TAX REDUCED IN TWIN FALLS COUNTY Plans Completed For Full Advance Into Indo-China

SIX CENTS PER $100 CUT FROM LEVY FOR 1940

Reduction of six cents per $100 valuation was shown today in the 1940 Twin Falls county tax levy, along with a slash of five cents per $100 valuation in the state charge levied against this county.

The decreases were revealed as the board of county commissioners approved the 1940 levies for the state charge, the county, cities and villages, and all other taxing units within the county.

Levy by the county itself is set at $1.08 for 1940 as compared with $1.14 last year; the state charge is 60 cents as against 65 cents in 1939.

The full list of 1940 levies, as approved today, shows both increases and reductions among the many taxing units of the county.

The Twin Falls city levy increased 10 cents. Buhl city climbed 25 cents; Piler 20 cents; Hansen went up $1.10 per $100 valuation; Hollister village $2.10; Ketchikan and Murtaugh remained unchanged.

Reduction in the levy by the county itself was achieved through abandonment of the seven-cent tax of last year for hospital equipment. General school levy of 31 cents returned one cent of the reduction. The school tax is fixed by the state board.

Twin Falls school and Twin Falls highway districts showed levies unchanged from a year ago. Twin Falls bond levy is also unchanged.

The various levies for this county, based on each $100 valuation for 1940, were approved as follows: (1939 figures in parentheses):

County—$1.08 ($1.14). The county levy is divided 30 cents current expense, 31 cents general fund, two cents agricultural fund, 20 cents poor fund.

Cities and Villages

Twin Falls—$1.50, general, $1.25, other, total $3.25 ($3.25).

Buhl—$1.50, general, $1.00, other, total $2.50 ($2.50).

Piler—$1.50, general, $1.10, other, total $2.60 ($2.60).

Exemption of Married Men Strikes Snag

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (U.P.)—Administration plans for blanket exemption of married men from conscription during peacetime was today blocked by a provision in the law which may send them to the army camps.

Discovery of the snafu by select service committee lawyers caused a revision of the draft law and regulations. President Roosevelt will issue when he signs the executive order giving the regulations the force of law.

The provision is among the definitions of law and reads:

"The term 'dependent' when used in this act shall mean a person who is dependent on the support of another person for support in a reasonable manner, and (2) whose support in such manner depends on income earned by such person in a business occupation or employment."

Being Presidential Candidate Not Much Fun, Reporter Finds

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN

(ABOARD WILLIE WILKIE, EN ROUTE TO SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20 (U.P.)—The trouble with being a presidential candidate like Wendell Wilkie is that you get no more privacy than the girl in the gold-fish bowl.

He doesn't even get to shave himself, or bathe on his own terms. And when he goes for a drive with his wife he can't even pat her hand.

Take last night in Los Angeles when he went to the memorial column to make a speech to some voters. He was surrounded by a mob of reporters. He didn't even get to breathe. He was a beautiful evening—and look what happened to Wilkie.

He walked out of the Biltmore hotel and there was his car waiting. In front of it was a truck with photographers aiming their cameras through the windshield of the Wilkie car. Directly behind it was another car full of reporters, including himself, peering into the rear window of the Wilkie car. On the running boards of Wilkie's sedan were cops staring into the side-windows of the Wilkie car.

So he just sat there, primly, beside Mrs. W. On the other side of him was his brother Ed, while in the jump seat Mr. Vincent Garagnelli of New York, his valet, barber and unofficial coat holder. The doctor said Wilkie had to keep his coat buttoned closely around his throat, account of losing his voice the other day. Wilkie didn't pay attention. The doctor assigned Barber Garagnelli to keep him buttoned.

So the bundled Wilkie rode forty miles an hour through the city. He was sped through 17 stop-lights (Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

New Developments Loom In German-Italian Talks

By ELEANOR PACKARD

ROME, Sept. 20 (U.P.)—Fascist sources indicated that most important developments were under discussion today after Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop talked by telephone with Adolf Hitler, conferred again with Premier Benito Mussolini and reportedly postponed his scheduled departure for Berlin.

It was considered likely a third meeting between Ribbentrop and Mussolini would be arranged for tomorrow, following conclusion of the 55-minute conference between them this afternoon.

It was not known whether fresh subjects were discussed in today's conference, or whether new aspects of the points brought up yesterday remained to be jiggered out after Ribbentrop's telephone conversations with Hitler last night.

To See Spanish Envoy

Coincidentally Lavero Fascista, industrial afternoon newspaper, emphasized Spain's interest in Ribbentrop's conferences in Rome and said that when he returned to Berlin, German foreign minister would meet German Foreign Minister, Spanish minister of interior.

(Radio Tokyo broadcast today that at a foreign press conference an Italian spokesman, while not divulging details of the Mussolini-Ribbentrop conference, said that "substantial agreement on views had been shown in the conversations." The spokesman declined to answer specific questions regarding Spain and the Danube area. Correspondents, it was said, were advised to await developments.)

Reason Not Disclosed

Reasons for the second conference between Mussolini and Adolf Hitler's envoy were not disclosed but news agencies said that Ribbentrop was getting particular attention in the talks, in which Italian Foreign Minister Ciano and the Italian ambassador to Berlin and the German ambassador to Rome are also participating.

The Reality

BRITISH PLANES BOMB IN AFRICA

ROME, Sept. 20 (U.P.)—British air-planes have made intensive, widespread raids on major Italian bases in North Africa but the Italian air force, in counter-attacks, sank a British submarine and set a British steamer afire, general headquarters said in a communique today.

It was admitted the British attacked Sidi Barrani and Sollum, on the Italian frontier, in the most eastern point of the Italian advance into Egypt. The Italians shot down a British bomber over Sidi Barrani. Radio reports said that British planes caused one dead, several wounded and "slight material damage."

The general headquarters communique also said that British planes again had bombed Bomba, Italian airplane base in Libya, target of frequent British attacks. The Italians in Egypt showed no signs of immediately replying their offensive against the major Italian bases to the east of them. But they said that "thus far their offensive had been wholly victorious."

RETAIL BUSINESS HITS HIGH LEVEL

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (U.P.)—Retail trade activity topped along at an all-time high today, with volume in some sections reaching the highest level of the season, Dun & Bradstreet reported today.

Retail volume for the country as a whole was estimated 9 to 10 per cent over the corresponding 1939 period, compared with a year-over-year gain of 3 to 10 per cent in the previous week.

