With Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen scheduled to arrive here Thursday for his fifth birthday, the Legislature and civic groups of Twin Falls, an influential G.O.P. senate figure said in an interview today that a 55-cent bill is an illustration of dividends in savings and good government for the people of the state under Bottolfsen's administration. Barlow himself has been mentioned as a substantial candidate but he told the Evening Times today he would not consider making the race if Gov. Bottolfsen were reelected.

Active in the operation of the 55 cent law demonstrate the literal fulfillment of the motto 'Give every man as he receives from their highway dollar than he ever before in the history of the state.'"

TURKEY PREPARES FOR WAR WITH EMERGENCY DECREE

CABINET GRANTS SPECIAL POWERS TO HELP ALLIES

By HUGO SPECK
 ISTANBUL, Turkey, Feb. 20 (U.S.P.)—Turkey was poised today for lightning action in any direction as the result of a cabinet decree taken under emergency powers, invoking the drastic national defense law. Currency control measures were also taken.

The decisions were interpreted as meaning the government felt that the foreign situation warranted immediate preparations for any eventuality. It caused the gravest concern in Turkish and foreign quarters, as a widespread reaction over the outlook in the near east. It was interpreted as a precautionary measure against any aggravation of the situation which might create the necessity for Turkey to enter the European war on the side of Great Britain and France.

Case Be Neuter
 Diplomatic quarters noted the announcement enforcing the defense law came immediately after approval of the cabinet's decision to neutralize Germany could not succeed in maneuvering Turkey into a neutral position, and indicating that Turkey may prepare to play a part in the war.

It was expected the national assembly in the parliament building at Ankara tomorrow to proclaim the cabinet's decision formally. The assembly had authorized the cabinet Jan. 19 to authorize plenary powers if necessary.

The national defense law empowers the cabinet to "restrict the constitution in matters of economic and national defense" in certain extraordinary cases, which are (1) partial or general mobilization; (2) the probability that the nation will be forced to enter the war; and (3) a state of war between foreign nations which is of interest to Turkey. Which one of these the cabinet decided necessitated invocation of the law was not specified in the communication announcing the invocation said merely.

"War of Threat"
 "The council ministers under the presidency of the premier, after a discussion of the 1940 budget, decided to apply the law of national defense."

The interpretation in diplomatic quarters was that the cabinet felt that Turkey and the allies were menaced in the Balkans and the near east, and it was forecast that the third of the three cases cited as reasons for invoking the law would be the basis for the cabinet's action.

It was emphasized that invocation of the defense law did not mean that the cabinet would necessarily take any emergency decisions at once. It was not a declaration of war on a war footing and it does not imply mobilization. But it does empower the cabinet to take such measures it holds necessary to strengthen the national defense, and it was expected that most decisions would be taken in secret.

FARM LANDSCAPE HELP AVAILABLE

Expert advice as to farm landscaping and vegetable gardens will be available to ranchers of five counties from March 1 through March 9, Miss Margaret Hill, district home demonstration agent, said today.

E. R. Bennett, extension horticulturist, will make field trips in the five-county area during that time, Miss Hill said. He will visit ranches on request in Jerome, Cassia, Minidoka, Lincoln and Twin Falls counties.

Farmers desiring landscape aid or advice as to vegetable garden work may leave requests for Mr. Bennett with their county agents or through Miss Hill's office in the courthouse here.

PAPER

BUTLER, Feb. 20 (Special).— Paper usually forms the livelihood of Tom Chadwick—but a very small piece of paper, forming very large profits, had Chadwick under mandate today to face district court. Chadwick is a paper-hanger. He was bound over to the higher court Saturday on forgery charges by Probate Judge Henry W. Thicker, after being returned to the Cassia county jail from Utah by Sheriff F. D. Pace.

Complaint against the paper-hanger claims he forged the name of Daniel Heitz, York, Utah, on a check for $80 and then passed the check to Omer Ward, mayor of Conant.

