BRITISH AWAIT GIGANTIC NAZI BLITZKRIEG

BRITAIN OFFERS TO HELP GREEKS RESIST ITALIANS

ATHENS, Aug. 22 (U.P.)—A British spokesman said today the British navy and air force would go to the aid of Greece immediately if Greece resisted any enemy attack.

(In London, the Daily Mail in an Athens dispatch, said an infuriated crowd, angered by findings of Greek naval experts indicating an Italian submarine had torpedoed and sunk the Greek mine-laying cruiser Helle last week, had attacked and destroyed the Italian consulate at Crete.)

Tension continued here in anticipation of Italian territorial demands on Greece—although no demands have been made yet.

Reports persistently have been coming from Albania and the island of Corfu for herself.

Expect to Struggle Informed quarters believed Greece would not comply with any demands for surrender of Greek territory without a struggle.

Foreign observers viewed the situation gravely because of belief Italy, if she is to launch her suggested drive against Egypt and the Suez canal, must have a clear road to Egypt.

Accusations in Albania that Greece was arming bands of terrorists to attack Albania were denied here.

NAMES in the NEWS

(By United Press) Lieut. Col. Rene Fonck, great French war ace, said today Great Britain must lead to apply the lessons of the blitzkrieg in France if she is to resist successfully Nazi air attacks.

Seven Salt Lake Theaters Will Show Brigham Young Premier

By RICHARD W. JOHNSTON SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 22 (U.P.)—When Brigham Young emerged from Emigration canyon and told the Mormon pioneers that "this is the place," all his followers could see was arid desert, salty wastes and a few Lamanites.

TYRONE POWER

Tomorrow a 20th century Brigham, in the person of Hollywood's Dean Jagger, will descend from a chartered mailliner at the Salt Lake airport to find the desert blooming like the predicted garden and ready to play host to the world's most super-colossal world premier.

Hardship Looms The Young wagon train endured terrible hardships and triumphed over them. The stars—shuttling between the five theaters in which they will make personal appearances—probably will get their most vigorous workout since reaching the $2,000-a-week bracket.

Although the picture is scheduled to be shown in seven theaters, to an audience of 5,000 persons who already have bought their tickets, the personal appearances are booked for the five "cash" houses.

HOUSE APPROVES ADDITIONAL FUND ON FOREIGN LOAN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (U.P.)—The administration bill to promote economic defense of this hemisphere through $500,000,000 of loans through the export-import bank went to the senate today carrying a 183 to 144 house endorsement.

The house stayed in session late last evening to pass the measure, bitterly contested for two days, but the bill passed without amendments of any kind.

Borrowing Authority An increase of $1,500,000,000 in the borrowing authority of the reconstruction finance corporation, out of which would come the export-import loan fund. The remaining billion dollars would be available for loans to domestic industry for national defense plant expansions and for acquisition of strategic materials.

Elimination of the limitation of $20,000,000 on the amount that the export-import bank may loan to any one country.

The bill would permit loans to Canada in contravention of the neutrality law, which prohibits loans to belligerent nations.

Dentists Asked To Help Identify Murder Victim

Twin Falls county dentists were asked today to assist in identifying a partial plate from the mouth of a murdered woman whose body was found floating in Lake Crescent, near Port Angeles, Wash.

Sheriff L. W. Hawkins, after receipt of a bulletin request for aid from Sheriff Charles W. Kemp, Port Angeles, issued a call through the press to dentists of the county. He asked that the dental practitioners visit sheriff's headquarters and examine the Washington bulletin, which contains two clear pictures of the plate.

Washington authorities believe the murdered woman may be a resident of some northwest community in Idaho, Montana, Oregon or Washington.

Somewhere in France Nazis Plot an Air Raid on England

At the edge of a landing field "somewhere in France," a Nazi flight commander gives last minute instructions regarding bombing objectives in England to a group of German pilots. The plane in background apparently is a Stuka bomber of the type Germany is using in mass attacks on England. Picture was received in New York by Clipper.

BLAZES SPREAD IN YELLOWSTONE

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo., Aug. 22 (U.P.)—Crews of weary firefighters went into Yellowstone park control lines today with the hope of checking at least one of the park's major fires during the day.

A few scattered showers and increased humidity and cooler weather, park officials said, have helped the fire fighters make sizeable gains on all fires, although all still were out of control.

ROCKEFELLER KIN BACKS 'PRIMING'

Nazi Channel Attack Termed Experimental

Today's attack on a channel convoy by German artillery mounted along the French coast must be considered an experimental maneuver of doubtful expediency. It follows recent reports of fragments of German artillery shells being found in a British east coast town with no traceable damage.

The channel is too wide to allow control of its waters or the British coast by guns firing from France and Belgium.

Accuracy has never been attained for long range artillery. The margin of possible misses is too great to permit reliance upon the firing in a serious encounter.

Under its provisions reservists and guardsmen, including officers, will be liable for duty to swell the ranks of the present standing army of 232,000 men.

LULL PRESAGES GREATEST BLAST, EXPERTS BELIEVE

LONDON, Aug. 22 (U.P.)—Germany's aerial blitzkrieg against Great Britain slackened for the fourth straight day today. But the lull served only to make Britons more certain the big blow was on the way.

