GERMANS SMASH AT BRITAIN AND LOSE 25 PLANES

GERMANS SMASH AT BRITAIN AND LOSE 25 PLANES

LONDON, Sept. 27 (UP)—British defenses broke four big German aerial attacks and many isolated raids today.

By WALLACE GARROLL LONDON, Sept. 27 (UP)—German air fleets smashed at British defenses in one of the most severe morning raids of the war today but an estimated 25 planes in a series of furious air battles.

The German attacks were in retaliation for tremendous British bombardment of Nazi bases from the French side of the English channel along the coast of the Kiel naval base and the Baltic sea, aided by a secret "ladder" plan that intensified effects of bombing raids.

The Nazi raids the London area were made from all directions and with apparent disregard for losses. German planes were seen to crash near Waltham in Dorset, one bomber was blown to pieces in the air near Bournemouth when an anti-aircraft shell hit its bomb rack.

Fall in Flames Two Messerschmitt fighter planes plunged in flames near Canterbury. Simultaneously a squadron of 60 German planes attacked on the southwest coast where British fighters tackled them in a big air battle, breaking up their formation and sending them back over the channel.

Anti-aircraft guns blazed in central London as the Nazi planes struck again and again, apparently oblivious of losses.

Bombs which dropped in south London, one near a factory and another near a school, were believed to have caused heavy casualties among women and children.

United Press correspondents at all parts of the London area reported German formations had penetrated outer defenses to reach the suburbs where they were hit by anti-aircraft fire and British fighter planes.

Earliest Daylight Raid It was the earliest mass daylight raid the Germans had made during the 21 days of their great attack on metropolitan London.

With fighter planes like great high above them, the bomber fleets made shallow dives in close formation over the outskirts of the city, and leveled off at about 8,000 feet.

Not many dropped their bombs, though some jets circled the countryside and a few whirling bombs crashed in the London area.

There were two punishing raids on London during the night. One started late that night and ended early today. The second started an hour later, but proved brief. It was the 21st night of raids of London.

United Press correspondents reported 24 German planes shot down yesterday. Eight British planes were lost but the pilots of five landed safe.

JAPAN BIDS FOR TONS OF COPPER NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (UP)—Japanese demand for 45,000 tons of copper has been accelerated by the embargo on iron scrap, trade quarters reported today.

It was expected Japanese purchases this month would exceed the 40,000 tons reported taken in August. Prices up to $20 cents a pound for scrap iron embargo, which became effective Oct. 16, may be extended to copper.

Answering Your Questions About CONSCRIPTION

First of a series of articles by Milton Bronner interpreting new rulings on the conscription program.

Even Senators Ask This Man How Draft Measure Will Work

By MILTON BRONNER Manager, NEA - Evening Times Selective Service Information Bureau

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—If Capt. Ernest M. Culligan, public relations officer of the joint army and navy selective service committee, doesn't mind in a padded cell, it will be because he has the patience of Job and the constitution of a champion boxer.

Captain Culligan is Uncle Sam's official question-and-answer man on the draft law.

Newspapermen and other callers besiege him all day long. He averages of 500 telephone calls during his daily office hours, which are from 8 in the morning until 9 or 10 or any old time at night.

Maybe his past career specially fitted him for the job. A New York City native, he was a real estate man and public relations counselor before he came to Washington as special assistant to Nathan Straus, Jr., of the U. S. housing authority.

Even Senators Ask Questions One of the oddest things about Culligan's day is that senators and representatives—the very fellows who passed the conscription law—are constantly ringing him up regarding conscription rulings and interpretations. Address questions to Milton Bronner, manager, NEA-Evening Times Selective Service Information Bureau, Twin Falls, Id. Be sure to enclose postage stamped card or stamped envelope, self-addressed.

ANSWERS Milton Bronner will answer questions of Times readers regarding conscription rulings and interpretations. One woman, who signed herself "Mother" and who is an admirer of the President, asked whether Mr. Roosevelt's four sons would march away to war, which she predicted would occur. She wondered whether James would make pictures of other boys marching away. Elliott would describe the scene on the radio, Franklin, Jr., would make a written record, and Cord would try to sell the draftees something.

One of the answers came next day when Elliott Roosevelt was away in his capacity as the army's special liaison officer. He was away in as a captain in the army's special liaison officer.

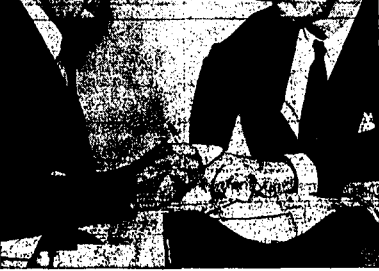

LATE FLASHES LONDON, Sept. 27 (UP)—Official reports up to 7:30 p. m. showed 122 German planes downed in today's air battles over Great Britain.

