NAZIS WARN AMERICA ON HOSTILITY

GOP Defers Organization; Willkie Maps Vacation

Candidate and His Floor Manager

WILLKIE HEADQUARTERS ROOM

Gov. Harold Stassen (left), 33-year-old governor of Minnesota and GOP Presidential Candidate Wendell Willkie are here showing things over after the victorious battle of the utilities chief for the Republican nomination. Stassen acted as Willkie's floor manager.

SUB-COMMITTEE NAMED TO PICK PARTY CHAIRMAN

PHILADELPHIA, June 29 (UP)—The Republican national committee today deferred organization as the party braced itself for the 1940 campaign behind a ticket headed by an eastern business man who has never held public office, and a veteran western politician.

The committee met in executive session for an hour and empowered a sub-committee of 12 to pick all committee officers, including a chairman, after a conference with Wendell L. Willkie, the presidential nominee.

Walter S. Hallahan of West Virginia, who was named chairman of the sub-committee, said the group probably would meet with Willkie in New York next Wednesday. Willkie left today for a leisurely yacht trip to New York.

Idahoan on Sub-Committee Members of the sub-committee are Samuel F. Pryor, Jr., Conn.; William F. Knowland, Calif.; E. R. Willis, Ill.; Werner W. Schroeder, Ill.; Mrs. Grace B. Reynolds, Ind.; Harrison E. Spangler, Ia.; Sinclair Weeks, Mass.; William Stern, N. D.; Mrs. Worthington Scranton, Scranton, Penn.; Henry Fletcher, R. I.; Frank O. Horton, Wyo.

Usually well informed persons predicted that John D. M. Hamilton would be retained as national chairman, but it was understood that Alf M. Landon, who gave Hamilton the job when he was chosen the G. O. P. nominee in 1936, was opposed to another term for him. They have been at odds for two years.

Willkie is now head of the party and the committee will be reorganized the way he wants.

Confers With Leaders Forfeiting the business world in which he rose to wealth and prominence, Willkie already was immersed in the political environment in which he will live from now until November.

For two hours last night he conferred with Landon, Gov. Harold Stassen of Minnesota, the convention keynoter and later Willkie's manager on the convention floor; Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, permanent chairman of the convention; Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, who nominated him; Gov. Raymond Baldwin of Connecticut, and Sam Pryor, national committeeman from Connecticut.

At this morning's press conference, Willkie said he planned to spend two or three days in New York cleaning up his affairs. After that, he continued, he proposed to take two or three weeks' rest. Willkie said he had not yet decided where he will spend the holiday.

Willkie, FAMILY CRUISE ON YACHT PHILADELPHIA, June 29 (UP)—Wendell L. Willkie, the Republican presidential nominee, left Philadelphia today for a leisurely yacht cruise to New York City.

Accompanied by his wife and 20-year-old son, Philip, he boarded the yacht of Roy W. Howard of the Scripps-Howard newspapers and said he planned to get off in New York City Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Russell Davenport, who handled Willkie's campaign, accompanied the party.

Willkie said they planned to cruise around Cape May and Long Island sound and that the yacht had neither a telephone nor a radio sending set.

Trouble Spot in Balkans

Bessarabia, containing 18,000 square miles and Bucovina, adjacent territory, today had been ceded by Rumania to Russia and the region was being occupied by Red troops. However, it appeared to be brewing in two other spots (shown on map above) as Hungary and Bulgaria pressed their claims for good-sized chunks of King Carol's country. All three of the latter nations were reported today to be under heavy arms.

British Turn Over Small Islands for Nazis - If Wanted

British evacuation of the channel islands gives possession of these small areas to Germany any time Hitler thinks it worth-while to accept the offer of a free landing on military soil. Occupation of the islands would have no military importance, however, and because of the confined space any large mass of German soldiers would become excellent targets for British bombers.

It seems apparent that observations made by the British reconnaissance planes show the Germans are not making preparations for a major attack against the English south coast. No orders to civilian non-residents to keep away from the south coast have been issued by the British government. The east coast, however, has become a restricted area from Hastings, all the way north to Scotland.

Advantageous Approach Hastings is the nearest east coast railway terminus to London, which is less than 50 miles away. If Hitler could land a sufficient body of troops in this vicinity, his left flank might reach to the Brighton-New Haven area, with his right flank extending to Folkestone, Dover, and the south shore of the Thames estuary.

This terrain offers the most advantageous approach to London, having a splendid network of railways leading to the capital and being difficult to defend. It also has the nearest coastal landings to France, a matter of importance for the transportation of troops and supplies.

Major Concentration Needed The rules of strategy call for a single major concentration of German forces in any attempt to make an effective landing in England. Small diversions might well occur in order to try to mask the real landing place, but it would give a considerable advantage to the British if the Germans were to scatter their landings and ignore the principle of a concentrated drive.

Concentration, however, requires an enormous transport fleet assembled in small areas of the channel. How to protect the transports against British warships and airplanes and how to insure debarkation in the face of mines and artillery fire from the shore are problems so formidable that no solution can have certainty of success, on paper. Indeed, the probabilities, by all past military and naval standards of judgment, point to very heavy casualties—perhaps to an exhaustive extent—being inflicted on the invaders before they can make a secure landing base, from which to begin their offensive.

Game Commission Meets on July 13 DUNLEY, Idaho, June 29 (UP)—The quarterly meeting of the Idaho fish and game commission will be held in Coeur d'Alene July 13. George E. Booth, chairman of the commission, announced today.

The upland bird season for fall hunting in district one will be set and Booth invited north Idaho sportsmen to attend the meeting and express their views on work being done by the department.

NAZIS INTENSIFY AIR ATTACKS ON BRITISH ISLANDS

BERLIN, June 29 (UP)—Intensification of German aerial attacks on the British Isles—believed by many to be preparations for a land, sea and air blitzkrieg—was described in the German high command communiqué today.

The communiqué, issued from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters, said that yesterday and last night the German air force continued bombing harbors and arms factories in southern and central England "with evident success."

British Plane Downed Continued British air attacks on Germany also were reported, and the official German news agency DNB, said in a Hamburg dispatch that two members of the crew of a British bomber were killed and two others taken prisoner when their plane was shot down in Schleswig-Holstein during a raid Wednesday night. DNB said that another British bomber was shot down near Hanover and that three members of the crew were killed.

The high command reported that Hitler had visited Strasbourg, in the German-occupied Alsace-Lorraine section of France, on the 21st anniversary of the signing of the Versailles treaty yesterday.

According to the high command German air raids yesterday on the Jersey and Guernsey islands were directed against troop concentrations and resulted in fires and heavy explosions in the ports. London and Guernsey dispatches reported that the islands had been demilitarized and had been declared "open" in hope of saving them from bombardment.

The communiqué said that there were no particular events in France.

WPA PREFERENCE SET ON DEFENSE BOISE, June 29 (UP)—WPA projects dealing with national defense will receive preference for operation in the future, state administrator Dean Miller said today after a conference of state directors.

Miller said preference would not alter WPA policy, since the primary consideration will be to furnish work to unemployed. However, he said, emphasis will be placed on selection of projects concerning the national defense.

The Idaho quota of workers will remain the same during July with 7,200 persons enrolled on regular and special projects.

WPA funds will be used to train workers for certain industries, and projects such as airports, national guard armories and rifle ranges will receive first consideration, Miller declared.

"As the special funds available for defense purposes are limited to $2,000,000, local sponsors must bear the major part of the material costs on projects of this type."

A survey is being made of all projects in Idaho and certain ones will be designated as national defense projects. Work on these will be expedited and it is possible certain other projects will be discontinued to supply sufficient labor, Miller stated.

City officials of Twin Falls and Idaho Falls today signed a reciprocal trade agreement for meat and dairy inspection, the Evening Times was advised this afternoon by Mayor Joe Koehler, who is now in the Spud City attending a Spanish-American veterans convention.

Axis Partners Speed Plans on Island Invasion

By JOE ALEX MORRIS United Press Foreign News Editor

Nazis warned the Americas today to avoid political or economic hostility toward "the new Europe" and in the far east Japan declared determination to dominate east Asia and the South seas.

Both declarations were warnings against foreign interference at a time when the axis powers—saddened by the death of Fascist Air Marshal Italo Balbo in an air battle over Africa—were speeding preparations for an offensive against the British Isles. Both were of special significance to the United States.

The Nazi statement was made in the magazine, Berlin-Rome-Tokyo, apparently with the full approval of German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop. It said that Europe will fight against being cut off from the world's trade and that this depends on whether the Americas decide to be friendly or hostile.

Position Outlined Japan's position was outlined in a speech by Foreign Minister Hachiro Arida, who declared that under a new diplomatic policy, all of east Asia must be organized and stabilized by Tokyo and that other nations—obviously Germany—must keep their hands off.

This coincided with increasing reports from Shanghai that the Japanese were expected to move soon against French Indo-China and perhaps the British crown colony of Hong Kong.

While these echoes of the European war were resounding in distant parts of the world, the Germans and Italians were working rapidly and effectively to prevent any serious outbreak in the Balkans as a result of Russia's peaceful occupation of Rumanian Bessarabia and north Bukovina.

Apparently upon the advice of Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini, both Axis partners, the Japanese are believed to have decided to withhold any immediate attempt to advance their territorial claims on Rumania and to await the final siding in Bucharest.

Dies at Battle Post The 44-year-old Balbo, governor general of Libya, a founder of Fascism and the leader of a spectacular air squadron flight to America in 1933, died in the flaming wreckage of his airplane, shot down by British pilots "at his post on the field of battle."

In the British Isles, fear that an offensive against Britain by both Germany and Italy was imminent increased hourly, following news received from the German side, that German planes bombed and machine-gunned the channel islands as they were being evacuated and five more were wounded in the eighth consecutive raid on England and Wales. British pilots reported successful bombing attacks on German-held ports from which boats were said to be preparing for an attempt to invade Britain.

29 DIE AS NAZIS SLAY REFUGEES LONDON, June 29 (UP)—A German air raid on the tranquil channel islands was taken by Britons today as a grim warning that the long threatened invasion of the British Isles was now imminent.

