NAZIS GAIN AS BELGIUM QUILTS

New Defense Taxes Will Be Asked

INCREASE TO BE REQUESTED FOR U. S. DEBT LIMIT

By RONALD G. VAN TINE
WASHINGTON, May 28 (U.P.)—The administration will ask the present session of congress for new national defense taxes yielding up to $700,000,000 a year and a $3,000,000,000 increase in the national debt limit.

This was announced in a joint statement by congressional leaders, including Chairman Robert L. Doughton of the house ways and means committee and Chairman Pat Harrison of the senate finance committee, and Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, jr.

Follows Conference
The announcement followed a three-hour conference in Morgenthau's office. The statement said that President Roosevelt had been advised of the conferees' conclusions and had approved the program.

Doughton and Harrison said they would summon their committees into early meetings to formulate details of the national defense finance program.

Congress will be asked to levy additional taxes which will yield between $600,000,000 and $700,000,000 annually over a five-year period. These taxes, it was said, should be sufficient to liquidate special national defense obligations which will be sold, with maturities not to exceed five years.

Present Debt
Existing law sets a $45,000,000,000 limit on the public debt. The debt now stands at $43,788,622,292.

The new debt limit of $48,000,000,000 would leave a margin of more than $5,000,000,000 that could be borrowed.

The decision to seek new taxes this session—instead of waiting until next year, as many leaders previously had desired—almost certainly means that congress will remain in session beyond the early June adjournment goal that had been planned.

Treasury experts have been making a continuing study of various types of national defense taxes. It was understood they would be ready at a moment's notice to provide whatever data was wanted by the congressional committees.

SAFE PASSAGE IS PROMISED CRAFT

BERLIN, May 28 (U.P.)—The official news agency DNB said today Germany has assured the United States that German military units have been advised of the voyage of the American liner President Roosevelt to Galway, Eire, and the ship will be given safe passage.

"In view of the fact that American ships will cross a war zone hitherto avoided by American ships the German government has informed its military units of its intended journey and has given strict orders to allow the steamer to complete the journey without any hindrance," DNB said.

(The President Roosevelt was scheduled to arrive at Galway on Friday. Plans provide it will sail for New York on Saturday with a capacity list of 700 American refugees, most of them from the greater London area.)

TWIN FALLS BOY DIES IN U. S. BOMBER CRASH

MARCH FIELD, RIVERSIDE, Calif., May 28 (U.P.)—Army air corps headquarters today announced a B518A Douglas bomber crashed at Muroc Dry lake last night, killing six members of the crew.

Cause of the crash was not announced. The army spokesman said the accident occurred during night flight maneuvers.

The plane did not burst into flames. Only one person, Private John B. Stewart of Midway, Okla., survived. He was flown to Letterman hospital in San Francisco. His condition was reported as critical.

The dead:
Lieut. Jess A. Smith, 30, of Woodrow, Colo., the pilot.
Lieut. Charles A. Nisbett, 25, Alton, Ill., co-pilot.
Thurman T. Owens, Ardmore, Okla.
Wayne Z. Kauffman, Burlington, Ia.
Doyle H. Bean, Kirbyville, Tex.
Eugene A. Schulz, Twin Falls, Ida.

Muroc Dry lake is in the Mojave desert 80 miles northeast of here and is used regularly by the army for practice bombing maneuvers.

The plane was attempting to land when it crashed, the army spokesman said.

BOMBER'S CRASH TAKES ONLY SON

Eugene A. Schulz, 19, who was killed in an army bomber crash in California last night, was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Schulz, 305 Fourth street north, Twin Falls.

The family came to this section of Idaho about four years ago from Indiana and Eugene first enrolled at the Piler high school. He later transferred to the Twin Falls high school and was graduated with the class of 1939.

Enlisted in 1939
He enlisted in the U. S. Army through the local recruiting station on Sept. 14, 1939 and was immediately assigned to the air corps, being stationed at March field, Calif., about 100 miles from the dry lake where he met his death, along with five other army fliers. He was ranked as a private, first class, at the time of his death.

The youth accompanied other army fliers from March field to Salt Lake City early in this month and spent Mother's day, May 12, with his parents in Twin Falls. He returned to Salt Lake to join the other fliers and then flew on to Texas where maneuvers were being held.

Card Yesterday
Only yesterday his mother received a card from him from Texas. On the card he gave no indication that the bomber was to return to March field at so early a date. His mother still thought he was in Texas.

News of the tragedy was given to the parents by an Evening Times reporter after the story of the crash had been received over the United Press wire. The parents had not yet received word from army officials that their son was among the six killed.

Adopt Student
School officials here termed young Schulz as an adopt student who ranked high in his class. In all probability the body will be brought back to Twin Falls for burial, although no plans had been made late this afternoon.

BOY DROWNS IN DITCH
IDAHO FALLS, Ida., May 28 (U.P.)—The Bonneville county sheriff's office reported today Fordell Egan, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Egan, drowned in an irrigation ditch near their home at Ammon.

DECEIT CHARGED IN DEMOS' WORK ON U. S. DEFENSE

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON, May 28 (U.P.)—Republican charges of deceit and laxity in preparing for national defense fired the political forecasts and aroused the administration to sharp protest today.

Last night's air was laden with the Republican attack by actual and potential presidential candidates. They charged cabinet jobs were in the wrong hands in an emergency.

Former President Herbert C. Hoover boomed loudest with a demand for a non-political munitions administrator to manage national armament and production and have charge of defense money. Administration spokesmen complained it was a partisan assault and announced Assistant Secretary of War Louis Johnson will reply over the NBC blue network at 7:30 p. m. MST, today.

Austin "King"

Republicans addressed themselves in part to Mr. Roosevelt's Sunday fireside chat in which he outlined the state of national defense. One Republican was comparatively kind to the Roosevelt administration. Assistant senate Republican leader Warren R. Austin said:

"On national defense we are united. The strong harmony of our action taken last week is actuated more by the conviction that this is necessary for our own tranquility than by the emotion excited by the abhorrence of the wrong involved in the inhuman and horrible slaughter of peaceful noncombatants and the ruthless and barbaric invasion of neutral countries.

"We perceive the significance of the penetration of Latin America by totalitarian foreign policy and the phenomenon of the fifth column. Notwithstanding the imminence of a presidential election, in which there is keen competition, Republicans and Democrats volunteer in a great unit to save our country. National defense and foreign relations are not a party issue. Their administration usually is."

Hit at Policies
But other speakers hit hard at Roosevelt policies and national defense performance. Frank Gannett, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said in Portland.

LABORER HELD IN RAILWAY MURDER

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 28 (U.P.)—Lawrence O'Lally, 40-year-old Buffalo laborer, was held by police today as the confessed attacker of Frank D. Cooper, 62, Chicago executive of the Union Pacific railroad, who was assaulted fatally in his hotel room here Friday.

O'Lally walked into a police station and announced he was the "shabbily-dressed" man sought as a suspect in the fatal attack. O'Lally told police he met Cooper, chief transportation agent for the railroad, in a tavern Friday evening.

"We had several drinks together and then Cooper invited me to his room for more," police quoted O'Lally.

The prisoner allegedly admitted he had attacked Cooper with his fists "after a few drinks in his room."

BOTT CONFERS ON TAYLOR'S RULING

BOISE, May 28 (U.P.)—Gov. C. A. Bottelton conferred with heads of the state tax commission and department of finance today regarding an attorney general's opinion pinning the two departments under supervision of State Auditor Calvin E. Wright.

The governor, Tax Commissioner Byron Dofenbach and Finance Commissioner G. L. Jenkins discussed the decision. After the conference, Bottelton said he had no statement to make.

Yesterday Attorney General J. W. Taylor informed Dofenbach and Jenkins they "must function as appointees of the state auditor."
Asked today whether his opinion that all taxes should be collected by the state auditor would also apply to supervision of the state corporation tax, motor vehicle tax and taxes collected by the department of agriculture, Taylor said these taxes would probably be classified as "fees" and would continue to be collected by the present department.

King Leopold Surrenders as Troops Overrun His Nation

He Surrenders Belgian Armies

King Leopold today was being branded as a traitor by the Allies after he ordered the surrender of his troops to the invading Nazi armies. Here he is shown strolling with his two children, Crown Prince Baudoin and Princess Josephine-Charlotte. The children are reported in southern France.

Surrender Is Called 2nd Tragic Blunder For Belgium's King

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press War Expert

The precarious situation of the Anglo-French troops in Flanders due to King Leopold's arbitrary surrender is the second tragic military blunder the impetuous young monarch has made to the detriment of his country during his brief reign.

In 1936, two years after he became king, Leopold cancelled Belgium's military entente with France and Great Britain. He showed his forceful, headstrong character by this act, trusting to his own immature opinion rather than to expert opinion, just as today he has disregarded the judgment of his ministers, and capitulated on his own initiative.

Leopold believed in 1936 that his denunciation of Belgium's military agreement with France and Great Britain would save his country from a German invasion in the event of a new European war. He trusted the Germans. For that reason, when Hitler violated Belgium's neutrality 18 days ago, the allies were unable to assist Belgium immediately, and the country was overrun.

After thus jeopardizing his own country, Leopold, by his wilful surrender, now has gravely handicapped the Anglo-French forces to whom he appealed so ardently for help.

Must Revise Strategy
General Weygand now must rapidly revise the strategy of the Flanders fighting, but it is improbable that the Anglo-French troops within the Flanders area can hold back the Germans now that some twenty miles of battle front on the northern flank have been given to the Germans.

General Weygand thus has to consider whether to order an allied withdrawal in force or to launch a great major counter-offensive. It might seem better judgment to effect a withdrawal, since a counter-offensive would mean enormous losses to the French with no adequate gain that is yet apparent.

Way for Retreat
Whether channel ports still are open to a British retreat back to England, following King Leopold's capitulation is not yet known. But a swing southwestward, in the form of a semi-circle, would seem a possible way of retreat, the pivot being the newly established French positions in the vicinity of Valenciennes.

German occupation of the channel coast, which would be the consequence of this maneuver, would represent the end of the present phase of the war.

By FREDERICK C. OECHSNER

BERLIN, May 28 (U.P.)—German armies, following up the surrender of the Belgian army under King Leopold, drove along the Belgian coast today towards the French port of Dunkirk.

A high command communique said that "the great battle of Artois and Flanders had reached its climax."

The communique, issued from Fuehrer Adolf Hitler's field headquarters, said the air force had bombed Zeebrugge, Ostend, Nieuport and Dunkirk harbors as well as railroad lines leading to them and ships lying in their harbors.

German troops were standing outside Bruges and Thourout, the communique said.

North of Valenciennes and south of Tournai on what the Germans refer to as the southern front, the Germans claimed to have broken through strong French border fortifications and to have crossed the Scheldt canal west of Valenciennes.