The general opinion seemed to be the longer the lull the heavier the blow when it came.

Again, during the early morning hours, not a single plane was reported over the British Isles. There had been only sporadic raids by single planes or small squadrons all day yesterday and last night.

Bad weather at least partly caused the moderation of the German raids. But indications were seen by many the slackening was deliberate. Closure of the entire border between occupied and non-occupied territory in France was cited, as was the suspension last night of all German radio broadcasting.

Britain took advantage of the lull, whatever the reason, to repair damage to airports and communications and to strengthen defenses against the next offensive.

Several bombs, dropped on a hilly, thickly populated district of southeast England as the Germans resumed their raids this morning, wrecked some houses. No casualties were reported.

Under its provisions reservists and guardsmen, including officers, will be liable for duty to swell the ranks of the present standing army of 232,000 men.

Not all these men are expected to be called, however. The army expects to take only 220,000 of the 232,000 national guardsmen.

INJURED WOMAN TERMED BETTER

Mrs. Beulah Marie Turner, route one, an expectant mother, today was reported to be in an "improved condition" at the county general hospital following treatment for injuries received in an automobile crash south of South Park yesterday.

The attending physician said the woman, wife of H. L. Turner, a farmer, was resting easily. Exact nature of her hurts was not disclosed.

The accident occurred when the car operated by Mrs. Turner crashed with another being driven by Raymond Niemeyer, 31, Concordia, Mo., at a grade crossing. Niemeyer and a passenger in his machine, Toby Pragman, 16, were not injured. Also escaping injury was an infant riding beside Mrs. Turner.

Total damage to both machines as a result of the crash was estimated at $450.

FIRE

Breaking into a car in one thing—but when somebody sets the seat cushion of your car on fire, well, take it from Mel Ainsworth, 144 Eighth avenue east, that's another story.

Ainsworth last night told local police that someone had broken into his machine and had taken some tools. This occurred about two days ago.

Last night he went out to get into his car and the machine had been broken into again, only this time nothing was missing.

Rather, he told police, he found the front seat cover on fire.

Frank Magel conferring with Bill Ulrich on downtown corner, shaking vigorous finger under Ulrich's nose. And worried lady—with those cotton pads still covering ears and forehead—dashing out of beauty shop, crossing Main avenue, moving her auto to another parking place, then going back to beauty parlor to complete her hair-drying.

Leon Trotsky Knew No Peace; Revolutionary All His Life

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 22 (AP)—Leon Trotsky, a revolutionary from youth, had known few years of peace. When he was not in prison, he was in exile in Siberia.

The Russian revolution of 1917 was almost as great a personal triumph for him as his more imposing and intellectual comrade, Lenin.

But Lenin died—after warning in his political testament that Trotsky, though "beyond doubt the ablest of revolutionary leaders," was "too sure of himself"—and Stalin, the man of steel, set about to destroy his rival, Trotsky.

In 1928, 11 years after he had helped to create the new Russia, Trotsky was sent into exile for the third time in his life, this time by fellow revolutionaries.

In his previous exiles, Trotsky had been sent by Czarist Russia to Siberia. This time he was refused sanctuary even in that bleak land.

Received With Hostility Wherever he went, governments forced him with hostility and forced him to move. He went to the Turkish island of Prinkipo in the sea of Marmora. He thought this would be his St. Helena. But Prinkipo became just a stopping place in Trotsky's odyssey of exile. Others were Czechoslovakia, France, Denmark, Norway.

Finally the man who built the Red army, and made it strong enough to crush all attempts at counter-revolution in the years following Bolshevik seizure of Iver, came here, landing with his family at Tampico, an apparently broken and feeble figure.

MEXICO MOURNS TROTSKY'S DEATH

(From Page One) Trotsky's wife, two bodyguards and hospital aides were at Trotsky's bedside when he died.

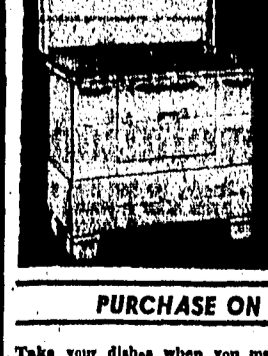

As soon as Trotsky died a guard of 100 policemen was put around the building, and extra guards were assigned to Dreschd. The hospital was closed to visitors and Mrs. Trotsky was left alone in the death room.

In a statement issued before his death, Trotsky's secretary asserted his assassin was an agent of the Russian secret police.

Fought Attacker He said Trotsky, old and small as he was, had fought his attacker valiantly. Furniture in his study and a telephone were smashed and the whole room was in disorder. Though his brain had been pierced deep, Trotsky had emerged from his study as guards ran to his aid.

NAZIS USE SHORE BATTERIES IN ATTACK ON BRITISH SHIPS

CONVOY FINISHES RUN TO PORT IN HAIL OF GUNFIRE

By HARRY HICKINGBOTHAM

AT A SOUTHEAST PORT, England, Aug. 22 (AP)—A British convoy in the Straits of Dover today ran the gauntlet of a terrific cannonade of long-range German artillery emplaced on the French coast from Calais to Boulogne.

