JOHNSTON DENIES SLAYING OLSON; CALLS WITNESS "LIAR"

Babcock Commences Cross-Examination For Former Mayor

Duncan McD. Johnston today from the witness stand denied emphatically he had fired a shot "into the neck of George Olson," and at one time termed a state's witness a "damned liar."

BURNS FATAL TO WENDELL GIRL, 13

JEROME, April 8 (Special)—Victim of a stove explosion which covered her with a sheet of flame, Shirley Kathrine Hopper, 13-year-old sixth grade student at Wendell, died at St. Valentine's hospital in Wendell at 8 a. m. Sunday.

The schoolgirl posted coroners on the stove flames at 5 p. m. Friday to prepare the fire for her mother to cook dinner. The blast hurled fire throughout the kitchen in the ranch house, which immediately became ablaze.

The father, C. O. Hopper, was out in a field at the time. The mother was in the farmhouse yard. Before the child could be gotten out of the house she was burned from head to foot. Rushed to St. Valentine's hospital, she died Sunday morning.

The defendant's condemnation of the state's witness, Hugh Hutchinson, a railroad employe now residing in Reno, Nev., was dramatic. He denied having ever ordered that the book be made up and added that it was made up by LaVonde if it was without his knowledge.

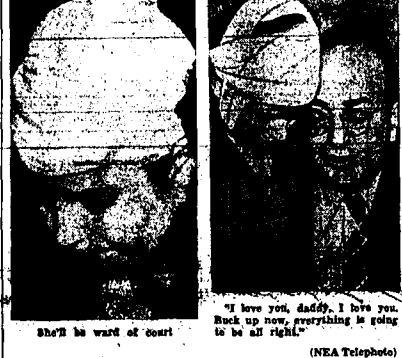

Concerning the two rings found by officers under the basement sidewalk in the Detroit building, to which Johnston had access, he gave the following answers when questioned by Dunn:

Q—Did you ever put those two rings in that envelope and take them down to the basement of the Detroit building and bury them in the broken garage sidewalk? A—No, sir, I did not.

Key Figure in Hammer Slayings

"Can't make me confess" "Mother, father both were nuts"

"I love you, daddy, I love you. Buck up now, everything is going to be all right."

It was hard to believe, but Los Angeles police officers today had identified that Chloe Davis, 11, was not guilty of the murder of her mother, brother and two sisters, after two days of intensive grilling.

Chloe admitted that she beat her mother to death on her mother's instructions, and that she put a baby brother "out of misery," but said that her mother had killed the other two sisters and severely beaten the young brother, aged three. Above she is shown at the hearing and with her father. Her bandaged head was necessary to cover wounds inflicted by her mother.

Farm Camp Opens; Will Feature Self-Governing

Featuring complete self-government by residents, the farm labor camp south of Twin Falls officially opened today. Only seven families are, at the present time, residing at the camp but a survey by the Evening Times revealed that the "migration" is expected to start with first heat thinning operations in this section. Accommodations are available for approximately 250 families, records show.

The controversial measures pending include: 1. A bill by Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, R. Mich., providing for a reorganization of the House under the 1940 census. The House is scheduled to take up this bill probably Thursday.

2. Relief appropriations. The House committee on relief, budget and for three sessions, the relief battle has raged each time an appropriation bill was brought out.

England, France Threaten Nazi Heads Against Action Along Scandinavian Coast

LONDON, April 8 (UP)—Great Britain and France today mined three areas of the Norwegian coast within the three-mile limit of territorial waters. The mine-laying, started during the night by British and French warships, was completed at dawn.

NORWAY PROTEST SENT TO ALLIES ON MINE LAYING

OSLO, Norway, April 8 (UP)—Norway in a protest to Great Britain demanded today the immediate removal of mine fields laid on the Norwegian coast and the immediate withdrawal of British warships from Norwegian waters.

The mine laying was denounced as the most severe and the most unwarranted violation of neutrality since the war started. The protest, made by the Norwegian government in a note to Great Britain and France, was in the name of the cabinet and the parliamentary foreign affairs committee, called into session after Foreign Minister Johan Kollhaas had been called from bed to receive the grave news of the allied action.

