agreements have been made with many countries, resulting in increased business and employment at home. This policy is in contrast to the tariff law of 1930 known as the Smoot-Hawley act, which placed the import duty so high that all business went to a standstill.

With these actual facts before us, can anything appear more foolish than to ask for a return to a program that resulted in the deplorable condition that existed when President Roosevelt took office?

Billions of dollars were turned over to railroads, banks, insurance companies, etc. to save them. A large part of this money has not been repaid. All of the billions spent for relief, government building agencies, etc. has also been a contribution to business. It is appreciation for these efforts the business rat babies of the country, rant, rant, and strike at the hand that has helped them.

Also deplorable that there are little fellows so misinformed that they believe the sufficient amount is the chorus of these ingrates.

ART OF BOWLING

Twenty-second of 24 bowling articles by JOHNNY CRIMMINS
Anchor man of Detroit Goebel, A. R. C. five-man team champion. We've discussed the importance of picking a spot from 12 to 14 feet down the alley and delivering the ball so that it strikes that spot on its way to the head pin.

Joe Falero, who still claims the match game championship, and many other great bowlers keep their eyes off the pins.

Other key line bowlers advise you to watch the head pin consistently.

The spot bowler contends that keeping his eyes on a spot 18 or 14 feet down the slide gives him the tendency to follow through with his arm, rather than snapping the ball in delivery.

Don Beatty, A. B. C. all-events champion of 1934, looks at the pins from the start of the approach until just before he releases the ball, when he switches his eyes to the spot where he is to lay the ball at the foul line.

Unless the swelling of his eyes makes Beatty a spot bowler, he is a pocket bowler.

The spot may be a dark or light board in the drive.

But Beatty and many leaders recommend aiming for the one-time pocket.

Everyone is a spot bowler without realizing it, but Otto Stein, match game champion of 1934 and other stars, insist that scores improve if they aim for the pocket.

In doing this, they automatically hit the ball on the same spot every time.

REPUBLICANS ASK "HONEST DEBATE" ON '40 CAMPAIGN

FRANK OUTLINES GOOD, BAD POINTS OF DEMO REGIME

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 (Special)—Republican program planners, who have asked the voters to repudiate the Roosevelt administration on grounds it has failed in practically all fields except foreign affairs, suggested today that the 1940 political campaign be lifted to a "plane of honest debate."

The program committees, whose three-year study of the state of the nation was published today, emphasized the report was not designed as a platform for the G.O.P. But it was expected to furnish much ammunition for Republicans who will be campaigning between now and November to elect a President.

"There was no comment either from Republicans or Democrats on the report prepared by Chairman Glenn Frank and his 187 committee associates. Most observers declined comment, while others read the 115-page analysis entitled "A program for dynamic America."

In a radio address last night, Frank asserted the report "attempts honestly and objectively to analyze and express judgment upon the assumptions, the policies, the successes and the actual results of the present administration."

"Aks Hon. Debate
"It has not been conceived," Frank said, "in a spirit of vindictive fault finding... behind its main address has been the hope that, as a move towards the 1940 campaign, we can, as a people, lift political discussion within our parties and political conflict between our parties to the plane of honest debate between Americans who grant to each other a decent measure of sincerity and purpose."

He said democracies today were dying of defeatist talk and that there was great need of "courage" among us who will cry "courage."

In his address Frank said the committee's report was not prepared as a platform for the G.O.P. It was to be a platform for the field of foreign affairs, the committee endorsed Mr. Roosevelt's foreign policies to an extent that there would be no real conflict from the forthcoming presidential campaign. If the G.O.P. platform reflected its report.

Accepted Reciprocal Trade
Frank and his associates went along, however, with farm subsidies and government relief subject to certain conditions.

They preferred the reciprocal trade agreement method of tariff making to "log rolling," provided the agreements were subject to congressional veto.

"We would revise the national labor relations act and exempt from provisions of maximum hours-minimum wage legislation all who could organize and bargain collectively.

The committee said there was no logical ground for refusing to extend old age insurance privileges to farm labor, domestic servants and some other smaller groups of workers.