The communique said that on the southern front enemy tank attacks were repelled successfully and that 30 enemy tanks had been destroyed.

Allied air losses yesterday were placed at 91 planes and the Germans admitted loss of 23 planes.

Following an announcement from Hitler's field headquarters Leopold's Belgian army had capitulated unconditionally to the Germans, the high command said German troops had broken stubborn resistance and had pressed the enemy closer "while air attacks caused their destruction."

The communique placed the German forces at seven miles from Bruges and Thourout and said they had passed Thelot on their way down the Belgian coast.

French Line Broken

Describing the assault on the French fortifications in the Valenciennes area the high command said German forces had captured Douai, Orchies, Bassee, Merville, Hazebrouk and Bourboughville. As a result, the long French fortifications north of Valenciennes were broken through, the communique said.

An enemy destroyer was "severely hit" by a bomb in the English channel, the high command said, and it was claimed a German speedboat had sunk an enemy transport vessel of 3,000 tons.

Authorized quarters said the Belgians had been crushed "after very heroic fighting both in the homeland and after they had been pocketed by the Germans in France."

The announcement by the Germans of the Belgian surrender said: "The Belgian army thus today laid down its arms and ceased to exist," the announcement said.

Leopold's abdication, according to the German demands for unconditional capitulation," it added.

"Under the destroying effect of the German weapons, the Belgian king decided to end further pointless resistance and to request an armistice."

"Humanitarian Action"
Discussing the capitulation, authorized military quarters said it was a humanitarian action by Leopold in the face of "futile resistance" before the crushing German blitzkrieg.

Retirement of the Belgian forces from the war, it was said, would result in early defeat of the remaining British and French forces bottled up along the French-Belgian border, would strengthen the German foothold on the English channel coast and lead to the eventual invasion of Great Britain.

Complement encirclement of the allies in Flanders now was only a matter of days, it was said. Once surrounded, this force will have to flee to Great Britain under a hail of bombs, or face total destruction, the Germans said.

Belgian King Is Dethroned

PARIS, May 28 (U.P.)—King Leopold III has been deprived of the Belgian throne, a radio statement by Belgian Premier Hubert Pierlot said today.

A few hours after announcement Leopold had surrendered the Belgian army to the Germans, the refugee premier declared all Belgian officials were released from their oath of allegiance to the king and that the monarch had been repudiated.

Pierlot repudiated the surrender of the Belgian army. "Disregarding the government's formal and unanimous advice, the king opened separate negotiations and treaties with the enemy," Pierlot said.

"Belgium will be astounded but the shortcomings of one man cannot be imputed to the entire nation.

"No act of the king has effect unless it is counter-signed by his minister. This principle is absolute. It is a fundamental rule of our institutions."

"Must Save Honor"

The refugee leaders said the Belgian cabinet decided on civil and military mobilization of Belgians, on French soil if necessary.

"We must save our honor," Paul Hymans, former premier said after a meeting of parliamentary leaders in Paris.

There were various accounts of the surrender of the king to the Germans. It was understood, the king broached the idea of capitulation to members of the Pierlot cabinet after emphasizing his view that it was useless to continue. The entire cabinet rejected the idea, it was stated here.

Secret Negotiations

Then, according to French charges, the king proceeded to negotiate secretly with the Germans. One alleged version of the negotiations said the king attempted "to get an armistice which would have frozen the armies where they stood and prevented the surrender of the Belgian army although it would have disarmed."

Adolf Hitler, however, refused such terms, it was reported, and ordered the immediate occupation of all Belgian territory and seizure of supplies.

Times-News Win National Recognition, Award Mention in Community Service

National recognition is being given the Idaho Evening Times and Twin Falls News this week by "Editor & Publisher," recognized by all American newspapers, large and small, as the outstanding trade journal of its kind in the United States.

Commending the Twin Falls newspapers for their community service and suggesting that their record is worthy of consideration for a Pulitzer award, a recognition highly prized by American journalism, Arthur Robb, editor of "Editor & Publisher," devotes nearly a half page of his "Editorial Thirty" department in the publication's current issue to the Idaho Evening Times and Twin Falls News.

Bridge and Scenic Help
Editor Robb is particularly impressed with the part the Twin Falls newspapers have played in removing the toll from the Twin Falls-Jerome intercounty bridge and the stand they have taken in seeking to save the vicinity's few remaining natural beauty spots from development by the power interests.

Pulitzer prize awards for 1939, beyond those which survived the judges' preliminary eliminations," wrote Editor Robb, "and there were one or two of which we had not heard until after nominations for 1939 were formally closed.

Public Service
"An award for public service may well go to a newspaper for services unheard of beyond its own bailiwick, since there are relatively few newspapers so heavily gunned as to be heard far across country. The nature of newspaper public service, in the majority of instances, must be intensely local, which detracts not a bit from its importance. A healthy democracy is the sum of healthy localities.

"Take the case of the Twin Falls (Idaho) Times and News," he pointed out. "The majority of easterners would be puzzled to locate Twin Falls within 500 miles of its proper site, but it is home for about 13,000 people and the shopping center for about 20,000 folks in southern Idaho. While we've never made a stop there, we gather that it is the focus for a fairly prosperous farming area.

The city is about at the center of a rough triangle the corners of which would be Boise, Pocatello, and Salt Lake City—none of them within 100 or 140 miles. A daily newspaper means something to people in that sort of civilization. There is no other public spokesman loud enough to be heard."

Editor Robb then continued to explain how the Twin Falls newspapers about five years ago began a fight to have the tolls removed from a bridge on trans-continental highway No. 93," and how the campaign was eventually carried through two sessions of the legislature, two political campaigns, and the state supreme court, with the final result that the state purchased the bridge and the toll was removed.

Recalls Louisville Fight
"The Times and News have another victory on their banners, reminiscent of the fight the Louisville Times made several years ago to preserve beautiful Cumberland Falls from destruction by the small power interests." Editor Robb concluded.

Public Assistance Costs Show Climb

BOISE, May 28 (U.P.)—Public Welfare Commissioner Emory Afton announced today the state paid out $3,346 during April for all types of public assistance.

The total represents an increase of $4,205 over the previous month and an increase of $25,906 over the same month in 1939. Payments to recipients of old-age benefits and aid to dependent children, was principally responsible for the increase, Afton said.

KILLED EXECUTED

CARSON CITY, Nev., May 28 (U.P.)—William H. Boyd was executed in the Nevada lethal gas chamber this morning for murder in Elko three months ago of a Negro couple.

JAPANESE CRAFT RAID CHUNGKING

CHUNGKING, China, May 28 (U.P.)—Japanese planes in a raid today dropped about 500 bombs on a mile square area of Chungking which contains key government organizations and foreign embassies. It was estimated by Chinese that 1,000 persons were killed or wounded.

About 100 Japanese airplanes participated in the raid, the third in three days. Total casualties in the three raids were said by Chinese officials to be at least 5,000.

An estimated 700 houses were demolished and 1,000 damaged today.

BELGIAN ARMY MAY REBEL AGAINST SURRENDER ORDER

ENGLAND TERMS LOSS OF TROOPS NEAR 'DISASTER'

BY WALLACE CARROLL
LONDON, May 28 (AP)—Belgium's army, or part of it at least, may rebel against a surrender order by King Leopold and fight on beside the allies, it was reported in authoritative quarters today.

Not only are large Belgian forces now training in France, where members of the Belgian government and parliament already have repudiated the surrender order, but it was held the king, as active commander-in-chief of his army, was not empowered to act alone without the advice of his government.

Britain, already preparing urgently for a German blitzkrieg invasion, received as a disaster today the announcement the 38-year-old king had surrendered, as chief in command, his army which totals 1,000,000 men and has 300 airplanes.

Military and political quarters agreed the position of the British expeditionary force in Belgium, which had formed the center of the allied northern line immediately south of the Belgians, was now most precarious.

It was forecast the BEF most likely would be forced to attempt to escape across the English channel or to fight its way through the powerful German wedge to join the main French army. The channel escape choice was believed the likely one, provided the British forces could reach Dunkirk and Ostend before they were cut off by the Germans.

British Troop Evacuated
It was disclosed authoritatively that British troops caught in Boulogne in the German coastal advance had been evacuated to England—presumably late last week—by about 10 destroyers "under a hellish fire."

News of Leopold's capitulation came, through Premier Paul Reynaud's speech, as Britons on their way to work were already reading in their morning newspapers that even with the aid of the Belgians, the allied army of the north, including the entire British expeditionary force, was in a situation of extreme gravity under ceaseless, relentless German attacks.

The allied left wing had vanished as into the air; the path of the Germans to Dunkirk, chief allied supply base on the channel and just north of Calais, only 24 miles from the English coast, had been laid wide open by the Belgian king's order.

Leopold Denounced
What could be retrieved was for the moment unclear, Reynaud, denouncing Leopold bitterly and contemptuously, had announced that his own government, implicitly repudiating his surrender order, had made it known it would put all its strength into the allied cause and would raise a new Belgian army in France.

Leopold, rushing into action as had his heroic father, King Albert, had taken active command of his army at the start of the blitzkrieg 18 days ago after appealing to Britain and France for aid.

It was recalled by Britons now that he was not only the son of Albert but the brother of Crown Princess Marie Joseph of Italy, wife of Crown Prince Humbert. This was one of the first reactions here.

Dismissals included Frank Ellsworth and Mrs. J. C. Winkler, both of Filer, Gregory Bolcher, Twin Falls, and Miss Larel Barton, Murtaugh.

TOWN HALL WILL NAME PRESIDENT

Election of president and secretary and mapping of plans for 1940-41 will feature the first meeting of the Twin Falls Town Hall club's new board of directors Wednesday, June 5, President J. A. Cederquist announced this afternoon.

The 20-member board will meet at 7 p. m. June 5 at the Rogerson hotel private dining room. Directors include 10 men and 10 women from Twin Falls and neighboring communities.

Benjamin Franklin, executive secretary of the national organization, will attend.

Directors will chart details for the coming year's program and will select a speakers' committee to give the lectures for the 1940-41 year.

Relection of Mr. Cederquist, who has been president since the Town Hall was formed here two years ago, and of Mrs. Vivian Carlson, secretary, is regarded as virtually certain.

Pioneer U.S. Army Sergeant Passes

COEUR D'ALENE, Ida., May 28 (AP)—Funeral services for Ludwig Roper, 84, retired U. S. army sergeant and veteran of many Indian wars in frontier days of the northwest, were arranged today.

Roper, who saw service in Wyoming, Montana and Nebraska, died late yesterday of a heart ailment. He was a member of the expedition which quelled Sitting Bull's uprising and was present when the party came upon mutilated bodies of Gen. George Custer's troops after the massacre by Indian warriors under Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse.

