Idaho GOP Delegates to Vote for Dewey Chamberlain Resignation Demanded by Opposition; Leader Urges Full Unity

New York Candidate Gets Choice on 1st Ballot at Lewiston

LEWISTON, Ida., May 7 (U.P.)—Idaho's delegates to the Republican national convention had instructions today to support District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey of New York for the G. O. P. presidential nomination.

The state's eight votes will be cast for Dewey unless "it becomes apparent Dewey will not carry the convention," the state convention decided last night.

Dewey delegates won on the first ballot, 193-68. Except for a dispute over method of choosing delegates the convention was harmonious. Southern state party leaders maintained their section should receive more voting delegates.

Here's Shock: Lady Repays Relief Money

It was a tremendous shock to the Twin Falls county board of commissioners. The board, after recovering from shock, solemnly announced that it has found an honest person.

In session yesterday for regular Monday gathering which handles much of the relief request load, the board had waded through scores of such pleas. Wearily the three members looked up as the next interviewee walked in.

She was an elderly lady. She laid down $21.75 on the desk. "I want to repay you what you've advanced me to live on in the last two months," she announced firmly.

She was honest about it. She told the commissioners she might need help again some day and believes it's only right to pay back what you've been given if you can.

Board members Ben E. Potter, O. B. Lindsey and George R. Hart, after a hasty check-up, announced: "It's at least one out of 1,000—probably a lot more."

ROBBERS TERMED GANG MEMBERS

SALT LAKE CITY, May 7 (U.P.)—Lester Helmsman, 29, was held in jail here today as an admitted member of a gang that stole an automobile in Los Angeles, robbed seven liquor stores—and then fled to Utah and Idaho.

Helmsman said other members of the gang were the two men and a woman arrested yesterday between Mountain Home and Boise, Ida., after they had robbed a Mountain Home tourist camp operator.

When arrested by Idaho police, the others gave their names as John McNeil, 30; Francis Davis, 30, and Geraldine Davis, 28.

Helmsman told officers the woman, now held with the men in the Elmore county jail at Mountain Home, was his wife, although at the time of her arrest she said she was Davis' wife. Officers had not determined what action would be taken against the three men and the woman.

MOUNTAIN HOME, May 7 (U.P.)—Two men and a woman charged with armed robbery of a tourist camp operator here, were to be arraigned before Justice of the Peace O. E. Norell at 2 p. m. today.

The trio—John G. McNeil, Francis W. Davis, alias Jack L. McNeil, and Geraldine Hudson, alias Mrs. Gerry McNeil, all of Los Angeles—were captured and disarmed by a state highway patrolman after allegedly robbing J. E. Glasy here. They were captured after fleeing toward Boise.

Elmore county Sheriff Earl Winters said he had received word from Los Angeles police that the stolen car they were driving had been used in a robbery at Los Angeles. Winters was asked to hold the trio after they stand trial here.

Jaycees Accept Jerome Challenge to Tug-o-War

Members of the Twin Falls Junior Chamber of Commerce at noon meeting today emphatically declared they would "beat the devil" out of Jerome Jaycees as they voted to engage certain selected members of the northside organization in a tug-of-war.

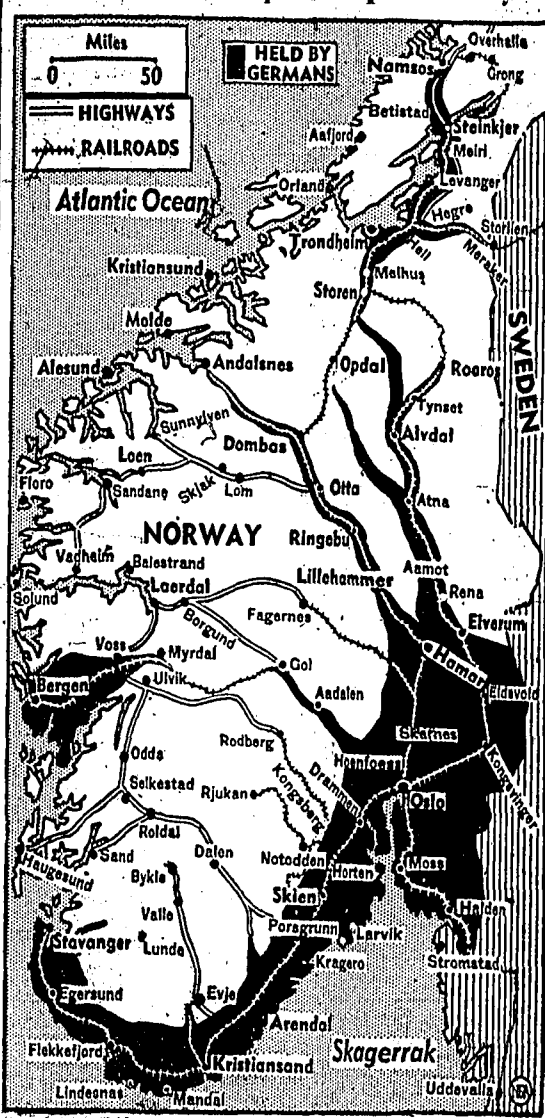

The tug-of-war will be held in the downtown section of Jerome Saturday afternoon about 4:30, during the state convention to be held there.

At the local Jaycees session today, "Skip" Towan, who will handle the details and also serve as the "anchor" for the local hopeful, said his "team is now in training."

The special "tug" developed after the opening of the Twin Falls-Jerome bridge here on a recent date. A tug-of-war between poked residents of the two communities was scheduled on the bridge, to see which group had the honor of "heaving over" a replica of the toll house.

A hitch in the plans developed, however, when Towan declared he was unable to reach the scene with the rope because of dense traffic. Therefore a coin was tossed and the Twin Falls group won the toss, thereby also hurrying over the bridge house.

Teacher Turns Maniac; Kills Four Colleagues

PASADENA, Calif., May 7 (U.P.)—Students at south Pasadena junior high school received a holiday today while police investigated an arsenal in the cafeteria where Verlin Spencer, 37 year old principal, nearly succeeded in killing himself after slaying four colleagues.

Officials would not discuss the arms they found in the cafeteria where Spencer would not allow lunch to be served yesterday. He was an expert marksman with half a dozen marksmanship medals and had an extensive collection of guns.

It was understood guns and 150 rounds of shells had been stored in the cafeteria as if for a siege. Jim Crow, a student whom Spencer took home frequently, said he had seen a number of bullet pierced boxes in his automobile.

Spencer attended a meeting of administrators of South Pasadena junior and senior high schools late yesterday. When he left, George C. Bush, 53, city superintendent of schools; John E. Aman, 50, principal of the high school; and William Speer, 43, business manager of city schools, were lying on the floor, shot to death with Spencer's long barreled .22 target pistol.

Wounds Secretary Dorothy Talbert, 30, Bush's secretary was wounded. Before or after attending the (Continued on Page 3, Column 2)

MANIACS LOOSE IN DENVER AREA

DENVER, May 7 (U.P.)—Police broadcast an alarm throughout Denver and vicinity today after receiving a report that four men, answering descriptions of four desperate maniacs escaped from an asylum at Larned, Kan., were seen alighting from a freight train at Watkins, Colo., 18 miles east of Denver.

Charles Burns, acting captain of detectives, said a tavern keeper at Watkins said that three white men and a Negro slipped off a west-bound freight train as he watched. He and shortly afterward the white men climbed aboard a cattle truck traveling toward Denver. The Negro assertedly "thumbed" a ride in a private automobile following the truck.

Burns said there was little doubt that the four were the ones who escaped from the Kansas state asylum at Larned, kidnaped Bill Barnes, hospital supervisor, and Jack Rush, attendant, and released them later near Ashland, Kan.

The men were Charles Luster, 35; Leet Trillite, 25; Forrest Holdclaw, 50, all white, and the Negro, Willis Grisco.

Norris charged FBI agents had applied methods — "handcuffed, chained, stripped and searched, and frightened half to death" — men who were "not offensive criminals," but who had sought only to enlist soldiers for the Spanish loyalists.

He told reporters justice department agents had "ignored the admitted charges" in absolving G-men of charges that they violated the civil rights of 12 persons arrested in Detroit and Milwaukee as suspected communists. Attorney General Robert H. Jackson announced Saturday night an investigation by Henry Schweinhaut, head of the department's civil liberties division, had convinced him the Detroit and Milwaukee agents had "acted within their instructions and exercised their discretion in good faith."

Norris angrily denounced Jackson's report, and said he was "very much disappointed."

ELECTIONS HELD ON FOUR FRONTS TO PICK SLATES

(By United Press)

Elections were being held on four fronts today — Indiana, California, Florida and South Dakota.

The most important appeared in California where Democrats were engaged in a bitter four-way fight over the party's national convention delegation with the third term issue a major factor. Gov. Culbert Olson led a "draft Roosevelt" slate, another group backed Vice-President John N. Garner, other delegates ran on "Ham-and-Eggs" platform, and an unpledged group backed largely by CIO unions.

Florida Delegation In Florida, an "uninstructed delegation" to the Democratic convention will be named, and candidates for senator and governor nominated. Both Republicans and Democrats had a single slate of uninstructed delegates on the South Dakota ballot. Gov. Harlan J. Bushfield opposed A. N. Graff, Sioux Falls; in the GOP gubernatorial race. Lewis Bicknell, Webster and Almer-O. Steensland, Sioux Falls, sought the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Townsend Test The Indiana election revolved mostly on a test of the Townsend old age pension organization. Voters will nominate candidates for congress and local offices and will select delegates to state conventions of the two major parties.

Meantime, reports from yesterday's Maryland election showed Walter Johnson, former major league pitcher, held a slight lead in the Republican nomination to congress from the sixth congressional district. District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey of New York, only candidate in either party to file in the presidential preference primary, gathered in Maryland's 16 delegates to the Republican national convention.

WASHINGTON, May 7 (U.P.)—Rep. Sol Bloom, D., N. Y., late yesterday forced an adjournment of the house as Rep. Jacob Thorkelson, R. Mont., was delivering a speech lashing Jews and the non-sectarian anti-Nazi league.

Thorkelson linked the anti-Nazi league with Jews, and said: "I often wonder why Jewish organizations rely upon sponsorship of gentiles instead of upon themselves. Why do the Jewish groups use Catholics and Protestants as a shield to protect themselves? I have never yet heard a Jewish group proclaim its own faith."

Bloom, a Jew, heatedly challenged Thorkelson's assertions. When Thorkelson refused to yield further, Bloom made the point of order that no quorum was present. There were eight members on the floor. Rep. Wright Patman, D., Tex., moved the house adjourn, and Rep. Jere Cooper, D., Tenn., presiding, adjourned the house midway in Thorkelson's speech.

GAG

NEW YORK, May 7 (U.P.)—Arline Judge, film actress, and James McKinley Bryant, cafe, socialite said today that their reported wedding in Kentucky Sunday was a "gag."

Bryant pointed out that he still is married to Mickey Flynn. He said he told some young folks in Louisville in jest Saturday night that he was marrying Miss Judge.

Miss Judge also denied she had married Bryant. She was granted a divorce from Dan Topping, millionaire sportsman, late last week.

DIMAGGIO RETURNS

LATE FLASHES

BERLIN, May 7 (U.P.)—The German press tonight touched new heights of concern over the Mediterranean situation, devoting scarce headlines and columns of news space to possible developments there.

Despite the terrific press bombardment, some observers here believed Germany may be trying to divert attention and possibly allied forces to the Mediterranean in order to launch the long-awaited final "blitzkrieg" against England from the air.

