JAPANESE CASES BRANCH BANKS IN ENGLAND

FOREIGN OFFICE RAPS AMERICA'S TROUBLE RUMOR

By H. O. THOMPSON TOKYO, Oct. 11 (AP) - Japanese banks and corporations which have branches in Great Britain have been advised by the foreign office to close their banks and offices in London, and many Japanese residents here are preparing to leave for home, it was disclosed today.

The reason given for closing banks and other business offices was that the rumors were already a fait accompli. It was known here that it was intended that only one bank should maintain a branch in Britain—the Sumitomo, which will be liquidated by the Japanese treasury.

Meanwhile, Yukihiro Sugama, chief foreign office spokesman, said American newspaper reports of a Japanese break in Japanese-American relations were "outrageously unfounded rumors."

"I am very sorry to note the American newspaper trend and the sensational treatment of news relative to this far east," he said. "Some newspapers, particularly in Washington, are giving the impression that the United States is in bad relations with Japan until 10 days. These are rumors, outrageous and unfounded."

"The situation, as you can observe, is very quiet here. We are not agitated and we do not believe in American admiral's reports of a possible seizure of the Pacific islands by the United States. Despite such reassurances, Americans proceeded with plans for departure. Some who had reservations for next month advanced their sailing date, and liners for the United States were booked within six weeks ahead."

There were no present formal Japanese-American diplomatic relations here. Joseph Clark, American ambassador, has been summoned to the foreign office, however, and another Japanese official in the absence of Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka, regarding various reports published in the United States was asked to consider evacuation plans for Americans.

Green took the opportunity to draw attention of the foreign office to inflammatory statements made here, suggesting that they might have stirred American suspicion, and advised American state department to advise Americans to go home.

It was noted that during the last 24 hours news columns had taken the tone of newspaper editorials has been calmer.

H. Wolfe, regional director for the north-west area, residing in Sand Lake City. Assisting Mrs. Wolfe was Mrs. Ralph Davis, Boise, vice-chairman of the Democratic party.

Counselees represented at the school in addition to Twin Falls, included Gooding, Jerome, Lincoln, Minidoka and Cassia.

Order committing a 17-year-old Twin Falls youth to the state industrial school at St. Anthony was signed today by Probate Judge C. A. Bailey, bringing to four the number of commitments decreed this week for youths termed by the magistrate "perpetual violators."

The 17-year-old is Arnold Peterson, who has been on parole from the industrial school. He was arrested by Police Officer John A. Brown, was brought in to Judge Bailey on a petty larceny charge, his parole was immediately vacated and he was ordered back to St. Anthony. The boy was committed to the state school in November of 1938 by Judge J. M. Shank, then county probation officer. At least two violations of law yesterday at Flieger caused revocation of parole, Judge Bailey said.

CANYON HIGHWAY WORK CONTINUES

KETCHUM, Oct. 11 (Special)—Having been busy the major portion of the summer constructing sheep-guard fences along Highway 93 to Ketchum and beyond, it is stated that the members of the Ketchum CCC camp will not break camp Oct. 15th, as usual, but that the force will be engaged in road work on Warm Springs canyon until Nov. 15.

An official is optimistic for the statement that the roadway from Ketchum, leading up Warm Springs creek to the Bailey ski terminal and ticket office of the Sun Valley sports resort, will be greatly widened and graveled to accommodate the heavy traffic during the ski months. It is the roughest section of that particular state roadway, and the proposed improvement is timely.

During the summer the CCC outfits and forestry department were busy on certain stretches of the road, and the new work will put it in easy condition to be kept open for the greater part of the winter, that one shipment may be accommodated. The work is to start immediately.

Southern Rhodesia, a British African colony, has been found ideal for European farmers.

Ronald I. Reed and J. Earl Powers both returned with deer after a week-end spent hunting in the Albion basin south of the village.

Ray Taylor, athletic club president, spoke before the Rotary club in Burley Wednesday. His topic covered Albion Normal in general and school activities.