It was understood that at the meeting means were considered of resisting further infringement of Norway's neutral rights. The protest was sent along the coast and a British war fleet steamed in search of German ships. Big British warships were seen off the coast near Stavanger.

The allied move came close upon the news that a German submarine had torpedoed the Norwegian coastal steamer Naarva with the loss of its four officers and 23 passengers. The U-S boats watched while a lifeboat splashed, sending six men to death, and made no effort to aid.

HAWAII VOLCANO OPENS ERUPTION

HILO, T. H., April 8 (UP)—Mauna Loa, fiery home of Madame Pele, erupted today, spouting lava in eruption early today casting into Hawaii relief a cloud plume over its 14,000-foot summit.

The lava, which will be a four-year cycle of activity historically marked, began a heavy eruption this night. The lava was overcast and colored a bright orange by the brilliant red glow on the south side of the mountain. Lava flows were about 40 to 50 miles distant.

The apparent center of the flow was from the Hilo side of the mountain. The lava was overcast and colored a bright orange by the brilliant red glow on the south side of the mountain. Lava flows were about 40 to 50 miles distant.

No lava had yet been seen spilling from the crater. Dr. Thomas A. Jagger, famed volcanologist, said he noted two mud flows at the volcano and observed one overlooking Kilauea at 10 p. m.

Out of the Bush

The move, which took diplomats and British political quarters as well as the public by surprise, was announced as representing an allied determination to deprive Germany of the use of Norwegian territorial waters to carry contraband.

Implicitly, the announcement showed that the allies had actually closed their eyes to the fact that the move was putting the allies in a dangerous disadvantage, the allied governments were unconcerned in their own interests.

British and French radio broadcast repeatedly the warning that three Norwegian coastal areas had been mined, and the explanation for the action.

The allied move came close upon the news that a German submarine had torpedoed the Norwegian coastal steamer Naarva with the loss of its four officers and 23 passengers.

WOMAN TO FACE MURDER CHARGE

POCAHONTO, Ok., April 8 (UP)—Frances Hardy, 34, will face a charge of first degree murder at a preliminary hearing before Justice William H. Heston today in connection with the death of her husband, C. E. Hardy, after a quarrel in their home April 2.

A coroner's jury found that Hardy, who was first tried a suicide, died from a bullet wound through the chest "inflicted by a person or persons unknown."

Surprise testimony at the inquest was introduced by a telephone operator, who reported she was "blacked out" to conduct tests determining cause of a service break at the Poca residence. She said a man's woman was crying.

Mrs. Hardy said her husband rived home about 10 p. m. and down to work in the living room. She said she heard a gunshot and ran to the telephone booth.

The high tribunal refused to consider the man's plea that it set aside a unanimous third circuit court of appeals ruling upholding the Heston's decision that the company's unfair labor practices caused the strike of "little else" in 1937.

The court's action, leaving the subject of affirming the circuit court ruling, is the first instance in which the tribunal has refused to review a case for labor controversy. A petition for reconsideration may be submitted by Republic, but the court almost invariably denies such requests.

REPUBLIC STEEL LOSES DECISION

WASHINGTON, April 8 (UP)—Republic Steel corporation lost today its attempt to have the supreme court review a national labor relations board order directing reinstatement of approximately 5,000 strikers with back pay estimated by the union at more than $6,000,000.

The high tribunal refused to consider the man's plea that it set aside a unanimous third circuit court of appeals ruling upholding the Heston's decision that the company's unfair labor practices caused the strike of "little else" in 1937.

Here's Vigilante Committee to Check up on Twin Falls Beards

Twelve men whose title may become "the dirty dozen" before the Magic City jubilee arrives July 3 were selected today to act as the vigilante committee.

The chairman, Warren W. Lowery, and the co-chairman and publicity director, R. C. Van Auden, were chosen Saturday night. Today, after a week-end of what Van Auden said was "intensive thought," the 12 members announced the roster of the vigilante committee which will check up on beards and mustaches.

Plans for Black Maria, according to Lowery and Van Auden, are still tentative. But use of a patrol wagon has been definitely decided on, and the truck will be equipped with heavy wire to prevent "intruders" from jumping out with on the way to "oust" them.