Twenty-nine persons were killed and more than 30 wounded, it was announced in the German raid on the channel islands in which eyewitnesses said the German planes bombed and machine-gunned civilians. The islands were completely undefended.

German planes raided England and Wales also, for the eighth straight night of bombing or reconnaissance raids.

Five persons were wounded, three seriously, in the raids on Britain during the night, the home security ministry announced.

Newspapers told the public today that the German invasion might not be a matter of days.

Mass Flies Hosts The ministry of health had warned that mass evacuation of key zones might be ordered at any time for military reasons. It had been reported that the Germans were massing engine-powered flat boats at North sea and channel ports. The home security ministry had declared the entire east coast a war zone. The evacuation of children to Canada had been speeded. The country was preparing for its greatest fight since William the Conqueror defeated Saxon Harold in 1066 at Hastings.

Legislation Orders Aliens to Register, Leave Fingerprints

WASHINGTON, June 29 (UP)—President Roosevelt today signed legislation requiring the 3,500,000 aliens in this country to register and leave a record of their fingerprints with the nearest postmaster within the next four months.

In an accompanying statement he promised vigorous federal action against disloyal aliens but pledged that there will be no harassment of any loyal aliens.

"It seems to me that attempts by the states or communities to deal with the problem individually, will result in undesirable confusion and duplication," Mr. Roosevelt said.

Ask Cooperation "I ask that citizens and non-citizens alike cooperate with a full sense of the responsibilities involved so that we may accomplish this task of registration smoothly, quickly and in a friendly manner, our aim being to preserve and build up the loyalty and confidence of those aliens within our borders who desire to be faithful to its principles."

The bill also imposes drastic penalties on fifth column attempts to foment insurrection or disloyalty in the nation's armed forces. It outlaws by dissemination of doctrines aimed at overthrowing the government by "force or violence."

Penalties Set The measure provides a $100 fine and 30 days' imprisonment for those failing to register before the four-month period expires. Aliens over 14 must register personally, while those under the age limit are to be registered by the parents or guardians.

Aliens "willfully" failing to register will be subject to deportation as well as the fine and prison sentence.

The measure provides maximum penalties of $10,000 in fines and 10 years imprisonment for attempts to interfere with the loyalty of the army, navy, marine corps, coast guard, naval reserve and marine corps reserve.

Beck Looms AS NEW UNION HEAD SEATTLE, June 29 (UP)—Labor circles thought today that Dave Beck, international organizer for the teamsters union here, might become president of the union if Daniel J. Tobin, present international leader, becomes an administrative assistant to President Roosevelt.

Tobin will meet Mr. Roosevelt tomorrow in Washington, D. C., to decide whether to accept the President's invitation.

Cricket Deluge Ousts Actors in Mormon Epic

HOLLYWOOD, June 29 (UP)—Perhaps it was for want of seagulls, but at any rate actress Mary Astor and a group of other movie players couldn't cope with crickets as the Mormon pioneers did.

Miss Astor, John Carradine, Dean Jagger and 40 others returned to Hollywood from the Nevada desert and admitted the crickets were too much. "They got the best of us," said the actress.

The city of Elko, Nev., had informed producers that a bountiful supply of crickets existed there, so two chartered planes carried a troupe of actors and actresses to Elko to make scenes of the picture "Brighton Young."

Crickets were plentiful, they discovered. The insects invaded the movie camp, spattered camera lenses and hopped into the sound equipment. In pioneer days, seagulls ate the crickets, but the 20th century Mormons, a la Hollywood, had no gulls. They packed up and returned to the film capital.

Members of the troupe said the crickets ate their food and that Miss Astor fainted the last day on location.

BODY RECOVERED WALLACE, Ida., June 29 (UP)—Sheriff's officers recovered the body of Ernest L. Bronson, 30, St. Joe river district logger who drowned Thursday. Bronson fell from a raft when crossing the river. A companion made his way to shore.

Admission Tax Boost Under National Defense Program Covers Wide Field At the present rate of admission charges, even Idaho's famous "sinking canyon" near Huhl will not escape the national defense program which calls for increases of admission taxes effective July 1.

Also revealed by the federal internal revenue collector in Twin Falls today was the fact that, although there is no tax on admissions of 20 cents or less, a three cent tax will be levied against show tickets issued to children for the former price of 10 cents, providing the regular adult admission is 30 cents.

While it is true, generally speaking, that admissions sold for 20 cents or less are not taxable, if the purchasers of such tickets occupy the same or similar accommodations as those purchasing higher priced tickets, the tax at the same rate as applies to the higher priced ones," the collector said.

The rate of tax under the new law is one cent for each 10 cents, or fraction thereof, of the whole price charged, where such whole price exceeds 20 cents. No tax applies to admissions sold for 20 cents or less, to be more specific the following examples are given to show the application of the tax under the new law:

Admissions sold for 20 cents or less, no tax; admissions sold for 21 cents to 30 cents, three cents tax; admissions sold for 31 cents to 40 cents, four cents tax; on admissions sold for more than 40 cents the tax remains exactly the same as at present, being one cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof of the price charged for such admission.

The law, with respect to printing of tickets, has not been changed. In all cases the price must be printed on the tickets and in those cases where they are sold for more than 20 cents the amount of the tax must also be printed on the tickets, but either serially numbered or dated.

NAVY EXPANSION PROGRAM READY

WASHINGTON, June 29 (UP)—President Roosevelt's administrative setup for a new long-range $9,000,000,000 army-navy expansion program—not yet approved by congress—was virtually complete today with appointment of Donald M. Nelson as coordinating agent for all defense purchases.

Nelson was appointed by the President yesterday to work in collaboration with the civilian defense commission which is headed by industrialist William S. Knudsen and Edward R. Stettinius. Nelson is a former executive vice-president of Sears Roebuck company and was recently named treasury procurement chief.

The navy's portion of the program is the 70 per cent fleet expansion bill which already has passed the house. It will add about 200 ships to the fleet at an ultimate cost of $4,000,000,000, giving the United States a navy far larger than those of the totalitarian nations combined.

The army program, at an estimated eventual cost of $5,000,000,000, or more, calls for placing of large orders for planes, tanks, anti-aircraft guns and other munitions far in advance of appropriations, thus giving manufacturers ample time and incentive to map out an orderly and adequate plant expansion.

The new tax will apply to club events, school plays, and dances.

Balbo, Italian Hero, Killed In Air Fight

By REYNOLDS PACKARD ROME, June 29 (UP)—Air Marshal Italo Balbo, once-ono of Benito Mussolini's closest friends and leader of a mass airplane flight from Italy to the Chicago World's fair in 1933, was killed in an air battle over Tobruk, Libya, it was announced officially today.

The black-bearded Fascist hero, who marched on Rome with Mussolini 18 years ago and led a great aerial squadron good-will flight to America in 1933, crashed with four other members of the crew over Tobruk, in Cyrenaica (Libya), which had been heavily attacked by British aircraft flying from Egypt, 60 miles away.

Flaps Lowered Flaps were ordered lowered to half-mast at dawn tomorrow in honor of Balbo, who "has fallen at his post on the field of battle," and all radio programs were interrupted for two minutes of silence this afternoon following official announcement of his death.

It was learned that the air battle took place last evening and that his plane crashed in flames near the Egyptian border. Balbo's wife, at the hotel Cyrene, in Cyrene, Libya, was informed immediately.

The official announcement said: "On the 28th of June, while flying over Tobruk during an enemy action, the plane piloted by Italo Balbo fell in flames. Balbo and four members of his crew perished."

An official communiqué giving details of the battle was promised shortly.

Balbo, a short quiet man, best remembered for his Van Dyke beard, was one of the original leaders in Fascism. He was one of the most popular men throughout the Italian people chiefly because of his evident Fascist feelings and spectacular career as a flier.

MINER CRUSHED KELLOGG, Ida., June 29 (UP)—Shoshone county officers reported yesterday Henry Martin, 60, was killed while working on the 2,100-foot level of the Bunker Hill and Buhl mines. Martin was crushed.

ITALY URGES HUNGARY TO "QUIET" CLAIMS ON RUMANIANS

TWO COUNTRIES PUSH TROOPS UP TO BORDER LINE

BUDAPEST, Hungary, June 29 (AP)—The attitude of Hungary toward Rumania was reported to have "changed radically" today as Italy advised the Budapest government to take a cautious attitude toward its territorial claims on Rumania.

Similar advice was said to have been given to Bulgaria.

Responsible circles here interpreted this to mean that Berlin and Rome wanted the claims against Rumania to be soft peddled at present in order to avoid any clashes of interest after their predicted offensive against the British Isles.

Hungarian troops were of the Rumanian border.

There was no further mention of reports that Hungary had already made demands on Rumania for the restoration of Transylvania. But it was asserted in all quarters that Hungary meant to get the territory back and would choose its own time to do so, by diplomatic action or military pressure or both.

The frontier was reported quiet for the moment but the situation was one in which any incident might cause a sudden tensing of relations.

Troops Pushed Ahead

Hungary had kept its troops one kilometer (3/4 mile) from the frontier. But late last night the government announced:

"In view of the unclear situation in Rumania, the government has decided on more severe control of the frontier zone. Frontier chassours have therefore been pushed up along the border."

Rumania's mobilization was seen here as a gesture to offset the shock to the Rumanian public of the concessions to Russia. Both Hungary and Rumania had already mobilized to all purposes, it was said.

BIDS CALLED ON ROADS SURFACING

BOISE, June 29 (AP)—The state highway department today called for bids to be opened July 12 on five road construction projects.

The work proposed under the projects included surfacing 2,414 miles of the Elche-Headquarters road in Clearwater county, surfacing 15,740 miles of the Roosevelt highway between Rainey creek and Elk creek in Bonneville county, surfacing 1,091 miles north of Hansen and 3,149 miles south of Hansen in Twin Falls county, surfacing 1,568 miles of the Onedia highway in Power county, and for miscellaneous surfacing and construction of about 15 miles of highway in Blingham, Bonneville, Fremont and Jefferson counties.

Youth, 17, Goes On His Way as Dad Gives Okay
A 17-year-old young man who wanted to see the west—and who said he was doing it nicely, thank you—had continued on his way this afternoon after sheriff's officers received an okay from the boy's parents.