U. S. Town Hall Founder Coming To Session Here
The founder of one of America's most significant informational movements of recent years will be a Twin Falls guest next week.

He is Benjamin Franklin, founder of the Town Hall movement in the nation. Mr. Franklin, a resident of New York City, informed Twin Falls Town Hall club leaders today that he will be able to attend the local organization's initial directorship meeting of the year.

The session will be a dinner gathering at the Rogerson hotel Wednesday, June 5.

Mr. Franklin, in addition to being founder, is also the executive secretary of the Associated Town Hall clubs of America. As such he is the active head of Town Hall and Knife and Fork clubs throughout all sections of the nation.

Wendell Willkie, president of Commonwealth and Southern corporation and a candidate for the G. O. The best army the nation could call, he said, would be to enlist 10,000,000 unemployed in productive jobs.

District Attorney Thomas E. VIGILANTE CHIEF GIVES UP POST

Resignation of the whisker vigilante chairman, Blaine O. Van Ausdell, left the Junior Chamber of Commerce board committee looking for a new "viggle" leader today.

Van Ausdell advised Chairman George Detwiler and Max B. Miller, associate chairman, that personal business prevents him from giving "adequate time" to the vigilante post.

W. W. Lowery, who had been co-chairman with Van Ausdell, resigned earlier after accepting a west end post with the weed bureau.

Board committeemen said they had several choices in mind for vigilante chairman. They added that the kangaroo court and jail had been taken away from the Fidelity

National bank corner because of merchant requests that the big platform be moved around at intervals. A suitable trailer of sturdy construction was being sought today to make the kangaroo jail portable.

Meanwhile, heads of the whisker campaign reiterated their statement that "beards are very decidedly wanted" in helping to publicize the Magic City jubilee. They cited numerous instances in which bearded other Idaho and Utah cities, and have found the beards recognized as a Twin Falls "trademark."

In fact I think we'll have the boys at Union Oil Stations greet you as you drive in with just such little songs — if Western Union can do it, why can't we! Singing Lubrication!

Well, song or no song, ever notice how your motor seems to want to go like the dickens when you've just had 'er filled with Triton? It's like the horse we had at home — give her a bag of oats and she'd almost stand on her head.

Our engineers tell me their scientific tests show good reason for this improved performance you get with Triton.

They've perfected a means of refining Triton that makes it a 100% pure paraffin base oil. Besides, it forms so very little carbon, itself, that it allows your motor to burn up the old carbon left by other oils!

It usually happens in 2 to 3 thousand miles. I know it deer, because I use it in my Hispano-Plymouth, and I get nary a ping, even when I tramp the foot pedal all the way to the floor.

Say, look, do me a favor — when you buy oil next time, get Triton. Tell the stationman that John Clinton sent you in. If he doesn't drop dead, you'll get the best crankcase lull you've ever had.

Hoover Calls for Non-Political Aid in Building U. S. Defenses

7 ESSENTIALS ON BEING PREPARED LISTED IN TALK

NEW YORK, May 28 (U.P.)—Former President Herbert Hoover repeated last night to President Roosevelt's fireside chat of Sunday with a call for a non-political, single-headed munitions administration to build United States defenses.

In a nationwide speech over the National Broadcasting company's system, Mr. Hoover warned against panic in considering the nation's defense needs and against political distribution of money appropriated for defense.

He criticized the "partisan flavor" of the President's Sunday address, and noted that although Adolf Hitler rose to power in Germany and European rearmament was at its height during the Roosevelt administration, the nation still was unprepared.

He listed seven essentials of an efficient organization for "real preparedness." They were:

1. That a munitions administration be created in Washington.
 2. That it should have a single-headed administrator with assistant heads for labor, agriculture and industry.
 3. That administrator should be an industrialist and not a politician.
 4. That he should have authority to appoint a non-partisan advisory board representing the army, navy, labor, transportation, manufacturing and agriculture.
 5. That the whole of the purchasing and manufacturing for the army and navy from private industry should be done by this administrator. The business of the army and navy is to state what they want. It is for the munitions administrator to deliver it.
 6. That a research organization should be created to constantly improve these products.
 7. That all appropriations for such work should be made to this organization.
- "The increasing dangers in the world make it imperative that we be better prepared," Mr. Hoover said. "But equally the time has come when the American people must insist that adequate organization be set up within the government which will produce this defense. It must be an organization directed by men of outstanding experience in production management and labor unhampered by partisan politics."

Crop Loan Called Stabilizer In War Market Uncertainties

War and resulting market uncertainties will make the commodity loan an important tool for keeping farm income stabilized, according to Kenyon Green, member of the Twin Falls county agricultural conservation committee in charge of commodity loans.

Green today announced continuation of the loan program on wheat and inauguration of a barley loan program for grain harvested in 1940.

"Developments in Europe, their effect on export possibilities for wheat and barley, and the depression of domestic markets in recent weeks will make it necessary for Twin Falls county farmers to use every tool they have to maintain proper price relationships," he said.

"The countries at war are buying immense stores of manufactures from the United States, and are cutting down on their purchases of agricultural products. Meanwhile, one neutral country after another is being wiped off our customer list.

"The outlook demands cooperative action on the part of every farmer to keep farm income on an even keel."

Green said rates for 1940 wheat loans are virtually the same as for 1939. No. 3 red winter wheat has been given a 77-cent terminal rate at Kansas City, two cents over last year. The Portland rate for No. 1 soft white wheat remains at 73 cents per bushel. Local loan rates are based on terminal rates less freight and handling charges.

Barley loans in Idaho will be made only on farm-stored barley and will be made until Dec. 31, 1940. No storage allowance will be made for farm storage of loan barley, the committee member said. Loan rates follow:

No. 1 barley, 35 cents a bushel; No. 2, 34 cents; No. 3, 32 cents; No. 4, 29 cents; No. 5, 25 cents. A discount of 2 cents a bushel will be made for mixed barley. Tough, stained, blighted, smutty, garlicky, weevily, orgy, or bleached barley will not be eligible for loans.

The 1940 program marks the third consecutive year for loans on wheat while barley loans are being offered for the first time this year, it was announced. Commodity credit corporation will make the loans, and last year's policy of handling loan paper through local lending agencies is expected to be followed this year.

RANCH CLEAN-UP CONTEST MAPPED

JEROME, May 28 (Special)—Extensive plans are being arranged this week for the big clean-up contest, annual event sponsored by the North Side Pomona Grange organization, with the assistance of the FFA and Four-H organizations, and the Jerome Senior Chamber of Commerce.

Farmers will be contacted by FFA boys and Four-H club members and various committeemen. Final judging will be left to the committee which was appointed by the North Side Pomona, and they will work with the Jerome Chamber of Commerce. It was announced that all organizations which have an agriculture committee are urged to help make weeds and remove obstructions along the roadways, and thereby improve the appearance of the rural areas.

Rules of the contest are as follows:

All farmers are eligible to make entries in the contest whether they are owners or renters of the farm. Entries in the contest must be made upon the blanks obtained at the Jerome Chamber of Commerce offices in the post office buildings on the second floor or at the Jerome county extension agent's office in the basement of the courthouse; all entries must be in the office on or before Aug. 15, 1940; the contest is limited to the area in the west portion of Jerome county, tributary to Jerome; the area is divided into seven sections with the boundaries corresponding to the seven precincts.

These are Grandview, northeast Jerome, northwest Jerome, southeast Jerome, southwest Jerome, Canyonside and Falls City. Three or more prizes will be awarded the winner of the entire area; the contest will close on Oct. 1, 1940 and final judging will close as of that date; the judging contest shall be decided upon by the following points: 90 per cent for cleanliness and freshness from weed growth and obstructions along the fence lines; 10 per cent for the general appearance of the entire farm.

Building improvements on the farm are not taken into consideration. Prizes will be donated by the Jerome merchants and the grand sweepstakes prize will be donated by the Jerome senior Chamber of Commerce, it was announced.

Jerome's G. O. P. Ladies Plan Tea

JEROME, May 28 (Special)—Every Republican lady of Jerome who is interested in national issues of the day will be welcomed at a tea to be arranged at 2 p. m. June 6, at the residence of Mrs. Frank Thomas, Main avenue east, when Mrs. Emma Clouchek, Twin Falls, Idaho, committee woman, is scheduled to speak on national and state issues.

Republican ladies held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Chas. F. Zeller where Dr. Zeller gave a talk on the issues facing the G. O. P. in this campaign. The meeting was well attended and following his talk Dr. Zeller answered a number of questions.

Mrs. H. G. Duffin of Jerome, gave an interesting article and also spoke. Mrs. M. A. Bishop gave a talk also on why the tariff is still a live issue. The meeting was then opened for discussion.

Mrs. O. R. Peterson took charge of the meeting as chairman in the absence of Mrs. A. L. Pyle. Mrs. Thomas was appointed as temporary secretary to take minutes of the meeting.

Committees on arrangements for the tea include Mrs. Gilbert White, chairman; Mrs. E. W. Sinclair and Mrs. William N. Hardwick; ten committee, Mrs. L. M. Zug, chairman; Mrs. W. A. Hess and Mrs. Earl K. Kennedy; invitations, Mrs. M. A. Bishop, chairman, Mrs. Wilford Deek and Mrs. Lee S. Johnson.

Other speakers on the program are: Clarence W. Thomas, Burley attorney, representative of Idaho State Bar association, who will discuss "Probate of Foreign Wills"; Secretary of State George Curtis, Boise, who will speak on "Idaho's Parole System"; and Clyde S. Pritchard, Boise, acting supervisor of child welfare service, who will discuss "Child Welfare Service in Relation to Juvenile Work."

Other speakers and their topics will be: Dr. Edith A. Davis, Boise, psychologist for the department of public welfare, "Psychology in Relation to Juvenile Work"; C. N. Crutshank, St. Anthony, parole officer for the state industrial school, "Juvenile Problems in the State Industrial School"; Probate Judge How-

TREASURER UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, May 28 (Special)—"Elected treasurer." Four times since November has Wallace Christensen, junior from Saco, Mont., heard these words about himself.

It all started last Thanksgiving when he was chosen chief money-tender of the Northwest Lutheran Students association. The Idaho chapter of the organization elected him treasurer for the second semester last January.

In recent elections, Christensen was chosen treasurer of Sigma Delta, upperclassmen's Journalism honorary, and Willis Sweet hall for next year.

PROBE CONTINUES ON BUND, "REDS"

WASHINGTON, May 28 (U.P.)—The justice department is "keeping up to date" its 1937 investigation of the German-American Bund and is indexing the names of all known members of the Bund and the Communist party, it was revealed today.