Commenting on wholesale trade, Dun & Bradstreet said that "last week's moderate let-down" in renewed expansion was inspired by retail replacement needs and the desire to cover against future delivery tardiness.

Plans Completed For Full Advance Into Indo-China

By JOHN R. MORRIS

SHANGHAI, Sept. 20 (U.P.)—Authoritative reports from Tokyo said today that Japan was prepared for a major crisis in relations with the United States over Indo-China, where Japan was believed to be seeking by means of ultimatum demands permanent airbase and naval bases.

It was asserted here Japan had presented to French Indo-China authorities an ultimatum expiring at midnight today containing a series of drastic demands of which the most important were believed to concern military bases.

Belief was expressed in authoritative quarters here that an imperial conference at Tokyo yesterday resulted in an irrevocable decision to start an immediate expansionist push southward which would include the Netherlands East Indies. Diplomats from Indo-China disclosed Japanese national were being evacuated in expectation of trouble.

Expect Demand Acceptance

However, authoritative Tokyo reports were that the Japanese were confident Indo-China officials would accept their demands at the last minute, especially in view of the speech at Vichy yesterday of Paul Baudouin, foreign minister, who said the United States had promised no material support if France resisted Japanese demands on Indo-China.

However, the Tokyo advisers said, the Japanese expected American retaliation against any move as far as Indo-China, and the probability of new, stiff American embargo on goods which Japan needs was foreseen.

A Japanese push southward, however, would mean Japan must be in position to attempt to compel the United States to lift embargoes in return for East Indies tin and rubber.

Seek Naval Bases

The Japanese were believed by authoritative informants here to seek principally naval bases in Indo-China from which they could strike at the Netherlands East Indies and American embargoes could be of doubtful value.

United States inactivity regarding Indo-China, it was said here, seemed to have convinced the Japanese that nothing serious would result from an embargo was to be feared as the result of any move on Netherlands East Indies and the Philippines.

Some diplomatic quarters believed a Japanese mission to Indo-China had made demands for passage of troops across the French border to China merely as a subterfuge behind which they had planned all along to demand permanent bases in Indo-China, dominating the base on the eastern side and valuable strategically in relation to Hong Kong, Singapore, the Netherlands East Indies and the Philippines.

WPA "NO" HITS CAMP SCHOOLS

Status of 150 children of grade school age who live at the federal "camp" south of the city, but who are without a school to attend, was more than ever in doubt today in order to make the school district to press here (Washington) for reinstatement of the school regulation in order to make the original plan go through.

Matters were further complicated yesterday when County Attorney Barrett, it was said, ruled that school districts are not obligated to furnish free tuition to transient youngsters.

FDR Raps Promise Of "Better Times" Under New Leader

By LYLE C. WILSON

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20 (U.P.)—President Roosevelt ended a national defense inspection tour here today with a speech warning business against succumbing to promises of better times under government "by the people" and designating New Deal reforms as the safeguard of our economic democracy.

Control of government by persons supposed to be a touch above the average because of business ability or economic omniscience would jeopardize freedom and even threaten free elections, he said in a vigorous declaration that a dictator ever dared the hazards of free men and their ballots.

Mr. Roosevelt spoke in the city of two tremendous personal political triumphs and in the just above Pittsburgh, where he was unanimously nominated him for a second term. Today's occasion was acceptance of a doctrine of law during his presidency of the University of Pennsylvania biennial.

He rapped the battle of legislative conflict during his first two administrations to cite the engagements which had produced his regulatory or relieving future, agriculture and industry.

Holding German Nazism before his hearers as the terrifying example of who could follow abandonment of the free principles of democracy, he said New Deal reform was their safeguard.

FBI AGENT TELLS OF SUBVERSIVES

Investigation of fifth column activities is being carried out on a wide scale and should be left in the hands of the proper law enforcement authorities. I. E. (Bill) Nitschke, federal bureau of investigation agent, told Twin Falls Kiwanis club members Thursday.

Because fifth columnists are well organized, the agent urged citizens to turn in to the FBI or local authorities any information that may seem to bear on subversive activities. He said that experts must be the ones to combat the "trojan horse" and asserted "there is no place for vigilante methods in this field."

Nitschke outlined the work and the record of the FBI, explaining that 185 out of 187 kidnappings since the Lindbergh law was enacted have been solved. He told of requirements and training of G-men.

The agent's talk was followed by showing of a motion picture dealing with the FBI. Because of the film, the Kiwanis recessed from the Park hotel to Idaho Power auditorium.

Kiwanis guests were Mark Pennington, Dell Hughes, Oakland, Calif.; Cecil Paul Jones, Visiting Kiwanian was G. W. Wickham, Auburn, Wash.

German War Cost Doubles Expenditures for Britain

By J. W. T. MASON
United Press War Expert

Berlin's estimate that war is costing Germany $50,000,000 daily means the Germans are paying approximately twice as much as the British to carry on the conflict. Figures announced in London last July, when the budget was introduced in the house of commons show the war expenditures for Britain had then risen to $22,000,000 per day.

Germany's population, however, is approximately twice as large as Britain's, so the per capita war cost is about the same for each belligerent. The British are raising 35 per cent of their funds by taxation and 65 per cent by domestic loans.

The Germans have been getting 60 per cent of their war costs by taxation and somewhat less than the remaining 40 per cent by loans. The balance has come mostly from profits of state enterprises and penalties imposed on Jews.

Bearing on Outcome
How long Britain and Germany can continue these enormous expenses will have a bearing on the eventual outcome of the war. The limit of costs has not yet been reached for either side. Great Britain's active warfare in Egypt will add to the conflict's expenses as will the increased production of planes. Too, next spring probably will see a great air offensive against Germany by the royal air force which will be costly.

Germany now is facing probability of a new military movement in the middle east, especially if the German high command refuses to endorse Hitler's plans for an invasion of Britain. An idle German army for the future duration of the war would be hard to associate with Hitler's ambition for complete victory. Added war expenses for Germany are therefore as seemingly inevitable for Germany as for Great Britain.

Financial Advantage

The present British tax rate being lower than the German proportionate to expenses, gives the British financial advantage as the war costs rise. The British have a larger reserve in this respect on which to draw. Borrowing capacity has not reached the limit for either side; but for Germany excessive borrowing carries the people's memories back to the inflationary period following the last war, when German marks eventually became worthless.

