High Court Rules Anti-Picket Laws Unconstitutional

WASHINGTON, April 22 (U.P.)—The supreme court today held unconstitutional anti-picketing laws in Alabama and California. Acting in almost identical appeals brought by labor's two big rival organizations, the tribunal overruled state court decisions sustaining the laws. The convictions of two men arrested under these laws were set aside.

Justice Frank Murphy, the newest member of the court, wrote both decisions, holding that picketing does not constitute such an "aggravated danger" to an employer as were imposed by these "sweeping" laws, Justice James C. McReynolds dissented from both decisions.

Throng Views Whisker Fun At Jail Here

It was a hilarious time, the chucking throng of spectators blocked traffic, and in general the first whisker kangaroo court was a huge success. Co-Chairmen W. W. Lowery and B. C. Van Auden of the beard vigilantes said today.

With a brilliant electric light providing "hall" inmates from escaping the stars of at least 500 persons, the kangaroo court, patterned was the center of all eyes for several hours Saturday night. Vigilantes hauled in victims from the streets, from restaurants and wherever a likely "prisoner" appeared.

Black Maria, wire-screened truck, was used as patrol wagon. Guy L. Kinney was judge, with Floyd T. Campbell as prosecutor and Lowery as bailiff. "Fines" were meted out to such varied victims as Grant Padgett, Lawrence Murphy, Harry Munda, Albert Benoit, John Rasmussen, Jack Penning, Mayor Joe Koehler, Howard Gerhart, Bill Henry, Ed Glisk and Harold Harvey.

If prisoners had been or exemption bodes they were "looked" anyway. Munda, for instance, was arraigned for parting his hair in the public. Murphy was accused of putting mascara on his whiskers, and Benoit was charged with stopping his store clock each night to "save wear and tear."

Koehler was fined because he allowed a crowd to congregate while he was inside the bars of the jail.

Man of Many Aliases Will Face Charges

Wanted in Twin Falls on a felony warrant charging issuance of fictitious checks, an accused man with a long string of aliases will be returned here from Helena, Mont., after extradition proceedings are necessary, Sheriff L. W. Dool Hawking said this afternoon.

Warren for the man was issued last Nov. 14 in probable court against Delbert Young. But Sheriff Hawking said pursuit of F. B. I. records showed that the man also has been picked up in the past on such aliases as "Lawrence Scarborough," Tom Johnson, Ray Thomas Roberts, George T. Smith and Carl Swan.

Hawking informed the Helena authorities that Twin Falls wishes extradition and will arrange extradition if the prisoner refuses to return voluntarily.

The check complaint issued last November was signed by William Kemper. Officers said other charges might also be preferred against Young.

REPUBLICAN HEADS MAP PRE-CONVENTION PLATFORM

LEADERS REJECT HINTS OF PLANS TO STOP DEWEY

By LYLE C. WILSON
 WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Republican leaders today are considering a pre-convention platform conference which could be extended to a discussion of candidates and directly influence selection of a presidential ticket by the convention next June.

The United Press was informed that the United Press and the 1936 candidates for President and vice-president, Senate Republican leader Charles L. McNary and House Republican leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr. were conversing on the plan.

There was immediate speculation whether the move was connected with any effort to stop District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey, of New York. The United Press was informed such was not the case. But any discussion of candidates in the crucial fortnight prior to June 24 would have a tremendous effect on the candidacy of Dewey and the other Republican aspirants.

Delegate Conference
 A conference of representatives of practically every state delegation is under consideration.

Invitations are issued—would go to the persons named by each delegation to serve on the convention platform committee. One deliberate objective to such a meeting would be to prevent any candidate by virtue of extraordinary campaign activity from unduly influencing the policies of the party platform and platform.

The conference would take place in Philadelphia within two weeks of the first convention session.

Map Coalition
 Almost every Republican political move now which cannot be demonstrated as directly friendly to Dewey's spectacular presidential candidacy is suspected of stop-Dewey implications. National Committeemen Kenneth F. Simpson, of New York, and Frank E. Gannett, New York publisher, an active aspirant for the nomination, appear to be moving into a coalition against the district attorney.