The youth is Harold Richards, who lives in Wisconsin but who said the nearest town was Iron Mountain, Mich. He slept overnight at county jail while officers contacted his parents to make sure he wasn't a runaway.

Young Richards' father in Wisconsin informed the officers that he had given the boy permission to roam for one month—and get it out of his system.

The youth, a clean-cut youngster, carefully washed all his clothes while a guest in the jail. He told deputies he was having a fine time on his hitchhiking jaunt, because he's interested in science and geology and had long wanted to view the west.

JACK SHROUT IN ASSESSOR'S RACE

A veteran Twin Falls county Republican who has served as deputy assessor for more than a decade and a half entered the G. O. P. primary list today as a candidate for nomination as assessor.

He is C. W. (Jack) ShROUT, who filed his declaration of candidacy this afternoon with the county auditor.

Now Deputy
ShROUT at present is deputy assessor in the office of George A. Childs. Mr. Childs also is an active candidate for the Republican nomination as assessor, since he filed his declaration of candidacy on the opening day, June 14.

With entry of Mr. ShROUT into the primary field, total candidates now seeking the assessor post rose to three. The first Democrat to file declaration was James D. Barnhart, Bourbon who formerly held that post and lost by a narrow margin in 1938.

Fillings yesterday afternoon saw Probate Judge C. A. Balley presenting his declaration for renomination to the magistracy's post he won in 1938. He already has one G. O. P. opponent, Harry B. Jennings, Twin Falls.

Cotner Enters
Dr. Alfred A. Newberry filed petition for nomination as coroner on the Republican ticket. He was recently appointed to the post to succeed Dr. J. W. Creed, who resigned to continue advanced studies in medicine and surgery.

E. D. Logan, prominent Castleford Democrat, filed today for precinct committeeman on the "Bourbon slate."

MURTAUGH YOUTH SUFFERS BURNS
William Hall, 23, Murtaugh, was still in critical condition at the county general hospital this afternoon as a result of serious burns received yesterday about 5 p. m.

The youth, engaged in painting the June Lookbill home at Murtaugh, was burned when a lighted match apparently fell into a bottle of turpentine causing the liquid to explode and cover most of his clothing.

The youth started to run but was thrown to the ground by Mr. Lookbill who rolled him in a blanket to extinguish the flames. Mrs. Lookbill had previously thrown a bucket of water on him.

First, second and third degree burns were noted, hospital attendants said, about the left arm, throat, chest and around the waist. About 50 per cent of his body surface was burned. Hall and Mr. Lookbill were engaged in painting the house at the time of the mishap.

Hall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall.

Also in the hospital undergoing treatment for burns is J. L. Berry, 31, 730 Third avenue west, Twin Falls. He was burned about the legs and on one hand when a weed burner caught fire and threw gasoline onto his clothing. His condition is not serious.

SCENERY PLACED FOR CAVALCADE

Construction of scenery and framework for the Magic City cavalcade, which will be presented at Lincoln field the nights of July 3, 4 and 5, was underway today, according to F. P. Gorman, director.

The cavalcade is the feature of the jubilee which will be staged in the city on those three days.

No rehearsals were set today for the cast of some 600 persons but the all nations group will rehearse at the field at 10 a. m. Monday.

Poison ivy is active in the winter as well as the summer.

Seen Today

Tree limbs being burned at Lincoln school grounds and caretaker mopping brow as he watches fire spread. Couple of lady pedestrians "crashing" as one stops abruptly at intersection. O. A. Schwartz very busy using burner on weeds around place of business. Tennis players all over the premises as annual tournament gets underway on Kimberly courts. And feminine autoist angrily stuffing overtime parking ticket into her purse, then driving away with great clashing of gears.

GOP CONVENTION LEADERS NAMED

Members of the Twin Falls county Republican central committee today had appointed a committee to arrange details for the Republican state platform convention which will be held in Twin Falls Friday, Aug. 30.

Selection of the committee was announced last night at a central session held in the probate court rooms and attended by approximately 60 persons.

Members of the committee on arrangements are: E. M. Rayborn, Filer, state committeeman; Miss M. Izzetta McCoy, Twin Falls, state committeewoman; Carl E. Ritchey, Twin Falls, county chairman; Harold Koenig, Hansen, Young Republican club president.

Those at the session last night also authorized a telegram to be dispatched to Wendell Willkie, Republican candidate for President, congratulating him on his nomination and pledging active support during his campaign.

Divorce Asked in 7-Month Marriage

A marriage of seven months' duration was on the divorce list today after Mrs. Charlotte Howard filed suit in district court against Neal Howard. The couple wed Nov. 25 of last year.

Mrs. Howard charges cruelty and asks return of her former name, Charlotte Hawkins, W. L. Dunn is her counsel.

KIWANIS, MASONS JOIN IN TRIBUTES

Members of the Twin Falls Kiwanis club and Twin Falls Masonic lodge No. 45, A. F. and A. M. joined friends and relatives in a final tribute to the memory of J. B. Trolinger, Twin Falls pharmacist, this morning at the Christian church.

Quantities of floral tributes bore expressions of the esteem in which the well-known southern Idaho sportsman and owner of the Trolinger pharmacy was regarded.

Rev. Mark C. Cronenberg officiated, and the Masonic funeral rites were conducted by officers of the local lodge. Mrs. Nellie Ostrom sang "Whispering Hope" and "No Night There."

The body, accompanied by Mrs. Trolinger, was taken to Cassville, Mo., this afternoon for burial. Trolinger's pharmacy was closed from 10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.

Active pallbearers, all Masons, were Ray Sluyter, A. D. Bohler, Carl N. Anderson, John Clear, Mel Dolling and Harry Eaton.

Honorary pallbearers were Dr. W. F. Passer, Dr. G. O. Halley, Dr. H. L. Stowe, Dr. R. G. Foset, Dr. R. A. Sutcliffe, J. E. White, C. O. Kingsbury, A. B. Colwell, George Wiley, George Sandholtz, Jack Hesser and Henry McCormick.

Reynolds funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

OLD FIDDLERS' CONTEST Entry Blank

I wish to enter the Magic City Jubilee Old Fiddlers' Contest to be held Wednesday, July 3, 2:30 p. m., on the Reviewing Stand.

Mail or send this blank to Harry Musgrave, Musgrave Furniture company, Twin Falls.

Jubilee Cash Waits July 3 For Fiddlers

Old time fiddlers will have their hour of glory on the opening day of the Magic City Jubilee, according to plans completed today by Harry Musgrave and Jay Spracher, co-chairmen of a contest in which the fiddlers will vie for cash awards.

The competition will be at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday, July 3, at the reviewing stand at Main avenue and Shoshone street.

The old timers will rattle off any tunes of their choice, and the co-chairmen—and if spectators happen to want to swing into a square dance, that will be fine with the jubilee officials.

First prize for the old fiddlers will be $10, with smaller cash awards for second and third places.

RUNAWAY GIRLS GO BACK HOME

Two runaway girls from Dayton, Wash., both 18 years old, went back to their home town today to end a hitch-hiking episode that didn't reach the nationwide proportions the girls had hoped.

Sheriff I. J. Patton, Dayton, left this morning with Martha Hatfield and Patricia Robinson. The girls were held here after entering the police station Thursday night and asking for a place to sleep.

What of the Indies Now?

The murk which overhangs Europe today is thick and impenetrable. It is impossible to know just what is going on. Events move with such lightning rapidity that it is hard to know where we've been, let alone where we are now.

The French island possessions in the western hemisphere are a good example.

Technically, France still exists. There is some kind of a French government in Bordeaux which has signed an armistice ending France's part in the war. There is some kind of a French government in exile, like those of Holland and Belgium and Norway.

Which now controls the French islands in America? Does either control them in any practical way? Does either government, one under German domination, the other under the wing of the British, really represent the France that owned Martinique, Guadalupe, French Guiana, St. Pierre and Miquelon?

These are questions that are undoubtedly costing the U. S. state department, as well as the corresponding offices in 20 other American governments, a lot of lost sleep. This is a situation which did not occur to Monroe, which does not fit into any of our prescribed policies.

Of course it cannot really be considered in any final way until peace is made between France and Germany on what passes in today's world for a permanent basis. What has been signed is merely a military armistice. What kind of a French government will emerge from that peace, whether it will have any of the attributes of genuine independence, we do not know. Japan, it should be noted, did not wait to find out, but has begun to deal with French Indo-China without regard to its relations to any French government.

But if it should be a Fascist French government, set up by the Germans as the Russians have set up theirs in the Baltic states, and as Japan has set up hers in China, it would be hard for the United States to think of the French islands in America as still belonging to the same France. Such a change might constitute a transfer from one European power to another in as real a sense as if the islands had passed to Germany.

This need not be decided now, for the permanent relationships as set up by a definite peace treaty have not yet been set forth. But they will require the closest attention, and every effort to catch glimpses of the true situation through the murk which now beclouds European events.

The Fourth Grows Saner

Eight states now prohibit the private use of fireworks on the Glorious Fourth, the Council of State Governments reports.

Their action contrasts with the patchwork of local regulation which covers most states, and with the 30 states which have regulation in some degree. Only six have no state-wide fireworks regulations at all. All permit public displays under properly regulated conditions.

The "Sane Fourth" movement, with its campaign against blinded eyes, shattered fingers, and tetanus infections, is now more than 20 years old. And 1,500 injured children, victims of last year's celebration in New York state alone, testify that there is further room for improvement in our efforts to find ways to celebrate the national birthday which will be safer without being in any way less "glorious."

1,500 Community Forests

The idea of a town owning a forest for the pleasure and profit of its citizens seems new and strange. But it is not. In 1910, Newington, N. H., planted a community forest, and when Troy, Me., recently established one on 1,000 acres of tax-delinquent land it became the 1,500th community in the United States to have a community-owned woodlot. The American Municipal Association reports that more than 3,000,000 acres are thus owned and operated. Some 40 of them are extensive enough to justify employment of a professional forester.

Sometimes ownership is in the city generally, sometimes it is assigned to schools or hospitals—Wisconsin has 180 school forests in which the school children do the work under supervision.