L. D. S. CONCLUDES 110TH SEMI-ANNUAL GATHERING

PLEDGES GIVEN ON PROTECTION FOR DEMOCRACY

BY WILLIAM MCMEANAN
BALTY LAKE CITY, April 8 (S.P.)—An estimated 1200 Latter Day Saints church members returned to their homes today after concluding their 110th semi-annual conference at the Balty Lake tabernacle with a pledge to protect democracy.

David O. McKay, second counselor in the church's presidency, urged members to protect and preserve democracy as a form of government which gives reality to the religious principle of man's free agency.

He described the doctrine of free agency as a principle of progress and progress "wrong" any form of government which inhibits its exercise. Those who want a dictator should get out of the United States and go to a country where a dictator rules, he said.

Other Speakers
 Other speakers included Joseph L. Wirthlin, second counselor in the presiding bishopric; Reed Fennel, member of the council of twelve apostles, and Marvin O. Ashton, first counselor in the presiding bishopric.

President Heber J. Grant, recording in the home of a relative in Los Angeles from a recent illness, listened to a radio broadcast of the proceedings and sent First Counselor J. Reuben Clark, Jr., a message of approval.

President Grant said the experience was a "spiritual feast" and described his pleasure at hearing the morning speakers and the familiar music of the tabernacle choir. He congratulated Counselor McKay for his recovery from a recent illness and for the ease and forcefulness with which he delivered his address.

"Devote of Devil"
 McKay said dictatorship was a devote of the devil.

"State's plan in the beginning was one of coercion and it was rejected because he sought to destroy the agency of man which God had given him," McKay said.

He urged the church members to avoid affiliation with any group that would through economic force, deprive a person of the free exercise of his freedom of choice.

Wirthlin, a director of the Mormon church school system, told members the time probably would come when governmental relief would be turned over to the state.

"The increased tax burden through mounting property and other taxes on the middle classes may lead to untold hardships and possible bloodshed and riots," Wirthlin said.

Grange Gleanings

BY A HARVESTER
 There were just too many Fridays in March, so not much to write about. But we'll do the Missus does when company comes unexpectedly at least in the soup. Get pretty thin sometimes though, and so will this. Wouldn't have been so bad at that if all Granges had have sent in items. However we are thankful for the faithful few, and hopeful of the ones who are not so faithful.

TWIN FALLS

Twin Falls met last week with a good turnout (I know Brother Ward wasn't there, because he is very busy at the court house) and during the business session, Mrs. Peterson was elected to become a member of the Grange. With the completion of the regular business the lecturer presented an informative program as follows: Harry Nelson discussed the working and advantage of the Grange life insurance. This is a mutual, cooperative organization, serving only Grange members and their families. Then Luke Williams, that old "war horse" from down Rupert, Idaho, familiar to all who have attended State Grange sessions, talked on the Grange in general. Mr. Williams is an assistant, missioner of agriculture of this state, and is a Granger from first to last.

Mr. Metz didn't speak on technology, but he was familiar to all who say things are going to happen, the nations of the world, naturally expect them to happen. But maybe E. L. didn't get the peasy thing figured out yet. 'T'd lots rather risk chemistry to help the farmer, if I don't know what it is. I don't look for it to do much good before the first of August.

HOLLISTER

Hollister Grange met Friday, March 27, in regular session. After routine business, disposed of, Frank Atkins, Fairview, was interesting talk on public relief. Mr. Atkins is a member of the state board appointed by the governor to assume the responsibility for the administration of public welfare in this state. (The board has the responsibility and someone else gets the salary.) Mrs. Lois Brady and Mrs. Bertie Schmitter, Berg, gave several minutes of singing and yodeling, accompanying themselves on the guitar. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing and card playing. Lunch was served by the Pohman and M. N. Knudsen families.

"As I take my typewriter in hand to pen these lines, I can hardly wait for that ice cream that Tom Sweeney had for dinner. If you don't hear any more of A. Harvester, just tell 'em the ice cream harvest was too great and the laborers too few. But I think I can take it."