In general, Great Britain's financial strength is much greater than Germany's, so that the risk of dangerous inflation is far less.

The Minute Men of 1940

Hundreds of thousands of young Americans will soon be breaking the ties of home and ordinary life and begin learning how to defend their country.

We say, glibly, "this is the first time the United States ever conscripted men in time of peace." And that is true.

But there is nothing basically new about the step that is being taken. The details, the technique, are new. The principle is old. It is simply that every able-bodied citizen has an obligation to defend his country.

It has always been so. In the frontier days, to which orators wistfully refer, it was so. When some isolated post on the edge of the western woods heard rumors of an Indian rising, what happened? Every able-bodied man got his gun and began to drill and organize defense of the stockade. True, they were not conscripted, except as the very real and powerful public opinion of their fellows conscripted them. But the danger was real and imminent, and every able-bodied man automatically looked to his powder-horn and squirrel rifle.

In Revolutionary days, the Minute Men were organized. Above every man's fireplace there hung the long-barreled rifle. He was sworn to take it down at a minute's notice and assemble with his neighbors to defend their homes.

But this is 1940. The .22 target rifle or the sporting shotgun a modern Minute Man might snatch from his closet is no longer a match for bombers and armored divisions that function like clockwork. Today's Minute Man must train, long and thoroughly, before he is anything like a match for any probable opponent.

So, to meet new conditions, we adopt new tactics. To be fair to all, we make a matter of law the obligation which the Minute Man assumed as a matter of course.

The men who go out today to learn to defend their country are today's Minute Men. The manner of organizing them and training them is one made necessary by today's conditions. But the obligation they fulfill is the same one that was fulfilled by the struggle of villagers who met early that April morning on the green at Lexington and heard Captain Parker give them the instructions no American can ever forget: "Stand your ground. Don't fire unless fired upon. But if they mean to have a war, let it begin here!"

186 Pounds of Blueprints

One little phrase sometimes lights up a situation like a flash of lightning. Such a phrase from K. T. Keller, head of Chrysler, which is about to build tanks, gives a good clue to the difficulties of arms production, and a hint as to why it seems so slow.

Keller tells of a visit to the Rock Island arsenal. "We came home," he says, "with 186 pounds of blueprints. It took 197 men four weeks to analyze the whole blueprint and production layout, and cost about $100,000. We made each piece of the tank out of wood... painted the pieces... we then put the whole tank together without scratching a bit of paint... a tribute to the splendid design work of the army men... It has everything in it from a locomotive to a Swiss watch."

A tank, like most of the machinery of modern war, is complicated... 186 pounds of blueprints... everything from a locomotive to a Swiss watch.

It can be done, and it is jolly well being done. But that one little flash shows why we must think in terms of months, rather than weeks and days.

Protect the Workers!

The devastating explosion at Kenil, N. J., which took the lives of 47 powder factory workers is a matter of deep concern to every man, woman, and child in the country.

It is too early to say whether sabotage had anything to do with it or not. All we know is that in the days of 1915-1916 a large number of such catastrophes were traced to the work of saboteurs directed by foreign sympathizers and in some cases by foreign governments. No pains should be spared to run down the exact cause of this catastrophe.

The workers who died in this blast gave their lives in the preparation effort just as surely as if they had been in the military service. Explosive-making is a hard job at best, but doubly so in these days. The government, federal and local, must spare no pains to protect the lives of those who have a part in this defense drive.

REPLY FOR WIVES
(After Tina's verse for the husbands)

So all we wives are in draft insurance, hey?
Homer us even though
we too often say
"I've forgot draft insurance
Niece enough to wed us,
And insult the husbands
Who have fed us.

In spite of that, say you,
Be gentle to the draft,
For it's the shame
But be nice to her anyway
And don't be daff
Enough to lose her—she's Insurance from the draft.

If you mean think that we
Do the things we do,
Cook and sew and mend
And keep house for you,
And then are going to be Grateful and excited
At being draft insurance
You're blighted.

You'll put some real warmth
Into those embraces,
And forget draft insurance
Or we'll kick over the traces!

Ambitions

Dear Mister Thins:
Some of the things I long to do
Spend the money in my dreams before I wake up.

Buy a tie my wife won't think hideous.
Get vaccinated against beautiful
blonds.

Grab one of those hats off a feminine head and step on it. It's hot not the head—or, on the other hand, maybe the head too.

Learn to think the ties my wife buys me aren't hideous.
Cast a fly that'll fool a trout so I can quit the meaty business of putting worms on a hook.

Pass a brand new car without thinking what a junk heap I'm driving.

Win a wife a couple of times.
Or even once.

15 YEARS AGO

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wolfe, Miss Lucille Wolfe, who is here on vacation from Mexico, is entertaining a party of afternoon Mrs. Emory Bennett won the favor for high score and Mrs. Howard Larsen received consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Graham are home from a trip to Boise.

27 YEARS AGO

The Times believes that right now is the right time to start a movement for a permanent fair association and the purchase of fair grounds. Twin Falls has been fortunate in the past years, while the price of land about the city has steadily risen in value to the point where it is a real financial problem to raise sufficient funds to buy the forty acres needed within right distance of this city on a car line.

The Times believes that unless something is done within the next year or two, the city will be unable to do this and that it will eventually go to some other part of the county. The Times is willing to help with the purchase of the land, to start next month on a campaign to raise a fund for the purchase of the land, and each business man to pledge a certain sum each month toward such a campaign for buying fair grounds and running an annual fair.

AN 80-YEAR-OLD LADY MAY FINALLY ADMIT IT

Dear Pot Shouters:
There's one advertiser in the local papers who uses a technique that I feel sure is wrong. It is he who gets results. I'm gonna be surprised.

The advertisement bears a lot to "middle age woman, 38 to 52 years old."

Now I ask you, Pots, can you conceive of any woman 38 years old who admits she's middle-aged?

What's more, you know as well as I do that a woman of 52 still regards herself as being eight years old.

As a matter of fact, I'm in doubt as to whether women EVER reach middle age.

THE CLANS WILL NOW HOLD THEIR NOISE!

Dear Mister Shooops:
Well, after 23 years the time has rolled around again and we can now trust of that clock that used to lay 'em in the attic back in 1917:

"We've got three pieces of weather-stripping on the door."
"Weather-stripping? Three pieces of weather-stripping?"