NORTHSIDE BEAN MEN REJECT AAA

JEROME, April 22 (Special)—Bean growers in Jerome county are opposed to the inclusion of beans as a special crop in the AAA program, according to sentiment expressed at a meeting conducted at the Jerome court rooms here Friday afternoon. While only a small group attended, 25 in number, approximately 90 per cent voted in disfavor of the resolution which had been presented to include beans under the provisions of the AAA act.

The meeting was called at the request of some bean growers in the county to discuss the matter.

The provisions of the resolution included the acreage control; eligibility for commodity loans; and the resolution further required that no benefit payments for acreage control be made if beans were included in the program for 1941.

Townsend Convention Fires Blast at Dworshak's Stand; Praises Sen. Clark

By resolution, delegates attending the annual Townsend club convention for the second congressional district of Idaho today had denounced the "dilatory and evasive behavior" of Cong. Henry Dworshak and had lauded "the stand taken" by Sen. D. Worth Clark.

The resolutions were passed during the session yesterday at the American Legion hall which attracted an estimated 500 delegates and visitors from all over the state. The convention was divided into morning, afternoon and evening sessions. At noon a basket luncheon was held.

Action was also taken at the convention which will result in candidates for congressional seats being asked to sign written pledges that, if elected, they will work for and support bills of the Townsend national recovery group.

Principal speaker of the afternoon session was W. N. Yost, Meridian, who mentioned the personal safety deposit money of the late Senator William Borah, revealed after his death. He termed this as an example of the "evil of hoarding money, which should be kept in circulation. He declared that this one example of hoarding "held up the income of 101 families."

During his address, Mr. Yost said that there are three specific stages or principles to the Townsend bill now before congress. First is the retirement of all men and women now engaged in gainful or profitable occupations who are over 60 years of age. Secondly is the two per cent gross income tax, the purpose being to create a balance between production and consuming by increased purchasing power. Third fundamental principle, he said, is "forced spending" and he added: "We should have some kind of money which could not be saved."

Exploitation Limit
 The speaker declared that the nation has reached the limits of exploitation and the end of further profitable mechanical perfection. "Let us build a government which will tap all the wants and needs of the people which in the past have never been satisfied."

During the afternoon session a motion picture was shown. Several songs were presented by M. O. N. Terry.

Principal speaker at the morning session was Orland A. Scott, Coeur d'Alene, national representative for Idaho. He talked on "New Heights for America."

Convention city for next year was not selected.

Padded Ball
 The best kind of golf ball for use of the duffer is one of very light weight, of standard dimensions, and covered with a crocheted jacket. This retards its speed and renders it less dangerous as a missile when it flies wide of its mark.

U. S. AIR ATTACHE DIES IN AIR RAID
 STOCKHOLM, April 22 (AP)—Robert M. Losey, United States air attaché, was killed in central Norway, during a German air raid, messages disclosed today.

Losey, who formerly was in Helsinki, was reported killed at Dombas, when German airplanes bombed that sector.

He recently had passed through Stockholm from Finland, en route to Sweden.

Losey was hit in the heart by a bomb splinter while standing outside a mountain tunnel at Dombas. The bomb exploded immediately in front of the tunnel.

Other persons in the vicinity took refuge in the tunnel and were not injured. It was reported the bombardment of Dombas was slight and that no serious damage occurred during the raid.

Losey's official title was assistant U. S. air attaché for Sweden, Finland and Norway.

Losey was a captain in the U. S. air corps. He was born in Iowa on May 27, 1908. He was graduated from the U. S. military academy at West Point in 1929 and entered the air corps after completing advanced air training courses in 1930.

BOOSTERS CLUB HOLDS BANQUET

GLENN'S FERRY, April 22 (Special)—Members of the Union Pacific "Boosters" club here held a banquet at a dinner and dance at the Community hall, with approximately 115 members and invited guests attending.

Assemblage was seated at the tables, with the local and visiting "boosters" and their friends in attendance. The program was started by Robert D. Bacon, president of the local club, extending a welcome. He then introduced Rev. Brooks H. Moore, pastor of the Methodist church, who gave the invocation.