Growth of timber crops for profit is the ultimate aim. But there are byproducts of hunting, fishing, and recreation. In many cases it has been a means of creating assets out of tax-delinquent lands which were liabilities.

A Californian will pay his divorced wife's college tuition in addition to alimony, which will enable her to live and learn.

Some folks still insist Bonito will remember the time hogans left holding the grab bag.

A Homespun Gent

Although Pot Shots doesn't go into politics in a serious way—merely our write-in campaign to elect a constable in 1938—we feel that an unmistakable man favoring Mr. Wendell Willkie was revealed in yesterday's Evening Times.

We suspect most of our "donations" may have missed this one, so we point it out for you today. To us, it indicates that Wendell Willkie is a man the farmer most certainly can vote for with confidence that he's a homespun gent.

The Evening Times, in a United Press dispatch from New York, had the following notation:

"When he was 11 he went into partnership with his brother Ed, selling small buildings to farmers. Small buildings, but this shows Willkie is a progressive that he was 25 years ahead of the W.P.A."

VERSE BY LADY WITH AN EYE FOR EUPHONICS IN POLITICS

Oh gosh, Wendell Willkie
 That's a name most silky.
 Perhaps he'll win
 And thus get in,
 Or maybe lose
 If voters choose,
 'Tis a matter for the gods,
 Also for the voting odds.
 Nonetheless, Wendell Willkie
 Is a name smooth and silky.

SUGGESTION FOR POLITICOES

"I had the toughest election campaign in all my years of officeholding some four years ago. Although I had never stooped to such things, my opponent revived the old custom of kissing babies. I let you that man made the rounds all over the district, kissing every baby he could find. I could see it was making him a lot of votes. So I started out after him. But I didn't kiss the infants. I changed their dummies for 'em. Mothers were so pleased that I was selected by a landslide vote, and my only campaign expenditure was $11 for talcum powder."

F. S.—I will use your contest dollar to pay off the last of that talcum powder debt.

NOT THAT KIND OF SHRUBBERY!

Dear Pot Shots:
 I'm where the boys in charge of the celebration have appointed a shrubbery chairman.
 What are his duties? Is he the guy who is going to enforce growth and cultivation of whisks, or is he going to collect same after the original owners have decided to disjunct with same?
 If he collects 'em, I'll bet he owns a mattress factory.

SERIAL STORY
Ticket to Hollywood BY W. M. PEARL

CHAPTER X
"COCKTAILS" Jerry Finney ordered. Then, smiling at Francie, "They make a nice martini in here, okay?"

Francie wanted to refuse, but she couldn't find words. Her head was still spinning from the suddenness of his invitation. Under the table she found a pin and prodded herself. It was no dream. She was actually sitting in the Tan Hat restaurant lunching with Jerry Finney!

The cocktails arrived, pale and icy, Jerry lifted his drink, gold-flecked eyes bold as they met Francie's. "Here's to your success."

Francie raised her glass, cautiously touching the liquor with the tip of her tongue. It burned like ice. She pretended to drink, then quickly set down the cocktail.

"But I told you I couldn't be on the program," she protested weakly. "I'm going to give my ticket to Gusty."

"The home-town boy?" Jerry sported. "Don't be silly, Francie. That lad's only trying to hog all the good angles. Come on, drink up."

"No, thanks," Francie quavered. "It's very nice, but I..."

Jerry said in confidential tones: "You know, Francie, you've got something. I don't usually risk taking strange girls to lunch, but you're different. The minute I laid eyes on you I said to myself, 'There's the loveliest girl in the world.'"

"Oh, Mr. Finney..."

"Well, Finney?" Jerry mumbled. "It's... Jerry then."

"We're going to see a lot of each other, Francie."

Francie said shyly, "Oh, Jerry, I, well, I've like a dream being here with you, it—it all happened so quickly I can hardly realize it."

Jerry accepted this adulation with a modest gesture that said all women felt pretty much that way about Finney.

Francie put down in her mouth, chewed and swallowed, tasted nothing. Presently Jerry looked at his watch and apologized: "I'm terribly sorry, Francie, but I have an appointment. I'll run you back to the hotel."

Jerry's scarlet roaster glittered with chromium. On either door was a gold crest with J. F. in big raised letters. When they stopped for a traffic signal, everyone turned to look. Engulfed in the leather bucket seat, Francie felt like a queen. She threw her head back and laughed into the sunny, blue sky. Life! She was drinking deeply from an overflowing goblet.

"I can't stop," Jerry said emphatically as they swept up to the hotel. "For the sake of the swarming for autographs. Like to do the Miranda Mile tonight?"

Francie had heard enough about the Miranda Mile to know it required an evening dress. "Can't we just get acquainted?"

"About 9, then," he said.

"About 9," Francie whispered, ecstatically.

Aunt Hat bubbled over at Francie's miraculous conquest. John Weston accepted the news coolly.

"This Finney may be all right, but I'd like to know more about him."

"Oh, Papa!" Francie danced about the room, checks aflame. His gorgeous and a perfect gentleman. And—and just think, Papa, with all the girls in Hollywood mad about him, he picked me!"

"Hmm... I don't know what to say, Francie."

Aunt Hat cut in sharply, "John Weston, are you going to deprive the child of this?"

"It'll decide this, Hat. You may go, Francie, but be back by 11."

At 8:30 Francie was pacing the A. J. veranda. At 10 Jerry's roaster raked into the driveway. "I'm late, Francie, but my valet took the night on, and I had trouble dressing."

He wore a white mess jacket. Francie thought he was the handsomest man she'd ever seen. They drove along Wilshire Boulevard past the glitter of the Miracole Mile.

"We might have a drink and a dance at one of the smaller spots," Jerry observed with a doubtful glance at Francie's dress.

Francie thought up a quick lie. "I'd rather wait till my trunk arrives, Jerry. It has all my evening clothes in it."

He yawned. "I'm fed up on that stuff anyway. I'd rather make love to you, Francie."

Jerry parked by the ocean, spangled by moonlight, and put his arms around Francie. He was not awkward and shy like Gusty. He held her tight and kissed her until she was breathless. It was marvelous, Francie kept telling herself. It was thrilling. But she was a little relieved when he released her.

"We'd better go back now."

JEROME

Local drive for war relief funds for the American Red Cross made little progress in the past week. The chairman, Rev. W. F. Wills, reported that $250 had been received with the large number of organizations not having responded. The original quota for the county was $400. This should be reached in the near future.

Approximately 400 signatures on each of the petitions being circulated by the Idaho Allied Civic Forces in Jerome, were sent to the Boise headquarters this week, according to Rev. W. F. Wills. In addition there were more than 100 names sent in from Eden and Haselton.

Two new Jerome 4-H clubs were organized recently. The boys group, known as the Milky Way club, under the leadership of Allison Bloss, has chosen Warren Merrill, president; Troy Strickland, vice-president; John Miller, secretary; and Wayne Crow, reporter. Other members of the club are Vein and Lonnar Williams.

A girls' group, the Needle and Thread sewing club, in Jerome, have Viva Lee Nance as president; Leah Faye Bailey as vice-president; Evelyn Miller as secretary; Ellen Salladay as reporter; Connie Praster, Dolores Salladay other members. The group is registered in clothing 1 with Mrs. Robert Rooker as local leader.

Members of the Needlecraft society met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clyde Jenkins and elected president, Mrs. Estima McKinzie; vice-president, Mrs. Helen Kennedy; secretary, Mrs. Maude McConnell; Mrs. Sylvia Gleason treasurer. Mrs. H. D. Cook, Jr. was appointed as club reporter and Mrs. E. E. Shawyer will have charge of the club's scrap book. Mrs. Porter Foster, Ethelley, was an out-of-town guest.

Mrs. R. A. Burks, Jr. and her granddaughter Barbara, left Thursday for Washington, D. C. Miss Burks continued to Cleveland, O., where she will resume studies at nursing at the Mount Sinai Hospital. O. Mrs. Burks will visit with her daughters, Mrs. Susanne Miller and Mrs. I. W. Parr at Washington, D. C., before going on to her home in Virginia. Mrs. Burks has been on an extended visit with her sons and their families in Jerome.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Link, Los Angeles, arrived Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Link's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Link, of the California visitors are en route to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Matzke, California, and former residents of Jerome arrived here this week to spend the summer and fall months. They traveled by way of Alaska, and plan to return home next November.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dalling, Sugar City, arrived Wednesday to visit with Mrs. Dalling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Duffin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anderson and son, Dean, California, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Matland.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Phoenix, Jerome, accompanied by Mrs. H. J. Swenson and daughter, Mary Alice, Pocatello, have returned from a trip

G. B. STERN FINDS BRIGHT, NEW ROLE FOR BRITISH LION

Readers who appreciate the mild satire that flows from the pen of G. B. Stern will be delighted with her new book, "A Lion in the Garden" (Macmillan, $2.50), which gives a new twist to the old symbol of English strength.

Norman Pascoe was busy trimming the hedge around his garden when a lion, escaped from a traveling show, purred at his elbow. At first he thought it was a cat and paid no attention. When he discovered his error, a courage born of curiosity made him enter the lion into the kitchen. Much happened to Norman in the years to follow. He went to war, and when he came back left his wife, his business, his money. One thing he did not lose—the soothing memory that once in his life he had faced a lion. Norman eventually fell into the job of caretaker at Westport on Duck's Island, a two-family summer resort in the Thames river.

There was a feud between the two brothers who had each inherited one of the subdivisions, a feud which Norman did all he could to keep kindled until one day when Mrs. Kurr Herrick, his employer, absent-mindedly said something that struck with sudden illumination in his heart and mind.

Folly broke the house parlor maid, who came out for the summer with her employers, these society women appreciated and understood Norman. Differing from his stolidity, she had a wild streak in her, and when a small legacy came to her, she bounded off, without proper notice, for a vacation on the Riviera. In the interval Norman, who leaned heavily on her ranting companionship, suffered acute loneliness until Gwendie, a beautiful old-fashioned girl of 20, came to take Polly's place and captivated the heart of the 50-year-old widower.

This book is warm with human relationships and the author paints not only vividly but understandingly.