Here is what the Republicans set up as the balance sheet of administration failure as of last summer prior to the war-induced upswing.

"1. More than 10,000,000 American unemployed.

"2. The lowest standard of living in a decade ago.

"3. The creation of new enterprises virtually at a standstill, the stagnation and extinction of existing enterprises deferred.

"4. Labor involved in extensive and costly disputes, with its organized ranks torn by civil war and 70 annual income lower despite higher hourly wage rates.

"5. Farm prices unsatisfactory and farm prices neither stable nor satisfactory and the basic problems of agriculture no nearer solution than before the administration's exercise of sweeping control over farms and farmers.

"6. The doors of economic opportunity barricaded to youth by the sluggish condition of American enterprise.

"7. Government expenditures, excluding postal receipts and debt retirement, of $8,210,000,000 in 1939 against $4,855,000,000 in 1933.

"8. The heaviest tax burden in the nation's history.

"9. A national debt doubled by the end of 1939."

The traditional "Spinster's skip" when the women pay all the bills and act as escorts, will be held Feb. 22 and most of the women are now looking perplexed, wondering whom to ask for a date for the "big affair."

WAR PROPAGANDA PROPHECY MADE

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Feb. 19 (Special)—This country will be continually preach victories to maintain the morale of the folks at home.

"One of the main objectives of war propaganda," he declares, "is to continually preach victories to maintain the morale of the folks at home."

Four Reasons
Mr. Bergersen, one of the most prominent faculty members on the campus and authority on current events, explains that propaganda is radiated in four different channels.—to make hatred for the enemy, to keep friendship with your allies, to weaken the morale of the neutral nations, and to break the morale of the enemy.

"Great Britain is sending much propaganda into Germany today in order to break the German people apart from Hitler. The British propaganda is pointing out that Hitlerism is contrary to the ideals and tradition of the German people, and attempts to shake their confidence in Hitler," he said.

Mr. Bergersen indicated that there was much propaganda being spread in this country to draw the United States into the war. British propaganda is more effective in the minds of American people because they are more susceptible in their presentation of the facts and are acquainted with the American customs, language and tradition.

Watch "Loaded" Words
"To stay out of the war," the university instructor warns, "American people must watch 'loaded' words that inspire emotional feeling inside them and make them sympathetic with either the British or the British cause. Some of these loaded words are 'unprovoked aggression,' 'atrocious slayings,' and 'bloody Communists.'"

Propaganda has not had as much effect on the American people during this war as it had from 1914 to 1917, he said.

"American people are conscious of propaganda now and are more apt to discard it. Possibly the reason propaganda is not effective is because propagandists have not yet coined a suitable fighting phrase like 'Hands across the sea or 'Reclaim the Main'." he added.

HEARING SET FOR EMBEZZLE CLAIM

Embezzlement hearing had been set today for Feb. 23 in the case of Frank Ulrich and Clarence Bohanan.

The hearing will be held before Municipal Judge J. O. Pumphrey, sitting as a justice of the peace. It probably will be conducted in the offices of the prosecuting attorney at the court house.

Ulrich and Bohanan were arrested Saturday afternoon after a complaint charging the crime had been signed by Sophie French.

The pair is alleged in the complaint to have sold some $200 worth of auto supply equipment after being entrusted to transport it. Losses for which they are claimed responsible in the complaint include 80 feet of spring steel, two electric drills, a set of socket wrenches, two spring spreaders and 25 rammers.

The illegal sale is said to have occurred Feb. 1.

At an arraignment before Judge Pumphrey Saturday afternoon the two entered pleas of not guilty. Bond was set at $500 in each case and Bohanan was released after he supplied $100 to post bond. Ulrich is being held in the county jail.

SILVERWARE

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Feb. 19 (Special)—There was no merrymaking in the Alpha Phi sorority house last week. The women are abstemious on a soup and stew diet.

Not because of a meat shortage nor toughness, but because of a shortage in silverware the girls became vegetarians. Someone pilfered all the silverware except the spoons.

Strongest suspects are the hushers and freshmen, who might have fished the goods in hopes of completing their hope chests in a hurry.