WASHINGTON, May 7 (U.P.)—The house today voted to consider immediately a resolution disapproving President Roosevelt's fourth reorganization order, which would transfer the civil aeronautics authority to the commerce department.

WASHINGTON, May 7 (U.P.)—Assistant Attorney General Thurman H. Arnold said today the anti-trust division of the Justice department probably would undertake "a comprehensive prosecution" of trade restraints in the food industry if sufficient funds were available for an investigation.

House Group Votes Revival of Hatch's 'Clean Politics' Act

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, May 7 (U.P.)—The house judiciary committee today revived the Hatch "clean politics" bill, voting 14 to 11 to reconsider the action by which it was pigeonholed last week.

Chairman Hatton W. Sumners said that the committee's reversal put the bill back before the group for further consideration.

"The chairman did not vote," Sumners said. "He will do that this afternoon."

This referred to the fact that Sumners plans to make an hour's speech in the house on the bill late today.

Contrary to the secrecy surrounding the original 10-to-14 vote to table last Tuesday, the committee released a list today of those who voted for and against reviving the bill.

Those who voted for it were: Reps. Emanuel Celler, D., N. Y., Arthur Healey, D., Mass., Charles McLaughlin, D., Neb., Murdock, John H. Tolson, D., Calif., William T. Byrne, D., N. Y., Sam Massingale, D., Okla., U. S. Guyer, R., Kan., Clarence E. Hancock, R., N. Y., Earl C. Michener, R., Mich., John M. Robinson, R., Ky., John W. Gwynne, R., Ia., B. J. Monkiewicz, R., Conn., Raymond J. Springer, R., Ind.

Against Motion Those who voted against the motion were: Reps. Zebulon Weaver, D., N. C., Francis E. Walter, D., Penn., Sam Hobbs, D., Ala., Edward W. Creal, D., Ky., Dave Satterfield, D., Va., James M. Barnes, D., Ill., Ben Gibbs, D., Ga., Estes Kefauver, D., Tenn., Chancy W. Reed, R., Ill., Louis Graham, R., Penn., and Albert L. Wreeland, R., N. J.

Sumners said the next committee meeting would be on Thursday, but he did not know whether there would be further consideration then of the Hatch bill. No amendments have been considered, he said.

CHURCHILL

LONDON, May 7 (U.P.)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain today named aggressive Winston Churchill to supervise Great Britain's armed forces in the war against Germany and called upon an angry, heckling house of commons to close ranks and "set our teeth" in the face of imminent danger that Adolf Hitler will strike again.

The prime minister's appeal for "cooperation of members of all parties" in a unified effort to mobilize "every ounce" of strength for the war was regarded as an invitation to the opposition leaders to enter a reorganized government. There was doubt it would be successful, however, as the Labor leaders have refused such suggestions.

Shouts of "resign" and cries of "who missed the bus?" interrupted Chamberlain as he sought to explain to the house of commons how Nazi aggression and superior air power had caused the failure of the allied expeditionary campaign in central Norway.

That campaign, he contended, still is unfinished; the Norwegian government and King Haakon still are in Norway and the allied powers will give the Norwegians all the possible help possible.

But, he said, the British people apparently fail to realize the danger of another German blow, possibly directed against the British Isles, and the allied leaders will not relax their precautions in other parts of Europe. Then he announced that Churchill, the fiery first lord of the admiralty, henceforth would have responsibility for supervision of military operations from day to day.

His announcement and his explanation failed to satisfy the opposition and he immediately was assailed by opposition leaders for complacency in the face of "a reverse" and a "rebuff" in Norway. Churchill also was criticized as "too optimistic."

Clement R. Attlee, Labor leader, opened the counter-attack on Chamberlain's explanation, charging the government with having made misleading speeches and said that Chamberlain's speech was "one of ex-cuse and explanation."

"The withdrawals from southern Norway were a rebuff and represent a setback," Attlee said.

"The prime minister's speech of last Thursday was over-optimistic and over-complacent. Mr. Churchill is far too optimistic.

"We have got to face the facts. This is a reverse."

"The Norway campaign was never meant to be a mere hit and run exploit. The country considered it of major importance."

Chamberlain's contention that the Norwegian campaign was a limited operation to take Trondheim, important west coast port, in response to the most urgent appeals from the Norwegian commander-in-chief, The prime minister said, not much more than a division (about 20,000 men) was sent to central Norway.

Continues as Admiral David Lloyd George, Liberal leader, interrupted to ask whether Churchill's appointment would permit him to continue as first lord of the admiralty.

"Yes, sir," Chamberlain replied, adding that if the new task was too great Churchill would later be relieved of the double duty.

"Mr. Churchill will have responsibility for supervision of military operations day-by-day and I have no doubt we shall in this way ensure that every aspect of military policy will be examined and, when policies are decided upon, they will be followed up with promptness."

"We must not forget that there are other fronts which at any moment may blaze up into conflagration," Chamberlain said.

Leader Jeered

LONDON, May 7 (U.P.)—Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain today named aggressive Winston Churchill to supervise Great Britain's armed forces in the war against Germany and called upon an angry, heckling house of commons to close ranks and "set our teeth" in the face of imminent danger that Adolf Hitler will strike again.

The prime minister's appeal for "cooperation of members of all parties" in a unified effort to mobilize "every ounce" of strength for the war was regarded as an invitation to the opposition leaders to enter a reorganized government. "We must not forget that there are other fronts which at any moment may blaze up into conflagration," Chamberlain said.

"The campaign is not yet finished," he continued in urging that commons avoid hasty judgment of the Norwegian expeditionary force. He said the campaign failed because the Germans got the jump on allied forces, because the allies lacked fighter planes and because the (Norwegian) troops retreating on Trondheim failed to destroy German communication lines.

Will Give Help But, he said, King Haakon and his government still are in Norway and "we shall give all help to Norway that we can and as soon as we can."

Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, henceforth will have new and additional responsibilities for supervising direction of the war, Chamberlain said.

The elevation of Churchill, known to Britons as an advocate of vigorous action and generally credited with favoring greater daring in the Norwegian campaign, was viewed as an effort to quiet the wave of complaint against conduct of the war.

Churchill will have "special responsibility for supervision of military operations day-by-day," Chamberlain said after many shouts of anger by hecklers on the opposition benches.

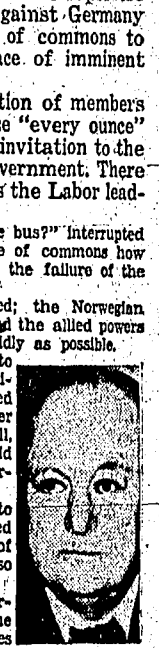

"The prime minister strongly denied there was any division in the cabinet.

Chamberlain declared Churchill had been authorized by the cabinet on behalf of its military coordination committee to give guidance and direction to the chiefs of staff."

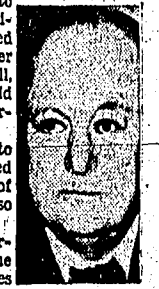

"This is not the time for quarrels among ourselves," Chamberlain said. "These are times for closing our ranks and setting our teeth and endeavoring to mobilize every ounce of our energy and our resources."

"Let Us Beware" "Let us beware of being tempted into such a dispersal of our forces as might suit the purpose of the enemy, which has vast, well-equipped armies ready to strike anywhere at any time."

"Let us beware of dispersing our divisions among ourselves when we may be faced with attacks which we can only meet by concentrating our forces."

ANGRY POLITICIANS BLAST CHAMBERLAIN CABINET TACTICS

OPPONENTS JEER AS LEADER TELLS OF NORWAY LOSS

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
 United Press Foreign News Editor
 Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain fought to save his seat in the House of Commons today in the face of an angry, unrelenting attack on the home political front. Political experts believed he might succeed, but only after a severe drubbing.

Nervously addressing a jeering house of commons, the 71-year-old prime minister struggled to rebuild prestige lost in the unsuccessful Norwegian campaign by:

1. Announcing the elevation of the veteran Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty and known as an advocate of aggressive action, to the post of supervisor over the armed forces of Great Britain in the war against Germany.

Invited to Join
 2. Inviting the opposition leaders to join the cabinet for cooperation in mustering "every ounce" of British strength for prosecution of the war—an offer likely to be refused.

Warning the People
 3. Warning the people that Adolf Hitler's vast military machine is likely to strike again at any moment and at any place, including the British Isles.

Promising that the allies would fight on with all possible power to aid Norway.

All of the "explanations and excuses" were brushed aside by Chamberlain's most severe critics in the House. He defended his statement and both the prime minister and Chamberlain were strongly attacked by the opposition for complacency or over-optimism.

Dramatic Background
 Both at home and abroad, events built up a dramatic background for Chamberlain's speech. In Britain and France, a series of governmental disclosures was designed to bolster the position of the cabinets at home and convince neutrals the allies could win the war.

In Germany and Italy the controlled press had a field day with charges and rumors intended to increase anxiety generally in Europe and to confuse the allied powers.

These included charges the allies had decided to start action in the near east or Balkans this month and were seeking to buy Bulgaria's help. London and Paris denied them as a Nazi effort to stampede Italy into the war.

MISSOURI SEEKS TOLL FETE DATA

Nationwide publicity given to the Twin Falls-Jerome bridge celebration brought a request for information today from Hannibal, Mo., famed for its most noted son, Mark Twain.

The Hannibal Chamber of Commerce, through Secretary F. T. Russell, asked the Twin Falls C. of C. to send it details of the toll removal celebration and cost of staging the big festival.

Russell said that Hannibal is now outlining a similar event for next November, when tolls will be taken off the huge bridge which spans the Mississippi river at the Missouri city.

Teacher Slays Four Officials

 Targeting—police had not ascertained the sequence—he killed V. V. Vanderlip, 45, printing instructor at his school, and gravely wounded Ruth Barmel Sturgeon, 45, an art instructor.

Then in the cafeteria he shot himself through the heart and physicians feared he would not live.

Mrs. Spencer was grief stricken, but she tried to explain her husband's sudden, maniacal fury.

"Verlin was a sensitive and intelligent man," she said, "and his intelligence must have driven him too far. Overwork must have turned him into a maniac."

Claimed Persecution
 Officials believed he had been goaded to murder by an obsession he was persecuted. Several friends said he had spoken frequently to them of "persecution" by his colleagues and he had said Miss Sturgeon and Vanderlip "refused to cooperate." Others said he had been suspicious his superiors were "trying to get me out of here."

He was regarded as a severe taskmaster, and possibly as having overworked himself studying at the University of Southern California for a doctor of philosophy degree besides carrying on his duties at the school.

DRIVER "WORKS" $1 FINE; 16 PAY

Fourteen motorists today had paid fines of $1 each for overtime parking, two paid fines of $2 each after receiving two tickets, and one man was working for the city for one day in lieu of fine payment, police records showed this afternoon.

Working out the fine was E. J. Egan while Vern Yates and Harold Merritt paid "double fines" after receiving two tickets.

Those paying the $1 fines included the following: Harry O'Halloran, Kay Long, Robert Minshew, T. J. Bodero, A. C. Bates, Norman L. Cook, Elmer Heuther, T. A. Sokol, Rex Thomas, E. Noel Bailey, Ted D. Miller, Edward Schneider, Pat Brannin and R. L. Reed.

Records of the court show that during the last fiscal year a total of 3,968 traffic tickets for minor offenses was issued.

CHURCHILL HEADS BRITAIN'S FORCES

 most violent form directed against this country.

