

HULL PRESIDENTIAL STOCK BOOMS ON TRADE PACT SUCCESS

PASSAGE LOOMS AS CERTAINTY IN SENATORIAL VOTE

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON, March 1 (Special)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull's presidential stock headed for a new high today as word came from senate Republican veterans that his reciprocal trade program probably will be extended without substantial amendment.

The vote will come early this month. Thereafter Hull's status as a presidential candidate will be almost wholly a question to be determined between himself and President Roosevelt. The consensus here seems to be that Hull is the most available compromise candidate for Democratic nomination. If Mr. Roosevelt does not want the job again himself and desires to meet party conservatives part way.

So long as the reciprocal trade program was under hot and effective fire, there always was a chance congress would repudiate the tariff pact upon which Hull contends is the world's bulwark against international chaos. That chance may still exist. But polls and the opinions of responsible Republican leaders indicate the senate will support the house in continuing the administrative authority to negotiate reciprocal agreements.

Some Democrats Split

Hull's policy has alienated some Democrats as well as many Republicans, but it remains substantially a party issue so far as the Democrats are concerned. There is notable Republican support for the trade agreement. Thomas W. Lamont, a partner in J. P. Morgan and company, is the latest anti-New Dealer to line up with Hull.

Writing in Collier's magazine, Lamont described himself as a life-long Republican who believed the reciprocal program should be continued. The automotive industry is in with a big boost for the export salesmaking effect of reciprocal agreements. The Republican program committee, presided over by Dr. Glenn Frank, approved the avoidance of Congressional log-rolling achieved by the Hull system but proposed the complete agreement should be subject to approval by concurrent resolutions by congress.

Great Endorsement

Hull scarcely could ask for less qualified endorsement of his policy upon which his cabinet record stands and with which he would be identified as a presidential candidate. Hull is not rated here as a New Dealer in the sense that Secretary of Commerce Harry L. Hopkins is so regarded. He is persona grata with the Democratic organization and with Democrats in congress where he served in both the house and senate. He once was chairman of the Democratic national committee, and important, too, is the fact that he is a close friend of Postmaster General James A. Farley.

This Takes the Cake at Buhl-Filer Legion Meeting

You can't eat your cake and have it, too—so they ate it at Buhl last night. Officials of Buhl and Filer Legion units and their auxiliaries are shown above at their dinner at the Buhl Legion hall, that will bring hosts to members of the Filer post. When the cake cutting started, everyone reached forward with a plate. Shown cutting the cake is S. E. Vance, Hazelton, department Americanism chairman, who was speaker of the evening. Others shown (left to right) are Mrs. Ardelia Webb, president of the Filer auxiliary; Mrs. Martina Yeiter, president of the Buhl auxiliary; Clyde E. Webb, Filer post adjutant; Al Amos, Buhl post commander.

Whether he will be nominated for President depends largely upon Mr. Roosevelt, although it is probable that unless he sought the office himself, the President would not be able to control enough delegates to prevent Hull's nomination if Farley and Democratic conservatives centered on him.

PRISONER

BOISE, March 1 (Special)—Charles Smith, who wandered the world a free man for 36 years, became No. 942 today.

Smith, an escapee from the Idaho state prison in 1904, surrendered to Couer d'Alene last week. He was returned to finish his sentence last yesterday.

Copenhagen, Denmark, has 400,000 prisoners, or one for every two persons in the city.

STATE AIR CHIEF WARNS STUDENTS

Because Idaho's director of aeronautics finds some out-of-state aviation schools are good and others are not, Magic Valley youths may have an eye on such training, were urged today to look into references before enrolling.

W. E. (Pat) Hill, aeronautics director, asked the Chamber of Commerce to assume the task of investigating into aviation school references, if requested to do so by prospective students.

Hill told the chamber, that the problem has become acute because of the number of schools outside Idaho, offering Idaho young men promise of employment after completing an aviation course. A cash deposit is usually required, the director pointed out.

The training school, according to Hill, include a number of institutions some worthy and others not so much so.

The C. of C. here, along with similar groups in other communities of the area, was asked to see that representatives of aeronautical schools, through "satisfactory references,"

Americanism Need Charted At Buhl Meet

BUHL, March 1 (Special)—S. E. Vance, Hazelton, department Americanism chairman for the American Legion, today had called on all citizens to be 100 per cent American, especially now.