REDWOOD CITY, Calif., Sept. 27 (UP)—The San Mateo county grand jury met today to consider the case of Winona and M. H. Mulholland, who confessed and pleaded guilty to the murder of Mrs. C. J. Mulholland, wife of the defendant, for $100,000 ransom.

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (UP)—The official DNB news agency reported tonight 18 British planes were down in today's air battles over Britain and that 23 German planes are missing.

MISSING Bomber LANDED SAFELY YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 27 (UP)—A U. S. army air corps bi-motor bomber, reported missing on a flight from Seattle to Sacramento, Calif., with four men aboard, landed safely here last night after riding out a storm.

The Douglas B-18-A ship ran into a cold front 50 miles south of Portland and when ice began to force the plane down.

At the same time, Secretary of State Cordell Hull conveyed this nation's official views on the axis alliance—that it "makes clear to all a relationship which has long existed in effect" and which has been taken into account in the formulation of American policy.

On the question of U. S. aid to Britain, three developments came in today: first, the secretary of state's official views on the axis alliance—that it "makes clear to all a relationship which has long existed in effect" and which has been taken into account in the formulation of American policy.

RETAIL SELLING CONTINUES GAIN NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (UP)—Retail trade "gave a good account of itself" this week in maintaining the recent volume for the country as a whole showed a gain of 5 to 10 per cent over the corresponding 1939 period, compared with a year-to-year advance of 9 to 10 per cent in the previous week.

HEARING TODAY for "Tough Guy" 16 LITTLETON, Colo., Sept. 27 (UP)—Preliminary hearing for Martin Gennemeyr, 16-year-old "tough guy" from Spokane, Wash., was scheduled for today after first degree burglary charges were filed against the youth.

Decision of the merchants to hold the style revue and automobile show Monday night instead of tonight was announced by Frank Cook, chairman of the merchants' bureau committee in charge.

With rain falling at 1:30 p. m. and no sign of a letup being seen, the decision had to be made at that time because the building of the camp which was to hold the cars and models would take some hours, Cook explained that it was no use in putting it down again "with the weather looking like it does now."

SPAIN TRAVEL HOME, Sept. 27 (UP)—Italian quarters predicted tonight the axis will sign within a few days an accord with Spain more militant than the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo alliance and it will be tantamount to bringing Spain into the war against Great Britain.

3 Countries Band Together to Aim At U. S., Britain

By FREDERICK C. OCHSNER BERLIN, Sept. 27 (UP)—Germany, Italy and Japan signed a three-power military-alliance today.

The countries pledged themselves to support each other with "all economic, political and military forces" if any one becomes engaged in conflict with a nation not at present engaged in the far eastern and European war. It was signed at 1:15 p. m. at Adolf Hitler's chancellery.

It is almost primarily, according to authoritative reports, at the opposition of the United States and Great Britain to the policies and ambitions of the three signatory nations. The United States and Russia are the only great powers not engaged in either war.

It took two minutes to sign the pact which, binding the signatories for 10 years, links the three most militaristic powers of modern times, with populations totaling 220,000,000.

Further, it is open to all countries, with implication these countries would be permitted to share in the spoils if Germany and Italy won their war against Britain and Japan defeated China and fulfilled its ambitions in Indo-China and the Dutch-Sea Indies.

There was widespread speculation on the position of Spain. The Rome and Berlin newspapers had insisted Spain was ready to join the axis drive against Great Britain and it had been expected that the Spanish government would be party to the pact.

Three Sign Accord Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister; Count Galeazzo Ciano, Italian foreign minister; and Saburo Kurusu, Japanese ambassador, were the signatories.

Before the signature Ribbentrop announced: "This is an important occasion. Germany, Italy and Japan have decided to enter a solemn pact. They have agreed to support the new order in the far east and Europe in order to foster peace and prosperity."

Then, in the ambassadors' room of the chancellery, the three nations entered the pact. "The three-power pact is a military alliance of three of the most powerful states on earth."

"Any state interested with the new order in Europe or the far east, and attacking any of the three powers, will be confronted with the strength of more than 250,000,000 people."

Hitler at War Mangers "The three-power pact is directed against any nation but against irresponsible war mongers who desire to spread war."

"The pact serves to preserve order throughout the world as well as to restore peace. Every state contributing hereto will be welcomed and will be invited to participate."

Time Changes for Broadcast by FDR WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (Special)—President Roosevelt's dedication ceremony address at the new airport administration building here on Saturday will be broadcast at 2:30 p. m., MST, it was announced today.

Originally the talk had been scheduled for 1:30, but it was changed to allow for football broadcasts.

Flag Decared Struck He was escorted to the chancellery between lines of soldiers, 85 storm troops, Nazi party organization men and children who waved German, Italian and Japanese flags.

It was these flags which marked the occasion. For days, it had been hinted even in fairly high German and Italian quarters that the pact would embrace Germany, Italy and Japan.

Tokyo alone had made it known it expected to conclude an alliance with Germany and Japan. But not until Ciano was about to land at Tempelhof airfield today was it known in Berlin and Rome that Japan too signed the pact.