Greeted with cheers from his own party and shouts of "Resign!" from the opposition benches, the prime minister pointed out he was unable last Thursday to explain developments in Norway because he might have endangered success of the withdrawal of troops from Namsos.

That danger, he said, was illustrated by the fact 50 German bombing planes attacked the allies' ships from Namsos on the morning after the withdrawal.

Consider Seives Lucky
 "Considering this convoy was outside the range of our fighters (planes) and depended solely on anti-aircraft fire from the ships, we could count ourselves fortunate we did not lose more than one British and one French destroyer," he said.

The loss of the destroyers and of a Polish destroyer was announced officially yesterday.

Chamberlain said news of the withdrawal from central Norway was a profound shock to commons and the country.

"And abroad and throughout the world," he said, "an opposition member. The prime minister retorted members of the cabinet must expect to be blamed for everything.

The interruptions from the opposition benches became so frequent Chamberlain stopped speaking and the speaker said he could not permit such interruptions to continue.

There was another interruption and Chamberlain sat down until the speaker called for order.

Small Withdrawal

"The withdrawal from south Norway was not comparable to the withdrawal at Gallipoli," Chamberlain continued, in reference to the allied reverses during the World war on the Dardanelles front in southeastern Europe.

"There were no large forces involved. In fact, there was not much more than a single division."

A British division is normally from 10,000 to 20,000 men.

"Our losses were not really great in number nor was there any considerable or valuable amount of stores left behind (when the allies withdrew from Norway)," he added.

DISCUSSION SET ON PEDDLER CARD

In addition to hearing a telephone executive outline the story behind long-distance calls, Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce directors and members Friday noon will discuss probable distribution of signs to householders in connection with the transient peddler control program.

The telephone executive who will speak after the business session is Milton E. Barnett, Denver, vice-president of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company. He will devote the bulk of his talk on "The Romance of Far Speaking" to explanation of many exhibits illustrating telephonic development.

Peddler cards which will be discussed by the chamber, with a choice probably to be made, are designed for distribution to Twin Falls homes. One type of card says simply: "Solicitors and Peddlers Not Wanted."

The other type, referring specifically to the expanded "blue card" system now being inaugurated, says: "Solicitors Take Notice—The Blue Card Permit of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce is Necessary. Before Any Soliciting Will Be Entertained."

The chamber will also discuss printing of individual membership cards for use by members as an identifying sign.

ARMY ASKS MEN IN SIGNAL WORK

A special effort will be made during this month to enlist 15 men for duty with the eighth signal service company, signal corps, Presidio of San Francisco, it was announced this afternoon by Sgt. Frank Morris, officer in charge of the army recruiting station at the city hall.

Morris said that 10 of the men must be qualified as radio operators, or must be high school graduates who express a desire to learn radio operating; three must be qualified as telephone maintenance men, or high school graduates expressing a desire to learn either telephone maintenance or telephone operating; two must be qualified as clerks who have had experience as typists.

The local recruiter also announced that five men are wanted from this district to serve with the infantry in the Hawaiian department. These men are also to be enlisted this month.

NOT-GUILTY PLEA IN CAR "TAKING"

Pleading not guilty to a charge that he drove another man's auto away without consent of the owner, Ralph Ivey had been ordered today to stand misdemeanor trial in probate court at 2 p. m. Thursday, May 16.

Ivey pleaded not guilty at arraignment Monday afternoon before Judge C. A. Bailey. Complaint was filed by M. N. Knudson, Hollister, who said that on April 30 Ivey drove off in the Knudson car. The complaint specifies there was "no intent to steal."

The defendant was released on his own recognizance to appear for trial May 16.

Magpie Bounty of 2c to Be Accepted At Police Station

The Twin Falls police station this afternoon was designated as the point where the bounty of two cents on magpie heads will be paid for this section.

Announcement that the bounty would be paid at the police station was made by Dr. E. R. Price, president of the Southern Idaho Fish and Game association.

The setup is a part of the magpie eradication campaign sponsored by the state department of fish and game.

In Twin Falls, the local club will pay the bounty as each magpie head is brought to the police station, they in turn being repaid by the state. The campaign will close June 30.

SHOSHONE CLUB GIVEN TOP HONOR

OGDEN, Utah, May 7 (UP)—Davis S. Romney of Ogden today was elected governor of the 110th district of Rotary clubs. The Ogden man was the only nominee for the post, and succeeded Lorenzo R. Thomas of Blackfoot, Ida.

Two plenary sessions and various social functions concluded the district conference today. Theme of the meeting was "guiding youth in a changing world" and it was emphasized Monday by a parade by hundreds of Ogden school children, participating in "loyalty day" ceremonies.

During the conference, it was announced the Provo, Utah, club had won the annual award for the largest percentage of membership increase. An award for attendance went to the Shoshone, Ida., club.

Small blond girl and even smaller boy staring through window of confectionery shop near park and discussing just which pieces of candy they'd buy if they had anything to buy it with.

Man reporting to city official for duty in order to work out $1 parking fine. Chief of police scanning plumb machine in local cafe and determining if makes no cash payments.

Deputy prosecutor and justice of the peace discussing merits of various criminal cases. Five businessmen, all wearing whisker exemption badges, looking like some kind of convention delegates as they march down Shoshone street together.

Load of glass-front bookshelves carried into law library in courthouse. Bob Greene, losing coin toss, ordering among three customers (resembling figgily to one cup each) . . . And how not to help keep city clean: Young lady climbing out of auto parked on Second street north to throw empty bag into street.

Schoolboy Fined $5 To Obey Officer

Rex Wells, 15-year-old high school student, this morning was fined $5 on a charge of disturbing the peace, records of Municipal Judge J. O. Humphrey show.

The youth is alleged to have disturbed the peace at the baseball field last night by "failing to disperse when instructed to do so by an officer."

The arrest was made last night and young Wells was released on $10 bond until this morning when he pleaded guilty to the charge. After payment of fine he was released.

Sporting Goods Store Will Open

A new sporting goods store, located in the 100 block of Main avenue north in quarters formerly occupied by the Eric Hardware company, will open in the near future, it was learned here this afternoon.

The store will be operated by K. W. Swenson, Preston, Ida., and extensive remodeling of the interior is now underway. The store is expected to be ready for occupancy Wednesday but just when the place will be open for business was not announced.

THE SPIRIT OF 76

by JOHN CLINTON

I don't suppose I'll ever own Union Oil Co. And it doesn't look like I'd ever be president of it. But if I had an oil company, I'd like it to be like Union Oil.

I'm proud of being a westerner. I like western traditions—the spirit of independence and neighborliness. That's why I'm so fond of this Union Oil bunch.

Fifty years ago, 2 young fellows named Hardison and Stewart started Union Oil. They were independent—as western in their ways as a cow pony. They were neighbors—ready to help at the drop of a sombrero.

And the men who have risen in Union Oil have been that kind of men and the company they've built is that kind of a company, independent, neighborly and pioneering.

To you this pioneering has meant a good deal. It was Union who introduced the 1st non-premium anti-knock fuel on the coast. Union also pioneered with Triton, that cleans out carbon as you drive. Now Union has pioneered again with the first Traffic Clinic ever opened by an oil company.

Your trade has built Union. Today it's the leading independent oil company in the west. But what I like is that while westerners were helping Union grow, Union was helping western people.

That's why I'd love to have an oil company of my own. I'd like to have it be that kind of a company.

GOSSETT SPEAKS TO DEMOS TODAY

Young Democratic club members, plus Bourbons of all ages, will convene in Twin Falls tonight to hear an address by one of the statewide leaders of the party.

The speaker will be Charles O. Gossett, Nampa, former lieutenant-governor and a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1938. He will discuss "How to Win the Election."

Gossett's discussion will form the highlight of the session, expected to attract at least 75-100 Bourbons. Brief business program will probably be held with President James L. Bothwell presiding.

Coffee and wafers will be served after the meeting, which is to open at 8 p. m. in Idaho Power auditorium.

STUDENTS OFFER MAY FETE HERE

One of the most ambitious undertakings in several years, an outdoor May festival, will be presented by Lincoln school, Thursday at 1:45 p. m. at Lincoln stadium.

Only thing that may prevent its being staged will be inclement weather. Miss Beulah Way, principal, announced this afternoon.

Lincoln school's section of town has been attracting much attention the past several days, as groups have been rehearsing at various intervals of the day.

No set admission will be charged, but contributions to the Lincoln school music fund will be welcome. Participating will be 720 pupils of the school.

Teachers of Lincoln, assisted by Miss Marjorie Albertson, music supervisor, have conducted intensive rehearsals the past several weeks.

The production is entitled "A Day in May," and will be elaborately costumed.

The theme: It is still night when the festival opens. The stars are out, the flowers and birds are asleep. The moonbeams come and chase away the stars. The birds awaken, the flowers bloom, and May day arrives.

Then follows the procession of the king and queen, the heralds, gawds, flower bearers and the village dancers.

As the games heralding May begin, various groups present folk dances, and the festivities close with the traditional winding of the May pole.

Driver Speeds Up to Police; Faces Charge

Unaware that a state police safety lane was in progress on Main street in Buhl, a west end motorist found himself arrested last evening on a speeding charge when he drove up to the lane.

Two other arrests were made at the traffic check-up, and one of the defendants was in county jail today. Lieut. A. E. Perkins, state police officer in charge, said this afternoon.

The man in jail is Floyd Hathaway, fined $2 and costs of $3 by Justice R. H. Stewart today for operating a car without a driver's license. Hathaway, pleading guilty, will serve two and one-half days in jail in lieu of paying the $5.

Lieut. Perkins said the speeder arrested at Buhl was cited to appear before Municipal Judge H. W. Herman. Third man "tagged" at the safety lane, accused of operating a trailer without a license on it and without rear lights, was cited to appear before Justice Stewart.

Masons Gather in Pocatello May 14

POCATELLO, May 7 (UP)—Local Masons announced today plans are nearly complete for the grand, section of Idaho orders of the organization here, May 14 to 17.

The statewide convolve will include such groups as the royal arch chapter, the councils of royal and the school.

Teachers of Lincoln, assisted by Miss Marjorie Albertson, music supervisor, have conducted intensive rehearsals the past several weeks.

The production is entitled "A Day in May," and will be elaborately costumed.

The theme: It is still night when the festival opens. The stars are out, the flowers and birds are asleep. The moonbeams come and chase away the stars. The birds awaken, the flowers bloom, and May day arrives.

STATION AGENT'S ESTATE $22,000

Estate valued at $22,000 was left by the late Fred McConnell, railroad station agent at Murtough, according to a petition for administration now on file in probate court.

Mr. McConnell died of injuries sustained in a motor car crash near Artesian. He was the third traffic fatality in Twin Falls county in 1940.

Miss Jean Grimsman, Twin Falls, is nominated as administratrix in the petition signed by Robert H. McConnell, Hayden, Colo., brother of the decedent. Heirs include the brother, another brother in Indiana, two sisters living in the same state and two half-sisters, one residing in Virginia and one in Michigan.

The estate includes Murtough real property and also personal property.

Rayborn and Rayborn are counsel for the petitioner.

WRITER REJECTS PULITZER PRIZE

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—William Saroyan, whose play "The Time of Your Life" was acclaimed by the nation's stage critics, turned down a Pulitzer prize award for it today.

There was a possibility he might reconsider.

Saroyan, famous as a short story writer before he turned to the theater, told the judges, however, his prize-winner "is a good and perhaps great theatrical work." In refusing the award, Saroyan joined Sinclair Lewis, who turned down a similar award in 1926 for his "Arrowsmith."