Dancing is the most ancient of all the arts. It was practiced in almost all primitive tribes.

Wheeler Sees Regulation of Big Business

BOSTON, Feb. 20 (U.S.P.)—U. S. Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, D. Mont., said last night that more governmental regulation of business is "inevitable" because of changing economic conditions.

Wheeler told 1,200 persons at the 27th annual New England Traffic club dinner in Boston that the regulation can be the public interest is protected.

Congress must, however, give industry the confidence to create more jobs, he said. One of the chief purposes of regulation, he said, was to keep the "strong business units" from "destroying the smaller ones."

Need New Markets
 Discussing railroad problems, including highway and water competition and reorganizations due to faulty stock transactions, he said: "Part of the solution... is the finding of new markets to replace those that they (the railroads) are losing—or those that may have forever passed away."

Won't Enter Now
 "In my judgment all competing forms of transportation should be equally regulated or there should be no regulation. Railroads charged that regulation had imposed a strait-jacket on them. But regulation, right or wrong—is a part of our national transportation policy. I wish it were not necessary, but more

OREGONIAN GIVES CLUB'S CHARTER

With telegrams of congratulation received from scores of Toastmasters clubs throughout the United States and Canada, the local unit last night received its charter during a session held at the Park hotel.

The charter presentation was made by Ernest C. Davis, district governor, Portland, Ore. Gerald Wallace, president, presided at the opening session and then turned the meeting over to Loyal Perry, Toastmaster for the evening.

Invocation by Rev. E. L. White opened the program and then came a group of songs by the Kiwanis quartet, composed of James Reynolds, John Soden, Clarence Allen and Charles Slobor.

The actual speaking program was started by John Robertson who presented a six-minute talk on the subject "With Malice To Ward Some." His critic was Joe Blandford.

George Warber's toast was "America's Real Threat," and he was criticized by Charles Crabtree. Three impromptu two-minute speeches were then heard on the topic, "If I Were President." They were made by Gordon Day, R. J. Valton and Voy Hudson. Critic was Dr. Harry Alban. General critic was Howard Gerrish. Speaking briefly was Mr. Gerald Wallace, wife of the club president.

50 Attend
 Fifty persons were present for the charter night event. Congratulatory bouquets were received from the Twin Falls Floral company and also the Randall Floral company. General chairman in charge of arrangements was Dr. Frank J. McAfee.

One feature of the evening was the playing of records made six months ago recording the voices of six of the club members. The talks then were compared with those given last night.

Concerning reports he might be a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, Wheeler said he would not enter any primary now. He believed President Roosevelt could have the nomination "if he wanted it."

During the banquet here, visiting dentists and speakers will emphasize the scientific advancement made in the treatment of oral disease in the last 100 years, and, at the same time, lay plans for the future improvement of its services in the preservation of personal and public health. This, also, is the program being followed nationally.

In the last century, Dr. Kallusky recalled, American dentistry has steadily advanced from an itinerant craft to a highly specialized profession, one that has become most important to the health and welfare of the American people.

More than 400 district dental societies from coast to coast, representing some 45,000 members of the American Dental association, will meet on March 11. During the following week, some 6,000 members of the profession will attend the Baltimore centennial celebration.

South Idaho Dentists Arrange Centennial Dinner March 11

Members of the South Central District Dental society will join dentists throughout the country during March in the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the American dentists throughout the country during the past century.

Dr. Kallusky said the district society will hold a centennial dinner on Monday, March 11, at the Park hotel in Twin Falls starting at 6:30 p. m.

Two Commemorations
 The dinner will commemorate two important events in the history of dentistry. First is the founding of the first dental school in the world and secondly is the establishment of the first national dental association. The national celebration will reach a climax on March 15, 19 and 20 in Baltimore, Md. where, in 1840, the first dental school was founded.

During the local dinner, Dr. Kallusky said that tributes would be paid to Drs. Horace A. Hayden and Chynph A. Harris, who founded the Baltimore college of Dental Surgery and were guiding forces in the establishment of the first dental society and the first dental journal, forerunners of the American Dental association and the A. D. A. Journal.