Mr. H. Coon, local railway station agent, was introduced by Mr. Bacon as toastmaster, who extended the welcome of the railway officials. Law Collins, assistant superintendent of the south central district of the Union Pacific, was the first speaker. He told briefly of his work with the railway as local telegraph operator here several years ago to that position which he now holds. He mentioned the fact that he attributed his success due to the cooperation of the railway employes as much as anything else, and praised them and the business men of the district for their loyalty.

K. L. Johnson, Pocastello, general agent of the freight department, congratulated the boosters and business men on the increase in railroad business within the past year. He was followed by H. L. Rayner, Boise, commissioner of law enforcement, and W. C. Hingsworth, road foreman of engines, and J. A. Barstow, president of the local Chamber of Commerce, all of whom made a few brief remarks. Walter Blakemore, Porttello, general chairman of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers, spoke at some length on railroad matters.

Following the dinner Mr. Blakemore spoke about the dangers to life and property because of the hauling of gasoline and other petroleum products on the public highways, also showing many pictures of accidents in which gasoline trucks participated. The floor was then cleared and dancing was enjoyed with music by local orchestras.

Dinner was prepared by the members of the Ladies Aid society and the serving handled by members of the Epworth league.

3 Fingers Saved For Buhl Boy, 4, Who Didn't Cry

Bravery of a four-year-old Buhl lad paid dividends today.

Norman Oer, who didn't cry after he caught three fingers in a lawn mower, not only will keep the fingers but went home this afternoon with the Twin Falls county hospital.

The child didn't weep because, when his mother burst into tears at sight of his bloody fingers, he comforted her by telling her he wouldn't cry if she'd dry her own tears.

Surgical treatment repaired the injured fingers on the right hand so effectively that little Norman went home this afternoon before his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Oer, had hoped.

THE SPIRIT OF 76

by JOHN CLINTON

"Show me," I said when they started talking of what 'Traffic Nerves' do to you. And the best answer I got was 'The Spirit of 76'.

They had me drive a car through traffic. With a driver like me, a gadget stopped around me to measure my pulse. In the back seat were a couple of psychologists with a heap of dingers that looked like a radio. My pulse was registered in a red line on paper.

The psychologists were convinced and I've convinced anybody there on a paper was a record of what my pulse did. The psychologist explained that increase of my ticker means faster consumption of nervous energy. Thus, with my my pretty big blue eyes, I've actually seen what "Traffic Nerves" can do to you!

So what?

So this—Union Oil's opened a Traffic Clinic to study how to cut down "Traffic Nerves." And they've established a toll booth—23 signs with pictures—telling you just how to reduce consumption of nervous energy. I'll bet you find these in every gas station before you get to the book's free at any Union Oil Station. Just ask!

No room left to tell you about the NEW 16 Gasoline that Union engineers have developed to help you lick Traffic Nerves. But it's at all Union Stations now. Try it! It'll make your motor tick like a champion!

JEROME ACTS TO SECURE ARMORY

JEROME, April 22 (Special)—At a joint committee meeting composed of members from the Jerome Chamber of Commerce and the American Legion here, it was decided that immediate steps would be taken to incorporate a national guard armory and a community hall.

It was originally planned that this project would be a WPA project sponsored by the state armory commission. However, due to technicalities, the sponsorship by the state armory commission is being held up. For this reason, the Jerome committee members decided they would approach the city of Jerome and ask that it act as a sponsor with the national guard association as co-sponsor and securing all financial liability.

It is hoped that details will be worked out to place the building on city property east of the Jerome Civic Club. The firm of Tourtellot and Hummel, architect, Boise, is at present working on plans for the proposed building.

Tentative plans are that the building will provide space for the 11th regiment, members of the national guard, stationed at Jerome; a city library; space for the Jerome recreational project; meeting rooms; a gymnasium, and an auditorium and rifle rooms.

E. E. Connor, commander of the Jerome American Legion post, acted as chairman of the Legion committee, while Wallace E. Jellison acted as chairman of the Chamber of Commerce armory project committee.

Miss Clara Nelson Weds in Salt Lake

DAKLEY, April 22 (Special)—Miss Clara Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Nelson, and Everett Morris were married Friday at Salt Lake City. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson left Thursday to attend to business. The bride graduated from Oakley high school in 1930, took a business course in Salt Lake City, and has since been employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris will spend two weeks honeymoon touring the Grand Canyon and will stop at Oakley for a night before returning to Salt Lake City.