Vance's declaration was made here last night as he spoke at the annual banquet at which members of the Buhl Legion and auxiliary entertained members from the Filer unit. The session, attracting 100 persons, was held at the Legion hall.

In a forceful address, Mr. Vance called attention to the national Legion program which calls for Boy Scout troops, Girl Scout units, baseball teams and essay contests "to improve the youth and to give them something to think about other than the various foreignisms which are invading this country."

Also featured as a speaker was Mrs. Florence Craig, Gooding chairwoman of Americanism for the auxiliary. She told of the work the auxiliary was doing to combat the "isms."

She called on everyone to "learn the constitution" and to "understand it."

Other numbers on the program, over which Al Amos, Buhl post commander, presided, included the reading of a portion of the "Debt to the Unknown Soldier," by Charles Kollmeyer; Buhl; an original essay, "What It Means to Me to Be an American," by Miss Jane Gibb, high school student; a musical reading tribute to Lincoln, by W. A. Gray, accompanied at the piano by Miss Lulu Lealand, and an editorial from the New York Sun, "He is an American," read by Mrs. Martina Yeiter, president of the local auxiliary.

Arrangements for the program were made by Mrs. Chris Hesselholt, member of the auxiliary.

FARMERS' NIGHT SET BY ROTARY

JEROME, March 1 (Special)—Plans are completed for the annual Farmers' night banquet, to be given under the sponsorship of the Jerome Rotary club next Tuesday evening, March 5, at 7 p. m. in the Wood cafe banquet rooms, according to Charles Wetteroth, secretary of the local Rotary club. The Jerome club also planned to participate in the institute program to be held Wednesday, March 6, at 9:15 p. m. at the Stuchess high school auditorium. On the program will be a world renowned speaker and it is expected that the local club will attend in a body.

The institute program is sponsored by the Rotary International organization. There is no charge and the occasion is open to the public. Jerome, Gooding and Shoshone clubs are cooperating as a unit in planning for the evenings where the famous speakers will appear, and each club, attends in a body.

The program of the Tuesday meeting was under the chairmanship of A. L. Woodhead, Joe Shirley, a past president, gave the life history of Paul Harris, founder of Rotary, and James Wheatcroft, also a past president, spoke on the aims and objects of Rotary.

TO BE SUCCESSFUL IN COFFEE-MAKING, use care and rely on Hills Bros. Coffee. Simple advice, to be sure, but most important to those who want good coffee.

The Correct Kind is guaranteed to give best results by any method of coffee-making if directions are followed. Hills Bros. Coffee should never be reground. Regrounding results in a loss of flavor and aroma and the coffee loses freshness faster.

PREPARATION: Start with cold or hot water. Percolate slowly 7 to 10 minutes after steady pumping starts.

COFFEE: Bring coffee and water to boiling. Stir well. Remove from fire. Add small amount of cold water and let stand 5 minutes to settle grounds.

STEPS: Pour boiling water on coffee, stir well and cover. Sit again 5 to 10 minutes. Cover and steep for a total of 10 to 15 minutes.

ON THE SIDE OF EVERY CAN are directions for obtaining best results by any method of coffee-making. Write Hills Bros. Coffee, Inc., San Francisco for a free copy of "The Art of Coffee-Making."

The Gentleman in the Third Row
By Louise Holmes

THE GENTLEMAN IN THE THIRD ROW
ANN pulled her blind that night before switching on the light. Doing so she averted her eyes, returning to glance across the alley. Of one thing she was sure. The next day, or Monday at the latest, she could get another room. She would not run the risk of meeting the young man on the street. He'd never get the chance to laugh at her again, or snarl. She got into the thin bed and cried herself to sleep.

Ah, How Mister Fields Does Love Mountain Water!
W. C. Fields likes mountain water. Pot Shots discovered today from two different sources that the comedian so well they must be true. When the bulbous-nosed movie comedian was in Twin Falls last Wednesday afternoon, he climbed out of his big black limousine for a few minutes. He poured something from the jug into a glass. And he was really mountain water. He poured about a fourth of a glass.