Justice Takes a Holiday

Hitler discovered early in his regime that the courts could be turned into an effective instrument of totalitarianism. World opinion cast an aura of sanctity around the courtroom. There was a general feeling that justice was an absolute and that anything that happened in a court of law necessarily had the blessings of the blind goddess with the scales in her hand.

The Reichstag fire trial was probably the first instance in which Der Fuehrer used his new weapon. All the trappings were there—the judges, the lawyers, the uniformed attendants, the routine procedure.

So Hitler just kept on, and Russia got the idea. Several thousand people who didn't see eye to eye with Stalinist policy were "sentenced" to death.

When France's share of the war was over, the Vichy government decided something had to be done to cleanse the soul of France. So the former leaders of what was once a great republic were brought to trial and charged with "war guilt."

Next in the chain of trials may be that of Mme. Magda Lupescu, the unpopular friend of former King Carol of Rumania. There is some talk among the Nazi Iron Guards of asking Spain and Portugal to extradite Mme. Lupescu and Ernest Urdareanu, former Rumanian minister without portfolio.

To the dwindling democratic world, where justice still means something more than a dress rehearsal for murder, governmental trials in continental Europe no longer mean anything. Americans have long since ceased to be deluded.

The High Cost of Killing

How much is a human life worth? There have been many answers, widely varied. The chemical constituents of the body can be purchased in a drug store currently for about $1.06. A few weeks ago a cold criminal asked $100,000 for the life of a child, would have got it if his plans hadn't gone astray.

London admits it suffered 400 deaths in a recent day's raids, when 220 tons of bombs were dumped on the city. That's an average of 5 1/2 tons of bombs for one human life.

Now in the United States a 1000-pound bomb costs between $175 and $200, so 5 1/2 tons would run between $1650 and $2200. In Germany, where labor is cheaper and factories are government-run, the cost may be somewhat lower. But in addition to the cost of the bomb, there must be planes and men to drop the bombs on London, and they must have gas and oil, food and shelter. It would be a fair estimate to say each life the German bombers have taken cost at least $2000—and that's not counting plane losses.

That's the price Adolf Hitler is willing to pay for the life of one man or woman or child in his self-imposed task of carrying the Nazi kultur to England.

Dollars Get a Workout

When business begins borrowing money from the banks it doesn't mean business is broke. It means industry is getting ready to expand. So recent reports from Chicago banks, indicating loans have reached a higher point than at any time since the 1937 business peak, look like good news.

Much of the rise could probably be traced to the defense industry, which is rapidly taking shape. Whatever its cause, the result will soon have its general effect in larger payrolls.

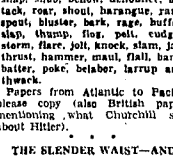

POT SHOTS

The Gentleman in the Third Row

We Assist the Headline Boys (And Politicos)

From reading the public prints, Pot Shots these days gleams the idea that all any political candidate or party blowing does is to "lash," "rap," "hit" and "score" the opposition. What with things scheduled to grow rapidly more sulphuric as the Nov. 5 election draws near, Pot Shots takes this occasion to wish the headline writers and thereby give the politicians a reputation for being more than satisfied in whacking the rival party.

THE BLENDER WAIST—AND THE AMAZED GENES!

Dear Pots: Lines of waists—ah! I don't mean waists—I know two gent in this town who think they've found the champion slender-waisted gal of the age. These two gent, dining and coffee drinking several times daily at a certain restaurant on Main avenue, got more and more amazed every time they watched one of the attractive gal employees of the cafe work the line of blending the matter from the scientific angle, they just didn't believe what they saw.

CHEERY THEM DEPT.

To the several gent Pot Shots has heard talking more or less seriously about "forgetting" to register for the draft, etc. We wish to mention that the law is very strict which has apparently not been given any press publicity.

SLEEPING THE EVENING

Pot Shots feels it incumbent on him today to remind the Evening Times of the fact that the Evening Times is a newspaper.

Well, as good as engaged to Craig Gundry before she left to visit those South African continents. And I think that Maria should be here too!"