POT SHOTS WITH The Gentleman in the Third Row

The Ladies Eye Shenanigans

The Pot Shots sleuths are bringing back word of the feminine rejection to all three suggestions as to what the ladies ought to do for the jubilee, now that the men are wearing whiskers and alleged whiskers.

BETTER STAY AWAY FROM MR. HOOK!

Ohho, Potsh: Didja know, speaking of peculiar names as you sometimes do, that there's a great living on route one, Twin Falls, named Salmon Trout?

THE MIGHT OF SOMETHING OR OTHER

The style people are now trying to sell the ladies make-up kits for their knees.

ATTENTION, WASHINGTON!

Dear Pot Shots: Maybe we could send a delegation of the Twin Falls Junior class to Washington, D. C., to help strain the budget.

WIND AND WHISKERS

Pot Shots has just learned something unexpected about this whistler after all.

FAINTLY OPINED, YES!

Alotted $125 for expenses, the committee did the job—and very neatly, too, for $75.

SERIAL STORY K. O. CAVALIER by JERRY BRONFIELD

YESTERDAY: The missing manuscript in delivery. She slipped out of her coat. That isn't the half of it, Steve.

CHAPTER XX

VAL, asped as they continued on their way. Then she swooped over and she stamped her feet helplessly.

"You—you wretch!" she cried, but they didn't even turn around. She watched them as they went out of sight around a curve and then sat down on the running board.

She remembered there had been a farmhouse a couple of miles back. Maybe the could get help there.

"POP GRIMES was grinning broadly as he drove. He was on a blue streak. What was a matter to that, anyhow?"

"Sudden impulse, I guess. And anyway, I've owed her one like that for some time."

Eddie chuckled. "Did you get the look on her face when we left her standing there?"

Val returned the car to the garage. He had a couple of minutes to spare before he had to take a cab back to the Northern Belle.

She was bedraggled and steaming with grief. "Now, you're one lucky guy that I bet any day."

She gave the farm land a dollar when she started the car, and then she started back to Prince Rupert.

"I can see you're breaking down with grief. Now, you're one lucky guy that I bet any day."

Meanwhile, in the Far East

Events in Europe have been moving with a suddenness giving them the unreal aspect of a dream.

Our eyes are fixed on Scandinavia like those of a bird fascinated by a serpent.

In the Far East is another war. This summer its third year will come to an end.

There are signs that the Japanese are tiring of the long struggle. They have piled success on success, but there is no victory.

It begins to look as though neither side can win conclusively, that nothing is ahead but years of a sterile and mutually exhausting struggle.

Britain, up to the hubs in Europe, is in no position to defend her interests in China.

Assume complete victory for one side or the other in the Chinese war. Based on experience, does it seem likely that any justice will emerge from a peace dictated either by Japan or by a Russian-supported China?

Might not a peace conference in which all powers with pacific interests took part, including Japan, China, Britain, the Netherlands, France, Russia, and the United States, arrive at a more just peace today than one which followed a finish fight?

An Eastern Munich? Not at all. No one who thinks China has a chance to win can contend that she would come to such a conference as Czechoslovakia came, a helpless pawn.

Even if such a conference failed it is hard to see how any participant could lose anything.

Babies and Business

The birth rate in the United States has tended downward for some years, as in almost every other country.

Figures released in connection with Child Health week, however, show an interesting thing.

That plainly suggests that when people face a discouraging economic outlook they don't have as many babies as they do when times look a little better.

Practically Voluntary

American Chinese have been supporting the battle of their homeland against the Japanese invader with considerable enthusiasm.

Most American Chinese have contributed cheerfully. But occasionally one lags in his monthly payment of from $18 a month up.

Darned clever, those Chinese!

It's all a matter of taste, this war thing. Having liberally helped himself to the Polish sausage, Hitler now craves a bit of smorgasbord.

Stake Relief Society Plans Party for Trio

Entertaining on a large scale will be the party scheduled for May 2 in the L.D.S. recreation hall in Twin Falls. The affair is being arranged by the Twin Falls Stake Relief Society in honor of the retiring stake presidency, Mrs. Katharine Kirkman, Mrs. Bertha Mae Hansen and Mrs. Eva K. Thomas.

