

LEVY WINS WIDE BALLOT TRIUMPH

Overwhelming support of the Twin Falls school board's request that it be permitted to add four mills to the general fund levy was granted yesterday by voters of the school district.

The special levy was approved by a margin of nine to one. Total vote as canvassed by trustees last night showed:

Yes—339.
No—25.

Precinct results were 121 yes and 20 no in Bickel; 112 yes and six no at Lincoln.

Under state law, an election must be called if the general fund levy goes above eight mills. All major districts in the district, a special levy each year, but Twin Falls had not needed one since 1923 because of delinquent taxes taken up the slack.

Although four mills will thus be added, the aggregate school tax for the Twin Falls district in 1940 will remain unchanged at 16.2 mills. This will be achieved by reduction of four mills in the interest, sinking and transportation funds.

Including the special levy approved by voters yesterday, the 1940 levy for the school district and comparison with 1939 is:

1939		1940
General	8	General	12
Interest	1.4	Interest	4
Sinking	4.8	Sinking	3
Transport	2	Transport	3
Total mills	16.2	Total mills	16.2

JAYCEES SELECT PAGEANT GROUP

Committee to chart plans for what is expected to be an elaborate and colorful pageant during the Magic City Jubilee July 3-4-5-6 were named today by General Chairman John B. Robertson.

The pageant committee is headed by Lionel T. Campbell as chairman, and includes J. Blandford, Hugh Phillips, Roy Bubbel and Walter Doss. All are Junior Chamber of Commerce members, since the Jaycees are staging the jubilee for the merchants' bureau.

Since 1940 is the anniversary of Idaho's 50th year of statehood, it is probable that the Twin Falls pageant may utilize an Idaho historical background.

SCHOOLMEN PLAN SOLICITING GUARD

Pushing ahead with its plan for a "blue card" system to protect county school boards in making purchases from solicitors, the board of directors of the School Trustees' association of Twin Falls county had decided today to send sample cards to all boards.

The executive group met last night in offices of Mrs. Dove Strands, county superintendent of public instruction. Under the plan, solicitors selling school equipment and supplies would first be required to consult the blue card committee for approval. Similar program is in effect among Chambers of Commerce in many Magic Valley communities.

Committee reports last night included Oliver W. Johnson, sales tax; John Parish, school bus safes; Edgar H. Olmstead, textbooks. List of boards which have paid membership dues in the association shows Twin Falls, Kimberly, Maroa, Hansen, Murtough, Hollister rural high, Union, Evelyn, Witherside, Cedar, Dray, Exelstior, Lacerne, Deep Creek, Park Lane, Berzer, Amsterdam, Elmwood, Northview and Sunnyside.

M-J-B WHY?

"I'm walking along the waterfront, figuring how to square things with the wife, when this guy yells..."

1 "Hey, Mister! Give me a hand!" He's having trouble tying his cruiser to the dock, but we have things ship-shape in a jiffy. "Come aboard and I'll buy you a cup of coffee," he says. "Don't say coffee to me, I'll grumble, but he laughs. I slip in the ball ('companionway' he calls it) and when I look up I see a guy-haired lady.

2 "Coffee for two, Ma," this guy tells her and before I know I'm drinking the finest cup of coffee I ever tasted. "Down on your luck?" asks this guy. "No," I say. "Coffee arguments with the wife." His Ma laughs. "Well, things aren't really so bad then. Just take home a can of M-J-B and see what a difference it'll make."

SENATE VOTES TODAY ON RECIPROCAL TRADE PROGRAM

CLOSE CONTEST LOOMS ON PLAN OF RATIFICATION

BY RONALD G. VAN TINE
WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The senate votes late today (2 p. m. MST) on a proposal that would suspend all future reciprocal trade agreements to senate ratification.

Indications were the move would pass by a narrow margin. But it will be a neck-and-neck race to the finish line.

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson, D. Colo., a leading proponent of ratification, admitted he thought the administration would win by three votes. Other ratification supporters expected to be defeated by one vote, but hoped for a last minute switch to give them victory.

A day of classroom conferences, checking and re-checking of polls, and conversations by telephone with absent senators resorted to vote today in the agreement to vote today. Both sides have been jockeying all week for the few votes that will decide the major issue raised in the senate against the trade program.

International Salon Of Photos Displayed

People as typical of their countries as are the techniques of the various photographers represented, are found in a fine collection of international portraits now on display at the Jacoby studio, 120 Main street. The public is invited to attend the exhibit, and no admission charge is being made.

Studios of Italy, Spain, Hungary, England, India, South Africa, China, Holland, and several states are represented in the fine collection of 50 portraits, which will remain in Twin Falls until April 15. It is one of the loan collections of the Photographers' Association of America.

Swedish seaman Sully as the sea level, and replete with character is the portrait of an old bearded seaman, one of the contributions from Sweden.

In period robes, wearing an ancient volume, is an old patriarch from South Africa, another powerful study in the collection.

A tizzy-topped yawning baby from an Evanston, Ill. studio defies you to look and not yawn likewise. Exaggerated contrasts in light and shadow are to be found in a portrait from Barcelona. Spanish shows a young girl sitting on a column, shaded-draped balcony.

"Little Johnny Bull" as beefy as a baby can get, and as self-assured, is the representation from England.

Society portraits of Mrs. There are the "unmistakable lady" and other society pictures, nor are the Indians forgotten in this collection.

From Pullman Wash. is included a well-delineated portrait and from Tucson, Ariz., a wrinkled "smile" and Photo finishes range all the way from cerebral to goateous.

Easter party for young girls An Easter tea last followed by an explanation of the farm and the making of games occupied the second grade girls of Mrs. Carl W. Cedarburg's Sunday school class of the Methodist church on the day of the celebration, lunch home.

Class refreshment provided were Phyllis Payne, Doris E. Lusk, Colleen O'Harrow, Carol McGuire, Barbara Scott, Patricia Evans, Betty Mills, Betty Johnson, Carolyn Brown, and Cheryl Brown. Other present were Mrs. Ed Paulson, Joyce Mills, Alma Lee Cedarburg and Mrs. Roy Cedarburg.

Mystery Continues to Shroud Activities of Welles

TRAVELING ENVOY GIVES REPORT TO HULL, PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—The return of Ambassador Welles to the State Department today was the first step toward the solution of the mystery that has surrounded his trip to Europe.

The White House reported that Welles' report, submitted to President Roosevelt, indicated that he had made public "theories" which would only result in a "long and involved" investigation of what Welles has told the President. The President's course of action in the matter is expected to be decided in the next few days.

Despite White House warnings against speculation, diplomatic observers predicted a clue to at least the tenor of Welles' report would be revealed soon by Mr. Roosevelt.

Confers With Roosevelt

Welles returned to the capital yesterday and after a short conference with his immediate superior, Secretary of State Cordell Hull, conferred for 35 minutes with Mr. Roosevelt and then announced that he had followed the conference.

The only announcement previous to his return from White House Secretary Stephen T. Early to reporters was that Welles "will report on a limb."

Though Early, the President for all practical purposes, officially declined in advance anything that might be written about Welles' trip, he did not deny the report in his report. Early said there would be no authoritative source. "I shall be content to say 'I heard' at the White House, Hull or Welles who could give no reliable information."

Wont See FBI Agent

The White House indicated Welles would not see the President again before Mr. Roosevelt leaves, possibly this week, for a short vacation at Warm Springs, Ga. Future conferences, it was indicated, depended upon the course of events here and abroad.

As soon as Welles had returned several peace organizations called upon Hull and the President to announce an immediate armistice and a negotiated peace among European belligerents.