ERDMAN HONORED AT LOAN SESSION

JEROME, April 8 (Special)—The second joint annual meeting of the Grange, Appleton and the Grandview National Farm Loan associations, held at the Jerome Latter Day Saints church here last week, was attended by more than 150 persons.

The meeting was called to order by O. H. Albee, president of the Appleton association, who welcomed the members and guests.

Erdman Honored
 One of the highlights of the meeting was a tribute paid O. H. Erdman who is vice-president of the Appleton N.F.L.A. Mr. Erdman was one of the founders of the association and has served as president and vice-president of the organization.

A service award was presented him for 20 years continuous service as a member of the board of directors.

J. E. Nielsen, vice-president of the Jerome N.F.L.A., was called upon to preside by Mr. Albee. In the absence of F. N. Trappan, president, was called out of the state. Guests were introduced including Henry Matthews, vice-president of the Grandview National Production Credit association, C. C. Haynie; Eugene W. Whitman, Grange county executive agent, and Stan E. Vance, Hamilton, who is president of the Russell Lane N.F.L.A.

Tells Relationship
 Directors of the three associations were called upon as well as employees of the group office. Haynie spoke of the relationship of the Production Credit association to that of the N.F.L.A. and of the production loans made in the eight counties served by his organization.

Two vocal solos were given by Miss Lilla Mae Callen, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Shirley Pierce. Eugene Whitman told of the cooperation of his office with the various loaning agencies and stressed the importance of the farmer's wife in the making and repaying loans.

S. E. Vance brought greetings from the directors and members of the Russell Lane N.F.L.A. association, which makes loans in the east end of the county and he also delivered a report of the recent conference held at Boise between officers and directors of the Federal Land bank and association directors.

Credit Connection
 Henry Matthews gave the principal address of the session. "The National Farm Loan association is a cooperative of farmers, who are organizing a credit system," Mr. Matthews told the group.

"The land bank has been able to make low cost, long term mortgage credit available to farmers," he said, "only because, within the structure of National Farm Loan associations, we have organizations of local men who know local conditions and who are able to direct our credit."

Miss Jerry Glodowski, general secretary of the fourth district Legion oratory contest in Coaling, and who competed Thursday in Pocatello, gave her original oration, "The Problems of American Youth."

Following the intermission, the question box was opened. Matthews answered written questions which had been placed in the box by members desiring information on the operation of the system.

Albee was elected president; G. H. Erdman, vice-president; James C. Knott, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Shirley Pierce, acting secretary-treasurer. Eugene W. Whitman and C. A. Overfield are alternates.

At the Grandview association, John P. Holman was elected to succeed himself as a director for a term of three years. Charts showing the condition of the association and the year's operation were explained by Acting Secretary-Treasurer Mrs. Shirley Pierce.

3 MORE KILLINGS BLAMED ON MOB

NEW YORK, April 8 (S.P.)—Three more Brooklyn gun murders—the slayings of the Shapiro brothers—were reported today as the result of information given authorities by Abe (Kid Twist) Reles, strong-arm chief of the mob.

Reles was said to have told Brooklyn's district attorney, William O'Dwyer, that the killings were the first important jobs of the present members of Murder, Inc. His story allegedly involved Harry (Pittsburgh Phil) Strauss, Frank (the dapper) Abbandano, Martin (Bugsy) Goldstein, and himself.

The Shapiro brothers—William, Meyer and Irving—operated slot machines in Brooklyn. Meyer was said once to have abducted a girl friend of a rival, attacked her, and sent her back with instructions to tell her sweetheart what had happened.

There were 18 attempts on Meyer's life thereafter. The 10th succeeded, Irving, the first brother that died, was shot 10 times by assassins who were waiting in ambush in the hallway of an apartment in 1931. William's death followed a few months later.

Dr. Jardine, who achieved a fleeting fame and lost his viceroyship in England by marrying the duke of Windsor and Louis Warfield Stimpson, claimed Miss Spiritual New York will be considered for the leading part in a motion picture he intends to make of his book, titled "Indecency."

Motorist Passes State Police Car At Wrong Time

JEROME, April 8 (Special)—What was asserted as a mistake in judgment brought George B. Shipman, Twin Falls, a summons to appear before Justice of the Peace Todd in Shoshone.