Selection of John Steinbeck's controversial book about the migratory workers of California, "The Grapes of Wrath" as the Pulitzer prize-winning novel was expected to come in for some criticism.

Another Hemisphere Link

Within a month another link in the chain binding the western hemisphere into an economic unit is expected to be forged. The creation of the Inter-American Bank by five countries, Brazil, Colombia, Mexico, Nicaragua, and the United States, is likely to be accomplished soon.

This is a highly important step. It may result in an almost revolutionary change in financial and economic relations between the countries of the Americas.

This undertaking is completely different from the present Import-Export Bank. This is not an undertaking of the five countries, but a joint undertaking of the five countries, and perhaps later of others who may join. It will be more like the Bank for International Settlements.

It will be controlled by a board consisting of one member from each participating country. Capital will be subscribed by each in proportion to the dollar value of the foreign trade of each in 1938.

The object is broad—to promote trade between the Americas, to foster good will, to help stabilize currencies, to aid industrial development and monetary equilibrium.

Certain immediate results should follow: (1) It would be the first step on the part of the United States to redistribute its gold and silver among countries with which it seeks to stimulate trade and friendly relations. (2) It would tend to supplant private capital ventures in foreign fields by joint ventures of all American countries, thus minimizing clashes which have always been a source of diplomatic friction (as in the oil cases in Mexico at present). (3) It would tend to make the Americas still more closely interdependent, and thus less dependent on Europe. And all American countries know now that European trade and financial invasions are arms of the new imperialism.

If the American countries can together supply their own capital needs for expansion and industrial and economic progress, so much smaller is the chance of European penetration.

If it be argued that the United States faces a chance of once more holding the bag as the "rich uncle," let it be remembered that leadership in economic affairs is thrust into the hands of "rich nations" whether they like it or not.

It is only a question of whether they are willing to strike out boldly and exercise that leadership, or sit idly by while it crumbles away from them, to fall into the hands of those who will grasp it by pressure and violence, for political ends.

Never Too Old

Probably the most unusual dance establishments in the country are the "Friendship Clubs" in Minneapolis and Milwaukee, conducted exclusively for people between 28 and 120. Hostesses are 55 and 65 years old, and the dances are liquorless and jitterless. "Whistle dances" are featured so that the old folks can get acquainted—the sort of thing that used to be called, we believe, the "Paul Jones."

Now here we are, all worried about jitterbugging and rug-cutting by the young folks, when it develops that the older folks retain their itch for, if not actually cutting rugs, at least mangling them.

And why not? With every statistic showing clearly that we're all living longer, we might as well arrange to have fun longer, too.

Down Under the Sea in Ships

Five hundred and thirty-seven ships have taken the final plunge down to Davy Jones' locker since the war began.

Swept from the surface of the sea to lie rotting beneath it are 1,813,795 tons of shipping of all nations and the bones of perhaps 5000 men.

The United States, due to its fortunate position and policy of keeping our ships out of the war zones, has suffered least. In fact, American shipping to foreign ports has risen sharply since the war to the highest levels of a decade.

The deliberate effort to build up a merchant fleet, well under way before war came, now meets a situation in which most of the rest of the world is destroying its ships as fast as it can. Should the war be prolonged, the United States should find its relative position in the shipping world considerably enhanced. This will add to those post-war responsibilities that are piling up for us whether we will or no.

Whatever became of the seers who were predicting the end of the world? Can it be they won't be around this spring to see their forecast come true?

Flash! Even, Perhaps— Bulletin!

Old tidings flashed in to Pot Shots today over his own private wire service, Assassinated Press. Jaycee bigwigs of Jerome, it seems, leaped with joy on the Pot Shots suggestion that the "Tug of War That Was Never Tugged" (at the bridge celebration) be staged at the State Junior Chamber convention in Jerome this week-end. Return match, in Twin Falls at the Magic City Jubilee in July.

And Jaycee bigwigs of Twin Falls, with equal joy, favor the Pot Shots proposal. The local genies were to front out details today at their weekly virtual-stuffing ceremonies, which come after the Pot Shots page is already in the tender hands of the pressman.

So have a look at page one of your EvesTimes today for what comes of all this.

TALE OF THE SECRET BILL FOR FISHING TACKLE!

Dear Third Row:
"Saucer" Hardy, general factotum at one of our Twin Falls barber shops, vowed sadly today that Uncle Sam is in league with wives against downtrodden husbands. He also vowed another vow to the effect that it doesn't do any good to prevaricate to the L.I. Woman.

Hardy decided that with fishing season now open, he'd buy himself some first class equipment. So he went to a certain hardware store and found a double-tapered line and a well automatic reel. These were so new that the invoice hadn't arrived, but "Saucer" said he'd buy 'em anyway.

"Send me the bill at the barber shop," he ordered earnestly. "For gosh sakes, DON'T send it to my house."

Hardy then took his prize reel and line home. He informed the Missus that he'd won the whole works for 25 cents on a punchboard. This pleased the Missus a great deal and all was serene.

Until a recent evening, I mean. When Hardy got home on that particular night, the Missus met him by indignantly waving the sizable bill from the hardware store! I understand he heard emphatic discussions for some time thereafter.

P. S.—"Saucer" is gunning for a mail-carrier. The bill was addressed to the barber shop.

HERE'S TOPS IN GOODING TOORNADO YARNS!

Dear Pots:
This is the way I heard it. It seems that a certain Gooding farmer had a rooster, a perfectly normal and happy one. And when the tornado came up, this here said rooster got put in a jug. Yest' we went right through the neck into the jug.

(Now as most intelligent people would tell you, you have canned chicken. And you have!)

When the farmer was looking around after the big wind he heard a rooster crowing to beat all get out. He turned around and there was that rooster in the jug braggin' to beat heck.

So the farmer broke the jug and that rooster is still a-runnin' around. —Glinny-Glin

FURNITURE ITEM

Dear Shots:
Speaking of strange sights, give the medal to the result produced by the lady driver who swung around the corner of Main and Third street east, with a trailer load of furniture (plus one elderly man) hitched behind her car. The dining room table and chairs slid neatly off the trailer onto the street. The elderly gentleman landed right on top of the table, thus averting injuries. Chief casualties: The legs of the table and chairs. —Jessica

SERIAL STORY

BET ON LOVE BY CHARLES B. PARMER

YESTERDAY Flash with victory, Paul taught Sherry a lesson he'll never forget. Billie began to look on Sherry, but she is determined to get her horse to Louisville. Arriving home, she finds a stranger parked in front of her apartment. It is her cousin, Theodosia Duncan Bond, of Wyoming.

CHAPTER IX

FIVE seconds after saying "I am" to Theodosia Duncan Bond, Sherry snapped out of the shock of receiving another relative unannounced.

"My dear! You are Uncle Horace's daughter! He married my mother—when I was a baby. Adopted me. They're both dead now. Really, I'm no kin, Sheridan."

"Call me Sherry—I'll call you Ted," Sherry spoke warmly and impulsively. This lanky, friendless girl, looking up the only near-relative in town—Sherry hadn't the heart to be other than cordial. She took the girl's arm, led her to the doorway. Theodosia Duncan Bond was saying:

"I was going to France—my field is higher math and physics—to work on my doctorate—but the war stopped that. I had applied for my leave of absence, so here I am—in the East for a year—but really, not being in it to you."

The girl stopped at the doorway with genuine reluctance. "I mustn't intrude on you—mustn't take up your time—"

"Bosh! You come right in!"

YES, Ted would have tea. During the second cup she said: "I'm going to get a little place. I brought all my furnishings, enough to camp out in New York, you know. I've heard so much about those ducky Greenwich Village apartments."

"They were ducky years ago—merely high-priced now. Look here," Sherry was thinking fast. "tell you what I'll do. How would you like to have this apartment furnished, at what it costs me? Plenty of room for your stuff; you could take in a fellow-student to share expenses. Two of you could live nicely here, on little. It's paid up to the first."

"But where are you going, Sheridan?"

"Just call me Sherry. I'm going to Louisville—for the Derby. My colt's nominated. Then I'll ship him from track to track; may not be back for a year."

"Sherry?"

The girl from the West spoke the name of a child would—a child seeking a great favor. Sherry

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

By BRUCE CATTON
Evening Times Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 7 — The Wendell Willkie presidential boom interests Republican politicians more and more, but so far the chances that it will actually get him any important number of votes at the convention are not too good.

Trouble is the boom started late. By now most of the delegates have a pretty fair idea of where Willkie could be nominated, of course, if two or three of the important contenders should decide to throw their strength to him, but so far there are no signs that this is likely to happen.

WILLKIE

One thing in his favor is a growing feeling that while the "stop Dewey" game may succeed it is likely to derail the candidate who does the stopping. If that happens, Willkie might inherit some important delegations.

U. S. EXPORT BOOM LARGELY WAR TRADE

U. S. export trade is booming, but the figures show it is pretty much a war materials boom. Exports have run better than $300,000,000 a month since Jan. 1—highest figure in years—but exports of such staples as corn, wheat, tobacco, fruit and passenger autos have actually gone down.

Sharply up are exports of iron and steel products, metal working machinery, aircraft parts and accessories, chemicals, tractors, trucks and raw cotton—all of which are highly useful in war.

Also significant is the fact that the bulk of the increase in our export trade is made up of increased sales to the allies.

Samples: France bought no U. S. aluminum at all in the banner year of 1937, and is now buying it at the rate of $500,000 a month. England's purchases of aluminum have likewise jumped from an $8,000 monthly average three years ago to $380,000 for March.

French purchases of U. S.-made metal-working machinery are five times the 1937 average; English purchases of our industrial chemicals have doubled, and so on.

ANTI-SEMITISM IN CONG. RECORD

Senator Barbour of New Jersey didn't say so, but his bill to bar the mails to material likely to arouse race hatred was actually aimed at Congressman Thorkelson of Montana, who has been putting anti-Jewish stuff in the Congressional Record for many months and then mailing it out under government frank.

GOODING

Mrs. E. E. Hammons was hostess to Rebekah club Friday. Mrs. John Korner presided. It was decided to contribute $5 for tornado relief. Dish towels were hemmed to be given to tornado victims. A game of flowers was played with an award going to Mrs. E. B. Hughes.

Dr. Frank Bumgarner, Colorado Springs, Colo., arrived here last week, called by the serious illness of his father, Ed Bumgarner, who died Saturday.

Wood River Shirts club held K ceremonial booster celebration dinner at the Gumbo residence-club Saturday. Wayne Hudelson was toastmaster. Special guests were novices Jay Farmer, Charles Allig and Ted Edholm. Oliver Jones, chief rabban, and L. P. Marjens, recorder, both of Boise, were present. Mr. Jones entertained with piano music. Committee in charge of arrangements was Fred Orag, J. Farmer, Alex Watson and Leo Rice, Gooding, and Thomas Gooding and Emmet Kelly, Rhoshone.

HISTORY Of Twin Falls City & County

As Gleaned from Files of The Times

15 YEARS AGO

MAY 7, 1925

Twin Falls county Bar association this afternoon telegraphed unanimous endorsement, approved by Judge W. A. Babcock, to the department of justice and to Senator Frank R. Gooding and Congressman Addison T. Smith, asking that Frank L. Stephan be appointed district attorney for Idaho to take the place made vacant by the elevation of Col. E. G. Davis.

Mrs. H. C. Gettett entertained Wednesday with a mah jong party. Mrs. I. H. Masters, Mrs. Claire Davis and Mrs. B. L. Price won honors.