HISTORY Of Twin Falls City & County

As Gleaned from Files of The Times

15 YEARS AGO
 June 29, 1925

Miss Ella Cowgill and Miss Ruth Cowgill left this morning after a visit with their brother, Paul K. Cowgill. Miss Ella Cowgill is general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in Detroit, the largest branch of the organization in the world. It has five large buildings, three large auditoriums and a number of dormitories. Miss Ruth Cowgill is in charge of the foreign book department of the public library in Detroit.

Miss Jessie Fraser, librarian, and Miss Edith Dygert, assistant, have gone to Seattle to attend the national convention of librarians.

37 YEARS AGO

June 25, 1908

D. L. Weaver, a brother of H. J., accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived in Piler last Sunday evening from their former home in Gallatin, O. They have come to make Piler their home. All the Weavers are here now, and they are a decided acquisition to this place.

O. M. Booth has been invited to deliver the Fourth of July oration at Piler.

H. F. Harder of the Twin Falls county fruit growers association, delivered word that the car of strawberries which was shipped from this place last Friday by express had reached Omaha in good shape and that a good price had been received for the fruit.

FROTHY DRAPERIES

Sheer textures in draperies make for cool-looking rooms on hot days. For a bedroom in frosty white, use headboard and dressing table skirt of matching lace net, simply fluffed with very full curtains of the same material at the windows. A nice effect is obtained by using two pairs of matching curtains as each window—one covering the entire window and falling just to the sill, the other draped to each side in a soft, deep V with simple tie-backs.

FINISH METAL

Before starting to refinish metal garden furniture, all rust or scale spots should be removed by rubbing carefully with a coarse emery cloth or brilliant green with a wire brush. Cover all bare metal spots with a coat of metal primer. Two coats of enamel usually are sufficient for renovating metal pieces. If the furniture is to be painted with oil and paint, be sure that you select an enamel especially designed to stand up well under these conditions.

The new anemone, an animal that looks like a flower, leaves pieces of the feet clinging to the rocks as it moves about. These pieces grow into complete individuals.

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

By BRUCE CATTON
 Evening Times Washington Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA, June 28—If you want to take a beating, just try running for a presidential nomination some time.

The candidates at the Republican convention took one-winner and losers alike. They didn't go out to the convention hall, and they didn't make any set speeches; they simply stayed in their rooms and held audience with all and sundry. Voters started calling on them about breakfast time and kept it up until long after dark, anxious to get a handshake, exchange a few words and in general see what makes a great man tick.

I spent a day watching Taft, Dewey and Willkie in action, and came away wondering that any three men could take it that way. It's like being the main event in a popular afternoon... or being father-confessor to the multitude... or living in a madhouse.

DEWEY COURTEOUS AND ATTENTIVE

In another hotel, Mr. Dewey, lodged in an impressive suite. The delegations started calling on him about 10 o'clock; by midnight he had seen 17 different delegations, sitting at his case with each of them, talking to them as long as anybody had anything to ask him or anything to tell him, leaning forward attentively, somehow conveying the impression to each set of callers that they, in all the mob, were the ones he most wanted to talk to.

Somewhere in the middle of the day he stole 20 minutes and went out to lunch; all alone; it was the only let-up. His secretaries and contact men wilted and sweated. Mr. Dewey, unaccountably, did neither.

TAFT KEEPS COOL AND CALM

Senator Taft held forth in a bare little hotel room whose furniture consisted of a half dozen chairs, a little table, a telephone, a stack of card indexes and a harried campaign manager. In a long corridor outside, a battery of secretaries sorted out the visitors. Nobody wearing a delegate's badge was turned away.

A delegation would be admitted... Handshakes, smiles, perhaps a few questions about this or that point of policy, perhaps a frank appeal by the candidate for support... then out they'd go, to be replaced by a new group.

Mid-day brought lunch, a chicken sandwich, glass of milk, vanilla ice cream. With it came a little group of mid-western politicians. Talk and lunch went on together on the old 16-to-1 ratio; 10 sentences to one bite of food.

Mr. Taft kept his coat on and looked cool and untrifled. Outside, a secretary remarked: "It's like this all the time. He was up until 2 this morning and started in again at 8:30. Don't ask how he does it."

KNOLL

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rayborn are vacationing in Yellowstone park. Before returning they will tour the Black Hills and points of interest in Canada.

Little David Anderson is recovering from a throat ailment.

Mrs. Vivian Norland has been elected to teach primary grades at Pleasant View school the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Aubrey, Nampa, visited at the E. J. Colburn home. Miss Judy Shepher is visiting Ruby Fender.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kall are at Rupert visiting their new granddaughter, who was born June 24. They are visiting the Kenneth Kall home.

Tuesday bridge club met at the home of Mrs. A. C. Victor. Helen Miller Bond was guest. High score was won by Rose Anderson.

VACATION CAMP LOOMS

JEROME, June 28 (Special)—According to an announcement received from Miss Marion Hopworth, state home demonstration leader, Moscow, the southern district vacation camp will be held at Easyly next spring July 31, Aug. 1 and 2. No details of the program have been announced but will be received later by Miss Margaret Hill, district home demonstration agent, Twin Falls.

NOTED SONGSTRESS

Miss and Mrs. Frances Hofffield, who have spent five months with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wiseman, were obliged to return to their home at Florence, Colo., because of Mr. Hofffield's physical condition. They left Hansen last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Day and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bedow left Wednesday for their homes in Sacramento, Calif., following their stay at the home of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bedow, and relatives in Twin Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Thometz Celebrate Golden Wedding Date

Relatives from five states will join Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Thometz, sr., in the celebration of their golden wedding anniversary here tomorrow; high point of which will be an elaborate anniversary dinner at the Park hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thometz, Boise, and Mr. and Mrs. John Thometz, Seattle, Wash., were scheduled to arrive late this afternoon for the occasion. They are sons and daughters-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Thometz, who have been residents of Twin Falls since 1919.

Marries Solon

Deferred Until June

Actual date of their 50th wedding anniversary was Feb. 18, 1940, but they postponed the celebration until vacation time so that their grandchildren, then in school, might be able to attend.

"Besides, the weather will be so much pleasanter," said Mrs. Thometz, recalling that they were married near St. Joseph, Mo., on a morning when a typical midwestern blizzard was raging.

Mrs. Thometz, nee Miss Anna Derks, wore a voluminous bustle-styled blue silk gown, and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms when she became the bride of Frank G. Thometz, and "there were 20 yards of material in the wedding gown," she smiled reminiscently.

The nuptial mass was celebrated at St. Peter's church. She and Mr. Thometz are members of St. Edward's Catholic church, and Mrs. Thometz is affiliated with the Catholic Women's league.

Mrs. Thometz was born at Ottumwa, Ia., and Mr. Thometz is a native of Chicago.

There was none of the attendant bustle and confusion, which usually is associated with "gathering of the clan," at the vine-covered, red brick home of Mr. and Mrs. Thometz, 122 Eighth avenue east, as Mr. and Mrs. Thometz today awaited the arrival of their son and families, and of several nieces and nephews, who will join in the festivities.

Former Missourians

Mrs. Thometz maintains a well-ordered household, and her home indicates that she still likes house-keeping at the age of 75. Her husband, now 73, keeps up an interest in gardening, and the neat landscaping is evidence of the fact that he has a "green thumb" for growing things. Mr. Thometz was at one time in the hardware and implement business here with his son, John Thometz.

They owned a large farm in Mississippi before coming west, and still have ranch property near Twin Falls. They specialized in blooded horses and livestock in the middle-west.

"I used to raise 500 blooded chickens a year myself," commented Mrs. Thometz proudly. Livestock raising was more than a livelihood with them. It was a hobby, too, she added.

Guests Expected

Accompanying the Frank Thometz will be four of their eight children, Miss Phyllis Thometz, Miss Mary Ann Thometz, Robert Thometz and Frank Thometz, III.

Other grandchildren who will be present are Miss Shirley Ann Thometz, Miss Jane Thometz and Miss Peggy Thometz, Seattle, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Thometz.

Among the nieces and nephews who will take part in the commemoration are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Thometz and Mr. and Mrs. E. Frank Hunt, Boise; Miss Bessie Thometz, who is already here from Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thometz, who are expected to arrive from Portland, Ore., in time for tomorrow's dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Thometz, Buhl; Mr. and Mrs. George Thometz, Knoll; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thometz, Miss Mary Thometz, Miss Cecilia Thometz and Miss Gertrude Thometz, Twin Falls, other nieces and nephews, will likewise be guests.

John Thometz and Miss Lucy Thometz, both of Los Angeles, a brother and sister of Mr. Thometz, were scheduled to arrive today.

Mrs. Josephine Klein, who has been a friend of the Thometzes since Missouri days, and who now lives in Twin Falls, will also join the party.

The former Mrs. Mary Scott Meade, widowed school teacher of Amherst, Va., who was recently wed at Amherst to Sen. Carter Glass of Virginia. Senator Glass is 82 years old, his bride, 50. His first wife died in 1937.

J. U. Club Plans For RNA Meeting

Preparations for the entertainment of the Royal Neighbors of America of Idaho at the 1941 convention, will occupy the attention of the J. U. club of the R.N.A. during the coming year. It was announced following a meeting of the J. U. club this week at the home of Mrs. Frank G. Kieffner.

A juvenile party was planned for July 16 at the Harmon park. A contribution of $5 was voted to the Red Cross.

Mrs. Lena Kunkle, past president, was presented with a gift. New year books were planned.

The next meeting will be July 17 at the city park with Mrs. Mable Young, Miss Myrtle Anderson and Mrs. Blanche Beath as assistant hostesses.

Games were played during the afternoon and refreshments served by the hostess. Next meeting will be July 12 at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Herbert Hunter.

CHIEFKAHKOOINDI

Chiepkahkooind Camp Fire Girls will motor to Shoelone falls at noon tomorrow for a picnic and outing. Luncheon will be prepared over the camp stoves at the picnic ravine.

Good Will Club Benefit Draws Many Guests

Nineteen tables were at play when the Good Will club entertained at a benefit card party last evening at the Odd Fellows hall.

High score awards went to Mrs. Fred Bertach and A. Shaw and low to Mrs. Henry Powell and Lawson Lookhart. Mrs. Cannon received the door prize.