Shipman is accused of passing another machine at a spot where a white line marked the highway as a danger signal 10 miles north of Shoshone.

In the other machine was a state police officer.

The officer explained that motorists are encouraged to pass patrol cars as long as no speed limits are violated, but the white line is a warning that visibility ahead is inadequate for passing, either because of a curve or a hill.

JIMMY DEMARET WINS MASTERS' TOURNEY

Texas Star Shoots Four Under Par To Annex Crown

By HARRY FERGUSON
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 8 (U.P.)—Give him fair weather or foul, sickness or health—little Jimmy Demaret is the hottest thing in golf today.

He added to his incredible streak on the winter circuit at dusk yesterday when he came up the back nine of the Augusta National Golf club for a par on the long 71 to win the Masters tournament with a 72-hole total of 280.

That made him winner in six of the 11 major tournaments in which he played on the winter circuit. He played on the long 71 to win the Masters tournament with a 72-hole total of 280.

Demaret did it the hard way, too. He was a sick man when play started Saturday and spent considerable time withdrawing from the tournament. But after a half-hour's delay he went out on the long 71 to win the Masters tournament with a 72-hole total of 280.

Bobby Remains As "Emperor" To Golf Fans

By HENRY McLEMORE
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 8 (U.P.)—Ten years ago he was Emperor Jones, and the golf world lay at his feet.

His wife the open championships of America and Great Britain, and his were the amateur championships of the same countries.

Those who swing clubs for a living, and all those who swing for fun, bowed down to him. The decade of yesterday was done something to the once perfect swing of the master, and it has robbed his putter of its magic. Time has marched on in that way.

Time Brushes Lightly
But time has brushed lightly, if at all, on the Bobby Jones. He has met his match in the qualities of his sportsmanship, and that even more than ever we recognized in the Bobby Jones.

Out of the tournament with an injury that he fought for two days before yielding, Jones, the mightiest putter of them all, became a simple mortal; a fellow with an armband, sweating and working and running and yelling to keep the crowds in line in order that those who were playing the game he loves so well might play it well.

Works Hard
Here, there and yonder, all over the course, I saw him working. Tapped fat old ladies, nudging youngsters, barking at stubborn men who thoughtlessly stood in the line of flight of his ball.

He must have walked 73 holes during the afternoon, clearing the path for the Pears, the Demarets, the Woods and the others. Late in the afternoon I saw him stretched out under a tree, dog tired, hot, and disheveled. He was the most vivid memory of the seven Masters' championships. I saw a hole in one, a brassie shot of flight off a tee, and a magnificent stand by Demaret, which was almost too good to stand up to. But Jones, out here under a pine, rearing from the unselfish task of making it easier for others, will be the thing that I will carry longest in my memory. It will stick longer with me than the sight of Jones standing under the trees at Merion, 10 years ago, to receive the cup for the American amateur championship that completed a "grand slam" that none of us now living will see accomplished again.

Vandal Boxers Annex National Championship

SACRAMENTO, Calif., April 8 (U.P.)—University of Idaho held the unofficial title of the national intercollegiate boxing championships today after three hard-punching members of its squad defeated some of the best collegiate ring talent in the nation in final bouts.

Idaho, in winning the team championship, topped the defending titlist, University of Wisconsin. The three Idahoans who went through the finals captured individual weight division crowns.

Ace White Sox Player May Lose Eyesight
CHICAGO, April 8 (U.P.)—Propelled up hospital cot toward the most worried man in baseball.

Fernando, baselid and double-thrower, second-year Jackie Hayes, sweet-tasting second baseman of the Chicago White Sox, feared he may be losing sight of his right eye.

Thought it was just a chafe in there at first," Hayes said. "All I know is, I can't see very well and it's getting no better."

Cowboys Cut Size of Squad to 32
SPOKANE, Wash., April 8 (Special)—Manager Frank Tobin today had his squad of baseball players reduced to a stable squad of 32 players and for the first time this year the new member of the Twin Falls Cowboys could give some personal attention to youngsters who expect to perform in the Pioneer league during the 1940 season.