These activities were revealed by a justice department spokesman at the federal bureau of investigation pressed a nation-wide drive against fifth column activities.

The spokesman said the indexing of names was being made because members of the Bund and the Communist party owed at least a secondary, if not a primary, allegiance to a foreign power.

Former Attorney General Homer S. Cummings ordered the bund inquiry in August, 1937, and FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover made a progress report in April, 1939. The bund's activities were not found then to violate any federal law. A flood of complaints over-taxed

Declo Girl Weds In Paul Service

DEOLO, May 28 (Special)—Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Naomi Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beldon Anderson, Declo, to Daniel King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave King, Paul.

The young couple was united in marriage by Bishop Elmer Helmer at the home of the bridegroom's parents Saturday evening. Miss Verona Konrad acted as bridesmaid and Clyde Yagelo was best man.

Mr. King returns the first of the week to Missoula, Mont., where he is stationed in the United States army.

Mrs. King is a junior in Declo high school, and she will make her home at Declo with her grandmother for the summer.

Spud Buyer Wins Court Judgment

JEROME, May 28 (Special)—A judgment in the amount of $742.28 was granted in favor of H. L. Ellis, Jerome potato buyer, in district court last week. Hearing the case was District Senior Judge T. Bailey Lee of Burley.

In the case, Ellis claimed that he overpaid W. R. Allen, Jerome, the sum of $769.94 for a number of sacks of potatoes. Ellis contended that the payment was an oversight on his part.

Hearing the case were the following jurymen: William A. Becker, Guy Dellinger, Joseph Note, W. H. Claar, Sam Hatmaker, John L. Gould, C. D. Schmidgall, R. B. Lowe, D. S. Boyd, E. M. Greene and Carl Walters.

DANGER SERIAL STORY ROMANCE AHEAD BY TOM HORNER

YESTERDAY, Larry refused to let himself fall in love with Monnie until he has learned more about her. "Listen, Larry. You almost kissed me. So what? I'm glad you didn't. So are you. Now forget it ever happened. I have. . . Now I'm in a hurry. Mike just called."

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON By BRUCE CATTON Evening Times Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON, May 28 — An amazing and gruesome story of illness, insanity and death suffered by workers in the viscose rayon industry because of poisonous fumes inhaled while on the job is told in a report just published by the department of labor.

They Sleep the Sleep Unbroken Nothing, not the rumble of steel monsters, not the chatter of machine-guns, nor the tearing explosions of bombs, can break the sleep of the dead we honor this Memorial day.

CHAPTER IX MONNIE's car was safely parked in the garage by the time Larry reached the curbs. He undid the black trunk, turned him loose, then hurried to the back of the garage. He had hoped to find boot tracks but there were no footprints in the dust to tell him anything, and he wasn't enough of a tracker to pick out the most recent set.

THE night trick gave Larry plenty of time to watch for the return of the mysterious plane. He went to town for a pair of field glasses, borrowed a carbine from Barnes and spent every night from midnight until dawn perched on a hill overlooking the canyon road.

THOUSANDS TO GO ON ARMY, NAVY PAYROLLS Vast expansion of army and navy civilian payrolls is just ahead. The navy figures it will add 15,000 workers almost immediately, and upward of 60,000 eventually, mostly in the navy yards and at various shore stations.

But there was a day, April 2, 1917, when the ascetic and haggard face of a President focussed the eyes of congress, and his words were measured as they rolled on.

CHAPTER X BARNES let him sleep late the next morning. It was Sunday, and there was no work to be done. Shortly before noon Larry saw Monnie come from the house, go to her car. He halted her.

Gun Assortment of Buhl Boy Spans Many Decades

By MRS. OLIN SMITH
BUHL, May 28 (Special)—As another Memorial day nears with the entire world turned to guns and improved implements of warfare, it is timely to note the changes that have been made in guns since Civil war days.

Warren Berry, a member of the Buhl high school graduating class of this spring and son of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Berry, through his work in the local national guard unit became interested in guns and has amassed a collection of 22 pistols and guns of many makes which cover the era from pre-Civil war time to the present date of the most skillful warfare manufacture.

Various Sizes
In this collection are guns of various types, sizes and shapes. He has shown special interest in the different stages of firearm development and can describe in minute detail the most complicated obsolete models. All guns have been "worked over" and fired by their youthful owner.

The oldest muzzle loader which may have been used in the Mexican war was used by a federal sharp shooter in the Civil war and was later given his paternal grandfather and thus to the local lad. This is the only gun of the collection bearing no date. It is five feet long, weighs approximately 16 pounds and is of the "hair trigger" type. (The rear trigger cocks the forward trigger which might be set off with a stiff blade of grass).

Civil War Gun

The gun considered the best army musket, he purchased for $1.25 from a friend. It was used in the Civil war by the federals and came across the plains in a covered wagon to be used in an engagement with the Indians. It later found its way to Mountain Home where it was accidentally found by its present owner. A .58 caliber bullet is used in the gun and it bears the date 1850. The third rifle seen in action during the Civil war days is a muzzle loader that has been converted into a cartridge firing gun by means of sawing out part of the breach, drilling a chamber and putting a lock and firing pin into it. This particular gun was one of the first cartridge guns made to be used in the war. It was manufactured first in 1861 and made into a cartridge type in 1864. It fires a .50 caliber bullet.

Warren considers his most interesting pistol a cap and ball revolver that was used in the Civil war. It is a Colt six shooter .45 caliber and is exceptionally large for a pistol, measuring an overall length of 14 inches. It bears the date, 1850.

Powder Horns

Powder horns are a necessary accompaniment to muzzle loaders. Warren has made two and considers the "making" a very hard job. He described the process thusly: "First you get the cow's horn fresh. Boil it until the tissues are cooked. This causes the bone in the center to contract and come out. Then it must be placed outside to ripen."

He commented, "I say outside, but that isn't necessary because the smell is so vile you couldn't stand it inside." This laying out process is called ripening and requires several days. Each powder horn has a small opening in the end used to fill the muzzle loading rifles or pistols.

The powder is measured accurately into a cap and then forced down the barrel of the gun by putting a lead ball or slug down on top of it by means of a ramrod. Small flannel patches soaked in oil are sometimes placed over the bore and the ball placed on top forcing it down against the powder. Using a patch makes the ball fit more firmly and the oil acts as a lubricant for the barrel of the gun. After all this a percussion cap is placed on the nipple which has a hole through it that leads down into a powder charge.

When the hammer of the gun is tripped by the trigger it hits the percussion cap which explodes and in turn sets off the powder charge in the rifle, discharging the bullet. All muzzle loaders have to be reloaded for each shot. For a longer range it would be necessary to raise the rear sights and use a larger charge of powder.

"Simple if you're used to it, but an amateur needs a little time," commented the youthful expert who has shot all of these "old timers" often. "Some of them look pretty hard but they are in A-1 condition, and were beauties in their day."

Another Horn

In the gun room is a third horn, resembling the powder horn if you don't know your horns. This one Warren also made. It is highly polished, measures 16 inches in length and hangs from a leather string around his neck. This was described as a "call horn." They were used to give signals in the Civil war, and were also used by the Indians in calling their dogs.

"This particular horn has a deep and unexplainable sound and should be used somewhere on the desert between Buhl and Boise," he said.

Warren's room is typical of the atmosphere of the present day. Each gun has its particular "stall" in one corner. Others hang from over the door, the windows, from deer antlers and from an especially built rack over the top of his bed. The library table holds several pistols and belts of ammunition and they are in, around, and about the room, all harmless if unloathed.

Second to none is Warren's interest in model airplanes and plane construction. At one time he had over 40 machines of different types and sizes. Today there are 10 model airplanes, most of them being suspended from the ceiling. To step into this room unwarned one would think he had landed with the enemy.

The Buhl boy has a trio of hobbies, the third is kodaking. A little less harmless, perhaps, but requiring considerable time and room, and since his room is already a little congested there just isn't much space for a darkroom. According to Warren all the hobbies "die" in together nicely—except that they all take time and require space and both are limited. A guy just doesn't have enough time and room in this age, it seems.

Graduated This Month

Warren graduated from the Buhl high school May 18. He was an outstanding student during the four years. He served as secretary of the junior and senior class, as president of the 1940 student body, business manager of the year book, The Wapak, captain of the football team and was selected by popular vote as the one outstanding boy of the four years to have his name carved on the famous school Totem pole. He has also served in the capacity of sergeant of the Buhl national guard, 118th engineers, Co. D, for the past three years.

The only son of Dr. and Mrs. Berry, Warren will move to Boise with his mother and two sisters the first of June to make their home with Dr. Berry who was appointed state director of public health last February.

Warren has made tentative plans to attend the Boise Junior college next winter. He will major in mathematics and study for special aeronautical work.

SUMMER SCHOOL DRAWS TEACHERS

Summer school will occupy part of the vacation time of most of the teachers of Twin Falls high school this summer, ranging from Columbia University in New York City to the University of California.

Attending Columbia University will be Mrs. Rose M. North, dean of girls, who will visit in New Orleans on her way east. Gerald Wallace will work for his master's degree at the University of California, Berkeley.

U. of I.

At the University of Idaho, Moscow, Mrs. Mercedes Paul will be inducted into Phi Beta Kappa honorary. She will spend the remainder of the summer at Newberg, Ore., her home. Charles McConnell will also be in Moscow this summer, and Ward Howell plans to attend the University of Idaho or the University of Washington.

Going to the University of Washington are Miss Kathleen Povey, J. D. Platt and Miss Gladys White. Miss White will visit Carlsbad caverns and Banff lake and Jasper park in Canada during the summer.

In neighboring states, Miss Stella Hubbard, Ukiah, may attend either the University of Oregon or Utah State Agricultural college.

Commercial instructor and high school secretary, Miss Helen Lindeman and Miss Velva Watt, will study at Armstrong Business college, Berkeley, Calif. Miss Helen Miner plans to spend six weeks at the University of Chicago, and the remainder of the summer at Oakland, Neb.

If Miss Thelma Tollefson goes to school, it will be in Indiana, where she will spend her vacation at La Porte. Miss Marjorie Albertson is going to finish her thesis, visit in Blackfoot and Moscow, and end the summer at Isle Royale near Houghton, Mich.

Longest Trip

Longest trip of any of the teachers will be that of Miss Florence Kees, who will visit New York City, Washington, D. C., the eastern and southern sections of the country, and home by way of the west coast to spend the last six weeks in the mountains north of Halley. Other teachers will go to Spring-

Buhl Youth Is Gun Fancier

MECHANICAL ART ROOMS IMPROVED

A finishing room near machinery, and a large class room for mechanical drawing with an office for the instructor, Curtis Wilson, will comprise the quarters for manual arts classes in Twin Falls high school next fall, after remodeling now under way is completed.