FOLLOWING an old custom, they had coffee in Adam's study room, which had been christened the "Jungle." Here Langdon kept his collection of modern and antique weapons mounted on specimens of prizes gathered in his hunting expeditions.

IMPATIENT at the dinner, Langdon rang for Togi and ordered fresh bulbs. No one paid any attention as the valet mounted a ladder to change the light bulbs.

"There is someone in the hall," "You imagine it," Pat glanced at the closed door. "I sent the chauffeur into the village for groceries half an hour ago. There is no one else in the house."

"I certainly heard footsteps in the hall," Nella persisted. With characteristic Langdon stubbornness, she crossed to the door to prove herself right.

"What do you think of my new mistress?" He placed an affectionate hand on the host's tawny neck. "Because of her sheathed grace, I've christened her 'Maria.'"

Pat Langdon's eyes narrowed as she glanced toward him. He was speaking directly to Maria Hempfield. His voice held the old tender note. Maria, standing beneath the great ape, met Pat's gaze without show of emotion.

"Careful, Pat," Gundry warned. "That curved point is like a razor." He took the scalpel from her and rather than ask

Bruce Catton in Washington

BY BRUCE CATTON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Some extremely interesting maneuvering for position took place back-stage in connection with the defense program's announcement that army and navy contracts will not hereafter be negotiated with firms not living up to federal labor laws.

It goes back to the fact that De Witt Hiltman, the biggest defense contractor in the nation, has not only been a member of the defense program, but has also been a member of the Communist Party. He has been a member of the Communist Party for some time.

WHAT ABOUT BELTIEM? It began on the labor advisory committee which meets periodically with Hiltman to discuss defense labor troubles. The indirect connection is so thick you couldn't cut it with a knife.

At every meeting one or another of these would be sure to interject, "I'm going to do something about this Beltliem situation. If we don't do something to get these fellows out of here, they'll be back here before you know it."

Because of all this, stories kept coming out of Washington to the effect that Hiltman and his aides were "considering the Beltliem situation." Union leaders could call it a strike situation.

Here's News of South Idaho Soldiers at Training Camp

BY PVT. JOHN V. DIENER CAMP MURRAY, Wash., Oct. 11 (Special)—Well, fellows, the first batch of news about southern Idaho's soldiers. Your Magic Valley correspondent has been kept on the jump so much that this initial report has been somewhat delayed.

Here's Evening Times Camera Visit With County's Only Triplets

(Photos by O. A. Kelker—Times Engraving)

Awakening, Bright-Eyed and Curious

Kimberly's famous triplets—the only set in Twin Falls county—woke up this morning to find the Times cameraman right at the foot of their bed. But say, it was time for breakfast and so looking past the cameraman, they saw the table all set and ready for them. The triplets are (left to right) Josephine, Joyce and Juline Fuls. They'll be six years old Nov. 24.

No Privacy for Ladies These Days

My goodness, it's getting so a lady can't have any privacy anymore. The triplets "wash up" for breakfast. This picture might be called "six hands in a bowl." They are old enough now to do most of their own face washing and dressing. That's Juline on the left, Joyce in the center and Josephine on the right. This cleaning up is serious business, hence no smiles.

Now for Breakfast (And One Lady Goes Coy)

And now for a hearty breakfast—but they still can't shake that pesky Times cameraman. Juline (left) and Joyce in the center seem interested in what they are eating but Josephine "sneaks" a glance to see what the cameraman is doing. That big jar of jam on the table is some made up by Mrs. Martha Hagerman, the triplets' aunt, who is now eating for them. If you think that the three little girls don't like that jam, just try to take it away from them. The "kids" are full of fun, talk incessantly and miss very little of what's going on around them.

And so to Play

A promise of candy from the cameraman if they would pose on the ladder brought instant response, as shown above. Their favorite game is free climbing—then a jump to the ground. From top to bottom the triplets are Josephine, Joyce and Julina.