A live campaign for the raising of the Legion boys' endowment fund has been started in the east end of the county under the direction of John W. Hardin, Kimberly. In a statement, Mr. Hardin said: "To the people of Kimberly, and vicinity, the drive for the Legion boys' endowment fund for the benefit of orphans of the Legion boys will commence in these districts May 11. We are certain a satisfactory amount can be raised for this commendable cause."

27 YEARS AGO

MAY 7, 1913

According to the latest dope, the regular schedule for the baseball season will begin on May 18 in this city with Pocatello as the opposing team. Pocatello always has been a Jonah for the locals and the boys are going to try and break the hoodoo at that time if it can be done.

On May 22, the 100th anniversary of the birth of Richard Wagner, the faculty of the Conservatory of Music, assisted by the chorus, will give a splendid musical program at the high school auditorium.

Downy—brome grass, otherwise, Bromus tectorum, June grass, cheat, grass, bronco grass, etc., which has spread over most of Idaho in the last 25 years is a native of Hungary. Being an early-maturing winter annual and highly inflammable when dry it has produced a fire hazard, in both sagebrush and timbered areas, unknown in Idaho before its introduction.

HOW to EAT to BEAT the HEAT

By ALICE H. SMITH
Nutritionist, Cleveland Health Council

Does spring fever affect your appetite? Well, it's bound to, but not like the fever doctors talk about.

A true fever means the body is rapidly generating energy in the form of heat. Usually this requires that you eat more to save the body from "burning" its own tissues. With spring and the first hot days the problem is getting rid of the extra heat the body generates oxidizing food.

Normally, the regulation of body temperature doesn't require any assistance from you. There is no other mechanism as complicated in structure and as scientifically operated as the body.

The body is fed food regularly. This food must be softened, churned and dissolved so that it can circulate in the blood stream. From it each part takes the food it needs. This involves a process of "burning" or oxidizing. Ordinarily, this burning of food in the tissues releases enough heat to keep the body at normal temperature, 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit.

In the winter we conserve this heat by heating our homes, schools, places of work, and by wearing sufficient clothing. Comes the first warm weather and we must do the reverse. And at this point the diet comes in again.

Just how does diet affect the regulation of body temperatures? Excessive food intake over a period of time produces a heavy layer of fat. This fat acts as a sort of insulation—like fur keeping you warm in winter—and hot in summer.

Then too there is one class of proteins which "whips up" the body processes, creating additional heat—meat, fish, poultry.

If you want to keep cooler, you can do no better than get most of your protein diet from milk, cheese, eggs, vegetables, and cereals. A moderate amount of fish, meat and poultry is all right.

Meat once a day is sufficient, even more than necessary most of the time. In place of meat, use more milk, eggs, vegetables and fruits.

A diet too high in protein foods can create 30 per cent more heat or calories than a normal, mixed diet with moderate amounts of protein.

Finally, there is an economy angle to this lighter summer diet. Eggs, milk and vegetables are cheaper in the warmer seasons than meat.

You can cool off—and save.

ALLIES OPEN TWO NEW THRUSTS AGAINST NARVIK PORT

NARROW PASS IN NORTH FORTIFIED TO HALT ENEMY

By JACK FLEISCHER
STOCKHOLM, May 7 (U.P.)—Two new allied thrusts at German forces in Norway were reported today in dispatches to Stockholm.

On the far northern front, the allies were reported by neutral military sources to have fortified a narrow pass between Mosejoen and Narvik in an effort to halt the northward advance of Germans from Trondheim toward Narvik, where some 3,500 Germans are beleaguered by British, French and Norwegian troops.

(In Berlin, the German high command said Germans advancing from Trondheim had reached Mosejoen and that German planes attacked and dispersed British troops near Narvik, also bombing a British cruiser and flying boat off the port.)

Lay New Mine Field
Off the south coast of Norway, the newspaper Dagens Nyheter reported, the British have laid a new mine field in an effort to interrupt German sea communications with Norway.

The mine field was laid somewhere off the Swedish coast in the Gothenburg area, where a Swedish fishing boat and a German steamer struck mines yesterday, the dispatch said.

It was suggested submarines were used to lay the mines.

Greatest interest here centered on the fate of the Germans at Narvik, where both sides were rushing reinforcements.

Seek North Bases
Neutral military sources were doubtful the Germans had advanced far past Mosejoen, which is about 175 miles south of Narvik. They pointed out, however, the Germans probably were trying to set up air or submarine bases as far north as possible for operations against the allied forces at Narvik.

The reports here were that the fortified zone was in the vicinity of Mosejoen, but German reports had already put German troops north of there and it was assumed the allies might be holding a post nearer Narvik.

It was reported, without details, allied and German troops were still fighting a battle which started four days ago at Narvik.

FILER

Forty-three members attended a regular meeting of the Piler Grange Friday evening. Following the business meeting, three contests, arranged by Miss Beth Kendrick, lecturer, were enjoyed. Raymond Thomas won the men's patching contest, Mrs. John Lundin the orange contest, and Leo Coates and B. M. Walker the paint contest. The Piler drill team will go to West Point Friday evening, May 17, to put on degree work so the next regular meeting of the Grange will be Thursday evening, May 16.

Mrs. R. K. Dillingham was guest of honor at a luncheon Friday given by Mrs. O. J. Childs honoring her birthday anniversary which occurs in May. A decorated birthday cake centered the luncheon table. Lilacs and paper white narcissus were used for room decoration.

The Washington bridge club met Thursday with Mrs. Robert Weaver, Mrs. A. A. Davis was a guest. Honors at bridge went to Mrs. Glen Davis, Mrs. Luther Pierce and Mrs. A. A. Davis.

1940 American Mother Declares "Why, I've Never Done Anything!"

BY BETTY BANDEL (NEA Service)

TUCSON, Ariz.—Grateful appreciation of the honor done her, and a stream of telegrams from her children and grandchildren, are the only things that are keeping "The American Mother for 1940" from crawling into a hole and pulling the hole in after her.

Mrs. Charles H. Mayo, widow of one of America's surgeons, has spent her life closely linked to a profession which traditionally shuns personal publicity. Yet overnight she finds herself selected by the Golden Rule foundation to receive a medal as the woman "representative of the best there is in womanhood."

MRS. CHARLES H. MAYO

Mrs. Mayo's two reactions are:

(1) "Why, I've never done anything!"

(2) "I can think of 100 women right off who deserve it more than I do."

Telegrams from Mrs. Mayo's own eight children persuaded her to accept. Delighted with wires and letters from about half the people who have made the trip to the famous Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., Mrs. Mayo was pleased and grateful, but insists there be "no twaddle about it."

Mrs. Mayo does not suggest the sentimentalized picture of the American mother. The committee, including Dr. Mary E. Woolley, Fannie Hurst and Owen D. Young chose her for other reasons. From the day in the 1880's when she chose a nurse's career in defiance of the stay-at-home customs of the day, she has been an integral part of Rochester's life, making it home for thousands of patients, and young surgeons and nurses.

Born Edith Graham, daughter of a pioneer Minnesota farmer, Mrs. Mayo was graduated as a nurse at Woman's hospital in Chicago 51 years ago this spring. She was the first trained nurse in Rochester. The Mayo family helped found St. Mary's hospital and then started the clinic and school which made Rochester grow from a farming community of under 5,000 to a city of nearly 30,000. "It's getting too big," Mrs. Mayo says. "I like a neighborhood little town."

Young mothers today are doing just as good a job as those of 30 years ago, Mrs. Mayo feels. "It's different now," she says. "There are so many outside interests. But I don't believe they are neglecting their children at all. They know so much more than we did, about vitamins and feeding of children, and those young women up at Rochester are just as good disciplinarians and just as good mothers as anybody could be."

class met Friday with Mrs. C. B. Sikes for a no-host luncheon. Thirteen members attended and spent the afternoon quilting. Mrs. C. W. Case, vice-president, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. W. J. Fenwick received the white elephant.

Nineteen members of the Filer Masonic lodge motored to Hollister Thursday evening for an elaborate turkey dinner prepared and served by members of Hollister chapter, Order of Eastern Star. One hundred members of the district attended. Following the dinner past masters of district lodges conferred third degree work at a meeting of Hollister lodge.

Four square members gave a Mother's day luncheon Friday at the home of Mrs. Art Hawkins with 16 members and 30 guests present. Tulips were used for room and table decorations and corsages were presented to each guest. Mrs. Jay E. Sackett read a paper on the origin of Mother's day and Mrs. J. H. Wright was the prize in the flower contest. Allen Lee gave a tap dance. The club will meet May 17 with Mrs. Mary Jane Johnson.

Shower Honors Dorothy Hopkins
JEROME, May 7 (Special)—Miss Dorothy Hopkins, Jerome, was the inspiration for a charmingly arranged pre-nuptial shower given by Misses Jean, Esther and Fae Overfield, at the C. A. Overfield residence Saturday evening.

Gifts for the bride-elect, who will be wed the latter part of June were piled in attractive arrangement underneath a May pole, from which streamers in pink and green floated down to the table. Carrying out the spring theme, room trims were bouquets of lilacs combined with varicolored tulips and greenery.

Miss Hopkins will be married the last of June to John Parkinson, Jr., of Jerome.

During 1939 a total of $300,097.000 was collected in state registration fees.

SCHOOL BAND TO LEAD IN PARADE

With the crack grade school band of Pioneer school, near Rupert, leading the parade, student safety patrols of 40 Idaho communities will march at Boise at 11 a. m. next Saturday, according to word received here today from Glenn H. Davis, Idaho Automobile association safety representative.

The Pioneer school will send a 52-piece band to lead the parade at the annual safety patrol day.

Both Heads Judges

Judging for prizes to the best patrols will be done by Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen, Mayor James Straight of Boise, John W. Condie, superintendent of public instruction, and Ida Martin Warner. Reviewing stand will be on Boise city hall steps.

Plenic luncheon in Julia Davis park and afternoon softball-games will provide highlights for the 900 grade school pupils. Davis said he expected a number of parties from Magic Valley to make the trip to Boise.

Faculty Also Goes

The Pioneer school band will be headed by Director Frank Watson. It will travel in the school bus and in private cars, accompanied by faculty members and a number of parents. Principal Willard Hayward will head the faculty delegation.

The trip will be made Friday afternoon under escort of Holl Church, state police officer.

Springtime Theme Prevails at 20th Century Club's Breakfast

As inspirational as is the season of spring itself, was the program of toasts and musical selections presented at the annual May breakfast of the Twentieth Century club this afternoon at the Park hotel, final event of the year, with Mrs. A. J. Peavey, incoming president, and Mrs. J. W. Newman, retiring president as special guests of honor.

Mrs. Claude Brown, toastmaster and general chairman of the day, chose "Springtime" as the program theme, and Mrs. Ronald L. Graves arranged a blithe, picturesque setting for the event.

The programs and menus were in the forms of bird houses in pastel hues. Each clever nut cup was circled with a row of tulips bordering a picket fence, and further ornamented with a miniature bird house, on a standard, Rose and yellow tulips and paper white narcissi in low bowls comprised the table trims, and baskets of lilacs formed the background decor.

Trio of Faculty Honored at Party

In honor of birthdays of three teachers in Twin Falls high school, which occur this week, faculty members last evening attended a tea served in the school dining room after classes.

Honor guests were Miss Dorothy Gull, Miss Agnes Schubert and Ward Howell. Also a special guest in addition to the high school faculty was Mrs. Vera O. O'Leary, junior high school principal.