Working under direction of Mr. Wilson and Mr. McNeill, NYA students and boys from the classes are tearing out a large balcony overlooking a part of the basement room, using the material to construct the finishing room and class room, and to install guard rails around machinery, which has been arranged according to its use.

Added to the furniture of the room will be an art metal table in preparation for the new course which will be offered next year, and a new tool cage. Lockers are being rearranged, and large work tables at which boys do their construction work will be in the center of the room.

Work will be completed by Saturday evening, with finishing touches added later, Mr. Wilson states. He will leave Monday for Kearney, Neb., where he will be guest professor in geography, at Nebraska State teachers college this summer.

Buhl Playground Will Open June 3

BUHL, May 28 (Special)—The Buhl WPA recreational leaders will have all their play equipment available and ready for use at the supervised playground here by June 3, it was announced this week. A tentative schedule will give youngsters of this community supervised recreation, Monday through Friday of each week from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., adults from 6:30 to 9 p. m.

The children will be supervised in their play at the F. H. Buhl school grounds and the adult recreation center will be the city hall.

Carl B. Yanik, district supervisor of recreation for Buhl, said this week: "A well planned program will be organized for summer months. Limited funds will somewhat retard craftwork, but various crafts are being planned. In some cases, materials used in craft work will have to be bought by participants. The fee merely pays for the cost of plaster, basket reed, leather, wood and other materials to be used. Recreational leaders want that they will do everything possible to carry on an efficient and instructive leisure time activity. It is hoped that a few N.Y.A. boys and girls will be assigned to assist in this work."

PLANE GROUNDED FOR NO LICENSE

State police today had checked on state licenses of airplanes in this section and one ship at the local airport was ordered grounded until the license was ordered. Name of the owner of the grounded plane, however, was not revealed by the officers.

Aircraft license fees in Idaho are determined by multiplying the useful load by two and one-half cents a pound. The useful load is the difference between the weight of the particular ship empty and the gross weight authorized by the civil aeronautics authority.

Firearms small enough to conceal on the person are barred from the United States mails.

Why is pure yeast important in making whiskey? "Wild" yeast in the mash can mean bad taste in your mouth. G & W yeasts are pure strains. Mash kettles are sealed in operation to prevent "wild" yeast getting in.

★ What is the optical illusion created by the French national flag? At a distance the white stripe looks wider than the others, the blue narrower than the red. All three are really of equal width.

★ Did anyone ever see with "Cleopatra's Needle"? No—it is a monument, an obelisk. The original is in London; another is in Central Park, New York City.

★ What is the proportion of rice in rice paper? None. Rice paper consists mainly of pine sap, tree fibres.

★ Can a whiskey with authority also be mild? Definitely. G & W Private Stock is full 90 proof, yet it's mild because special steps in distilling keep it smooth, mellow. You enjoy plenty of satisfying warmth and body!

G & W PRIVATE STOCK

What's the Meaning of "Top of the Bottle Mildness"? Whiskey that's mild through and through—in other words, G & W Private Stock. It's the whiskey of distilled-in smoothness—deliciously mellow even BEFORE blending. Private Stock flavor lingers on your palate like a spring breeze. But don't make Private Stock too light—there's real authority in every full 90 proof sip! Stop in today for G & W Private Stock.

Garden Club Selects Committees for Show

Aiming at the advancement in floriculture, horticulture and civic beautification, the Twin Falls Garden club is staging its first Garden show June 5.

This will be the outstanding feature of late spring events, and everyone is urged to plan his entries for the show.

Complete schedule for the show, naming the various divisions, will be announced in the near future. The affair will be held in the basement of the Twin Falls public library.

Gamma Thetas Conclude Season

Concluding their program for the summer, members of the Gamma Theta chapter of Delphians met for a 6:30 o'clock luncheon last evening at the Park hotel.

In the absence of Mrs. Catherine Potter, president, Mrs. J. D. Hayden, conducted the business session, and Miss Ella Grjman was in charge of the program.

"Bringing European History to the American Shores," was the subject of the discussion, participated in by Mrs. Roy Evans, Miss Mildred Elrod, Miss Mabel Porterfield, Miss Maurine Luke and Miss Merle Newlon.

As a courtesy to Miss Mildred Elrod, for the use of her home during the winter, a gift was presented by the group. Word drill was led by Miss Porterfield, while the current events were on the manufacture and use of rayon.

Shades of pink, blue and white beaded buttons graced long dinner table at which the guests were seated.

MeT Club Honors Senior Members

As a farewell to senior members, the MeT club held a 1 o'clock luncheon Sunday afternoon at the Park hotel. Hawaii served as a theme for the affair in both place-cards and table decorations.

Mrs. A. S. Gilbert, who resigned as sponsor of the group a short time ago, was presented a gift by Miss Mary Haney in behalf of the members.

Phonoclio dolls were given to each senior girl as a farewell gift from their sponsors, Mrs. Lionel Campbell and Mrs. Robert Reese. A poem honoring these girls was read by Miss Epsy Jane Griggs, author.

Present at the luncheon as guests were Miss Doris Reed, Miss Mary Haney, Miss Jane Douglas, Miss Fran Thompson, Miss Joyce Miller, Miss Arlene Porter, Miss Dorothy Staylor, Miss Anita Hardesty, Miss Mary Frances Bates, Miss Patzi Warner, Miss Dahl Green and Miss Shirley Hutchison.

In charge of arrangements was Miss Ruby Carlson, new club president, with Miss Grace Bruley, Miss Margaret Detweiler, Miss Griggs, Miss Helen Brown and Miss Mary Lou Gibb assisting.

Golden Wedding Circle to Meet Fourteenth annual golden wedding circle party will be held in Twin Falls at 1:30 p. m. Monday, July 1, it was announced here this afternoon by Mayor Joe Koehler, founder of the unique organization.

All members of the organization will attend the show at that hour and then following the performance, will be driven to the city park by members of the Kiwanis club where ladies of the G.A.R. will serve refreshments.

Koehler pointed out that of the 14 charter members of the unit, only one is now living. Last year 106 persons attended the get together.

To be eligible to join the organization, and attend the annual party, a person must have been married at least 50 years. They may join if they meet this requirement, regardless of whether or not their husband or wife, as the case may be, is not now living.

Koehler pointed out that there are nine new "golden wedding" couples in this district since the party was held last year. All persons who have been married 50 years or more, regardless of where they reside, are welcome to attend the annual party and join the organization. The party is free for those who can qualify for membership.

Piano Recital Brings Praise In the beautifully decorated parish hall at the St. Edward's Catholic church, Miss Ann Heltman presented her piano students in a recital last evening.

Gracing the piano was a low bowl filled with sweet peas of yellow, white, green, pink and orchid, and lily fern. These colors corresponded with the dainty summery dresses of the girls presented.

Background decorations were composed of huge wicker baskets filled with lemon lilies, pink and white peonies, yellow roses and white snowballs. Pastel-colored streamers completed the hall decor.

Musical of both the boys and girls presented achieved a mark of perfection and was heard by a capacity audience.

Assisting with the decorating were Miss Winifred Al Lee, Miss Mary Aherm and Miss Juanita McKay. Ushers were Joan Benoit and Miss Margaret Detweiler.

Bee Hive Girls Are Guests of Scouts' Troop

Builders and gatherers group of Bee Hive girls of the L.D.S. church was guest of Boy Scout troop No. 1500 at a party held recently at the home of the Scoutmaster, Spencer N. Robinson, 514 Third avenue east.

About 30 persons were present, and all Scouts were in their uniforms. The evening was spent in playing both indoor and out-of-doors games. Such outside games as relay races and Flying Dutchman were played on the lawn, while bingo and an off-hand program was enjoyed inside.

Impromptu readings were given by Miss Rose Marie Harmon, Miss Va Nile Doan and Bob Crandall.

Scouts in charge of the games were Clinton Luke, Arthur Daniels and Junior Hanson. They were assisted by Mrs. Martin O. Crandall.

At the close of the social hour refreshments were served from a table centered with snapdragons and peonies, by Mrs. Robinson, assisted by Mrs. Roland Whitehead.

Other garden flowers such as peonies and irises were used in room decorations.

Local Girl Weds At Sunday Rites

At a simple ceremony Miss Gladys Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glynis Smith, became the bride of Harold Kirkpatrick Sunday at the South county home.

Selecting a white taffeta, floor-length gown with a fingertip veil, held in place by a coronet of seed pearls, Miss Smith carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Sylvia Kirkpatrick, sister of the bridegroom and maid of honor, and Miss Ellen Leichter, bridesmaid, wore pink gowns and carried white carnations.

Afternoon Dress In a blue velvet afternoon dress, Mrs. Smith attended the couple, as did Mrs. D. M. Kirkpatrick, mother of the bridegroom, who wore a blue figured afternoon dress. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

After the ceremony refreshments were served. Centering the table was a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Two smaller cakes were decorated with pink peonies.

Opening the event were violin selections by Miss Lynnet Smith, sister of the bride, followed by Miss Gertrude Becher, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. O. P. Duvall.

Piano Duo To the music of Miss Audrey Smith and Miss Olive Smith, who played a piano duet, the wedding march, the couple entered.

Among the guests who returned to their homes Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Kirkpatrick and daughter, Sylvia; Reubens; Miss Margie Smith; Boles; Mary Reams, Yakima, Wash.; Clarence Bagnall, Rupert, and Cecil Smith, Moscow. Wayne Smith, Englewood, Calif., will return the latter part of the week.

Little Theater Sets Date for First Play

Permission was received here yesterday from the Samuel French Co., Los Angeles, Calif., granting the Twin Falls Community Theater association the opportunity to stage the play, "Petticoat Fever," by Mark Reed, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Ethel Warberg, production manager, and Mrs. Ronald Graves, head of the business staff.

Opening night for this gay comedy has been set for Wednesday, June 12, at 8 o'clock at the recreation center. Repeat performances will be given on Thursday and Friday nights, June 13 and 14, respectively.

To appear in the lead roles will be Melvin Schuler, Miss Mary Ellen Davis, Filer, and Roland Hutchinson. Other members of the cast will include Charles Ronk, Jr., Dorothy Dean Huddleston, "Chick" Crabtree, Don Wark, Betty Pumphrey, Martha Morehouse and Allen Duvall.

Mrs. Dorothy Alworth, director, is being assisted by Miss Kathryn Goff and Mrs. Tom Peavey.

Breakfast Meet Held by Zeta Pi

At a delightful country breakfast, Mrs. George Ward entertained members of the Zeta Pi chapter of Delphians and their guests, yesterday morning at a 10 o'clock gathering.

"British Empire of Today" was the lesson conducted by Mrs. Charles Boymer. Mrs. E. J. Stepien presided at the short business meet which preceded the breakfast.

