RUMANIA REPORTED BOWING TO SOVIET TERRITORY ORDER

BESSARABIA AND NAVAL BASES IN RUSSIAN DEMAND

By F. Z. STEVENS BUCHAREST, Rumania, June 27 (UP)—King Carol II and the crown council were authorized to report today to have bowed to a Soviet ultimatum demanding cession of Bessarabia, northern Bukovina province and naval bases at Constanta and Tulcea.

Official comment or confirmation was withheld. Diplomatic quarters reported without confirmation several incidents had occurred on the Rumanian-Russian frontier but such information as was available in authoritative sources indicated the territory demanded by Russia would be handed over without fighting.

Germany and Italy, whose ministers conferred earlier with King Carol, were reliably said to have been informed in advance of the Soviet demand, which gave Rumania until 10 p. m. to accept.

There were indications Bulgaria and Hungary may renew their territorial demands on Rumania.

Joined With Bulgaria One reliable report was that the Russian action was taken in conjunction with Bulgaria, which seeks the Black sea coastal area of Dobrudja from Rumania.

Dispatches from Sofia said Bulgarians were holding enthusiastic demonstrations for return of Dobrudja, an area of 3,320 square miles with a population of 353,000.

ROAD UNIT BACKS U.S. 93 REQUEST

Action of the Twin Falls city council in seeking military designation for U. S. 93 from here to Missoula, Mont., will receive strong support of the International Four States highway association, City Clerk W. H. Eldridge was advised today by Robert Hays, El Centro, Calif., secretary of the U. S. 93 booster organization.

Hays advised Mr. Eldridge that the association "for many months" has been working on the same problem. It is seeking to have the entire four states highway route designated as a No. 1 military road.

The secretary enclosed a copy of his own communication to Major Gen. E. A. Adams of the adjutant general's office at Washington, D. C. Hays asked General Adams for confirmation of a report that U. S. 93 from Las Vegas, Nev., to Twin Falls "has lately been designated as a class one road of military importance." He also advised the general that the four states association is interested in having that designation granted to U. S. 93 north of Twin Falls to Missoula, as urged in the city council and Chamber of Commerce resolutions already submitted to the war department.

Hays said further that he has solicited aid of B. J. Finch, district engineer of the federal bureau of public roads, for "continued interest and helpfulness" in oiling the uncompleted portion of U. S. 93 south of Challis.

Charles J. Vogel was assured of the Democratic senatorial nomination as he accumulated a two-to-one lead over E. A. Johanson. Gov. John Moses, D., was renominated, and Jack Patterson defeated Lewis Orady in the G. O. P. gubernatorial race.

Rep. William Lemke, Union party candidate for President in 1936, won re-nomination as a Republican.

Young Lindsey was promoted to ranking which places him second in command of the giant Clipper while in flight. Only the Clipper flight captain ranks above the Twin Falls man.

The giant transatlantic planes are now making three round trips weekly to Lisbon, Portugal, by way of the Azores. Distance to Horta, the Azores, is well over 2,600 miles. The ships are carrying capacity loads of passengers and mail both to and from war-torn neutral Portugal.

On one recent hop, the pilot wrote his parents, the Clipper was forced to turn back because of heavy winds 800 to 900 miles out of New York City.

25,585 ACRES OF WHEAT ALLOTTED

Total wheat acreage allotment for Twin Falls county under the 1941 AAA farm program is 25,585 acres. It was announced here this afternoon by Walter Reese, chairman of the Twin Falls county Agricultural Conservation association.

Reese said that ranchers of this county may expect to receive notices soon advising them as to their individual farm allotments for 1941.

Partners who do not believe their allotments are fair and equitable have 15 days from the date on which their notices are mailed to appeal in writing to the county committee.

"The allotment represents the county's share of the 994,637 acre allotment for the state. It takes into account the wheat-growing history of the county over the last 10 years and the recent trends in production," the chairman declared.

Planting within allotments qualifies wheat growers for conservation payments, parity payments, crop insurance, and loans under the AAA farm program.

FDR'S SIGNATURE ON DEFENSE BILL

WASHINGTON, June 27 (AP) — President Roosevelt today signed the $1,768,913,998 supplemental defense bill giving the army funds to raise its enlisted strength to 375,000 men and buy 3,000 more planes, and the navy money for starting construction of 68 new warships.