Three babies they keep me out of the house?
Ah! It's excruciatingly funny, Mister Shooops?

SERIAL STORY

THIS COULD BE YOUR STORY

BY MARGUERITE GAHAGAN

All characters, organizations and incidents of this serial are entirely fictitious.

YESTERDAY, Mrs. Mary Vera had a political meeting with Nick. Mary has the feeling that every-thing is going to be all right, but she is not sure. She is a very young woman, and she is in a very awkward position.

NICK ASKS QUESTIONS

CHAPTER IX

NICK was happy. He sat in the parlor and listened forward eagerly asking Sue Mary more details about how she had helped Vera get the job.

"It's not only that I'm glad she will have a job for a while," he said, holding Sue Mary's hands between his own. "But it's that you did this because I asked you to do it. That's what puts this warm feeling in this little man here on my heart."

"You're not like other girls—I mean like the ones I've known. I've had a funny life. Tough, hard. I've had to work and fight my way. And lately I've had a cause. I never meant to be one of the crowd that trails along. I think, I reason, and I know that there is a chance for someone like me."

"Civilization is changing; society is taking on a new form, and I'm going to help. A man needs someone to work along with him, though. Someone whom he can trust, believe in, love."

Nick's love was becoming something to deal with. It frightened Sue Mary. There had been boys back home in high school days. Nice young boys who took her to dances and high school parties. Then there was Joe, whose love she couldn't doubt, whose love was like that of a man.

Nick frightened and thrilled her at the same time. His words left her with a sense of embarrassment, in her bewilderment she could only try to steer him back to work matters.

"Nick, please—let's talk about the work. I'll tell you about it. Show her how things work in the office. It won't be hard."

"But the work there isn't easy," he reminded her. "You say that it is much legal work. What do you mean by that?"

She tried to explain, glad for the chance to tell him the things that were in her mind, but she found that she was not clear. She was not clear.

"Orders keep coming in; plans are being made. I hope you'll like it."

"You've been reading G-men stories, haven't you? I'll tell you, Don't bother your head about it. After all, you aren't responsible, and no one is going to try such a stunt."

WHILE she was with Nick she was happy. He had brought something into her drab, humdrum life. He had brought a new life. No longer did she face empty days, dragging hours, a sense of nothing ahead. Nick had picked her up and plumped her.

He had picked her up and plumped her.

He had picked her up and plumped her.

into a world where things happened. Where there were other young people—a kind that thought and planned the way that Vera thought.

In a few short weeks Nick had become more than a mere playmate. He kept her supplied with reading material; novels, some of which she couldn't understand, but which she read because he asked her to, and because he discussed them with her later; magazines with articles about government problems affecting the man on the street; editorials in out-of-town papers commenting on world situations.

Constantly she was striving to please him, reach a state where she could talk with him as though he were something more than a child. And yet she couldn't reach a perfect feeling of ease with him. Or with Vera or Natalie.

At the office Vera was no problem. She was quiet, self-effacing, efficient. Vera had style; there was a something about her poise, her carriage, her voice that made people look at her twice.

Sue Mary wished secretly that she had some of Vera's assurance. She would stare at her own round, tanned face in the office mirror; at the sprinkle of golden freckles scattered over her nose; at the blue eyes fringed in the thick lashes; at the dark, brown hair worn in the traditional loose bob beloved by American girls.

"I'm just another girl," she would admit to herself. "Just like thousands in every town and in every office throughout the land. There's nothing about me to make anyone remember me. I'm pretty as girls go, but I'm not the kind that stands out. Not like Vera."

BUT Vera, for all her attractiveness, was also a good worker. "Miss Oliver is doing very well," Miss Grant told Sue Mary a week later. "She's always so willing to learn, and she has a good grasp on things here once they've been explained."

Sue Mary told that to Vera when they left the office and started toward the hall where they would talk and gossip with the others for an hour before going home.

"The trouble with you Americans is that you're too hard on things," Vera said, smoothing the dark hair back from her calm, broad forehead. Sue Mary thought she already looked rested.

WESTERN DEMOS MEET AT BOISE

BOISE, Sept. 20 (UP)—Boise will become western campaign headquarters for the Democratic party Saturday when leaders gather for a regional strategy meeting.

Scheduled to begin at 2 p. m. in the Hotel Boise, the meeting will draw Bourbon leaders from nine western states. National committeemen, committeewomen and state chairmen have been called to the session but other leading Democrats are also expected to attend.

Former Governor Leslie A. Miller of Wyoming will preside at the conference where details of the western presidential campaign will be ironed out and the state campaign efforts coordinated. Miller is regional director of the national campaign.

The meeting will precede by one week the formal opening of the Democratic campaign. State Chairman Robert Coulier announced, on Monday, Sept. 30, the opening salvo will be fired at a barbecue to be held in Nampa. Mayor Chase A. Clark of Idaho Falls and other candidates will speak. Starting Oct. 1, Coulier said, the Democratic candidates will begin speaking tours of the state.

Republican state chairman Thomas H. Heath announced a sound truck, designed as a mobile unit to carry campaign material, will start touring the state this week.

The truck, donated by the Republican national committee, carries a public address system, a library of Willie campaign material, song recordings and a motion picture projection outfit.

In a press release, Rep. Frank O. Horton of Wyoming, Republican regional director for four Rocky mountain states, reported sentiment for Wendell Willkie is "sweeping the west."

"Idaho and Wyoming are in the bag for Willkie and I am confident that by November Utah and Montana will be for Willkie. There has been a notable swing to Willkie in the latter two states in the past few weeks," Rep. Horton declared.

Lyceum Program Given at Albion

ALBION, Sept. 20 (Special)—The Missalpin Jubilee Singers, under the direction of Thomas Pruitt, Berkeley, Calif., presented a Lyceum number Thursday evening at the Albion State Normal school auditorium.

The Jubilee quartet has had extensive experience over national and western broadcasting systems.

DEATH SUMMONS OAKLEY RESIDENT

BURLEY, Sept. 20 (Special)—Mrs. Emily Hulda Lamborn, 82, died at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cora H. Dayley, Oakley, of ailments incident to age. Her home was in Marysville, Ida. But she had been with her daughter for some time.

She was born Jan. 16, 1858, at Grantsville, Utah, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Festus Sprague. Her husband died several years ago. Besides her daughter she is survived by a son, Joseph Edwin Lamborn, Oakley; a brother, M. M. Sprague, Emmett; and two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Green, Idaho Falls, and Mrs. Rosa Williamson, whose residence is not known.