Cooked at an out-of-doors fireplace, the breakfast was served picnic style. Huge bunches of irises were placed upon the table and around the fireplace, while a beautiful garden furnished the setting.

Appearing on the program were Mrs. Tony Bobler, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Harry Smock, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Florence Benson, Mrs. R. A. Sutcliffe, Mrs. A. A. Boston, Mrs. E. J. Stepien, Mrs. John Kimes, Miss Clara Billar, Mrs. J. E. Langenwalter, Mrs. George Buhler, Mrs. Annette Boone and Mrs. George Sandholtz.

After the ceremony refreshments were served. Centering the table was a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Two smaller cakes were decorated with pink peonies.

Opening the event were violin selections by Miss Lynnet Smith, sister of the bride, followed by Miss Gertrude Becher, who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. O. P. Duvall.

Piano Duo To the music of Miss Audrey Smith and Miss Olive Smith, who played a piano duet, the wedding march, the couple entered.

Among the guests who returned to their homes Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Kirkpatrick and daughter, Sylvia; Reubens; Miss Margie Smith; Boles; Mary Reams, Yakima, Wash.; Clarence Bagnall, Rupert, and Cecil Smith, Moscow. Wayne Smith, Englewood, Calif., will return the latter part of the week.

Theta Rho Girls Present Team's Premier Showing

First anniversary of the Theta Rho girls club was feted at a banquet, where they presented the drill team, last evening at the I. O. O. F. hall.

About sixty persons attended the affair where the team, dressed in their white uniforms with blue capes lined with peach satin, paraded at their first public performance.

Presiding as toastmaster, Miss Madeline Bracken introduced Mrs. Evan Tarr who discussed the birth of the organization. Miss Marjorie Richardson talked on the name of the group, while Mrs. O. G. McKill spoke on its growth.

In Charge of arrangements included: menu: Marjorie Richardson, Lynnet Smith, Maxine Beath and Ruby Matson; decorations: Bethel Balmer, Helen Earl, Doris Durbin and Pauline Stockamp; invitations, Mary Helen Clapper, Betty Lu Bailey and Evadne Elder; program, Miriam Hartruff, Shirley Wilson and Betty Bicknell; clean-up, Gail Ann Ott, Estella Potter, Audrey Smith and Charlotte Richardson.

Musical numbers were given by Maxine Beath, Miss Mary Helen Clapper, Miss Pauline Stockamp, Miss Vera Goodman, Miss Lynnet Smith and Miss Helen Earl, a reading was presented by Miss Marjorie Richardson.

Sponsor Speaks Mrs. Effie Watkins, spoke briefly and then introduced Miss Virginia Welter, Theta Rho president, who cut the cake which was decorated with a single blue candle.

Appearing in the drill team were Miss Betty Bicknell, Miss Shirley Wilson, Miss Audrey Smith, Miss Clapper, Miss Beath, Miss Goodman, Miss Welter, Miss Earl, Miss Martha Wise, Miss Smith, Miss Della Potter, Miss Gail Ann Ott, Miss Ruby Matson, Miss Miriam Hartruff, Miss Charlotte Richardson, Miss Betty Woods and Miss Stockamp.

PRACTICE HELD BY JOBS DAUGHTERS Jobs Daughters of the Twin Falls bethel met for a practice session last evening at the Masonic temple. This meeting was in preparation for the visit of Mrs. Armstrong, grand guardian, who will make her official visit in June to present the local group with their charter.

Presiding at the meeting was Miss Fran Thompson, queen who announced that initiation practice would be held at 2 p. m. on both Thursday and Friday.

FIDELITY CLASS HAS FAMILY PICNIC Members of the Fidelity class of the Methodist church and their families attended a picnic at Shoshone falls, immediately following church services last Sunday.

About 50 persons were present at the pot-luck affair, which was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Elder and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Albee.

Local Writers Hear Address on Poetry

"In the poetry field, more than in any other field of writing, the beginner finds it easier to publish but harder to sell," remarked Mrs. Sudie Hager, Kimberly, when she spoke at a meeting of the Twin Falls chapter of the Idaho Writers' league, last evening at the home of Miss Jean Dinkelacker, Colonial apartments.

Mrs. Hager, whose poems have recently appeared in the New York Sun, Saturday Evening Post and other national publications, said that to sell poetry one must satisfy the editor's personal taste and give the reader something

PLANS MADE FOR PAGEANT IN JULY

Preliminary plans for the pageant which will be one of the features of the Magic City jubilee early in July were mapped this noon as F. P. Gorman, representative of the John B. Rogers Producing Company, which will be in charge of the production, conferred with members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce committee in charge.

The pageant will depict the history of Twin Falls of the county and of the district. Material will be taken from essays completed by high school students recently, and which are now being judged by Dr. C. J. Brosnan, University of Idaho professor. Material will also be gathered from other sources.

In the immediate future rehearsals for the pageant, which will be presented at Lincoln field, will get underway with Mr. Gorman in charge.

Members of the committee with which he conferred today are Lionel T. Campbell, chairman; J. H. Blandford, Roy Babbel, Walter Doss and Hugh Phillips.

The session was held at the Park hotel in connection with the regular weekly meeting of the Jaycee board of directors.

Walther League Plans Program

OLIVER, May 28 (Special)—Talented members of the Clobber Walther League will be presented at a "Talent Quest" program at the Clobber parochial school, under the direction of Miss Gladys Jagers.

The public is cordially invited to attend the program which consists of piano solo, "Butterfly" by Grieg and "Waltz in A Flat," by Esther Rangen; girls' trio, "Cherubim Song," and "Going Home" by Mildred Boehke; Norma and Lois Schaefer; one act play, "Frank and Erna" played by Arlyn Kneip, Martha Reinke, Lorraine Schmidt, Eunice Meyer, Emma Burkholder, Arleen Wuebbenhorst and Howard Westendorf; girls' sextette, "Sing Awhile" and "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming" by Melba Dannenfeldt, Helen Meyer, Phyllis Lutz, Ruth Falisch, Ruby Lierman and Melva Hahn; humorous reading, "Meet the Kiddies" by Adeline Dierker; saxophone solo, "Waltz" by Lois Schaefer.

JUDGE PONDER'S SUNSHINE CASE

COEUR D'ALENE, Ida., May 28 (UP)—Federal Judge C. C. Cavanaugh today had under advisement an action brought by the Sunshine Mining Co. of Kellogg, seeking exemption from provisions of the federal wages and hours act.

Miss Dorothy Williams, San Francisco attorney, appeared for the government and sought dismissal of the action, contending the mining company—world's largest producer of silver—had failed to show irreparable damage had been done through enforcement of the act. She argued the company was engaged in interstate commerce and therefore within the law's jurisdiction.

Joseph Cheney, Yakima, Wash. Sunshine attorney, said the suit was started in search of a final interpretation of the act as it applied to the company.

Nearly 600 defendants, including CIO and AFL unionists together with non-unionists employed at the mine, were named by the company.

DECLO

Genealogical committee and partners had a surprise party last week after the regular meeting for Mr. and Mrs. Burdell Curtis, who recently moved into the Simplot apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwan Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Beldon Anderson went to Pleasant Grove, Utah, Saturday. On Sunday they attended the funeral of their grandmother.

Miss Mary Darrington, who is leaving soon for an L.D.S. mission, was an honored guest at the meeting of Declo Relief society. Mrs. Alice Lewis presented the guest with a gift from the society. Literary lesson was given by Clara Jacobs. Mrs. Chris Boyington and Mrs. Lucille Blauer were stake visitors.

Most Beautiful Words

Adoration, divine, eloquence, faith, happiness, harmony, heaven, honor, hope, innocence, joy, liberty, melody, modesty, love, nobility, purity, splendor, sympathy and virtue have been picked as the 20 most beautiful words in the English language.

Production Staff

Among those in charge of the program will be stage manager, Elmer Schaefer; stage crew, Omer Dierker, Merlin Kneip, Howard Westendorf, Paul Meyer, Gordon Schroeder and Irene Hahn.

Norma Schaefer is musical director, while Dorothy Reinke will act as prompter.

Admission will be charged and the proceeds will be used in sending some of the performers to the International Walther league convention at Ottawa, Canada, in July.

U. S. Will Enter War, Survey Says

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, May 28 (Special)—With the war in Europe reaching a new intensity, student opinion on the Idaho campus grimly predicts that the United States will not be able to stay out of the conflict. The survey was conducted by the Argonaut, student newspaper.

Five questions were asked on debatable issues of American foreign policy. To the question, "Do you believe that we can keep out of this war with our present neutrality regulations?" 23 answered yes, 37 no. General reason given for the belief that we could not stay out of the war was that our neutrality gets-up isn't working in a neutral fashion at all and that we were really non-interventionists.

Greatest landslide of opinion was on the question, "Are you in favor of Roosevelt's spending huge sums for armaments for defense?" Fifty said yes, 10 disapproved. Most students added that the defense program would not keep us out of war, but would adequately prepare us for the battle.

Thirty-four students favored the broadening of the Monroe doctrine's concepts of American protection to include Greenland.

Men and women disagreed on whether or not we should jump into a war if Japan tries to take the Dutch East Indies. Men believed that we should by a vote of 16 to 14, but women showed it under 23 to 7, charging that they were too far away for us to meddle with.

Turned down by a vote of 47 to 13 was the suggestion that we should repeal the Johnson act, which prohibits the granting of loans to countries which previously defaulted on their World War loans.

Miss Dorothy Williams, San Francisco attorney, appeared for the government and sought dismissal of the action, contending the mining company—world's largest producer of silver—had failed to show irreparable damage had been done through enforcement of the act. She argued the company was engaged in interstate commerce and therefore within the law's jurisdiction.

HERBS

In the last few years there has been a distinct revival of the use of herbs in the garden and in the home. Our grandmothers not only knew them but knew an infinite number of uses for these interesting plants. They were used for flavoring, for teas, medicines and fragrance.

There is nothing difficult about the culture of herbs, they grow in any good garden soil; an herb may be found for any position, full sun, shade or half shade.

It would be impossible to list all the herbs in the most important herbs but the following would make a good beginning to an herb garden and with them the gardener can do a great many interesting things: Basil, Marjoram, Balm, Bergamot Mint, Sage, Hyssop, Rue, Lovage and Lavender.

Green Gardens

By VALENTINE

Basil has an interesting color contrast with green leaves and purple stems, branches and tip growth. It is a strong growing perennial usually treated as an annual. No herb in the garden is more useful, use it in salads and in anything made with tomatoes, with which it seems to have a natural affinity.