"Drs. Hayden and Harris and a few of their associates in the early part of the 19th century visualized dentistry as a scientific and separate profession," Dr. Kallusky explained. "As a result of their inspiration and pioneering spirit, American dentistry has developed to a point where it is regarded as the best in the world."

Hear your problems discussed at the FARMERS CONGRESS! for 1940

E. R. BENNETT

Mr. Bennett, state extension horticulturist, with headquarters at Boise, is typical of the speakers to be brought before the 1940 meeting. Because disease is often the difference between success and failure in agricultural operations, farmers will find real interest in his talk.

Here's "that day" again... that day when Magic Valley Farmers convene in Twin Falls to discuss and hear discussed their very own problems. This year speakers more outstanding than ever before have been secured to bring expert information on various farm topics. Former New Orleans Organist Plays Here

Miss Claire Coci, one of the nation's foremost organ recitalists, whose first position was that of organist at the Jesuit's church, the leading church in New Orleans, will appear in concert at the Methodist church here Tuesday evening, Feb. 27, at 8 o'clock.

Some idea of her inherent love for music may be had from the fact that when she was only 13, she was permitted to play for High Mass on Christmas Eve at the Jesuit church in New Orleans. The Jesuits had never before had a woman organist in their church.

Commenting on her musicianship the Organist said this of her concert there last year: "She possesses that rare mixture of intelligence and artistry which lets her realize and translate to her audience the realization that nothing is so musical as the direct and unmediated message of the creative genius himself."

Miss Coci's hobby is the collection of crosses, and her collection is regarded as unique. A chart which has been drawn for her by a museum authority on crosses, she continually adds to it to acquire more and more of them.

Among them is a beautiful sapphire cross which was given to Miss Coci by her father, who was a jeweler, before he died. Also included in her collection is one which the internationally known folk song singer, Louise Arnow, found in an old Burgundy town in France. In this cross are inserted a number of other crosses.

National Head Tells P.-T. A. Objectives

Realizing that children had little chance to progress, unless they could have a democratic way of life, the founders of the National Congress of Parent-Teacher associations, known in 1897 as the Mothers' Congress, made the bringing about of a democratic way of life in a democracy the chief objective of the organization. Equally important was the second objective, that of bridging the gap between teaching in the home and the school.

These objectives are still the major concern of the National Congress, Mrs. John E. Hayes, first national vice-president, told more than 250 members of the Washington Parent-Teacher association at the Founder's day program last evening at the Washington school auditorium. It was one of the largest attended meetings in the history of the Washington P.-T. A.

Paying tribute to the inspiration of Mrs. Alice McClelland Birney and Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst for founding the vast organization, Mrs. Hayes called attention to the fact that P.-T. A. effort is being more and more directed toward community projects, and to uniting various groups in undertakings of interest to all people.

As a feature of the evening, a "day offering" collection was held. Funds from Founder's day contributions are used for the extension of P.-T. A. work, one-half the amount of the offering is contributed to the state treasury because of the small population of Idaho, the state receives a few financial aid from national unit contributions. Romance of Rugmaking Related for Women

Against a background of Persian rugs, noted for their red, blue and bishop's purple colorings particularly; Chinese rugs of softly blending colors and exotic designs; and the more splashily colored Mexican zarapas and Indian rugs of the southwest, Mrs. R. R. Spafford unfolded the colorful history of rug-making for members of the Home and Garden Department of the Twentieth Century club this afternoon at the American Legion Memorial hall.

The same methods of weaving that were used thousands of years ago are employed in Persia and other remote rug-making countries, but the introduction of aniline dyes in some other countries, replacing the natural dyes, has deteriorated the rug trade. Mrs. Spafford pointed out. The really valuable oriental rugs are becoming rarer and rarer in consequence, she said.