The body rests at the Burley funeral home pending arrangements.

LIVESTOCK

PORTALES, N. M., Sept. 20 (UP)—The Portales Daily News still was apologetic today for the last paragraph of a story in its Monday issue on the wedding of Maxine Rice and Orphan Christman.

"There were 52 pairs in Monday's issue and that got more attention than all the rest put together," moaned G. K. Graves, the editor.

The last paragraph said in part: "Witnesses to the pretty ceremony were . . . yearlings, choice stock steer calves, G. S. Hatch . . ."

The names of guests omitted from the wedding story were listed in the livestock report.

BUBONIC PLAGUE WARNING ISSUED

BOISE, Sept. 20 (UP)—Large numbers of rodents, such as rats and rabbits, which inhabit Idaho's sage brush prairies perpetuate the threat of bubonic plague, and residents were warned by public health officials not to handle the potential carriers of the "black death."

The warning was issued as the words "bubonic plague" were written across the death certificate of an Emmett youth, first death from the disease ever recorded in the state.

Health officials said the possibility of any epidemic breaking out is extremely remote, but reiterated that infected rodents have been found in five widely-scattered areas of the state—St. Anthony, Montida, Pocatello, Idaho Falls and Emmett.

Took Terrible Toll
The plague, which took a terrible toll during the 14th and 15th centuries, is carried by infected fleas. The fleas or fleas generally pick up the germs from infected rodents, transferring the disease to humans through their bites.

The state department of public health explained $50,000 is being spent annually in Idaho by federal and state governments in research and control of rodents. Little is known of the disease, although when the disease reaches a "pneumonic" stage the breath of the victim may communicate the germs.

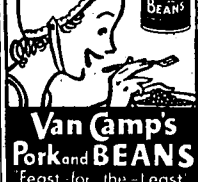

Onset Sudden
In the recent death at Emmett, authorities said, the onset was sudden. A report on the case by two nurses who were isolated with the youth disclosed that the new drug—sulfanilamide—and its derivatives were used with varying effect.

The U. S. bureau of public health operates a plague control unit which was called in to exterminate rodents in the Emmett area.

Divorce suit had been filed in district court today by Mrs. Genevieve Ruff, mother of two small sons, against Raymond Ruff, whom she wed Oct. 9, 1937, at Pocatello. She seeks custody of the sons, one of whom is 10 months old and the other approximately two years of age.

EXPERTS SEE NO METAL SHORTAGE

COLORED SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 20 (UP)—The United States has an abundant supply of strategic war minerals and will not be caught short handed in event the nation enters the present conflict, speakers at the metal mining convention and exposition of the American mining congress declared today.

Linking the metal mining industry with the national defense program, Charles H. Sizerstrom, president of the Nevada-Massachusetts Co. of Sonora, Calif., reported the nation had a good source of tungsten and that in the event of war "we would not see a shortage as witnessed in the first world war."

Worthing Bradley, San Francisco, said the domestic production of mercury is caring for the United States' needs and is being exported.

In a joint paper, E. R. Dondorf, New York City, and Jean McCallum, St. Louis, predicted the defense drive could create a heavy demand for lead but agreed that American mines were geared to supply the metal "without a skyrocketing of prices."

Late yesterday, Dr. Francis A. Thompson, president of the Montana school of mines, read a paper prepared by U. S. Sen. James Murphy, D. Mont., in which he outlined the following 3-point program to make the U. S. independent of mineral supplies from Asia and Europe:

1—Authorization of loans by the reconstruction finance corporation to develop small mineral deposits.

2—Investigation of domestic deposits of minerals and metals by the bureau of mines and geological survey.

3—Acquisition by the government of strategic and critical materials, including metals, and the building of stockpiles of such materials.

PRESIDENT INSPECTS DEFENSE WORK IN PENNSYLVANIA

WORKERS CHEER ROOSEVELT VISIT TO NAVY YARDS

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20 (UP)—President Roosevelt came to Philadelphia today to inspect the progress of the $100,000,000 national defense program.

Stepping off his special train here, Mr. Roosevelt was greeted by Joseph P. Guffy, D. Penn., with whom his name is bracketed in the Pennsylvania election, and John B. Kelly, Philadelphia Democrat, chief of Kelly and Guffy road with the President on an inspection tour of defense here, after Mr. Roosevelt had exchanged greetings with the five Democratic congressmen of the Philadelphia area.

In the President's party were two Philadelphia men who have reached high posts in the New Deal diplomatic structure—William C. Bullitt, U. S. ambassador to France, and Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, ambassador to Poland.

Inspection Tour

Mr. Roosevelt, however, subordinated politics to his inspection of defense production in Philadelphia. Escorted by Rear Admiral A. A. Watson, commander of the navy yard, he drove immediately to the giant plant where the 35,000-ton battleship Washington is being fitted out. The 45,000-ton battleship New Jersey is on the ways, and passenger-work is being rushed on four other super-dreadnaughts for America's two-ocean navy.

A marine guard presented arms as Mr. Roosevelt and his entourage drove in the navy yard gate. As the white clad officials of the yard came to salute, a navy gun boomed out a 21-gun presidential salute and a navy band played the national anthem.

The thousands of civilians who are producing weapons of defense in the ship yard lined its streets as Mr. Roosevelt's car rolled past the machine shops, drydocks, and ways. A steady clatter of applause and cheers rolled down the line of civilians as the President's car drove slowly by.

Applause for President

The applause swelled into a roar of cheers as the President arrived at the drydock where the new Washington is being rushed to completion. The huge, gray battleship, which already has been launched, was covered by overall workers who dropped their tools to rush to the rail and cheer the President.

Mr. Roosevelt halted briefly at a huge assembly building where two new type motor torpedo boats are under construction. He looked over the hulls of the two deadly boats which, when completed and armed with 50 caliber machine guns and torpedo tubes, will join the navy's "mosquito" fleet.

Sweeping past docks where a flotilla of World war type destroyers was tied up with rails manned by white-jacketed sailors, Mr. Roosevelt drove to the naval aircraft factory and reserve naval aviation base. While the motor of a navy dive bomber roared out alongside a hangar, he drove into a hangar housing planes used by reserve officers for training. Half a dozen planes were stripped down on assembly and workers were busy re-constructing them.