Grange Gleanings

By A. HARVESTER

KIMBERLY
Kimberly Grange held a Booster meeting Monday night, Sept. 30, with a large turnout of members and visitors. An address of welcome was delivered by Master Frank Beer, after which Mrs. Ewing of Pleasant Valley suggested that the members to the late Senator Borah be a tubercular hospital. Then the group sang "America" and the program proceeded as follows:

A violin solo by Mrs. Roy Durk accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Teague; vocal duet, Fred and Frank Beer, accompanied by Mrs. Don Wiseman; reading, Mrs. Teague; vocal solo, Elmo Farrer accompanied by Mrs. Farrer; talk, "The Work of the Grange," Erle Jones; piano solo, "Deep Purple," Mrs. Don Wiseman; vocal solo, "I'm Glad I Joined the Grange," Mrs. Wright of Pleasant Valley; reading, "Idaho," Mrs. Roy Harveland.

Refreshments were served by Kimberly Grange. The next meeting will be held at the Grange hall, Oct. 14.

NORTHVIEW
They got crowded up out at Northview account of the proposed meeting at the Bull hill school building for Gov. C. A. Bottolfsen. This meeting was to have been held last Friday night but was called off. Northview planned to attend in a body so postponed their own meeting, and found out that a change had been made too late to have a meeting so a few turned out. They planned to send a large delegation to the Bottolfsen meeting in Twin Falls tonight to witness the conferring of the fifth degree work.

FLIER
Flier held their Booster meeting last Friday night with a good turnout of members and visitors. More than 60 were present. As this was an open meeting, no business was transacted and the lecturer offered the following program:

A greeting, Clifton Dougherty; Grange history, Mrs. Chastain and Raymond Thomas; story singing, "Why I Belong to the Grange"; Flier Beer, piano solo, Mrs. Lee Dink; "Foundation of the Grange," Cliff Thomas; "Grange Facts," Eugene Thomas; reading, "Things Eugene Knows," Mrs. Raymond Thomas; "The Grange of the Future," Mrs. Stanley Walters; act, Mrs. Eugene Thomas and Carl Leonard; song, "Idaho," by the Grange; recitations of auditions, pie and coffee were served by the Flier ladies. See no mention of things accomplished by this live Grange, but they could have told of quite a few, as this is one of the most wide-awake and up-and-coming Granges in the state. When they start on a job of any kind, they usually put it over in good shape.

FAIRVIEW
Fairview met last Friday night with 40 members present and several visitors. It was 4-11 night at our house. During the business session, reports were read and after some discussion, pro and con, the annual carnival was arranged for the second meeting in this month, Oct. 18.

This is the night that the kiddies all look forward to with much joy, as they may make all the wishes they wish without anyone saying much about it, while at other times we like to have them quit enough so we can at least hear what we are saying. We have almost as many kids as West Point has, but I don't think they are as well trained.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kramer were chosen as alternate delegates to the state Grange session at Boise.

It is humbly suggested that the members of all Granges who want to visit club who belong to what their project was and what they won't in the competition at the Fairview this year. FARMER AT BUHL TAKES OWN LIFE

BUHL, Oct. 11 (Special)—Funeral services were being arranged here today for Harry Evans, 41, farmer who yesterday, according to investigating county officials, took his own life by inhaling carbon monoxide gas.

The body is at the Albertson funeral home where it rests pending the arrangements.

A group of eight Grange ladies had Evans had attached a hose to the end of the exhaust pipe of his pick-up truck and had then started the motor. He had apparently placed the other end of the hose in a five-gallon can which had one end cut out and which he placed over his head. Wet rags were stuffed around the open end to prevent escape of the gas.

A brother-in-law, Frank Chandler, discovered the machine with the engine running. He shut off the switch and heard a moan. Investigating he found Evans, who was not yet dead but who succumbed to a cerebral hemorrhage on arrival here.

Investigating the case were Deputy Sheriffs Roy Fuller and Claude Wilcox and County Coroner A. Newberry. They pronounced the death as self-caused. Scene of the death was at the garage of the Evans' farm home six and one-half miles south of Buhl. The man is survived by his wife.