A decorated birthday cake, topped with candles, was served by the honorees. Centering the lace-covered refreshment table was an arrangement of yellow tulips, flanked with yellow tapers.

Hostesses were Mrs. Gerald Wallace, Miss Josephine Throckmorton, Mrs. Mercedes Paul, Miss Bernice Babcock and Miss Juanita Sulcliff.

SHAMROCK GROUP PLANS ARTESIAN PICNIC

Shamrock assembly, meeting last evening at the school house, made plans for a picnic at Artesian Thursday, May 16.

The program included music, taps, songs, readings and a skit by the school children.

Refreshments were served by the host committee.

need encouragement and appreciation.

She likened each club program to the unfolding of a new bud, saying, "Cheerful, willing members bring you each Tuesday luncheon day a program that is as refreshing as a new flower."

Club Leaders Speak Mrs. Newman said that in clubs as in nature, the faults of the past have to be pruned away, so that the good wood may blossom when it is spring.

She referred to the time she visited San Francisco, two years after the fire and earthquake in 1906, finding the city full of energy, rebuilding and refusing to be defeated. Then she came to Halley, finding its physical aspects rich in contrast, the chokecherries in bloom, the wild flowers out, a country awakening.

In her address, Mrs. Penney said that a bulb garden typified the club as a whole, the president and secretary, certain types of bulbs. In conclusion she gave this quotation:

"A little work, a little play To keep us growing, and so good day. A little fun to match the sorrow Of each day's going, and so good morrow."

National YWCA Meet Reported To Beta Gamma

Miss Irene Lopez, voting delegate from Magic Valley district to the 19th national conference of Y. W. C. A. of the United States at Atlantic City, N. J., from April 10 to 18, reported on her trip to the eastern states and to the convention at a meeting of Beta Gamma club, business girls of the Y. W. C. A., last evening in the club rooms.

During election of officers held at the same meeting, Miss Charlotte Rutherford was elected president for the next half year, to succeed Miss Helen Groves.

Listing the things she gained from the meet, Miss Lopez pointed out the value of belonging to a national organization, and the need in Twin Falls of bringing about the feeling of belonging to a national group in the Y. W. C. A. She quoted figures showing that over a number of years, annually 25,000 girls lived in the Y. W. C. A. homes throughout the country, with 5,000 of these persons non-paying guests.

"Canada at War" She started her talk, telling of leaving Detroit and traveling through the Canadian provinces to Niagara falls. Particularly noticeable is the fact that their country is at war, according to Miss Lopez. From Canada, she traveled to New York City, where she visited well-known points. From there she went to Atlantic City, N. J., where the convention was held.

As one of 202 voting delegates for the business and professional members of the organization, Miss Lopez attended that section of the general conference. First session of the meet was held by this group of girls. Other sections are industrial girls, students, business and older women.

Attending the entire conference were 2,000 delegates, representing a cross section of nationalities. Convention hall, largest in the world, was scene of the sessions during the day. Women from far-off India, from South America, and native Americans were among those present.

National congress will hereafter meet only once every three years, instead of the usual two, it was decided. Theme for the programs was directed for courageous living.

Composite Worker A picture of the average business girl, compiled from answers to questionnaires sent out last fall to member clubs, was read. A girl's personal problems, such as an inferiority complex, and problems of work were considered during the sessions.

Visit of Miss Frances Williams, secretary to Idaho this summer, for the Girl Reserve camp at Payette lakes, and a visit with clubs in Pocatello, Twin Falls and Boise, was announced by Miss Lopez. She and other Idaho delegates met with Miss Williams one evening.

One of the outstanding events during the conference was the agricultural banquet. A member of the Federated Women's clubs said a farm leader spoke during the evening on youth who are leaving the farms for the cities. She showed the jump in the trend from farm to city, and the problems of unemployed farm youth 16 to 24 years old. Much of the discussion of the general conference was taken up with this question and its possible solutions.

On Saturday, the 83th anniversary of the organization in England, the meeting heard a speech from

B. P. W. Speaker

Miss Margaret Hickey, education chairman of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, who will be the principal speaker at the state convention banquet May 20 at the Owyhee hotel in Boise.

Students Appear In Musicales at Beamer Studio

Mrs. J. D. Beamer entertained at a second spring piano recital Saturday afternoon at her studio, 217 Buchanan. Lilies in white and purple formed the decorations.

Four duets were interesting features of the program.

Students appearing were Bonnie Jean Kunkle, David Kidd, James Carney, Ann Gibbons, Mildred Brown, Viris Bell, Vanetta Faddock, Edna Mae Lee, Charlotte Miller, Lois Nicholson.

Helen Mae Johnson, Joan Gorden, Mary Langa, Geraldine Kidd, Doris Gony Crowley, Marilyn Sweeley, Shirley Beckley, Julia McBride, Robin Blaser and Karl Brown.

Sunshine Circle club will entertain at the annual mothers' tea Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the country home of Mrs. Frank Krueger. Each member is asked to invite somebody's mother as a guest. Roll call responses will be "Our Mother's Hobby."

Queen Elizabeth over a radio, and an enormous birthday cake was served. During the evening was a formal banquet, attended by 700.

Highlight of her return trip, according to the speaker, was a view of the cherry blossoms in Washington, D. C. The cherry blossom festival was just concluded.

Among Officers

Other officers chosen were Miss Betty Hansen, vice-president and program chairman; Miss Shirley Dunlap, secretary-treasurer; Miss Florence Grigg, social chairman; Miss Lucille Haskins, visitation chairman, and Miss Margaret Jones, hostess chairman.

Retiring officers are Miss Arabella Brown, Miss Edith Baird, Miss Helen Capps, Miss Margaret Dougherty and Miss Grigg. Announcement was made that next meeting will be May 20 at Echo lake. Girls will meet at the club rooms at 6:30 o'clock to go to the lake, each taking her own lunch.

Guest during the evening was Mrs. David Lopez, mother of the speaker.

Hostesses for the evening, Miss Peg Lechlitter and Miss Margaret Dougherty, served refreshments.

State B P W Stresses Values of Democracy

A rally call to business and professional women of Idaho to survey the position they have gained in a free democracy, and in 50 years of statehood, and an appeal to help solve the problems of that democracy, has been issued to the Idaho Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, meeting in annual convention May 19-21 at Boise.

Principal speaker at the Golden Jubilee banquet Monday night, May 20, at the Owyhee hotel, will be Miss Margaret A. Hickey, St. Louis, Mo., education chairman of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, an educator, lawyer and business woman, according to Mrs. Norman B. Adkison, Boise, general convention chairman and past state president.

Illustrative of the keen interest in governmental and international affairs manifest by the Idaho B. P. W., is the address planned for the morning session of the convention Tuesday, May 21.

International Talk Carl G. Bowden, a former director of post-war relief in Europe, a close personal friend to Streit, the author of "Union Now," and president of the Boise chapter of the American Red Cross, will speak on the subject, "Relation of Our Democracy to Other Countries."

Of the problems facing the world today Miss Hickey believes: "One of the most timely and possibly the most acute social and individual responsibility of this period is to give back to American young people their heritage and faith in opportunity."

"Our national education program is concerned not only with the professional advancement of trained women, but also with the avenues of entry into business and professional life for the business-woman-to-be. Let us do everything possible to make available a trained vocational-counselor in every high school."

To Honor Women Theme of the convention will be "Statehood and Womanhood—Fifty Years of Progress." Social highlight will be the banquet Monday night, in charge of Mrs. Nanning Barker, assistant secretary of the Boise Chamber of Commerce, chairman.

Emphasis will be placed on the part women have played in the 50 years of progress in the state of Idaho, and there will be a special feature honoring the 10 women chosen by the judges as having made outstanding contributions to their communities.

The convention will open Sunday evening at 7 o'clock with a reception and buffet supper at the Owyhee, in charge of Mrs. Myrtle Enking, state treasurer, with a "surprise feature" being scheduled. Closing address Tuesday will be given by Miss Hickey.

Among those attending the convention from Twin Falls will be Miss M. Izetta McCoy, state president; Miss Bertha Tice, state corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Frankie Alworth, newly elected president. A number of others has indicated intention to attend.

JUNIOR HIGH FACULTY PICNICS

A picnic at Harrington fork picnic grounds up Rock creek was attended Saturday by members of the faculty of Twin Falls junior high school. In general charge was Lawrence Lundin.

Other committee members who helped arrange the event were Miss Laura Robinson, in charge of food, and Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Smith and Miss Winnifred Fryer. Hiking and softball were among the games played during the day.

Miss Virgil Jean Knight, Miss Virginia Shillingburg, Miss Marie Lockhart, and programs are in charge of Miss Marjorie Hansen, Miss Margaret Ankeny, Miss Marilyn Perry and Miss Doris Miller.

Special guests who have been invited to attend are Mrs. Homer M. Davis, wife of superintendent of schools; Mrs. Edward Rogel, wife of the high school principal; Mrs. John E. Hayes, national P.-T. A. officer; Mrs. Doris Bradley, county superintendent of schools; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, school nurse, and Miss M. Izetta McCoy, state officer of Business and Professional Women's clubs.

GARDEN TALK FOR HIGHLAND VIEW CLUB

Highland View club met last week at the home of Mrs. Harry Capps. Guests were friends or mothers of members, Mrs. E. M. Guest was in charge of a Mother's day program.

Mrs. John Feldhusen, guest speaker, discussed flower culture. Mrs. J. M. Morgan and Mrs. Leona Routh sang several songs. Each guest received a corsage. Prizes in the guests' contest went to Mrs. Schimke, Mrs. Routh and Mrs. Feldhusen.

Mrs. Guest was presented with Sunshine Pal gifts.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET AT CHURCH

Women's Council of the Christian church will entertain at a mother-daughter banquet Wednesday evening at the church parlors, and all mothers and daughters of the church are urged to attend.

The banquet will be served at 6:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Mark C. Cronenberg presiding as toastmaster. Twin Falls Community theater group will present a play, "A Quiet Evening at Home," under the direction of Mrs. Tom Alworth. The program committee includes Mrs. F. W. Slack, Mrs. Cronenberg and Miss Wilma Howarth. Decorations are in charge of Mrs. B. R. Dumahee, Mrs. Wayne Hancock and Mrs. Marvin Helmbolt.

Who has the answer for Professor Telequiz today?

QUESTION: If you should telephone to Honolulu, how would your voice cross the ocean? 1. Through deep-sea telephone cable? 2. On wires supported by pontoons? 3. By radio, without wires?

ANSWER: Your voice would literally be hurled by radio from powerful sending antennae on the west coast, after enormous amplification. You can talk and be heard as easily as on any long distance call.

Your home or office telephone will take you practically anywhere in the United States, and you can call foreign lands as well. The operator will be glad to tell you rates to any particular towns.

BRITAIN ASKS ITALY FOR REPLY ON WAR POSITION

RUMORS ASSERT ALLIES SEEK TO ENLIST BULGARIA

By REYNOLDS PAGEARD
ROME, May 7 (U.P.)—Diplomatic circles, regarded as authoritative, reported today Great Britain had asked Italy to define its exact position regarding the war and had expressed hope a reply would be made by May 15.

Informants asserted Sir Noel Charles, British charge d'affaires, had made the request to Count Galeazzo Ciano, foreign minister, May 1, and might have been in connection with the dispatch of allied naval reinforcements to the Mediterranean.