Larkspur, the club flower, prevailed in the hall decorations. Refreshments were served following the games from a tea table centered with sweetpeas.

Mrs. C. D. Thompson and Mrs. D. V. Kinder, president and vice-president, poured.

Mrs. Haskell Carr was in charge of arrangements. Mrs. M. Bush, Mrs. G. A. Gates were other members of the committee, and the house committee, Mrs. Justin Doolittle, Mrs. Fred Bertach and Mrs. E. D. Brownfield, also assisted.

Proceeding the card party, a film on flower arrangements was shown under the supervision of Kernell Anderson.

Farmerettes and Guests Assemble

Mrs. Carl Boyd was hostess to the Farmerettes yesterday afternoon at her country home.

Mrs. Mollie Fisher, Mrs. Howard Manning and Mrs. Newton Wonnott were guests.

The afternoon was spent socially and refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alton Williams July 25.

Golden Wedding Party July 1st

Date for the annual Golden Wedding Circle party is Monday, July 1, it was announced last evening.

Given annually by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koehler, the party will begin with a matinee at 1 o'clock at the Romy theater, followed by luncheon served at the Baptist bungalow by women of the Dan McCook circle. Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Transportation will be furnished to and from the theater and luncheon site for those who desire it, by members of the Kiwanis club.

Uncle Sam to Get Famed Nephew

Asked if he were happy at prospect of becoming an American citizen, Dr. Albert Einstein, famed German-refugee scientist, replied "Sure, sure, you wouldn't be?" He is pictured above, with daughter Margot, entering federal building in Trenton, N. J., where both sailed easily through tests for U. S. citizenship.

Emanon Club Honors Two Groups at Tea

Emanon club members entertained the members of the Unity and Country Women's clubs at a smartly appointed tea yesterday afternoon at the Baptist bungalow, with Mrs. Fay Holloway in charge of the program.

Mrs. John Sommer of the Unity club and Mrs. McCall of the Country Women's club presided at the tea table, the appointments of which were suggestive of the approaching Fourth of July holiday. Instead of tapers, small American flags in standards flanked the central decoration, red, white and blue carnations.

USHERING TAKES ODD HOBBY ROLE

CLINTON, Ill. (U.P.)—Speaking of hobbies, Charlie Sprague of Clinton thinks he has one of the oddest in the country—and he probably has no competition.

Sprague puts people "in their places" and they enjoy it.

He is considered one of the outstanding exponents of what he calls "the art of ushering," a hobby he took up 16 years ago as an extra-curricular activity which he practiced after a day's work of "usher-ing" mail into boxes on his rural mail route.

Sprague says that what he considers a pleasant and enjoyable pastime is seeing the greatest possible number of people quickly and comfortably seated, without fuss or bother. And he handles every community affair in Clinton, so great is his renown among the townfolk.

The bug-to-become outstanding as an usher bit Sprague, he said, while he was showing people to their pews in the church he attends here. He read a book on ushering and studied various methods of churches, schools and movies in surrounding towns to improve his ideas on the subject.

Determining a need for trained ushers at the local high school he asked and received permission to begin teaching a selected group of students the "liner points" of ushering. The school board limits the group to 12 and applications have been received in such numbers that many are turned down.

Graduates frequently ask Sprague to allow them to return to school to help usher at some community affair where they again could greet the crowds with a smiling "May I show you to a seat, please?"

6 ACCEPTED FOR U. S. NAVY DUTY

Six youths, four from Twin Falls and one each from Wendell and Burley, today were accepted for duty with the U. S. navy and are en route to San Diego, Calif., for training school activities for a period of two months before being assigned to the fleet. It was announced this afternoon by M. D. Davis, officer in charge of the recruiting station at the postoffice building.

Davis also announced that various other vacancies are now noted and that applications are being taken daily for the service. The local office is open from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day with the exception of Sunday.

The six youths just enlisted follow:

Dale C. Herr, 22, 320 Fourth avenue north; Isadore G. Stecklein, 18, 141 Heyburn street; Lendon E. Cunningham, 18, 244 Sixth avenue west; Walter F. Hammelrath, 175 Taylor street, all of Twin Falls; James E. Gibson, 19, Wendell; Edwin F. Bergman, 18, Burley.

Bride's Attendant Is Hostess at Showers

Miss Juanita McKay entertained at an attractive pre-nuptial courtesy at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Lenore Diebolt, whose marriage to Merl Leonard Filer, will be solemnized next week. She will be Miss Diebolt's honor attendant at the wedding.

The courtesy took the form of a miscellaneous shower. At games, Miss Georgia Lou Erhardt, Filer, and Mrs. Irvin Creed, also of Filer, won prizes.

Vases, rolled as scrolls, tied at the ends of ribbon streamers and tucked into a bridal bouquet of pastel flowers, revealed the hiding places of the numerous shower gifts.

Refreshments were served at quartet tables centered with pink and white carnations in bud vases. The same colors were featured in the dessert course, wedding bell ices and cakes.

Mrs. J. R. Diebolt, mother of the honoree, was among the guests.

Group Initiated By C.O.K.K. Club

An all-day meeting of girls in C. O. K. K. club, which was organized last week, was held yesterday at the home of Miss Betty Lu Bailey, with members being initiated during the day.

At noon dinner was served on the lawn by the mother of the hostess, Mrs. Noel Bailey. Flower centerpieces for the table featured the club colors, red, white and blue.

During the afternoon a business meeting was held, presided over by the president, Miss Betty Rhea Stewart. Other officers are Miss Milla Tucker, vice-president; Miss Bailey, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Elizabeth Ann Ellsworth, sergeant-at-arms. Knitting was also enjoyed during the day.

Visitors Feted By Amigas Club

Several out-of-state guests were present at a meeting of the Amigas club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ernest Koch, Kimberly. Mrs. C. M. Fisher, president, conducted the business meeting, and Mrs. Bertha Irwin conducted a program on story telling and contests.

Guests were Mrs. Clinton Evans, Oakland, Calif., guest at the L. O. Evans home; Mrs. W. C. McDaniel, Little Rock, Ark., and Miss Grace Shrode, Evansville, Ind., sisters of Mrs. Fisher, Kimberly, and Mrs. Bessie Nebraska, sister of Mrs. D. R. Churchill.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

SMILING THROUGH CLUB HAS SESSION

A reading, "The Shaving of Jacob," by Mrs. Myrtle Ainsworth, and a song, "Danny Boy" and "Will You Remember?" by Mrs. Carrie Rappleye, comprised the program for members of the Smiling Through club, meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Phillips, 311 Fillmore. Mrs. Mae Price was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Wanda Olson, Salt Lake City, guest of her sister, Mrs. Phillips, and Mrs. Lois Averitt, Boise, guest of Mrs. Fisher, Kimberly, and Mrs. Bessie Nebraska, sister of Mrs. D. R. Churchill, were guests. Mrs. Reba Watson led the games. The hostess, assisted by her daughter, served refreshments.

B.P.W. to Picnic At Powell Ranch

Highlighting the summer calendar each year for members of the Business and Professional Women's club is the annual July picnic at the country home of Mrs. Ada Walkington Powell, honorary member of the club and a past president, near Berger.

Date this year is Monday evening, July 1, and members are privileged to bring guests. Cars will leave the home of Miss Ray Smith, 233 Third avenue north, at 6:15 o'clock Monday evening.

Hat-Into-Cape

Reports of the regional convention the fore part of the week at Glacier national park will be presented by Miss M. Iretta McCoy, state president, and other local delegates.

A fried chicken supper will be served on the spacious lawn, under the direction of Miss Merle Newlon, chairman.

Other members of the committee are Miss B. Marie Aukerman, Miss Etta Riley, Miss Myrtle Anderson, Mrs. Lora Doss, Mrs. Grace Parsons and Miss Bertha Wilson.

Gertrude Brevick Weds in Moscow

WENDELL, June 29 (Special)—Word has been received of the marriage of Miss Gertrude Brevick to Charlie Petersen on June 17, at Moscow.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brevick, and graduated from Wendell high school. She completed a teaching course at the University of Idaho and taught at Corral Creek school last year.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Petersen, Emmett, and graduated from the University of Idaho on his wedding day. He is affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

The couple will visit briefly in Wendell and Emmett before going to Seattle where they will live.

SPORT SQUIBS!

by Hal Wood
TRADE LOOMS: COWBOYS MAY GET PETE HUGHES IN EXCHANGE FOR VERNE REYNOLDS—PLUS SIZEABLE CHUNK OF CASH

It appears very much as if this writing that the Twin Falls Cowboy entrant in the Pioneer league is reverting to the type of baseball it played in the spring practice sessions.

By that we don't mean the club is still in the formative stage, but rather that it is letting the other teams beat themselves in most games that it wins.

Manager Frank Tobin's club has played fairly good ball throughout the season—but it has appeared most times to be just a bit short on power when the winning run should be crashed around the bases and the result is that the team has lost altogether too many close-score contests.

Clarifying that statement about "letting the other club beat itself" we can refer you to the final contest of the Salt Lake series. Trailing 4-2 going into the seventh the Cowboys scored five runs in that frame with the aid of three Salt Lake errors.

It's nice to win "the kind of games—but when the other team plays its ordinary brand of ball, then your club usually comes out on the short end of the count.

There has been a deal brewing in the Pioneer league since last September that possibly still may take place and if it does then you may see the Twin Falls club in the race for a first division berth.

As rumor has it, and we have been told on good authority that it's true, Manager Bill McCosky would trade Pete Hughes, the slugging outfielder and batting champion of 1939, for Verne Reynolds, Cowboy fly chaser.

On the face of it that doesn't sound like a very logical trade for the Ogdén club, but there is more than one way to look at it.

In the first place, the Ogdén club is first and foremost a development farm for the Cincinnati Reds and by now the Reds know that Pete will probably never go higher than Class C or Class B ball—not because he can't hit, but rather because he can't field.

If fortune had smiled on the likeable Pete, the chances are that he would have been in the big show long before this—but instead fortune frowned and Pete is down here playing for what the big leaguers would call "peanuts and coffee." Hughes' misfortune is that he has had both feet broken in his baseball career and as a result he is flat-footed and his running speed is about equal to that of a snail.