Participating in the event will be members of the Relief society and their partners from Murtaugh, Kimberly, Filer, Buhl and Twin Falls. They are also inviting all women and their escorts who desire to take advantage of this opportunity to pay tribute to the retiring presidency, to join the party. The only "passport" required is that each woman attending bring a covered dish for the buffet supper to be served at 10:30 o'clock that evening.

The evening will be one of fun for all, with dancing in both modern and period styles. Couples who are expert in the polka, rye waltz, schottish and dances of yore will lead out and instruct the amateurs. During the buffet supper a program of "barbershop quartets," old style readings and music will carry the guests back mentally to the time when Mrs. Kirkman began her career in Relief society work more than 25 years ago. Those in charge of the gay affair are Mrs. Pearl Alenbach, Buhl; Mrs. Charles Shirley, Buhl; Mrs. Mattie L. Walker, Kimberly; Mrs. Afton W. Hunt and Mrs. Irene Bently, Buhl; Mrs. Nettie Jensen, Mrs. Janp Bell, Mrs. Hazel Lind, Mrs. Mary Wright and Mrs. Louise Johnson, Twin Falls, sociability.

Engaged to Wed

Miss Burkholder Tells Engagement To Utah Resident

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Burkholder, Twin Falls, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Josephine Burkholder, Eiko, Nev., to Dale Hatfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hatfield, Salt Lake City.

The marriage will be solemnized early next fall. Miss Burkholder has been employed in the office of Doctors Hood, Houshatter, Bloom and Moran, an office nurse, X-ray and laboratory technician.

She is a graduate of Twin Falls high school and of the Salt Lake City general hospital.

Mr. Hatfield, a former student at the Utah State Agricultural college, Logan, is now studying medicine at the University of Utah, where he is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. He will continue his study at the school of medicine at the University of Louisville next fall.

Second ward M. I. A. of the L. D. S. church will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock for a program presented by the Special Interest group. Taking part will be Mrs. Louise McMillon, Mrs. Katherine Ward, Mrs. Zelpha Fruding, Mrs. Myrtle Hunter, Jay Spracher, Mrs. Ione Carter, Ernest Exeter and Ross Wallace.

The public is invited to attend. Chimes meetings will also be held. The chime meetings will meet for a party at the home of Mrs. Ella Wood.

The following week ward honor night will be observed, when all night will be represented in a special program.

Rural Federation Elects Officials

Mrs. R. E. Commons of the Blue Lakes Boulevard club was named president of the Rural Federation of Women's clubs Saturday afternoon when an extensive business session was held in the Y. W. C. A. rooms.

Other officers chosen were Mrs. Mark Knoll, Empanon club, first vice-president; Mrs. W. E. Burt, United club, second vice-president; Mrs. Clifford Davis, M. S. and S. club, recording secretary; Mrs. Glen Jones, Wayside club, treasurer; Mrs. W. A. Poe, retiring president, M. S. and S. club, chairman of the scholarship fund.

The group discussed possible names for the scenic drive, overlooking Blue Lakes ranch, on which construction is rapidly going forward, but postponed final selection until all suggestions are turned in at the May meeting.

Other officers will be installed at the May meeting. Mrs. Commons and delegates from the M. S. and S. club and the Mayor club will attend the district meeting in Idaho Falls in May.

Recent Bride Is Guest at Shower

Complimentary to Mrs. Charles Hutchings, recently bride, a party was given at the home of Miss Helen Moffit, Mrs. Jack Moffit, and Miss Laura Moffit, mother and sister, at the home of Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. P. C. Sears, Mrs. Valje Bagley, Miss Marjorie Long, Miss Dorothy Blaser, Miss Ann Strelitz, Miss Marjorie Conway and Miss Marie Sears.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Post, and later dancing was enjoyed by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Sides, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Dr. McMillan, pastor of the United Presbyterian church in Denver officiating at the simple ceremony.

Selected by the bride for her wedding ensemble was a navy blue crepe suit with white accessories, with which she wore a corsage of myrtle gardenia.

Mr. and Mrs. Sides attended the couple. Mrs. F. C. Dawson, mother of the bridegroom, was among the guests at the wedding, which was witnessed by a small group of friends and relatives.