The newspaper Messaggero quoted in a dispatch from Sofia, as Italy expressed increasing interest in possibility of extension of the war to southeast Europe, rumors Great Britain had promised Bulgaria restitution of the Dobruja area and an outlet to the sea (presumably the Mediterranean) if she abandoned her neutrality in favor of the allies.

"Promises Not Trusted"
Messagero's dispatch added it appeared unlikely Bulgaria would alter her attitude "since it would be against her national interest, and British promises were not trusted."

The return last night to Rome of the British ambassador, Sir Percy Loraine, after a visit to London, was considered important in view of the latest developments in British-Italian relations.

Some quarters here connected efforts of President Roosevelt and France to sound possibilities of ending the European war with the reported British request to Italy to state its position.

Asks About Neutrality
In its reported representations, Britain was said to have asked directly, in effect, whether Italy really was neutral or at was.

Italy's self-selected status of "non-belligerent," it was asserted, was not regarded as satisfactory in view of the importance the allies attached to their blockade and to Italy's partnership in the Berlin-Rome axis.

British embassy quarters denied any knowledge of the reported representations.

OLDEST DIETRICH WOMAN, 88, DIES

SHOSHONE, May 7 (Special)—Kathryn Helbig Mathis, oldest resident of the Dietrich tract, died at the home of her son Sunday noon, at the age of 88.

She was born April 18, 1852 in Schiller, Tyrol, and came to America in 1870 and settled in Dubuque, Ia., where she was married to John George Mathis in 1872. He died in 1893. By his union six children were born, one of whom preceded her in death.

In 1915, Mrs. Mathis and her children came to the Dietrich tract where she has lived the past 25 years. She is survived by three sons, Fred J. Mathis, Dubuque, Ia.; Frank and Joe Mathis, Dietrich, and two daughters, Mrs. S. W. Downs and Mrs. Steve Ballard, both of Dietrich; also 10 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock from the Catholic church with Father Tracy in charge.

Burial was in the St. Joseph's cemetery, with Mrs. F. J. Burdette in charge of funeral arrangements.

Savings Allow Expanded Budget at No Tax Boost

Savings during the past fiscal year, made possible by strict economies, today have permitted the city council to adopt a budget for the coming year which provides for major improvements.

The budget, amounting to $142,225 compared to $88,680 for the past fiscal year, was adopted by the council at regular session last night. It will be raised under the same 11 mill levy. The savings of last year made it unnecessary to boost the tax rate.

Major items which this year's budget will provide for include the following:

1—Purchase of a new fire truck, $13,000 having been set aside for this necessary expenditure.

2—An increase in salaries of patrolmen $10 a month. This raise in pay was decided upon after numerous organizations had expressed the opinion that patrolmen here were underpaid.

3—Provision for more funds to spend for labor and materials to be used in improvement of city streets. Last year's labor budget was $9,000 against $18,180 this year and funds for repair materials last year came to $2,100 while this year it stands at $6,500.

4—General improvement of city parks, including that portion of Jaycee park recently given to the city. General beautification of the city. Labor budget this year is $4,100 against $3,800 last year and improvements and supplies funds are now $3,300 against the former figure of $1,630.

Commissioner Carl E. Ritchey heads the police and fire departments; Commissioner Lionel A. Dean heads the parks department and Commissioner Leonard Avant is head of the streets department.

SCOUT CAMPOREE SET HERE FRIDAY

Several score Boy Scouts, and their leaders, are expected to attend the Twin Falls district Camporee which will be held here at Harmon-Jaycee park Friday and Saturday of this week.

Dates for the Camporee and also plans were set and discussed at a session of the district Scout committee held last night at the Presbyterian church. Roy Painter, chairman, presided.

Announcement was made that leaders of all troops expecting to attend the Camporee should contact the council executive office at once in order that space might be set aside for them.

Any action on building of a district camp was deferred until a later session. Sites mentioned last night for the proposed camp included those up Rock creek, on the south fork of the Boise river, at Camp Sawtooth on Wood river and in the Stanley basin country.

A summer district camp will be staged at Camp Sawtooth but troops will be permitted to camp in other locations if they wish to do so.

Announcement was also made at last night's session that the Scout drum and bugle corps will appear at the Sun Valley rodeo Aug. 18 and 19.

The next meeting of the district group will be at the Hazelton Presbyterian church the night of Monday, June 10.

BUREAU UPHOLDS CLEAN-UP EFFORT

Members of the merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce today were on record as favoring the drive of city officials and other civic clubs to keep the downtown area clear of waste paper and like materials. The bureau urged merchants to refrain from sweeping materials of this nature into the gutters.

As an aid to keeping the area clean, the city has installed several wastepaper containers. Members of the bureau, at Monday's session, urged that these be utilized by all citizens and merchants.

President Carl N. Anderson of the Chamber of Commerce, urged activities drive captains to report in before the end of the week and also asked the merchants' bureau for a report of minimum amounts needed to carry on work until April, 1941. Chairman R. J. Vallton said he would appoint a committee of seven men to draw up such a budget and report back to the chamber in the immediate future.

A discussion was also held on "Stray Hat Week" which will be observed the middle of this month by the merchants.

Northside Group Honors Mothers

GOODING, May 7 (Special)—Northside Community club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Darling Thursday for a special Mother's day party. Gifts were presented to Mrs. J. A. Campbell and Mrs. Melvin Moore as the oldest and youngest mothers attending.

For roll call each one named his favorite song. Mrs. William Lahrn played each selection as named and the group joined in singing many of them. Two contest games were played with prizes won by Mrs. Don Fredrickson and Mrs. Kramin Billy Engels played two accordion solos. Program was under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Hawk.

The club accepted an invitation to a picnic at the home of Mrs. Jack Brown in Dietrich on Sunday, May 19. Mrs. Brown was formerly a member of Northside club. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Ethel Shoup, Mrs. Ted Wilson and Mrs. C. M. Baugh.

YANKS LOSE THIRD IN ROW; DROP TO SIXTH

Champs Routed By Tigers; Indians Regain Loop Lead

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

NEW YORK, May 7 (U.P.)—To state the case plainly, the Yankees definitely aren't what they used to be. Overnight, a fighter, a ball club or a race horse can go sour. The Yanks have lost that keen fighting edge, that extra sock—the thing that made them champions. And with it went their psychological edge over the other American league ball clubs.

The Yanks are too good a ball club to be counted out of the 1940 pennant race for keeps at this early date but they are going to face a harrowing fight to battle their way back up the ladder. Today finds them in sixth place, only one game out of the cellar and 4 1/2 games behind the league-leading Red Sox. And what's more important they face their toughest opposition during the next six days. They have one more game with the Tigers, two with the Indians and three with the Red Sox.

Loss Third Straight
The Yanks lost their third straight yesterday, bowing to the Tigers, 6-4. The champs had this game won, 4-1, going into the eighth with Red Ruffing, their ace, breathing along. Hank Greenberg homered, Elguin doubled, pinch-hitter Billy Sullivan homered and the score was tied. Then the Tigers went on to win off Johnny Murphy and Les Grissom in the ninth on two walks and Hank Greenberg's second double.

The Red Sox forged back into the van by smashing out an 8-5 triumph over the Indians. Jimmy Foss touched off a 6-run rally by hitting homer No. 6. Emerson Dickman, with some brilliant relief aid from Jack Wilson, was the winner.

Dodgers Win Again
In the other two American league games Nelson Potter outduelled John Rigney to give the Athletics a 3-2 win over the White Sox and the Browns slugged out a 11-9 victory over the Senators.

Brooklyn continued its rampage by blasting the Cardinals, 6-2, behind Luke Hamlin. Cincinnati won its fourth straight, trampling the Giants, 9-1. Billy Herman's homer in the 11th gave the Cubs a 5-4 win over the Phils and Larry French his fourth victory. The Bees won a weird game from the Pirates, 10-7, in 12 innings. The two clubs used 40 players, breaking the record of 37 set Sunday by the Dodgers-Cards.

Signs Will Be Posted on Game Reserves

BOISE, May 7 (U.P.)—Completion of a statewide sign-posting program today will thoroughly identify Idaho's 39 game preserves for the first time in history, fish and game Director Owen W. Morris announced.

The project, sponsored by the department through cooperation of federal aid under the wildlife restoration act, requires 12,000 metal signs, covering 2,043 miles of boundary lines surrounding the preserves, Morris said.

The signs will be placed a quarter mile apart on all roads, trails and other sources of entry to game preserves.

France has a coast line of 1,760 miles, of which 456 are on the Mediterranean.

2,700 Invited to Trapshoot Meet Set at Sun Valley

BOISE, May 7 (U.P.)—Ralph P. Dietrich, secretary-treasurer of the Idaho Trapshooting association, said today 2,700 marksmen from all parts of the country have been invited to take part in the Idaho state tournament.

The event will be held May 31 to June 2 at Sun Valley.

Catch

RICHFIELD, May 7 (Special)—Jimmy Kodish is only five years old—but he caught a bigger trout than many fishermen catch in a full season—or for that matter, in a life time.

Jimmy was "angling" with his father, Jim Kodish of Richfield, in Magic dam the other day and he hooked a 27-inch trout weighing in at six pounds, three ounces.

The catch was termed a "perfect" specimen.

All-Stars Lose Close Battle To Cowboys

The Twin Falls Cowboys last night edged the All-Star team by a score of 5-2 in an exhibition contest played for the benefit of the Twin Falls recreation association.

Played in chilly weather, before a small crowd, the game was a nip-and-tuck affair until the sixth inning when the Cowpunchers pushed across three runs, all unearned. The count stood 1-1 up until that time.

Jan Hansen started on the mound for the All-Star aggregation and in four innings the best the Cowboys could do was get a pair of doubles off the former University of Idaho pitcher. One was a two sacker by Tommy Beltia in the first inning and resulted in a score on an out-field fly after an error, and the other was by Ernie Endress—who died where he landed on second—despite the fact he was first man up.

Knot Count

The All-Stars knotted the count in the fourth when Harold Atkins of Buhl singled, Bob Barrett of Wendell walked and then Eldon Pederson of Jerome beat out an infield hit to fill the bases. Jan Hansen came to bat and tried a squeeze play, but hit the ball back into the hands of Paul Johnson, on the mound for the Cowboys. Atkins was forced at the plate, but Naslund threw the ball wild to first and Barrett scored. Pederson was out on a nice play by Koven and Beltia grounded out to end the uprising.

In the big Cowboy sixth, Earl Toolson of Burley was on the mound. He struck out Ken Keating, new Twin Falls man, and then fanned Tommy Koven, another new Cowboy, but George Davison, behind the plate, dropped the ball and Koven was safe at first on a wild throw. Endress and Marchi then beat out infield hits to load the bases with only one down. Johnny Vukas then forced Koven at home plate, but Bellows singled, sending in Endress, and Marchi and Naslund singled to score Vukas, but Bill Thomason, in left field, threw out Bellows at the plate—a nice, long toss.

All-Stars Score

The All-Stars' other run came in the seventh when Lee Beltia singled and Raoul Parish sacrificed him to second base. Thomason then walked and Virgil Mintun singled, scoring Beltia. Stan Barrett fled out to Vukas and Atkins walked to fill the bases, but Bob Barrett struck out.

Twin Falls added one more count in the last of the seventh. Hunk Anderson fled out, but Tommy Beltia was safe on an error. Keating singled and Koven was safe on another error in the outfield—Beltia scoring. Endress fled out to first base and Marchi did likewise to end the inning.

Whitley Jenkins pitched the last two innings for the All-Stars and for ragged support would have pitched runless ball. In fact, the Cowboys failed to get a lone earned run off three All-Star hurlers.