Dear Pot Shots:
Vainly I've waited after the ringing sound of the Farmer-Boy. But evidently no mighty flapjack eater resides in southern Idaho. Or else our pancake eater, leaving the cave to the 41-flapjack record set by that Missouri fellow mentioned by the Farmer-Boy, is not coming back in shame.

The girl smiled at his face.

"What's your name?" the girl asked.

"Who, Ann?" she got a sore.
"Who, Ann?" she got a sore.
Ann told briefly of her meeting with the stock man. "He was wearing a white garment in his hand, and I know that had the men in Chicago were wearing gardenias," she asked.

"The voice said, 'The long zip-pers won't be in until tomorrow.' And, as Ann whirled, 'Well, it's Miss Gardner's. He grinned at her, impudently, she thought. "Did you find your friend?" he asked.

"The girl, obviously curious, inquired, 'What was it?' she said. "I want to talk to you about something," she joined Ann in the aisle. The young man, without a word, turned and pointed his stick toward the back of the store. The girls found a booth in the cafe and sat down.

Nazis Doomed to Defeat, Novelist Says at Resort

SUN VALLEY, March 1 (Special)—Germany is doomed to defeat in the current European war, Erik Mann, daughter of Thomas Mann, Nobel prize winning author, stated upon her arrival here.

Mrs. Mann, who herself is the author of the best selling "Behind Barbed Wire," said that she didn't think Hitler's Germany would be victorious because "the nation is little, physically, morally and economically—as is the present day Reich, is not intact at all."

"Finland's resistance to Russia," she continued, "demonstrates how powerful an united country can be. But a country held together only by force, as is Germany, is entirely different."

Political Prisoners
"The Germany of 1914," she added, "was not the Germany of today. There were no political prisoners, now there are hundreds of thousands, and it is necessary for Germany to keep one-third of her army at home to keep her own citizens down."

"The next month or so, she said, will not see the war breaking loose on the western front, but either in the northern countries of Norway and Sweden, Holland or in the Balkans."

Sweden and Norway are not neutral, even if they think they are. They are more or less directly involved in the war, since the Finnish battles are going on in the east and naval warfare is taking place on their coasts. If Russia takes Finland, Norway will be in grave danger. If the allies send troops to aid Finland, it is likely that their undeclared war with Russia will break out and Germany will send her troops through Denmark."

Authoress Writes Sun Valley Story

Busy at work on her short story about Sun Valley is Miss Erik Mann, daughter of the Nobel prize winner, Thomas Mann, and the author of a best seller in her own right. She is shown here in her room at Sun Valley lodge with her latest book, "The Lights Go Down," which is not yet published, at her side.

"The British empire is united in this belief, she said, pointing to the fact that the British dominions voluntarily are contributing their enormous resources of men and material to aid in the fight. "The dominions are united in this belief," she said, "but it is apparent that they do not want their freedom. They don't want Hitler to control world trade. They prefer to conduct their economic affairs as they have done in the past and not under Hitler's direction."

Mrs. Mann said that her latest book, "The Lights Go Down," is an average German in an average German town, just going to press. She has just completed six months' lecture tour throughout the United States and plans to return here in the spring. "This is a conflict of markets and economics," she said.

EVENING PLAY FEATURES CLASS B TOURNAMENT

Four Teams Chalk Up Victories in First Day's Games

By HAL WOOD
Evening Times Sports Editor

WENDELL, March 1 (Special)—One of the best-matched tournaments in the history of south central Idaho Class B play was well under way here today and you could just about name your own choice for the finalists and have a 50-50 chance of being right.

While one upset marked the first day's play yesterday, favorites as a general rule came through with victories—despite the fact that in most cases they were hard pressed.

However, the early season favorites, Glenns Ferry and Heyburn, looked impressive in hanging up afternoon victories over Kimberly and Halley, respectively. The River Pilots looked particularly good, while Heyburn had quite a tough battle on its hands in getting away from a well-coached Halley Wolverine quince.

Elimination Play
Elimination play got under way this morning with Shoshone meeting Wendell and Kimberly tangling with Halley.

Last night saw a scrappy Wendell club go down to defeat by a count of 39-29 in the best game of the day—the climax to a four-day double session that saw approximately 1,000 people jam the gymnasium in the afternoon and evening.

The victor was Coach Elmer "Speed" Rich's Paul Panthers and

Eden 24, Shoshone 21
Paul 20, Wendell 23
Glenns Ferry 38, Kimberly 19
Heyburn 22, Halley 20.