Shells from the German guns screamed across a distance of about 20 miles but so far as was known none of the British ships was hit and the convoy, protected by smoke screen, steamed steadily out of range and sight.

(Arthur Menken, United Press correspondent at another southeast coast port, reported that after escaping bombardment by the German artillery the convoy was attacked by German dive bombers, apparently again escaping harm.)

As German super-big Berthas blazed away at the vessels in the first long range German shore bombardment of enemy ships during the war, British men of war escorting the convoy put out smoke floats to screen the attacked vessels.

Shakes English Towns
The thunder of the German guns shook towns on the English side of the channel and observers of the cliffs here saw the flashes of the German artillery in long rows through the haze. There was a shattering din each time the guns boomed, apparently firing in batteries of four.

The shelling started about 11 a. m. Four great columns of water leaped up from the sea on the first salvo.

Eighteen vessels were in the British convoy and they were subjected to the German fire for about 40 minutes.

Fearful of a German aerial attack at the same time the convoy was under the fire, British fighter planes flew over the convoy, ready to repel any attack from the air.

I saw the convoy enter the straits of Dover and proceed eastward. Then the German guns opened up. Four huge spurts of water were thrown up some distance from the ships, between them and the German batteries. The splashes were followed by terrific explosions, which shook this town.

Splashes Appear
A few minutes later I saw a flash from the French cliffs followed by three others. Then after a short interval splashes appeared in the water around the attacked ships. Although this continued for about 40 minutes the ships pushed on without altering their speed.

During the bombardment a German plane, apparently a spotter for the shore batteries, appeared in the clouds over the sunlit channel. British fighters protecting the convoy chased it away.

Small motor boats moving at terrific speed appeared with British destroyers. They made a smoke screen which obscured the attacked ships, plowing steadily on, from the French coast. The screen was perfect but the shelling continued and some of the shell bursts were on the English side of the screen.

Many of the shells must have passed over the ships under fire. Gradually the ships passed from sight, beyond Dover, apparently unharmed. British fighters continued their patrol of the sky but no German bombers appeared.

MAN CONFESSES SLAYING OF GIRL

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—Police announced today Peter Salem, 32, a longshoreman, had confessed he murdered 19-year-old Frieda Olsen, "a good girl," in a lovers' lane in Brooklyn borough Monday night after an unsuccessful two-hour attempt to seduce her.

"I did it because she objected to my advances," Salem was quoted by Brooklyn's District Attorney William O'Dwyer, who questioned him all night.

He said he beat the girl to death with a stone, with which he previously had knocked her down when she ran from his automobile, and that he siphoned gasoline from the car, poured it on her body and set it afire.

SHANGHAI TROOPS ASK VOLUNTEERS

SHANGHAI, Aug. 22 (AP)—N. F. Allman, commander of the American troop of the Shanghai volunteer corps, appealed today for additional American volunteers to aid in defense of the international settlement.

It was understood United States marine authorities intended to inaugurate special intensified training courses for American volunteers, who would be assigned to aid in settlement of the important business and financial district, which withdrawing British troops had guarded.

The American consulate general made representations to the Japanese consulate general today against damage done to American property at Chungking, the temporary Chinese capital, by Japanese bombing planes.

Usually well informed Japanese reported Japanese army negotiators had completed the draft of a "peace treaty" with the Japanese-sponsored regime at Nanking, which purports to administer territory occupied by Japan and seeks to undermine the Chinese government.

The information said the treaty would be submitted to the Japanese government with a view to its signature Oct. 10, anniversary of the founding of the Chinese republic.

ARMY EQUIPMENT READY FOR DRAFT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff, said today the army has enough basic equipment to undertake the conscription program without delay if it is enacted by congress.

Marshall made the statement at a press conference in answer to a question in which a reporter noted that draft opponents in the senate, now debating the bill for the 10th day, have been urging delay pending securing of latest type mechanized and other equipment.

"We have plenty of basic and essential material to train these men," Marshall said.

He said there were ample stocks of rifles for 3,000,000 men, plenty of gas masks, artillery, mortars, and other equipment, for the program. He said very few of the 400,000 men proposed to be drafted first would be "mixed up right away" with anti-tank, anti-aircraft and other new model guns which are not yet available on a large scale.

Town Through Error Sells Its City Park

ADA, Okla. (AP)—Walter Brooks didn't buy the Empire State building or the Brooklyn bridge, but he might just as well, because he won't get to keep the 10 acres of city park that he bought near Ada.

Brooks wanted 10 acres of ground near Ada and chose the property from a tax resale list. After bidding for the 10 acres, he went to the location of the property and found that he had bought Ada's city park.

Through a mistake that hasn't been accounted for yet, the park property had been listed on the tax rolls.

So Brooks will get his money back, and Ada will keep its park.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party by Mrs. Blodgett. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Abner Jackson, Halley; Miss Virginia Hume, Boise, and Kenneth Campbell, Boise. Floral centerpieces were of pink and white flowers, and of the three tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Scribes Urged to Follow Rules in Writing Contest

Entries are being received in numbers for the third annual contest for Idaho writers, sponsored by the Idaho Writers' League, but contest rules are not being observed to the letter, in some instances, according to those in charge. Contest closes Sept. 1.