The couple were pledged before a flower ring, a silver bowl filled with carnations, snapdragons and greenery resting on the mantel.

A wedding dinner was served following the ceremony, which was held at 3 o'clock. Red and white carnations in crystal decorated the dinner table, which was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Dawson was graduated from Orange City high school, Orange City, Ia., and later attended Drake university at Des Moines, Ia. Their son is a graduate of Twin Falls high school. He later attended Long Beach Junior college at Long Beach, Calif.

Boise Writing Group to Attend Chapter Meeting

Several prominent members of the Boise chapter, Idaho Writers' League, will attend the open meeting of the Twin Falls chapter, Idaho Writers' League, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Idaho Power company auditorium, according to word received here.

Among those planning to attend the session are Mrs. Ethel Hopper, Mrs. Della Lettner, Mrs. Myrtle Shuh, Mrs. Post and Mrs. Dorothy Robinson, all well-known in Idaho writing circles.

It is also probable that Mrs. Helen Reagan Skillern, vice-president of the Boise chapter, will also attend, according to Mrs. Paula Turner, president of the Idaho Writers' League.

Wednesday's meeting is open to all persons interested in professional writing. Mrs. J. H. Seaver and others will be on the speakers' program; Reina DeVries will provide musical numbers, and refreshments will be served during an informal hour following the program.

A delegation from the Burley Writers' League will also be present. Mrs. Turner will not be able to be there because of her attendance at a Federated club convention at Emmett.

Mr. Robert Benson is chairman of the program. Mrs. E. A. Landon, Mrs. Stella Egan, Mrs. Eleanor Fogarty and Mrs. Frank Holman are in charge of the refreshments and decorations.

Rainiers and Angels Split Doubleheader

(By United Press) Los Angeles and Seattle split a doubleheader Sunday, in games which featured heavy hitting by First baseman Rip Collins of the Angels. The Rainiers took the first game, 8 to 3, in which Collins made four hits, four trips, including three doubles. Collins drove in the Angels' three runs. In the second game, the Jigger Bates' men came back to win, 6 to 5. Collins made two hits, including a double, drove in one run, and scored three himself.

Old Ted Lyons Turns Back Browns for 222nd Win; Cubs Lose

(By GEORGE KIRKSEY) NEW YORK, April 22 (U.P.)—The same black hand of disaster which swooped down on Johnny (Double No-Hit) Vander Meer after his two perfect games in 1938 had Bob Feller in his clutches today. The spell of magic Feller cast over the White Sox on opening day was rudely and unceremoniously punctured by the bombing bats of the Detroit Tigers yesterday. The Van Meter, Ia., boy with the mighty right arm was routed in three innings by the Tigers. Making his first appearance since his no-hitter and his first start at Cleveland, Feller was only a hollow shell of himself and was clouted for six runs in three innings. The Tigers kept up their barrage until they had hit 15 hits and won 12-2.

Mac Proposes Slashing of Major Playing Schedule to 140 Games

By HENRY McLEMORE
NEW YORK, April 22 (U.P.)—Major league baseball owners apparently don't see enough sense to come out of the rain. They are proving this now and proving it vigorously.

The baseball season, their baseball season, because it was arranged by them, opened on April 10. From the shadows of the roof tower in which they dwell they fixed a schedule that called for the playing of 48 games between April 16 and April 31, which was yesterday.

My staff mathematician, whose initials are H. M., just informed me that of these scheduled games have been postponed because of rain or cold or snow or hail or some of the other things that nature does. This is nothing new. The weather always is bad this time of the year in the east and mid-west where most of the major league games are played. You can thumb old almanacs until both your thumbs and the almanac ask you to lay off without finding nice weather this time of year for the last 10 seasons.

Everyone knows this except the baseball owners. Either they can't read or they are suffering under the delusion that Mother Nature is a red-hot baseball fan and is keenly interested in taking a box seat along the third base line. It's obvious now Mother Nature doesn't care one whit about baseball and is not going to readjust the weather solely for the convenience of athletic performers.

It has long been suggested, not only from this pillar of truth, honor and fairness, but from countless other sources, that ball owners stop being greedy and cut their season from 164 games, to say 140 games. This would enable the teams to start the season 10 days or two weeks later than at present, when the elements normally provide sunshine, clear skies and the other bits of natural trivia that are supposed to go along with baseball.