The tilt was one of the two thrillers of the evening meet. Paul got away to an early 10-2 lead, led by Jack Ryan, knockout clipper, but the Trojans came back strong and tied the count at 12-all in the second frame before dropping behind 16-13 at the intermission.

Paul started in hot again in the third quarter, and when the final period got under way the Panthers held a comfortable 26-18 lead, but the Wendell team had just begun to fight and they kept hot on the tilt. With four minutes to play there was still a difference of seven points here as Wendell's freshman, Barney Anderson, was inserted into the game and he sank three baskets on rebounding to put the Trojans back in the game.

However, they lacked two points of knoting the count and it ended 39-29.

High scoring honors went to Barrett of Wendell with 14 points, while Cornelison led Paul with 12.

In the preliminary to this contest the Eden Orizales upset Shoshone in another close contest. Shoshone was in front 8-3 at the end of the first quarter, but an Eden rally got under way in the second frame that left the Indians scoreless while the Eden club ran its score to 11 at the half. This period found the two teams battling on even terms with the Alaska ending with the count at 15-13.

Highlights led the scoring for the victors with seven centers, while Albright got eight for Shoshone—all in the last half.

Halley Falls Up Fight
The afternoon games weren't quite as close. Halley put up a stubborn lead in the first quarter, but the highly-favored Heyburn club came going down by a score of 39-29. The Wolverines took an early lead but the Halley team at the end of the quarter had the count at 15-10 for the halftime.

High scoring honors went to Fisher of Heyburn with 12 points, while Young got 10 on five field goals for Halley. A feature of the contest was that only two fouls were called on the Halley-Channing Heyburn outfit while 16 were called against Halley.

Ferry Leads 10-0
First game of the meet was the Glenns Ferry River Pilots, defending champions, walk away from the Kimberly Bulldogs. The Pilots ran up a lead in the first 10 minutes of play, with the count 6-0 at the quarter. Then Kimberly scored at the half, but the Pilots were able to go before the half and the count stood at 12-4 at the intermission.

This period was 26-10 and Jack Newell took over things for the River Pilots and tossed in five one-handed field goals in a row in the second half before he retired. He collected 11 points to lead the winners in scoring, while Albright got eight for the losers.

—And Here's How It's Played in the Class B Tourney

Thrills, spills and lots of action featured the annual Class B district tournament which got under way yesterday afternoon at Wendell and here the Times cameraman catches a few of the highlights of the day's games. Upper left shows Matheny, Eden forward, sinking the basket, that tucked the game against Shoshone away for the Grizzlies as Alexander races behind him. Upper right is a bit of action from the Paul-Wendell contest with Craven of Wendell parking the ball. To the left of Craven (No. 21) is Barrett, young Wendell southpaw hotshot, who sank five field goals in this contest. Lower left is a wild scramble for the ball in the Halley-Heyburn contest. That's Robertson of Halley facing the camera, while No. 20 is Ware of Heyburn. Lower right is a mix-up in the Glenns Ferry-Kimberly battle. Standing at left is Newell of Glenns Ferry. Garcia Is Favored To Beat Armstrong In Coastal Fight

By HENRY McLEMORE
LOS ANGELES, March 1 (UP)—Henry Armstrong goes after his fourth world boxing title here tonight, but for the first time since the little Negro shoe shine boy started climbing through the ranks of the feather, light and welterweights he will be on the short end of the betting.

The odds are 5-6 that when the 10-round bout has ended in Gilmore stadium, Cefero Garcia will be the winner and still middleweight champion.

Garcia is the choice because apparently he holds all the trump cards in this engagement that will be witnessed by some 35,000 citizens, ranging from the film celebrities of Hollywood to the butcher, the baker and the candle-stick maker. He will come in at 153 pounds against 141 for Armstrong. He has the punch to end the bout in any round and Armstrong has it in his becoming along on the longest winning streak of his 13-year ring career while Armstrong was whipped the last time he fought.

Comiskey Wins Battle to Keep Ball Club
CHICAGO, March 1 (UP)—The Comiskey won another round in the bitter financial struggle to retain the Chicago White Sox for descendants of the man who founded the club.