One manuscript, entered in the short story division, is 10,000 words long, not eligible for prize, because the contest rules specify that stories must not exceed 3,500 words. Word limit on articles is 1,500.

No more than three poems, none to exceed 32 lines, may be submitted by an entrant, verse writers are reminded.

It is also emphasized that some entries are not complying with mailing rules. Each entry must be submitted unassigned, with the author's full name and address in a sealed envelope attached to the manuscript, but not appearing on the manuscript itself or outside envelope.

Sufficient postage must be enclosed, if the contestant desires the return of the manuscript. It is suggested that bulky manuscripts be carefully weighed and mailed with sufficient postage.

The contest is open to all Idaho residents, but only heretofore unpublished manuscripts are eligible. Contest closes Sept. 1, and prizes will be awarded at the annual conference in Boise in October.

Prize contributions, stories and articles, should be mailed to Mrs. John W. Graham, 201 Tenth avenue north, and poetry entries to Mrs. Bess Foster Smith, Weiser.

In one collection there are a collar and toque of feathers—definitely of Indian inspiration, and a beaded, Indian belt, shown with a light brown wool dress with slim-looking, box-pleated skirt.

Even Hepburn's Toes Eloquent In Newest Stage Personality

By PAUL HARRISON

NEA Service Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 22 — There have been many favorable estimates of the talents of Katharine Hepburn, especially since her stage triumph in "Philadelphia Story." But I believe this department is the first to be able to report authoritatively that she is an actress to the tips of her toes.

For one sequence in Metro's filming of the play, Miss Hepburn not only emoted from those extremities, but also appeared to be squiffed to her patrician eyebrows. She and Jimmy Stewart had had a big night (with conversation and champagne) by a swimming pool, and she now was allowing herself to be carried in his unsteady arms to the house. Her hair was damped and she was wrapped in an old brown robe.

This greeting the dawn, they also met the man whom she was supposed to marry that day. In defiance of such an awkward situation, Miss Hepburn proceeded to embrace Mr. Stewart. With her shoes on, this would have been only an ardent gesture. With her feet bare, it was something to watch. While her arms clutched the man carrying her, her rather long and astonishingly preternatural toes intertwined and clasped. If feet can behave estatically, hers did. All this was carefully recorded by eight shots of the camera under the direction of appreciative George Cukor.

"New Hepburn" Hollywood has had a hard time reconciling itself to the completely unfraternal manners of The New Katharine Hepburn. All I can say is that if her current cotillinity is an act, it is a performance worth an Academy award. Because her behavior goes beyond mere tolerance of visitors on the set and amity to interviews, she's the life of the company and the darling of the press agents. Still-picture cameramen find her an easy subject, and she rejects a few photographs than almost any other star. She works overtime without complaint, and even asks Cukor's assurance that she isn't making faces or hogging any scenes. Many an actress, called "difficult" or worse by her home studio, has roomed into personal popularity under frigid circumstances. Marlene Dietrich, now whooping it up at Universal after unhappy years with Paramount, is the best example. Katharine Hepburn, antagonized by RKO literally from the minute she got off the train, still thinks of that studio with a deep and abiding loathing.

Katharine Hepburn... yes, even a scribbler dare be so informal since a new amiability has seized the "Philadelphia Story" girl.

We had quite a lot of conversation, disjuncted by her frequent trips to an offstage mirror to rearrange her hair, and by Cukor's imperative howls for her presence on the set. Once she talked about Philip Barry, author of this play. Next trip, she praised Cary Grant, really the head man of the cast. This is her fourth picture with him, and it seems he has a marvellously mobile face.

Not Any More! Another time, she urged me to have tea—a special kind and extra strong. Back again, she talked about Stewart. Later she said she'd go on the road again with "Philadelphia Story" would do another play in New York late in the fall.

Fretful soon, John Ford's name was mentioned, and my interview went overboard for an argument. Miss Hepburn thinks he's a marvellously mobile face.

And anyway, I believe the circumstances were more interesting than the things she said. Her one-piece costume was a rag-bag item instead of a glamor gown. She shuffled on and off the set in a pair of old bedroom slippers. She sat on a rolled-up carpet on the floor and talked, smoked, sipped tea, fixed her make-up, examined and praised some stills, made a joke about "Gylva Seariett," her worst picture flop.

This is the gal we used to call Cantankerous Kate.

ERMINE ON GRAY

If you have little interest in black, invariably the color of the "first fall dress," in many women's wardrobes, consider gray. Virginia Rhines, talented newcomer to the field of American design, who just recently showed her first collection, features this shade—in silk and in wool. One of the smartest dresses she has created is of gray sheer wool with detachable ermine collar and cuffs. The frock may be worn without the fur now and with it when the weather is cooler.

COLLEGE "DATERS"

If a college girl wants to major in dates, she is wise to have at least one black velvet "date" dress. It's nice in modified swing-skirted, slim-bodied versions with collar and cuffs of white Irish crocheted or silk pique.