Throgs Attend B.P.W. Carnival

Carnival sets from a sidewalk cafe, fortunes told by a gypsy seer, carnival booths scattered throughout the hall, and a milling crowd in the vivid costumes of the event, including balloons strung about the booths, added to the gala atmosphere of the carnival last evening at the Odd Fellows hall sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club for the public.

In general charge of arrangements was Miss Myrtle Anderson, and members of her committee were in charge of various booths. Club members and managers wore bright costumes.

Fortune teller, attired as a gypsy, was Mrs. Helen Gansler. A caddy boy, Miss E. C. Harrington, carried trays of candy through the hall, and a candy booth was in charge of Miss Lora Jordan.

Sidewalk cafe was in charge of Mrs. Frankie Alworth, attired in a chef's white uniform. An Old Curiosity Shop, under direction of Mrs. Ella George, gave those who entered an opportunity to match curious articles listed on slips of paper which she had.

A penny throw and "ring the duck" concession was in charge of Dr. Alma Hardin; bingo in charge of Mrs. Bell George; shooting gallery, Mrs. Lyle Gardner; turtle races, Mrs. Catherine Potter.

Red-Heads Play Filer, Jerome on Wednesday

Probably the greatest touring basketball attraction in the nation will make its annual visit to south central Idaho this week—with stops scheduled at Jerome, Filer and Rupert.

The attraction is the All-American Red-Head feminine basketball quintet—composed of ace woman cage stars from throughout the nation and this year more of a drawing card than ever before because they are managed by Jerry Martin, the greatest court performer ever to appear in this neck of the woods. He played for two years with Murray Savages.

The Red-Heads will take the floor Wednesday, Feb. 21, at 7:30 p. m. against the Filer-Twin Falls Orange in the new Filer high school gymnasium. Then at 9 the same night they will be in Jerome to take on the Jerome Jaycees in the second half of a double-header tilt there.

The touring team features a razor-sharp type of basketball that is easily comparable with that staged by the better traveling quintets and most of the members on the squads are expert shot artists—sinking the ball consistently from the center of the floor. The club has won over half its games playing against strong independent teams.

Included in the lineup of the team are such stand-outs as Ruth Osburn, former Olympic champion and field star; Kay Kirkpatrick, Lila Blue and Peggy Lawson. Five members of the squad are six feet tall.

The Red-Heads find to capacity crowds in this territory on trips through here in previous years. It will be their first appearance on the new Filer floor.

Manager Bill Powers of the Filer-Twin Falls club has not yet announced his lineup to play against the girls.

STRIKES to SPARE With Fred Stone

A clean sweep in each league last night with Orange Transportation taking all four from Wilson's and Zip-Way getting everything from Schiltz.

Top man for the night was Johnnie Wagner of Zip-Way with a 544 for his share. Westergren's 196 just nudged George Paulson's 185 for high single for the Zippers. Wagner had a top single of 182. Les Cowan was the only man on the Zip-Ways under 500.

There were only two 400 bowlers for Schiltz: Les Cowan with 511, which was their best total, and Domer Bertsch, with 505. Domer's 203 was top single for the night.

Some very low scores in the Orange-Wilson match. Walt Dix, with 518, was the best of the lot. Two 507 totals—Bill Kilborn and Merland Edwards. All the rest were down and some way down. Kilborn's 188 was the high single. Dix had a 191 single.

Many, many errors for both teams—with no more than the usual amount of splits.

However, speaking of splits: Archie Anderson got five splits out of six frames his last game.

Nineties and doubles tournament Friday, Saturday and Sunday, same time as last year, with $1 entry fee—which includes bowling.

Billie Ruth Rogers (formerly of Twin Falls but now owner and manager of the Ontario, Ore., bowling alleys), rolled against Kate Bullock, Boise's ace feminine bowler. Result:

Bowlers must have a change of pace to be consistent... to most different alley conditions.