The measure, carrying $1,479,777,147 in cash and $288,136,761 in authorizations, boosted to $5,362,319,478 the record pennant total voted by this congress for national defense.

Pending is the 70 per cent expansion program for the navy, which ultimately will cost $4,000,000,000, and the army is prepared to ask for more money approximately matching the navy's request.

The measure was signed shortly after authoritative sources had disclosed that the army high command will oppose any proposal to boost regular army strength above 500,000 men on grounds that that is all it can train and equip for immediate service.

Prizes will go to the boy and girl in each of the five divisions who wears the most authentic or unique costume. The prizes are being arranged for by Loyal Perry.

Lack of Signatures May Cost Initiatives Place on Ballots

By LLOYD TUPLING BOISE, Id., June 27 (AP)—Sponsors of three initiative measures—one for a sales tax and two for liquor control—this week were faced with the task of obtaining thousands of voters' signatures in a final drive to qualify their bills by July 3 for the November general election ballot.

Petitions filed with the secretary of state, containing names of voters from all sections, showed at least twice as many more were needed to bring the total over the 18,545 names required by law to place the initiatives on the ballot.

The new measures whose enactment is being sought include:

1. The property relief act of 1940, sponsored by the Idaho Education association, to derive educational funds by levying a two per cent sales tax on every retail sale within the state.

2. The Idaho sobriety act, sponsored by the Allied Civic Forces and ministerial association, banning the advertisement of intoxicating liquor and limiting the amount of each purchase.

3. The intoxicating liquor control act, sponsored by the same organizations backing the sobriety act, setting up a system of "local option" whereby voters in each county could decide whether sale of liquor should be permitted in their section.

Defeat Blooms All three measures were doomed to defeat unless signatures come in at a much greater rate than at present.

John I. Hillman, who heads the Idaho Education association, said he was not sure whether enough signatures could be obtained to place the sales tax on the ballot.

The campaign to collect names for the tax started early this year with school teachers and school officials drafted to circulate the petitions.

The sales tax, called the cooperative emergency act of 1935,

MAYOR ASKS FOR AIR CORPS BASE

Idaho's congressional delegation today had been urged by telegram to advocate designation of the local airport as an army air corps base.

Telegrams to the congressional members were dispatched last night by Mayor Joe Koehler after he had received assurance that the Twin Falls highway district would all the airport approach road to within half a mile of the field.

In sending the wire, the mayor pointed out that condition of roads leading to airports is often of utmost importance.

1940 PRESIDENTIAL RACE SIMILAR TO THAT OF 1916

CONDITIONS NOW SAME AS DURING PRE-WAR PERIOD

By WILLIS THORNTON NEA Service Staff Correspondent PHILADELPHIA, June 27—The Democrats seem certain to renominate the President. Preparedness is the order of the day.

That uncanny feeling of having seen it all before, which afflicts Americans born before 1900, comes to the fore in today's pre-convention political activities as strongly as it does in reading the war news itself.

Everybody knew President Wilson would be nominated by the Democrats. He said in February, 1916, that he would run.

Compromise Worked Hughes led from the start, and on the third ballot at Chicago, he won easily.

Foreign policy, keeping out of war, and "Americanism" were the real campaign issues.

Demos Got Peace Votes Though the Democrats did not specifically promise to keep the country out of war under any circumstances, many voters were peace-insurance.

BIG LEAGUES STAGE DING-DONG BATTLES

Yanks End Slump With 3-1 Victory Over Cleveland

NEW YORK, June 27 (U.P.)—The American league race today had one of those National league touches to it as the three leaders came galloping down the June stretch all tied in the last column. The Indians still are in the van, with a 2½-game lead over the Tigers and a three-game lead over the Red Sox, but only because of the difference of the number of games played.

Not only are the three leaders engaged in the closest struggle the American league has known at this stage of the race in years but all down the line the junior circuit is putting on the tightest kind of a fight. From the first-place Indians to the last-place Senators the gap is only 14½ games.

The National league has a ding-dong race on also, but it isn't quite as close as the American. There's a 7½-game gap between the league-leading Reds and the last-place Phillies. The three leaders, the Reds, Dodgers and Giants, are bunched in the usual National league fashion.

Yanks Win Game
Red Ruffing brought the Yanks out of their 4-game losing streak by quelling the Indians in a 3-1 game as the world's champions close their disastrous western trip with four victories against nine setbacks.