ALBANIAN PRESS FLARES WITH ATTACKS ON GREECE

NEWSPAPERS IN ITALIAN COLONY REOPEN BATTLE

By REYNOLDS PACKARD
TIRANA, Albania, Aug. 22 (UP)—The Albanian press flared with new attacks on Greece today and charged that Greek prisons on the Albanian-Greek frontier are jammed with kidnaped Albanians.

The authoritative frontiers of Tirana charged Selim Salkan, an outstanding Albanian intellectual, had been kidnapped by Greek gendarmes and taken across the border to a Greek prison.

It also was charged the prisons of Janina and other points close to the frontier were packed with Albanians who had been kidnapped either inside Albania or in the Greek province of Clamuria.

It appeared the Albanian campaign against Greece is taking a course similar to that of Italy against France prior to Italian declaration of war.

No Military Solution Yet
 My impression after a tour of the country and talks with both Albanian and Italian officials is that a military solution will not be attempted until diplomatic efforts have broken down. And there is no question the situation is still in the diplomatic phase.

The minimum demand of the Albanians against Greece appears to be for annexation of the Claruria region. The maximum demands are for Clamuria plus Corfu and Epirus. The campaign against Greece is being handled in Albania by Albanians themselves. The Italian position is described as one of supporting Albania's claims but not advancing them directly.

Demands against Yugoslavia are less well defined and it seems likely they will not be pressed vigorously until after the Greek issues are settled.

No Troops Massed
 A two-day trip along the Greek-Albanian frontier revealed no signs of massing of troops although frontier guards have been increased. At ports of Valona and Porto Edda in southern Albania and at Durazzo I saw no Italian warships nor any preparations for landing troops.

However, my impression was that Italy had no necessity for sending troops to Albania in advance since all that might be needed could be moved within 24 hours by air and sea.

Plane Repair Completed; Aerial Mapping Resumes

Aerial survey of the Snake river valley got underway again here today when Pilot Don Cardiff lifted his heavy, high altitude flying equipped plane from the municipal airport and headed for the stratosphere with cameraman William Webber handling the sensitive plates.

Near disaster overtook the photographic duo near Buhl a few weeks ago when the motor of the ship "blew" a cylinder. Up above 25,000 feet, the two airmen glided-in to a safe landing at the Buhl field.

Cagle Does Work
 From then on the job was up to T. T. Cagle, manager of the Twin Falls airport and one of Idaho's "every" few citizens holding an air-plane and engine license with the federal government. Among other things, Cagle installed a new crankshaft, new connecting rods and one new "head" in the heavy motor, doing the work at the local airport hangar.

Yesterday the motor was taken back to Buhl and installed on the ship by Cagle and late yesterday afternoon Pilot Cardiff got the plane into the air once more, bringing it back to Twin Falls. Other test flights were held this morning and Cagle pronounced the engine to be in perfect shape for further work "way up there."

AAA Contract
 The pictures of agricultural areas in the counties of Twin Falls, Gooding, Minidoka, Jerome and Cassia are being made under contract with the federal department of agriculture, A. A. A. The ship used in the work, a huge Fairchild eight-place monoplane powered with a 450-horsepower motor and capable of flying above the 25,000-foot level, is owned by Watson Airtotes, Inc., Long Beach, Calif.

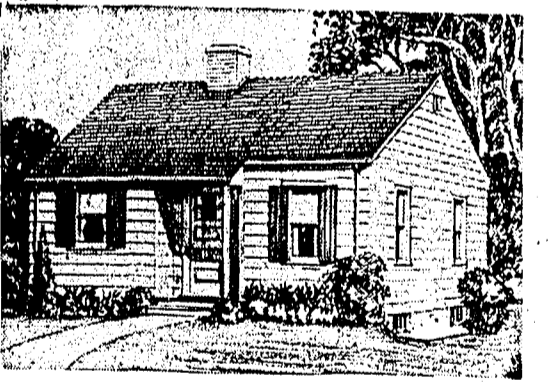

The camera used in the work is a Fairchild military type weighing 70 pounds. It takes a roll of film 75 feet long and nine inches wide. One hundred and ten individual photographs are taken on each roll and the camera is entirely automatic. The pictures are taken through a hole in the bottom of the fuselage and cover an area of approximately seven square miles each.

Use Artificial Oxygen
 Working in the sub-stratosphere at an altitude of nearly four miles, the fliers breathe artificial oxygen and wear heavy fur lined flying suits. Temperatures encountered up there, while the reading on the ground is 100 above, sometimes hit zero.

Each county is mapped as a separate unit in the strips of photographs. The individual pictures overlap each other 65 per cent in

RIVER VOYAGERS BEHIND SCHEDULE

SUN VALLEY, Aug. 22 (UP)—Five days behind schedule, Alexander G. Grant, Jr., of New York, and his two companions, Rodney Allen, Lakeville, Conn., and Coleman Nimmick, New York, today reached Crandall's ranch, 80 miles from the starting point of their canoe trip down "the river of no return."

Grant said shallow water and many rocks in Salmon river had delayed the trip but they expected to make up for time lost on the next lap.