I have talked to baseball men about this and they have a stock answer. It is this: We can't possibly make any money if we play fewer than 144 games. Our investment requires we start early and close late.

This doesn't make sense and I say it without access to their books. The clubs spend thousands of dollars in training camps to build up an interest in players who have been without baseball all winter.

There isn't a team that doesn't stay in a training camp twice as long as actually necessary to get the boys back home hopped up. Then that do the owners do nothing, except arrive in the midst of a gentle blizzard and spend their time in hotel lobbies and clubs until the fans get so many games postponed because of bad weather that soon nobody cares if they play at all.

Some of the better owners, who refuse to worry about their players dying of exposure, go ahead and play in weather no thoughtful player would bring his own suit to sit in.

The New York Giants, for example, opened their home twice in New York City before 12,000 persons. With a little publicity you can get that many to watch a game in a small town, even in a drug store window. The Yankees, champions of the world, played to a handful of 18,000 in Washington, D. C., where it has been there—would have caused Admiral Byrd to slip on his goggles.

Four Districts Pick Entrants In Track Meet

Entries for the annual county rural school track and field meet at Fossil (grounds May 2) have been certified by four of the eight districts. Competition will be in junior and senior boys divisions and the same classification in girls.

District entrants, as listed with the board of athletic control of the Twin Falls county Teachers association:

Bruin Golfers Win Tourney

For the second time in two weeks, the Twin Falls high school golf team scored a clean sweep over opposition in inter-city tournaments.

The Bruin divot-diggers Saturday turned back Buhl and Gooding stars by triumphing in each round of five flights.

Records show that in this section there are now three times as many boat owners as when the organization was founded.

The purpose of the organization, officials said today, is to "render a local service to boat owners; to promote increased interest in small boating; to promote cruises, regattas, boating sportsmanship; to advocate and foster legislation helpful to boating conditions and boat owners; to encourage the development of adequate housing and docking facilities, and other kind matters."

Riggs Captures Net Tourney

ROUSTON, Tex., April 22 (U.P.)—Bobby Riggs took the third annual Bob Oakes tennis tournament in his third try at River Oaks yesterday, beating Blay Gray, 7-5, 6-3, 7-5, in the final.

Then Riggs, paired with Woodcock of Portland, Ore. in the doubles final, lost to Charles Hare of England and Jack Tidball of Los Angeles, 6-1, 6-4, 6-2.

Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Payson of Boston, America's third ranked player, won the women's singles title by defeating Mary Hardwick of London, 6-4, 6-7, 6-2.

Cougar Track Men Win Over Vandals

MOSCOW, Ida., April 22 (U.P.)—The Washington State cougar track team drubbed University of Idaho 78 to 83 Saturday on the Vandalia rain-soaked track.

The Cougars won on power in the dashes, with Idaho superior in the distance events, Washington State's Lee Orr nabbed 15 points for individual honors.

Huskies Made Favorites for Regatta Title

By United Press
WASHINGTON, April 22 (U.P.)—Washington's Huskies are established today as the leading contenders for the Pouhkeepsie regatta title won last year by California's crew.

The Huskies scored a convyoting victory over California in the 17th meeting of the two schools at Stead Saturday, finishing almost two full lengths ahead of the Bears in 17:16.2.

The California freshman turned back Washington but the Huskies junior varsity upset the favored California juniors by a length and a half.

There were two races in the east. Princeton winning over Navy on Lake Carnegie, N. J., and Columbia finishing first in a three-way match on New York's Harlem river.

Russets Lose To Reno Club

RENO, Nev., April 22 (U.P.)—Led by Tony Gomez, former member of the Boise club, the Reno club yesterday handed the visiting Idaho Falls Russets, heavy member of the Pioneer league, a 7-4 defeat.

Gomez lashed out a home run with a blast on base for the decisive blow of the game. Leon "Whizzer" Russett, junior baseman, also hit a home run with the bases empty. Rocky Blasto, Idaho Falls' keyman, conned for a triple. The Idaho Falls club got eight hits to four for Reno, but couldn't bunch them.

Each side made two errors.