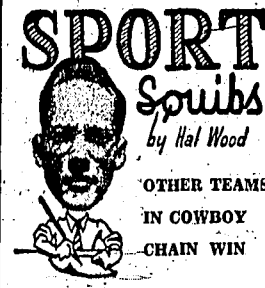

Held scores for eight innings by rookie Johnny Rizzo, the Red Sox batted him from the box in the ninth and scored three runs to beat the Tigers, 3-1.

The Browns' taste of first division play was brief as the Athletics knocked them back to fifth place with a 9-4 defeat. The Yanks moved back into fourth place.

A two-run rally in the ninth enabled the White Sox to come from behind to beat the Senators, 7-6.

Ex-Plates Star
The Pirates and Phillies got a stand-off in a twin bill. Two ex-Pirates, Johnny Rizzo and Cy Blanton, starred in the Phillies' 4-2 victory in the opener. Rizzo drove in all his club's runs with a homer, double and single. Blanton held the Pirates to seven hits. The Pirates slugged four Phil pitchers for 14 hits in winning the nightcap, 11-4.

A single by pinch-hitter Johnny McCarthy with the bases loaded in the 10th gave the New York Giants a 10-9 win over the St. Louis Cardinals last night.

OTHER TEAMS IN COWBOY CHAIN WIN

With the Cowboys in the rack of the Pioneer loop, it is gratifying to note that the other two members of our little "chain"—Spokane and Seattle—are enjoying better days.

Both of these clubs are leading their respective leagues and as a result packing them in at the gates. Last year it was Twin Falls and Seattle—with Spokane doing the hollering over a second division club.

And while the fans here "cry" over a last place team, it might not be out of place to mention that somebody has to be down there—and why not the champion of the year before? That's what we call "diving" up on the championship stuff and it appears there is no chance now of the Cowboys pulling a repeat.

However, if Ogden had drawn a fifth or sixth place team for the second consecutive year, it might have killed baseball in that town completely.

There's one thing about Seattle and Spokane being at the top of the heap—if they win championships this year they will have that much better material to aid the Twin Falls club of 1941.

Which, of course, is no aid to the current situation. It appears now, more than ever before, Manager Frank Tobin is still in need of that slugging outfielder who can connect when there are runners on the sacks.

Consumer Club Tops Play in Pee-Wee Loop

Twin Falls' Pee-Wee baseball league today continued to play a "full schedule"—but it appeared that the team to beat to win the championship was the strong Consumers' Market club.

The Consumers have won 11 victories and lost only one tilt to easily top the seven-team loop.

Games to be played this week include two games on Saturday between Ray's Texaco and Magel's and Consumers vs. Electric Bakery.

Russets Annex 13-Inning Ogden Battle

By United Press
The Salt Lake Bees won another game over Twin Falls last night, 8 to 1, and increased their league lead to three and one-half games.

It gave the Bees two straight victories in the three-game series with the cellar-dwelling Cowboys. Damon Hayes pitched for Twin Falls until the seventh, when Lundberg came in. Mel Marlowe, on the mound for Salt Lake, held the Cowboys to six hits, while his mates took 11.

The second-place Boise Pilots collapsed before the onslaught of the Pocatello Cards, 7 to 3. Although out-hit eight to seven, the Cards rallied runs in the second and fourth to win going away.

Mentz, Cook and Rene hurried for the Pilots, while Sandie held the mound for the Cards.

One run, after 13 hectic innings, broke a tie and gave the Idaho Falls Russets a 6 to 4 victory over Ogden. Idaho Falls pounded out 18 hits off two pitchers against eight of Bradley. Bob Price, outfielder with Salt Lake last year, joined the Reds on option from the San Francisco Seals.

Meal Ticket Runs out on A.A.U. As Cunningham Makes Last Start

By JERRY BRONDFIELD
NEA Service
The Old Man of the Mile—the barrel-chested Kansan who has captured and held the biggest following of track fans in the nation—bowed out of the competitive picture, June 28-29, in the National A. A. U. championships in Fresno.

The A. A. U. will miss Glenn Cunningham. He has made more money for that august body than any performer in the history of the sport. National Collegiate champion, A. A. U. titlist, two-time Olympian, and holder of the unofficial world record of 4:04.4, Cunningham has been running the mile for 13 years.

The professor announces this will be his last competitive appearance. And there's nothing the 32-year-old hooter would like more than to finish with a victory over Chuck Fenske, the Wisconsin graduate who this past winter supplanted him as King of the Milers.