From Crandall's ranch the voyagers enter a 16-mile stretch known as the "Impassable canyon" because of sheer rock walls which rise thousands of feet from the river.

Grant and his companions started down the river Aug. 13. They were traveling in 17-foot kayaks built of rubber over a wooden frame.

There are about 15 pounds of steel springs in the average davenport.

HUNGRY YOUTHS' BREAK-IN FOILED

SHOSHONE, Aug. 22 (Special)—Two well-dressed midwestern youths were in Lincoln county jail today facing probable charges of attempted burglary.

Allen P. Young, 16, 3561 West Belden avenue, Chicago, and Kempton Cushman, 15, Echo, Minn., were arrested at 11 p. m. Wednesday by Night Marshal R. W. Swope. The boys were allegedly trying to break into the rear of Kinney's grocery.

Cushman told officers that he and Young had not eaten for 24 hours. The boys alighted from a freight train with a third youth at about 9:30 p. m. Wednesday. The third transient apparently was not involved in the break-in effort.

RUMORS REPORT ULRICH TO SELL COWBOYS

SPORTS

YANKS WIN 10 OUT OF LAST 12 GAMES TO REENTER RACE

Local Syndicate Claimed Ready to Purchase Team

By HAL WOOD Evening Times Sports Editor William P. Ulrich, owner of the Twin Falls Cowboys, arrived in Twin Falls late last night and today reports went the rounds that the local entrant in the Pioneer league would be sold to a group of Twin Falls business men before another season gets under way in the highly successful Class C professional baseball circuit.

Ready to Sell?

BILL ULRICH Reported here to negotiate sale of Twin Falls Cowboys to local syndicate.

Only foundation thus far for the rumors was the fact that Mr. Ulrich had been reported "anxious" to dispose of his holdings down here and it was known that local sportsmen were just as anxious that the ball club be retained in Twin Falls.

Reliable information here pointed to the formation of a syndicate of probably 10 local business men who would purchase the franchise and team, install a new manager and business manager for next year and generally go about rebuilding from all angles.

Jansen Hurls 3-Hitter to Trip Cowboys

Larry Jansen, the right-hander declared a free agent by Commissioner Landis last spring after the Boston Red Sox had attempted a "cover-up" contract with him, pitched about the nearest thing to a perfect game ever hurled on the Jaycee park diamond last night as he chalked up a 3-0 victory for the Salt Lake Bees over the Twin Falls Cowboys.

Salt Lake strengthened its hold on first place in the Pioneer league last night as the Bees hammered out a 3-0 victory over last-place Twin Falls.

Durocher Optimistic as Schedule Favors Dodgers in Dash to Wire

By HARRY GRAYSON NEA Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK—What's the chance of a repeat of the 1937 world series? That 20 series was at once the most spectacular and daffy of all series, unless one excepts the 1934 series when the Brothers Dean took charge.

"The schedule favors us; we'll win!" says Boss Leo Durocher, above, who had active duty forced on him by an injury to Pee Wee Reese.

Cleveland's chances can be summed up in a word—well. With Feller backed by two better than fair pitchers, the Indians can't even talk themselves out of this one.

Brooklyn's chances depend on two situations dovetailing, a consistent race by the Dodgers and a slump by Cincinnati.

Reds Wind up Away From Home The Dodgers are home practically the entire month of September and the Reds play only six games at home after Labor day.

any series is bound to be with one end played in the vast Municipal stadium and spectacular as any series must be bringing two such clubs together.

Leo Durocher was a debatable choice as manager but he wound up being selected as the manager of the year for 1939.

Rainiers Add Two More Games to Lead

Seattle gained two full games on Los Angeles by administering a double shellacking to the Angels last night, 10 to 2 and 6 to 1.

Soose Beats Zale--But He Fails to Win Crown

MILLS STADIUM, CHICAGO, Aug. 22 (AP)—Just what the "middle-weight" division needed was another "champion" and here he is—young Billy Soose.

Billy is the champion killer. First he disposed of New York's champion Ken Overlin, then, in complete command for the last eight rounds last night, he peppered N.B.A. champion Tony Zale into submission before a stunned crowd that expected to see the same devastating Zale who technically knocked out Al Hostak only a month ago.

Five Heavyweights Capable of Fighting Louis, Survey Reveals

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—A recent survey conducted by either the D.A.R. or the right wing of the metropolitan museum of art, I forget which, revealed there are but five heavyweights in the United States worthy of a chance at Joe Louis and his title.

New Yorkers Defeat Tigers Again; Reds And Dodgers Beaten

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—The Yankees are making menacing gestures again. They've won 10 out of their last 12 games and open a 3-game series with the Cleveland Indians today which may determine whether they are going to be a vital factor in the American league stretch drive.

There's little doubt that the Yankees are playing the best ball in the league right now. They could keep on doing that from now until the last day of the season and still not win.

Amateur Golf Field Opens Play Tuesday

By HENRY SUPER

NEW YORK, Aug. 22 (AP)—The entry list for the national amateur golf sectional qualifying rounds was issued today and showed that, although the odds are at least a million-to-one against it, your 1940 champion conceivably can turn out to be a Hollywood movie star, the fation's No. 1 crooner or a former world tennis champion.