The pact will be effective at once.

AID-FOR-BRITAIN GROUP SEES FDR WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (UP)—A "flying squadron" of advocates of immediate further aid to Great Britain conferred with President Roosevelt today and described themselves as "enthusiastically encouraged" after the meeting.

Chester Lowell, editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, who acted as spokesman for the group, directed to declare Mr. Roosevelt's direct action to the plea.

"Anything further must come from the President or his secretary."

Speaking in behalf of the large delegation, Lowell said "The ATC confident every sentiment will be supported every additional aid to Britain is in our hands and we are on the principle that Britain is the first line of American defense."

ALREADY KNOWN WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull today said the new axis pact between Germany, Italy and Japan was "a serious development in the long related to the fact that it has been taken into account in our country's policies."

FALL REVUE DELAYED UNTIL MONDAY NIGHT Twin Falls' fall style revue and 1941 automobile show this afternoon was postponed until Monday at 8 p. m. because of rain and threatening weather which caused plans for the show to be changed at the last minute.

Despite the fact the living models and new autos will not be presented until Monday night, local merchants will unveil their downtown windows, revealing the latest in fall fashions, at 7:30 p. m. today.

If the weather permits, members of the American Legion and auxiliary junior drum and bugle corps will also parade the downtown section at that time this evening.

Decision of the merchants to hold the style revue and automobile show Monday night instead of tonight was announced by Frank Cook, chairman of the merchants' bureau committee in charge.

With rain falling at 1:30 p. m. and no sign of a letup being seen, the decision had to be made at that time because the building of the camp which was to hold the cars and models would take some hours, Cook explained that it was no use in putting it down again "with the weather looking like it does now."

Monday night the camp will be located, as it would have been tonight, between the Fidelity National bank building and the Twin Falls Bank and Trust company building on Main avenue. Models and cars will report at 7:30 p. m. on Shoshone street beside the Bank and Trust building and the show will go on as scheduled at 8 p. m.

"It is unfortunate that the event had to be postponed until Monday but there was nothing else that could be done about it," Cook said.

FUND FOR PRISON NEAR EXHAUSTION BOISE, Sept. 27 (UP)—State officials disclosed today funds for operation of the penitentiary would be exhausted within 20 days.

Less than $100,000 enough for ten days' operating expenses, is left in the general fund. Another $100,000 is available from interest on the redemption fund as of Sept. 1, Warden Gilbert Talley said.

By Oct. 15, it was said, there will be no money with which to operate unless the state legislature reauthorize against the prison's 1941-2 budget.

Talley was expected to ask the board for an additional $200,000 for the remaining three months of the year at a hearing of the prison board next Tuesday.

On the question of U. S. aid to Britain, three developments came in today: first, the secretary of state's official views on the axis alliance—that it "makes clear to all a relationship which has long existed in effect" and which has been taken into account in the formulation of American policy.

The American "flying squadron" described themselves as "enthusiastically encouraged" by Mr. Roosevelt's recognition of their petition for further assistance to Britain.

2 Lord Lothian, British ambassador, and Sir Walter Layton, editor of the London Economist, conferred for 15 minutes with the President today after first degree burglary charges were filed against the youth.

Gennemeyr was wounded by shotgun slugs during a gun battle near McCall in which another Spokane youth, 17-year-old Kenneth Hagley, was slain.

Gennemeyr was returned here yesterday and held in the county jail in lieu of $5,000 bond. A complaint was sworn by the owner of the drive-in market where the two youths became first acquainted.

QUAKE REPORTY EUREKA, Calif., Sept. 27 (UP)—A sharp earthquake shook Eureka today. No damage was reported. The shock apparently centered about 50 miles off the Humboldt county coast in the Cape Mendocino area.

The President then, met with the country's top defense chiefs and with Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., who is co-ordinator of U. S. and British armaments in this country. The conference declined to discuss the meeting.

Americans urging increased aid to Britain have been concentrating their demands on the release of army flying fortress bombers and torpedo boats. The President at a press conference this morning made no answer to questions about such deals.

Should Bring No Surprise Rep. James W. Wadsworth, R. N. Y. "This announcement should not bring any surprise to the rest of the world since not the slightest doubt there has been an understanding of that kind between Japan in the far east and Germany and Italy in Europe for a long time."

Sen. Tom Connally, D. Tex. "Such a combination threatens the security and peace of the world. It identifies autocracy and totalitarianism."

U. S. May Offer Added Assistance to Britain WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (UP)—Indications developed today that the United States' answer to the new Berlin-Rome-Tokyo military alliance may take the form of increased aid to Britain.

There was no official announcement, but signs of such a course multiplied as an important series of White House conferences took place.

President Roosevelt received urgent appeals for additional U. S. aid from British diplomats. A "flying squadron" of American advocates of immediate further help for Britain also lobbied him and reported it was successful.