Defeated consistently until last summer Cunningham was able to stand off Fenske's bid. But with the start of the 1940 indoor campaign the youngster beat Cunningham a half dozen times.

Sentiment and determination may be on Cunningham's side on the Pacific coast, but the youthful field likely will be too much.

It also includes Lou Zamperini of Southern California, Paul Moore of Stanford, and Blaine Rideout, the defending champion.

Only two of the defending titlists are certain to repeat—Greg Rice, late of Notre Dame, at 5,000 meters, and Fred Wolcott of Rice Institute in the low hurdles. Wolcott also is expected to regain his high-hurdle crown from Joe Batiste, Tucson schoolboy.

Clyde Jeffrey and Barney Ewell in the sprints will have a tough time with Moele Elberle. Erwin Miller of the Southern California A. A. has Lee Orr, Charley Belcher and Warren Breidenbach to contend with in what figures to be a scorching 440.

Charley Beetham, the 800-meter ruler, must stay off Paul Moore and Ed Burrows, Princeton sophomore.

Strong Opposition
It's a foregone conclusion that Al Bixias of Georgetown will dethrone Lilburn Williams of Xavier in the shotput.

Archie Harris of Indiana probably is favored to come away with Phil Fox's discus title.

Boyd Brown defends his javelin honors against a crack field. The same goes for Bill Laceyfield in the broad-jump.

Les Steers of the Olympic club of San Francisco expects Johnny Wil-

Burley Rally Wins Junior Legion Game

Burley's American Legion Junior baseball team, champions of Idaho for the past two years, came through with four runs in the ninth inning of a game at Jaycee park last night and the result was an 11-7 victory over the Twin Falls junior club.

The two teams battled on even terms up to that time, but the seven-run spurge tucked the game away for the Cassia crew.

Burley took a five-run lead in the first inning and added another in the second, but Twin Falls kept pecking away at the offerings of Bradshaw, Burley hurler, to score three times in the second, two more in the fourth and two in the sixth, to make the count stand 7-7 as Burley counted once in the sixth.

Bradshaw struck out 13 Twin Falls batters and allowed only 10 hits, compared with nine struck out by Callin of the home team, plus 10 hits allowed. Callin and Joes of Twin Falls and Simons and Klink of Burley each hit doubles. The lone double play of the game was turned in by Twin Falls—Sullivan to Toolson to Farmer.

The second game of the series will be staged at Burley at 2 p. m. Sunday.

By HENRY McEMORE
NEW YORK, June 27 (U.P.)—I have it from the highest authorities that Max Baer and Tony Galento will put on the worst heavyweight fight in history when they meet in Jersey City Tuesday night.

My authorities are none other than Baer and Galento themselves. Ever since this fight was made, months ago, the crackpot Call-formans and the party many from across the Hudson have vied with each other in putting the blast on the spectacle. It's a wonder to me any tickets have been sold despite the tub-thumping of the promoter, the press, and interested New Jersey parties.

Take Galento's blast, for example. At one time or another since he contracted for the fight he has called Baer everything under the sun except a good fighter. He has branded Baer as a bum, a bum who quits, a yellow bum, a worn out, tired, and exhausted bum.

And that's not all. He has branded Baer as a badly conditioned bum, a playboy bum, and one who cuts and bleeds more easily than an underprivileged beggar. As Tony sees it, the fight won't last long enough for the less agile spectators to reach their seats.

Now that anyway to encourage customers to pay as much as $12.50 for a ringside seat? If a man is to believe Galento, and being a fighter his opinion is bound to carry some weight, the purchase of a ticket is a blanket admission that the purchaser is of the type that invests in wooden nickels, takes chances on a lottery involving the Brooklyn bridge, and bets on wrestling matches.

Baer has been no less emphatic in his attacks on Galento as a fighter. At one time or another he has characterized Galento as a harmless old saloon keeper who couldn't bounce a noxy midget from his place of business, a hand-woman antique who will fall flat on his face after more than one round of an exercise more violent than saltate, and a daffy, beer-guzzling wreck with only a pair of lights and a set of matching cauliflower ears to identify him as a fighting man.

What, a prospective customer is almost certain to ask himself before buying a ticket, what if both Max and Tony happen to be correct in their estimates of each other?