Sweet Marjoram is a neat and attractive plant, also a perennial treated as an annual. Used in vinegar it is a pleasant change from Tarragon. In very small amounts it may go into salads along with Basil. Of all herbal fragrances Sweet Marjoram is perhaps the most pleasant.

Basil is vigorous and easy to grow. It is a true perennial with an odor of lemon, and does best in partial shade with plenty of water.

Bergamot mint or lemon mint is the most beautiful of the mints. It does best in partial shade with a moist soil. It is hardy with a little protection.

Sage is essentially a culinary herb and one of the commonest; it is very attractive in the garden. It is extensively used for seasoning dressing and flavoring sausage.

Hyssop is a most satisfactory border plant and is also a desirable herb with a clean, aromatic, somewhat medicinal odor. It is used to season vegetables.

Rue is a somber blue-green color and may be used in very small amounts to flavor vegetables and salads. It likes sun and will winter over in a well drained position.

A clump of Lovage makes a fine accent in the garden as it grows five or six feet high. It is hardy and vigorous. The new shoots, when only about a foot high, may be boiled and have much the same taste as celery. These stately plants are crowned with umbels of yellow flowers.

Lavender is the best known and most loved of all herbs. It is the source of the best and most fragrant essences. Its dried flowers and seeds have long been used to scent linen drapery.

Other desirable herbs are thyme, borage, chives, cistary, sweet woodruff, apple mint, dill and rosemary.

Herbs for use during the winter should be harvested early in the season, usually just before the plant flowers. Cut the leaf stalks on a warm, sunny day after the dew is gone. Remove any imperfect, or dying leaves, tie the stalks in loose bunches and hang in a warm, sunny room or attic for half an hour, then remove from direct light and leave to become crisp.

The leaves are then ready to strip from the stalk and store in glass jars for the imaginative gardener to experiment with during the winter months.

Thirteen motorists today paid fines of $1 each on charges of over-time parking, police records show, and one of them harked back to Civil War days with the name of Robert E. Lee.

Aside from Mr. Lee, others fined included Carl Nelson, Melvin Morgan, L. W. Jenkins, Mrs. E. C. Hayes, Louis Brandon, L. L. Breckenridge, Mrs. A. M. Kleinkopf, Mrs. Ernest White, Mrs. C. H. Ramage, N. O. Puckett, Gertrude Jones and Robert R. Strachan.

Jaycees Hear Vigorous Call to Balk Propaganda Seeking U. S. War Entry

Calling for vigilance against subversive activities in America and against emotional propaganda seeking to lure the United States into war to help England and France, J. H. Blandford, Twin Falls attorney, had given Junior Chamber of Commerce members today a blunt barrage of facts.

Mr. Blandford presented the bulk of his forthright assertions by departing from the advance text of an address on Americanism at the Jaycee membership dinner last evening in the Park hotel. The talk was the opening event in preparations for Flag week observance in Twin Falls.

Hills England and France

Straight from the shoulder, the former Twin Falls Legion commander called for America to stay out of war and branded England and France as being far from the idealistic democracies they are depicted in the allied propaganda which seeks to enmesh the United States.

He fired an equally vigorous blast at Hitler Germany. Then he said: "The struggle going on in Europe today has been going on for the last 2,000 years. It will be going on 2,000 years from now, with a few years interval of peace to get ready for the next war. Now is the time for America to take a definite stand—and not be worried every 10 or 20 years over who will hold the balance of power in a continent that in all the centuries since the days of the Roman gladiators has been seething with strife and discord."

Blandford declared that "we have no respect for Hitler or any of his kind. . . we do not want to see the present type of German government dominate the world. . . and yet what do we owe England that we should send American boys to die abroad?"

He recalled the English record in the American revolutionary war, reminded his hearers that British troops burned the American capital in 1814, and pointed out that Britain during the Civil war recognized the Confederacy as a belligerent rather than as an insurgent group.

"During the World War," he said, "England borrowed five billion dollars from this nation. Very little interest and no principal has been repaid. France borrowed four billion—and hasn't paid one cent of it back. Italy borrowed two billion—but hasn't repaid anything and yet has huge funds for conquest and for armaments."

Recalling bitter denunciations of America by England and France because of efforts to collect the war debt, Blandford said: "And now, after years of holding us in contempt, they want us to go over there and lock arms with them in a common cause, so they call it."

Among the most startling facts outlined by the Legionnaire were those quoted from Sen. Robert Reynolds, South Carolina, as printed in the Congressional Record. Those included these little-known truths:

1. Because the U. S. in the World War had only a few transports, England and France charged this nation from $140 to $180 per man to transport Yankee soldiers to France.

Forced to Pay Duty

2. France made this nation pay duty on every case of food shipped "to save the hides of Frenchmen."

3. France levied another duty on what stores remained after the war, before permitting shipment back to America. As a result, the U. S. sold the remaining materials to France at a loss of $1,500,000,000.

4. The United States had to pay France "for every cent of damage" done by shells fired by American troops in driving the Germans back out of French soil.

Regarding the call to "save the democracies," Blandford warned that in going to war on the side of England and France, the United States "would not be saving our type of democracy." As proof he pointed to the highly undemocratic treatment inflicted by Britain in India and France in Africa.

Hits Cash and Carry

The American cash and carry plan for sale of goods used in war, he said, is little short of criminal. He branded it as providing the instruments of horrible death "while the American people are asked to contribute to aid the victims."

Blandford contrasted American liberty with the "terror" in which Europe lives, and asserted: "The only thing we need in America today is more Americanism." He urged that America care for its own problems and let "Europe and Asia take care of theirs."

He warned that "eternal vigilance" is vital to preserve American liberty.

Himself a World War veteran and the father of sons who might conceivably be army material, Blandford said: "I want no more of my blood spilled on the battlefield to see who is going to hold the balance of power in Europe."

Additional emphasis on peace, with a strong call to aid in evaluating "emotional propaganda" designed to ensnare the U. S. into war, was given the Jaycees last night by Ben Johnson, Preston attorney who is immediate past-president of the state Junior Chamber and who is now national director.

"The United States Junior Chamber of Commerce," Johnson said, "seeks to combat propaganda which would lead us into war."

He read the national resolution toward that end, especially warning against creation of "emotional bias." Johnson asserted specifically that "the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce is not pacifist—its 120,000 members would fight for the defense of America. They believe in protecting America. But as for going over there, no. . . $8. per cent no."

Johnson presented the Twin Falls Jaycees with the Henry Giessemer trophy as the outstanding Junior Chamber in the state for the past year. He termed this the highest honor possible. The plaque, carrying the likeness of the U. S. Jaycee founder, will be a revolving trophy and the Idaho Junior Chamber winning it the most in the next 10 years will receive permanent possession.

The award here was the first. John B. Robertson, past chief of the Twin Falls organization and first Idaho state president, and Robert H. Warner, present head of the local unit, received the trophy.

Business session preceding the talks was featured by a "hot and heavy" debate over continuance of local Jaycee membership in the state and national Junior Chamber. With no punches pulled, various members expressed forthright opinions as to value of such affiliation. It was decided by a 20 to 7 ballot to continue the membership. The action upheld a resolution passed by the board of directors by a divided vote.

John B. Robertson, general chairman of the Magic City jubilee, outlined work done thus far and said the parade committee has been reorganized with Stanley Sturgeon as chairman. Other members are Henry Wendling, Robert Greens, Jerry Cristman and Claude Mendola.

Robertson said that the high school essays which will provide historical background for the jubilee pageant have been fitted to six for final judging. The others have been already turned over to the pageant concern for incorporation into the script.

People Aroused

"The people of the valley were aroused and the papers carried the fight directly to the governor through the state department of reclamation. There was no let-up until about a month ago, when the power company withdrew its applications, indicating that it would seek other sources for future hydro-electric developments."

"We think service of that kind deserves more than local applause, and we have suggested to R. S. Tofflemire, publisher of the Times and News, that he mark his calendar with red pencil during the last two weeks of January, 1941, as a reminder to send his record to the Pulitzer awards committee at Columbia university. Even though some other paper tops him for the first award, he'll have had the satisfaction of knowing that his job has been viewed by the big leaguers."

"DUD" SHELL UNDERRATED

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A shell came whizzing across the Golden Gate and tore a hole in the side-wall over which a woman had passed just a moment before. Police and army investigation developed it was a supposedly "dud" shell which had been fired in anti-aircraft practice at Fort Berry and in some unaccountable manner had jumped the Golden Gate.

Times-News Win U.S. Recognition

"In the Twin Falls territory, the Idaho Power company has been energetic in developing every available water power site.

"We are told that there are seven power plants already operating within some 35 miles along the Snake river canyon. About six months ago the power company applied for permits to develop three more sites in the vicinity, all of them regarded as having scenic beauty. The Times and News contended that Idaho has unlimited water power resources in the river proper and can develop more power than it will ever need from that source, so that the utility was not justified in further destruction of contributory springs, streams and waterfalls.

Brother of Buhl Woman Succumbs

BUHL, May 28 (Special)—Mrs. Everett Husted and her sister, Mrs. Emma Hicks, who has been visiting here for the past week, were called to Driggs Friday by the death of their brother, Brooks Fairbanks. He died of pneumonia at the Driggs hospital. Mrs. Hicks and her two children and Mrs. Husted and daughter, Audrey, left immediately for Driggs.

The Fairbanks family formerly lived in Buhl and is well known in the west end community. This is the third death in the family in the past one and one-half years. Their brother, Ralph, was killed in an railroad accident at Thanksgiving time a year ago and the father, Frank Fairbanks, died last Thanksgiving.

Last Honor Paid To Mrs. Rudolph

BURLEY, May 28 (Special)—Funeral services were held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Second ward L.D.S. church, Bishop Sidney Larsen officiating, for Mrs. Floyd Rudolph, who died last week following a short illness.

"The first song number was by the Relief Society Singing Mothers. The Old Rugged Cross, and Clarence Gibson offered the invocation. Speakers were William Waitt, Joseph P. Payne, and Bishop Larsen. Mr. and Mrs. Payne sang "Jesus, My Savior." Mrs. Hugh Clark and daughter, Rose, sang "When I Take My Vacation in Heaven," and A. L. Hanks sang "Going Home." David Mofatt offered the benediction.

Funeral services were family friends, and flowers were carried by members of the Third ward Relief society. Burial was made in the Burley cemetery under direction of the Payne mortuary.

"In the Twin Falls territory, the Idaho Power company has been energetic in developing every available water power site.

"We are told that there are seven power plants already operating within some 35 miles along the Snake river canyon. About six months ago the power company applied for permits to develop three more sites in the vicinity, all of them regarded as having scenic beauty. The Times and News contended that Idaho has unlimited water power resources in the river proper and can develop more power than it will ever need from that source, so that the utility was not justified in further destruction of contributory springs, streams and waterfalls.