At the same time, Secretary of State Cordell Hull conveyed this nation's official views on the axis alliance—that it "makes clear to all a relationship which has long existed in effect" and which has been taken into account in the formulation of American policy.

MOTORIST DENIES PASTURE DAMAGE

Fleeting not guilty to charge that he damaged a pasture by driving across it in his automobile, Jerry Montgomery will face misdemeanor trial at 10 a. m. Thursday, Oct. 3.

Montgomery was arraigned in probate court Thursday afternoon on complaint signed by G. F. Dejeux, filer rancher.

Dejeux charged that the defendant trespassed on real estate by driving across a fenced-in blue grass pasture a mile and a half west of Filer. The auto assertedly left incursions in the pasture corrals.

Montgomery is at liberty under his own recognizance.

McConnel Named To Handle Idaho Selective Draft

BOISE, Sept. 27 (UP)—Brig. Gen. M. G. McConnel, adjutant general for Idaho, today was nominated by Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen as state executive for selective service.

His appointment is approved by President Roosevelt. Gen. McConnel will supervise operation of the draft in Idaho.

RENO MARRIAGES FASTER
RENO, Nev. (UP)—Speedy as Reno's divorce mill is, it can't even hold a candle to the marriage mill, according to County Clerk Elwood Beemer. The all-time high of 1,423 marriage licenses issued last December, he said, will be exceeded by a record of more than 2,000 marriage licenses for June.

GERMAN BOMBS SET ISLE FIRES

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (UP)—German bombs set big fires at Liverpool, Birkenhead and London in slashing attacks that dumped 400 tons of high explosives on British objectives, it was reported officially today.

The main command said widespread damage had been caused in the British Isles by attacks during the last 24 hours and German long range artillery on the French coast had bombarded Dover.

In addition to 250 tons of bombs dropped on London, the high command said military targets included a spitfire plane factory near Southampton, docks near Liverpool and a merchant ship in Liverpool harbor.

BRITISH BOMBARD HUGE NAZI GUNS

DOVER, England, Sept. 27 (UP)—British bombing planes roared across the English channel in an attack on German long range guns today during a duel between Nazi and British artillery on the French and English coasts.

The British bombing squadron raged over the Cap Gris Nez sector while the flash of German big guns could still be seen as each salvo was fired.

British guns in the Dover area replied to the German bombardment.

Italy Warns U. S. Against Entering War

ROME, Sept. 27 (UP)—Virginia Gayda warned in the newspaper Giornale d'Italia today the United States would be attacked from two continents since on land and sea if she intervened in war on the side of Great Britain. The warning was the first authoritative Italian comment on the new German-Italian-Japanese alliance signed at Berlin.

LONDON, Sept. 27 (UP)—First British reaction to the German-Italian-Japanese alliance was to regard it as "a very serious development." Authoritative quarters said it would not affect the present situation and it was difficult to see how Germany and Italy could take any stronger action against Britain as a result of the Japanese alliance.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 27 (UP)—Authoritative sources tonight believed an immediate Japanese drive to obtain vital war materials in The Netherlands East Indies can be expected as result of the new Berlin-Home-Tokyo alliance and American embargoes directed at Japan.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (UP)—Immediate unofficial reaction today to the new German-Italian-Japanese alliance was that the pact formalizes what was considered here to be a fact for more than three years.

TOKYO, Sept. 27 (UP)—The Japanese foreign office today announced the signing of what was described here as a "peace restoration" military alliance with Germany and Italy. The announcement said Emperor Hirohito had granted a rescript permitting the alliance to be signed in order that peace might be "restored as soon as possible."

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (UP)—The Nazi quarters said today the Berlin-Home-Tokyo military alliance may be interpreted as "an answer to the draftmaker deal between the United States and Great Britain." These quarters said they understood a far-reaching agreement between the axis and Spain would be announced shortly.

CHAPTER XXV
HER eyes were averted, as if by force, from the unscrupulous man before her. Sue Mary doggedly concentrated on her work at the office while in her secret mind she tried to discover what goal Vera was working towards.

Across from her Kitty, too, watched. Her eyes took in every detail of Vera's cool black cheer, with the starched ruffled collar, the severe black braids coiled around her head; the red slash of lips across her lipped face.

"Kitty watched Vera because of a few moments ago young Ross Clark had come in the office. He always kidded the girls, teased Sue Grant and teased the boys. He had been in the office for several possible orders before dashing out again.

But today he had stopped at Vera's desk and the low murmur of their voices came to Kitty and Sue Mary. Kitty sat frozen, her face pale except for two crimson spots which flushed the cheeks in her candy-striped wash frock. With her black curls piled high on her head in one of her newest hairstyles, she looked like an angry-eyed doll.

Babs Fleming came over with some pencils to sharpen. "He's in here to see you, Clark," she said. "Is it because of the counter?"

"Countess?" Kitty repeated.

"Well, Vera's then. Only she always reminds me of a countess. A story-book countess. Regal with braids wound about her head like a crown. And sort of an air of mystery."