Andy Varipapa, greatest of trick shot artists, watched one of Detroit's better bowlers. The Detroit kagle's form, footwork and timing were fine. He had rhythm and the proper stride. He got the ball in front of him... had a nice follow through.

He had a good fast ball and with it hit the 1-3 pocket consistently. But time after time he was getting topped, the 4 and 10 pin knocking him. He tried starting the ball a little more inside. The ball hit the head pin fuller, and more pins came up. He moved outside and hit the head pin too thin, more pins standing up than before.

"He was throwing too fast a ball," remarked Varipapa. "A medium fast ball would have done the trick."

Athletics to Start Drills Immediately

ANALIM, Calif., Feb. 20 (U.P.)—Connie Mack announced with optimism as his Philadelphia Athletics arrived here to begin spring training for the 1940 season.

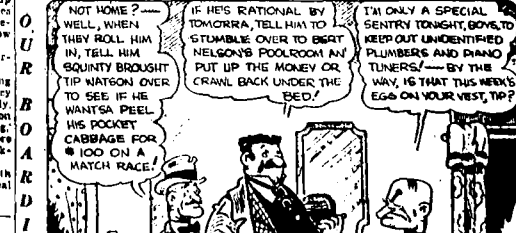

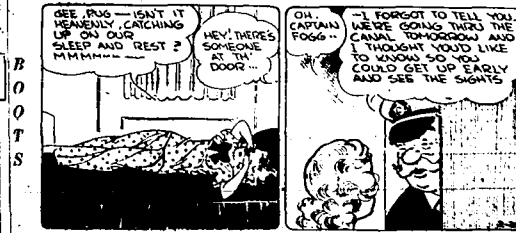

"We'll start practice immediately and that means today—because we have a big job ahead of us," he adds. "We've several new players and some fine talent and it will take some time to get the team molded into shape."

"I'm sure, however, that when we start rolling we'll be one of the toughest clubs to handle, because all signs point to one of our best seasons."

Mack will supervise opening drills.

ROOSEVELT-GARNER BATTLES LOOM IN PRIMARY RACES

VICE-PRESIDENT CAN GET CHANCE FOR TEST VOTES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20 (AP)—Tests of Democratic third term sentiment are practically assured today in all but southern and eastern areas as Vice-President John N. Garner's managers contemplate carrying the fight against President Roosevelt's re-nomination into Ohio.

Garner can obtain an eastern seaboard anti-third term fight if he wants it in Pennsylvania, where the Democratic state committee has endorsed Mr. Roosevelt for 1940 or in New Jersey, where Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City is for the President's re-nomination. Maryland also has a preferential primary in that area, but so far without entries. If Garner entered either New Jersey or Pennsylvania, the local organizations probably would put up Roosevelt slates against him.

Ohio's Democratic committee is for a third term but with no "favorite son" in the race. Garner is expected to enter the May 14 primary in a contest for 25 anti-Roosevelt delegates.

Opposed in Three States
Garner and President Roosevelt already are opposed in the Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin primaries, with 92 delegate votes at stake. Garner has entered the California primary, where Mr. Roosevelt is not yet a contestant. In his bid for 44 delegates and is attempting to force the New Deal organization in Georgia to permit a preferential primary to determine whom that state's 24 delegates shall support.

Texas has 46 delegates and neighboring Oklahoma, where the state administration is anti-New Deal and pro-Garner, has 22. It all adds up to a potential Garner nest egg of 280 delegate votes if he can stop the third term drive which is hampered by Mr. Roosevelt's refusal to get in or get out of the 1940 contest.

1,100 Delegates
There will be 1,100 delegates to the Democratic national convention and under the modified rules of procedure adopted four years ago a bare majority of 501 is sufficient to nominate. Mr. Roosevelt also has been put in the Pennsylvania primary, 74 delegates, and in Nebraska for 14 delegates. Chairman James A. Farley of the Democratic national committee formally entered in Massachusetts where a convention vote is to be had and if he can control that delegation it must be added to the potential anti-third term bloc. But local political leaders announced in Farley in but really would seek the re-nomination of Mr. Roosevelt.