Evans came to Idaho about a year ago. Prior to that time he had been an airplane pilot and mechanic at Altus, Ill., and had been severely injured in a plane crash.

Only Triplets in Twin Falls County, Now Nearly 6, May Go to Tennessee

By O. A. KELKER

Twin Falls county is just about due to lose one of its major attractions—the Fuls triplets of Kimberly.

The three little girls—Josephine, Joyce and Juline—will, in all probability, go to Tennessee to live before too many more months have passed. If everything turns out as planned at the present time, the girls will accompany their aunt, Mrs. Martha Hagerman, back to that southern state.

This fact was learned today during a conversation with Mrs. Hagerman and while the latest pictures of the triplets, which accompany this article, were being taken.

Mother Gone

The aunt pointed out that the mother of the triplets no longer resides at Kimberly. Mrs. Hagerman, who is the mother's sister, has been caring for the children since December and has almost reached the conclusion that she could better care for them if she took them to her Tennessee home.

"However," Mrs. Hagerman said, "many things may happen between now and then but at the present time our plans are being figured along that line."

The three little girls, all blonds, will celebrate their sixth birthday next month, Nov. 24 to be exact. Six years ago on that date they first saw the light of day at the Twin Falls county general hospital. Josephine was born first, Joyce came second and Juline followed. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Fuls.

Plenty to Do

What do those little girls do with their time? Well, this writer discovered that the triplets can find plenty to do. Like most girls their age they don't miss a thing that's said and are into everything.

Josephine probably the most talkative of the trio, answered promptly the question of "what do you like to play?"

"We like to swing and like to jump down from a tree limb and we can swing on it too," she said, all in one breath. Juline and Joyce both nodded approval.

Joyce and Josephine are always smiling but Juline is the most serious one of the three. She will laugh, though, if you say something funny or tickle her.

Juline is also the heaviest of the trio, weighing 45 pounds. Joyce tips the scales at 40½ pounds and Josephine comes in at 39½ pounds.

One of their treasures are three penny banks—one for each of them. Josephine is saving for a bicycle and Juline for a tricycle but Joyce wants nothing other than a doll and a buggy.

"I don't want an old truck," she emphatically said.

And so the triplets romp and play about the Fuls yard, not yet old enough to realize they are the only "tree of a kind" in the county.

But one thing worries two of them, namely Josephine and Juline. They are facing an operation. Both will have their tonsils removed in the near future. Joyce had her's out when an infant.

"Juline cried when the doctor said we'd have to have them out," Josephine explained, "but I didn't cry about it."

Juline nodded to indicate that what Josephine, the spokesman, had said was correct.

British Planes Bomb German Naval Bases

By SIDNEY J. WILLIAMS

LONDON, Oct. 11 (UPI)—British bombers bombed the great Wilhelmshaven and Kiel naval bases for two hours during the night and pilots saw big fires break out in the docks, the air ministry said today.

The attack on Wilhelmshaven and the Krupp shipyards at Kiel was carried out, the ministry said, during the night's aerial offensive against the French coast. German bases in Holland and Belgium, oil centers, airplane factories and airplane bases in Germany and airplanes in Pruzin and Bavaria.

In Berlin, the official DNB news agency admitted widespread British air strikes last night on Germany and German-held territory, including raids on Amsterdam, Cologne, Dusseldorf, Magdeburg, Leipzig and other points.

Mac Gets Lost; Decides He Must Be in South Bend for Grid Tilt

By HENRY McLEMORE
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 11 (AP)—Now just a moment, folks. Before I write another word let me get oriented.
I'm not in Lexington, the home of the thoroughbred, as you know I was yesterday. I couldn't be in Cincinnati, because the world seems to be over. And I'm not in Detroit, because I left there last Sunday.
Now wait a minute. Maybe I'm in Philadelphia. No, that's where I was a week ago Sunday to watch the New York Giants beat Davey O'Brien and his Philadelphia Eagles. And I sort of remember leaving Philadelphia to go to Pittsburgh for Coach Sutherland's debut as a pro coach in his old hometown.
Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Detroit, back to Lexington, and then Lexington. All in the space of a little more than a week, with a trip to Dayton in Gar Wood's airplane on the side. No wonder I'm a little confused. For a boy who was born two wheel grooves from a highway, and who didn't see a train until he was 10, I'm getting about too fast.