"Come in here because he's on that special committee," said Vera in a low voice to the girl who came in. "He's in here to see you, Clark," she said. "Is it because of the counter?"

"Countess?" Kitty repeated.

"Well, Vera's then. Only she always reminds me of a countess. A story-book countess. Regal with braids wound about her head like a crown. And sort of an air of mystery."

OUR COUNTRY

BY FAITH BALDWIN
Author of "American Family," "The Moon's Own Home," etc.

has seen the greatest discoveries of all time.

It seems to me that, having accepted man's own story, having taken bad time and good in our life, we have been indifferent to the basic importance of our citizenship. We have lived on the surface and dismissed with the usual cliché the growing unrest and confusion which torments the democratic ideal, the American way of life.

Every day brings its challenge. We can meet it. Belief in a pricelessly founded faith, the faith of our fathers, will enable it to endure.

In a time of fear, indecision, in a country clamorous with promise, the one fact emerges clearly. We must create a new world. We must be an American, and what it must always mean. We must believe in ourselves, and the greatness of our nation, that we shall survive, awakened, unified and forever free.

FAITH BALDWIN

It's Not the Cost—It's the Upkeep

Let's not be deluded about this thing called defense. It's not something you can manage all at once by a vote in congress or a sweep of the presidential pen. The time for sighing, "There, that's done," has not yet arrived.

What has been accomplished so far is only a start. Army and navy officials are trying to make that clear to everyone. The sacrifices have not yet begun. Congress has appropriated 15 billion dollars for defense—twice as much as both the army and navy received during the 15-year period between 1925 and 1940.

A war machine has to be kept up. Large grants must be set aside for supplies, equipment and man power. New funds must be provided each year to keep the machine up to date. For unless it is kept up to date, it will be hardly worth starting.

No one is prepared to say just how much a good sound defense program is going to cost on an annual basis. The Division of Industrial-Economics of the National Industrial Conference board recently concluded that Americans could divert as much as 17 to 19 billions a year from their national income to defense purposes. The experts conceded such a financial schedule would leave the country pretty much on a subsistence basis, but it could be done.

It probably won't cost that much. Defense officials understand that total defense consists not only of guns and tanks and naval vessels and airplanes but also of reasonable contentment among the people in their way of life. They realize that the manner in which American democracy operates must be kept attractive enough to warrant the sacrifices demanded.

America can build a defense machine as mightily, as efficient as the Nazi machine of aggression. But there will be a difference.

The sacrifices that will be borne will be dictated by the people, not by any over-lord. The bill for our safety will be incurred by the representatives of the people and will not be levied against us by any empirical leader.

Above all, we are still democratic enough to defend ourselves without giving up all the reasons for that defense. We know what it's going to cost. We have decided it's worth the price.

HM-M, COULD OUR FARMERS BE GROWING BITTER?

Dear Pot Shots:

Have you heard the most marvelous tale of recent weeks? It related.

The beans got soaked before they could be threshed.

The sun came out.

The beans dried.

So the farmer turned the beans over again.

And then it rained.

And the sun came out.

So the farmer turned the beans over again.

And then—guess what? IT DIDN'T RAIN.

Yes, it really didn't rain. It was marvelous while it lasted but the alarm clock went off then because it was 5:30 and I had to get up and milk the cows.

The levies for 1903 taxes are now irreversibly fixed for all cities, school districts and townships in the state. The levies for the year are as follows: The city of Twin Falls will pay on full valuation forty mills per cent, on the basis of the full valuation of the city. On 40 mill resident paid $200 on every hundred dollars, while this year they will pay $1 on every hundred on full valuation.

The city of Twin Falls was only able to pay more than double valuation on the basis of the full valuation of the city. The independent school district restricted by recent law, which is to raise the tax money to pay for the budget as laid down earlier in the year, but it within the law of proportion at present.

NEW ORDER ASKS BREATHING SPACE

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (AP)—Here is what the three nations who signed the new triple alliance said today as they affixed their signatures on behalf of Germany, Japan and Italy.

Count Galeazzo Ciano: "The three powers have no intention of challenging or threatening anyone."

All three had to breathe in order to live. They all needed space for their nations, space for their peoples. This breath, this space, were refused them by those mightily equipped who had monopolized the resources of the world."

Traveler Declares White Supremacy Fades in Asia

By O. A. KELKER

Take it from Don Bate, a former Shanghai newspaperman who should know, the day of the supremacy of the white man in the far east is over.

Bates said just that when he spoke to the initial Twin Fall audience at a high school meeting last night. His talk, before some 200 persons, inaugurated the third Twin Fall season. He was introduced by A. A. Grotzkiak, president of the organization.

Portly and dynamic, Bate discussed the situation in the far east, and also touched on the European situation, sometimes whispering and sometimes nearly shouting as he told his story in everyday words.

"The whites might get their business back in the far east but it will not be in consumers' goods," Bates said emphatically as he declared that the whites were "just about at the end of their rope" so far as "pushing the Chinese around" is concerned.