Probable Judge John P. O'Connell, ruling in favor of the Comiskey heirs, yesterday denied a petition of the First National bank of Chicago for the right to solicit bids for the White Sox stock.

Pressed for ready cash with sale to pay estate taxes, the bank sought permission to dispose of the American league ball club, which it decided was too much of a gamble to be a suitable trust for the widow and three children of the late owner, J. Louis Comiskey.

Drawings Made for Girls' Tournament

RUHL, March 1 (Special)—Plans had been completed and the drawings were made today for the annual southern Idaho feminine basketball tournament here on March 14, 14 and 15.

Eight clubs from the various districts of southern Idaho will compete in the tourney and early season scoring points to Glenns Ferry maidens as the team to beat for the title—now held by Hagerman, but eliminated in the sub-district play this year.

Play in the tourney will get underway at 2 p. m. Thursday with Montebach and Hollister, champion and runner-up in the South Idaho district meeting in the first game. The Mountain contest, on the morning of the 14th, will be the first of their last tourney period. The tourney is favored to annex the meeting game.

The second afternoon contest goes Glenns Ferry against Dierholt with the Ferry club, of course, favored to win.

Night action starts at 8 p. m. with Aegvyn and Halley tangling. Second game pits Wendell against the first field club. Local reports point to a close Wendell team and it is expected that the game will be fought on an even basis, although the Trojans have a better seasonal record.

The PAYOFF

By HARRY GRAYSON
(NEA Sports Editor)

NEW YORK — Reports from Clearwater, Fla., describe the gleam of satisfaction which steals over Lou Duersch's face as Harold (Doc) Wiese diverts himself at a shortstop with a great deal of fitness.

But the 20-year-old Louisville prospect to come out of the American association in years, has the disadvantage of bucking an aggressive bureaucracy among baseball managers.

Old-timers insist that the position managers are most critical about, and consequently the one they find toughest to fill, is the post they held down themselves in their active days.

There are numerous examples of this. When Bill Terry finally decided to call it quits as a combatant he looked for Sam Leslie to take over.

Now it's Babe Young, one-time Purdue star, who gets the chance. In Gaby Hartnett's case it's days at Cub manager he harbored high hopes for catcher Ken O'Dea, but somehow O'Dea never seemed to improve much over his first-year showing.

Go Garbarck was next to fall and Gus Mancuso, obtained in a trade with the Giants, just couldn't please Gaby.

Since then Hartnett has picked up Al Todd from Brooklyn and Cliff McCullough from the White Sox. City but he isn't more than lukewarm on either. Chance is Gaby will wind up on his own regular job.

Frank Pritch never seemed to come up with a second-batter act either in St. Louis or with the Cardinals. Jimmy Brown, Heinie Groer and Art Garibaldi just didn't sell him. Maybe Pritch will have better luck in Pittsburgh with Hurleigh Grimes, one of the pitching greats of his day, had all kinds of trouble with his moundmen while directing them at Brooklyn.

Tigers Couldn't Run
Ty Cobb, greatest base-runner of all time, was highly critical of his players' conduct on the paths when he managed Detroit. He expected them to show the daring and resourcefulness that he did and naturally, they couldn't.

India Maps "Disobedience" Campaign on Britain

LEADERS DEMAND INDEPENDENCE OF ENGLISH EMPIRE

PATNA, India, March 1 (AP)—The executive committee of the Indian National Congress decided today to launch an India-wide disobedience campaign in protest against British refusal to grant immediate political freedom to India.

The congress executive body also recommended that in its next session the congress adopt a resolution disapproving the British government's declaration that India is a "believed country and deserving India from the European war started on to British imperialist purposes."

After deciding on reviving the old disobedience campaign which won the congress much of its power and considerable degree of autonomy for India, the executive committee agreed at the suggestion of the congress leader, Mahatma K. Gandhi, to wait several days before determining just when and how to resort to it.

The delay meant a door had been kept open for the British government to accept the congress demands.

Congress leaders said the chance will be lost if Britain will have "nothing short of complete independence will be accepted by the Indians," a resolution adopted by the congress executive committee said.

Freedom cannot exist within the orbit of British imperialism and domination. Any other status within the imperial structure is wholly inapplicable to India and not in conformity with the dignity of a great nation and would bind India in many ways to British policy and the British economic structure.