Batting star for the evening was Harold Atkins, the Buhl third baseman who came through with a double and single in three trips to the plate, while Ernie Endress got a double and single and Hugo Naslund a pair of singles for the winners.

Outstanding fielding play of the evening was turned in by Lee Beltia, at second base for the All-Stars, who made a beautiful stop for the losers and participated in a double play.

Rock Creek Team Trims Wood River CCC Club, 22-4

Rock Creek's CCC baseball team added another victory to its list on Sunday by turning back the Wood River CCC club here by a score of 22-4.

Venterina led the onslaught of hits and runs with five out of five, he was ably aided by E. Astarita, Remus, J. Astarita, and Murray. Airtight twirling by Ramus and Zunic kept Wood River's hits scattered. Rock Creek boys again had 19 stolen bases, making a total of 63 bases stolen in four games.

Rock Creek would like to arrange a game for Sunday, May 12, either at home or away. Communications should be addressed to Company Commander, Company 1246, Camp Rock Creek, Hansen, Ida.

Shoshone Rod and Gun Club Plants 15,000 Tiny Trout

SHOSHONE, May 7 (Special)—With the fishing season in full swing the Shoshone Rod and Gun club started the planting of fish last Sunday. With the newly constructed fish tank, built especially for transporting fish to new habitats, some of the club boys planted 9,000 from three to five-inch trout in streams around Ketchum and 6,000 in Little Wood river. These are the first fish purchased this year by the Shoshone Rod and Gun club, but members expect to have more to plant the following two Sundays. And as a policy of the club any other organization may use the new fish tank with only one stipulation, that is that the fish are planted in streams of the Wood river watershed.

Seal Infielder Leads Coast Loop Batting

(By United Press)
Ted Jennings, San Francisco infielder, is the leading batter of the Pacific Coast league with a .461 mark, according to official averages published today.

Some 23 points behind Jennings is Mike Christoff, Oakland outfielder with .438. Johnny Moore, Los Angeles outfielder, has .419; Louis Novikoff of the Angels is batting .398, with Steve Mesner and George Detore of San Diego trailing with .389 and .380, respectively. San Francisco, although tied for sixth place in the league standings leads the team batting with a mark of .495, followed by Los Angeles, 280; Seattle, 285; San Diego, 270; Portland, 266; Hollywood, 266; Oakland, 266, and Sacramento, 257.

Nick Radumich and Tom Simmons of Seattle, Jim Morris of Los Angeles and Julio Bonetti of Los Angeles still held perfect pitching records of one win and no defeats. Dick Newsom of San Diego, last week's leader, dropped behind after winning five straight, by losing his first game.

Christoff has 15 doubles to lead in that department. Johnny Barrett of the Seals goes for triples, seven of them. Novikoff has clouted 12 of the 37 home runs made by the Angels, and has driven in 39 runs. Ed Stewart of San Diego has nine sacrifice hits and Edo Vanni of Seattle has stolen seven bases. In games this week, Hollywood goes to Oakland, Seattle to Los Angeles, Portland to San Diego and San Francisco to Sacramento.

Peters Takes Jerome Low Hurdles Race

JEROME, May 7 (Special)—Three more entries today were eligible to compete in the district track and field meet at Twin Falls this week-end when the finals in the 200-yard low hurdles were run off here yesterday.

Peters of Jerome came in first in the event, while Wright and Meeker of Gooding copped second and third places, and Smith of Jerome came in fourth.

That fourth point was the margin of victory for a Jerome squad over Gooding's team—62% to 61%. The time was 25.0.

Pioneer Loop Opens Third Week of Play

(By United Press)
The Pioneer league will swing into its third week of the season Tuesday, after a day spent in traveling.

Boise Pilots, tied for first place with Pocatello, will entertain Idaho Falls, fifth place Yankee farm hands.

Pocatello will greet the Salt Lake Bees, led by Tom Robello, last year manager of Pocatello, are tied for third place with Ogden. The latter club plays at Twin Falls, last year's champions, who are in the cellar.

Boise announced it had sold Ken Keating, an outfielder, and Dick O'Boyle, a pitcher, to the Twin Falls team. The Pocatello Cardinals have picked up Catcher Red Farquharson, last year with Bellingham of the Western International, and Pitcher Jerry Shutt, released by Idaho Falls.

Plans Underway For Camp Fire Summer Outing

Plans for the annual summer camp for Camp Fire Girls at the Presbyterian church camp grounds on the north fork of Wood River from July 28 to Aug. 11 were nearing completion today after a meeting Monday of guardians from Buhl, Shoshone, Kimberly, Filer and Twin Falls at the Camp Fire office.

Themes of the camp will be "Gypsy Fair." Younger girls will attend the first week and older girls, in the eighth grade or over, the second week.

Letter will be sent to all parents and girls explaining regulations. Committee includes Mrs. N. O. Johnson, camp chairman; Mrs. Hugh Boone, Mrs. Harry Bull, Mrs. Ordis Cramer, Kimberly, Mrs. Stella Haight, Shoshone, and representatives from Buhl and Filer.

Fees paid by girls before July 8, date of the next guardians' meeting to complete plans, will be $8. If paid after that date they will be $8.50. Registration, food, health protection, craft materials and sports equipment expenses are included in the fee.

Each girl must have a health certificate signed by the private physician or the health unit, before going. There will be one counselor for every eight girls, for safety.

Camp coordinator, Mrs. Albert Lewis, Buhl, gave a demonstration of bed making, and told of tentative activities for each day. Mrs. Hansen, camp nurse, told of health measures in the past, and Mrs. Louis Adamson discussed camp costumes, which are blue shirts, shorts and slacks during the week and white middieys on Sunday and for council fires.

"Why I Want My Daughter to Go to Camp" by Mrs. H. W. Merritt was read by Mrs. Rosa. Parents are welcome to visit the camp, especially for council fires.

A Camp Fire swimmer will be held this year, it was announced. Presiding was Mrs. Gordon Day.

Guardians present from out of town included Mrs. Albert Lewis, Mrs. Gail Meuwissen, Mrs. S. C. Orr, Buhl; Mrs. D. G. Mitchell, Mrs. Stella Haight, Mrs. Vivian Hansen, Shoshone; Miss Irene Jones, Miss Mary Alice Beck, Mrs. H. Schnell, Mrs. George Erhardt, Filer, and Mrs. Clyde Urban, Kimberly.

Senior Breakfast Has Gypsy Motif

BUHL, May 7 (Special) — The gypsy springtime theme was carried out in elaborate detail at the annual breakfast of the graduating class of the Buhl high school Friday morning. The 80 guests were served the breakfast in the Mercer cafe banquet room at 8 a. m. and the rest of the day was a complete vacation for the graduates. Several picnic parties were enjoyed, other made trips to Boise, some to Sun Valley, Twin Falls and other places of interest.

The gypsy theme lent a gay and colorful atmosphere to the breakfast tables. Little gypsy covered wagons made of pipe stems and candy bars were special favors at each place and the name cards were clever gypsy hats. The programs and the menu cards held a sketch of an outdoor scene reminding them of their special day of vacation from the school.

Low bowls of sweet peas were placed intermittently along the extended tables. Denny Patrick led the class in singing of their 1940 song, with Inez Rogers playing the piano accompaniment. Miss Dorothy Peterson acted as toastmaster and announced a number by the girls' sextet, "Gypsy Moon," and the boys' quartet sang "Anchors Away" again with Miss Rogers accompanying.

The seniors of the speech class presented a one-act play entitled "Rich Man, Poor Man." Characters were Agnes Smith, Bill Babcock, Rogena Hutchinson, Inez Rogers, Ethel Davis, Denny Patrick and Louise Starkey.

Details for the annual breakfast were arranged by the senior class president, James Juker, with Charles Kollmeyer, chairman, Dorothy Peterson, Donna Beth Killian, Rosena Hutchinson and Ward Sizemore.

Special guests of the class were Supt. and Mrs. George Likness, Miss Lois Rudy, Mrs. Rose J. Wilson and Floyd Bowers, principal of the school.

Pythian Sisters To Meet Here in District Session

Pythian Sisters will attend a temple meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the American Legion Memorial hall, when final plans for a district session here Thursday will be made.

A large delegation of Pythian Sisters from Pocatello will be present. Luncheon at noon Thursday at the Legion hall will precede the afternoon session.

The district convention banquet will be held in the evening at the Park hotel, preceding the final session.

WINNERS CHOSEN IN HIT-PIN PLAY

Winners in hit-pin baseball competition for Twin Falls junior high school girls had been announced today by Miss Margaret Egbert, physical education instructor, after completion last week of play.

In the seventh grade room 116 won four games and lost none to place high. Next were rooms 210 and 012. Eighth grade winner was room 213, which won four, and rooms 115 and 113 placed next. In the ninth grade room 110 won four and lost none, and room 05 won three and lost one to place next.

All rooms in junior high participated in the rounds of play. Next activity for junior high school girls is preparation for the dance festival to be held Friday morning.

SALMON CHOSEN FOR ROAD MEET

Autumn convention of the International Four-States Highway association (U. S. 93) will be held at Salmon City, Ida., Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce officials were advised today by Robert Hays, El Centro, Calif., executive secretary. Dates for the road party are Sept. 14 and 15. Hays urged representatives from Twin Falls, Jerome, Shoshone, Hatley and other Idaho communities on U. S. 93 to attend. The session will scan U. S. 93 improvement progress, will check into the 1940 tourist flow as revealed by that time, and will draft plans for 1941.

Indian Burial Spot May Be Massacre Tip

BOISE, May 7 (U.P.)—A party of amateur explorers was completing arrangements here today for an investigation of remote burial grounds which they believe may reveal the story of one of the west's great, but little known, Indian massacres.

The party, made up of five Idaho and Washington youths, stumbled onto the spot recently about 20 miles above Bliss while they were hiking along the Snake river. First evidence of their find was a piece of rock—perfectly symmetrical in shape. Near a high chalk-like wall on the river bank the group found scores of similar round stones, arrow heads, spear heads, a clay bowl, pestle and flat rock used in grinding grain. The explorers are Sarah Morris, Billy Morris and Lulu Flick, all of Boise, and Jake Scroggie and Donald Flick, Wenatchee, Wash. Returning to Boise they identified some 60 to 70 pieces found along the river bank. Their discovery of authenticity of the objects led to an investigation of early Idaho records in the state house museum and library, from which they were partially able to reconstruct the story of Indians who roamed the Snake river banks.

Dance Festival, Track Contest Set for Friday

Annual dance festival for girls and track meet for boys of Twin Falls junior high school will be held Friday morning, under direction of physical education teachers, concluding with a picnic luncheon at Harmon park at noon. More than 200 girls will take part in the dance festival at 9 a. m., before the rest of the student body. All dances will be American folk dances. One of the 12 dances will be a surprise number, being worked out by the girls themselves. Others include the Virginia reel, "Pop Goes the Weasel," "Arkansas Traveler," "John Brown," country clog dance, circle dance, Bye waltz, "Swanee," "We Won't Be Home Until Morning," "Varsoviene," and a Camp Town hornpipe.

Following the dance festival, in the school gymnasium, the junior high track meet will be held at Lincoln field, with boys competing in usual track events. At the conclusion of the meet, luncheon will be held by home rooms at the park. Physical education teachers are Hollee Aldridge, Miss Margaret Egbert, Miss Madeline Garvin, Lawrence Lundin, Bernard Martyn and Austin Wallace.