Carving Chinese Gooses

He discussed the "reddest" nine-power pact, which, he said, was put into effect so that the "various nations would not carve up the goose of China, but the goose was laid and ready for the carving."

"The United States not mad because Japan jumped the gun and carved the goose before we were ready to carve it," the world traveler continued. "That was the first blunder, and then came the one of Italy in Ethiopia and then Germany in Great Europe. That was the start of the whole affair and the end of the pact."

"Lack of cooperation on the part of Great Britain with the United States caused Japan to make the first blunder."

The speaker also declared that there was nothing virtuous about the open door policy in China, but that it simply meant the United States was entitled to take anything out of the country that any other nation could take out.

Business Fight

He said further that "I see no way for our white Japan" and that he was not for the sake of adding the "poor, struggling Chinese," but rather to fight for the concessions we are getting.

"Instead of sending relief to China, the speaker urged that such money be used to help the United States to build our own destitute."

"Why fight for our stake in China?" he asked. "That stake amounts to only 200 million dollars. Why say, they spend that much in Washington every afternoon and it doesn't even get into the afternoon papers."

Auld Far East War

He said that we should avoid getting into any war in the far east but added:

"Our danger right now is more getting involved in a war in the far east than over the Atlantic. Hitler and Stalin would like to see this because it would weaken us for Germany so far as aid to Britain is concerned, and would weaken Japan for Russia."

"The worst possible thing we could do would be to have a war in the Pacific. We are not in danger. If we were I'd be the first to say 'let's take 'em out' with that Arm."

Concerning national defense the speaker said that it was "folly" to think that we can stop trouble in our world events without being fully armed and prepared to fight it.

Regarding conscription Bates said that the "United States don't make a difference out of you—no much."

"I don't know that we should make any difference out of you," he said. "How-ada you die you there in highly mechanized divisions."

"Perish the thought that Uncle Sam would get you to fight against your will. All he'll do is give you money from 21 to 30 a helmet, give you a nice new gun, throw you in a truck and dump you in the middle of a bunch of invaders or something. You've never heard of it if you don't want to, but what else are you going to do?"

Defines War Brandy

He said that war is not dancing with your sweetie at the R.O.T.O. ball or bidding the "old woman" and his college for a year, at camp with the national guard. He de-

FRENCH PROTEST JAPAN ADVANCE

HANOI, French Indo-China, Sept. 27 (AP)—French authorities in Indo-China today asked Japan to send a plenipotentiary to this French colony to halt an unopposed advance into Indo-China by Japan's south China army.

The French also protested flight of six Japanese planes over Hanoi today. It was described as contrary to the spirit of the Hanoi agreement in which Japan was granted military concessions in Indo-China.

Rumors that Chinese forces had crossed into Indo-China in the Choying district in order to fight the Japanese were denied here.

An official announcement said the Japanese advance was continuing.

46 Given up for Lost Found in Boat at Sea

A BRITISH PORT, Sept. 27 (AP)—Thirty-nine men, one woman and six children, mourned as dead all week, returned alive today from the refugee ship City of Benares, which was torpedoed without warning in mid-Atlantic during a storm on the night of Sept. 17.

They had spent eight days and nights in an open lifeboat, subsiding on iron rations, cramped for space, without hope of rescue.

"But a British long-range patrol flying boat found them 600 miles at sea. Their food and water were gone and they were so starved and cold not one could stand on his feet when the dot on the far horizon, first sighted by 13-year-old Kenneth Sparks, started approaching them."

Then, the boy said, they all started praying: "Please, God, make the plane bring us help."

Then they came ashore this morning. Twenty lascars of the City of Benares crew had to be carried on stretchers. Their feet were frozen.

"The children's impressions centered mostly on the food—or lack of it. Kenneth reckoned the days by the sandwiches, ship's biscuits and quarter glasses of water dispensed on the first six days, supplemented by a few swallows of canned milk which "thickened our saliva and made us thirstier," and the last two days, by the few drops of juice from a tin of peaches, rationed after the water was gone.

The only woman in the little boat was Mary Cornish, 21, a teacher who spent most of the time massaging the children's limbs, making up exercises for them to counteract the cramping and cold, lending them in songs and telling stories including, she said, "a serial—'Bulldog Drummond—my own version.'"

Findings of the 46 survivors reduced the ship's casualty list to 247 of the 406 who had been aboard. Families of all the missing, including the 46, had been notified Sunday that they were lost.

HOME BUILT ON WRONG LOT

YORK, Penn., Sept. 27 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bull achieved a long-cherished desire by purchasing a lot and building a bungalow. They didn't know, however, until after they moved into their new home that the ground they bought was 100 feet away from where they had built.

Australia, the smallest continent, also is the largest island.

BRITISH INCREASE FURY OF ATTACK

LONDON, Sept. 27 (AP)—British planes, increasing the violence of their attacks under a secret "inland" plan, bombed French channel invasion ports, Kiel, the great German naval base on the Baltic and German internal waterways during the night, the air ministry said today.