Still, even if events prove both Tony and Max were correct in their opinions, there should be one moment of the fight worth the price of admission. I refer to that second at the finish when the winner's hand is raised in triumph and he realizes that, come hell or high water, he has once again qualified for a fight with Joe Louis. I have a sound belief this is the one thing on earth neither Max nor Tony wants to happen. And you can't blame them. One trip over Niagara in a canoe is enough for any fellow.

Seeded Stars Advance in College Meet

CYNWYD, Penn., June 27 (U.P.)—Seeded favorites advanced to the fourth round with an exception today in the 56th annual intercollegiate tennis tournament at the Cynwyd club, where play was shifted when the Merion Cricket Club courts were ruled unfit because of heavy rains.

The lone upset came in the third round yesterday when seventh seeded Bill Gillespie, of the University of Miami, was topped by Seymour Greenberg, Northwestern university's national public parks champion.

First seeded Don McNeill of Kenyon college defeated Ed Kilgus, Penn. Joe Hunt, Naval academy Davis cup star, topped Larry Krelger of Yale and defeated Peter Shonk of Williams.

Frank Guernsey, Rice's defending champion, advanced with wins over Cliff Owen, West Chester, and Bob Low, Stanford. Gordon Giles of Utah won from Jerry Clifford, Northwestern, 6-4, 3-6, 9-7, and Jim Wade of Stanford, 7-5, 6-4. Giles' teammate, Jack Meher, was eliminated by Bill Reedy of Southern California, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4.

Giles and Meher advanced to the doubles second round with an 8-6, 6-1 triumph over John Minoque and Hal Moatz, Muhlenberg.

English botanist, writing about common mushrooms in 1597, said that it "burgein away naughtly and corrupt humors."

Ace Girls' Softball Teams Will Play Two Jerome Clubs

JEROME, June 27 (Special)—Featuring two of the greatest feminine softball stars in the nation, the Portland All-Star girls' softball club will tangle with two teams here under the floodlights on Tuesday, July 2.

The first game will be against a local feminine aggregation and following that the visitors will play the Jerome men's team.

The two stars on the visiting club are Martha Garke, an outfielder who boasts a batting average of .650 for the year in Portland league play and who has over one home run per game; and Mary Schmidt, one of the fastest softball pitchers in the nation.

Crapson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor

Why do Washington and Washington men rule the waves? Harvard didn't get going until Tom Bolles was drafted from the Huskies.

All save two or three major rowing schools are coached by Purple and Gold products.

Most of the nation's shells, oars and equipment are made by George Focock in his shop in the Washington shell house.

The shells are made of Washington cedar and are reinforced with Washington spruce.

Washington crews work out all year round... with the exception of December.

The crew house is on the edge of the campus, the shores of which are washed by two great lakes—Washington and Union.

The story of Hiram B. Conbar, creator of the famous stroke-bearing his name, is as romantic as the story of Washington's progress is thrilling.

The felling of 10 giant Washington cedars in 1899, and their being tied together as the school's first float, was the signal event leading to the Seattle institution's high rank, but Hiram Conbar did not step into the picture until 1907.

Oddly enough, Conbar, who was destined to revolutionize sweep rowing, never pulled an oar.

Conbar, who had been with the Chicago White Sox, went to Washington as a trainer of all athletic teams when Gilmour Dobie took charge of football.

Washington could not afford a crew coach, so Conbar sat down with pencil and paper and figured well. A textbook on physics and a shelf of books on different rowing systems constituted.

Conbar knew nothing about rowing, but common sense told him the longer the oar was in the water, the more motion there would be. The trick was not to lose too much time in recovery after the stroke and not kill off the men.

Conbar tried out his theories for months on a back-breaking 20-oared scow... struck upon the right plan to make arms, legs and back work together best.

Washington-coached crews have worked with the cadence and easy certainty of a ballet ever since.

Washington has something on the water, no doubt, but it took a long pull and a strong pull and a pull all together to establish its supremacy.

Shoshone Softball Club Tips Jerome

JEROME, June 27 (Special)—The Shoshone Fire Chiefs last night staged an 8 to 6 win over the Jerome High softball team in a game played at the local field.

Jerome gathered 10 hits against nine for Shoshone and Stello, Jerome center fielder, poked out a long home run but such efforts were not enough to stem Shoshone's tide of victory.