The tournament will be played Sept. 9-14 at the Winged Foot Country club near Mamaroneck, N. Y., and next Tuesday the majority of the field of 150 starters will be determined when 748 players go out in 36-hole rounds in 23 cities of the country to shoot for 140 places in the championship proper.

The places available in the various sections were allocated by the U. S. Golf association on the basis of number of entries and quality of the respective fields.

Three double plays by Boudreau, Mack and Trosky helped the Indians defeat the Red Sox, 4-2, despite the fact Joe Cronin's club made 14 hits to the tribe's seven.

Wood River, Warm Springs Creek Planted With Trout

KETCHUM, Aug. 22 (Special)—Game and fish officials promise a considerable addition to the trout planting program right away, and the consignments are designed for Wood River and Warm Springs creek.

The most recent planting was under the supervision of the Shoshone Rod and Gun Club, with the cooperation of the state game department. The trout were an exceptional lot, running from seven to 14 inches. An interesting circumstance was noted in connection with the trout planting. Not long ago the Shoshone club—one of the most active in the west—equipped a truck with a fish tank, which dumps its cargo at the appointed place with little effort. Prior to releasing the fish the engine is started for operation of the pump, and water from the stream is pumped directly into the tank that the trout may become accustomed to the proper temperature before they are released.

Process Valuable. The process has proved exceptionally valuable in the transplanting of trout, and the loss is reduced to a minimum, because of the fact that the young trout immediately respond to the temperature change from aerated and go on about their business. It has been stated that the state department has seen the value of the system and has ordered five or six trucks equipped similarly to that of the Shoshone club. Practical sportsmen heartily endorse the outfit as extremely efficient in the transplanting of trout from the hatchery to the streams of the district. The repeated planting of the past two or three years has proved of great benefit.

Catches Good. During the past two weeks numerous parties have lined both Wood River and Warm Springs creek, and fine catches are reported. Other nearby creeks are equally favored, and during the recent local celebration it was noted that many easterners preferred a couple of days in the open to the rodeo. Good catches are recorded.

One enthusiast confided to a number of friends that he fished in Magic reservoir the other day and captured a "40 two-pounder." When advised that he had stopped over the limit he frankly backed up and stated he and his wife might have caught 40, and there was one two-pounder in the lot.

Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON NEA Service Sports Editor. The fight game is so dead that Mike Jacobs is too sick to talk about it, but his suggested cure is a $550 top at Madison Square Garden this fall.

What the entire business needs is a good rest, but Jacobs will continue to harass the small clubs, which make big attractions possible, by staging matches which belong in the suburbs.

As long as Jacobs is set on bringing into the Garden bouts the late Tex Rickard wouldn't fool with, he should make the maximum admission 55 cents, which is what the same cards would sell for in neighborhood arenas.

Billy Conn and Bob Pastor are going to fight in the Garden, Sept. 6, at an $1150 top only because that was the tax in the first place, and Jacobs feels he would be "cheapening the production by shaving it."

The reason he called this one off at the Polo Grounds "on account of rain" was the advance sale totaled no more than $4,000.

The putting off of the Conn-Pastor affair means Joe Louis will be idle until next summer.

Talent is so scarce that Jacobs is falling back on obscure local boys for two shows following Conn and Pastor.

Steve Belloise, a promising middleweight of the Bronx, tackles Ceferino Garcia, Sept. 12, and Al Davis of Brownsville engages Tony Martellano of the east side, Sept. 20.

The promoter hopes to get an opponent for Ken Overlin, New York's middleweight champion, out of the first engagement, and someone to square off with Henry Armstrong, the welter ruler, in the second.

Tony Zale of Gary, Ind., the real middleweight boss, refuses to do business with Jacobs, contending he was given the run around when he needed help.

Meanwhile, George Pace, Cleveland Negro, boxes Lou Galica for the bantam leadership in a benefit show at the Polo Grounds tonight.

They're wrapping up a lot of muscle with this one as an added attraction, and which probably will be the real attraction, but the customers are even more apathetic toward this one than they were toward Conn and Pastor.

The boxing racket was never so sadly lacking in new and magnetic faces.

A lot of boxers came out of the last great call to arms... from Gene Tunney on down the line.

The boys have time and the inclination to get pugilistic when they fix bayonets.

Mike Jacobs' and professional boxing's only hope seems to be the military movement.

13 Feminine, 15 Male Teams Vie for Titles

POCATELLO, Aug. 22 (UP)—Thirteen women's teams, including the 1939 champions from Kuna, and 15 men's teams, including the 1938 defending champions, Twin Falls Troy-Nationals, will meet at the annual state softball tournament to be held in Boise Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2, it was announced by Austin L. Jones, district softball commissioner.

Softball teams to represent Idaho in Detroit at the national championship tournament will be picked from among those attending the state meet. The state tourney was originally scheduled for Nampa, but due to lack of a suitable playing field it was changed to Boise.

Three teams will represent south central Idaho in the state meet. Twin Falls Troy-Nationals team automatically enters as defending champion. The other two teams will be the winner and runner-up in the district tournament Sunday, Aug. 25, at Buhl's Jayces park.