So Pete is destined to spend his days as a minor leaguer.

On the other hand, Verne Reynolds is a youngster of 19 years and his best playing days are still ahead of him. Manager McCosky is of the opinion that he could make a great infielder out of Verne (something of which we are skeptical) and you'll have to admit that already he can hit for a youngster. McCosky also probably has the idea that he can improve his batting technique.

It appeared last week when Hughes' batting average slipped to a mere .315 that the trade might go through without further delay. However, the hard-hitting outfielder came out of the slump with a flock of hits that could be heard clear around the league so now the deal is hanging fire again.

The chances are that the Reds would demand a good-sized cash chunk thrown into the trade. At one time we heard that the money proposition was $1,000—which is more than any Pioneer league team can put out for a player who is a cliche not to advance.

However, as the Cowboys and Reds go about their four-game series at Ogdén this week, negotiations may be resumed and if it should come about that Hughes puts on a Cowboy uniform there will be great rejoicing in the Twin Falls bleachers.

It is probable that a slugger like Hughes could set such a pace that he would instill a winning spirit into the local club that would carry it far.

COWBOYS BATTER OGDEN HURLERS

Baker Gets Victory In First Start as Club Wins by 10-3

OGDEN, June 29 (Special)—The rampaging Twin Falls Cowboys will attempt to extend their winning streak to three games here tonight as they take the field for the second time in the series against the Ogdén Reds.

Last night the Idaho team handed Sam Baker, the newly acquired University of Washington hurler, a game on a platter as they pushed across nine runs in the first frame before he even took the mound. With that comfortable lead, Baker pitched steady ball and the Cowboys came through with a 10-1 victory as President Bill Ulrich, down from Spokane, looked on.

With Dick Wake leading the way by banging out a double and triple in that big initial frame, the Twin Falls club sent 15 batters to the plate and had the bases full when the third out was made. Carpenter, starting hurler, was finally removed with only one man down after six runs had crossed the plate. Ken Polivka, who relieved him allowed three more runs to count and between the two hurlers, the Twin Falls club fattened their batting averages to the extent of 16 safe binges. Only one man in the Cowboy lineup failing to get a hit was Manager Frank Tobin.

While holding the slugging Reds to seven hits, Baker himself came through with a pair of safeties to aid the attack. The Cowboys played errorless ball behind his steady pitching and for the second night in a row looked like they had made up their mind to go places in the Pioneer league races.

However, injury to the club's leading hitter, Ernie Andres, won't help any. Andres got into line in his foot and has been sent to Twin Falls to rest until the club returns there for a single game on July 2. He will probably accompany the team to Boise for games on July 3 and 4.

For tonight's battle, Dick O'Boyle, with a record of four victories and seven losses for the campaign, will take the mound for Twin Falls and Harold Erickson will take his turn for Ogdén. Leading Cowboy batters were Wake, Verne Reynolds and Tommy Canavan, each with three safeties.

Robello Club Keeps Lead As Pilots Win

Salt Lake poured in three runs in the fourth inning to beat Pocatello, 4 to 1, last night and maintain its lead in the Pioneer league of three and one half games.

It gave the Bees the opening win of a four-game series. Tate of Salt Lake allowed the Cards six hits, while his mates got seven off Dobson.

Second-place Boise pushed through two runs in an extra inning to defeat Idaho Falls, 5 to 4. The Pilots bunched runs in the second and tenth as they hit Emmertson for 12, while Fields and Rene allowed 13 to the Russlets.

Twin Falls rallied in the cellar position to dump Ogdén, 10 to 3. Honors went to Baker, who held the Red sluggers to seven hits, while the Cowboys took 18 off Carpenter and Polivka.

Hansen's veteran ball club, winner of only one contest out of eight starts, will attempt to climb back into the fight of the SCI league in Sunday's tilt with Eden on the Eden ground—the battle being one of three scheduled for the afternoon's play.

However, the Hansen team can expect some tough opposition, because Eden, very much in the running for the league crown, will be gunning for a victory and if Gooding should lose, then there would be a tie league standings for first place.

Gooding will be entertaining Murtaugh and another pitching duel is in prospect. The last time these two clubs met, Earl Toolson shaded Lefty Porterfield in a 2-1 battle.

In the other contest of the day, Buhl and Sheehon, strongest teams in the league last year, will resume hostilities on the Shoshone field.

Entrance Fees in Fishing Contest to Help Build Docks

Proceeds from entrance fees in the fishing contest to be staged at Magic reservoir Sunday, sponsored by the Southern Idaho Boating club, will go into the dock building fund, officials announced today.

The club has only recently completed two docks, one at Thousand springs and the other at Salmon dam. Registration fee at Sunday's contest will be 25 cents.

Twin Falls and Jerome merchants are offering many prizes for the various divisions in which the contest is divided. Registrations may be made at the headquarters or at the dam. Starting at dawn, the contest closes at 6 p. m. at which time judges will inspect fish caught and award prizes.

Dodgers Gain on Reds By Beating Boston; Cards Defeat Pirates

NEW YORK, June 29 (U.P.)—The Washington Senators have brushed the dust of last place off their grey road uniforms today, and were temporarily quartered in the slightly more luxurious abode of seventh place.

They owe their slight rise in affluence to Charley Gelbert, one of baseball's saddest cases. Gelbert has been sitting around on the Washington bench practically all season doing very little playing.

But yesterday Gelbert gave the Senators a 4-3 victory over the Red Sox in 10 innings. He hit two doubles and a single, driving in three runs. In the 10th, with the score tied, 3-3, and Travis on base Gelbert punched out the game winning single, scoring Travis.

Combined with Athletics' loss to the Yanks, it enabled the Senators to come up out of the mines for a brief draught of fresh air. The A's kicked a 4-1 decision into the Yankee laps.

Whit Wyatt pitched the Dodgers to a 2-1 victory over the Bees in a game halted at the end of eight innings by rain.

The Chicago Cubs defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2 and the St. Louis Cardinals won over the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1 in two-night games last night.

The Cards' victory put them into a fifth-place tie with Pittsburgh.

Magpie Bounty to End on Sunday

Sunday is the last day on which bounties will be paid for magpie heads, through cooperation of the state fish and game department and the Southern Idaho Fish and Game association, it was announced by Dr. E. R. Price, president of the latter group.

The two-cent bounties per head are being paid at the Twin Falls police station. To date more than 2,000 heads have been brought in for bounty collection, amounting to over $40.

The Junior Cowboys of Twin Falls today had a full game lead in the Junior Pioneer league as a result of loop activity on three fronts yesterday.

While the second-place Burley team was taking a sound 20-5 thumping from a slugging band of Filer players, the Cowboys were turning on a little heat themselves to subdue a Jerome club by a 10-7 count. In the other league contest of the day, Kimberly downed Rupert by an 8-4 count in a well-played battle.

In defeating Jerome, the Twin Falls club won its sixth victory of the campaign and wound up the game with a nice run splurge in the eighth inning to tack the contest away. Mel Hulbert hurled his first game for the Junior Cowboys and struck out 11 batters, but gave up

Junior Track Stars Set 7 New Marks

FRESNO, Calif., June 20 (U.P.)—There were seven new records and western athletes today counted 18 victories in 21 junior events of the national amateur athletic union's 82nd annual track and field meet—the world's toughest competition in a year when war has called time on the Olympic games.

Senior events were scheduled tonight in Fresno State college stadium. The odds were about even that the New York Athletic club or the Southern California Athletic association would win the title.

The San Francisco club won the junior championship with 22 1/2 points. The SCAA was second with 150.

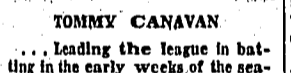

Eddie Morris, 17-year-old high school senior from Huntington Beach, Calif., was the sensation of the junior meet. He tied the junior 100-meter mark of 104; galloped to a new mark of 21 seconds in a 200-meter heat and topped off the evening with a 20.6-second victory in the final of that event.

Other new records include: Cliff Bourland, SCAA, 400 meters, 47.4; Bob Madrid, Olympic club, 5,000 meters, 15:21.7; Richard Browning, Olympic club, 200-meter low hurdles, 23.4; Stan Anderson, Olympic club, 16-pound shot put, 19 feet, 6 inches; Carl McBain, Olympic club, 400-meter hurdles, 53.3; and James Kehoe, Washington AA, 800 meters, 1:52.2.

Dempsey Heads for Atlanta to Get in Trim for Luttrell Battle

BY HENRY MOLEMORE
NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—With the look of battle and the smoke of a fifty cent cigar in his eyes, Jack Dempsey arrived in Atlanta today for his fight with Cowboy Luttrell there on Monday night.

Trained to the minute (and for no more than a minute) Dempsey planned to further harass his 45-year-old, 1895 model chassie, by wheeling it out to Peachtree street and doing a bit of roadwork.

As an aid to Atlantans who want to catch a glimpse of the old Manassa Mauler working out I would like to say that his roadwork plans are roughly this: He will taxi out to Peachtree and tenth and then run as far as possible toward the city and eleventh. He will then board a Buickhead street car, preferably one that allows smoking in the last three rows, and work eight full miles from a sitting position.

You will be able to identify Dempsey by his old familiar landmarks. His hair is still as black and his beard as blue as when he slipped through the ropes at Toledo in 1919 to blast the lumbering Willard. He still wears the same old wool, and his greeting is still the same warm and friendly "Hi, pal."

The chances are that he will do his roadwork in a well-cut double-breasted suit, and he is likely to stop half a dozen times and slip a buck or two to those who need a little of the ready. He's soft to the "touch," I mean.

I sparred a few rounds with Dempsey over the telephone just before he left for Atlanta last night and he plans to give Luttrell the full treatment with all that is left of his punch, speed, and skill. The old bluebeard of the ring is going to try to forget that he is a grayard man and gain revenge for the insults the Cowboy is said to have heaped upon him.

"I'm in pretty good shape," Dempsey said. "Not that I'm ready to challenge for the heavyweight title again, but I feel pretty good for an old fellow. Only weigh 25 pounds more than I did when I licked Jess."