But hold on. I know where I am. I'm in South Bend, the home of the thoroughbred football player, to watch Notre Dame's Irish play Georgia Tech's Yellowjackets.
Tomorrow's game between the Irish and the boys from the cypress and red-eye gray belt figures to be one between power and cunning. Notre Dame has the power. It would have to have, what with Mill Peopl in the backfield. The big fellow from New England is a cut man. Panzer will once the whistle blows. Working with him he'll have such plunkin talent as Bob Saggau, Steve Baranus and Dippy Evans.
Tech has the cunning and the cuteness. Plenty of it. The attack Bill Alexander has worked out is super razzle dazle. Houdini with a hip-hip. No one would be surprised if Tech revealed a play that involved the saving of a woman in jail, the yanking of rabbits from the tailback's pocket, and changing water into wine.

But it is Tech that is equipped, that it will go into the game below full strength. Maybe it will. But I've learned from long experience to take football injuries with more salt than you could sprinkle on a peacock's tail. Ankle, heel, ligaments regain their composure, and vertebrae snap back into place nicely miraculously when a team comes up to a game it wants to win.
And Tech wants to win. Everybody says for Notre Dame. Beating the Irish is the most satisfactory thing a football team can do. And just about the hardest, too.

Nampans Drub Shoshone Team, 47-12

NAMPA, Oct. 11 (Special)—Nampa Bulldogs favored to capture the Big Six conference championship this year, showed the classy class of Blake Thomas and the franchise here yesterday as they romped over the Indians for a 47-12 victory.
The home club scored on the first nine plays of the game and from there on in the outcome was never in doubt.
The visitors used some tricky plays in the second quarter to crowd once with John Bettis taking a pass from McKinn. Then in the last of the fourth, against Bulldoze reserves, McKinn took a pass from Bettis to get the second score from the Nampa 30 yard line.
However, in between times the Bulldogs pushed the lighter Shoshone team over the field and succeeded in driving away the visitors, with the exception as the home boys pushed past the scrappy invaders.
The Shoshone team presented one of the finest back combinations ever seen in rodeo park with Bob McKinn and John Bettis handling the ball on both ends of the passing and receiving.
Jones, star bowler of the 1939-40 season, came into this week's drive with a 190—a drop of 11 points. Top man in the merchants' league was Gene Shirley with a 153 total—closely pressed by Jimmy Mullin with a 148 cut.

Rally Held to Aid Pep for Grid Contest Tonight

To build up spirit and to advertise the Twin Falls-Pocoletto football game which will be played tonight at Lincoln field, a pep rally was held last night by students of Twin Falls high school.
A parade preceded the rally led by Twin Falls high school pep band. Each unit of the girls' league and boys' club of the high school entered a decorated car in the parade. Several decorated cars were also entered in the parade by students.
The parade started at the high school and after going through town, ended up at Lincoln field, where hand music, yells and pep talks by coaches and players were given.

New York—couldn't get himself arrested.
Then someone told him that Alabama had a fine season.
Benicelli contacted Pacific Coast conference officials. "Alabama," he cried. "Why, the militia will stop it!"
But Alabama was the best they could do, and Alabama went 20-18. Since that eventful afternoon, eight other hand music, yells and pep talks by coaches and players were given.

The West and Pacific Coast conference are getting heads together. I hope they maintain their stance and continue to be dumb to make a deal.
As Major Nealand says: "Tenn-score would much rather play in the new Orange bowl being built in Miami. The Pacific coast had the main idea. But will miff it when it tries to hook up with one other conference or section."
TWIN FALLS CUBS WIN
Twin Falls Cubs yesterday punched over one touchdown to score a 6-0 victory over the Pler 'frosh-soph eleven on the Pler field.