The royal air force, it was reported, bombed German searchlight batteries, burned along the French channel coast, and threw the English state reported. Sweeping down from low rain clouds, the bombing planes holed bombs on military objectives of all sorts. The army and navy over the channel was reddened as fires burst out along miles of coast.

He further declared the bombers by this chain of fires.

It was the second straight night Kiel had been bombed.

The royal air force, it had been disclosed, was operating under a secret "inland" plan worked out long before the war started—a method of progress attack on military objectives. The lengthening nights, already permitted an increase of this pressure and the real effect, it was indicated, were just starting.

THIS IS NEWSPAPER BOY WEEK

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 27 (AP)—Sixteen freshmen were represented on the campus of Loyola university of the South, a Jesuit school, during the first school year, Mrs. Margaret E. Carey, the registrar, said today, and the students came from 33 states and 10 foreign countries.

Far East Expert Talks to Pupils

Twin Falls high school students listened to an expert on the far east situation as it relates to the United States.

The students heard Don Bate, former Shanghai newspaperman and a world observer, Mr. Bate spoke last night at the opening attraction of the 1930-41 Twin Fall season.

His experts to leave "Twin Falls" this evening.

He called upon the audience to be sure that "free speech and the free right of peaceful assembly" is maintained.

"You let this go and all is gone," he said.

Following his regular talk, Bate answered questions from the floor and at one time declared that "although it looks like it's going through, I don't believe that Japan would ever have anything to do with Germany and form any policy or go to war with them."

During the early 1800s in England, sugar cutters were used by table gangs to cut their own lumps from a large piece.

He's a SALESMAN, too.

Perhaps the most valuable lesson your carrier learns while serving his route, is how to become a successful salesman. Under able supervision, he learns to meet people, talk convincingly, get orders and manage his own newspaper route.

A few years later—when he enters the business world—this practical training will stand him in good stead.

He will be just the type to succeed—an enterprising youth who has added actual business and sales experience to his scholastic education, and thus is far more likely to succeed in his life work than the average lad.

He knows this—that's why he's a salesman tool.

Celebrate NEWSPAPER BOY WEEK by getting better acquainted with your carrier. He is a chap worth knowing and encouraging.

HER BEST BOW

Painting of Shoshone Falls Now on Exhibit

Shoshone falls, as it was in the days when a mighty flow of water tumbled over its rocky crags, has been recaptured by Mrs. L. C. Gooding, local artist, and the completed oil painting may be viewed this evening in the window at the Idaho Power company building.

The framed picture is 42 by 62 inches, and is Mrs. Gooding's masterpiece, to date. Idaho landscape is her favorite medium, and with this picture she is exhibiting a painting of Twin falls, which was shown for the first time last year at the Twin Falls public library building, as well as other oil studies.

Falls in Springtime

A year was required by Mrs. Gooding to paint the Shoshone falls, but she commented that the years she has waited the site, studying color, perspective and atmospheric surroundings.

"Springtime I found the best color, for at that season there are the soft, tender greens, and the rock coloring is at its best, not because of the moisture and the moss and other fungus growth," said Mrs. Gooding.

She added: "Most people think of the canyon as a black mass of dull, dirty-looking rocks, but I am sure that one will see color if they when and how to look for it. The time of day is also an important item. The Shoshone falls picture was done at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, as anyone acquainted with the light and shadow effects will notice."

Mrs. Gooding's style of painting is realistic. To recreate the falls as it was in earlier times, before the great reclamation and power projects made this country into the Magic Valley that it is today, she had to rely on several sources.

She did the painting partly from memory; partly by sketching on the scene, and partly by referring to photographs. She was especially

SEMI-TO PROBE HAGUE'S REGIME

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (AP)—The senate campaign expenditures committee is being ordered to probe before proceeding with an investigation of alleged corruption in Mayor Hague's New York City political machine. Senate Democratic Leader Alben W. Barkley said today.

Barkley said "of course" the investigation would be continued on Oct. 15, in answering charges President Roosevelt made when he said "I'm not going to let Hague's political machine get away with it."

Sen. John E. Miller, D. Ark., a member of the two-man subcommittee, assigned to conduct the investigation, returned shortly before Sen. Charles W. Tobey, R. N. H.,—the other subcommittee member—charged yesterday he had been "called off" just as the investigation was about to begin.

Sen. Frank E. Lauter, D. Okla., was appointed immediately to succeed Miller but a few hours later Barkley announced Lee would be "unable to serve."

Sen. Warren Barbour, R. N. J., declared public opinion in New Jersey is turning against the political corruption charges leveled against himself and his party.

NATIONS AGREE TO OFFER HELP WHEN ATTACKED

BERLIN, Sept. 27 (AP)—The text of the German-Italian-Japanese military alliance.