People Aroused

"The people of the valley were aroused and the papers carried the fight directly to the governor through the state department of reclamation. There was no let-up until about a month ago, when the power company withdrew its applications, indicating that it would seek other sources for future hydro-electric developments."

"We think service of that kind deserves more than local applause, and we have suggested to R. S. Brother of Buhl Woman Succumbs

BUHL, May 28 (Special)—Mrs. Everett Husted and her sister, Mrs. Emma Hicks, who has been visiting here for the past week, were called to Driggs Friday by the death of their brother, Brooks Fairbanks. He died of pneumonia at the Driggs hospital. Mrs. Hicks and her two children and Mrs. Husted and daughter, Audrey, left immediately for Driggs.

The Fairbanks family formerly lived in Buhl and is well known in the west end community. This is the third death in the family in the past one and one-half years. Their brother, Ralph, was killed in an railroad accident at Thanksgiving time a year ago and the father, Frank Fairbanks, died last Thanksgiving.

Mac Lists Reasons for Dodgers Being on Top of National Loop

BY HENRY McLEMORE
 NEW YORK, May 27 (AP)—When a major league team continues to lead its league despite spotty pitching, poor hitting, and only ordinary fielding it is time to make an investigation, even though that team be Brooklyn, a club long noted for bizarre behavior.

So, such an inquiry was made by this observer of the baseball scene on yesterday and he is prepared to tell you why the Dodgers are on top in the National instead of some more gifted group of outdoor artisans. Here's the explanation, and in the pure, clear words of their manager, Leo Durocher:

"They're hustling like hell."

Durocher says in all of his 15 years in baseball he has never seen a team with the spirit, the drive, the out and out hatred of defeat the 1940 Dodgers have.

"I've played with some hustling fools in my time," Durocher said, "particularly that 1934 gas house gang in St. Louis. You remember that club in 1934—Frisch, Martin, Collins, Dean, Medwick, and all the rest. We weren't the best team in the league by a long shot, but we won the pennant and the World series. Well, the Dodgers are working even harder than that club that isn't giving me everything he's got and maybe a bit more. None of that 'Well, we lost 4 to 1, but what the hell, I got three hits' stuff. Look how we're winning 'em. We're seventh in hitting and the pitching has been uncertain. But the guys are pouring it on, and given just a little break make it count."

Was there any explanation for this remarkable spirit of the Dodgers?

"Yeah, a couple of reasons," Durocher explained. "In the first place everybody on the team happens to like everybody else. No arguing or fighting. And the president of the club has had a lot to do with it. The players know he's for 'em. I'll bet you that when Reese looks in his locker the next time there'll be an envelope with a hundred bucks in it. Just a little present from McPhail for his winning homer yesterday. If it's not in his locker, he'll get a little extra dough the next pay day. Carleton got five hundred for that no hitter, and other players have been rewarded for good work. The players have a feeling Larry is watching 'em and is appreciative of what they do."

Durocher also gave the Brooklyn fans an assist.

"You can't beat the Brooklyn rooters. It would take an Egyptian mummy not to respond to the kind of backing they give you. They stick by you, whether you're winning or losing. You get so you don't want to let them down, even if you have to break your neck trying to win."

It would be a poor observer, indeed, who could talk to Durocher 10 minutes and fail to realize Leo has more than a little to do with the spirit of the Brooklynians.

Ogden Drubs Cowboys By Score of 8 to 1

OGDEN, May 28 (Special)—Ogden's slugging Reds gave the Twin Falls Cowboys a lesson in hitting here yesterday and chalked up an 8-1 victory over last year's champions.

The two teams meet tonight in the second game of the series with Gene Fenter slated to get his second attempt at winning a game for the Cowboys. Clayton Lambert, who has won three and lost three for the Reds, will be on the mound for the home team.

Art Carpenter, a new hurler, took the mound for Ogden last night and turned in a fine performance, despite the fact that he was nicked for 11 hits.

However, Dick O'Boyle, who went the route for Twin Falls, was touched for 15, with four runs coming in a big first inning to clinch the game.

Pete Hughes hit a 400-foot home run for the Reds, while Bobby Adams got four hits in five trips to the plate for the winners.

For Twin Falls, Hayes, Wake, Mullens and O'Boyle each got two bingles. Hayes is subbing for Tommy Belina in left field while the latter recovers from an operation on his injured hand.

Third Time Charm

Ramona Fairchild returned last week from Boise, where she was operated on in a Boise hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Steel and family left Saturday for Salt Lake City, where Mrs. Steel will receive medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Law spent Saturday and Sunday in Ogden, Utah, with Mr. Jones' and Mr. Law's mother, who is ill.

Mrs. M. H. Manning and Gladys and Lee Ann Manning spent a few days in Salt Lake City with relatives.

SPRINGDALE

Bob Swanson, above, who has played two spectacular roles in the 500-mile race over the Indianapolis motor speedway, is ready for his third attempt, May 30, in freshmen women's scholastic honor. Requirements for the organization stipulate a grade average of 3.5, midway between an A and B average.

HUNGARY CALLS ADDED TROOPS TO COLORS

SOVIET CLAIMED MAKING CHAIN OF 'BUFFER STATES'

By HENRY T. GORRELL
 BUDAPEST, Hungary, May 28 (U.P.)—Hungary called additional army reservists to the colors today and speed mobilization in apparent fear of isolation by a Russian-formed, all-Balkan diplomatic bloc.

Balkan diplomatic quarters reported Russia was forming a chain of buffer states in the Balkans—Romania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia—and intended to march into southeastern Europe if Italy entered the war and moved on any Balkan state.

It was even reported Balkan states might have agreed in principle to permit Russian troops to cross their frontiers on the way to the Adriatic if Italy entered the war. Yugoslav sources here asserted it was nearly certain Russia and Yugoslavia would resume formal diplomatic relations soon for the first time since the World War, as a sequel to their new trade agreement.

Linked in Reports
 The recent visit to Bulgaria of Sir Hugh Montgomery Knatchbull-Hugessen, British ambassador to Turkey, and Britain's decision to send Sir Stafford Cripps, left wing labor party leader, to Moscow as special envoy, were linked here with the reports regarding Russian activity, and were believed to mean the allies would approve fully any active Russian interest in the Balkans.

Hungary's anxiety seemed plain. Not only had she called up reservists in the Budapest area and in the Pann area of southern Hungary but it was reported she was contemplating the requisitioning of many private motor vehicles for army use. A meeting of the national defense council has been called for tomorrow.

In any Russian move, Hungary, an anti-Bolshevik state whose foreign policy has been in some ways parallel to Italy's, would be in danger of isolation.

Slovakia Friendly
 To complicate the situation, it was reported that Slovakia, said now to be on the most friendly terms with Russia, was showing signs of increasing hostility to Hungary. It was reported tension had increased on the Hungarian-Slovakian frontier within the last 24 hours.

Belief was expressed that as part of the reported Russian move Rumania might cede part or all of Bessarabia, which it obtained from Russia after the 1914-1918 war, with the approval of the allies.

It was reported here that the appointment of Cripps as special British envoy to Moscow was intended to clinch an agreement with Russia and block any intended Italian move in the Balkans.

Fines Ordered in Traffic Offenses

JEROME, May 28 (Special)—Justice of the Peace E. G. Houston last week heard several misdemeanor cases in his court. G. L. Bryant admitted guilt on charges of failing to dim lights. He was assessed a fine including court costs of $5; Leo Wells, 235 1/2 E. Main street, Twin Falls, also appeared and pleaded guilty to a similar charge. He was also assessed a fine of $5.

Ferry Williams was brought before Judge Houston where he was paroled for 20-day period in which to raise funds to pay the fine for failing to stop at intersection. Claus A. Welse, Gooding resident, was arrested and brought before Judge Houston on charges of exceeding the speed limit of 40 miles an hour. Welse was given until June 15 to pay part of the fine of $10. He paid $5 this week.

ORDINANCE BANS STREET MARKING

Adoption of several resolutions and passage of one ordinance, the latter making it unlawful to mark city streets or sidewalks with paint or other substance, last night occupied regular members of the council during regular weekly session at the city hall.

Following the regular portion of the session, the councilmen then conferred with various representatives of concerns dealing in fire trucks. One new one is to be purchased in the immediate future. No action on the purchase, however, was taken last night.

The ordinance prohibiting marking of streets and sidewalks was adopted under suspension of rules and is now in effect. It came as the result of an incident here last week which saw local streets defaced by the spreading, by automobile, of the advertising slogan of a trade organization.

The ordinance provides as follows, and was marked as ordinance number 610:

"It is unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to make or stencil with paint or in any other manner, or to write or print with paint or in any other manner, on any sidewalk, curbing, street, avenue or alley within the city limits."

The provisions of the new ordinance, it was explained, will not apply to duly authorized representatives of the city who place marks or stencils for the purpose of guiding and controlling traffic.

$100 Fine
 Violation of the ordinance, according to the provisions, is punishable by a fine not exceeding $100.

Because no protest was filed at the time a public hearing was slated, councilmen adopted a resolution providing that the tax levy for general revenue purposes shall be 15 mills on the dollar.

Likewise they adopted a resolution which provides that a public hearing will be held at the city hall at 7:30 p. m. on June 24 for the purpose of hearing arguments for and against changing a portion of the property facing the Truck lane and also Washington street from the second residential area to the business zone.

After approval of the application was made by Chief of Police Howard Gillette, and Councilman Carl Ritchey, a beer license was granted Neal B. Dean for "Nick's Place" at 118 Blue Lakes boulevard.

$12,500 New Station
 Officials also granted representatives of the Standard Oil company permission to cut a certain curb length in order to permit the tearing down of the Hoover service station at Five points east and the construction of a $12,500 new station in its place.

Announcement was also made during the session that a drive is underway to force removal of all

Swastika Flies Over Campus at Vandals' School

MOSCOW, Ida., May 28 (U.P.)—Students of the University of Idaho campus-awoke yesterday to discover the Nazi swastika floating brazenly atop the flag pole on the administration building.

Excited students and police rung down the flag, a giant bedsheet with the swastika outlined in black shoe polish.

An unsigned note was attached. It was addressed to "Mein dear janitor" and continued: "We are flying our emblem on this pole. We think it is time the public should know of a powerful secret organization on this campus. We have been meeting for the past four months and have decided that immediate action should be taken toward the cause. It is our wish the flag fly today for a worthy cause. Our wish, mein dear janitor, is our command." Police branded the incident as a "sour joke."

signs, merchandise displays and other materials from parkings, which are all city property. It was pointed out that permission to place such items in the parking was never granted and that they would have to be removed. All persons undertaking new construction will be advised of the fact that signs and other things are not permitted in the parking along streets and avenues.