A similar plan fell apart in Ohio when Sen. Vic Donahey, D., O., who has something of a reputation as a political scoundrel, balked at playing front man for a third term delegation there. The state Democratic committee attempted to name Donahey as a "favorite son" with a proviso that the delegation would support Mr. Roosevelt if he were a candidate. The senator refused to go along with the plan. That opens the way for Garner supporters to name a "favorite son" of their own. Mr. Roosevelt said he would keep his hands off the primary. He would not say whether he would be a candidate for the senate.

MERCHANTS HEAR DOLLAR DAY PLAN
Plans for the "silver dollar" days which will accompany the third annual Farmers' Congress, Feb. 29, a vote favoring continuation of the recreation unit and a letter from Gov. C. A. Bottelstein asserting he will pick next Nov. 21 as Thanksgiving. Mr. McDonald listed details of the silver dollar event, for which further plans were to be announced today.

Robert H. Warner told of plans of implement dealers to display in conjunction with the Times-News Farmers Congress, and forecast that 800 farmers would throng the De-pueum theater for the morning session which agricultural movies will be featured. Afternoon session is expected to attract up to 1,500 farmers to radioland for a speaking program on practical farm topics.

After hearing Director Verne Richards outline the situation with respect to the recreation unit, the endorsed a resolution authorizing asking the city to continue the unit by payment of rent. However, last night council meeting solved the question when Hugh H. Pace, business manager of the Twin Falls Cowboy baseball team, proposed a benefit game to provide the rental funds.

While we are making a valve connection from our main line to our new reservoir, the city pressure will be reduced between 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. Wednesday, Feb. 21. Kindly anticipate your needs in advance and cooperate with us by using a minimum of water during this period.

Take It Easy on Water Tomorrow— "Switch-Over" Will Lower Pressure

A drop in city water pressure will occur Wednesday between 8 a. m. and approximately 3 p. m. It was announced here today by Charles Larsen, street and water superintendent.

Because of the drop in pressure, Larsen urged all those who require a large quantity of water to draw off their tanks at 8 a. m. At that hour the main line will be "switched" from the old storage to the new reservoir. The outlet will be connected at a later date and the old storage tank will be utilized until that time. The switch of the inlet, however, will be necessary that the main line to the city be turned off for the six-hour period.

The superintendent urged, because the pressure will be low, that citizens use as little water as possible during the period stated.

He explained that the only water which will be available during the "switch over" period is that remaining in the line between the city and the point at which the valve will be put in at the reservoir, two miles out.

Recreational Unit Saved By Benefit Game Offer

Continuation of the Twin Falls recreation center at last night's session was assured here today after Hugh Pace, business manager of the Twin Falls Cowboys baseball team, had taken matters into his own hands.

For three weeks councilmen had tried and tried to think of a way to raise the necessary $750 which was needed to pay rent, lights and heat on the unit building, but to no avail. Last night, after listening to the pro and con discussion on an hour, Pace leaned over to Mayor Joe Koehler and said:

"If the people will get behind the ticket sale, the Cowboys will stage a benefit game and all proceeds will be turned over to the recreation committee."

The mayor announced Pace's offer and applause sounded from the crowded council chamber.

The game would be played in April, with the Cowboys meeting an independent team from this section. Pace said that arrangements would be placed in the hands of Hal Wood, Evening Times sports editor.

Representatives of various organizations present at last night's session, all favoring retention of the recreation unit by city action, immediately made plans for sale of tickets to the benefit game. These tickets will probably be printed at once and sales completed on or near March 1, the date the unit was to be discontinued unless city aid was forthcoming.

In all probability the March and April rent will be paid by the city recreation association out of Community Chest funds and then the funds derived from the benefit game will start "the ball rolling" during May.

He Ends Tension
Serious up to the point where they had to go to the benefit game plan, councilmen and visitors look on a jovial mood after the announcement.