The governments of Germany, Italy and Japan consider as a prerequisite for lasting peace that every nation receives commensurate reparation. They therefore are determined to stand side by side and to collaborate in their efforts for greater east Asiatic and European areas in which their highest goal will be to create and preserve a new order of things designed to foster the prosperity of the peoples in them.

Furthermore, the three governments desire to extend collaboration with such nations in other parts of the world who are desirous of imparting their aims in a direction similar to that of the three powers in order to thereby realize their efforts, which are directed toward world peace as their final goal.

Six Articles

In accordance with such aims the governments of Germany, Italy and Japan herewith agree to the following:

Article I: Japan recognizes and respects German and Italian leadership in the creation of a new order in Europe.

Article II: Germany and Italy recognize and respect Japanese leadership in the creation of a new order in the greater Asiatic area.

Article III: Germany, Italy and Japan agree to collaborate in their efforts on the basis of the aforesaid lines. They undertake further to assist one another with all political, economic and military means when one of the three contracting parties is attacked by any power not at present involved in the European war or in the Chinese-Japanese conflict.

Article IV: With a view towards implementing the present pact, joint technical commissions, members of which are to be appointed by the respective governments of Germany, Italy and Japan, will meet without delay.

Doesn't Affect Soviet

Article V: Germany, Italy and Japan affirm that the aforesaid terms do not in any way affect the political status which exists at present as between each of the three contracting parties and Soviet Russia.

Article VI: The present pact shall come into effect immediately upon signing and shall remain in force for 10 years from the date of its coming into force. At the proper time before expiration of the said terms the high contracting parties shall, at the request of any of them, enter into negotiations for its renewal.

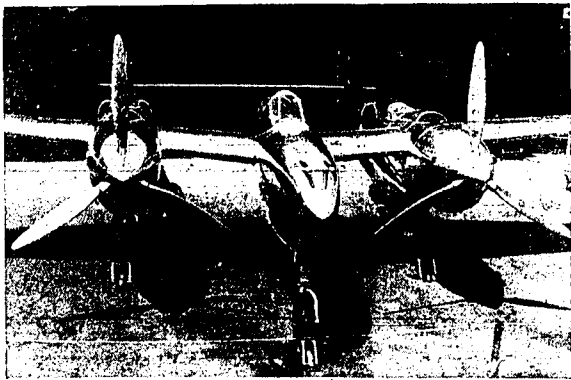

In faith whereof, the undersigned, duly authorized by their respective governments, have signed this pact and have affixed hereto their seals. Done in triplicate at Berlin the 27th day of September, 1940, in the 18th year of the Fascist era; corresponding to the 27th day of the ninth month of the 15th year of Showa.

WEDDINGS, RICE, SPARROWS

RENO, Nev. (AP)—When the Reno courthouse sparrows returned this year from their annual migration there was an awful hubbub. They showed up on the date that 325 couples—a record at that time for Reno—also showed up to be married, and the rice that blanketed the courthouse greens kept the sparrows at the burning point for the entire day.

Lower Grade Beans and Drop in Tonnage Loom After Rain

With scattered rain storms continuing in Twin Falls county today, a report received this afternoon from the U. S. department of commerce, weather bureau, shows that up to last Wednesday only about 70 or 80 per cent of the bean crop was threshed.

Considerable damage resulted during the wet week to down alfalfa and other crops and many beans were "thrashed" on the ground by heavy rains and soil. A survey indicated that much of the white bean crop, because of the storms, would be reduced to No. 2 grade and that much tonnage would be lost because of the necessity of shifting the piles of cut beans after each rain in order that they might dry before threshing.

Total Good: Grade Low

Informal reports from some sections of Twin Falls county today showed that in one or two instances the total yield of beans is good but the decline in grade will reduce income. On contract beans, one rancher near Kimberly expects to harvest a surprising average of about 50 bushels of Bountiful per acre. Grading, however, will weed out one-fourth to one-third of that.

On the credit side of the ledger, the weather bureau shows that the rains were highly beneficial in conditions the soil for fall plowing. The moisture was also good for seed.

ed winter grains, meadows, pastures and ranges but that harvesting of beans and also the late threshing of grains was almost at a standstill.

Beets Maturing

Beets are maturing rapidly and in promising condition, the report shows. Late potatoes continue mostly in good condition and while there have been some shipments, the bulk of the crop is in the ground. Fall plowing and the seeding of winter wheat are progressing and the early seedings are up to good stands. Threshing of spring grains continues in a few localities. Livestock is in good condition.

Following are reports received from the various counties with the reporting station being listed in each case:

Elmore county, Glenn Ferry: Good rains latter part of the week, Lincoln county, Richfield: Rain has stopped threshing. Considerable of the third crop of alfalfa is down and unless the weather clears there will be considerable damage. Pastures and ranges are good for this time of year and corn and beets are good. Meadows, potatoes and truck crops are fair.

Twin Falls county, Bull: Heavy rains have stopped farm crops temporarily and about 70 to 80 per cent of the clover seed and beets are not yet threshed.