POLICE FACES RED; NO REDS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UP)—On tip that a "red" meeting was going on police raided a suburban house. It was a meeting all right—of the United Cemetery Workers. No 1048, Negro division. The police retired a bit red in the face.

EXCUSE ODD FOR SALE

NANTUCKET, Mass. (UP)—In announcing a sale, a shopkeeper here placed signs in his windows that read: "Due to unsettled conditions in Europe beyond our control we are sacrificing our entire stock."

TODAY'S QUOTES

By United Press

"The controversy over American and South American beef involves about $8,000,000, and if Mr. Willkie thinks a transaction of that magnitude would settle the unemployment question and related problems, he must be day dreaming more frequently than ever."—Edward J. Flynn (Democratic national chairman)

"The army never has planned to draft married men during peace time."—Gen. George C. Marshall (army chief of staff)

"Both Willkie and President Roosevelt are alike in temperament—committed to the hill on the same principles, all pointed to war."—Norman Thomas (Socialist candidate for President)

"Wendell Willkie, if elected President, would make a national park out of John L. Lewis' eyebrows."—Walter O'Brien (radio comedian)

"Thousands of Mexican laborers are transported like cattle each year from Texas to the Michigan beet fields."—Robert M. McKinley (Texas farm placement service)

"All is going well in the defense of Egypt against the Italian offensive."—Hassan Sabry-Pasha (Egyptian premier)

MURDERERS WILL FACE EXECUTION

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (UP)—Harry (Pittsburgh Phil) Strauss, who murdered 28 men, and Martin (Bugsy) Goldstein, who murdered three and who boasted a year ago that he deserved a better rating than "public enemy No. 8," today awaited their trip to death row in Sing Sing prison.

A jury found them guilty of one of their many crimes yesterday evening in the second of the trials of members of Murder, Inc., a Brooklyn mob believed to have slain at least 83 persons. The jury made no recommendation for mercy, making it mandatory for Judge John J. Prendergast to sentence them to death.

They were convicted of strangling Irving (Pugsy) Feinstein and burning his body Feinstein, a bookmaker, had incurred the displeasure of Albert Anastasia, fugitive leader of a Brooklyn waterfront mob. Anastasia engaged the services of Murder, Inc., which worked on a fee basis to get rid of Feinstein.

Hurt in Runaway, Man Recovering

JEROME, Sept. 20 (Special)—Injured when a team of horses stepped in a runaway with a moving machine, Charles Sensabaugh, about 50, is recovering at his home. He was injured about 5 p. m. Wednesday in a field on his ranch three miles west and one-fourth mile south of Jerome.

First Sensabaugh, working with his brother, escaped unhurt. The injured man sustained a scalp wound requiring more than 100 stitches. He also suffered bruises, cuts and shock.

MINING MAN DIES

BALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 20 (UP)—Anthony H. Godbe, 79, widely-known western mining man, died at his home here late yesterday. He operated extensive properties in the Milford and Marysville, Utah, mining districts in Idaho and Colorado and for 30 years was president of the Prince Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co., operating in the Picher, Nev. district.

WALLACE CHARTS 7,000-MILE TOUR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (UP)—Democratic Vice-Presidential Candidate Henry A. Wallace leaves Sunday on a 17-day, 7,000 mile speaking tour that will for the first time take the general route of the present campaign trip of Republican Presidential Nominee Wendell L. Willkie.

A tentative itinerary was announced today by the Democratic national committee. It revealed Wallace will make major speeches in some of the cities and virtually all the areas in which Willkie has campaigned.

Wallace returned here Wednesday night from an automobile barnstorming tour through Illinois, Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The tentative itinerary for his seven-day tour includes:

Oct. 2—Spokane, Wash., evening address.

Oct. 3—Missoula, Mont., afternoon address.

Oct. 4—Billings, Mont., afternoon address; Sheridan, Wyo., evening address.

BLUFF COMPLETES TERM IN PRISON

CHICAGO, Sept. 20 (UP)—William Bluff, union leader of 30,000 Hollywood movie technicians, was released from Cook county jail today upon completion of a six-month term imposed 18 years ago on a pandering charge.

Bluff hurried through the jail reception room where newspaper reporters were waiting without making a promised statement concerning his future plans.

It was reported he was to be honored guest of union friends at a banquet here tomorrow night, after which he would return to California as west coast leader of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees.

ACEQUIA

Mrs. Pearl Bremerton, who has been a member of the state Relief society presidency for a number of years, resigned her position last week.

Opening meeting of P-T-A has been arranged for tonight by a special committee in the high school gymnasium.

Charles Glassner, former superintendent of Acquia high school, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Culey, Jr., at the Culey home last night and Mrs. Hershel Culey, but will return to Acquia before he returns to Nebraska.

WENDELL

Scott McInnis, San Andreas, Calif., was a guest last week at the E. A. Collins, Fairfield, arrived Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Curtis. He plans to make his home here this winter.

A reception for the teachers was held at the Presbyterian church last week with the address of welcome by Rev. N. R. Smith, instrumental solo by Hal Matthews, instrumental duet by Margaret Barrett and Twila Orchard, and music by John Ritchie.

Senior bridge club met at the home of Mrs. D. L. Huey last week. Mrs. A. A. Reading won high score. Rebekah club met Wednesday with Mrs. J. C. Long.

Mrs. C. H. Boyd, Miss Florence Boyd, Miss Fern Dorman and Mrs. Margaret Evans went to Boise last week. Miss Boyd remained at a local business college and Mrs. Evans remained for an indefinite visit at the home of Mrs. S. Walstra.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dean made a trip to Salt Lake City Wednesday.

Mrs. Grace Curtis entertained at a party Sunday in honor of Allen's fifth birthday anniversary.

Health council sent 20 bushels of tomatoes to the WPA canning kitchen at Twin Falls last week, to be used in hot lunches at the school this fall and winter.

M. L. A. of the E. D. S. church held the opening class work Tuesday night.

COL. ROOSEVELT SPEAKS IN IDAHO

BOISE, Sept. 20 (UP)—Republican State Chairman Thomas H. H. announced today Col. Theodore Roosevelt of New York will address a Republican rally in Pocatello Oct. 15.

Efforts also are being made to bring Thomas E. Dewey, unsuccessful candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, to Idaho for a speaking tour.

Heath announced appointment of C. K. Macey, Boise, as director of the state headquarters speaking bureau. Macey will determine itineraries for candidates, most of whom will start tours next week.