The Indians alone should shape their constitution and determine their relations with other countries by a constituent assembly elected under adult suffrage.

Must Take Steps

The recommendation of the executive for a congress resolution against Indian participation in the war said that such a resolution would determine the determination of the congress to free India from British domination. The recommendation would authorize the congress leaders to take steps to implement the decision against Indian participation in the war as might be "deemed necessary."

Today's decisions were reached after 10 hours of heated discussion.

Azad, Nehru, Patel, a prominent Nationalist leader, faced immediate resumption of the fight for independence, but Gandhi, who for weeks has been doing his utmost to prevent a complete break with the British government, ultimately prevailed on his followers to give the government another opportunity to reconsider.

OIL MEN OUTLINE YEAR'S PROGRAM

Utah Oil Refining company dealers, station men and bulk oil operators had thoroughly canvassed the 1940 outlook and program today at a result of a district conference which drew 100 to Twin Falls.

The group staged a general meeting and sectional conferences at the Idaho Power auditorium with executives of the company from Salt Lake City. In addition to the Utah Oil officials Carl Cornell, Portland, northwest division manager, for Quaker State Oil Refining company, addressed the meeting.

Unique Styles Designed for Band's Show

Original costumes of 1915, including a serious suit and necktie representing the home economics department, and others representing other departments of Twin Falls high school, will be shown in a stage revue during the pep band concert starting at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium.

Costumes were designed by Miss Audrey Schellert, art instructor. The style show is one of the numbers presented as part of the Pan-American exposition grounds in Twin Falls in 1925. Other numbers include a support of television broadcasts from American countries. Directing the show is Charles McConnell.

Scissors Outfit

In the hour or so, huge puff sleeves and operators reaching to the tips of the fingers represent the handle part of the scissors, while the slacks form the blades. Holding the "scissors" together will be a large button at the waist, where the screw is found in scissors.

Among the other designs is the manual training outfit with a hammer head as the hat. Over the face is the head of the hammer, and curving down the back of the head are the claws. A huge brass saw emblem clasp the belt of the dress together and the same emblem is used around the skirt hem.

For the history and foreign language departments, all the colors of all the national flags were combined in the dress, while around the neck a huge picture hat will be tiny flags of many nations.

Paint Tube Dress

A paint tube dress, with a full circular skirt and straight square bodice, around which is a wide band of red, representing the label, is topped by a hat made to look like the cap on a tube of paint.

A vivid red cape will be a part of the dramatic costume, and others will represent sports, journalism, music, agriculture, science and mathematics, and commercial studies.

"Spirit of Twin Falls" is the inspiration for another costume. Art students are also making stage sets for the production. Backgrounds are to represent scenes on a television screen, with a somewhat flickering effect. South America, Mexico, Hawaii, Alaska and the United States are among the places broadcasting to the stage.

Modeling styles will be Virginia Lovell, Ferida Rasmussen, Margaret Ankeny, Marjorie Hansen, Dorothy

TAYLOR UPHOLDS TAX BY INITIATIVE

BOISE, Idaho, March 1 (AP)—Attorney General J. W. Taylor ruled today that a sales tax law adopted by the people as an initiative measure would be valid.

The decision was in reply to W. W. Woz, Pocatello, who asked whether a sales tax could be enacted in a vote of the fact state legislature procedure for raising revenue must originate in the house of representatives.

Taylor said the state constitution provides that the people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and enact them as the polls, independently of the legislature.

M-J-B WHY?

"I'm lying in the dark, thinking how good bed feels, when the doorbell rings..."

1 "Who is it, please?" I say through the door. "It's Mrs. Neilson, your new neighbor," comes the muffled answer so I open the door. "My little Willbur's sick," she says. "Just dead, I mean." "My, how is her apartment when I get just one look at Willbur (age two years) I know she's right."

2 Little Willbur has stuck his head between the bars of his bed and can't get it out. He is screaming like murder and red in the face. Well, we finally free him and I say goodnight. "Oh, please don't go yet," she pleads. "Have a cup of coffee. My husband's away and I'm lonely."

3 Then Mrs. Neilson gave me the grandest cup of coffee that ever touched these ruby lips. "Why, it's M-J-B," she says when I compliment her. "A Richer Roast, you know, and full flavored as any strength!"