He came in at 130 at Toledo, which means that he will do 200 or thereabouts when he boun-pades, walks-out of his corner to take a snipe or two at Luttrell. Jack will rough as much as the extra 25 pounds will allow him to, and in general employ the fighting tactics he did when he was champion.

This means he will start thronging punches with the bell, and the opinion of those who saw him work out with Arturo Godoy a few weeks ago is that Jack must have Luttrell in a hurry or turn the bout into a wrestling match in order to get on the floor for a rest.

"I just want to connect with one left hook," Jack said. "That will be enough. I can still hit just about as hard as I ever did, and I have heard that I wasn't a bad puncher at one time."

Just how Jack can take a punch at 45 is not known. It is unlikely that anyone will know even after Monday night, because Luttrell isn't going to land a punch.

That's my guess, anyway, and I defy you to name a person whose guesses are as consistent as mine.

Pete Hughes Climbs To Challenge Pioneer League Bat Leadership

The only change among the first five hitters in the Pioneer League during the week occurred in the fourth position when Pete Hughes of Ogden displaced Earl Owen of Salt Lake City. Hughes added 16 percentage points to his record of last week coming up to his place from a tie for the ninth spot.

Dale Laybourne of Ogden, lost two points since last week but remained in first place among the Pioneer league batters with a mark of .370. Robert Adams of Ogden, kept his average exactly the same, .300, while Walter Lowe of Boise lost 31 points and yet held his third position. Joe Egnatic of Boise, tacked on seven points and stayed in fifth place with .327.

Laybourne made most hits, 84, while Egnatic scored most runs, 63; made most total bases, 137, and hit one homer during the week making his total ten. Tom Robello of Salt Lake City made most two-base hits 19, while Gordon Duff of Ogden rapped out most triples, 12.

Bill Caplinger added two more victories making his record to date read 12 wins and two defeats.

Pete Hughes of Ogden put on a batting spree on June 23 against Potomac when he rapped out three home runs and drove in a total of six runs.

Play Underway In Kimberly Tennis Meet

KIMBERLY, June 29 (Special)—With Boise and Portland topnotchers scheduled to see action by mid-afternoon, several blistering duels were in prospect as the second annual southern Idaho tennis tournament opened here today.

Initial matches started shortly after 10 a. m. Lloyd Hager, Portland, Ore., was bracketed against May, one of the Boise entrants booked as a possible dark horse. Bob Packard, Kimberly club ace and No. 1 on University of Idaho, Southern branch, during the past season, was matched against Crow, another Boise performer.

Champ Draws Eye

Art Walker, defending champion, won't see action until later in the afternoon. He was one of several players drawing eyes because work prevented their appearance in morning matches.

Toughest initial assignment in the feminine ranks was drawn by Mary Warner, Twin Falls, who faces Helen Martin, Boise and Idaho state women's champion.

Favorite Role

Gooding's veteran doubles combination, Dr. Stuart Robinson and white-haired Branch Bird, slipped into an early favorite role as result of the draw announced by Ray Feltz, tournament chairman, and Bob Denton, Kimberly club president. Robinson and Bird meet Wayne Minnick and Les Hintz, Twin Falls, and are favored to conquer the younger pair.

Packard and Walker, ranked as pre-tournament doubles favorites, bump into tough opposition in the opening round. They meet Lundy and Lundy, strong Boise combination.

Pairings for the first round:

BRITISH ORDER COMPULSORY. HONG KONG EVACUATION

HUNDREDS TO BE SENT TO MANILA AND AUSTRALIA

By HAROLD GUARD
HONG KONG, June 28 (AP)—Declaring that a state of emergency continued, the Hong Kong government today announced the compulsory evacuation of women and children, starting tomorrow.

Women and children will be sent to Manila and Australia. It is planned to evacuate all women and children by July 5. Police were empowered to order not only women and children but other persons not needed for defense to leave, and all persons were advised to await orders. It was expected that many of the 250 Americans here would go to Manila on the liner President Coolidge, which sails at 2 a. m. tomorrow.

Wives and children of British army men were ordered to assemble Monday for immediate evacuation.

It was reported that the executive council had discussed the advisability of mobilizing volunteers for defense of Hong Kong.

The evacuation order came as Chinese reported that the Japanese were landing additional troops at the mouth of the Canton river ready to impose a blockade on Hong Kong July 3.

It had been made known yesterday that a number of ships had been detained to evacuate foreign women and children in event of an emergency. Apparently the emergency was now here.

THUNDER of WAR

(By United Press)
LONDON—The majority of our troops are moving to the Hungarian border, a Romanian legion spokesman said today. "We acceded to Russia's demands in order to keep our army intact to resist a possible Hungarian incursion."

MANILA—United States High Commissioner Francis Burton Sayre conferred with local authorities, Red Cross and United States army officials today to complete arrangements for the accommodation in Manila of many refugees expected here from Hong Kong.

First evacuees from Hong Kong were to arrive here Tuesday.

LONDON—A spokesman for the French national committee in London said today that there are "many highly trained French air officers, men and machines" in Britain. It was hinted that a substantial part of the French air force was in this country.

WIESBADEN, Germany—The official Italian armistice commission arrived here today and held the first of a series of three cornered discussions with delegates from the French and German concessions.

Gen. Charles Huntziger, chief of the French delegation, conferred with the Italians this morning before a formal call on General von Stuepnel, chief of the German commission.

LONDON—The "Polish government" in exile claimed today that 6,000 Polish troops from Syria had joined British forces in Palestine.

ROME—Italian newspapers hinted today that a German-Italian offensive against Great Britain was imminent despite Russia's occupation of Rumanian territory, which threatened to cause tumult in the Balkans. The newspapers also disclosed that Benito Mussolini had entered France near St. Bernard peak in the Graian Alps to inspect Italian occupied territory.

BUCHAREST, Rumania—The government denied officially today that there had been any fighting between Russians and Rumanians in any part of the country, including Bessarabia and northern Bukovina. It was denied also that the Russians had advanced at any point beyond the territory ceded to them.

ROME—Italy's 18th war communique said today that an Italian submarine had torpedoed an escorted 10,000-ton-armed British steamer and that the Italian air force effectively had bombed and machine-gunned British troop and air force concentrations in north Africa.

ISTANBUL—Turkey today announced that all civilians between 15 and 65 would be subject to service in some form if the government decides to invoke general mobilization.

The announcement was taken to indicate that the government was considering the advisability of mobilizing additional land, sea and air forces, fearing that the war would spread to the Balkans and the near east.

PAIR FINED FOR DEER MEAT SALE

Two Kimberly men, both who entered pleas of guilty to sale of deer meat, yesterday afternoon were fined $50 each and given suspended sentences of six months each as they appeared before Justice of the Peace H. M. Holler.

The two were Ernest Smith and Frank (Bus) Gellatly. They were both paroled to R. H. Denton, Kimberly, under rigid regulations of their conduct.

When first arraigned the two pleaded not guilty. However, they later changed to pleas of guilty. They were represented by George Paulson. Complaint was signed by Grover C. Davis, conservation officer.

Well-Fed

It is possible for a healthy, well-fed man to die of starvation a short time after eating a hearty meal. Some unabridged dictionaries give one meaning of "starve" as "to die of cold."

Nominee Is Best In World, Says Wife of Willkie

PHILADELPHIA, June 28 (AP)—Mrs. Edith Willkie thinks her husband is better than any man in the world; but she won't talk about herself very much or tell whether she would be as active a first lady as Eleanor Roosevelt.

A country girl from Indiana, Mrs. Willkie still was a little puzzled about her husband's nomination as she received 200 ladies of the press for her first official press conference. She was shy with them, and begged, "Please don't scare me to death."

But she was not shy with a delegate who walked up and said: "You have the best man in the field."

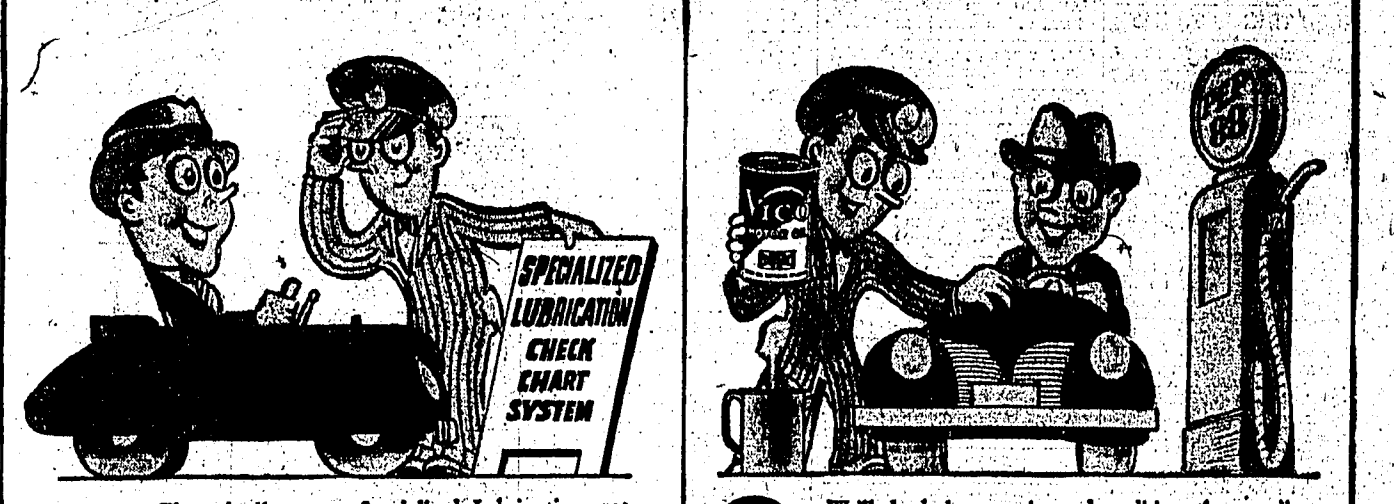

"I have not," she exclaimed, raising her gentle voice. "I have the best man in the world."

Her husband calls her "Billy" and she calls him "Win," and now she hopes that they can get away to a secluded spot for a few days of rest. "He promised her they could, and she considers him a man of his word."