62,000 IN IDAHO DRAFT ELIGIBLES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (UP)—The census bureau estimates 16,404,000 men in the United States are in the age range of 21 to 35, inclusive, and will be required to register for compulsory military service Oct. 16.

The bureau's estimates by states, prepared for the army, navy and defense commission included:

Idaho, 62,000; Montana, 67,000 and Utah, 66,000.

The figures were not based wholly on the 1940 census which has not yet been tabulated finally, but were estimated from 1930 and preliminary 1940 state population statistics.

Inquest Set in Death of Boy, 15

BOISE, Sept. 20 (UP)—An inquest into the death of Harry Adams, 15, Boise, as the result of an auto accident was scheduled for late today by Ada county Coroner Clyde Summers.

Adams died from injuries suffered when he was struck by a car driven by Albert Lee, 58, Nampa. Adams was siphoning gasoline from the tank of his automobile. Lee told sheriff's officers he was blinded by light of an approaching car and did not see the youth.

Oregon State May Be Dark Horse In Coastal Race

By HOWARD J. BRICE

CORVALLIS, Oct. 20 (AP)—Oregon State college's orange-shirted football warriors loom as the dark horses and the most likely trouble-makers of the Pacific Coast conference football race this fall.

Coach Lon Stiner suffered heavily in his line from graduation, but with strong replacements numerous and his 1939 backfield almost intact he hopes to put together an eleven equally as potent as the third-place Beavers of last season.

But against Stiner's efforts will be the toughest schedule in O. S. C. history. For instance the Beavers tackle University of Southern California's Trojans at Los Angeles on Oct. 5 as the second game on their schedule.

Then, nothing what may be a tough battle with Portland university, come games on successive week-ends against Washington, California and U. C. L. A. All of the contests will be away from home.

Tough Team

Regardless of the schedule, Stiner always has a team hard to beat. One of his big aids will be fullback Jim Kiselburgh, whom Stiner thinks will have developed into All-American caliber by the end of the fall.

To back up Kiselburgh in the fullback slot, Stiner has Kenny Don, who like Kiselburgh, is a two-year letterman. Other backfield men are quarterback George Peters, left halfbacks Bob Olson and Bob Dehman, and right halfbacks Joe Tomlich and Don Duran. All have won letters.

Boilers Middle

To bolster the middle of the line, Stiner moved big Bud English, alternate right guard, to center and shifted Bill Halverson, sub center, to left guard. Dependable Leonard Young, two-year letterman, is the stopper at right guard.

Another two-year veteran, Vic Stiner, holds down left tackle, while three sophomores are in reserve. Two one-year lettermen, Stan Czech and Glenn Blyington, are vying for right tackle.

BUHL

Mrs. Irwin Gripe entertained Lucerne Social club and one guest, Mrs. E. A. Eggleston, Wednesday. Program was arranged by Mrs. Claude Brewer. Honorary wisp given Mrs. George Brewer.

Mrs. Fred Harding entertained her contract bridge club Wednesday and gave high honors to Mrs. George Lilienfeld.

Daughters of the Utah Pioneers held their September meeting this week at the home of Mrs. Hazel Olsen. Twelve members were present to hear a discussion by Mrs. Jack Winkler on the history and life of Mr. Winkler's father, Ulrich Winkler. Mrs. Myrtle Gibbs entertained with a reading. Mrs. Mary Cook read two poems.

WILLKIE MAPS FOUR-POINT PLAN FOR BUSINESS RECOVERY

CANDIDATE SEES NO CHANCE FOR BUDGET BALANCE

BY WILLIAM H. LAWRENCE
ALBION WILLKIE, THIN, EN ROUTE TO SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20 (UPI)—Willkie today stood on a four-point platform "to turn the country around" and lead it toward business recovery.

The Republican presidential candidate, in a speech at Los Angeles last night, set forth the four points which he said would check the trend toward a "completely regulated economy" without depriving labor of wage-administered progressive legislation.

"If you people want a completely regulated economy, if you want a totalitarian system of some sort, don't vote for me," he told a National radio audience and 20,000 persons in Los Angeles memorial coliseum.

Opposite Direction
"I'm headed in the opposite direction," he said. "And I'll order to turn this country around and get started in that direction. I propose to take four steps. I want now to be very specific."

"1. The rules under which business is conducted must be clear and must be stable."

"2. Government policies affecting business should be consistent."

"3. Government competition with business must be kept within well-defined limits. It must stop the flow of capital into new productive enterprises."

"4. Business must be given a chance to make a profit."

He said it would not be possible to balance the budget because of necessary large expenditures for national defense, for relief and for expanding old age pensions. But he pledged "common sense economy" and advocated appointment of a commission of experts to study tax needs of federal, state and local governments and to draw a revised tax policy for the nation.

Key Man at Airport Here

T. T. (Tohy) Cagle, airplane and engine mechanic at the municipal airport here and one of only four men in Idaho holding such a license, is shown above as he adjusts the motor on one of 14 ships now calling the local field "home." Pilot agree that if Cagle were to leave, activity at the field would "fold up."

Destiny of Airport Lies On One Man's Shoulders

BY O. A. KELKER
Figuratively speaking, the "destiny" of the municipal airport of Twin Falls at the present time rests on the shoulders of just one man, and those shoulders belong to T. T. (Tohy) Cagle.

Cagle is the government licensed airplane and engine mechanic at the local field and also serves as caretaker. He lives at the field with his wife and one son. A license such as he holds is possessed by only three other men in the state, records show.

He's Vital
In the field of flying a licensed mechanic is as important as a physician is to a hospital.

For instance, if Cagle who has turned down many lucrative offers to move elsewhere, were to leave the following things would take place:

1—The civilian flying program in which many students are now engaged would be moved to some other locality where a resident mechanic is available.

2—Local pilots would have to take their ships to Pocatello or Salt Lake City to be repaired. In fact if the letter of the law were followed, Cagle could not even change the oil in their ships but would have to fly to Pocatello or Salt Lake City to have this done by licensed mechanics at those points.

3—If a ship were slightly damaged in landing or taking off and was unable to get into the air again, it would have to be taken to one of those same two points by truck to be repaired.

Thus Cagle "keeps the wheels turning" at the local field.