Congress passed the first patent act on April 10, 1790.

WILLKIE BOOSTER CLUB WILL FORM

Organization of a Wendell Willkie for President club will be completed in Twin Falls in the immediate future and a downtown headquarters will be established, it was learned today by the Evening Times.

The local club will be affiliated with the Idaho Willkie clubs which are in turn a member of the Associated Willkie clubs of America. Oscar W. Worthwine, Boise, is chairman of the Idaho unit.

Worthwine Asked to Serve
The Evening Times learned that Mayor Joe Koehler has been asked to serve as chairman of the local club. Friends of the mayor, however, say that he will probably be unable to accept because of other business.

In the plan of organization it is declared that "since this is a movement of 'We, the People,' and since practically no money can be expended, the Willkie clubs in Idaho must be organized from the ground up and not from the top down."

It is therefore necessary that Willkie enthusiasts in each community at once take the initiative and complete the organization of the local Willkie clubs. In order that each part of the state may have representation, the state has been divided into eight districts and each district will select its own representative on the advisory board, who will be a vice state chairman. To accomplish this purpose the state has been divided into various districts.

Fourth District
The Magic Valley area and Twin Falls are included in the fourth district of the state, it was pointed out. Counties in the fourth district include Blaine, Camas, Cassia, Gooding, Jerome, Lincoln, Minidoka and Twin Falls.

Formation of the various clubs is asked at once but the "big push" is to be held until Sept. 10. Likewise it is stated that the Willkie clubs must remain independent groups concentrating on the independent and Democratic voters.

Organizers of the club are asked not to overlook the young voters, both men and women.

"Willkie has appealed to the imagination of the young people and they can do as much for Willkie as any other group," Mr. Worthwine, state Willkie leader, told Twin Falls Republicans.

"We feel that it is extremely important that you enlist the active and enthusiastic support of the women in your community. They are very valuable to our campaign. Do not overlook them in forming your organization. It is suggested that you have a woman as either president or co-president or at least vice-president of your club."

Balls Autographed by Cowboy Team Will Be Given to Kids

Three baseballs, autographed by all members of the Cowboys baseball team, will be given away free Friday night at the Twin Falls-Idaho Falls game as a part of the back-to-school day program being sponsored by the merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, it was announced today by Russell H. Jensen, chairman in charge.

In addition to the baseballs, Jensen said, six of the Times-News "Cowboy knothole gang" shirts and caps will also be given away at the game.

All school children can attend the game free and those not accompanied by their parents are to meet at Harmon park at 7:30 p. m. and will march from there to the baseball field under the direction of Al Westergren.

The autographed balls which will be given away are through courtesy of Hugh Pace, business manager of the baseball club.

Another feature of the day's activities will be the 10 a. m. parade which will form in front of the library building. The parade will be divided into four competitive and one non-competitive divisions and prizes will be awarded to the winners in the competitive divisions.

All participating in the parade will receive "free treats," Jensen said, and about 1,000 are expected to participate. The four divisions will be old fashioned, comic, pets and pioneers.

ITALY SUB WINS BATTLE AT SEA

ROME, Aug. 22 (AP)—A high command communique asserted today an Italian submarine had sunk a British submarine in the eastern Mediterranean, that a submarine had torpedoed a British destroyer, and that Italian airplanes had struck two of a group of British cruisers which they heavily bombed.

Italian planes raided Gibraltar, the communique said, and one of them failed to return.

Official dispatches amplifying the communique said in the cruiser attack, Italian planes singled out two 10,000-ton and four 5,000-ton cruisers as special targets and carried out their bombardment in waves.

LEWISTON FARMER KILLED
LEWISTON, Utah, Aug. 22 (AP)—Martin Harris Pond, 52, a Lewiston farmer, was killed late yesterday when he fell from his tractor and was crushed against a threshing machine. His brother, Stillman Pond, witnessed the accident. Pond was prominent in the L. D. S. church, and had served four missions.

Idaho Evening Times, various Republican party leaders said that a local club would be formed in the immediate future and that it would remain active throughout the campaign.

Worthwine's message to G.O.P. leaders in this area emphasized that the Willkie clubs are intended to promote the interests of Willkie alone. They will not work for any other candidate, Republican or Democratic.

Hagerman Is Host To LDS Reunion

HAGERMAN, Aug. 22 (Special)—Reorganized L.D.S. reunion was scheduled to begin Tuesday with a get-acquainted meeting, but due to the early arrival of a number of people the first service in the tent was Monday evening.

Hagerman has been host to this conference since 1924. Representatives from Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah and Nevada are in attendance. Program includes morning lectures and classes, special emphasis on religious training. Afternoon includes recreation. Woman's department holds meetings in the afternoon under direction of Mrs. Pearl Handy, Heyburn, district superintendent. Margaret Hill, Twin Falls, state extension worker of the economics department, spoke Wednesday on art in the home.

Speakers include Elder Rosco Davey, Seattle, Evangelist J. F. Curtis, Spokane, and Elder J. W. A. Bailey, Salt Lake City, who will speak Friday on whether the book, "Children of God," by Vardis Fisher, is a his-