Up to today there had been 69 players on the roster and usually from three to four performers perched on every base. But from here on out the squads will be divided into two groups with inter-squad games scheduled until the opening of regular practice games against Seattle and other teams of this section.

Race Narrows In Bowling Leagues Here

With only a single week of play remaining, Rolly Jones of National Laundry in the Commercial league, and Roy Weller of Wilson's store in the City loop, apparently have the individual average championships for the season all sewed up.

Heil Bowling Team Loses In ABC Meet

DETROIT, April 8 (U.P.)—The long-famous Heil Bowling team of Milwaukee at last is just another squad.

For four years the Heils have defeated every team they faced. In 1939 they went to Berlin and won the International Match championship.

Fate and misfortune combined to tumble the Heils. Last year, Gillis Zunker, who led all ABC bowlers over a 12-year period, died. Ned Day became match champion and moved to Chicago. Billy Sixty was added to the lineup and was scheduled here Saturday but was injured in the Heils automobile accident.

The Heils completed, nevertheless, in the American Bowling Congress tournament. Their total was only 2,727. Hank Marino, who had topped the 10-year men, registered only 144.

Maple Leafs and Rangers Meet In Fourth Game
TORONTO, April 8 (U.P.)—The New York Rangers and Toronto Maple Leafs meet tomorrow night in the fourth game of their best of seven series, for the Stanley Cup. Detroit leads a victory to even the series at two wins apiece.

Oakland Club Gains Lead In Coast Race

(By United Press)
The Oakland Aces were at the top of the Pacific Coast league today because of their energetic mauling of the hapless San Francisco Seals.

The Oaks won yesterday 3 to 0 and 3 to 2 behind the hit-pitching of Stanley Cochet in the opener and despite the 12-striker Joe Mulligan pitched in the ninth.

San Diego failed to second half a game behind Oakland, by adding a pair with Hollywood. The Padres won the first encounter 4 to 2 but dropped the abbreviated second contest 12 to 9. San Diego took the series, five games to two.

Dick Newsome scattered 11 hits in the first game, including a homer by Bill Claess, and braced Johnny Blitzer and Lou Reed Hittner to keep the Seals from scoring.

Heil Bowling Team Loses In ABC Meet

DETROIT, April 8 (U.P.)—The long-famous Heil Bowling team of Milwaukee at last is just another squad.

For four years the Heils have defeated every team they faced. In 1939 they went to Berlin and won the International Match championship.

Fate and misfortune combined to tumble the Heils. Last year, Gillis Zunker, who led all ABC bowlers over a 12-year period, died. Ned Day became match champion and moved to Chicago. Billy Sixty was added to the lineup and was scheduled here Saturday but was injured in the Heils automobile accident.

The Heils completed, nevertheless, in the American Bowling Congress tournament. Their total was only 2,727. Hank Marino, who had topped the 10-year men, registered only 144.

A new style The KUPPENHEIMER Duncan Drape. Five modern features make it the season's smartest model. Here's a new Kuppenheimer style that makes you look inches taller, chestier, smarter! Duncan Drape is today's outstanding style simply because: 1 The sleeves have a perfect drape—not too extreme, not too flat. 2 The shoulders are broad, yet look well-moulded to your body. 3 The lapels are out wide. 4 A soft construction creates a "stay-in-place" drape that retains its natural roll at all times. 5 The waist looks suppressed but it's roomy.

Hoppe Scores 20th Straight Billiard Win

CHICAGO, April 8 (AP)—The glittering gold trophy, symbolical of the world's three-cushion billiards championship, completed a coast-to-coast transfer today when Willie Hoppe carried it to New York after winning 20 consecutive games to take it from Walter Cochran of San Francisco.

Hoppe's record of 20 victories without a defeat was unprecedented in any billiard competition. He set a new high for grand average in the same tournament with 1,161 points per inning compared with 1,122, the previous high set by Cochran in 1935. His incomparable play also brought out a record total attendance of 17,200.

Hoppe completed the 20-game round robin series Saturday by defeating Jake Schaefer, Jr., Cleveland, O., 50 to 40 in 51 innings.

Schaefer won second place despite the loss to Hoppe.