Modest
But the importance of his present position in local flying program is

AIR SHOW BOOKED HERE SEPT. 28-29

With stunt fliers being permitted to return to fulfill engagements over the western states, "after first being called to the colors as a part of the national defense program, the air show set for Twin Falls will be presented just one week later than anticipated, members of the Idaho Pilots association, Twin Falls unit, had announced today.

The Hollywood Air Aces were first scheduled to show at the Twin Falls municipal field Saturday and Sunday of this week but cancellation resulted because many members of the troupe were called into the army. With the government allowing the fliers to return the show will now be able to come here Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 28 and 29.

Announcement that plans for the show were completed was made last night by G. G. Wyllie, general chairman in charge of the event. The decision to hold the show was made after members of the Idaho Pilots group met with E. A. Friedland, show manager, yesterday afternoon and evening.

Stars of the show will include, in addition to Tex Rankin, world's champion stunt pilot, Laura Ingalls, foremost woman flier who holds several world's records. Others in the troupe are Frances Dias, Bill Carter and Dorothy Barden, the latter a parachute jumper.

Cooperating in the show is the Twin Falls city council, which gave the fliers permission to use the airport for the two-day event.

be gathered by a conversation with him. Although the 31-year-old mechanic tinkers airplanes all the time, he never takes credit for any of the advancements made here.

At the present time there are 14 planes which call the Twin Falls municipal port "home." Cagle has worked on all of them and it is his duty to see that all are in tip-top flying condition at all times. Before a government inspector looks over a ship, Cagle looks it over first and signs a certificate as to its condition. The inspector checks against his findings.

Local pilots "swear" by Cagle's work and many of them will permit no other mechanic to touch their ship.

The local mechanic has been working on engines since he was a small boy. He has held his mechanic's license for two years. He holds a flying license and was once winner for Lamorne Stevens during aerial coyote hunts.

As Lionel A. Dean, Twin Falls flying coachman, says: "He knows all there is to know about airplanes."

Salutary rings are not composed of solid material. The inner rings revolve about the planet more swiftly than the outer ones.

Mayor Urges Storm Sewer Project Here

Because water once more overran gutters in various sections of the city, particularly along Shoshone street near and at the city park as result of heavy rain and hail, Mayor Joe Koehler today had announced he will petition other members of the council to make application for a storm sewer project.

Koehler said that he had made his decision after conferring with several local businessmen. Such a project has been anticipated for several years but never has been carried through to completion.

CITY SEEKS NEW MUNICIPAL BARN

After completing final arrangements for purchase of three 60 by 125-foot lots last night, members of the city council today announced application would be made immediately for WPA project pointing toward construction of a $30,000 storage and workshop barn in the western section of the city.

The present barn, located near the third and Second avenue south in the southern section of the city, will be maintained as it has been in the past, the officials said.

The new structure will occupy two of the three lots purchased while a shed for equipment not requiring complete protection from the winter elements, will be constructed on the third lot and will be in connection with the main building.

City's share of financing the project has been included in the budget and WPA approval is expected to be given with little waste of time.

STOCKMEN FACE JURY AT BURLEY

BURLEY, Sept. 20 (Special)—Testimony was underway today in the second trial of John Hitt and Clarence Cora, stockmen on trial for asserted theft of cattle.

Hitt and Cora, who tried last term but a "hung jury" failed to reach agreement.

Frank L. Stephens, former attorney-general of Idaho, is associated in the prosecution with County Attorney Adonis Nelson. S. T. Lowe is counsel for the defense.

Jurymen are Frank Schodde, Parley Clark, George Huntington, Frank Redfield, George Hall, Ross Preyer, Frank Ballou, E. V. Reed, W. F. Enigh, R. E. Riley and Clarence Matthews.

REQUIREMENTS OF NAVY MEN TOLD

As a result of numerous inquiries received by the navy department in regard to the enlistment in the navy of men with prison or juvenile records, C. A. Edmondson, local recruiter, today made public a communication received from Frank Knox, secretary of the navy.

Knox's statement has to do with the navy department's policy in connection with recruiting and follows in part:

Want Finest Only
"In order that the efficiency of the navy may be unimpaired, it is vital that only young men of the highest type physically, mentally and morally be accepted for service. The very close associations and contacts necessitated by the service of young men in vessels of the navy require that all men be of unquestionable character. The navy is having no difficulty obtaining men of this high type. In fact, there is at present a waiting list of over 3,000 parents of these fine young men, many of whom are at their most impressionable age, there can be no lowering of our high standards in the interest of any one group or individual."

Each Case Studied
"In view of the reasons stated, I feel that our policy as outlined in the instructions for recruiting officers is a sound one. Past experiences have made it necessary for us to have the instructions referred to. However, the case of each applicant is carefully studied, and determination is made upon the individual merits."

Edmondson said this afternoon that recruits are being interviewed daily at the local station, located at the post office building.

"We check the record of each boy if they are sent to Salt Lake City for final enlistment," he said.

Elks Start Fall Activity Program

Autumn activities of the Elks lodge were formally underway today following last night's birthday dinner which drew 150 members of the Twin Falls organization.

Rehna DeVries and his orchestra provided music. Following the dinner the lodge business session was held with Exalted Ruler L. V. Groves presiding. The lodge continues each Thursday evening.

MORE THAN 300 SIGN AT ALBION

ALBION, Sept. 20 (Special)—Many more girls than boys have registered at Albion State Normal school for this term, according to the registrar.

Enrollment early this week was 310 students, and more are expected.

There are 57 boys staying in Mac Murray hall and 127 girls in Connel hall. Others are living off-campus.

ALABAMA AUTOS GAIN
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—Alabama had 325,472 automobiles registered in 1939, an increase of 7.8 per cent over the number listed in 1938, according to Frank S. Spain, president of the Alabama Motorists' association. Registration and other motor vehicle fees collected last year amounted to $4,841,000.

Aunt Abby says

The most interesting person in the world to meet is the one they see in the mirror.

I like to have the sewing circle meet at my house so I can be sure the tea I'm going to drink is good, honest-to-goodness LIPTON'S TEA. Just a whiff of LIPTON'S brewing in the pot and I start in to purr.

Allen Clark tells me that getting one of those little-sealer cups, where everybody else is up front, didn't interfere a mite with Mrs. Clark's back-seat driving.

I hear tell even the rich summer colony folks figure out a food budget, these days. But figurin' never interferes with anybody enjoyin' LIPTON'S TEA, for it figures to less than half-cent a cup!