The score: R H E
Idaho Falls 1 1 1
Reno Garg 7 4 2
Shutt, Zar, Hall and Bear; Beasley and Farrell.

BRITAIN TO SPEND 10 BILLION DOLLARS IN NAZI WAR

BIGGEST BUDGET IN HISTORY SET TO END CONFLICT

By WEBB MILLER
LONDON, April 22 (Special)—Great Britain prepared to throw between $10,000,000,000 and $12,000,000,000 into the scale against Germany today as the largest budget in its history.

Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, in introducing in the house of commons tomorrow the budget for the fiscal year which started April 1, was expected to call for a total of 3,000,000,000 pounds and 2,400,000,000 pounds—the largest budget in British history.

As the treasury planned to make this contribution to allied victory—a contribution which will come from every person in Great Britain, and the lower-middle income groups—the royal air force prosecuted the most determined bombing raids of the war against German bases in Scandinavia.

Bomb Aalborg
The air ministry said in separate communications today that royal air force planes last night bombed Aalborg in northern Denmark, Germany's chief air base for supplying its Norwegian force, from the second time, and Stavanger, on the Norwegian southwest coast, from which it sends supplies to German troops at points farther north, for the third time.

It was asserted a "number" of German planes had been destroyed in the Stavanger raid, in the Aalborg raid it was asserted, extensive damage was caused and fires started by bombs in the first raid Saturday night were seen to be burning still.

During the week-end Stavanger had been bombed Saturday night and royal air force planes had bombed Kristiansand, on the south Norwegian coast at the entrance to the Oslofjord, and Aalborg, the sole German air base in northern Denmark.

German Forces Strong
The Kristiansand and Aalborg raids were the first on those important airports, but it was indicated they would not be the last.

As it was seen here, the German forces in Norway were strong, but isolated. German land forces seeking to drive northward up the two main Norwegian valleys had not effected contact with their men in coastal towns.

But the allies had established contact with strong Norwegian forces and were engaged in operations with them.

Not only British and French, but Polish troops, men of the legion which has been training in France since the German victory in Poland, were believed now to be firmly re-established in mid-Norway.

It was the allied hope that, the main Norwegian body now in action, retreating up the two main valleys, could also the Germans sufficiently to permit full organization of British, French, Polish and Norwegian armies for a smashing drive against all Germans in Norway.

More than 2,000 high school students of southern Idaho will flood Twin Falls for the district festival the last three days of this week, according to officials by Ben Christianson, Kimberly, president of the district association.

The festival opens at 7:30 p. m. Thursday when six nearby bands appear in concert. These will be from Buhl, Wendell, Jerome, Filer, Ketchikan and Twin Falls. After the presentation of the concert numbers the groups will go to the L. D. S. church to compete in sight reading contests.

Friday concert playing will continue at the high school, sight reading contest at the L. D. S. church and vocal competition at the Presbyterian church.

Friday evening a colorful marching competition will be held under the lights of Lincoln field. After inspection, each band will parade for 10 minutes.

Instrumental solos and ensembles, officials said, will be judged all day Saturday in the high school dome, gymnasium, Methodist church, Presbyterian church and the high school auditorium.

Saturday evening a concert by picked artists will conclude the festival. Participants in this concluding program will be named by the judges at conclusion of the competition. Awards will be presented following the concert.

Major trophies will go to the best all-around band, based on concert performance, sight reading and marching.

After conclusion of the festival the end of this week, other special musical presentations will be made by various groups throughout the city. The observance ends May 3.

Music at Its Best SOUTH IDAHO MUSIC FESTIVAL

Twenty-eight high school music groups of South Idaho, more than 2,500 young people, will congregate in Twin Falls for three days this week... three days of competition and fun for the participants... many hours of enjoyment for all who see and hear them.

Everyone is especially urged to witness and hear the marching contest—16 bands—April 26, 8 p. m. at Lincoln Field.

A Reason for Pride

Each school sponsoring participants is proud of the opportunities afforded its students through music. Every musician is justifiably proud of his instrument and attainments in this perfect form of expression.

Dumas-Warner Music Store, too, is proud of its part in encouraging music in the schools... in furnishing the majority of the participants with the best instruments made—Conn, Selmer, Leedy.

Attend this galaxy of music. Notice the dominance of Conn musical instruments.