Batteries for Shoshone were Sawyer and Flavel while for Jerome Field and Peterson saw service as pitchers and Hollibaugh and Christensen as catchers.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS

SHORTHOUSE, and for such other and further relief as may be proper. CLEO EARL NELSON STATE OF IDAHO, COUNTY OF TWIN FALLS) C

BOTT POINTS TO EFFICIENT WORK

JEROME, June 27 (Special)—Speaking before what party leaders said was the largest banquet gathering in the history of Jerome, with over 300 persons present, Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen last night declared that during his term of office the record has been "efficient and honest," and added that "this hasn't been the rule in Idaho for the past 25 years."

The banquet was sponsored by the Jerome county Young-Republican club. The governor spoke following the banquet, held at the I. O. O. F. hall and served by the Sylvania Club. Special music was under the direction of Prof. Gustav Flechtner, leading the high school orchestra.

No Relief Politics

During his talk the chief executive of the state pointed out that for the first time in the history of Idaho, politics have now been removed from relief.

He called on Republicans to be alert for the coming primary and general elections and said that "there is no post too small or unimportant to merit our attention and active interest."

He continued by saying that basic changes in Idaho's cabinet form of government might be recommended by the next legislature to the voters for consideration as constitutional amendments, and called for the best candidates possible to insure careful revisions.

He added that government operating expenses must be "pared to the bone" to meet federal defense requirements.

These Present

Among dignitaries present were E. W. Sinclair, Jerome commissioner of public works, and Hyrum Lewis, Deelo, candidate for lieutenant governor and representative from Cassia county. Groups from American Falls and Rigby conferred with Sinclair regarding establishment of a seaplane training base at the American falls reservoir. Highway matters were also discussed.

Rayburn, Elmer, district vice-president of south central Idaho Young Republican club; Harold Koenig, Twin Falls, president of the Twin Falls county club; C. W. Dill, Jr., Shoshone, chairman of the Lincoln county club; Dr. C. F. Zeller, Jerome, chairman of the Jerome county central committee.

Basque Hots

As a part of the entertainment, four Basque girls presented the original Basque hot. They were Nettie Sabala, Jessie Selaya and Alice Gutsosola, all of Twin Falls; Mary Beitia, Shoshone. Assisting them was Leon Echevarria, Twin Falls, who played the accordion.

Chairmen in charge of various committees on arrangements for the banquet included Harold E. Roberts, entertainment; Frank Rettle, banquet; Ralph Dunn, decorations; Bert Barlow, Hazelton, tickets; M. C. Whaley, tickets; N. O. Griffith, arrangements; Mr. Barlow, master of ceremonies and also general chairman.

RUSSIA RETURNS TO 7-DAY WEEK

MOSCOW, June 27 (U.P.)—Russia returned today to the seven-day week basis, with a six-day, 48-hour work period, and Sunday a day of rest.

The new system, intended to speed up the rearmament program, replaced the practice adopted in 1929 of working five days, resting one day and returning for another five days work. Under that system the rest day varied every week. Now Sunday is the standard rest day. However, Soviet circles comment that Sunday was made a holiday "only as a matter of uniformity and convenience" and that the coincidence was "devoid of any religious significance."

Also, Tass, the official news agency, said the restoration of Sunday as a holiday affected only the cities, since "the peasants have continued to observe Sundays."

The new labor law was intended to provide more metal, coal, oil, airplanes, tanks and guns, to make Russia "many times stronger and mightier" than the capitalist countries. It specified drastic punishment for workers who shirked their duties.

Caldwell Set For Santa's Visit June 29

CALDWELL, Ida., June 27 (U.P.)—Heat waves being what they are, Caldwell residents looked askance today at Mayor Edgar L. Oakes when he walked down the street saying: "Santa Claus is coming to town Saturday afternoon."

The reason Mayor Oakes made such a statement was because he wanted everyone to know that the old gentleman, who usually hibernates during the summer, is stopping over here on his return home. According to Oakes, Santa Claus has been at the south pole ever since Dec. 26.

The mayor heads a reception committee which will greet Santa Claus at the local airport when he descends by parachute. The streets have been decorated with several truck loads of Christmas trees. Santa is scheduled to go on parade, scattering the usual Yuletide candy and somewhat out-of-season greetings.

Speculation ran high as to whether Santa would break with tradition and appear in Palm Beach suit and straw hat or in the regulation red flannel garments.

The reception is being sponsored by the Caldwell Merchants' association, creators of the annual turkey derby and greased pig chase.
